Chapter 1141 Nice Wedding Dress

The person in the mirror looks like a princess stepping down from a fairy tale.

The stylist saw the scene and immediately couldn't help but give a thumbs up towards Jocelyn, "It's really beautiful."

Jocelyn smiled, "Thanks."

The stylist then took the white wedding dress on the bed, brought it to Jocelyn and said, "Let's change into this."

The silk white sheath wedding dress shimmers in the light with a regal sense of shine.

Jocelyn instantly changed into her wedding dress with the help of her stylist.

The top of the wedding dress was very slimming and set off her perfect upper body line to perfection.

The hem is large and just long enough to cover the feet.

She looks slender and sexy.

Excellent body proportions on display.

At this moment, Jocelyn is like a Disney princess on the run.

Looking at herself in the mirror, Jocelyn's mood got better and better.

In order to wear this wedding dress, she has been on a controlled diet every day for a while, fearing that she might gain weight or starve herself and that her wedding dress might not fit.

It has been a very hard time controlling herself, but there is no doubt that it has been well worth the effort.

Today is the most important day of her life.

It was natural for her to present her best.

In this way, no regrets remain.

"It's really stunning. Jocelyn, can I take a picture?" The stylist spoke excitedly.

She usually styles celebrities and top showbiz stars.

Over the years, she has seen as many beauties in the past.

But there has never been a person as beautiful and as breathtaking as Jocelyn.

Even if she does nothing, just standing there quietly, she is already a heavenly fairy.

Jocelyn nodded graciously.

Chapter 1142 The Absolutely Beautiful Wedding

After changing into her wedding dress, the stylist then draped a veil over Jocelyn.

The veil is topped, again, with eight carats of diamonds.

The outfit was so heavy that Jocelyn felt that she was struggling to put it on.

But as heavy as it was, it made her shine.

Once again, the stylist couldn't help but let out a gasp.

After changing into the wedding dress, the stylist then placed the mirror, in front of Jocelyn's eyes, and asked, "How is it?"

In the mirror, she is bejewelled and beautiful.

It is like a white rose in full bloom, noble and elegant.

Jocelyn nodded.

As long as it looks good, even if the clothes are heavy, she can still put up with it.

On this day, just look good.

Seeing that Jocelyn was very satisfied, the stylist carefully lowered her veil and then assisted her back to the passenger seat.

And Noah soon saw it, with Jocelyn's new look.

At this scene, Noah felt his soul shaking.

His woman is stunningly beautiful.

There is nothing in the world that looks better than her.

And at the same time, the photographers on the plane couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief.

The cameras in their hands were immediately and frantically aimed at Jocelyn again, filming constantly.

Looking at the Jocelyn in their own shots, they all couldn't help but wonder why this person, no matter how they were photographed, always looked good.

Even if it's just from the back of the head, it's beautiful.

They even feel that it is the most unfortunate thing for such a person not to develop in the entertainment industry.

People like this should come out more often for the benefit of everyone's eyeballs!

"Does it look good?" Jocelyn asked, looking at Noah.

Everyone was clapping with excitement and didn't even want to stop at all.
After the applause, the priest looked at the two of them with a smile on his face and said.
"I pronounce the two of you officially married, now please exchange tokens of love."
Noah then took out two ring boxes from his pocket, one handed it to Jocelyn, while the other was placed in his own hand.
Immediately afterwards, the two opened the ring box at the same time.
In Jocelyn's hand is a simple men's diamond ring, the diamond is only three carats, looking very low-key.

In his hand, Noah is holding a pigeon egg-sized, crown-shaped diamond ring for women, which is magnificent.

Soon, the two put rings on each other's finger.

The priest, "Groom, you may now embrace your bride."

When Noah heard this, he immediately reached out and lifted Jocelyn's veil, and then with one long arm, he naturally pulled Jocelyn into his arms and embraced her in a kiss.

Both of them had tears in the corners of their eyes in the glare of all eyes.

In this moment, her life with Noah became more complete.

There are no longer any shortcomings.

On the spot, the applause was thunderous.

On the side, Allie and the others could not help but shed tears.

The priest spoke again, "On this special day, our groom, Mr. Noah Mason, has a lot to say to his bride, Miss Jocelyn Murphy. Now, I would like to hand the microphone in my hand to Mr. Noah Mason."

"Mr. Mason, please."

With that, the priest handed the microphone he was holding to Noah.

Noah elegantly held the microphone and naturally held Jocelyn's hand with one hand, interlocking his fingers with Jocelyn.

At this moment, the whole world fell silent.

Everyone was waiting for Noah to speak up.

The same goes for Jocelyn.

Chapter 1144 Sophie's News

After a brief glance, Jocelyn exited Weibo.

At this moment, Jocelyn couldn't help but think of Sophie.

Some time ago, Sophie said that something was wrong with her body and that she needed to find a place to cultivate quietly for a while.

She contacts Sophie, who usually says a few brief words and then ends it.

Even when they got married, Sophie didn't say she'd come back to visit.

She was really worried about Sophie's situation.

She contacted Sophie before the wedding started.

But there is no contact at all.

Thinking of this, she instantly called Sophie again.

But on the other side of the phone, there was no answer.

Jocelyn then frowned deeply.

The good mood that was there has disappeared.

On the side, Noah saw the scene and immediately asked, "What's wrong?"

Jocelyn frowned deeply, "No, just thought of Sophie. Want to ask Sophie, what exactly is the situation now."

"I told Sophie about our wedding a long time ago, but Sophie didn't come back at all, and I always felt that it wasn't normal." Jocelyn added.

Noah frowned deeply.

In fact, he has been trying to be in touch with Sophie for the past two days.

But it is impossible to get in touch at all.

What's wrong with this girl?

"I took Sophie's pulse at the time and she was clearly in good condition, but she said she had a problem and said I didn't understand."

"Do you think the girl could have run into something and had to leave?"

The more Jocelyn spoke, the more nervous she felt.

Although it was not a long time with Sophie.

But Jocelyn is very fond of this girl.

She had always treated this girl as her own sister.

Because of the news from Sophie, Jocelyn was in a better mood.
She then got out of bed.
And then he lazily dragged Noah into the bathroom to take a shower.
After that, Noah got dressed and waited for Jocelyn.
Instead, Jocelyn took her time in the bathroom and changed into a white halter dress.
The climate here is much hotter than over in Z Country.
So a dress would be just right.
After that, Jocelyn stood in front of the sink and put on her make-up.
She just put on a layer of skin care.
After that it was casually, with a base of air cushion.
Her eyebrows are not painted but black, and her lips are painted but red.

In order to save time, she skipped the eyebrows and lipstick.

Her face looked clear and beautiful.

After casually blow-drying her black hair, Jocelyn walked straight out the door, hand in hand with Noah.

Outside, the stars are shining brightly.

Because where they are far from the city.

So the stars look many and bright.

Under the starry sky, Jocelyn and Noah walked with their fingers intertwined.

Because it is far from the city, it is particularly quiet at night.

Looking out over the whole world, people and cars are sparse.

Away from the hustle and bustle of the big city, coming to a place like this, Jocelyn felt that her heart, all of a sudden, became calm.

In this moment, she had a sense of relief that washed over her.

The road they are on is right next to the sea.

At a glance, she can still see the ocean in the distance with its vast waves.

Noah, "I invited him here myself."

Jocelyn, "Awesome, I love what this chef is making."

Noah gracefully put a piece of chopped beef into his mouth and asked, "Like it?"

With those words, Noah lowered his head again, cut a piece of beef and brought it to Jocelyn's mouth.

With a sweet smile on her face, Jocelyn ate her beef and said, "Yeah."

Noah, "That's easy, I'll have the chef work in our house later."

Jocelyn, "No. There are too many strangers in the house for me to get used to."

Noah, "Then forget it. I'll just learn more about cooking from this chef."

"I'll make it for you later." added Noah.

Jocelyn, "Okay, but I think that my husband is better than a Michelin chef."

She was not telling a lie.

Noah's cooking is indeed comparable to that of a Michelin chef.

And, probably because he's been doing it more, his cooking skills are much, much better than before.

Hearing this, Noah smiled with joy, "Really?"

There is no man who does not like to be complimented by his wife.

Even Noah is no exception.

Jocelyn, "Yeah, my husband is the best and doesn't need to learn from anyone."

Noah, "Even the best can't stop learning, otherwise how can I feed you fat?"

Hearing the word feed fat, Jocelyn couldn't help but frown, "I'm not going to get fat."

Noah smiled and once again sent a piece of beef into her mouth, "Fine, fine, then you won't get fat."

His eyes were full of doting.

No matter what time of day it was, he was always like that in the presence of Jocelyn.

Only in front of Jocelyn did Noah show such a gentle and doting side.

At this moment Jocelyn felt her heart instantly calm.

Looking at Allie and Scott, and then looking at Noah, her heart was full of emotion.

They both came out to play while she wanted to go home immediately because she missed her children capriciously.

Noah and Allie and several others in Scott, instead of feeling that she was being pretentious.

It had even travelled thousands of miles to bring two children to her.

Accompany her with her caprice.

It was a warmth that she will never forget.

At this moment, Jocelyn was moved to red eyes.

"Mom, Dad, thank you." Jocelyn had a smile on her lips and hot tears in her eyes.

With those words, Jocelyn took Madeline from Allie's arms and held her carefully in her arms.

And then she couldn't help but put her face on Madeline's face.

Immediately afterwards, she came up to Scott and lowered her head to gently kiss Lawrence's forehead.

The moment Lawrence was kissed, he opened his big dark eyes at once.

Those glittering eyes just looked at her in silence.

At this moment, Jocelyn could not wait to rub the two children in her arms into her own body.

Never be separated from them again.

Noah, on the other hand, smiled lightly and gently walked over to Jocelyn, carefully holding Lawrence in his arms.

At this time, Madeline in Jocelyn's arms soon opened her eyes as well.

Madeline instantly subconsciously grabbed the hand of Lawrence on one side.

And then he began to look at Jocelyn and smile.

The three of them, Scott, Allie and Noah, prepared a table for Jocelyn.

In addition to the three dishes she wanted, there were prawns in eggplant sauce, oysters in garlic sauce, steamed Australian dragon, and sea cucumber soup.

With a table of her favourite hard-boiled dishes, Jocelyn felt happy.

Unbeknownst to her, Jocelyn had eaten again.

The family had been playing outside for a whole week.

It was only when Jocelyn wanted to return home that they came together, on a private jet, and returned to Flento City.

When they returned to Flento City, the family continued to go about their own business.

Jocelyn and Noah are busy with life and work.

And Allie and Scott are busy with their two children.

Everyone is happy in their own way and lives happily ever after.

The weather unknowingly heats up and the people of Flento City changed from long sleeves and long trousers, to short sleeves and short trousers.

And the air conditioner was turned on cold in Jocelyn's office.

Although it's sweltering outside, inside the office, it's perpetually cool.

After taking care of some work, Jocelyn arrived at X Entertainment to start working on some of her own working documents at X Entertainment.

After approving the documents, Jocelyn started to inspect the practice of the trainees.

Apart from paying special attention to Denis, whom she was particularly keen on, Jocelyn watched a lot of new trainers.

Whichever one it is, Jocelyn is very happy with it.

In the afternoon, Jocelyn had another meeting at X Entertainment.

Some planning on the development paths of some of the company's best trainees right now.

The conference room is large and there are plenty of upper floors.

All of them are prominent figures in the entertainment industry.

But no matter who it was, they all looked respectful in front of Jocelyn.

Over the years, Jocelyn's ability to do the job has been evident to all.

Chapter 1149 Ask For A Lot

After replying to a few important emails one by one, all of Jocelyn's work was done.

She got up at once and glanced again at the time on her computer.

By now it was 7pm.

Behind them, outside the floor-to-ceiling windows, the lights are on.

Turning around and walking to the window, the view is of the city at night.

The image is mesmerising.

The immaculate glass reflects her appearance at this moment.

At this point she is covered in fatigue.

Feeling some soreness in her neck, she squeezed the back of her neck slightly.

After moving around, she instantly felt her neck was much easier.

After standing in place for a while watching the night scene, she grabbed her bag and her mobile phone and prepared to go out.

At this time the door to the office opened at once.

Noah walked in.

He is dressed in a white shirt and black suit trousers.

The white shirt is tied inside the waistband, revealing superior leg length.

The man's proportions, which are perfect, are all legs from the neck down.

Even though she had been looking at this man for countless days and nights, Jocelyn would still be stunned.

"Is it over?" Noah stepped forward and naturally took hold of her waist.

Jocelyn nodded, "Yeah, what brings you here? Didn't we agree to meet at home?"

Noah, "Wanted to see you, so here I am."

Jocelyn then smiled sweetly, "Let's have hot pot at home tonight, I told mum about it in the morning."

Noah nodded his head.

Jocelyn, "Then let's go to the supermarket to buy the ingredients, OK?"

Noah nodded again.

Rosa nodded Zoe, "Yes."

As she spoke, Rosa felt her abdomen begin to twitch wildly.

The strong contractions made Rosa's pain go to her bones.

On Rosa's face, a bead of sweat instantly rose.

Looking at Rosa's appearance, Ryan, Jocelyn and Allie's faces suddenly tensed up.

Ryan immediately clutched Rosa's hand tightly and said, "I'm getting a nurse to come over and check now."

After saying that, Ryan pressed the call button, "Nurse, come and take a look right away, my wife can't stand the pain anymore."

But Rosa did not say a word, only clutching Ryan's hand tightly, enduring the intense pain.

Such unfamiliar pain is countless times more painful than menstrual cramps.

She knew that childbirth was painful.

But it was not expected to hurt to this extent.

At this moment, she felt as if her abdomen was being repeatedly crushed by a giant truck.

The place where the child was conceived seemed to have been crushed alive.

Looking at Rosa's appearance, even Ryan, who is usually calm and collected, was panicked at this moment.

On the side, so did Allie and Jocelyn.

At this moment, Ryan felt his heart aching.

Soon the nurse came in.

Seeing this, the nurse immediately did examination on Rosa.

Ryan then asked, "How is it? Can you get the painless injection yet?"

The nurse, however, removed the disposable gloves and looked at Ryan and shook her head, "Not yet. Now the uterine opening is only just two fingers open."

"Painless needs to be on only when the uterus is open to three fingers," the nurse added, "that's the safest."

When he heard this, Ryan became even more panicked, "Two fingers are already like this, so if she has three fingers, what kind of pain will she be in? Couldn't you have done it earlier? As long as she can stop the pain, anything will do."

The nurse is a fan of Ryan.
