Chapter 211 The Stars Should Hang in the Sky

"Then it's settled, nowadays there are a lot of women who like male CP, if this is the case, it will definitely attract a large number of those women, by then the popularity of the two of them will be unstoppable, " Paige added.

"Well the matter of unbinding will be discussed later, for now you go and talk to Nicolas and Dorian about this first."

Jocelyn then hung up the phone, put on her light blue trench coat and went straight out the door.

Jocelyn went to the supermarket first and bought some groceries.

After that she was back to the house and five dishes were made.

After the food was all served, she subconsciously picked up her phone, intending to tweet him.

As soon as she sent the words "when will you be back for dinner", she immediately deleted them.

Since when, a fixed understanding has formed between them, no matter who arrives home first and cooks a meal, they will send a WeChat to ask the other one when they will be back to eat.

If the person says he was almost ready, he will wait until he comes back to eat.

Now, she knows that this habit needs to change on its own; he's already got a girlfriend and it's really not appropriate to send those kinds of tweets anymore.

After taking a deep breath and lightly stroking her stifled chest, she picked up her chopsticks and ate by herself.

It's clear that it's all her favourite food, but it's tasteless.

She forced herself to eat half a bowl of rice, after which she took her phone, went upstairs and took a shower, then hugged her laptop and sat on her bed to work.

It was 8:30.

After she had finished all her work, she turned off her computer, pinched her brow and subconsciously walked out onto the balcony and looked out towards the courtyard.

He hasn't come back yet.

Jocelyn quickly snapped back, "Nothing, just thinking that you women are quite blessed."

Noah looked deeply at her, "Well she is indeed blessed."

At those words, Jocelyn's heart stuttered and her face was stunned.

Just as quickly it came back to natural, "I'll wait for dinner in the dining room."

"Are you really okay?" Noah had a serious look on his face.

"No, I'm looking bad because I stayed up late working yesterday." Jocelyn turned around and went straight into the dining room.

He frowned suspiciously, not bothering to pursue the question, and carefully flipped the bacon in the pan with his chopsticks.

Sara's birthday banquet was held with exceptional pomp and circumstance.

Inside and outside the courtyard of the Murphy family, all were luxury cars.

The living room inside the home is decorated as a banquet hall.

The hall was beautifully decorated with colourful balloons, pure white roses, a towering champagne tower, a beautiful 18-tier white swan cake and a lively waltz.

The famous people of the city gathered together in groups, chatting and socialising, or dancing in pairs on the dance floor to the music.

The world is a big, bustling place.

Sara, dressed in a joyful burgundy silk cheongsam and wearing diamond jewellery worth over a million dollars, followed Allen in a glowing manner to toast and entertain.

At this moment, she was the most talked about presence.

Chapter 213 Sunny, the Internationally Renowned Jewellery Designer

By this time a large group of gorgeous women, all gathered around Bella, scrambled to look at her necklace and look at the pendant carefully.

Everyone was watching and complimenting.

"Gosh, it's so worthy of Sunny's work, the workmanship is really fine and the butterfly is just like the real thing."

"You're something else, to be able to buy something from Sunny. She is so mysterious that he only works with one brand a year and only launches one piece of jewellery, and each one is unique in the world."

"It's a dream for many women to be able to buy something unique in the world that she designed I try to buy it every year, but every year I can't."

They were so noisy that she couldn't hear what Ruby was saying over there.

So Jocelyn took the hand of the man beside her and walked aside, gently saying to that side, "Hello, Mrs. Smith, it's a birthday party, it's especially noisy just now what you said, I didn't hear you."

"Oh, I'm just asking you to put it on speakerphone, I want to talk to Bella." Ruby said over there.

Jocelyn was full of questions, but did not say anything, directly turned on the speakerphone, and then walked through the crowd to Bella, put the phone close to her mouth, "The vice president's wife is looking for you"

Noah stood quietly where he was, not following her, his gaze landing on Jocelyn, the corners of his mouth curving up in a seemingly unsettling arc.

Quickly, he turned around, walked over to the nearby sofa area and sat down.

Even if he does nothing but sit quietly like this, he still attracts the attention of countless women.

When Bella heard this, she was instantly confused, and immediately cleared her throat and said carefully, "Hello"

Many people also immediately went quiet when they heard it was the Vice President's wife on the phone.

"I heard that Jocelyn is wearing a fake version of my Blue Love is that right?" Ruby's voice came out of the phone.

"Could it be that false?" Bella was still out of her depth.

Jocelyn couldn't believe her ears for a moment, and all sorts of doubts followed in her mind.

"Still nothing for now, please give me some more time" A man's voice, over there, filled his ears.

"How come you still can't find out? Are you a loser?" Gloria's face was displeased and her mood fell from a high to a low point.

"Miss Murphy, could there be nothing wrong with your sister's husband at all? Otherwise how could it have been impossible to find out anything?" That side cautiously said.

"No way, keep checking, my senses don't lie to me, and if you haven't found out yet, why are you calling me?" Gloria chided coldly.

"Called to tell you that it's two days past time to pay me this month."

"Got it! I'll give you another month, and if you don't find out anything, you're out." Gloria gritted her teeth before hanging up the phone straight away.

Downstairs, more and more wives and young ladies are coming around Jocelyn, constantly talking to her about the Vice-President's wife.

With so many people to deal with all at once, Jocelyn felt a headache.

Noah, on the other hand, silently retreated to his original position, folded his long and slender legs and sat on the sofa quietly looking at his phone.

Allen stood beside Jocelyn, looking at his daughter with a smile on his face and his eyes full of laughter.

Sara, on the other hand, was getting more and more upset.

Today is obviously her birthday party, but what has it become now? Those who don't know will think that the host of this birthday party today is Jocelyn.

Due to her previous lessons, she did not dare to show anything on the surface, but could only pretend to be kind and look at everyone, smiling, "It is dinner time, why don't you all follow me to the back of the other courtyard to dine?"

Only then did the crowd turn their attention to Sara, smiling and nodding.

Seeing this, Sara immediately held her head high and walked confidently towards the others, informing them to go and dine in the back of the other courtyard.

Feeling her handbag vibrating, Jocelyn quickly picked up her mobile phone and seeing that it was Paige's number, she walked to the floor-to-ceiling window and pressed the answer button.

At this time, Camille's call came in again, diverting Noah's attention.

Noah pressed answer again, "What is it again?"

"Nothing, just wanted to ask you, do you play games?"

"No." He refused outright.

Noah then hung up the phone, got up and went out the door.

At the same time, on the other side, the Murphy family.

Having calmed her anger, Gloria was sitting cross-legged on his bed playing with his phone.

Just then Joseph's phone call came in.

When he saw the call, Gloria's hand shook hard.

These days, Joseph didn't call her much, and every time, he talked about divorce.

Despite her refusal each time, he was resolute.

Gloria, as usual, simply pressed hang up.

She definitely did not want to divorce Joseph, she had already lost too much for herself now, there was no way she could let herself lose Joseph again.

Although Joseph is no longer in his former position, she believes that in time he will be able to return to the top of glory.

Such a rich golden husband, she absolutely would not give him to other women. When Joseph returns to the top, the person standing by his side must be her, Gloria.

At this time, Joseph sent a WeChat, "Come out and talk I'm at your doorstep, don't worry it's not a divorce."

"Joseph, you're so fucking mean!" Gloria gritted his teeth.
"Yeah, I'm so mean, hurry up and get a divorce, what were you thinking if you didn't hurry up and kick me out and take the breakup money I compensated you with? You're so low!" Joseph raised his voice and gazed at her face as if he was looking at an enemy.
He is really sick of this woman, he must get a divorce!
His words irritated the nerves of her senses, and her eyes in tears.
She felt her heart, as if it had been viciously torn in half by his hand.
"Joseph, you're outrageous." Gloria clenched the divorce agreement again, the snow-white paper crumpled by her.

"If you don't want me to go outrageous, you'll have to sign." He had put up with her for so long, talked to her nicely for so long, but she refused to sign, so how could he not use some extraordinary means?

"I'm depressed major depression, you want to spur me on to death?"

"Isn't it just a shitty depression? What's the big deal? Besides, I'm already divorcing you, what do I care if you die?" Joseph snorted coldly, "Even if you die, you still deserve it, you got what was coming to you."

"You are so thin-skinned, " Gloria threw in the words.

"I'm thin-skinned, and it's not just for a day or two. Back when I betrayed Jocelyn for you, you should have known how thin-skinned I am, and since you had the guts to seduce such a thin-skinned man like me, you will have to suffer the evil consequences of it all."

Joseph's words were still cold, and his eyes were like cold, sharp swords, as if they could penetrate the heart without mercy.

He was so harsh that Gloria was, for a moment, helpless to retort.

"Are you aggravated? I've thought about it carefully, Gloria, maybe this is your retribution, you treated Jocelyn badly at first, so now you're getting your retribution." After saying that, Joseph laughed coldly.

Gloria clenched her fists so tightly that her nails sank into her flesh without realizing it!

She was really pissed off at Joseph!

Chapter 217 My name is Billy Smith

Soon a tall, thin man dressed in a long black trench coat, white shirt and black trousers walked in.

Beneath a head of short, sharp hair are rather handsome features, with tender skin and a noble air.

Jocelyn had heard it said before that the Vice President's only son was quite good looking, and when she saw him today, it was true.

After his gaze lingered on Jocelyn's face for a second, he walked over to her and Ruby with a smile on his face, tucking his hands in the pockets of his trench coat as he looked at Ruby and said, "Mom, who is this pretty young lady?"

When he smiles, his face is special with a pair of delicate dimples.

With those words, he looked at Jocelyn with a smile.

"Jocelyn the eldest daughter of the Murphy Group." Ruby took Jocelyn's hand and introduced her,
"Jocelyn is a year older than you."

"Hello, Jocelyn, my name is Billy Smith, you can call me Billy." He politely extended his hand towards her, still smiling.

"Hello, Billy." Jocelyn shook his hand politely, behaving graciously.

"Jocelyn, I'm going up first, see you in a while." He added.

"Okay", said Jocelyn.

He then gave Jocelyn a deep look before walking upstairs on his long legs.

"Come on, Jocelyn let's go, let's go and sit over there." With those words, Ruby proceeded to hold Jocelyn and enthusiastically lead her, sitting on the sofa.

"Ruby, I really thank you for helping me out today." Jocelyn said as she gently shook Ruby's hand.

"You are welcome." Ruby had a cloudy look on her face.

On the screen of the mobile phone, a text message from an unknown number was displayed, "Jocelyn, Jocelyn didn't even have to think about it to know who this text message was from.

This kind of brain-dead thing can't be done by anyone other than Bella, the one with big breasts and no brain.

When Ruby saw the content of the text message, her face instantly sank, "Who is this? How outrageous."

"I think it's Bella, I guess she was scolded by her parents for what happened at the party, so she took it out on me." Jocelyn laughed bitterly.

"This girl is too arrogant, isn't she? Jocelyn, I must help you teach her a good lesson this time." Ruby said in a decisive manner.

"This is a small matter, so I don't need to bother you with it." Jocelyn lightly patted Ruby's hand, "Don't worry, I have a solution."

Ruby nodded reluctantly, "Alright then."

"Hello Vice President"

There was another commotion at the door, with the voices of the servants greeting each other.

Jocelyn instantly followed the sound.

Without waiting for the person to come out, she already felt a deep sense of nameless oppression.

Soon, a figure she usually only saw on TV came through the entrance, a man who was middle-aged but dignified.

The black suit with the white shirt and black tie looks imposing and unapproachable at first glance.

Even every crease etched into his face by the years is special.

He gave Jocelyn a faint glance before looking at Ruby with a smile on his face, watching her all the way up to the two of them.

What? Texting and swearing isn't enough.

And now she had found their way straight to her doorstep?

Her good mood vanished in an instant, and her pretty eyebrows furrowed slightly, the softness in her face disappearing in an instant.

Jocelyn accelerated the car and the red Maserati whistled all the way to the pink Lamborghini.

Soon after, Bella stepped down from inside the Lamborghini.

She was wearing a flamboyant red navel-less bodysuit suit and looked like a proud black swan.

She walked straight up to the Maserati and slapped the Maserati's bonnet fiercely, "Jocelyn, get your ass down here!"

Jocelyn frowned again and got out of the car straight away to meet Bella.

Bella immediately raised her hand, ready to slap at Jocelyn's face.

Before the slap fell, Jocelyn sensitively dodged and then fiercely clutched her wrist, coldly warning, "Bella, you don't want to go too far."

"I'm too far? Who's going too far? Because of you, I suffered a lot at the party today, and came home to be frantically reprimanded by my father." Bella raised her voice, the veins on her neck rippled, and her eyes were full of anger.

Jocelyn couldn't help but sneer, "Isn't it because you caused it by yourself?"

"I'm dealing with you because you're obnoxious. Would I bother if you were a little more likable?" Bella perked up, with an air of righteousness.

Looking at her like this, those anger in Jocelyn's heart that had started to build up at Sara's birthday party were easily ignited.

She really didn't understand how there could be such a psychotic person in this world.

Chapter 220 Mockery, Abuse

Why does everything seem to be calculated?

The Butterfly Dance necklace had an owner soon after it was first introduced, but no one in the world even knows who its owner really is.

She really liked the necklace so much that she had someone help her get a replica.

Originally she thought that no one would know who owned it anyway, so she wore it to Sara's birthday party to show it off.

But she didn't expect this to happen!

She had previously blurted out at the party that she couldn't possibly wear a replica, and had even laughed at people when she thought Jocelyn was wearing one.

The people who witnessed this at the party should be laughing their asses off at her right now, right?

If she'd known that was the case, she wouldn't have worn it!

Could this all be the work of that Jocelyn? Why else would it be such a coincidence?

But then she thought about it was impossible, how could Jocelyn know any Diana? And how could she have known that Diana had this necklace?

But again, she felt it all made a bit of sense if it hadn't been designed by Jocelyn.

Some of these are just too coincidental.

As exaggerated as it was, she still felt that it was all a conspiracy by Jocelyn!

Taking a deep breath, she went on her Weibo.

She knows there must be a lot of people calling her out on Weibo right now.

As expected, her Weibo feed suggested that there were 9999+

When she clicked in, she saw all sorts of abusive comments mocking her -
