Chapter 501 Demon Poison

The two of them had sex on the table and chair in the study respectively before he reluctantly got out of her body.

Noah carried her back to the master bedroom together and took a bath, the two couldn't resist doing it again in the bathtub.

After the bath, Jocelyn sat in front of the dressing table and rubbed her skin care products.

Noah, on the other hand, was sitting on the bed reading his phone.

Noah was not wearing anything on his upper body, only a bath towel around his lower body.

Jocelyn, on the other hand, was wearing a nightgown.

Both of them were covered with various splotches of red marks.

Everything was showing off that they had just gone crazy.

"Got aggravated at the bank today?" Noah looked at his Weibo about the hot topic about Jocelyn in the bank, and his handsome face suddenly went cold.

"You saw the hot topic? That lobby manager's attitude is just too much for me to bear." Jocelyn complained.

"Why don't you let Ethan just fire that person?" As he spoke, Noah's face, again, turned colder.

This afternoon, he had been busy and had absolutely no time to check his phone.

When he just saw this message, he was instantly furious.

"Didn't I already teach her a lesson there?" Jocelyn said.

"My woman can't suffer this for nothing." Noah's brows knitted together, and with that, he began to look for Tom's number.

He was going to ask Tom to contact the bank.

Jocelyn got up and sat beside Noah, saying in a serious manner, "Don't, it's not easy for ordinary people to make a living, let's be merciful to others."

Noah's face was still sullen.

Chapter 502 Philip again

Tom once again gave a careful word by word account.

Jocelyn's face became more and more serious.

It seemed that Sara had really been killed by that 'master'.

This 'master' was really powerful and could easily kill someone in the guardhouse.

Noah had the same serious face, "Go ahead."

"Matteo also said that the demon poison, also came from the hand of Philip, and also said that this demon poison, along with the soul devouring water and the black poison, were all Philip's masterpieces, and that they were secretly not passed on, and were nearly extinct."

Tom said again.

It caused both Jocelyn and Noah's hearts to instantly thud.

So far, the poisons used by that 'master' were all related to the dead Philip.

The most crucial thing was that what he used were all things that Philip had researched, kept secret and nearly extinct.

The two thought of this point and looked at each other in unison.

"And then?" Noah coldly ordered.

"No more. Now he only found out so much. The cause of Gloria's death has not yet found, and Matteo is still continuing to investigate, he said all need time to investigate the rest."

"Okay." said Noah and pressed hang up.

Jocelyn braced herself to sit up from her tired body, still looking at Noah with a serious face, "Since it is certain that he killed Sara, then it goes the same to Gloria."

"Yes." Noah said.

"I suspect that this person is someone who is very close to Philip, otherwise, it would be impossible to possess so many of the strange poisons that Philip has in his possession, which are secretly kept secret and nearly extinct, at the same time."

Jocelyn did not bother with her, but walked in to the company.

The whole time, she did not give Bella another look.

When she looked like that, Bella was even more furious.

Bella chased after her again and said, "Jocelyn, are you looking down on me now? You don't think you can look down on people just because you are married to Noah, I am telling you, I will enter this company as a star."

There was a ding and the exclusive lift door opened.

When Robert stepped out of the lift, he saw the image of Bella pestering Jocelyn and heard what Bella said.

He lazily walked up to Bella, "I am the big boss of King Entertainment and also Noah's friend. Based on your rudeness towards Jocelyn, I hereby announce that we, King Entertainment, refuse you."

"You said marrying Noah is nothing great, is it? Sorry, marrying Noah is still really something, if you have the ability, you can marry one to feel it." Robert added.

Bella's deeds were known to him.

Especially, he could remember all those things done to Jocelyn all clearly.

When he saw this woman, he felt annoyed and just wanted to tell her to get as far away as possible.

When Bella heard this, she was instantly dumbfounded, she didn't expect this to happen in front of her at all.

For a moment, she felt embarrassed to the extreme.

Did Jocelyn have to be so powerful?

How could anyone be related to her?

Even the big boss of King Entertainment had such a good relationship with her.

She knew that Jocelyn must have come here because she knew someone here, but she didn't expect that it would be the big boss of King Entertainment.

What's more, she didn't expect that this big boss would be able to embarrass her right in front of Jocelyn.

Daniel, a popular male singer, sings and dances well.

He sings and acts, in the singing world, he is the king of songs, in the TV and movie circles, he is the TV and movie star.

He is a perfect match for Esther.

The most important thing is that Danie has the will to participate in variety shows to increase his popularity.

"Daniel? Quite good. He is not only handsome, but also in good shape. Most importantly, very compatible with Esther." Robert added.

Thinking that she had a lot of things to do next, Jocelyn stood up, "I have to go back to work, a lot of work has piled up in the past few days that I have to deal with."

Robert said, "Okay."

After Jocelyn left, the large office was once again quiet.

The smile on the corner of Robert's mouth also disappeared instantly.

Leaving King Entertainment, Jocelyn then arrived at the Murphy Group.

Taking the exclusive lift, she made her way into the general manager's office of the sales department.

As soon as she entered the office, she saw that the papers on her desk were piled up like a mountain.

Looking at the large and small folders of various colours, at this moment, Jocelyn's heart was broken.

Jocelyn sat down in front of her desk and began to seriously deal with the documents in front of her.

Looking over one after another carefully, Jocelyn felt like her eyes were going blind.

She just kept busy like this.

It was not until two o'clock in the afternoon that she finished processing all the documents.

Seeing the time, she moved her sore neck.

She then turned and gently rubbed her sore neck while walking to the floor-to-ceiling window behind her, overlooking the city landscape below her feet.

The city beneath her feet was still busy.

The sun is pouring down on all corners of the city, and as far as the eye can see, there are people and cars everywhere.

Chapter 505 Noah and Ryan are having a scandal

"Ryan brought a mysterious man home with him and spent three hours together."

Seeing this news, a slight surprise flashed across Jocelyn's eyes.

Regarding Ryan's sexual orientation, she was aware of it.

After all, once upon a time, he had expressed his good feelings to her.

What he liked was a woman, definitely not a man.

She subconsciously felt that the website should have made it up for traffic.

Jocelyn clicked into the news and read it, and then a large paragraph of text came to her eyes.

[A famous paparazzo broke the news that Ryan had returned to his home with a mysterious man three hours ago.

Unfortunately, the paparazzo only saw the back of the two of them throughout the whole trip.

The paparazzo said that the two of them were wearing the same white shirt and black trousers, suspected to be a couple's outfit.

Below is a photo of Ryan and the mystery man walking side by side and touching each other's heads.

In the photo, the two of them are almost the same height.

They were wearing the same style of white shirt and black trousers, and their body proportions both perfect to the extreme.

Although it was only a picture of their backs, Jocelyn could tell with just a glance that the other person in the picture was Noah.

The two brothers had gone to Ryan's house together, touched each other's heads and were reported as such, and she felt speechless.

The news was released a minute ago.

[Obviously a gay man's wife, she is still pretending to be a happy woman.]

[Hahahaha, I'm really laughing my ass off, so you're married to a gay man, huh? Then you still come out every day to perform happiness?]

[Tsk tsk, what a poor woman, what's the use of marrying Noah? It's not like you're the one he likes.]

[ She is good-looking, but without a good husband to love, it's useless.

[I'm so ashamed of your parents, you're married to a gay man, does your family know?]

[So Noah cheated, Jocelyn, you are so sympathy.]

Every word that came to her eyes seemed to carry a sharp edge, making her feel harsh.

It didn't surprise her at all that people would send her such private messages.

A lot of people, sometimes, were like that.

They hold you in high esteem when you're good, and when you're not, they drop stones on you.

This is true of people on the internet.

Because they hide behind the internet, no one can see their faces.

So they can be unscrupulous and bring out their dark side.

Those people always like to vent their discomfort in reality by hurling abuse at those who are better than them.

Looking at these words, Jocelyn did not have much feelings.

Picking up her phone, she took the lead and dialed Noah's number.

On the other side of the phone, Noah was at Ryan's house, drinking tea with him.

Seeing Jocelyn calling, the corner of Noah's mouth then curved up into a nice arc, "What's wrong, honey?"

"Hubby, have you seen the hot search? You and Ryan's." Jocelyn was straightforward.

Jocelyn smiled, "No need for you to step in this small thing."

Paige smiled, "Looks like I'll have to assign more bodyguards to Ryan in the future."

Jocelyn, "Well, that's exactly what I was thinking."

Paige said, "Okay, the reporter is calling, probably to interview Ryan, so I'll hang up now."

Jocelyn, "Okay."

After the phone call with Paige, Jocelyn then once again threw herself into her work, completely leaving the Weibo stuff behind.

On her side, it was incredibly quiet.

But on the other side, X Entertainment's downstairs was crowded with reporters from all walks of life.

The fact that Ryan is Noah's brother is an explosive point that none of them want to let go of.

On the internet, the topic was also getting hotter and hotter.

The front page headlines of all major news apps and websites are all about this topic.

Because of Noah, Ryan's attention has once again reached a new level.

She is not only her friend, but also her brother-in-law, which has aroused the envy and jealousy of women all over the world.

Following the title of "The World's Most Admired Woman", she was awarded several new titles, "Angel", "The Luckiest Woman" and "Princess".

In the evening, after finishing all her work, Jocelyn was picked up by Noah to the Crab Encounter, a place he had booked in advance for dinner.

Because Allen had work to do, the originally scheduled trip for three ended up becoming a trip for two again.

"Okay, I'm going back." With that, Jocelyn then looked at Noah and said, "I'll go home, you go upstairs and rest."

"Do you want me to accompany you?" Noah naturally put his arm around her waist and asked.

Jocelyn shook her head, "No."

"Well, then I'm going upstairs." Noah said.

Jocelyn then drove her own red Maserati all the way to next door.

When she entered, Allen was sitting alone in front of the coffee table drinking hot milk.

The maids were all absent and the whole living room looked cold and empty.

At a glance, Allen still carried a strong sense of elegance.

Jocelyn stepped forward, sat down beside him and asked, "Dad, what do you want to see me about?"

"You know, I've been in a bad mood lately, so I'm going to go out for a trip and relax a bit. I'm not sure how long it would be. During this period, the company will be fully given to you to take charge of." Allen said.

Jocelyn knew that the sudden death of Sara and Gloria had hit her father hard.

Therefore, at, she did not feel surprised when he said such words.

She was also very supportive of her father's idea.

"Okay, you can rest assured that I will definitely take care of the company." Jocelyn responded in a soft voice, then gently held Allen's hand and said, "Dad, you can go out and play for as long as you want. Whenever you are in a good mood, then come back."

"But I have a request, if you go out, you must bring a few bodyguards to take care of you closely and protect you, otherwise, I am not at ease." Jocelyn added.

"Matteo, in Gloria's brain, found traces of being hypnotized. He speculated that her suicidal act was a product of hypnosis."

"He also said that Gloria had the toxin of Soul Devouring Water in her body, and if combined with hypnosis, it would be really easy to make her commit suicide."

Noah said seriously, word by word.

These words didn't surprise Jocelyn.

Because before, she had already appreciated the power of the Soul Devouring Water, as well as the hypnosis technique.

"As for that autopsy person had no in-depth examination after confirming that Gloria had indeed died from suicide."

Noah said again, "Of course in addition to these reasons, now we can't rule out that the one in charge of the autopsy was bribed."

"After all, if he wants to do so much within the guardhouse, he must have someone inside, and there must be more than one." With a serious look on her face, Jocelyn continued her analysis.

"Well, all of this is also in the consideration of me and Matteo, and he has been investigating about these matters." Noah responded in a soft voice.

After saying that, he then raised his hand again, dotingly stroking her hair.

"Then is there anything else you can find out?" Jocelyn's eyes were full of curiosity.

She really couldn't wait now, to know the identity of that 'master' and the reason for targeting her.

Chapter 510 Griffin Group's 70th Anniversary Celebration (2)

On the deck of the cruise ship, a lot of people were gathered at.

Among them, there were top executives from all over the world of Griffin Group, as well as some popular stars from the entertainment industry, dignitaries from the political world, and so on.

Helicopters roared in,, attracting the eyes of all of them.

Everyone unconsciously put their eyes on it.

"This is our president arriving with his wife, right?"

"I've seen the pictures of our president's wife, they really look good."

"Next, the single me is coming to feel the good love."

Soon, the plane landed on the deck under the attention of all the people.

The men and women on the deck all looked at the plane with rapt attention.

Tom, who was driving the plane, was the first to get out of the plane, followed by the group of black-clad bodyguards, who also came down.

Afterwards, Tom opened the cabin door.

The faces of Noah and Jocelyn were presented before the eyes of the crowd.

As Noah gracefully disembarked from the plane under the attention of the crowd, he naturally carried Jocelyn out of the cabin.

The prince and princess' temperament had attracted many people's jealousy and envy.

"My goodness. Our president loves his wife too much, right?"

"A man who extremely spoils his wife is really living up to his name."

"Who could have imagined that the devil-like Noah could actually have such a day?"

Robert, Abel, Harry were also there.
