Chapter 711 Unfair Fate

Abel smiled, "No worried"

Abel then wrapped his arm around Paige's shoulders and led her upstairs.

Mariam followed closely behind.

Maisie saw every scene clearly at the door.

The more she looked, the more she felt solid.

When she was still running around looking for connections to buy a Hermes limited edition, Paige was already with the major shareholder of Hermes.

As long as Paige wants to own Hermes, no matter which model it is, she can get it.

Even if the model is not available in this world, as long as she can think of it, designers can help design it.

She needs to run around to buy a bag.

She can even enjoy the one-on-one service of the brand's main designer.

While she goes to great lengths to pull in an elderly sugar daddy, Paige enjoys the complete glory of being in the presence of a gentry.

She doesn't even need to please the second master of the Mccall family whatsoever, just needs to be pleased.

Her elderly sugar daddy doesn't even treat her like a human being, but Paige's gentry boyfriend treated her as treasure.

Now, the more she recalled the things she had flaunted in front of Paige, the more she felt, in her heart, disgusted with herself.

Was she worthy of showing off in front of Paige?

Intense jealousy, shame almost broke her.

God, it was so unfair, how much she wished that her fate and Paige's could be swapped?

"The case is solved! The owner of the luxury car is revealed!"

When she saw this message, Paige subconsciously thought of Abel.

Today, what Abel was driving was a hundred million luxury car.

Moreover, it was the car that was rumored to have been bought by a certain buyer from Z Country who was unwilling to divulge his name.

For years, when people talk about luxury cars, they like to say Abel's car.

But no one knows who the buyer really is.

All people have different opinions about the buyer.

She clicked on the browser, Abel's luxury car was into her eyes.

The picture is a screenshot of Abel getting out of the car.

On the screenshot, she can vaguely see Abel's multi-billion luxury car.

There is the side of Abel's face as he steps out of the car.

However, it is not possible to see the face.

In the photo, Abel is closing the car door, head slightly lowered, casual, with a bit of reserve.

Even if it is blur, it still can't cover up Abel's notability.

Below the photo, there is a large paragraph of text.

[A netizen sent a private message stating that he had seen the rumored car values hundreds of millions, the identity of the buyer is a mystery.]

The owner of the car is a rich man, the user said.

In the comments section, the number of comments has exceeded 100,000.

[He is so rich, can he donate to the countryside? Such an expensive car, not a plane?]

Mariam smiled and nodded, "Well, after all, he stunned my youth. He is the idol I fell in love with for the first time in my life. I didn't follow stars before, and because of him, I just started to follow stars."

"You are following him?" Paige asked.

"Yes, I'm a big Lochlan fan." Mariam added.

"Awesome. ever met Lochlan in person?"

"Well, have been to many his activities before, have picked him up and dropped off in the airport. And I even have been to the backstage of his activities, to ask for his autograph and take pictures with him. "

"Want to see him?" Paige asked again.

If she wanted to, she could help, ask Lochlan out and have dinner together.

"No need. He must be busy, if I want to see him, I'll just go to the event when the time comes." Mariam shook her head.

"Okay then." Paige smiled, "Lochlan is very good, hard working, very potential."

When it comes to Lochlan, Mariam's eyes start to glow, "That's a must. That's the boy I fell in love with at first sight. When I liked him, he had not yet made achievement."

"Now I am happy to see that he is on the stage." Mariam said, speaking from her heart.

"Then you're a true fan." Paige added.

Mariam nodded heavily, "Yes, always hope he can be popular, but I think, this is just his starting point, his good days are still ahead. "

In fact, looking at their favorite idol, step by step, from unknown, to become popular, is really a very sense of accomplishment thing.

Mariam was happy to see that Lochlan had made his achievement.

"For Lochlan to have a fan like you, it's really his luck." Paige added.

The young man was dressed in her favorite white shirt with light blue jeans.

A black hat was on his head and a pair of white sneakers were on his feet.

She can be generous no matter who she is in front of, but only when she is facing Lochlan, she can't.

There was one person that she only had to look at to make her heart beat faster.

Her heart suddenly began to throb.

The young man saw Mariam and smiled, "It's you."

He was impressed with Mariam deeply.

Because, this girl, from the time he was unknown, had been accompanying him.

At the beginning, when there were only three people picking up the plane, she was there.

He knew that she was a big fan of his, knew that she had spent lots and lots of money for him.

More than that, he knew that she would be there for almost all of his events for so long.

Mariam nodded, "It's me."

Abdominal pain struck, Mariam's face instantly got worse.

She was, however, forcing herself to hold it back.

In front of her idol, she absolutely could not show a sickly appearance.

She wanted her idol to see the most perfect version of her.

However, although she had been pretending, Lochlan could still feel that she was uncomfortable.

On her forehead, the beads of sweat betrayed her.

"What's wrong?" Lochlan's eyes were full of concern.

"Nothing, I'm just hot." Mariam subconsciously wiped the sweat from her face and said.

"Uncomfortable?" Lochlan asked afterwards.

"No." The sharp pain hit again, Mariam was still holding it back.

The more she thought about it, the more nervous Mariam's became, and her body was in a stiff state.
Paige took a deep look at Mariam and said to herself that this girl is really very simple.
She chuckled and then opened the door.
The person standing outside the door was no other than Lochlan.

Mariam subconsciously smiled towards Lochlan and raised her hand stiffly, "Hi."

Lochlan smiled, "Hi."

At this time Lochlan's hand was covered with a white men's shirt.

He naturally pointed to Mariam's lower body and said, "The waiter said he wanted that jacket, so I went to the car and took a shirt of mine."

After saying that, Lochlan then handed his white shirt to Mariam.

The more he talked about these topics, the more embarrassed Mariam became.

In the end, her face once again reddened to the base of her neck.

Even she herself felt that she was really abashed.

She was a bully at school, and in front of her, there was not a single male or female in the school who could fight with her.

But only in front of Lochlan, she really can't take her usual behavior.

Seeing that, Abel did not say anything more, just helplessly shook his head.

All her reactions fell in Lochlan's eyes.

One scene after another, the smile in the young man's eyes grew thick.

The next second, without waiting for Mariam to react, Lochlan slightly bent down and untied the white jacket that was tied around Mariam's waist.

As soon as he lowered his head, a faint smell of mint shampoo came to her nose.

Chapter 716 A mythical ferocious animal

Now, in Abel and Paige's zone, Abel was number one in the entire zone and number one in the entire service, while Paige was number two in the entire zone plus number two in the entire service.

"Second in the whole region? You mean, the white dream number?" Paige asked.

That white dream, in Hero World, is a very rich player, rumored to be a rich second generation. It is a female number, but the real gender is unknown.

Currently, white dream, is the third in the region.

"Yes." Mariam nod.

Paige was at once happy, "Great, we can play together in the future, in the future the three of us team up together, do quests, fight BOSS."

Mariam nodded heavily, "I will play with you guys, add blood and heal you."

Paige smiled, "Okay."

Abel, "Since we're going to be playing together, let's go to a nearby internet cafe after dinner."

Mariam, "Okay, it just so happens that I haven't been to an internet cafe in a long time."

The two siblings were both interested in going to an internet cafe.

Paige saw that they were interested, and did not have the heart to spoil the fun, and snapped her fingers, "Okay."

After the meal, Paige took the two siblings and arrived at the Japanese restaurant, a high class internet cafe.

The internet cafe is a League of Legends themed internet cafe.

The wallpapers were all of the heroes from League of Legends.

There are all sorts of League of Legends hero figures, large and small, countless.

Although it is already after ten o'clock in the evening, there are still many people in the internet cafe.

As far as the eye can see there are all young boys.

Paige took Abel and Mariam and got a private room for three people.

They sat together in a row in the private room and logged on to Hero World.

The three of them entered the game almost at the same time.

Players from every country can come together to fight the BOSS.

After the BOSS is killed, things will explode all over the place, and the goodies that are exploded will be counted as the one who grabs them.

A lot of people are rushing to this BOSS.

The weapons will only be exploded once.

Once one of them has popped out, it won't pop out again after that.

The three professions' weapons are, therefore, the only ones of their kind in the entire service.

Whoever takes the weapon burst by the ferocious animal will get an hour-long invincibility buff at 7am, 12 noon and 8pm every day.

After receiving the invincibility buff, the player's game character will be invincible.

The game's wild monsters, BOSS, and players cannot harm the player in the slightest.

Today, someone said that the world BOSS the ferocious animal, which everyone fought today, exploded a Schemer's Staff, Silver Fantasy, but the person who picked it up offered a sky-high price, and no one in the whole area went to buy it at all.

Abel clicked on it and looked at the price.

It was indeed a sky-high price.

The other party was actually asking for 300 million yuan treasures.

One yuan was equal to one hundred yuan treasure.

And one hundred million yuan treasure, converted into money, is three million.

In the vicinity, players chat still continued.

[Want to buy that weapon? One million, take it?]

[He can't use it, so why buy it?]

[Give to his wife.]

Paige now felt that others were looking at her as if they were looking at a giant panda.

However, in just five minutes, tens of millions of people had gathered around her.

At a glance, it looked like the entire game screen was blacked out with a large swath of all game players.

This scene is comparable to a large gang war.

And many of those players who came in admiration of the name had clicked on the add friend request.

Her hands were sore just from clicking on the decline button.

In the end, she had no choice but to set it to refuse to add friends.

After the setting was completed, her eyes were much clearer.

Looking at such a picture, Mariam laughed and said, "Paige, these people are really exaggerate."

Paige helplessly pinched her brow, "Why don't you say that it's your brother's behavior that's too exaggerated?"

Mariam, "Actually I think it's okay. three million is a small amount."

Abel, "That's right, it's only three million. As long as you're happy, I'll buy you even three hundred million in equipment."

Paige, "Problem is I'm not happy."

With so much money buying virtual equipment, she really feels there is no point.

Although the equipment is indeed very cool, and she likes it, she feels that it is not worth the price at all.

So, she couldn't be happy about it.

Abel shrugged, "Tomorrow, you turn on the invincibility buff and take a messy kill, you will be happy."

Chapter 719 Cold and Lustful Noah

This team, after its inception this spring, was invincible, winning the LCK region's spring and summer double crown in one fell swoop.

Their style of play is very different from that of LCK.

The LCK division is on the operational side of the style and doesn't fight easily.

The LCK is a very aggressive, bloody style of play. When things don't work out, it's all about the team.

Their players are top-notch in both lane and group play.

That kind of aggressive and bloody style is the same as the LPL..

She doesn't feel scared the traditional LCK teams.

After so many years of hard work, the LPL teams have already crushed the traditional teams in the LCK with their tactics.

However, this GRT is different from their average team, so she feels that they are still very intimidating.

The most important thing is that GRT's three lines this year, the players are very strong against the line, if really hard, except for the top lane, with XS side, it is a 30/70 split, other lines are basically 50/50.

This means that if Alex doesn't play well on the top lane, the XS team will only have a 50-50 chance of winning.

After reading the news, Jocelyn let out a long sigh and sent a message to the XS team WeChat group to cheer everyone up.

Professional players, in general, sleep very late.

They usually, get up at eleven or twelve.

They get up, have a meal, and only then start training.

Training generally is from two o'clock in the afternoon, to two o'clock in the evening.

So at this point in time, it was the XS team's training time, and they could see whatever messages she sent.

Soon, the members of the XS team started to show their confidence to her in the group.

Originally, she was going to cheer for them originally, but it ended up becoming, the team members cheering for her.

Seeing that the man was silent, Jocelyn gave him a blank stare again, "Know what is this?"

Noah hooked his lips and looked at her with interest, "What?"

Jocelyn was straightforward, "A self-indulgent ruler."

Noah thought deeply for a few seconds and spoke lightly, "Well, it seems to be."

Jocelyn, "You don't even deny it?"

Noah, "There is nothing to deny."

Noah, "After knowing you, I seem to understand them."

Jocelyn looked at him with interest and pursued the question, "How do you mean by that?"

Noah smiled, "If Helen was like you, I am willing to steal you to start the Trojan War."

His words, as if with electricity, hit Jocelyn's heart at once.

She has a certain place in her heart, at this time tingling, and warm and hot.
