

Chapter 1

Legendary FBI Detective ~

“Father...Father, how is this possible?”

The Fourth Raikage, who was already seriously injured, was horrified when he saw his father was killed instantly with one move.

In the final analysis, it is because the third generation Raikage is too confident in his strongest shield. If it were the fourth generation Raikage, he would never dare to let Uchiha Hiba's Kusanagi sword aim at his heart, because it is indeed possible for his Thunder Chakra mode to break the defense.

“A good swimmer drowns in the water... After the strongest shield is broken, the death of the strongest Raikage is the destined fate!”

Uchiha Feiyu let out a long breath. With the third generation Raikage's vitality, even if his heart was pierced, he might still be able to survive for ten minutes, and even be able to fight a few more attacks. Unfortunately, the evil spirit was injured. Damage to the body and soul would directly kill the third Raikage.

Stretching out his hand, Uchiha Feiyu activated the ability of the Soul-Conquering General, directly summoning the soul of the Third Raikage with a small wound on his heart.

With the soul taken back, Uchiha Feiyu could feel that the soul in his hand was injured by the evil spirit and was slightly weak, but it was only weak, and it was not that he could not use it.

After killing the Third Raikage, Uchiha Hiba turned his attention to the Fourth Raikage. The Fourth Raikage was originally immersed in the grief and shock of his father's death. At this moment, he saw Uchiha Hiba's eyes. Suddenly his body shook and he shouted loudly:

“Bi, take all the cloud ninjas and retreat! You are allowed to use the full tailed beast mode!”

Although this can increase the strength of the Fourth Raikage to its peak in a short period of time, it will leave endless sequelae in the future. But obviously, the current Fourth Raikage no longer considers the future.

"Take everyone and escape. This time we Kumo ninja are defeated...Escape quickly!"

The Fourth Raikage's face was resolute. Even though his bronze complexion had turned pale due to blood loss and soul trauma, however, the lightning on his body became more shining and dazzling, and even appeared on his body that had been tempered for thousands of times. A hint of burnt black color.

Although the Fourth Raikage is now seriously injured, an ordinary ninja might have passed out immediately, but it is precisely because of the difficulty in recovering from serious injuries that he is determined to die. The current Fourth Raikage is probably more powerful than him. The normal state is even more dangerous.

At this moment, Kirabi, who had turned into a half-tailed beast and was fighting Namikaze Minato, was shocked when he heard his elder brother's voice. He turned around and saw the standing body of the Third Raikage.

"Tsk, that's really troublesome. Teacher Orochimaru, I'll leave this seriously injured person to you!"

Uchiha Feiyu glanced at the Kusanagi sword inserted into the chest of the Third Raikage, and made up his mind that he would definitely imprint a psychic technique on this sword in the future, but now that he was unarmed and had consumed most of his chakra, he still Stop fighting the Fourth Raikage.

"Sandaime-sama...how could this happen?!"

That is because the body can no longer withstand the Thunder Chakra that exceeds the limit, causing the physical body to be injured and on the verge of collapse.

The pale Orochimaru twitched the corner of his mouth and wanted to say something, but found that the Uchiha Feiha next to him had gradually disappeared into the air. It was his camouflage hidden technique.

"You bastard, you Uchiha brat, get out of here and fight me like a man, you * coward!"

At the moment when Uchiha Feiyu's figure disappeared, a * lightning flashed, and the Fourth Raikage punched the air, looked around, and suddenly yelled angrily. He really didn't expect that the Uchiha kid in front of him would be so shameless. Seeing that he had used all the forbidden techniques, the opponent actually became invisible and escaped!

Feeling the loss of life force in his body and his body gradually being paralyzed by lightning, the Fourth Raikage's eyes glowed with blood. He suddenly turned his head and looked at Orochimaru next to him.

Orochimaru twitched the corner of his mouth, with a helpless look on his face. He stretched out his hand, and nine silver snakes snaked out from his sleeves, forming a silver snake sword. He said:

“If I take on two more apprentices like this, I'll probably lose my life!”

After becoming invisible, Uchiha Feiyu immediately sneaked back to the Third Raikage's side, withdrew his Kusanagi sword, and then looked at the chaotic battlefield around him with a smile on his lips.

The third Raikage is dead, and the fourth Raikage is almost there, but only some ninjas on the edge of the battlefield can see it. It will take at least ten minutes for the news to be completely spread to every Kumo ninja.

Even if the Cloud Ninjas receive the news and begin to retreat, it will be difficult to get rid of the Konoha Ninjas entangled with them in a short period of time. In short, it will take at least more than half an hour for more than 5,000 Cloud Ninjas to truly retreat.

And these more than half an hour are the best hunting time for Uchiha Feiyu!

Night falls quietly, and the battlefield where the fighting was fierce during the day has now turned into a silent cemetery.

On the battlefield, only the ninjas of Konoha are now collecting the corpses of the ninjas from their own ninja village.

Orochimaru, who had a pale face, bleeding from the corners of his mouth, and half of his long hair cut off, was sitting on a rock, directing his ninjas to clean up the battlefield.

A golden flash of light appeared in front of Orochimaru. Orochimaru glanced at Namikaze Minato and asked:

“How is it? Did you keep him?”

Minato Namikaze also looked like the sunshine. His blond hair was messy, his face was covered with sweat, he was panting and his face was pale, and he looked like his chakra had been exhausted.

"No...the jinchūriki's defense is too strong, and my attacks are basically ineffective."

After hearing this, Orochimaru had no regrets on his face and spoke calmly:

"If you don't stay, then you don't stay. This time the Third Raikage and his successors are all dead. If the Eight-Tails Jinchūriki is really killed, it may not be a good thing for Konoha."

Konoha itself is located in the center of the continent where the four battles took place. From a military point of view, this kind of terrain is a situation where the strong will annex the world, and the weak will devour the tigers. Unfortunately, it has been lost since the first Hokage and Uchiha Madara started the civil war. An opportunity to truly annex the world.

If Konoha is really too strong now, then other big and small ninja villages will eventually unite and attack in groups.

Even though the Kumo ninja and Suna ninja are now disabled, Konoha's losses are not small at all. Although there are no casualties among the shadow-level experts, nearly half of the grassroots ninja below have been killed or injured.

Otherwise, facing the nearly 4,000 invading ninjas of the Kumo ninja, Konoha would not only send less than 3,000 ninjas to deal with it. The grassroots level was really in a hurry and there was no manpower left.

"Furthermore...that guy Feiyu hasn't come back yet. I'm afraid he's still hanging on the backs of those Yun Ninjas. With that kid's murderous intention, Yun Ninjas will definitely suffer a lot!"
