Chapter 981 Couple's Variety Show (3)

At this point, the entire crew was touched by this scene.

Especially the female staff at the scene felt their heartbeat has missed half a beat.

What a lovey-dovey!

After Rosa left, part of the film crew, on the other hand, followed in Rosa's footsteps.

The other part of the group, however, continued to be in the kitchen, filming Ryan.

After leaving the kitchen, Rosa reached the dining room, playing with her phone while waiting for breakfast.

She tried to make herself ignore the camera as much as possible.

Behaved exactly as usual.

And Ryan, having skilfully prepared the egg and tomato sandwich, divided the pre-prepared, warmed orange milk, vegetable salad, into two portions.

After placing everything on the dinner plate, Ryan walked straight into the dining room.

He first placed a glass of milk in front of Rosa.

And then placed another glass of milk in front of himself.

Immediately afterwards, he placed the finished sandwiches, the vegetable salad, all on the table and distributed the knives and forks by the way.

Rosa, on the other hand, was not even moving, just continuing to look at her phone.

Throughout the whole process, Ryan did everything possible.

When he saw that the things were arranged, Ryan leaned down and naturally took Rosa's mobile phone.

And then he sat down beside her, "Eat first, okay?"

Rosa nodded obediently, "Okay."

The female staff on site, once again, was envious at the image.

Rosa drank a glass of milk before picking up a sandwich and taking a careful bite.

One bite went down and the white salad dressing inside accidentally stained the corner of her mouth.

But she was oblivious to it and continued to eat.

Seeing this, Ryan then looked at her tenderly and said, "Rosa."

Rosa followed in Ryan's footsteps, flanked by the film crew, and went straight into the piano room.

Inside the piano room, the four walls all made of glass.

The sun was just right outside at the moment.

The whole world is resplendent and dazzling.

A warm glow scatters over the snow-white piano with its premium texture.

It makes that already valuable piano seem extraordinarily expensive and unaffordable.

Ryan tenderly led Rosa to sit in front of the piano.

Then he carefully lifted the piano and placed his hands on the immaculate black and white keys.

His beautiful fingertips began to dance on the keys.

The beautiful, soothing tune rings out, slowing the rhythm of the whole world, for a moment, to a crawl.

The tune, it seems can warm the years and heal everything.

After playing for ten seconds or so, Ryan began to follow the tune in earnest, humming -

The heartfelt lyrics with the soothing music and Ryan's gentle voice flowed into Rosa's deepest heart.

The depth of feeling between his words moved her.

There was a moment when Rosa's eyes, moreover, could not help but redden.

The brilliant sunlight leaps casually between his fingertips.

Reflecting her boy, he is extraordinarily attractive and charming.

Chapter 983 My Love Is You

And the crew, at this time, were once again deeply immersed in this heartfelt song.

The picture was so beautiful that everyone was abused.

Yet, it was willingly done.

At the end of the second play, Rosa smiled and asked, "I just forgot to ask you, what is the name of this song?"

Without thinking, Ryan said, "My love is you."

Rosa sniffed, and once again warmth flowed inside her.

My love is you.

The name of the song is beautiful.

"Like it?" Ryan asked.

"Yes."

"Rosa."

"Yes?"

"My love is you."

Rosa blushed again.

The shyness of a girl is completely unconcealed.

"Do you want to hear it again?" Ryan added.

"No, you're tired. Let's go out."

"OK, go and rest, would you like something to drink?"

Rosa thought seriously for a few seconds, "No, why hasn't my ice cream arrived yet? Just want it."

Ryan looked at Rosa with a helpless face, and opened his phone's takeaway software, ready to see where things had gone.

It was at this time that the doorbell rang.

Rosa stood up happily, "It must be my ice cream, I'll go get it."

The caller is Allie.

Seeing that, Ryan picked up the phone and said, "Mom is to check my work again. Want to see if I'm taking good care of you."

Only after saying that, Ryan was in no hurry and pressed the answer.

Soon Allie's voice rang out, "I heard from Rosa that you are at home today, did you take good care of Rosa?"

Hearing that, Ryan turned on his speaker, wanting Rosa to hear it too.

Rosa, on the other hand, was listening at the moment.

Hearing Allie's voice, Rosa now feels more intimate than hearing her own mother's voice.

This mother-in-law cares more about her mother does.

The phone calls from her mother-in-law since she has been pregnant have always come much more frequently than my mother.

Ryan naturally put his arm around Rosa's shoulders and said, "Yes, if you don't believe me, ask Rosa."

"Is Rosa with you?"

"Yes."

"Mum, I'm."

"Rosa, did he really take good care of you? Meet all your requests?" Allie asked.

"Yes, mum, don't worry, you know what kind of person Ryan is." Rosa said truthfully.

"That's good. that's good. Rosa, what do you want to eat, just tell him, no need to be polite with him. Your husband is there working for you." Allie said again.

Hearing this, Ryan glanced helplessly at the camera.

And then Ryan looked at his phone again and asked, "Mom, I have a question I've been wanting to ask you."

[Rosa is really too cute, she understands our mind so well.]

[Really impressed by Rosa, I know the reason why Ryan loves her, who wouldn't love a girl like that?]

[Rosa is not as delicate and good-looking as the showbiz girls, but gentle and lovely, hahaha.]

At this moment, Rosa was hugging her laptop and watching her variety show with Ryan.

Ryan sat quietly next to her, feeding her while watching together.

She always opens the pop-up every now and then.

And she knows almost everything the pop-ups say.

There is no doubt that this variety show has pulled in a lot of fans for Ryan.

Ryan's image of a good man was established even more clearly.

And she, too, is gaining more and more Ryan's approval.

It all makes her very happy.

Soon, the scene switches to the ice cream takeaway.

The crew members edited out the whole episode where she cheats on her ice cream and eats the whole box.

With some special effects, and subtitles, the picture looks warm with a touch of vividness and fun.

At this point the pop-ups exploded again -

[Hahaha, Ryan has set up by Rosa.]

"Yeah," Ryan smiled lightly, still gentle.

"Keep looking, I'll go up and put the bath water on for you, okay?"

"Okay."

"Be good."

Ryan then got up and stepped upstairs.

The Weibo hotspot says above that the first issue as of now, it reached two billion.

Record-breaking hits for Variety.

And at the moment, it's just hard to break the record.

And because of this variety show, Ryan's fan base skyrocketed by 5 million after the show started.

Ryan super talk has more than two million new fans.

All the good news has made Rosa's heart happy.

All the statistics that tell her that her husband's position as Asia's top star, even when married, is untouchable.

Ryan, after all, is still Ryan.

As long as he does not voluntarily withdraw, he will remain on top of the world, enjoying the satisfaction of added glory.

When she clicked on her homepage, she saw that some bloggers she followed on her homepage were all posting, at this moment, about Ryan's variety show.

Chapter 987 The Shocking News

At the sound of his words, Rosa's heart was suddenly warmed.

Although he didn't hear the entire contents of Ryan's call, Rosa probably knew what Ryan was talking about.

She quickened her pace and met Ryan.

Ryan saw how she was walking, and then stepped forward with a tense face to hold her in place.

And then with one hand covering the microphone position, he looked at Rosa and said, "What's wrong with you? Didn't I tell you to go up the stairs slower? If you hurt my wife, you'll pay for it?"

Rosa, "I'll pay."

Ryan, "I am afraid you can't afford to pay."

Rosa, "..."

Ryan, "Go wait for me upstairs, I'll have a few words with Paige."

As soon as Rosa heard it was Paige, she took Ryan's phone and asked, "Paige, is there another couple variety show that you want me and Ryan to participate in?"

Paige said truthfully, "Yes."

Rosa leaned naturally against the staircase railing, before looking at Ryan and saying, "Is it good, Paige?"

"The Lychee TV makes it, so it's a fine product, but I'm prepared to refuse. You don't have to ask about it." added Paige.

"Don't refuse it." Rosa was straightforward, "Wait until I discuss it with Ryan."

Paige added, "Okay then."

Rosa then hung up the phone, and then looked at Ryan.

At this moment Ryan is looking at her with full of probing eyes, "You want to participate in the show? You're pregnant right now. That show will have outdoor filming, it's very tiring."

Rosa stepped forward, took his hand, "But I'm not afraid of tired, and now my pregnancy reaction is completely gone, fear of cold and so on are gone."

Chapter 988 Jocelyn gets scolded (1)

Murphy Group's official blog claims that the drug is called Life Returning Pill, and with just one, it can completely cure all kinds of acute and chronic leukaemia.

And at the same time, Murphy Group even shared, this period of time, their own family's newly opened drug company, cured a variety of typical acute and chronic leukemia cases.

Just asking to be trusted by everyone.

The cost of the pills, according to Murphy's, is five thousand a piece, but said it doesn't earn a penny.

In an instant, the official Weibo feed was filled with curse.

[I don't believe you. 5,000 for one tablet can cure all kinds of acute and chronic leukemia? Do you think I'm a child of three?]

[What kind of miracle herbs cost five thousand? This is fooling around, even though I still think Jocelyn is a nice person, she is really an evil capitalist!]

[Who the hell buys it, who the hell is stupid? Five thousand a piece, why not go rob it?]

[Seriously, if 5,000 could really cure the disease, it would naturally be worth it, but now everyone knows that leukemia is something that can't be cured with a pill. It takes time, right?]

[How did this kind of drug company get approved to open? It's really privileged, isn't it? Why don't you go to hell, @Jocelyn?]

[Griffin Group and Murphy Group are going bankrupt together? You don't have any money, do you? How dare you play a scam?]

[Is there no justice? Nobody cares about this? Shouldn't they hurry up and arrest Jocelyn for investigation?]

Some of the country's leading experts have come out in support of the Murphy Group at this time.

And that everything is true.

These leading experts, too, have been called out for their work.

None were spared.

Inside the office of the chairman of the Murphy Group, Jocelyn was clear and took in the contents of the mobile phone in her eyes.

"Why are they calling Jocelyn's name? I'm sure our sister-in-law wouldn't come out with nonsense like this if it wasn't a particularly reliable thing."

"And, aren't there many cured cases already? Why do these people still don't believe but just curse?"

"Ryan, get on Weibo and help your sister-in-law scold them back."

Rosa felt angry when she looked at the screenshots of those cursing.

Even a person with an extremely good temper like her could not stand it at this point.

She really didn't dare to think what kind of mood Jocelyn herself was in.

"What five thousand is too expensive? And ask what miracle pill that costs five thousand. There are more expensive herbs, these people don't go online?" Rosa once again could not help but spit out.

Looking at Rosa's angry like that, Ryan thinks she is cute.

Ryan stroked her hair lightly and said, "Okay."

Rosa couldn't help but shattered, "Jocelyn is great, this is to benefit mankind. I finally know why you used to like her so much."

"Who can resist such an excellent young lady?" Rosa said again.

After saying that, Rosa immediately realized that she had said the wrong thing.

She closed her mouth, and then, blushing, she carefully looked at Ryan and covered her mouth.

A slight surprise flashed across Ryan's eyes.

"So you know all about it?" Ryan asked.

Rosa smiled slightly, still with an embarrassed look on her face, "Well, I know. I just never asked you."

After saying that, Ryan then handed the phone to Rosa, "What are you going to do to help our sister-in-law out?"

Rosa logged on to Ryan's Weibo and forwarded a piece of content that Murphy Group posted about the special medicine for leukemia.

And then typed a line, [Scold after you get the truth. Support my sister-in-law.]

Immediately afterwards, Rosa then looked at Ryan and asked, "Is this okay?"

Ryan was still full of doting eyes, "If you think it's okay, then it's okay."

Rosa, "I think it's OK."

With that, she pressed send.

In an instant, the tweet exploded below -

[Ryan, are you crazy? You still support Jocelyn?]

[Jocelyn obviously sells fake drugs, you actually dare to support her. I really misjudged you. I think our fate can be the end.]

[What should I do if my idol is an idiot?]

All kinds of curses, one after another, made Rosa and Ryan speechless.

But they all know that it is temporary.

By the time Jocelyn had proved herself again, these people would stop.

Jocelyn was in her office and soon saw Ryan's tweet in support of her.

Including those cursing remarks, Jocelyn was all over the place.

And right after that, she saw Paige, the official X Entertainment blog, and Allie's strong support.

What is beyond doubt is that these people were scolded.
