Chapter 561 Time Antique Shop

"Miss, I want to ask, can't you return this painting to me?" Hanish was really reluctant!

"You were just telling me about the rules of the trade. You know the rules of the trade so well, and now you actually want to break them?" Jocelyn said.

"Yeah, you know the rules of the trade so well, how can you do that?." Charles could not help but taunt.

The others all looked at the painting with red eyes.

The pill-headed male boss cautiously said, "Miss, can you sell it to me with low price?"

Jocelyn, "No."

Charles, "Who do you think you are?"

He immediately dared not speak.

It's just that the admiration for Jocelyn in his heart is like a torrent of water stretching out.

In the next second, he went to Jocelyn, bowed, and looked at Jocelyn reverently and humbly begged, "Miss, can I worship you as a teacher? I see that you really know a lot about antiques. I'll ask you to be my teacher, okay?"

She genuinely felt quite awkward in the face of such a scene.

However, this was not the first time she had experienced such a scene, so it did not come as much of a surprise to her.

She just subconsciously took a step back, bent down, helped the man up, and said modestly, "This is not necessary. I'm actually nothing great, just a bit of luck. "

Immediately after that, Hanish also began to say, "And me, accept me as your student. Do not be modest, I think you are really much more greater than those of us who have been in the collection world for decades. Please teach us."

Two start arguing, think they should be more qualified to be Jocelyn's student.

A genuine Picasso is a rare find for antique lovers.
The authentic works that survive are either in museums around the world or have been taken by collectors and are not for sale.
Sean then carefully took the painting, walked to the front of the counter and opened the box.
The lifelike figure of the Goddess of Mercy came into view, and Sean was stunned.
The style of the painting, the handwriting were sure from Picasso.
Sean raised his head and shot a deep glance at Jocelyn.

The moment they looked at each other, Jocelyn smiled and led Charles over to Sean.

The two held their hands on the counter and quietly looked at the work on the counter.

Sean was incomparably excited as he picked up the magnifying glass and began to look carefully at the painting in front of him.

The more he looked at it the more certain he became, and the more certain he became the more excited he became!

Finally Sean was utterly certain.

The painting in front of me is a real Picasso!

This is an authentic Picasso!!!

Sean took off his old-fashioned glasses with a straight face and looked at Jocelyn with eyes full of excitement, "How much are you selling it?"

Jocelyn, "And how much are you prepared to pay?"

Sean said, "200 million, is it okay?"

Jocelyn shook her head.

Sean raised his bid, "250 million."

"Still no clue for now." said Tom.
"Then who was the person who killed on the cruise ship on the day of the 70th anniversary of Griffin Group, have you found out?" Noah asked again.
"No." said Tom with a touch of frustration in his tone.
"I know, you keep an extra eye on it and tell them to hurry up and solve the case." Noah added.
Hearing these conversations, Jocelyn's heart was disappointed.
Noah held her on his lap as if he was treating a noble and well-behaved Persian cat, stroking her hair,
"Don't be anxious, the truth will definitely come."
Jocelyn nodded lightly, "Okay."
Noah, "I heard that you found a real Picasso at the antique market today?"
The mention of it made Jocelyn feel much better all of a sudden.

"Who did you hear that from?" Jocelyn asked, "The bodyguard?"

"Yeah, there was one praising you to Tom, Tom took a screenshot and showed it to me, here." said Noah, then he showed his chat with Tom, showing it.

At the top, were Tom's words explaining his work, Tom said a bunch of things, and finally Noah only replied, "Okay."

Further below, there is a screenshot posted by Tom, along with the quote, "Madam is amazing."

Noah replied many more words this time than before, "My wife surely is amazing."

Immediately afterwards, she clicked on the screenshot, which showed a WeChat named Luis, having a conversation with Tom -

Luis: "Tom, our Mr. Mason's wife is a top expert!"

Immediately afterwards, Luis told Tom everything that had happened at the antique market in its original form.

After saying a large paragraph, Luis added, "I am truly blessed to be able to protect such a lady every day."

Luis: "Tom, I seem to understand why our Mr. Mason is in love with her alone!"

[K5's ADC and the top lane player can't be defeated by Jocelyn and Alex.]

[Seriously, although Jocelyn's operation is good, she is not as good as ADC of K5.]

[As a smearing fan of the XS team, I would say that XS will definitely lose tomorrow, even if Jocelyn is on, it won't save Alex's stupid state.]

When she saw these posts, Jocelyn felt tingly.

However, there was no reply, just silently quit the forum.

That's what E-sports is all about, being boasted when you win, being scolded when you lose.

In E-sports, results speak for themselves.

It was at this time that Bob sent a phone call to Jocelyn.

Jocelyn then picked up in seconds, "What's up, Bob?"

Bob cautiously said, "Now Alex's state seems to be picking up, but I still don't have confidence, boss, can I beg you to play tomorrow? I really don't have confidence now."

"We really can't keep losing, if we keep losing, we won't make the playoffs."

"He's looking like in better state, who knows if he'll play badly again? I don't have any confidence in the guy at all right now." Bob added.

Without thinking, Jocelyn said, "Okay."

She cares a lot about the team's performance and about Alex's state.

She feels that right now Alex just needs a win to spark the fight he once had, to get back to the top state he once had.

So, she wanted to help him.

Bob, "Yes, thank you, boss."

Jocelyn, "Get them with me in the evening, play some practice games."

Bob, "Okay."

Chapter 565 Chaotic Show

As the popular two on the field, Jocelyn and Alex, the guide gave close ups of each of them.

Fans at the scene, seeing them in close-up, started chanting like crazy.

Soon, Jocelyn joined several other team members in putting on the special headphones.

Their headphones, all of which can block out outside sounds, and once they put them on, the screams and shouts instantly disappeared.

It was a comfortable moment for Jocelyn.

Immediately afterwards, BP started.

For the XS side, they chose, top lane player Calista, wild Wrist Ho, mid lane player Demon Girl and bottom AD Euphrates and support Tam.

The K5 team, on the other hand, chose to go with a top lane playee Swordswoman, wild Leopard Girl, mid lane Hair Strip, and bottom AD Izrael and support Titan.

On the whole, the XS side of the lineup is on the brittle side, while the opposite side of the lineup is more stable.

On the XS side, it's a lineup that's all about handling and having to play with absolute dominance on the line.

Once they can't get an advantage on the line, then they will lose.

After the line-up was chosen, the XS fans at the bottom couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air.

If their home team had opted for this type of formation in the past, they certainly wouldn't have been worried.

But now it's different, Alex's state is now slipping badly and the other members, too often, get dragged down because of him.

Whether or not it will hit the mark is anyone's guess.

More than that, the K5 team on the opposite side of the field was a mountain to climb in the eyes of the fans.

Fans have been unable to resist complaining -

"What the hell is going on? Is it true that Alex only plays these crunchy heroes with long hands now?"

In front of the computer, the silver-haired man let out a long breath and looked over at Jocelyn, the corners of his mouth curled up into a wide smile.

The way he smiled was extraordinarily cute now.

Jocelyn returned the smile and gave him a thumbs up.

Jocelyn then stood up and looked at everyone with a long sigh of relief, "Let's shake hands with the opposite side."

Immediately afterwards, everyone stood up happily.

Everyone was in a good mood because they had taken a long-awaited victory.

After slapping each other's hands in celebration, Jocelyn led the group, together, towards the defeated K5 team on the opposite side.

After the players shook hands with them one by one, as is customary, Jocelyn led the group and walked to the middle of the stage.

The beautiful host Sasha came to Jocelyn's side, looked at the players and said, "First of all, congratulations to the XS team for winning the match, I have a question for Alex today, I would like to ask you, how did you get your state back all of a sudden?"

"You know, today, you really look like a god of war on the field, compared to the previous slump." Sasha said, then handed the other microphone in her hand to Alex who was standing next to Jocelyn.

Alex laughed, rubbed his head in embarrassment, looked at Jocelyn beside him and said with a smile, "Actually, this is all thanks to my boss, Jocelyn."

"At my lowest point, everyone didn't think much of me, but only my boss, Jocelyn, believed in me, encouraged me and even accompanied me to practice for a dozen times to find my state, and it was her encouragement that made me who I am today."

"She is truly a great benefactor to me, and here today, in front of everyone here, and on air, I want to solemnly say thank you to my boss."

The fact that Jocelyn was his sister-in-law was something that Ryan always knew and took to heart.

He has also been trying hard to restrain his feelings.

But often he can't restrain himself from looking at her more than once.

Today, for example, he obviously has a lot of work to do and if he doesn't finish it, he will have to stay up all night.

But he knew that Jocelyn was going to play, and he still lost his job uncontrollably to come here to watch her play.

Because he just wanted to, so badly, look at her from afar, just from afar, and he was content.

He also did not want to let Jocelyn know what was on his mind right now, because then she would have a psychological burden.

So all he could do was tell Jocelyn that the main reason he was here was because of that Alex.

Taking a deep breath and exhaling it slowly, Ryan accelerated the car once again.

When he used to do dramas, he could never understand the male counterparts who died for the female lead.

At one point, he even silently spat at the writers in his mind, thinking the plot was too fake.

But when it really happened to him, he realised that emotions are the most uncontrollable thing in this world.

There are times when it's easy to fall in love, but hard to not fall in love.

He thought that he probably couldn't really forget about Jocelyn in this lifetime.

Now, more and more, he is not interested in other women.

When Jocelyn returned to the car, she saw that everyone in the XS team WeChat group was sending out red packets to celebrate the victory.

She saw this and clicked into the group.

At this point the group was full of red packets and everyone was grabbing them up.

Chapter 568 Blue Mountain City

She turned her attention to her phone.
The screen prompted that Hector had sent her ten messages.
She clicked straight in, and a paragraph of words then came into view.
He spoke in detail about some of the places with the richest resources of treasure stone mines and gold mines in Z Country, as well as a few places he personally wanted to explore first, among them the city of Blue Mountain.
Finally, he went on to talk about the remuneration package of their exploration team.
Their entire exploration team, twenty in all.
He demanded, for himself, a salary of 30,000, and for the others, 20,000 a month.
After reading it, she then responded, "No problem, there will be an extra bonus if we can find a good vein, so you can use your expertise to find the vein next. Just identify the location of the vein, nothing else is needed from you."
Now, she has a pair of penetrating eyes, as long as she knows where the vein is, she can stand and turn on her penetrating eyes, she can know the width of the vein, the length, and the quality of the ore.
Hector asked, "Just need us to find the vein, the rest is not our concern? Don't I we need to roughly estimate the width of the vein, the length, and look at the quality of the ore?"
Jocelyn, "Yeah, use your expertise, just go and find the veins. Go to Blue Mountain City first, as far as I know, many of our large gemstone mines, gold mines are there with rich gemstone mines, gold mines resources."

Hector, "Well, then."

Jocelyn, "Thank you."

Hector, "No worries."

Jocelyn, "Okay, send me the details of your exploration team members. I will pay you first one month's salary, and every month from now on, today will be your pay day."

Hector, "Okay."

Jocelyn then logged out of WeChat, picked up her laptop and started reading X Entertainment's work emails.

At this moment, Robert held a glass of milk in his hand and carefully half-kneeled in front of Zoe, coaxing her as if she was a child, "It's fine if you don't eat lunch, but can you at least drink some milk?"

They are surrounded by staff who are busy.

However, Robert was like in no man's land.

The staff around them all looked as if they had seen a ghost when they saw this image.

Seeing this scene, Jocelyn's eyes were also filled with consternation.

Although she knew that Robert was now very good and kind to Zoe, she did not expect that it could already be done to such an extent.

And Zoe shook her head again, "No, I have no appetite tonight, don't you push me."

She then looked around with embarrassment and took Robert's hand, saying, "I am embarrassed."

As soon as Zoe's words left her mouth, her eyes caught a glimpse of Jocelyn's arrival.

She got up and looked at Jocelyn with a smile.

Jocelyn returned the smile in equal measure.

And when Robert saw this, he also stood up, with one hand lazily wrapping his arm around the Zoe, and the other holding the warm milk, he looked at Jocelyn and said, "Hello, Jocelyn."

"Hello." Jocelyn smiled, flanked by bodyguards, as she made her way to the two of them.

"I'm sorry for this joke." Zoe said carefully looking at Jocelyn, and blushed when she finished.

"No, for two people in love, it's normal." Jocelyn laughed.

Zoe blushed again.

Robert looked at the two female stylists who were standing in front of the dressing table, organizing their things, and said, "Hurry up and style Jocelyn."

"It's not hot." said Jocelyn.

Immediately afterwards, Robert put his arm around Zoe and sat down beside Abel, and began to thoughtfully serve Zoe water, also with unparalleled attentiveness.

Looking at the two pairs of them in love, Abel, a single dog, was envious inside.

When will he be able to catch up with his Paige and show off his love like that?

Why does love come so easily in other people, but so hard in him?

"I shouldn't have come here today," Abel joked as he looked at the two loving couples.

"Go ahead and be envious and jealous." Robert teased.

"What's there to be jealous of? Sweet love sooner or later will be my turn too." Abel had a confident look on his face.

Robert, "Oh. I feel as if it's really hard to get Paige to say yes to you."

Abel, "Can you not curse me? If I am with Paige, I will definitely come in front of you every day to show my love."

Robert, "Good luck with that."

Abel gave him a direct blank stare.

Listening to their conversation, Jocelyn felt that this time Abel's heart was truly set on Paige.

As far as she knew, Abel hadn't touched anyone other than Paige in the past few days, and this time he had really and truly moved his heart.

As a bystander, she had been completely moved by Abel's perseverance.

Originally, she didn't want to interfere in the matter between him and Paige, apart from not wanting to interfere in Paige's relationship, there was another very important reason, that is, she was afraid that Abel was just a three-minute hot pursuit.
