Chapter 991 Do you know what I saw?

Popular opinion, just like that, was turned around in a flash.

Feeling tired after work, Jocelyn closed her laptop, clicked on Weibo.

The images on Weibo were what she expected.

At this very moment, her Weibo messages were in an uproar -

[Jocelyn, I'm really sorry. Never thought that you would really be so awesome.]

[Really thank you, you're benefiting all mankind.]

[Seriously, if you can really cure the disease, 5,000 is really not much.]

[I apologize to you.]

And at the same time, Jocelyn saw a message, very attention-grabbing, [@Jocelyn, on your official channel, the medicine has been sold out, when will it hit the shelves again please? Or are there any other channels?]

The person who left the message was the same person who, earlier, claimed that he would not buy the medicine even if she begged him, leukaemia specialist Samuel.]

Seeing this, Jocelyn unconsciously hooked her lips.

Inside, she was not much of a ripple.

All of this, after all, is human nature.

Taking a breath, Jocelyn forwarded, [Only sold in our website. I will urge my team to continue to work overtime to manufacture the life returning pill, and as soon as it is made, it will be on the shelves at the first opportunity.]

During this period of time, the stock of life returning pill is 100,000 pills.

As far as she knows, that stuff is all on the shelves today.

Originally, when the President and the others hadn't come out to help prove it, not a single one was sold.

But in just a short while, in just ten minutes, all 100,000 of them were sold out.

At the sound of her words, a glint of inquiry arose in Jocelyn's eyes, "What?"

Sophie said, "You get up now and look downstairs."

Jocelyn asked, "What happened downstairs? Have all those people who protested against me dispersed by now?"

After all, it's over.

Sophie shook her head, "You had your head buried in your work, you must not know, you hurry up and take a look."

Jocelyn glanced at Sophie, and then, with full of questions, got up and walked to the floor-to-ceiling window, and then, overlooking the picture at her feet.

At this point, many, many people had gathered downstairs.

Everyone was down there, yelling something.

Her position, from downstairs, was too far away, and the voices below were not neat, she had no idea, what exactly those people were shouting.

It had been a long time of straining to hear, and she managed with difficulty to catch part of it, probably-

[Jocelyn, Jocelyn, beautiful woman with a good heart, Jocelyn, Jocelyn, you're an angel, Jocelyn, Jocelyn, we're evil, Jocelyn, Jocelyn, so sorry.]

Everyone speaks very untidily, but the words that come out of their mouths are all the same.

As she listened, the corners of her mouth once again curved up in a gentle curve.

She was really curious about what kind of person had made them up.

It's quite fun.

A smile grew at the corners of Jocelyn's mouth as she thought about it.

Sophie, with a smug face, took Jocelyn's arm and said, "Sister-in-law, now those who were protesting against you, at this moment, have all changed their minds, everyone knows they were wrong, and at this moment, they are all apologizing to you."

"It's the same people as before, they just don't have the same agenda anymore." Sophie added.

Jocelyn and the others then looked around at the sound.
In front of her, there were so many people surrounding her that at a glance she couldn't see anything.
Soon, the crowd in front of her consciously made a path.

A middle-aged woman standing at the end of the crowd, her face covered in tears, appeared in front of Jocelyn's eyes.

She is a specialist in the field of leukaemia treatment, called May, who had previously, on Weibo, called her out.

May scolded her very badly.

Call he the all-consuming capitalist.

And what's more, only a fool would buy her medicine, Jocelyn is a liar, whoever listens to her is doomed to be cheated.

Looking at her, from being overbearing to being pitiful, Jocelyn was, for a moment, in a bit of a trance.

Soon, the woman ran to her.

Without waiting for her to say anything, she flung herself in front of her, on her knees.

This image made Jocelyn full of consternation, "What are you doing?"

"Jocelyn, you are really great. I want to worship you as my teacher, OK? In the future, I am willing to follow you to continue to devote myself to the research of all kinds of difficult and complicated diseases."

"As long as you are willing to take me in, I am willing to do whatever you ask me to do."

"You really are too good, and I want to apologise for my previous behaviour, I'm the fool."

"You know what? My mum was moved straight from the CIU to a general ward after taking your medication and she's due to be discharged tomorrow."

May said with incomparable sincerity, under her eyes with an unconcealed excitement.

At this moment, May has completely lost the high-minded and overbearing look she had when she was looking down on her on Weibo.

There is just endless humility, and honesty, sorry.

Constantly thanking her for saving their family.

After everyone had finished, she had, in her hands, many more bank cards.

Looking at the thick stack of bank cards in her hand, Jocelyn smiled, and then returned the things to them one by one, "Money is not necessary. I am not short of it."

Several people laughed at once

They have said that in future, if they work with Murphy Group, they will give more profits to Murphy Group.

Some of them even said that if their companies invest in movies and TV dramas, they will give priority to X Entertainment's artists.

Jocelyn smiled, "Okay."

They are all respectful and obedient in front of Jocelyn.

The sight before them was a sight to behold and the girls present were inwardly envious.

Just ask, who wouldn't be attracted by handsome men?

For a while, the world was talking -

Just the man realised he had said the wrong thing, "No, you are the chairman, I was too excited so say the wrong things."

Noah, "It doesn't matter."

The chairman today was so accommodating.

Noah, "Alright, meeting adjourned. No one needs to work overtime today."

All, inwardly, cheered.

Can the lady make more big moves?

Can she be complimented by others more often?

That way, they did not have to work overtime everyday.

With everyone watching, Noah took out his personal mobile phone and dialed Jocelyn's number, walking gently outside while saying, "What are you doing, honey?"

The tone of voice was different from when he was dealing with other people.

But everyone has long since become accustomed to it.

The crowd looked at each other before letting out a long sigh of relief.

On the other side of the phone, Jocelyn said, "I'm at work. What about you?"

Noah, "Just finished a meeting and was going to see you later."

Jocelyn, "Don't come, I reckon a lot of reporters will gather in front of the company later, you'll be seen coming and be pestered again."

Noah, "It doesn't matter."

He missed her and wanted to check her out.

And he was, at the moment, just about free.

Jocelyn, "Well then, on the way over, you can bring me a cup of milk tea. Strawberry flavoured."

Noah, "Okay."

Jocelyn was still in the file at this point, buried in her work.

When she saw Noah coming, her tense nerves immediately relaxed.

There is something magical about this man.

No matter how tired she is, even the sight of him makes her unconsciously relax.

When she saw that Noah had bought her favourite strawberry milk tea, Jocelyn went forward joyfully, took his arm and said, "It's my favourite one."

Noah gently stroked Jocelyn's hair and spoke in a soft voice, "Yes."

Jocelyn, "You're not going to get in line, are you?"

Noah, "Yes."

Jocelyn, "Thank you, hubby."

At this moment, she felt, inside, warm and fuzzy.

Noah opened the milk tea, poked it and put it into her hands, saying, "Drink it."

Jocelyn took the milk tea and took a sip.

Sweet to the heart.

Taking Noah's hand, she led him all the way to the front of the sofa and sat down.

As soon as she sat down, Jocelyn lazily leaned against the man, sipping her milk tea while saying, "The journalists downstairs didn't bother you just now, did it?"

Noah, "No."

Jocelyn, "Have you been interviewed yet?"

Noah, "Yes."

Jocelyn, "Oh, what have you been asked?"

Noah, "It's not much."

Feeling neck and shoulder some soreness, Jocelyn slightly turned her neck and said, "I am really tired, my neck is uncomfortable."

Because she had been working with her head down, at this moment, her entire neck and shoulders were stiff.

"Turn around." Noah said.

Immediately, Jocelyn dutifully turned around with a smile on his lips.

Inside, the house is decorated with balloons of various colours, and flowers, beautifully and joyfully decorated.

The fragrant scent of various flowers flows freely in the warmth of the space.

Refreshing.

The world is as beautiful as a fairy tale.

Looking around for a moment, Jocelyn found Allen and Connie.

At this moment, Allen is sitting in front of the living room coffee table with Connie, discussing something.

In front of the two is a huge bouquet of white roses.

By visual estimation, there are about ninety-nine of them.

The exaggerated scenes left Jocelyn all sorts of confused.

What is Father preparing to do?

Are they preparing for marriage?

It was at this time that Allen and Connie became aware of the arrival of Jocelyn and Noah.

Allen walked up to Jocelyn with flowers in his arms and a joyful smile.

Connie, following closely, is all smiles.

Soon after, Allen placed the flowers in Jocelyn's arms.

The rich scent of roses pours into the nostrils, which is the ultimate comfort.

The bouquet was beautifully wrapped and each flower was in perfect bloom.

Great to look at.

Jocelyn, with eyes full of consternation, looked at Allen and asked, "Dad, what you're doing?"

She rinsed the box and threw it in the bin.

And then carefully carrying the meat, she entered the dining room.

Putting down the meat, she looked deeply at the object, the look in her eyes obscure.

Turning around, she went back into the kitchen again and brought all the other meals she had originally prepared into the dining room.

A variety of dishes with a wide range of colours and flavours.

Appetizing.

Distributing the dishes, she walked to the kitchen door, looked at the happy family and said, "Everyone, come over for dinner."

At this moment, Allen was joyfully holding Jocelyn's and Noah's hands and talking.

His face was full of happiness.

Looking at his smiling face, at this moment, Connie's mood was indescribably complicated.

Taking a deep breath, she gathered up all her emotions and walked straight to the front of the table and sat down.

Soon Jocelyn and the others washed their hands and went straight into the dining room.

Jocelyn joined Noah first and helped Allen to the main seat where he belonged.

Only afterwards did they come together and sit opposite him and Connie.

The picture is harmonious, warm and beautiful.

Allen raised his eyes and looked at his beautiful girlfriend, and obedient daughter, son-in-law, his heart couldn't be more satisfied.

Chapter 999 Together

At this moment, Jocelyn's motherly instincts were completely aroused.

Even the look on her face became tender.

Fondly, she caressed her belly, eating while imagining, in her mind's eye, the image of her soft, cuddly child, rolling over in her belly.

The baby that is growing day by day, and her husband takes care of her.

At this moment, Jocelyn felt that she was the luckiest girl under the sky.

After dinner, Jocelyn joined Noah, hand in hand, and went out the door.

Outside the door, the sky is dense with red clouds and it is snowing heavily.

Swathes and swathes of snowflakes are beautifully vivid against the light.

The yard is a vast expanse of white.

It is clean and beautiful to look at.

"Honey, let's take a walk home. I want to walk with you and leave the car here for someone to drive tomorrow."

"Okay."

Noah has never been anything but responsive to Jocelyn.

With those words, he took off the black coat he was wearing and draped it over Jocelyn's white coat, saying, "It's cold, you'll have to wear more if you walk."

The coat came off, leaving the man with only a dark blue turtleneck cashmere sweater.

The fabric of the cashmere sweater is very soft and on him, it looks extra classy.

When Jocelyn looked at the image, she felt cold.

She immediately reached out her hand, ready to take off her clothes and give them back to Noah.

Instead, Noah wrapping her tightly, and spoke dominantly, "Listen, you are not alone now."

Jocelyn, "But you'll be cold."

The coat, which smells of his perfume, a hint of ebony incense, is extra warm, premium and textured for this winter.

This is one of her favourite men's fragrances.

Noah, "I'm not cold. "

The man then took her hand in a domineering manner and led her, through the snow, all the way forward.

An intense warmth spread from the abdomen and throughout the body.

And immediately afterwards, she felt that her whole body, in its entirety, seemed to possess unlimited power.

All the fatigue that was on her body has disappeared.

As if she had just woken up in the morning, in high spirits.

This wonderful sensation made her feel surprised.

Why, when a child kicks her, does it feel that way?

This goes to her knowledge blind spot.

Just then, Noah walked up to her and said, "Go take a bath."

With her eyes full of tenderness, she gently stroked her stomach and looked at Noah and said, "Baby kicked me."

At those words, Noah's gaze, too, softened a lot.

Noah placed his hand on Jocelyn's abdomen, his eyes full of love, "Soon, we will be able to see each other."

It was at this time that Jocelyn's stomach, again, was gently kicked.

Just right, that's where Noah touched it.

Noah felt his heart, at once, melting.

"Is it feeling I am touching your stomach? It actually kicked me." the corner of Noah's mouth hooked up a nice arc.

Jocelyn smiled, "I guess so."

Noah didn't say anything and continued to caress Jocelyn's belly.

Naturally, Jocelyn leaned back against the backrest of the sofa and let Noah's hands roaming freely around her.

At this moment, she couldn't help but exclaim, "Life is really amazing."

Noah said, "It's really great to be a mother."

At this moment, Noah's heart was filled with gratitude.

He raised his head and looked at Jocelyn, "Thank you for conceiving our children for me."

It was at this time that the doorbell rang.

Jocelyn looked to the door, "Who is it in this late hour?"
