Chapter 1161 Our Day (3)

Allie, "This is Rosa's the favorite food, six of them are for Rosa, you are not allowed to have it."

Ryan, "I just wanted to carry it to Rosa, I didn't intend to eat it."

Hearing this, Allie only smiled with a satisfied face, "That's good, I was going to say, why are you so ignorant."

Ryan just smiled awkwardly before picking up a water-fried bun and placing it in front of Rosa.

Rosa was suddenly full of embarrassment, "But there is no need to do so, I just eat two, don't we all like to eat? We all eat together."

Scott, "It's okay, just eat, now you are the national treasure of our family."

Scott then pushed a whole plate of water-fried buns, all of them, in front of Rosa.

The more they did this, the more embarrassed Rosa became.

It was just a plate of ordinary buns, but still, she didn't want to eat them all by herself.

She then pushed the rest of the buns, into the middle of the table and said, "I want to eat something else today, so I'll just have a few of the water-fried buns, and everyone else will eat the rest."

"All this time, I'm tired of eating water-fried buns every day." Rosa added.

Allie, "Then okay, then I won't make water-fried buns tomorrow, how about I make you crystal shrimp dumplings? I remember this one is your favorite."

Rosa, "Okay, I'll eat anything as long as it's your doing."

Allie, "That's fine, tomorrow, I'll make you crystal shrimp dumplings, and then see, and then make you some other things, but I haven't thought of exactly what to do."

Rosa, "Thank you, mum."

Allie, "I'm willing to do things for you. By the way, I should prepare lunch later, what do you want for lunch, Rosa?"

Ryan, "Can I order? I'd like to eat your sweet and sour pork."

Allie did not give Ryan face in the slightest, "No, what you eat, just follow Rosa's taste."

[Ryan looked really weak and pathetic, hahaha, his family status is clear at a glance.]

[The family atmosphere in the Mason family is really my favourite.]

[The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these. What a wonderful man, it feels like Rosa doesn't have to do anything at home.]

[The name is Candy, right? This girl is really the girl I envy the most.]

[Who doesn't envy Candy? The super star is her dad, her grandfather, and uncle, aunt are so rich.]

Netizens say anything.

And all this, being inside the baby room, watching the baby-sitter feeding Candy, Ryan holding his phone saw it.

Looking at the netizens' comments, the corners of Rosa's mouth unconsciously curved up into a shallow arc.

She agreed with everything everyone said.

Originally, Ryan and the others were not allowed to look at her phone.

But, being very curious, she took a spill.

At last, she saw these.

Ryan then opened the hot list again and looked at it.

At this moment, there are many more hot searches about the family on the hot list.

Ryan then briefly browsed around, after which he locked the screen of his phone for the sake of Rosa's eyes.

He then naturally put his arm around Rosa's shoulder and said with a smile, "Well, as you can see, the show is still working well, and everyone's comments, too, are very good, can you feel at ease now?"

She staggered against Ryan's body and was escorted by him before she walked out of the hotel.

When the two walked out of the hotel, there were already many fans waiting at the entrance who had been informed of their trip.

The fans were very orderly.

The scene was crowded but not chaotic.

Everyone just stood neatly on either side of the exit, in row after row.

When they saw Ryan and Rosa coming out, the girls immediately shouted wildly -

[Ryan, Rosa, we love you, hope you more and more smooth.]

[Ryan take good care of your wife, is she drunk?]

[Start to get serious about your careers. We will always be there for you.]

The fans were heard in waves.

The various words and screams were so intermingled that the two of them couldn't quite hear them.

Although inaudible, the two bowed politely and deeply towards the group.

At this moment, all the fans were even more excited.

Everyone cheered even more.

Seeing that there were many people at the scene, Ryan did not dare to stay any longer, and then he carefully took Rosa's hand and led Rosa towards the location of the car park.

And Rosa had just taken two steps when she began to feel dizzy and light-headed.

When she was in there just now, she was only slightly drunk.

But when she came out into the wind, she immediately felt the alcohol coming on even more.

At this moment, there was even more dizziness in front of her eyes.

She instantly and subconsciously leaned against Ryan's body again.

Seeing this, Ryan then naturally picked Rosa up in a horizontal hug.

"Your fans really love you." Rosa added.

"I know." said Ryan.

At the mention of the fans, Ryan's gaze became extra tender.

"I think next time, we can hold a fan meeting and have the fans come over for free and we can all chat together. They are so supportive of you, you have to show something." Rosa said.

"Let's wait for the end of the year, then inside the super talk, randomly draw some fans over." Ryan added.

Rosa then nodded.

"They would be so happy if they knew." said Rosa.

"Yeah." Ryan smiled again.

Ryan then immediately sped up the car.

Notice the car speeding up, Rosa immediately stopped, "Slow down."

"I'm eager to go home to see Candy, I miss our little princess." Ryan said.

When he mentions Candy, Ryan's eyes are full of fatherly love.

This time he looked even more gentle.

Rosa smiled, and her gaze immediately became more Zoe, "Me too, but, let's slow down, there is no hurry in this moment. It is not safe to drive fast, for the sake of your princess, you should cherish life more."

Hearing this, Ryan immediately slowed down his car and said, "You're right, I'll listen to my wife."

Rosa immediately smiled contentedly.

During this period of time, she had seen all the good things that Ryan had done for Candy.

He would always miss Candy no matter what event he attended.

Not only would he be at the event, whenever he had time, he would take the initiative to make video calls to Allie, asking to video with Candy.

Even though that little girl still doesn't know anything, Ryan still shares a lot of things with Candy.

It was as if Candy could understand.

She was truly grateful for this man, for everything he had given to her and to her daughter.

Chapter 1165 Paige Gives Birth (1)

Looking at Candy's happy smile, at this moment Ryan's heart was full of satisfaction.

The happiest thing for him is not how many awards he receives on the podium, let alone how much money he has made.

If he comes home, he has a wife, a child, a warm house and his dearest ones.

He feels very lucky and happy.

To meet a Rosa in this life.

He vowed in his heart that he would give his whole heart and soul to be good to Rosa in this life.

Just at this time, Ryan's mobile phone vibrated.

Seeing that it was Paige's phone, Ryan immediately pressed the answer.

"Paige, what's wrong?" Ryan asked.

"This time at the Baika Film Festival, you starred in 'The Wind and the Shadow' which was nominated for Best Film, and you were nominated for Best Actor, Most Popular Actor, and Baika Film Award."

"They've invited you to the opening ceremony, and the awards ceremony, just the first of next month."

Paige said word for word.

Paige's tone was full of excitement.

Wind and Shadow, a literary film he made last year.

It was released at the end of last year.

Three billion at the box office.

He was a huge fan with that film.

He has no idea how much work he has put into this film.

Now hearing that he has been nominated, Ryan is very happy.

The Baika Film Festival is one of the four major film festivals in the country.

It was the lifelong goal of the circle.

He has already won the Baika Film Award twice before.

That's three times if he has it again.

Ryan is keen that such an achievement can be reached.

Chapter 1166 Paige Gives Birth (2)

When he walked into the ward, Abel felt as if he had just run back from a ghost's door.

The memory of what he had experienced earlier made him feel covered in a cold sweat.

The birth of a new baby is a very happy event, but he couldn't be happy about it.

He didn't even really look at the boy properly.

The whole gaze, all the time, remained on Paige's body.

On arrival at the ward, most of the nurses went to take care of the child.

Only a small group of nurses, together with Abel, settled Paige into bed.

Abel couldn't say a word the whole time.

Just mechanically sitting beside Paige, holding Paige's cold hand and looking at her miserable white as paper face.

Recalling what Paige had just endured, Abel truly felt his heart aching.

He thought he would never, in his life, get Paige pregnant again.

Such pain, they only have to experience this once, is enough.

Soon, the doctor administered an anti-inflammatory drip to Paige's other hand.

After the anti-inflammatory drip was administered, the doctor briefly explained some of the specifics of the current situation of Paige and the baby, as well as precautions, and left.

Abel didn't say much, but just stayed by Paige's side the whole time.

Didn't even bother to look at the boy.

The doctor has just said that the baby is normal.

Just stay in the incubator for a good while and watch.

So right now, it is Paige who needs his attention even more.

He couldn't let Paige wake up and not see him.

Chapter 1167 Paige Gives Birth (3)

Abel, however, still had a serious face, "What's wrong with you being an adult? Adults need to be taken care of too."

"What's wrong with a normal birth? Does having a normal birth mean you can just ignore it? I was there to see what you went through in there, how can I do that and not care about you?"

"There's a nurse watching him anyway, so I'll wait until you wake up, what's wrong?"

"How uncomfortable should you be if you wake up and can't see me?"

"When people are weak, they want to see their loved ones around them when they first open their eyes."

Abel continued to speak carefully.

Hearing these words from Abel, Paige once again felt her heart warm.

Thinking back to how Abel behaved just now inside the delivery room, and then looking at how Abel is behaving right now, Paige knew that in her life, she had married the right person.

This man really loved her.

She felt that as a woman, in her own life, to meet such a man, her life was really complete.

"You have a point there."

"No more arguing about that, now take me to see the baby. I have to see it." Paige continued to insist.

Abel went straight outside and pushed the wheelchair in.

And then he carefully carried Paige to the wheelchair, pushing Paige all the way to the child's location.

On the road, Abel pushed Paige while complaining in a low voice, "You are really disobedient."

"In this condition, you're not fit to toss and turn, you have to stay in bed, don't you know that? What if you hurt your body?"

Abel's voice, although not loud, was extraordinarily clear because the hospital corridor was empty at the moment.

Listening to Abel's complaints, the corners of Paige's mouth immediately unconsciously hooked up a helpless arc, "You are nagging like an old man."

Abel's mother rubbed her head in distress and said, "It seems to say that because Paige worked too hard during her pregnancy, it caused this."

After saying that, Abel's mother is frowning, "She said she would not work at pregnancy, but she could not resist."

"It is a good thing to work hard, but not when she was pregnant. Before, Abel did not tell me."

"That was a deliberate trick by him who was afraid we'd be worried."

The two said.

The mention of it made both men feel uncomfortable.

It was not because Abel had deceived them, but because their heart ached for Paige.

Originally, they both disliked Paige.

They had even been expecting her to separate from both Abel.

But then, as they spent more time together, they got to know more about Paige.

They are starting to realise that this girl is really nice.

This girl, capable, and pretty, is upwardly mobile and not vain.

She has never been with their son for anything from the Mccall family, much less to think about it.

Although she is a bit quick-tempered at times, she is very genuine.

And, it's good for them too.

"I must have a good talk with Paige today, she can't be so desperate in the future." Abel's father had a serious face.

Abel's mother nodded, "Let's go, let's not talk about that first, let's go to the hospital first."

The two then went to the kitchen themselves to load up some food suitable for Paige and Abel to eat together, as well as some fruit, and went straight out the door.

When the two arrived at the hospital, Paige was chatting with Abel.

Paige sat leaning on the bed with an apple in her hand, eating it with pleasure.

Paige was ready to get out of

Paige nodded cautiously, hands subconsciously crossed fingers, "Yes, blame me, I'm too confident in myself."

Abel's father, "Don't be like this in the future, work is important and your health is more important, even if you're not pregnant, you can't work too hard for work."

"Otherwise your body will be exhausted." added Abel's father.

Hearing this, Abel's mother immediately nodded her head, expressing her approval, "That's right. Our Mccall family has plenty of money, even if you do not work, we can still afford to support you."

"It's better not to make it so hard on yourself." Abel's mother said again.

Faced with the situation in front of her, Abel's mother could not help but sigh inwardly at this time.

She really didn't think that one day she would be able to have such a cordial relationship with Paige, whom she hated.

What's more, she didn't expect that she would care so much about Paige.

Now recalling those words she used to diss Paige, Abel's mother only felt that she had been ashamed.

Paige smiled, "Okay, but, I have my ideals, and X Entertainment is where I have poured my entire youth and all my passion."

"I wouldn't give up." Paige added.

Abel's mother nodded, "Understand, but in the future, put your body ahead of your work."

Paige nodded at once.

Express your agreement.

This time, she was really scared.

She will definitely be careful in the future.

No matter what, she does not joke with her health.

Soon, Abel's father turned the tables on Abel, who was next to him.

Abel's father clenched his fist and hit Abel hard on the shoulder, "You brat, didn't you lie to us before that Paige didn't work hard at all?"

At the sound of his words, Abel was instantly at a terrible loss.

The next second Abel helplessly lowered his head, rubbed the back of his head and said, "I was afraid that you guys would be worried."

"You knew we were worried, and you didn't advise? You even condone it?" His mother's face pulled straight down.

Chapter 1170 Little Angel Jacob

After the family chatted about this topic, the atmosphere in the ward, all of a sudden, became serious.
Although, they already have a programme in place.

However, the thought of having a child of that blood type in the family still makes them feel uneasy.

"Well, enough about that for now, what's the baby's name?" Abel's mother asked.

Abel's father, "I do have a good name in mind."

Abel and Paige immediately looked at Abel's father with interest.

The two had actually had the child's name ready for a long time.

But having heard Abel's father say this, they still wanted to hear his name.

If it sounds good, then naturally it would be better to use the name given by grandfather.

This makes more sense.

And Abel's father, too, is much happier.

Abel's father, "How about Jacob?"

Abel's mother, "Nice."

The name Jacob is preferred by both Paige and Abel.

At that, Paige immediately said, "Well, no problem, just this one, it sounds good."

Abel nodded, "I agree, but we don't want another child."

Abel's mother, "Why?"

Abel said truthfully, "Because I can't afford to let my wife suffer."

Paige was not resistant to the idea of having a second child.

But after the pain of this birth, she began to resist.

So originally, she had been thinking that she would make herself clear to Abel after a while.
