My Revenge Life, Fatty to Sexy

Chapter 721 Family Status

As far as she could see, the entire living room was filled with a bunch of dignified people.

There were at least one to two hundred of these people.

She really didn't expect that her mother-in-law could make these people wait for her all the time.

Doing the math, they had been waiting for over an entire hour.

Jocelyn felt ashamed all of a sudden.

An embarrassed smile appeared at the corner of her mouth.

Just at this time the vice president's wife, Ruby, walked up to her and naturally took her arm, saying, "Jocelyn, your mother-in-law is really good to you, we all said not to wait, but, she still insisted."

"And your father-in-law, your husband, all the same. Your family status is really impressive." Ruby added.

She looked at Jocelyn with doting in her eyes, without any half-hearted impatience.

Hearing these words, Jocelyn became even more embarrassed

"I'm really sorry for making everyone wait for me for so long, I actually left home quite early, but there was a traffic jam on the road." Jocelyn said.

When there was traffic on the road, she did send a message to Noah.

She informed Noah of the situation and asked him to tell her in-laws not to wait for her.

She was really not expecting to be in this situation.

Scott smiled and walked up to Jocelyn, looking at Jocelyn with the same doting eyes, and said, "Such a good girl married into our family, we have to treat her well."

"The things designed by Sunny are all unique in the world. Mr. Mason, you are really lucky."

"Yeah, it's hard for us to get Sunny's designs, but you can get it at your fingertips."

"I really envy Mr. Mason to have such an excellent daughter-in-law like Jocelyn, Jocelyn and Noah are really a good match, it's like a strong combination of two big shots."

The people around began to flatter.

Seven parts sincere and three parts fake.

Hearing these words, Scott was instantly proud.

At this moment, he felt that he was the luckiest man in the world.

Allie, who was at the side, felt her proud, and the smile in her eyes could not be hidden.

Allie couldn't help but praise, "I liked this watch as soon as I saw it, Jocelyn, can you make a couple's model for me next time?"

Jocelyn smiled, "Yours is almost done, it will be in your hands soon."

Allie was instantly more excited.

Those ladies who were swooning over Sunny's designs were all jealous at this point, and they spoke up again.

"My God. I have approached many people before in order to buy Sunny's designs, but they all failed."

"Me too. Who let us not have a daughter-in-law like Sunny?"

"I'm so jealous. That's the only one in the world!"

Allie was happy to hear what people around her were saying.

She found that she had really been right to invite this group of people today.

"If you can talk, you guys can talk more, it's better to produce a book." Allie said as she looked at the crowd with a smile.

"Yeah." Jocelyn responded cheerfully.

"What about me?" Ryan asked in a soft voice.

"Everyone can have one." Jocelyn said.

Ryan hooked his lips and did not speak again.

Noah likewise, just hooked his lips.

"Ryan, Noah and Jocelyn gave dad a watch, I gave dad a tie, what are you giving?" Camille looked at Ryan and asked.

Ryan took out a dark red ring box from his pocket and put it into Scott's hand, "This is a ring I designed for you, but it's not handmade. It's definitely not comparable to Jocelyn's."

Scott smiled and opened the box and took a look.

Inside was a simple ring with a family totem engraved on it, a bit of luxury in an understated way.

He liked it a lot.

"Well, it's not bad." said Scott.

"It's good that you like it. I have prepared a piano piece." Ryan added.

"Oh, good." Scott's eyes were full of approval.

"I think there is still a lack of a singer." added Ryan, "I'll sing."

"Do you know what I'm going to play?" Ryan asked.

"Just play the Happy Birthday song." Camille added.

"Okay, whatever you want." Ryan's eyes were full of doting, and with those words he raised his hand and gently stroked Camille's hair.

Just at this time, several of Ryan's fans gathered around.

Paige was her best friend.

Jocelyn couldn't stand it anymore.

She frowned coldly and stood up, ready to walk towards Abel's mother.

She wanted to help Paige.

The moment she raised her eyes, she saw Allie walking to Abel's mother.

Allie did not speak up right away, but shook her head at Jocelyn, signalling her not to move.

So Jocelyn stopped in her tracks.

The gaze of Noah and Camille gathered on Jocelyn.

"What did you say?" Allie asked as she faintly looked at Abel's mother.

Abel's mother smiled, "I said that my son's girlfriend is not good enough for our family."

Allie laughed along with her, "You have lived most of your life, why are you still so unreasonable?"

Hearing these words, Abel's mother's eyes full of puzzles, her face darkened, "What do you mean by that?"

"Apart from the fact that her background is not good enough for your family, what else is it about Paige not good enough? She is progressive, good looking and capable."

"And look at Abel, his girlfriend has changed hundreds of times, has he?" Allie said bluntly, not the slightest bit polite.

The Mason's wealth and status are better than the Mccall family.

Therefore, she really had nothing to worry about.

"A playboy stays with a pure-hearted girl, it is the pure-hearted girl loses out, right?" Allie added.

Abel's mother was exasperated at this.

But she did not dare to pick on Allie.

Chapter 725 Beautiful alone

After signing the last name and taking the last photo together, Ryan returned to Jocelyn and the others.

After looking around for a while, Ryan sat down on the single sofa.

At this time, all the women at the ball had their eyes on Ryan and Noah.

Their eyes were filled with amazement and joy.

The two brothers of the Mason family fit all the fantasies a woman had.

"My God, look at the two of them together, it's really too eye catching."

"That youngest daughter of the Mason family, and Jocelyn, as well as the old lady of the Mason family are really good looking."

There were a few noblewomen around whispering and discussing.

Jocelyn was accustomed to such remarks.

"Didn't Ryan say he wanted to play the piano and sing? Let's start now, shall we?" Camille asked.

Ryan looked at Camille dotingly and nodded, "Okay."

At this time, Scott, who had just finished chatting with a few old friends, walked over with a smile.

As soon as he heard that the two siblings were going to sing and play the piano, Scott sat next to Allie.

"Dad, Ryan and I are going to give you a song." said Camille.

"Okay." Scott nodded contentedly.

Camille then took Ryan's hand and walked to the white piano in the corner of the hall.

After several people looked at each other and smiled, Scott, Allie, Jocelyn and Noah stood up in unison and walked towards the two of them.

Afterwards, Camille picked up the sitting microphone on the piano and turned it on, confidently looking at the crowd, saying, "Today is my father's birthday, Ryan and I want to send my father a song. "

"Wish my dad happy birthday, all the best." Camille added.

At those words, the crowd gathered around the two siblings and formed a circle.

In the end, the five people simply stopped replying.

And Camille let out a long breath in comfort.

Looking at the silent comment section, Camille rolled her eyes, "You're still young to be cursing with me."

After that, Camille returned to the cuttlefish CP super talk again.

The joy instantly drowned out all of her heart's displeasure.

No matter how unhappy she was with the things she encountered every day.

As long as she comes into this chat, she is filled with smiles.

Every time she comes in here, her face is full of smiles.

No matter what people outside say, she feels that the Cuttlefish CP is really true.

The longer, the more she thinks so.

When she finished reading this, Camille saw that many CP fans were shouting to buy Dorian and Nicolas's magazine.

Nicolas's new magazine will be on sale tomorrow.

And Dorian's was at twelve o'clock this evening.

Camille glanced at the time, at this moment, there were still two minutes before Dorian's magazine went on sale.

She clicked on the link for the sale of the magazine and waited for the sale to start.

The time soon arrived at.

Camille bought 10,000 copies.

She was a big fan in the cuttlefish CP's fan base.

In order to follow the two of them, she spent enough money in just six months to buy a global limited edition Lamborghini.

Chapter 727 Shameless Director

The caller was a shameless gay director in the circle.

This director was named Grayson.

He was a very famous first-tier director.

Some time ago, he said he had a role he wanted to give Billy and personally called him in person.

When he went over, Grayson started making all sorts of odd hints and tried to touch his thighs.

He saw what Grayson was trying to do and just went off again as usual.

In fact, at that time, he really wanted to give Grayson a few slaps.

But because he was in the entertainment industry, with all the intricate interests, plus he didn't want to cause trouble for the company, he put up with it.

Since he had hidden his identity and was in the entertainment industry, he should know how to weigh the pros and cons of all aspects.

What's more, Grayson had, at the time, failed to touch him.

Originally, he thought that if he found an excuse to leave at that time, Grayson would feel his resistance and would not seek him out again in the future.

Instead, he did not expect that Grayson would actually find him again.

Billy's emotions, then, exploded.

He did not pay attention to Grayson and refused to answer his call.

At this time, the details of Grayson's meeting with him at that time, all of a sudden, came up in front of his eyes.

To this day, he could not forget the expression on Grayson's face when he first walked into the agreed-upon hotel room at that time.

Grayson seemed to have saliva.

As soon as he sat down, Grayson sat beside him.

He began to express his fondness for him.

As he talked, his hands began to touch Billy.

Camille played all night alone.

After that, she was really tired, so she went to take a shower and set an alarm for 2,00 pm.

The reason why she set this time was so that she could catch the League of Legends Star Showdown.

She has been obsessed with League of Legends lately, so she is obsessed with various League of Legends tournaments.

Even if it's a celebrity showcase match, she doesn't want to let it go.

The next morning, as soon as Jocelyn opened her eyes, she received a call from Goose Gaming, the staff begged her to participate in the League of Legends 9th Anniversary Celebrity Showdown.

That girl's attitude was so sincere.

The moment Jocelyn heard this, she decisively agreed to her request.

One is because the other party is sincere and sounds very pitiful, and the other is because, she really loves League of Legends.

There was a more important reason, that is, she wanted to help her XS team, as well as her company, bring in the heat.

Hanging up the phone, Jocelyn saw the time at this moment, it was 7,00am.

In her head, she calculated her time for the day.

Today, she would have had nothing to do, just a meeting at Murphy Group in the morning.

As for the star showcase, the young girl had told her that she didn't need to practice, it was just a competition of an entertainment nature.

So, there was nothing for her to prepare.

Putting down her phone, Jocelyn prepared to get out of bed and wash up.

Just at this moment, a pair of large warm hands pulled her into a warm embrace.

"No." Jocelyn said cautiously.

Chapter 729 CE Team

After lunch, Noah personally drove the helicopter, carrying Jocelyn, towards the Flento City Stadium.
Behind the helicopter, there were ten more helicopters escorting.
In each of the ten helicopters, there were 100 bodyguards.
The reason for this is to ensure the absolute safety of Noah and Jocelyn.
The fleet of eleven helicopters under the turquoise sky was a spectacular sight.
The people at the bottom, hearing the sound, all looked twice.
At 1,50, the fleet of helicopters arrived at the Flento City Stadium on time.
Outside the stadium, there was a huge crowd of people.
Many were late arrivals to the game.

The moment the aircraft team arrived, everyone lifted their heads and put their eyes on the helicopters.

While in the sky, Noah calmly manipulated the lift stick and landed his aircraft in front of the stadium gate, on the flat spot.

After his helicopter landed, the other helicopters, too, landed.

The speeding propellers brought up a gust of wind that covered the sky as if it could sweep away the sun and moon.

The eleven helicopters, parked side by side, were like a small helicopter exhibition, which drew people's attention!

Many people couldn't help but gasp in awe.

Under the gaze of countless pairs of eyes, the eleven helicopters turned off their engines at the same time.

A thousand bodyguards were the first to disembark.

After that, two bodyguards pulled open the hatch for Noah and Jocelyn.

Chapter 730 BP

Meanwhile, the players on the CE team's side were facing the game indifferently.

Commentator A, "I think this version of Euphorius is not as strong as the female police, I feel that this one, Jocelyn early on against the line, will be difficult."

Commentator B, "Yes, this version of the female police to fight the Uphillus, is absolutely superior. In fact, I think, Jocelyn should then choose the female police."

The game began, the crowd bought their outfit, they followed Jocelyn's command to reach the lower lane and ambushed in the grass at the opposite lower lane's first tower.

When the opponent's assistant and AD appeared, Jocelyn led her support to seduce.

Because the opposite AD was overly aggressive, he was soon killed by Jocelyn.

Without waiting for the others to make a move, Jocelyn killed the opposite support.

This was a complete one-two punch, and her support hardly helped.

At this time, the two commentators exclaimed together, "What? What's happening?"

Commentator A, "The female police is clearly dominant when she fights Uphalius, why is this female police, instead, killed by Uphalius alone?"

Commentator B, "What the hell is this Uphirius? Why is Jocelyn's Uphilius different from everyone else's?"

Commentator A, "Well, don't say version, Jocelyn is the version, right? As long as the operation is good, it is can reverse the version."

The official live studio pop-ups showed up.
