Chapter 311 Envy

Immediately afterwards, they bowed their heads together with a guilty look on their faces.

"I'm sorry, everyone. We just didn't know your identities, we thought you were stalking fans, sorry." The blonde girl said in a low voice, not daring to look at Ryan's eyes next to her at all.

"It's okay, you're all doing this because you love him, I understand." Jocelyn said.

"There is one thing I particularly don't understand though, is there a stalking fan as old as me?" Allie said with a smirk.

"Old? You look like you're only in your thirties, don't you? There are plenty of stalking fans in Ryan's age range. I really don't dare to associate you with Ryan's mother." The more the blonde girl said, the more embarrassed she felt.

This comment made Allie even happier, and she subconsciously touched her face, satisfied, "What a sweet mouth."

"We'll leave you to it then, see you later." the blonde girl led the group with a wave towards them and ran straight out.

"Come on, I'll take you guys backstage, but where's my dad?" Ryan subconsciously looked around for a second.

At this time, Scott happened to walk over.

He took them straight backstage.

The group of fans, led by the blonde girl, were collectively starved of oxygen as soon as they left the house.

They froze straight into the night air and kept breathing heavily.

After a while, they started to look at each other and then the next second they were excited.

"We just got so close to Ryan, that's the closest I've ever been to him!!!"

"Ryan's mother and sister are so beautiful!!! I can't believe that Jocelyn knows his mother and sister so well. I'm so jealous!!!"

"I think Jocelyn is really nice, not bad for someone who can be treated as a friend by Ryan, she actually didn't even get angry when we were like that just now."

"Yeah, I think Miss Jocelyn is really lucky, everything about her makes me jealous."

Chapter 312 Adding a gang

As soon as the words were out of her mouth, he reached out with his long arms and pulled her onto his lap, looking at the group of blonde executives and said, "Go on."

The men and women on the other end of the screen looked at each other for a long time before everything got back on track with difficulty.

Half an hour later, the meeting ended, Noah closed his laptop and casually set it aside, rising with her in his arms, asking, "What took you so long to get back?"

Jocelyn hooked her hands naturally around his neck, "I'm going for a dinner with Mum and Dad after it's over, let me ask you a question."

"Yeah?"

"Did you have some of the comments on Weibo deleted by someone?"

"Yes."

"There's no need for that, is there?"

"Well, it's not nice to see that." Noah said.

"Cheapskate." Jocelyn couldn't help but give him a blank look.

"You're only the best match for me." His tone was domineering with a touch of gentleness.

With that he kissed her on the lips.

The two just kissed each other as they made their way upstairs.

At the same time, in the psychiatric ward of the First People's Hospital, Gloria was sitting leaning on her bed and scrolling Weibo.

Seeing the buzz on Weibo about Jocelyn and Ryan, she was pissed off again.

Jocelyn is getting really close to her idol now, even taking his family to a concert!

How many things she had dreamed of, but they were all within Jocelyn's reach?

And why, while she lives her life in the depths of the world every day, Jocelyn shines brightly every day?

The more she thought about it, the harder it got, and finally she just smashed the phone to pieces.

Just then the door of the ward opened.

Joseph walked in with a sullen face, carrying two large bags of clothes.

Chapter 313 Alexander Joins the Fatelocking Gang

In the luxurious study room with bright lights, Abel's lips were slightly hooked, he was looking at the screen [Excelsior invites you to join Fatelocking Gang, agree or disagree?]

He clicked his agreement straight away.

As soon as Alexander entered the gang, the gang immediately got excited.

[Gang Leader] Windy: Welcome, Paige is really the most awesome woman in the whole district.

[Vice Gang Leader] Ting Dangdang: Welcome, Paige is awesome, actually managed to abduct this person who never joined the gang into our gang.

At the same time, the members of the Fatelocking Gang directly began to send out world speakers, welcoming the Alexander to the gang.

The whole world was completely abuzz and the chat instantly became even more lively.

[Little Fox Yoyo]: What's going on? The person who hasn't joined the gang in actually got into the gang?

[Goblin]: What the hell do you know? Don't you who's in that gang? Excelsior! It's well known that they're on good terms.

[7-7-8-8]: When will Excelsior and Alexander get married?

Watching these words on the world speakers, Paige unconsciously blushed.

It Alexander who spoke up, "They all say we have an unusual relationship, you have to be responsible for me now."

Excelsior, "Why should I be responsible for you?"

Alexander, "Now that the women think I like you, no one dares to approach me, don't you think you're responsible?"

Excelsior, "....."

Alexander, "So let's get married."

Paige hesitated for a moment before replying, "Okay."

She liked him, so she agreed.

Alexander, "I will give you the grandest wedding ever."

Excelsior, "Just make it simple."

Alexander, "No."

Chapter 314 Let Me Go

Soon a familiar and grim face came into view.
It was just as she had expected, the person who had gotten her here was her.
Ada.
At the moment, she is walking at the front of the line.

Dressed in a tight black dress with a black suit draped over her shoulders and wearing exquisite heavy make-up, she looked like a female big shot from a TV show.

They were followed by a large group of black men with the same blonde hair and blue eyes as her.

Each of them wore an intense murderous look on their faces.

The moment Ada saw her, the murderous look on her face intensified.

Jocelyn struggled subconsciously, but to no avail.

Because of the force of the struggle, those ropes strangled the flesh all over her body with a stinging pain.

Ada quickly arrived in front of Jocelyn and raised her hand and slapped her hard across the face.

The burning pain spread across her face, making Jocelyn's heart, once again, deepen its hatred for her.

"Ada, let go of me now if you don't want the Sky Hotel to be completely ruined." Jocelyn warned in a cold voice.

Ada immediately laughed out loud, "Haha, let the Sky Hotel be completely ruined, just you have the ability to do that? Don't you like to be exposed? I will do one more thing to you, hope you can also expose out together, today I not only will not let go of you, I also want to let you have bad luck."

As soon as the words were out of her mouth, Ada gave a quick wink towards the people in black.

They nodded respectfully at once and came directly to Jocelyn's side.

One of them took out a syringe full of a light blue liquid.

She immediately understood what Ada was going to do, the consequences if these things did hit her body would be unthinkable.

Jocelyn began to struggle desperately, her heart filled with fear, "Ada, I'm warning you, let go of me now."

Ada, however, laughed, "Hahaha, are you worthy to warn me? You lowly woman from Z Country."

These words were like a fire that ignited the dynamite pack in Jocelyn's heart.

Chapter 315 I will avenge you

"Iris ..... you're so like her." He chanted in a low voice, frowning.

In all his years, he had seen millions of people, but never, ever, had he seen anyone who resembled Iris like that.

The resemblance between them is as high as eighty percent.

This name made sure of her suspicions.

The words that filled her ears made her more and more sure of her suspicions, and she even felt that this Iris should be a woman he used to love very, very much, and for some reason he had lost her.

And she just happened to look like that woman a lot.

Jocelyn's heart instantly lit up with endless hope.

She took a deep breath and continued to desperately press her desire, pleading again, "Can you spare me for the sake of, I have a similar face to her? I will repay you."

"What makes you think that I'll let you off the hook because you look like her?" He looked earnestly at her face.

"Because of the look in your eyes, and the tone of your voice." Jocelyn took a deep breath and spoke carefully, her eyes intensely probing.

"Okay, I'll let you off," he responded without thinking.

He then took a small white pill from the drawer and brought it to her lips.

Jocelyn did not open her mouth, fearing that it would be harmful to her, and her teeth closed tightly.

"It's the antidote. If you don't eat it, do you think I'll be able to hold it when the medicine really kicks in on you later?" He added, "I'm going to count to three, and if you don't eat it, I'm really going to do it to you."

Jocelyn opened her mouth at once, and dutifully took the medicine.

The crisp, minty aroma spreads through the mouth and in the mouth, there is a little more sweetness.

Small pills dissolve in the mouth.

Soon she regained her breath and the cravings all over her body disappeared instantly.

Impossible.

It's only been less than ten minutes.

And if Jocelyn had really been raped, then she would not be so calm now.

So what's going on here?

Could it be that Mr. Carter hadn't touched Jocelyn at all, and not only that he had given her the antidote?

As incredible as this all sounds, it does seem to be the case.

Was it this Jocelyn who knew Mr. Carter from before?

Her pupils dilated sharply, "What's going on here?"

However, no sooner had she said that than the man in black behind her kicked her hard in the butt ..

In the next second, her body flew out and crashed directly beneath Jocelyn's feet.

The pain was so intense that Ada's mind went blank.

She looked at Jocelyn and Mr. Carter in horror, as if she had seen a ghost, "Mr. Carter, I was kind enough to serve you a beautiful woman, why are you doing this to me?"

"And you Jocelyn, what the hell have you been putting Mr. Carter through?" Ada added.

What's all this strange drama? Things are clearly not supposed to be like this.

"Is that Jocelyn for you to call? Slap her!" Lois' tone was unhurried, but his aura was full.

Soon the middle-aged bald man raised his hand and slapped Ada hard across the face.

Ada was even more confused by the blow and her ears kept buzzing.

It shouldn't be like this.

The plot really shouldn't be like this!

"Mr. Carter. what the hell is going on? Please spare me." Ada's face was full of horror.

Soon in came one of his men.

"Take the ship back to Flento City." He said.

The man immediately nodded respectfully, "Yes!"

And then he walked straight out the door.

The door closed again and Lois' gaze shifted once more to Jocelyn's face.

He lit another cigarette and took a big puff, his eyes gradually turning red.

To avoid tears, he let out a long breath and struggled to turn his face to the side.

This scene brought mixed feelings to Jocelyn's heart as she watched.

It had been a long time before he turned back and looked at her face again, his eyes still red underneath, "Jocelyn, could you light a cigarette for me?"

Jocelyn knew that he would ask for this, it must be because that Iris often lit his cigarettes for him.

The matter of lighting a cigarette is supposed to have some special significance between them.

Jocelyn nodded and touched the lighter on the bedside table.

He silently extinguished the cigarette in his hand with his bare hands, and then took a brand new one and handed it to Jocelyn.

Jocelyn took the cigarette and brought it to his lips.

He opened his mouth slowly and held the butt of the cigarette in his mouth before handing her the lighter.

Jocelyn lit the lighter and moved closer to the cigarette.

He ducked his head close to the flame and took a deep puff as the cigarette was easily lit.

Jocelyn put out the lighter.

He took several deep puffs, and through the lingering smoke, his eyes grew red, "Are you the only child in your family, Jocelyn? Are you sure you don't have a sister left behind?"

Jocelyn responded truthfully, "I have a half sister, and I definitely don't have a sister left behind."

"Well, he's the founder of the underworld in Y Country, has broken half of Y Country's criminal law, and will do anything to get what he wants." Noah said.

This answer didn't surprise Jocelyn, she had guessed that this should be the case.

No wonder he can be so arrogant.

With those words, he carried her to the helicopter.

One by one, the others followed.

Tom was in charge of flying the aircraft and once seated, he then pulled the elevator stick and steered the helicopter slowly upwards.

"How did you get him to let you go?" Noah asked.

Jocelyn immediately recounted everything to Noah in detail.

After listening patiently to everything, Noah said, "I never thought he would have such a side."

"Yes, I'm lucky, otherwise ....."

Her words made his scalp tingle as he listened.

He instantly reached out with his long arms and took her into his arms, "I'm sorry, I didn't protect you."

The warmth of the embrace made Jocelyn feel so relieved that all the fatigue of the night was lost in this moment.

At this moment, she had a feeling of being reborn after a robbery.

She could feel how scared this man was, how guilty he was, and she could understand all his thoughts.

"It's not your fault." Jocelyn shook her head.

But he increased the strength of his arms around her, and there were many things he did not even dare to think about.

"Seriously, you came fast enough, when did you notice that something was wrong with me?" Jocelyn also hugged him tightly and asked in a soft voice.

Chapter 319 A Messy Forum

In Paige's house, she was sitting in her study watching the forum of Hero World.

The forum was all about her upcoming wedding to Alexander.

Some are blessing and some are jealous.

There was even a lot of smearing of Alexander in it too.

Countless low ranking accounts said that Alexander, a person who in reality actually went bankrupt in his company, is now living a particularly miserable life.

The reason is that Alexander hasn't had spent money lately.

A lot of people believe news that is false at first glance.

Below every such post, there are many sympathetic voices for her.

[I thought to be able to be with a wealthy man online and met in reality is a story about Prince Charming and Cinderella, but I didn't expect that the dream had been shattered before I started.]

[Seriously, Alexander really hasn't had spent much money lately, he used to be the main one who had to spend money in the game like crazy every day. This news is very credible, I am sympathy for Excelsior].

[She had hooked up with Alexander for so long, she should have been running after his money, right? Now that this person is suddenly out of money, won't she be sad? So sympathetic to her, hahaha, it's so hard.]

The pandemonium of the forum has depressed Paige.

Closing the forum, she returned her eyes to the game.

In the game, she and Alexander had just reached the moon God.

Alexander was getting married and there was a huge crowd, with players from almost the entire district coming.

The nearby chat section was in hot discussion.

[Congratulations to Alexander, am I envy Excelsior].

[What to envy? I heard that Alexander is broke in reality and probably can't afford money in the future.]

[Alexander, is it true that your family is bankrupt? Do you still have the heart to pick up girls in the game?]

[Congratulations to Alexander and Excelsior, I don't believe he is broke].

A message nearby made Paige more depressed, but she completely ignored it.

Just then, a message popped up in her computer screen, "Alexander sent you an email."

Chapter 320 I want to end our relationship

Her heart is full of happiness as she looks at the marriage screen in the game.

There are some things that are really impossible to say.

Before she came to play this game, she originally had a casual mindset and did not think about online dating or getting married.

But unknowingly, her original insistence, and her ideas, all fell apart.

The in-game wedding motorcade, after driving around the city, drove straight to the teleportation gate of the wedding house.

The convoy is automatically teleported in.

Other players are simply blocked out by the system.

Inside, it is a luxurious palace-like place.

Exactly the same as the wedding room in reality.

On the screen, another prompt popped up, "Alexander invites you to spend your wedding night together, agree or disagree."

Unconsciously, her face flushed.

Taking a deep breath, she simply agreed.

And then, inside the game, the two characters begin to embrace and the man takes the woman to bed.

In the next second, the bed curtain slowly closed.

Scene by scene, it was like watching a TV show.

A few minutes later the curtains opened.

The two of them are depicted as figures, sitting side by side on a bed, a little bald boy and a little girl with pigtails descending from the sky.

A prompt popped up in the world speaker, "Congratulations to players Alexander and Excelsior, happy to receive twins."

The world began to be in uproar again immediately afterwards.

All of them are congratulations.

The absolute best baby is the rarest baby in this game.

She was outright shocked when she saw the prompts.
