"Don't you guys keep buying me things, I'll get what I need and will go buy it myself." Rosa added.

Despite all these words, she has repeated them countless times.

However, the in-laws still did not listen.

Each time they have their own reasons.

Scott, "We like to buy you. Whatever we give you, you take it, don't refuse."

How could she not say anything when they were so generous right out of the gate?

"But, what you guys gave me is too expensive and too frequent." Rosa looked embarrassed, "Although I know that you two are being kind to me, I would feel embarrassed."

Scott, "That is okay, since you have married into our family, to us, you are our daughter, and as a daughter, it is only natural for you to take whatever your mother and father give you."

Rosa, "Yes, but buy less."

Just at this time Allie came out with a plate of fresh and tender carrion and said with a smile, "That's impossible, the daughter-in-law of our family just has to have lots and lots of good things."

"What other people's daughters-in-law have, our daughter-in-law must have, and what other people's daughters-in-law don't have, our daughter-in-law must have." said Allie, then sat beside Rosa, and then brought a cherry to her mouth and asked, "Is it delicious?"

Rosa immediately savoured it.

The sweet taste, spreading in her mouth, made her feel infinitely happy.

She immediately nodded, "Yes."

This is her favourite fruit.

It just so happens that she's been craving it for a while now.

Watching her eat with satisfaction and happiness, Allie felt happy.

Allie said with a smile, "It's good that you like it, come and have another one."

After saying that, Allie put another one into Rosa's mouth.

Rosa said with a smile, "I'll just do it myself."

Halfway through the meal, Allie took out her phone and shot a video of the sumptuous dinner, along with Ryan, Rosa, and Scott.

The video is only thirty seconds long.

The picture, however, is extremely beautiful.

The background, too, is warm and inviting.

After shooting the video, Allie then uploaded her tweet and accompanied it with a text, "Watching Rosa happy is my greatest happiness. It's been a long time since I came to cook for my Rosa. Today is a rare trip."

This tweet by Allie now has about 5 million followers.

As soon as she posted something, she immediately drew countless fans into a frenzy.

The following forwarding, likes and comments, in just a minute, broke five figures.

There was a heated discussion about it -

[What a good mother-in-law. I think you should just change your name, good mother-in-law, model mother-in-law.]

[I suggest you publish a book on how to spoil your daughter-in-law in a fancy way, so that other mothers-in-law can learn from it too!]

[What kind of perfect destiny is this for Rosa? Not only does she have a top-notch husband who dotes on her, she has a pair of in-laws who dote on her].

[There is a question I am tired of asking, this lady, do you have any other sons who are not married, and are you still short of daughters-in-law?]

[The life of the Mason family is really harmonious and warm. Jocelyn and Rosa are really lucky.]

[Once, I thought you would dislike Rosa's low birth, but I didn't expect that you didn't, and you even spoiled her as your own daughter.]

[Other people's mothers-in-law really never let me down.]

Looking at the compliments, the corners of Allie's mouth then naturally curved up slightly into a nice arc.

Allie then she commented, "Thanks for the appreciation. It's all what I should do."

As Allie replied, the tweet got hotter and hotter.

It has attracted a lot of attention from the netizens over time.

Chapter 1103 Close Neighbor

The person who called at this moment was none other than Rosa's mother.

There was nothing wrong with Rosa's mother.

Just gossiping with Rosa.

And between the lines, she reveals that she misses her daughter.

Between chats, Rosa realised that she really hadn't been home for too long.

She then promised her mother that next week, she would find time with Ryan to go back and see them.

Her mother agreed.

She kept talking to Rosa for a while before she hung up.

Seeing that Rosa hung up the phone, Allie immediately asked, "Ready to go home next week?"

Rosa nodded her head.

Allie, "Ryan, when the time comes, you arrange for a private jet and take Rosa there, got it?"

Ryan immediately nodded, "Okay."

Allie, "When are you guys leaving, let me know, I want to bring some things for Rosa's parents,"

Hearing this, Rosa immediately shook her head, "No need, I'll bring something for my parents."

Allie then said with a serious face, "What you bring is yours, what I give is what I give, that's not the same. You bring something back, the in-laws will only know that I always have them in my heart."

Rosa, "Even if you don't give something, they know it."

Now not only she even her parents are grateful to the Mason family.

Allie, "Okay, it's settled, Ryan, when the time comes, let me know."

Ryan immediately nodded again.

Seeing this, Scott added, "Ryan, you should bring more delicious food to their two elders when the time comes, give them what is expensive, and after you go back, stay with them for a while longer. hear me?"

Ryan nodded again in agreement.

Rosa was on the sidelines, maintaining her proper manners and poise.

She knew what Ryan was thinking.

At this point she was very moved and felt very embarrassed inside.

She had clearly instructed her mother not to talk nonsense.

But she won't listen.

This is a good thing, for Ryan, a big mess has been made.

Seeing this, Rosa's mother, on the other hand, smiled awkwardly towards the two of them and added, "I didn't expect that to be the case."

At this point in time, and with so many people present, both Rosa and Ryan didn't say much, they just smiled naturally.

At this very moment, the girls in the house, all surrounding Ryan, began to greet the two of them as they took their seats.

The atmosphere became even more awkward.

The two of them continued to maintain their proper manners, following everyone to the front of the sofa and sitting beside Rosa's father and mother.

The others then immediately gathered around.

People started taking pictures constantly, talking excitedly -

"Ryan, I've really liked you for a long time."

"Me too, me too, Ryan, you know, I liked you as soon as you started, I was making data for you every day."

"Me too. It's because of you that I learned to chart, vote, buy endorsements, that sort of thing."

The girls, one after the other, were scrambling and excited.

They really feel like they are going crazy when they look at the idol they have been thinking about day and night.

After walking up a few steps, Ryan let go of Rosa and then moved his long legs backwards to the woman.

In a moment, the woman went even crazier.

She stood still, covering her mouth and trembling, "Did you come back for me?"

Ryan smiled faintly and opened his mouth jokingly, "What else? Is there anyone else here?"

The woman immediately held her breath, "Is there something you need from me?"

Ryan said, "It's nothing special, I just want you to keep my whereabouts a secret, is that okay? In exchange, I'm willing to give you an autograph."

The woman instantly nodded frantically without thinking.

She wanted Ryan's signature in her dreams.

She had liked Ryan for many, many years.

"Okay. Sign on my back, I love you to death." The woman said and then turned around excitedly, and then asked carefully, "Do you have a pen? If you don't have one, I'll go back and get it for you."

Ryan said lightly, "I have."

He then neatly took an autograph pen out of his pocket and signed the woman's name on the back.

When the signing was over, Ryan put the pen tip back inside the cap, and then looked at the woman's back and said, "Well, I'll go first then, thanks. remember to keep it a secret."

Then Ryan walked away in style.

The woman looked at Ryan's back and burst into tears with emotion, "Thank you."

Ryan didn't say anything more, he just silently wrapped his arms around Rosa and went on his way.

When they left, the woman suddenly went even more crazy.

The woman took off her jacket and held it carefully in her arms, before looking carefully at Ryan's signature.

The next second, the woman was like caring for a rare treasure, carefully placing the signed face outside and clutching it tightly, muttering to herself, "Oh my god, Ryan's handwritten signature, what kind of first prize have I won?"

Rosa's father and Rosa's mother couldn't help but suck in a cold breath and sigh at the wealth of their family.

They were more distressed by the money.

They didn't expect it to cost that much.

Rosa smiled and opened her arms, wrapping her arms around the two of them with a happy face, "They had to give it to you, I couldn't stop them."

Rosa's father, "Rosa, this family is really good."

Rosa's mother, "Thank them."

Rosa nodded, feeling embarrassed even thinking about it, "Okay."

Rosa's mother smiled, gently stroking Rosa's hair, "My Rosa can live so well now, mom and dad are really happy."

Even in their dreams, they never thought that one day, their unattractive daughter would be able to marry the super-rich Mason family.

They never thought that one day their lives would intersect with this family, which only appears in legends.

Rosa's smile gradually thickened, "I am very happy, you two, in the future, just eat and drink well. I give you money, you feel free to spend, do not have to worry about me. I am in the Mason family, everything is good, just mind your own good."

Rosa's father and mother nodded.

Although they agreed on the surface, this was not what the couple had in mind.

Although Rosa is now living a good life, they still want to leave a way back for Rosa.

So, they wanted to save more money for her.

That way, if their daughter is unhappy in the future with the Mason family, she can still take a step back and return to them.

At that time they had saved enough money and their daughter could still glory and prosper for the rest of her life.

Even if it's not as good as the Mason family's life, at least it doesn't have to suffer.

The world of entertainment is full of beautiful women.
However, he likes Rosa and his eyes can only accommodate Rosa.
He was even willing to do everything for Rosa.
Hearing him say that in front of her parents, Rosa blushed more and more, "Don't say that."
Ryan obediently did not speak again, but only looked at her with a smile.
Inside those eyes was a depth of emotion that he never had in any of his films and dramas.
Being looked at by him like this, Rosa immediately wanted to give her whole heart to him.
Looking at Rosa's well-behaved and shy appearance, Ryan could not help but raise his hand again and gently stroked her hair.
Every time he did this to her hair, he always felt that Rosa was like a docile little cat.
He sometimes gets addicted to cats.
The two of them were so sweet and loving that Rosa's father and mother felt embarrassed.
The two were embarrassed but felt happy from the bottom of their hearts.
Not knowing what more to say, Rosa immediately got up and said, "You arm yourself and we'll go out to buy daily necessities."

Ryan immediately nodded, got up and took out the sunglasses, the mask, from his pocket and put them on.

He then took out two black hats from inside the backpack Rosa was carrying, and put one on Rosa's head and the other on his own head.

The same hats had the sweet smell of love.

Ryan pressed the brim of his hat down very, very low.

Covered by sunglasses and a mask, his face is no longer visible.

Only even so, he is still stunningly handsome.

The face of a supreme god is covered.

However, his perfect body and noble aura cannot be overshadowed.

In this moment, Rosa was once again touched by him.

Ryan carried Rosa in his arms and ran all the way down the lift.

Many of the people behind them, already fully recognising them, began to let loose screaming and chasing frantically.

"Don't go, Ryan, we love you."

"Ryan, we love you. Ryan, wait a minute."

"Ryan, Ryan."

The crowd on hand let out a guttural scream.

In this instant, those who were originally on the first floor, immediately noticed this time and began to join the crowd as they sped towards Ryan.

Such a scene has been experienced countless times by Ryan.

He was unperturbed.

Just continue to carry Rosa and run outside.

Staying in Ryan's embrace, Rosa could clearly see that the crowd in all directions, like a swarm of flies that had seen blood, were frantically swooping towards their position.

It looked like it was about to completely surround them both.

The sheer magnitude of the gesture was a shock.

Rosa immediately subconsciously hugged Ryan tightly again and said, "They will catch us soon, hurry up."

At this time, the man who had just entered in front of them, at the entrance, noticed the two of them as well.

They immediately ran frantically towards their position as well.

It's a good thing there weren't too many people.

After looking around for a moment, Ryan chose, instead, to break straight through the front.

Immediately afterwards, Rosa saw that the people on the second, third and fourth floors began to run downwards like mad.

The whole world was, as it were, like the zombies she had seen coming in the movies.

However, she had seen enough of such scenes to not make a fuss about it.

Chapter 1109 Speculation

At this time there was no one in the living room inside the home.

There was the sound of chopping meat from the kitchen.

Interspersed with the laughter of both Rosa's father and mother.

The warmth inside the home was unbearable, with the sounds of life filling the two of them.

Rosa put her things in the entrance hall with Ryan, and then she took the lead and went into the bathroom and washed her hands.

Immediately afterwards, the two went into the kitchen together.

At this time, Rosa's father and mother were busy in the kitchen.

Rosa's father is holding two knives and chopping the meat.

And Rosa's mother was chopping small onions on the side.

The two of them chatted while doing their business, looking cozy.

Beside them, the casserole in which the stew was being made, had been turned on and had been gurgling hot.

The fog is so thick.

Seeing the two of them come in, Rosa's mother immediately said with a smile, "Why did you come in? Hurry up and get out, the two of us are fine here."

Ryan, however, smiled and walked between Rosa's mother and father and asked, "Mom and dad, what is this about? Let me help."

He then made a gesture to take the kitchen knife from Rosa's father to help chop the meat.

Rosa's father, however, slightly side-stepped, shielding the knife in his hand, and then continued the action in his hand while saying, "Rosa and you both like to eat meat balls? We'll make it for you, with hand chopped meat filling, so it tastes better."

"Hand chopped meat filling, compared to the machine one, is different." Rosa's father added.

Opening Weibo, Rosa saw that Ryan and herself were in the hot seat again.
At this moment located in the first place of the hot search, #Ryan and Rosa in street#.

Clicking on the topic, she saw that there were many marketing numbers in it, posting a video of Ryan taking her on a wild ride through the streets of the mall just now.

Inside the video, a sea of people flew along.

Screams drowned out almost everything.

From the video, it looks like the crowd is even denser than it was at the scene.

Watching the video, she is still distraught.

She really shudders to think what would happen if she was really surrounded by that group of people.

There are many versions of the video inside.

But no matter the angle, it only captures the backs of two people, and the sides of their faces.

But even so, Ryan in the video still shines like a god descending from heaven.

This is a man who can shine even without refinement.

In the video, both his aura and his figure are tempting.

On each video, the marketing number is paired with the same text, she and Ryan present a few times present somewhere, causing the whole street to explode directly, everyone began to chase them like crazy.

There are countless people talking under every video -

[Can you let Ryan and Rosa shop in peace?]

[Ryan is taking his wife back to her mother's house, right? Can't you give them some peace? Do you have to come up and block them like this?]

[Rosa is pregnant, so if you run after her, what will happen if she falls down? If she loses the baby, can you be responsible?]
