

FBI Detective 521

Chapter 521 Another missing agent, the smuggler, heads to the Bahamas

Half an hour later, the incident happened on a beach a few kilometers south of the port.

“These are the death information of all the deceased people in the port that day.”

Next to a car, Chenelle took out a few pieces of thick paper from her pocket and handed them to Luo An and the other three. At the same time, she explained:

“The local law enforcement authorities only conducted basic autopsies on these deceased persons. Before the autopsy reports were completed, I simply compared their information.”

The dead at the port, except for some suspected men of the arms dealer Hamilton, as well as the dead from third-party forces that suddenly appeared, were only three agents from the Chicago Special Investigation Team and the FBI headquarters.

Chenelle's face turned cold and she said:

“There are seven people in the Chicago Special Investigation Team, and the dead at the port include team leader Eason Patel, and team members Alan, James and Vivian, a total of four people.

We previously met Donnita and Norberto who escaped and were captured.

As for team member Ivan, there was only his blood at the scene, not his body. "

“Sonof better than eating!”

Winslow cursed under his breath and said:

“Now it seems certain that Ivan is the mole.”

Luo An's expression remained unchanged. Seeing this, Cheniel handed him the paper in her hand and explained with an ugly expression:

“The three agents from the FBI headquarters in Washington are all men, and their names are Wilson, Leon, and Alex.

Local law enforcement authorities found only the bodies of Wilson and Leon at the port.

The last agent Alex, there was only his blood at the scene, not his body! ”

Winslow looked left and right, then cursed and said:

“How did Minister Alexander choose the people, and how did he get so many moles in one operation?”

Chenelle rolled her eyes at Winslow, looked at Luo An and said in a deep voice:

“The question now is, whose mole is Alex? What is his purpose? Where is he now?”

Luo An rubbed his temples, feeling that the inside story of this case was getting more and more complicated. He was silent for a few seconds, put away the documents, looked at Mona, and asked:

“Have you found any information about the smuggler's subordinates?”

Now the main goal of the four of them is to find Jasper, the leader of the criminal group. Although the smuggler is dead, it is certainly impossible for all of his men to die. There is always someone who knows some information.

“The smuggler has a cousin who is also in the smuggling business.”

Mona turned around her laptop, showed a photo of a man to Luo An, and said:

“He must know something.”

“Good.”

Luo An waved his hand for Cheniel to get in the car, and then said:

“Winslow, drive, let's go talk to this cousin.”

Previously, I learned that the bald man and his group were also looking for Jasper. In order not to alert the enemy, Luo An decided not to use his identity as a law enforcement agency this time.

He first asked Chenelle to buy some black balaclavas, and then asked Winslow to drive to the entertainment venue where the snakehead cousin often went.

After waiting for a moment, the snake-headed cousin walked out of the entertainment venue with a smile and hugged two women with heavy makeup. The three of them walked to the parking lot. Luo An, whose face was covered with a hood, immediately picked up a brick that could be seen everywhere and hit the snake-headed cousin on the head. superior.

score

With a muffled sound, the snake-headed cousin rolled his eyes and went limp. Luo An took advantage of this and put the black hood he had prepared earlier on his head.

Then Luo An gave the two women ten dollars each to silence their screams. Finally, he picked up the smuggler's cousin and threw him into the car. Winslow stepped on the accelerator and the vehicle disappeared on the road in an instant. , the entire kidnapping process took less than 30 seconds.

“...”x4

Two women with heavy makeup couldn't stop looking at the ten dollars in their hands for a long time. Chenille's eyes in the car were very shocked, and Mona was speechless. Why did she feel that Luo An was very skilled in kidnapping? Look!

Half an hour later, at the beach a few kilometers south of the port where the crime occurred, the snakehead cousin slowly woke up with the familiar sea breeze blowing.

As soon as he opened his eyes, the snakehead cousin saw a man and two women wearing black hoods not far away, digging holes on the beach with tools.

"woke up?"

The snakehead cousin's eyes widened immediately. Luo An, who was wearing a hood, laughed when he saw the other person's performance. He took out the rag from the other person's mouth and asked:

“I ask and you answer, otherwise you go to sleep in that pit. Is there any problem?”

“Fu-k!”

The rag from his mouth was taken out, and the snakehead cousin suddenly cursed:

“Do you know who I am? Damn it...” Bang—

Luo An didn't talk nonsense. He hit the snake-headed cousin * the head with his pistol, then held the gun against the snake-headed cousin and asked:

“I'm asking, Q&A, for the last time, do you have any questions?”

Seeing the pistol with the safety on in Luo An's hand, the snake-headed cousin nodded with a few drops of cold sweat on his forehead. Then he thought of something and quickly shook his head wildly.

“Good.”

Luo An took back his pistol and asked directly:

“What happened on the day your cousin died?”

Hearing Luo An's question, the snakehead cousin let out a sigh of relief and quickly answered:

“My cousin received an order that day, and the person asked to leave the Federation and go to the Bahamas as quickly as possible.

My cousin was resting at the time and had no intention of agreeing, but the other party gave him too much...”

After listening to the smuggler's cousin's account, Luo An took out a photo of Jasper from his pocket and asked:

“Is he the one who is looking for your cousin?”

"have no idea."

The snakehead cousin shook his head. He didn't go with him that day, and he didn't see the other person's face. He didn't know who the big customer was.

“However, when a gun battle broke out later, my cousin called me for help and said that the group of people were wearing body armor, holding rifles, and were well-trained...”

After hearing how powerful the enemy was described by his cousin on the phone, the smuggler cousin immediately... hung up the phone and did not dare to rescue anyone.

Luo An's eyes moved slightly, and the enemy's equipment and clothing described by his cousin were exactly the same as the bald man and others they met in the abandoned industrial park before, so the person looking for the smuggler was most likely Jasper.

After a few seconds of silence, Luo An then asked:

“Where is your cousin's boat? Can you find it?”

“Has been driven to the Bahamas!”

The smuggler's cousin said that his acquaintances in the Bahamas saw his cousin's boat, but not his cousin, and called him to inquire about it.

"very good."

Luo An nodded with satisfaction and raised his hand slightly. The three Winslows not far away immediately stopped digging the hole. The snakehead cousin let out a sigh of relief when he saw this.

Without waiting for the snakehead cousin to speak, Luo An shook the pistol in his hand and asked with a smile:

“Two final questions: How long does it take to get to the Bahamas from here? And, where is your ship?”

Snakehead cousin: “...”

The Bahamas, an island country located on the west coast of the Atlantic Ocean, has 31 districts and 19 island groups. It is the richest country in the Caribbean. Its per capita GDP is second only to the Commonwealth and Canada in the Western Hemisphere. It is a world-renowned tourist destination.

From Florida to the Bahamas, the straight-line distance is about 80 kilometers, and it only takes half an hour by plane.

Let Trick Kennedy's people take away the smuggler's cousin secretly. The four of Luo An borrowed the smuggler's cousin's boat and left the federation in a few hours and arrived at a major island in the Bahamas.

Stepping off the boat, Winslow looked at the sparkling ocean behind him and said speechlessly:

“I never thought that when I came to the Bahamas, it would be for work.”

“After you finish this case, you will have a chance to fly here during your vacation.”

Luo An smiled and patted Winslow on the shoulder, and then took the three of them to find the acquaintance that the snakehead cousin mentioned before.

The other party has been in the Bahamas for many years, and there is a high probability that he will be able to find Jasper.

At this moment, Mona, who had been busy typing on the computer keyboard with her head down, suddenly changed her face slightly and said aloud:

“Wait a minute, everyone, it seems we don't have to look for the snakehead's cousin's acquaintances.”

Luo An quickly moved to her side and asked:

“Have you found Jasper?”

“Not just Jasper, I've found someone else.”

Mona turned the computer screen, showed a photo of a person to Luo An, and said:

“Our agent Alex, who disappeared at the dock where the crime occurred, is also in the Bahamas!”

Chapter 522: Pursuing Party, New Force, Island

The Bahamas, a major island.

Hearing Mona's words, Roan, Winslow and Chenelle immediately turned their eyes to her computer screen, and sure enough they saw the photos of Agent Alex and Jasper on it.

Chenelle opened her mouth but did not speak. Mona saw this and said in confusion:

“Chanelle, what do you want to say?”

"Forehead..."

Seeing that Winslow and Luo An both turned their eyes to her, Chenelle showed an awkward smile on her face and whispered:

“I don't mean anything else, I'm just curious as to why Mona, you can always use the computer to find people so accurately.”

Mona rolled her eyes speechlessly, turned to the computer screen, and explained:

“It's easy to find Jasper and Alex.

Since they arrived in the Bahamas, gun battles have occurred one after another on these islands, and their information naturally appeared in the Bahamas police system. ”

Mona said that in the third hour after Alex and Jasper arrived in the Bahamas, a group of pursuers dressed like the previous bald men arrived in the Bahamas.

The pursuers quickly found Alex and Jasper, and there was a gun battle between the two sides. There were many pursuers, but the two had no fight and were easily captured by the pursuers.

At the end of the battle between the two sides, when the Bahamas police were about to come out to clear the ground, a new group of equally well-equipped forces suddenly appeared and fought with the pursuers who had captured Alex and Jasper.

The pursuers were caught off guard, fought and retreated, and are now blocked by new forces on a small island in the Bahamas.

As for the Bahamas police, a big shot above issued an order for unknown reasons, so they did not intervene with force and are currently waiting for the fighting to end on other islands.

“...”x3

After listening to Mona's narration, Luo An and the other two fell silent, not knowing what to say.

Chenelle apologized to Mona in a low voice. Mona waved her hand and said it was okay. Winslow looked at Roan and asked:

“What do we do next?”

Luo An was silent for a few seconds and asked:

“Mona, can you find out the number of pursuers and new forces?”

“Before landing on the island, the number of pursuers was about 10, and the number of new forces was about 18.”

Mona typed on the keyboard a few times, raised her head and replied:

“However, the island has lush vegetation and complex terrain, and some big figures on it have not spoken. The Bahamas police have never landed on the island, and they don't know how many people are still inside.”

Winslow's eyes were burning, and he thought of something:

“Luo An, what do you mean...?”

Luo An replied:

“Call the headquarters for help, and then go to the island to arrest people.”

Chenelle next to her thought for a few seconds and said:

“If we land on the island as a third party, I'm afraid it will trigger a joint attack by two waves of forces on the island.”

“So before we go to the island, we need to disguise our identities.”

Roan grinned, took out his cell phone and called Trick Kennedy.

The Bahamas is located opposite the southeast coast of the federal state of Florida and northeast of Cuba. The country consists of more than 700 islands, of which only more than 20 islands are inhabited.

Because it is so close to the federation, the U.S. dollar has directly become the common currency of The Bahamas, and the economy relies almost entirely on the single pillar of tourism.

After receiving Luo An's call, Trick Kennedy, who was arguing with someone at the FBI headquarters in Washington, did not hesitate. He immediately stopped the quarrel and walked out of the room, took out another phone and called some people.

In less than an hour, the four of Luo An met a 7-man team sent by Trick Kennedy.

The captain of the seven-man team was a middle-aged white man with a beard. He grinned widely and stretched out his hand to shake hands with Luo An:

“Hello, I am the captain of this team, just call me John.”

“Just call me Luo An.”

Luo An stretched out his hand to shake hands with the opponent, and the three Winslows took the weapons and ammunition from the opponent's team members. Because of Luo An's request, most of the equipment they took was the same model as the group of pursuers on the island. .

After confirming that Luo An and the four had obtained weapons and equipment, Trick Kennedy said seriously on the phone:

“Luo An, this team is temporarily under your command.

In addition, I have sent people from the Federation to the Bahamas to support you. They will arrive in three hours. You must be careful during this trip! ”

“OK.” Luo An briefly chatted with the other party and then hung up the phone. Captain John had received Kennedy's order before coming here. Seeing this, Luo An did not waste time and directly talked about his plan to land on the island:

"Mona, after landing on the island, you can find a way to access the pursuer's contact channel. We will pretend to be the previous team of bald men and attack from both sides to defeat the new forces. Then we will defeat the pursuer and capture Alex. With Jasper.”

Mona nodded heavily and agreed. Captain John frowned slightly and asked:

“Leader Luo An, why don't we wait until the fighting between the two parties on the island ends before we go up to arrest people?”

Roan glanced at Captain John and explained while arranging his weapons:

“First, 5 hours have passed since the pursuers and new forces landed on the island. During this time, it is impossible for both parties to stay on the island. They will definitely fight, so the number of people will definitely decrease.

Second, the island is not small, and there are many ships on both sides. We only have such a small number of people, and it is impossible to disperse and guard the entire island. The battle between the two sides is over, and the winner takes Alex and Jasper away. We There is a high probability that it will not be discovered immediately.

This is not far from Cuba, and it is not difficult to escape to Mexico. We cannot pursue them all the way to Cuba and Mexico.

Thirdly, the Bahamas police have not taken action because of the big shots above. I suspect that the person who contacted the big shots is probably the boss behind both sides of the fighting on the island.

If the fighting on the island continues, the boss will most likely increase his manpower. By then there will be more enemies on the island, and we will only become more passive. "

Putting the loaded magazine into the firearm, a clear sound rang out, and Luo An looked up at Captain John:

"Any question?"

Captain John grinned and shook his head:

“Team Leader Luo An's analysis is very reasonable, I have no problem.”

“Good.”

Luo An stuffed the smoke bombs and grenades into his waist and waved his hand:

"Set off!"

As soon as the words fell, the 11 people automatically divided into two teams and drove two speedboats to the target island.

The process of sailing the boat was very smooth, without encountering any blows. The group successfully boarded the island and walked into the jungle. They stopped and looked around. Luo An looked at Mona and asked:

“How is the channel? Can you connect to the chasing side?”

"I'm trying."

Mona frowned and quickly operated the computer and communication equipment. At this moment, gunfire suddenly came from not far away, and then the voice of Captain John's team member rang through the communicator in everyone's ears:

“The enemy has been discovered! The enemy has also discovered us!”

“Attack!”

Luo An didn't waste any time and immediately asked the team members to start attacking the enemy. Then he asked Chenier to stay to protect Mona and let Mona continue to work hard. Then, together with Winslow, Captain John and others, they quickly rushed into the deep jungle with guns. at.

^Bang bang bang—

“Enemy attack! Enemy—”

Following Luo An's order, fierce firefights immediately sounded on the southwest side of the island. Captain John's team members worked together to kill two enemies. Winslow raised his hand and shot another enemy who was trying to contact. Captain John appreciated it. I glanced at him:

“Good marksmanship.”

"Um."

Winslow nodded expressionlessly, then walked to Luo An, who was inspecting the body, and asked:

“Team leader?”

“These three enemies are the new forces that Mona mentioned before.”

Luo An stood up from the corpse, looked up into the distance where sporadic firefights were heard, narrowed his eyes slightly, and said:

“In addition, the equipment of this group of people looks familiar.”

Winslow was silent for a few seconds, then suddenly remembered something and his eyes widened.

At this moment, the crazy warning of "emotional perception" in his mind made Luo An's face change. He pushed Winslow down with force and shouted:

“Everyone! Get down!”

The next second, a penetrating crater suddenly appeared in the tree behind where Luo An and Winslow were standing!

Chapter 523 Battle on the island, third party?

“Sniper! There is a sniper!”

“Take cover! Take cover!”

Hearing Luo An's words, Captain John and others were stunned for a moment. They didn't react until they saw the trees being penetrated by bullets, and quickly bent down to find cover.

“He's on the south side!”

Looking at the craters in the trees, Luo An immediately judged the direction of the sniper, and then shouted an order:

“I'll deal with the sniper! You continue to move forward and deal with the enemy, I'll be right back!”

As soon as he finished speaking, Luo An rushed toward the area where the sniper was like a cheetah.

“Leader Luo An! Luo An...Fu-k!”

Seeing Luo An disappearing in the blink of an eye, Captain John's eyes suddenly widened with urgency. He loudly ordered his team members to follow Luo An's orders and continue moving forward. Then he quickly got up and chased after Luo An's back.

At the same time, seeing Luo An running towards him quickly, the sniper flashed a sneer at the corner of his mouth. He changed his position and raised his gun to aim at Luo An. He took a deep breath for a few seconds and pulled the trigger fiercely.

boom!

The gunfire sounded, and the next second, in the sniper's shocked eyes, Luo An seemed to know that he had fired, and took a step to the right in advance to avoid the bullet.

"impossible!"

The sniper's expression froze and his pupils shrank suddenly, with disbelief written all over his face. On the other side, Captain John, who saw the scene just now, was even more shocked than him. His scalp felt numb. He had no idea how Luo An managed to avoid the bullet. Bullets.

"Got you."

Feeling the new direction of the bullet flying, Luo An immediately located the opponent with the "emotional perception" in his mind. He grinned with a sunny smile on his face, and quickly rushed towards the sniper in a flash.

"Fu-k!"

Seeing the cruel smile on Luo An's face, the sniper was shocked by the scene just now. He reacted and quickly moved the muzzle to prepare to continue attacking Luo An.

But at this time, under Captain John's unbelievable gaze, Luo An moved in front of the sniper at a very fast speed, then grabbed the muzzle of the sniper's pistol with his left hand and raised it up, and hit the sniper's Adam's apple with the palm of his right hand. .

score

There was a muffled sound, and the sniper who was hit hard in the throat had red eyes. Uncontrollably, he let go of the hand holding the gun and turned to cover his neck. He breathed heavily and fell backwards to the ground.

Luo An took advantage of the situation and knocked the sniper unconscious with one punch. He tore off the opponent's clothes and * the sniper's hands and feet. By the time Captain John ran here, the sniper had been completely controlled by Luo An.

“He will leave it to you.”

Picking up the AR-15 with a high-power scope that belonged to the sniper on the ground, and taking the remaining bullets from the sniper, Luo An smiled and patted Captain John on the shoulder, then turned around and quickly went to Winslow and others. The direction in which people move forward.

Looking at the sniper on the ground, and then looking up at the back of Luo An who disappeared again, Captain John was breathing heavily, his lips were trembling, and he had no idea what to say.

boom! boom! boom!

^Bang bang bang—

On the other side, Winslow and the other 6 members of Captain John's team have begun to engage in firefights with 10 new enemies.

In the direction behind the new forces, the remaining five pursuers also started to counterattack frantically because there was a cliff with no way to retreat behind them.

However, the enemies of the new force were in a slightly higher position and had a terrain advantage. Even though there were enemies in front and behind them, not only were they not seriously injured for a while, but they suppressed the pursuers, Winslow and others.

“Sonof better than eating!”

A burst of bullets swept through, and Winslow and others were forced to lower their heads. After cursing, he took out the grenade and said loudly:

“Throw a grenade!”

Captain John's team members agreed in unison, threw the grenade and exploded with a bang. However, because they were hit by bullets and could not see the specific position of the opponent, this wave of grenades did not achieve the desired effect.

Winslow cursed a few more times. At this moment, Luo An's voice suddenly sounded from the communicator in his ear:

“Wait for me to shoot first, and then you guys will throw grenades.”

Winslow, who was weighed down by the bullet and couldn't lift his head, didn't hear clearly. He was stunned and asked:

"What's the meaning?"

boom!

The next second, a gunshot came from not far away. An enemy of the new force fell to the ground with a red bullet hole on his forehead.

boom!

The people next to him shrank their pupils when they saw the miserable condition of his teammates. Just as he started to shout, another gunshot rang out. He was also shot in the forehead and fell backwards and fell to the ground.

boom!

boom!

boom!

There were three more gunshots, and three enemies of the new force fell to the ground. Only then did the remaining five people react and hurriedly put their heads behind the obstacle.

Winslow also understood what Luo An said at this time, grinned and said loudly:

“Grenade!” Boom! boom! boom!

No longer being hit by bullets, Winslow and others saw the enemy's position clearly this time before throwing grenades. Several explosions sounded. The enemies of the new force immediately lost their combat effectiveness and were captured by Winslow and others.

The remaining five people on the pursuing side saw that Winslow and others had mostly the same equipment as themselves. They looked at each other and did not attack immediately. They asked loudly who Winslow and others were.

A strange look flashed in Winslow's eyes, and he answered according to Luo An's previous teaching:

“We are teammates of O'Malion, who were previously responsible for hunting down the Chicago Special Investigations Unit!”

The air was silent for a few seconds, and then the other party pulled the trigger on Winslow and others again.

^Bang bang bang—

"damn it!"

Winslow and the others hurriedly hid and cursed a few times in a low voice, wondering where the flaw was.

boom!

Familiar gunfire sounded from behind again, and an enemy was shot in the forehead and fell to the ground. Winslow grinned and took out the grenade again.

Boom! boom! boom!

Several explosions sounded, and the pursuing troops also lost their combat effectiveness.

A few minutes later, under the admiring gazes of John's team members, Luo An slowly walked from a distance holding the AR-15 rifle with a magnifier that he had just captured.

At this time, Winslow and Captain John's team members had found Alex and Jasper with their hands tied.

“Good morning, Agent Alex.”

Roan handed the rifle to Winslow, looked at Alex who had a lot of dust on his face, and said with a smile:

“I heard from the Chicago Special Investigation Team detectives that you died on the dock that day. I didn't expect that you were still alive and seemed to be doing well.”

A strange color flashed in Alex's eyes. He took a deep breath and was about to speak. Roan picked up a rag and stuffed it into his mouth. Then he looked at Jasper aside and said:

“Good morning, Mr. Jasper, it's not easy to find you all the way.”

Jasper sighed and asked:

"Who are you?"

"You probably haven't heard of my name, so I won't introduce it."

Luo An waved his hand, and just as he was about to have someone take them away, Winslow suddenly came over with a man.

Seeing the man's face clearly, a trace of surprise flashed in Luo An's eyes, and then it became clear. Alex's face was full of displeasure, and Jasper was extremely shocked and asked:

"Hamilton? Why are you here!?"

The man was none other than the arms dealer Hamilton, who was the object of the transaction on the dock that day by the Chicago Special Investigation Team and others.

Hearing the name Hamilton, the two captured pursuers were even more surprised before Hamilton himself could speak:

"boss?"

Hearing the words of the two pursuers, Hamilton, whose face was filled with dust, suddenly cursed:

"Motherfu-ker! I'm not your boss!"

Looking at Hamilton who was so angry that his body was shaking, Winslow, Captain John's team members, Alex, Jasper and others were filled with doubts. Jasper was the first to ask:

"what is going on?"

Jasper, who was captured by the pursuers, always thought that the pursuers were sent by Hamilton.

Alex had the same idea, because the pursuers kept saying that their boss Hamilton wanted to see the two of them.

"how could I know?!"

Hamilton, who had been injured by a grenade and had a wound on his leg, inhaled repeatedly and exhaled fragrance while saying that he came to the Bahamas along with the group of people who were chasing Alex and Jasper.

The new force mentioned by Luo An and others is him and his men.

Luo An, who was next to him, was silent for a long time, his mind spinning rapidly. Suddenly he clapped his hands and attracted everyone's attention, and said:

“Is there a possibility that there is a third party among you.

This third party is the boss of the pursuers, but this boss uses the name "Hamilton" to give orders to the pursuers to capture Alex and Jasper.

At the dock, a third party force suddenly appeared and wanted to kill everyone. This was also the order given by the fake "Hamilton". "

Hearing Luo An's words, the group of people became even more confused. Hamilton himself and Jasper looked at each other as if they had thought of something, and they frowned and fell into deep thought.

At this moment, Cheniel suddenly ran over and said with a serious face:

“Luo An, Mona just connected to the pursuer's communication equipment, and there is information showing that more than fifty enemies are about to land on the island!”

Chapter 524 Luo An: Timid, afraid of shaking hands, so I have to pay more

The Bahamas, an uninhabited... usually uninhabited island.

Hearing Chenier's words, Winslow's expression changed. He turned around and grabbed the two pursuers who had just been captured, and asked:

“Are those fifty or so enemies yours?”

"certainly!"

One of the pursuers with some blood on his face nodded.

He then said that the reason why they quickly judged that the identities of Winslow and others were fake was because their boss had sent them this news not long ago.

As long as they persist for a while, as soon as these fifty or so teammates arrive, it will be time for them to counterattack Hamilton and the others, which is the moment when Luo An and others call them the "new forces."

“Fu-k!”

Winslow's face was very ugly, and the others frowned and all turned their attention to Luo An.

Luo An did not hesitate, immediately stood up and said:

“Retreat! Let's leave this island as quickly as possible!”

"clear!"

Everyone agreed with a loud voice, and Winslow, Chenille, and Captain John's team members quickly escorted the prisoners to the edge of the island.

But before everyone had gone far, Mona's urgent voice suddenly sounded in the communicator, indicating that more than a dozen speedboats had appeared in the waters around the island, all loaded with enemies, and were speeding towards the island. !

When everyone heard the news, their faces instantly darkened.

They were still a long way from the edge of the island. Judging from the speed of the enemies, when a dozen of them moved to the edge of the island at the fastest speed, they were face to face with more than fifty heavily armed enemies.

“Turn around and go back to where we were!”

Luo An's expression remained unchanged, his mind was spinning rapidly, and he immediately ordered everyone to return to the battlefield.

Hamilton and others were in a good position just now, which was very suitable for building a defensive position. As long as they blocked the nearby commanding heights, a dozen of them would be able to fight even if they faced more than fifty enemies.

"clear!"

After hearing this, everyone quickly turned around and walked back. Luo An pressed the contact device and asked Mona and Captain John to come to the area where they were. Winslow led Captain John's team members to sort out their weapons and equipment, build a defensive position, and then He pulled Jasper and Hamilton to the side.

“No more nonsense, the current situation is obvious, those fifty or so enemies are coming for you.”

Arms dealer Hamilton and criminal group leader Jasper sat down on the ground. Luo An crossed his arms on his chest, looked at the two expressionlessly, and said:

“When I mentioned that there might be a third party just now, both of your expressions changed. It seems that you thought of the suspicious guy, right?”

Hamilton, Jasper, Roan and others are now grasshoppers on a rope. They were silent for a while. The two looked at each other. Hamilton first asked:

“I suspect it's Harrison, where are you?”

Jasper frowned slightly:

“I suspect it's Hector.”

The two guessed several different people in succession. Luo An stood aside in silence for a few seconds, briefly recounted the death information of Minister Alexander, and said:

“Don't just think about the people with whom you have conflicts, think about the other party, as well as Minister Alexander, the people who have conflicts with the three of you!”

“Sonof better than eating!”

Hearing Roan's words, Hamilton and Jasper thought for a moment. The former suddenly became angry, and the latter turned pale, looked at each other, and said a name in unison:

“Herrick!”

At this time, Mona arrived here with the help of Cheniel, and Roan asked:

“What does this Herrick do?”

Arms dealer Hamilton sneered and replied:

“He is my companion.”

“He has conflicts with you, with Jasper, and with Minister Alexander?”

“That's right!”

Hamilton and Jasper nodded heavily. This was the only common enemy they could think of at the moment.

Luo An rubbed his temples. The situation was a bit urgent now. He did not ask what the specific contradictions were. After thinking for a moment, he suddenly asked:

“Do you two have Herreke's contact information?”

Hamilton and Jasper didn't know why, but they nodded.

“Then call him!”

Roan waved his hand and motioned for Chenelle to get him a mobile phone. Hamilton and Jasper looked puzzled, and Mona and Chenelle were also very puzzled:

“Luo An, what are you going to do?”

Roanchenier pushed back the security phone handed over, took the most ordinary mobile phone from Mona's hand, and gave it to Hamilton and Jasper. At the same time, she didn't explain much, she just ordered:

“Mona, when they talk to Herrick later, you can find a way to locate the other party's location through the signal!”

“OK.”

Mona's eyes lit up as she thought of something, and she immediately started preparing computers and mechanical equipment according to Luo An's order, with Cheniel helping her on the side.

Hamilton and Jasper took the mobile phone and made a few calls to certain people. It didn't take long before they contacted Herrick. A somewhat lazy middle-aged man's voice sounded on the other end of the phone:

“Good morning, who are you?”

"I am your father!"

Hearing the other party's voice, Hamilton was immediately furious. He cursed a lot of greetings to the other party's family, and finally asked:

“Herrick! What the * do you mean?”

“It's nothing interesting, I just want you to have a chat with Jasper.”

Halrick on the other end of the phone did not pretend to be stupid and admitted the matter directly. At the same time, he was not going to say anything to Hamilton and Jasper and was about to hang up the phone.

Next to her, Mona was typing rapidly on the keyboard. When she heard the other party's words, she suddenly became anxious because the call time was too short and she hadn't found the other party yet.

Upon seeing this, Luo An immediately grabbed the phone from Hamilton's hand and said with a smile:

“Hello, Mr. Herrick.”

At the other end of the phone, Herrick heard Luo An's unfamiliar voice and was too lazy to respond and was about to hang up the phone.

At this moment, Luo An narrowed his eyes and said coldly:

“Mr. Herrick, Hamilton and Jasper are in my hands now. If you hang up the phone, I will kill them!”

Although it is not completely clear what Herrick's real purpose is, the fact that the other party has spent so much effort to get Jasper into his hands is enough for Roan to judge that the other party absolutely does not want to see Jasper die.

Hearing this, the other end of the phone fell silent. After a few seconds, a cold voice sounded on the phone:

"Who are you?"

“I'm just a little snakehead.”

Luo An narrowed his eyes slightly and assumed the identity of the smuggler's cousin before, saying that because his cousin was killed, he came to Jasper to seek justice.

Unexpectedly, by such a coincidence, I actually caught Hamilton and Jasper.

Looking at Hamilton and Jasper, whose mouths were gagged by Chenier with rags, as well as the progress bar showing 40% progress on Mona's computer, Luo An grinned and said:

“I heard from Mr. Hamilton that the fifty guys with guns outside the island are your people.

But I am a bit timid. When I am scared, I like to kill two people to embolden myself, so Mr. Herrick, you see..."

Luo An was not worried that his identity as the smuggler's cousin would be revealed because the smuggler's cousin was kidnapped by him before and then secretly taken away by Trick Kennedy's people. Not many people knew about this. Carefully Investigations take time.

Herrick, like Luo An and others, lacks time now.

As expected, after hearing Luo An's words, the other end of the phone was silent for a while, and then the cold voice rang again:

"What do you want?"

"It's not what I want, it's what you want, Mr. Herrick."

Seeing the 75% progress bar on the screen of Mona's laptop, Luo An asked:

"Now the people outside this island are all yours. I am timid and very scared."

Halrick on the phone sneered and said:

"Well, then, give me Hamilton and Jasper, and I will let you and your men leave the island."

"Mr. Herrick, stop lying to children like this. Do you really not care about the lives of Hamilton and Jasper?"

Hearing that Roan always used Hamilton and Jasper to threaten him in his words, Herrick's face turned deathly dark on the other end of the phone. He was silent for a few seconds and then said:

“Five million dollars, plus let you and your people leave the island, and you hand over Hamilton and Jasper to me.”

Hearing this, Luo An took a deep breath and said with anger on his face:

“Mr. Herrick, I came to this island because of my dead cousin!

That's my cousin! My brothers and sisters! ”

Mr. Herrick on the other end of the phone sneered:

"so what?"

Luo An grinned:

“More money, I want 10 million US dollars.”

“...”xN

Chapter 525: Bargaining, twenty minutes!

Hearing Luo An's words of "adding more money", Hamilton and Jasper rolled their eyes as their mouths were stuffed with rags.

Captain John, who returned here with the prisoners, and Captain John's team members all looked at Luo An blankly.

Although they knew that Luo An was trying to make ends meet with the other party, they didn't know if it was an illusion. They felt that team leader Luo An seemed to be very skilled in asking for money!

Winslow hurriedly slapped everyone silently and then adjusted their positions. Mona and Chenelle didn't care about Roan's words. They were focused on looking at the 93% progress bar on the computer.

Halrick on the other end of the phone heard Luo An announcing the figure of 10 million US dollars, and he laughed out loud:

“Do you think this number is possible?”

Luo An walked to the rocks aside and saw the speedboats that had begun to land on the island in the distance. He narrowed his eyes and replied:

“The US$10 million is just my first offer, and Mr. Herrick can make a counteroffer.”

“Okay, $8 million.”

"make a deal!"

Hearing Luo An agree so quickly, Herrick suddenly choked.

Taking a deep breath, he continued:

“You let them go, and I'll pay you to let them go.”

Luo An shook his head and refused:

"Impossible, you finish the fight first and let us go, and we will let him go last."

“You can't trust me?”

“No, it's Mr. Herrick. You can't believe me.”

After Luo An finished speaking, the air was silent for a long time. Herrick on the other end of the phone snorted coldly and hung up the phone.

"The talks fell apart?"

Winslow next to him saw this scene, his face changed slightly, and he asked:

"Herric isn't afraid that we will kill Hamilton and Jasper?"

"From Herric's point of view, we wouldn't dare."

Luo An shook his head. He had pretended to be a snakehead just now, and Hamilton and Jasper were the only bargaining chips in his hand.

From Herrick's perspective, as long as Roan did not want to die in the hands of those fifty or so people, he would not dare to kill Hamilton and Jasper directly.

Is a smuggler afraid of death? There is no doubt that he is afraid of death. Luo An's sky-high asking price just now proves this.

Halrick's words just now were always a test. He realized and confirmed that Luo An was greedy for money and was afraid of death, so he dared to hang up the phone directly.

However, Herrick was on the third floor and Roan was on the fifth floor. He smiled and patted Winslow on the shoulder. He walked to Mona and asked:

"How about it?"

"Succeeded!"

Mona and Cheniel's faces were full of joy. Roan just delayed the time and allowed the two to successfully locate Herrick's position:

“The other party is now on a major island in the Bahamas!”

Winslow's face suddenly became excited, and Roan's expression remained unchanged. He had already guessed this possibility before. Herrick attached so much importance to Hamilton and Jasper that he sent more than fifty people to the island. He Naturally, there is a high probability that I will come to the Bahamas.

After confirming the location of the other party, Luo An immediately took out his flip phone and called Trick Kennedy:

“Sir, I've got Jasper.”

Trick Kennedy on the other end of the phone was suddenly surprised, but before a smile appeared on his face, he heard that Luo An and the others were currently surrounded by people.

“FU-K!”

After listening to Luo An's description, Trick Kennedy immediately slapped the table with eagerness on his face and stood up, saying anxiously:

“I will send people to that island to rescue you right away!”

“It's too late, sir.”

Looking at the enemies who had begun to enter the jungle not far away, Luo An briefly described the conversation he had just had with Herrick, as well as Herrick's current location, and then said:

“Sir, didn't you send a group of people to the Bahamas before? Let them capture Herrick!

As long as we capture Herrick and force him to issue an order to terminate the operation, our side will become safe. "^^^ "ok, ok, ok! "

Trick Kennedy nodded repeatedly, immediately picked up the landline phone next to him and called to inquire about the situation of the group of people. After a while, he quickly picked up the phone and said to Luo An:

"Luo An, the action team has arrived in the Bahamas, and the arrest operation is expected to take fifteen minutes! You must hold on for fifteen minutes!"

"knew."

Hang up the phone, Luo An looked at the position that had been dealt with by Captain John and others, shook his phone, and said loudly:

"Everyone, twenty minutes! We insist on twenty minutes!"

Considering the possibility of unexpected situations, Luo An extended the time by five minutes.

"no problem!"

"clear!"

After learning that the headquarters had sent support, Captain John and his team members were immediately boosted in morale.

After a while, a team member guarded Hamilton, Jasper and other prisoners. Mona, Winslow and 4 team members, a total of 7 people, were squatting at the position. Roan, Chenier and Captain John were each squatting at the surrounding commanding heights. , prepare to join forces to face the enemy.

There are 53 enemies in total. This is the news that Mona received in the message before. As time passes, more and more enemies slowly appear in front of everyone. Luo An immediately presses the communicator:

“Attack!”

boom! boom! boom!

Boom!

Boom!

After Luo An finished speaking, fierce gunshots and deafening explosions sounded instantly. Because the terrain was narrow and small, Winslow and others were in a higher position. Luo An and the other three had occupied the commanding heights, and Herrick's men suddenly was caught off guard.

“Left! Left!”

“Seize the high ground!”

boom! boom! boom!

Roan took the AR-15 rifle with a magnifying scope that he had captured previously. Under Captain John's stunned eyes, he shot one enemy at a time and quickly eliminated four guys who were trying to seize the commanding heights.

The first wave of enemies suffered heavy losses and immediately retreated upon discovering the situation. Winslow and others did not pursue, packed up their weapons and ammunition, and waited for the arrival of the second wave of enemies.

Not long after, the enemy launched a second wave of offensive. Luo An killed an enemy with one shot. He frowned slightly and realized that something was not right. He immediately pressed the contact device and said:

"Winslow, the number of enemies is wrong. Look back to see if there is anything going on on the cliff behind!"

"clear!"

Winslow quickly stood up and left the position and ran towards the cliff not far behind. After observing for a few seconds, his pupils suddenly shrank, he pressed the communicator and said urgently:

"Luo An, you are right! There are enemies under the cliff!"

"Sonof better than eating!"

Hearing that the enemy was moving around to prepare for a sneak attack, everyone's expressions suddenly changed. Their number was several times smaller than the opponent's. If they divided their forces and went to the rear, the situation would only be worse.

But if the troops are not divided, once the enemy successfully bypasses the enemy, they will not be able to escape.

"Leave it to me at the cliff!"

Luo An calmly took out a bottle of [Stamina Potion] and a bottle of [Hemostatic Potion] and poured them into his stomach, then pressed the communicator and ordered Winslow to cover his commanding heights, and he went to deal with the enemies on the cliff.

"But..."

Winslow wanted to say something, but was interrupted by Luo An's loud order, so he had to rush to the commanding heights. That position was also very important.

The cliff behind everyone is not unreachable. On the contrary, as long as one enemy successfully climbs along the rocks to the top to block the attack, the others can all climb to the top along that path.

Luo An quickly moved behind a big rock and saw that the bottom of the cliff had no vision due to several smoke bombs thrown by the enemy. He immediately grinned and turned on the "emotional perception" in his mind.

boom! boom! boom!

Three gunshots rang out, and the three enemies who were climbing in the thick smoke fell to the ground. The others were shocked when they saw this, and quickly moved to find cover, guessing loudly:

“Do the people up there have infrared equipment?”

"how could I know?"

“Shoot! Suppress the opponent with fire!”

Halrick's group of men actually had no choice. The road ahead was firmly suppressed by Winslow and others, and they could not seize the commanding heights, so they had no choice but to go back.

boom! boom! boom!

More than a dozen enemies threw several smoke bombs again. While the team members climbed up, the others used guns and fire to suppress Luo An.

What shocked them was that Luo An was obviously suppressed by them and was hiding behind the stone and could not show his head. But every time his teammates were about to climb to the top, a grenade would fly from behind the stone to the summiter with great accuracy. Exploded.

The enemy couldn't understand and was even more angry because there were more than a dozen of them, and they were dragged here by Luo An alone!

At the same time, in the distance, on an island in the Bahamas, more than a dozen fully armed action team members were ready and rushed into a seaside villa with guns raised.

Chapter 526: Herrick was captured, an unexpected incident occurred, and Luo An acted alone

"What did you say?"

In an office at the FBI headquarters in Washington, Trick Kennedy was holding a cell phone with an angry face.

One minute ago, Captain Cyrus called the action team responsible for going to the villa to arrest Herrick, saying that they had captured the target Herrick.

Before Trick Kennedy could be happy, Captain Cyrus then said that they could not pry open Helrick's mouth. Helrick would not contact the fifty or so men on the island anyway, so that Those people stopped attacking Luo An and the others.

Trick Kennedy said loudly with his mouth full of birdsong and flowers:

“Then take Herrick's cell phone and call his men!”

“Sorry, sir, we have already tried this method and it didn't work.”

Looking at Herrick, who was sitting in a chair with a gun pointed at his head and looking at him with a smile, Captain Cyrus looked gloomy and said:

“The people who went to that island were Herrick's direct subordinates.

Even if Herrick is captured, they will not stop their actions. Instead, they are preparing to capture Team Leader Luo An and others on the island, take them as hostages, and threaten us to release their boss. "

Trick Kennedy became even more angry when he heard this. The veins on his neck popped out, and he yelled loudly with his mobile phone:

"Then leave a few people to guard Herrick, and you and the other team members will go to the island to rescue people!"

"Okay, sir."

Regarding Trick Kennedy's anger on the phone, Captain Cyrus' expression remained unchanged. He agreed and then asked:

"Who is the main target of the rescue?"

"What's the meaning?"

Trick Kennedy was stunned for a moment. Captain Cyrus ordered his men to set off quickly while explaining to his cell phone that there were currently two important targets on the island.

One is the leader of Roan Greenwood, and the other is Jasper, the leader of the criminal group.

Captain Cyrus certainly wants to save both, but any situation is possible during the operation, so he must prepare for the worst in advance.

Trick Kennedy understood the subtext of Captain Cyrus's words. After a moment of silence, Trick Kennedy said in a deep voice:

"Save Captain Roan Greenwood! Put him first! We must save him!"

“Okay, sir.”

Captain Cyrus nodded, hung up the phone, and got on the speedboat with his team members, and immediately drove towards the island.

Trick Kennedy hung up Captain Cyrus's contact information and immediately called Roan again.

Island, behind a certain stone above the cliff.

Luo An pressed the answer button on his mobile phone and after listening to Trick Kennedy's narration, his expression remained unchanged. He pondered for a few seconds and asked:

“Captain Cyrus, how long will it take for them to reach this island?”

“About fifteen minutes!”

“It's too late.”

Roan narrowed his eyes slightly. Winslow and others had successfully killed more than a dozen enemies in the front position, but several team members were also injured inside the position.

There are still more than 20 enemies outside the position, and there are still 13 enemies under his cliff. Wait another fifteen minutes, and there is no telling what the situation will be like.

Handing Captain Cyrus's contact information to Roan, Trick Kennedy took a deep breath and continued:

"Luo An, if the situation is unfavorable, you will surrender to the opponent with your men!"

Trick Kennedy has prepared for the worst. If it doesn't work out, he will let Roan and others surrender and be captured, and then ask Captain Cyrus to trade Herrick with the enemies in exchange for Roan and the others.

Luo An's eyelids twitched and he threw this suggestion out of the window.

You cannot reason with a lion when it bites your head.

After hanging up the phone from Trick Kennedy, Roan then called Captain Cyrus.

Captain Cyrus was outspoken and stated his rescue order clearly. Luo An stressed several times that he asked the other party to rescue Winslow, Mona and others first, but failed. In desperation, Luo An had no choice but to describe the situation on the island. Lie that he is at the position.

Hang up Captain Cyrus' call, Luo An was just about to continue attacking the enemies on the cliff, when he suddenly found that they began to retreat away from the area.

Luo An frowned. If these 13 enemies moved to the position, the pressure on Winslow and others would increase instantly. They already had wounded people. If the commanding heights were robbed and the defense line was breached, all the previous efforts would be in vain. .

Roan did not believe that this group of enemies would treat Winslow, Mona, Chenelle and Captain John well.

After thinking about it, the 13 enemies under the cliff chose to evacuate at this time. They might also be planning to lure the snake out of the hole, lure Luo An to the bait, kill him, and then climb the cliff for a sneak attack. There are two possibilities. Luo An pondered for a moment, pressed the communicator, and told Winslow alone how long it would take for Captain Cyrus and others to arrive, as well as the sudden evacuation of the enemy under the cliff.

Knowing that Luo An was going to go down the cliff to chase the 13 enemies to relieve the pressure on their position, Winslow looked at the more and more injured teammates in the position. Chenier and Mo were unable to lift their heads under the pressure of bullets. Na, and the enemies who were getting closer and closer to the position in the distance, his face was ashen and he said in a deep voice:

"clear."

"Well, don't tell Mona yet."

Without waiting for Windslo to answer, Luo An hung the linker and removed the equipment from his ears into his pocket.

At the position, when he heard the busy tone in the communication device next to his ear, Winslow let out a long breath, his eyes blazing with rage, he stood up, aimed at the head of an enemy, and pulled the trigger fiercely.

At the cliff, behind the stone, Luo An took out [Analgesic Potion], [Swift Potion], [Strength Potion] and [Featherfall Potion] and drank them all in one gulp, then took out two smoke bombs and threw them towards the cliff. The moment the smoke filled the air, he flew directly and jumped off the cliff!

In the woods below the cliff, several hidden enemies looked at each other in shock when they saw someone jumping directly off the cliff without any ropes or other items.

"Is this...suicide?"

"It looks like it is."

"So, our plan worked?"

"Should...should be."

The people looked at each other and saw the confusion in each other's eyes.

Their plan was the same as what Luo An had imagined before, which was to pretend to evacuate here and go to the front to support the position, but in fact lured Luo An to take the bait.

Since Luo An was dead, several enemies no longer hesitated, and immediately took out their communicators and prepared to tell the captain and others hidden behind about the situation here, so that they could start taking action.

“It really made me laugh to death.”

An enemy liaison captain, and the remaining three enemies gathered together with smiles on their faces:

“I really didn't expect that the man on the cliff would jump right off!”

"Indeed, I didn't expect it either. I just didn't see clearly whether the person was a man or a woman. If it was a woman..."

“Why, are you still planning to commit suicide?”

“It's not impossible.”

“You are so perverted!...Add me when the time comes.”

【What if it is a man? 】

“As a man, you can actually...”

Hearing someone asking about male gender, an enemy subconsciously answered. After saying this, he suddenly realized something was wrong because the voice was so unfamiliar!

The hairs on the hair of the three enemies stood on end instantly, and they quickly turned their guns to the direction of the sound.

The next second, a dazzling white light flashed in the eyes of the three people, and no gunshots were fired. The three people lay on the ground holding their bleeding necks.

Seeing the unfamiliar Luo An holding a dagger, he silently walked towards their teammate who was responsible for contacting the captain. The three of them had anxious faces and their bodies twitched. They kept making "ho ho" sounds but were unable to do anything. In the end, they completely lost their breath.

“Captain, the plan has been successful. The man on the cliff jumped directly... I don't know the reason... OK, I'll wait for you.”

Hang up the contact, the enemy grinned and turned to look at his teammates behind him:

“Everyone, the captain will be here soon...”

A dazzling light flashed in his eyes, and a pain suddenly came from his neck.

The smile on Luo An's face was extremely bright. He held the enemy's hand and helped him cover the wound. He slowly lowered the frightened opponent to the ground, gently took away the opponent's gun, and said with a smile:

"Your captain and others will be here soon. I have heard the news. Thank you for your hard work."

Seeing Luo An in front of him, the liaison enemy's eyes widened, and the expression on his face was as if he had seen a ghost.

From the corner of his eye, he stared at his three teammates. He wanted to say something, but his throat was cut open and blood poured back into him. Apart from the sound of "ho...ho...", he couldn't say anything. In the end, he could only say something. Can look at the sunny smile on Luo An's face and lose his breath in despair.

After sitting the four corpses upright together, Luo An took out a grenade and made two booby traps that exploded when touched. Then he put away the weapon and slowly walked into the woods not far away.

Chapter 527: Luo An 1 versus 13, everyone was angry and shocked

“Forward! Forward!”

“The other side of the cliff has been successful!”

The leader of the team in charge of the cliff led the eight team members at full speed through the woods, and soon arrived at the location of the four communicators.

“Climb the cliff!”

The captain waved his hand, and several team members quickly took ropes and other items to prepare for rock climbing. While others were responsible for guarding the surroundings, two team members moved to the four communicators and stretched out their hands to slap them:

“Hey, you guys...”

Boom!

Boom!

The body was triggered by a booby trap, and the two of them disappeared in the explosion without even reacting.

“Alert!”

“Fu-k!”

"what happened?"

The remaining enemies were startled and quickly got up from the ground to alert the surroundings. Looking at the corpses of the six men on the ground like tattered dolls, the team leader's face was gloomy. After a few seconds of silence, he said loudly:

“Those who are alive, report their numbers!”

"2!"

When the number read "5", there was no further explanation, and everyone's expressions suddenly changed.

6 out of 13 people died. Including the captain, there should have been 7 people left. The number should be "6".

A few people quickly observed the teammates around them, and as expected, another familiar face was missing.

“Damn it! When did he disappear?”

"I did not see it!"

“Who are the enemies? Where are they?”

The remaining five team members were dominated by panic and hurriedly gathered together back to back, holding up their rifles and carefully observing the surroundings.

The team leader had a bead of sweat on his forehead, raised his rifle and ordered:

“Work in pairs and search carefully!”

"clear!"

The six people were divided into three groups back to back, carrying rifles and entering the jungle to search carefully. Suddenly, the group on the far left saw Luo An squatting in the grass handling the body, and his face was filled with excitement.

But when the two saw Luo An, Luo An also saw them. His movements were much faster than the two enemies. When the two turned their guns, Luo An had already pulled the trigger.

boom! boom!

The two enemies were shot in the middle of their eyebrows, and their bodies went limp and fell to the ground.

“The enemy is here!”

^Bang bang bang—

boom! boom! boom!

The sound of gunfire as Luo An killed two enemies immediately attracted the attention of the remaining four people. They immediately raised their guns and fired bullets at Luo An's position.

Luo An reacted quickly and got up to run away, but the enemy fired too many bullets in an instant, and he was hit in the left calf by one of the bullets.

“I hit him!”

One of them was filled with excitement when he saw this scene, and he and his teammates rushed forward to arrest Luo An. However, the two of them walked past a big tree and opened the grass, but they did not find Luo An at all.

"what happened?"

“Where are the people?”

【I'm here. 】

Behind the big tree beside the two of them, Luo An stepped out and answered their questions. In the eyes of the two of them, whose hairs were rising and full of fear, Luo An grinned, raised his weapon and pulled the trigger.

boom!

A bullet was shot from the muzzle of the gun and passed through the heads of two enemies from the side, splattering out two dazzling sprays of blood.

Two more enemies were killed. The remaining team leader and one team member ran here. Seeing this scene, they did not hesitate, aimed directly at Luo An's position and pulled the trigger crazily.

^Bang bang bang—

Countless bullets were fired one after another, the grass was instantly smashed, and there were a lot of bullet holes in the trees.

Under the unbelievable gazes of the captain and team members, Luo An directly grabbed the enemy who had just been killed. While hiding behind a tree to avoid the rain of bullets, he used the corpse to block the bullet for himself, and then violently pushed the two corpses toward the captain and team members. The team member threw it.

“Fu-k!”

The captain and team members were shocked by Luo An's strength. While cursing, they quickly stopped shooting and ducked sideways. Taking this opportunity, Luo An's figure quickly moved to the two of them like a ghost, directly raised his weapon and killed the team members.

The remaining team leader reacted quickly. When Luo An killed the team member, he immediately flew to the distance to avoid Luo An's bullets, and took out a grenade and threw it at Luo An.

Boom!

The grenade exploded. Luo An used the "emotional perception" in his mind to dodge first, and moved to the captain's side with a stunned expression on his face.

icular

The captain made a sneak attack and grabbed Luo An's rifle and threw it aside. Luo An took the opportunity to remove the rifle, pistol and dagger from the opponent. After dodging the dagger stabbed at his throat, the captain with his empty hand cursed, quickly turned over and took the opportunity to pick up a wooden stick as a counterattack.

Luo An dodged the wooden stick and kicked the captain * the waist with a whip. Under the terrifying force, the captain couldn't control himself and fell backwards, and his waist hit a fallen tree.

"ah-"

The sound of broken bones was heard, and the severe pain from his waist made the captain scream loudly. Luo An didn't waste any time, raised his dagger and slashed towards the opponent.

The captain used his remaining strength to hold the dagger, looked at Luo An in front of him with shock and fear in his eyes, and asked with great effort:

“Motherfu-ker...who the * are you?”

“Go to * and ask.”

Luo An grinned and pressed the dagger down hard.

A cold light flashed, the dagger was drawn out, blood burst out from his neck, and a large amount of liquid came out of his mouth. The team leader's body trembled violently for a moment, and he collapsed on the ground and completely lost his breath.

The enemies were all killed. Luo An also sat down on the ground and quickly opened his clothes to treat his injuries.

The effect of the [Analgesic Potion] was so good that Luo An knew that he must have been injured, but he had no idea of the specific location. He did not want to kill all the enemies, only to die here due to bleeding from the wounds and excessive blood loss.

On the other side, Captain Cyrus has already led his people to the island. He used sneak attacks and attacked Winslow and others inside and outside the position, and successfully killed more than 20 enemies on the periphery of the position.

“Thank you, you guys.”

The people in the position were relieved. Chenier quickly expressed her gratitude to Captain Cyrus and others. Captain Cyrus could not find the target person, Team Leader Luo An, in the position and asked hurriedly:

“Where is Team Leader Luo An?”

“He's on the cliff in the back.”

Mona took a deep breath, wiped the dust from her face, and briefly talked about the situation with enemies behind her.

“Let's go find Team Leader Luo An quickly.”

Captain Cyrus was about to go to the cliff. Winslow suddenly stretched out his hand to hold him and said in a deep voice:

“Team Leader Luo An is not on the cliff.”

After the words fell, Mona, Chenier, Captain John and others all turned back to look at him. Captain Cyrus frowned:

"What's the meaning?"

Winslow took a deep breath and briefly talked about the plan and orders Luo An had previously described.

After listening to Winslow's description, the whole place instantly became extremely silent.

Captain John and his team members were stunned in disbelief. The eyes of Captain Cyrus and others were filled with shock and admiration. Hamilton and Jasper, who were captured on the side, were also stunned.

“Winslow!!”

Snapped-

Chenelle raised her hand and slapped Winslow directly, roaring:

"Are you crazy? There are more than a dozen enemies over there! You let Team Leader Luo An go alone?! Why didn't you tell us!"

Winslow remained silent after being slapped. As a man, and having worked in the hostage rescue team for so long, he understood what Luo An was thinking.

Chenelle yelled at Winslow like crazy, and then suddenly froze, looking at Mona nervously.

Mona stood there, her body trembling, her eyes red, biting her lips and saying nothing.

Seeing Cheniel looking at her and Winslow preparing to speak, Mona ignored them and turned around and walked directly outside the position, preparing to go around here and go to the bottom of the cliff to find Luo An.

Chenelle kicked Winslow as hard as she could, then hurriedly ran to follow Mona.

Chenier thought of something while running, stopped and turned around and shouted:

"Winslow! You  hurry up and use the communicator to contact Luo An!"

She was so angry that she almost forgot about the communicator.

"OK!"

Winslow quickly got up from the ground and agreed. The battle just now was too fierce, and everyone's communicators were put away.

Captain Cyrus left a few people behind to take care of the wounded and guard hostages such as Hamilton and Jasper. He led the other team members to the cliff location and prepared to take the shortest road to find Roan.

Captain John took a deep look at the cliff in the distance, suppressed the admiration in his heart and quickly followed.

Several injured team members scrambled to grab the medicine and bandages, and briefly treated the wounds themselves. Regardless of whether the bullet was still in the body, they all supported each other and moved to Winslow's side, staring closely at the contact in his hand. equipment.

After handling the communication equipment and opening the communication channel, Winslow quickly pressed the button:

“Leader Luo An, how are you?”

Chapter 528 Luo An was carried on a stretcher, coffee at the Washington headquarters

“Leader Luo An, how are you?”

As the words came out, the area around the communication equipment was extremely silent. Winslow and the injured team members subconsciously held their breath.

Shasha—

A harsh sound of electricity flashed by, and a few seconds later, a familiar voice sounded in the contact:

“I'm fine, how are you doing over there?”

“Yeah!!”

The moment they heard Luo An's voice, all the injured team members were filled with excitement and cheered loudly, ignoring the wounds on their bodies and frantically slapping each other.

Winslow suppressed the excitement in his heart:

"The fighting on our side is over..."

"That's good."

After asking where Luo An was, Winslow quickly ran out of the position holding the communication device, preparing to search for Luo An with Chenille and Mona.

Knowing that Roan was still alive, Chenil was relieved for a moment. Mona didn't speak when she heard the news. She just wiped away the tears under her red eyes and silently accelerated her pace.

In the woods far away, Luo An took off all his equipment and shirt in order to check his injuries. Finally, he found that his upper body only had some bruises and scratches, which were not serious.

But looking at the lower body, Luo An's situation is not ideal, because not only was his left leg hit by a bullet, but his left foot was also fractured at some point.

While treating the wound, Luo An tore the trousers of his left leg to pieces, picked up the dagger and inserted it into his left leg little by little, and took out the bullet inside.

When Winslow, Chenelle and Mona rushed over, what they saw was Luo An's upper body was naked, covered with scratches and bruises, and his lower body was wearing a pair of pants with only one leg.

He was sitting next to a tree that had fallen to the ground with a corpse not far away. He was holding a dagger in his mouth and his face was full of pain. He was holding a torn piece of cloth and trying to deal with the hideous wound on his left leg. Wound.

"Luo An!"

"Team Leader Luo An!"

Seeing this scene, Winslow and Chenelle felt extremely worried and shouted quickly, while Mona ran directly towards Luo An.

Hearing the shouting, Luo An raised his head and saw the familiar faces of the three people. He took off the dagger from his mouth and showed a smile. He stretched out his hands as a gesture to hug Mona.

Then Mona stopped, hit Luo An's arm twice, glared at him fiercely, said nothing, and quickly took out emergency medicine from her pocket to help Luo An treat the wound.

Luo An grinned and stretched out his hand to help Mona wipe the dust off her face. However, Mona, who was eager to deal with the wound, knocked his arm away and stopped his movement.

Chenelle followed closely and ran to Mona. While giving Mona a hand, she carefully checked Luo An's injuries to make sure that he was not seriously injured. Then she took a deep breath and let go of the big stone in her heart.

Winslow also wanted to step forward to help treat Luo An's wounds, but was kicked again by Chenier and had no choice but to leave. Instead, he took out his dagger and chopped wood nearby to prepare a simple stretcher.

While processing the wood, Winslow checked the surrounding corpses just in case.

Even though he was mentally prepared for Luo An's strength, Winslow was still speechless and shocked when he saw clearly the death conditions of more than a dozen enemies and thought that they were all killed by Luo An alone.

Not long after, Captain John and others also arrived at this area from the cliff.

Seeing that Luo An was still alive and the injuries on his body were not particularly serious, Captain Cyrus' tension immediately relaxed.

The team members behind him looked at Luo An with admiration. The team members not only saw the corpses along the way, but also saw from the battle marks on the ground how Luo An managed to kill several people by himself. than his enemies.

They were all front-line combatants. The team members had fought against those enemies just now, so they naturally knew how difficult this kind of thing was. While they were shocked, they couldn't help but admire Luo An, the leader of the special investigation team who sounded like he was sitting in an office.

Captain John next to him now had nothing but heartfelt feelings for Luo An, and helped carry Luo An onto the temporary stretcher made by Winslow. He only had one question that was puzzling to him, and he asked:

“Leader Luo An, how did you move from the top of the cliff to the bottom of the cliff?”

Captain Cyrus and his team members all turned their heads when they heard this.

Earlier, they ran from their position to the cliff, expecting to see a rope or other object, but Luo An followed it down the cliff.

As a result, they found that the cliff was empty. They took the rope and struggled to get to the bottom of the cliff, but found nothing. They really didn't understand how Luo An moved to the bottom of the cliff. Jump off the cliff directly?

This answer was rejected by Captain Cyrus and his teammates before it was spoken. It was simply unacceptable...

“Jumped down directly.”

On the stretcher, Luo An tried to grab Mona's hand, but she knocked her away again. He smiled and replied:

“I'm pretty lucky.”

“...”xN

Hearing Luo An's answer, the first thought in everyone's mind was "impossible", but they did not find anything at the scene. No matter how impossible this answer is, it can only be the only answer.

Looking at Roan who was lightly beaten several times by Mona on the stretcher and had no choice but to lie down, Captain Cyrus, the team members, and Captain John all felt dumbfounded and their scalps were numb. Mona bit her lip tightly, and Chenelle He breathed heavily and was silent for a few seconds before giving Winslow a hard slap in the face again.

Winslow: “...”

More than two hours later, Captain Cyrus led his people to dispose of the body, escorted the prisoners such as Hamilton and Jasper, and escorted Roan and others away from the island.

Arriving at the seaside villa, Luo An and others finally met Herrick.

“Good afternoon, Mr. Herrick.”

Sitting in a wheelchair, Luo An was slowly pushed forward by Mona. Seeing Herrick being guarded by several rifles, Luo An showed a sunny smile from the heart:

“Unexpectedly, the mission of your men failed, and we accidentally left the island alive.”

Herrick, who was sitting on the sofa, was breathing heavily and was silent for a moment. He asked:

“Your voice sounds familiar. Are you the snakehead cousin?”

Roan smiled and nodded, and Herrick showed a sneer. Just when he was about to say something, the door to the room suddenly opened, and two men rushed in:

“Herric! You cousin's bastard!”

"I*#%*..."

The two men were Hamilton and Jasper. While they were yelling curses, they raised their fists and smashed Herric in the face.

The incident happened suddenly. Heilrick was caught off guard and was immediately punched in the face. After he reacted, he quickly prepared to fight back, but he was beaten to the ground by the two of them together.

“Hey! Hey! Hey! Pull them away quickly!”

Luo An grinned and quickly suppressed it, loudly scolding Winslow and Chenelle, who were responsible for guarding the two, and at the same time waved to everyone to pull them away.

Winslow and Chenelle entered the room shortly afterwards, apologized profusely, and hurried to call people to break up the fight.

But because there was some chaos at the scene, the two of them accidentally hit Halrick in the face several times and kicked Halrick in the body several times.

Herrick: “...”

Mona raised her brows slightly and pushed Luo An to leave the room silently. Luo An pondered for a few seconds, took out his mobile phone from his pocket, found a contact and called him.

At the same time, at the other end of the corridor, Captain Cyrus chose to ignore the noise from Roan. He was talking to Trick Kennedy on his cell phone.

FBI headquarters in Washington, an office.

A middle-aged white man with gold-rimmed glasses, black pupils, slightly bald head, and a fat body held a document and loudly said:

"Trick! What are you doing here recently? Do you know that you have violated many rules?"

The middle-aged white man waved the document and spat everywhere. Trick Kennedy sat on the chair and sneered at each other, not answering at all.

Suddenly, Trick Kennedy's cell phone rang. The middle-aged white man temporarily stopped talking and picked up his coffee to take a sip before continuing.

score

Suddenly, Trick Kennedy, who was answering the phone, slammed the table and stood up. He accidentally overturned the coffee cup in the middle-aged white man's hand and exclaimed in shock:

"you sure?!"

Chapter 529 Return to Washington Headquarters, the truth of the case - Part 1

"I'm sure, sir."

In the corridor of the seaside villa, Captain Cyrus replied:

"The mission was successfully completed, we successfully rescued team leader Luo An and his team members.

The criminal group leader Jasper, the arms dealer Herrick, the arms dealer Hamilton, and Alex, the mole that team leader Luo An said are also under control..."

Trick Kennedy was extremely shocked when he heard what Captain Cyrus described.

Until Captain Cyrus asked for next instructions, Trick Kennedy took several deep breaths, suppressed the turbulent emotions in his heart, and said in a deep voice:

“I will send a plane to pick you up right now, and make sure everyone returns to the Washington headquarters smoothly!”

"clear."

In the headquarters office, when I saw Trick Kennedy hanging up the phone, a middle-aged white man whose face was full of anger because he had just spilled a lot of coffee, pretended to slap the table.

Bang!

The next second, an even more deafening sound of knocking on the table was heard. The middle-aged white man was startled. Trick Kennedy slammed the table directly in front of him and shouted angrily:

“Antoine! Get out of my office!”

Middle-aged white man Antoine was suddenly filled with anger:

“Trick! You...”

“Getoutofmyface! (Get out of my face!)”

"you..."

“GetOut! (Get Out!)”

Antoine's face was flushed, his chest was heaving, and he felt like his lungs were about to explode.

After staring at Trick Kennedy for a few seconds, he clapped the documents in his hand, turned around and walked out of the office.

score

The office door was slammed shut. The next second, the anger on Antoine's face in the corridor disappeared instantly, and his red face returned to normal very quickly. As he walked forward quickly, he took out his mobile phone and said coldly:

“There's a new situation happening over at Trick, hurry up and investigate for me!

I don't know what difficulty is. If you can't find out, you don't have to come back! ”

At the same time, inside the office.

Trick Kennedy quickly put away the angry look on his face, pressed the phone and asked someone to come in and deal with the coffee on the floor. Then he took out his flip phone and called Mr. Clement who was in the White House:

“Good afternoon, sir, I have good news...”

Six hours later, as the sun went down, Luo An and his party arrived in Washington, the federal capital, from Nassau, the capital of the Bahamas, on a luxury private plane.

Luo An, who was flying on this kind of plane for the first time, narrowed his eyes slightly and gained a deeper understanding of Trick Kennedy's abilities.

The private plane landed slowly. Captain Cyrus and others got off the plane first. Mona pushed Luo An in the wheelchair out of the cabin last.

As soon as the two of them walked down the stairs, they saw Mr. Clement, Trick Kennedy and others standing and waiting under the light not far away, as well as Captain Cyrus and his team members who had a look of astonishment on their faces.

Winslow and Chenelle were also a little surprised. Mona's expression remained unchanged and she slowly pushed Luo An forward. A flash of thought flashed in Luo An's eyes, but a smile appeared on his face:

“Good evening, sir.”

“Good evening, thank you for your hard work.”

Mr. Clement had a kind smile on his face and stretched out his hand to shake Roan's hand.

Trick Kennedy was a little more direct. He smiled so hard that he could hardly keep his eyes open. After shaking hands with Luo An and saying a few words, he directly replaced Mona and started pushing Luo An's wheelchair forward.

Captain Cyrus and others were shocked when they saw this scene. They all knew the identity of Trick Kennedy, but this was the first time they saw Trick Kennedy treat someone so intimately.

Soon, the criminal group leader Jasper, the arms dealer Herrick, the arms dealer Hamilton, the mole Alex and others were taken away directly by Mr. Clement's people.

Captain Cyrus and his team turned around and left after the mission was over. Winslow, Mona, and Chenelle got into an FBI-standard SUV with a driver. Roan was pushed by Trick Kennedy, and he and Clark Together with Mr. Clement, they got into a stretch car.

“I heard you were injured, so we called a car at short notice.”

As the car moved forward slowly, Trick Kennedy opened a bottle of Coke and handed it to Luo An, then asked with a curious smile on his face:

“Luo An, can you describe the battle on the island in detail?”

After taking the Coke, Luo An kept turning on the "emotional sensing" function from the moment he got off the plane. He could confirm that Trick Kennedy had no ill intentions and even had a high degree of favorability towards him.

But... Luo An looked at Mr. Clement aside and saw Mr. Clement taking out a few pills and swallowing them.

“As I get older, my blood pressure is a little higher. This is vitamin C.”

Mr. Clement chuckled, pointed at Trick Kennedy, and explained:

“Trick wanted to be a detective and a battlefield when he was a child, but he couldn't do these things, so he was very curious about them.”

Trick sat next to him and sighed. Luo An's eyes moved slightly, thinking of the other person's last name "Kennedy" and the "curse of the Kennedy family", and he immediately understood the subtext of Mr. Clement's words.

So Luo An picked up the Coke and touched it with Trick, and began to describe the battle on the island in detail.

After some minor artistic processing, the experience described by Luo An was ups and downs and gripping. Not only did Trick Kennedy look nervous, but even Mr. Clement, who was not very interested at first, couldn't help but sit still. Straighten your back.

“...Finally, the dagger slashed down and successfully cut the opponent's throat.”

Luo An finished his vivid description, and the car just arrived at the parking lot of the FBI headquarters in Washington.

Feeling the soreness in his waist, Mr. Clement finally realized that he had listened attentively all the way. He smiled warmly and nodded twice at Luo An, then turned around and slowly walked out of the car.

Trick clenched his fists, putting himself into the role of Luo An. He was so excited after listening to the whole story that he wanted to raise his head and shout a few times.

But the situation was not suitable now, so Trick... gently patted Luo An on the shoulder, pushed the wheelchair out of the car, and whispered to Luo An to visit his home this weekend.

“Definitely go.”

Feeling that Trick's favorability towards him had increased to another level, Luo An's lips raised slightly and he agreed with a smile.

In the eyes of the passing detectives who were either shocked or surprised, Luo An in the wheelchair was pushed all the way into Mr. Clement's office by Trick, followed closely by Winslow, Mona and Chenelle. Room.

“I should have let you rest tonight, but things are a bit urgent, so I'm really sorry.”

The secretary poured some tea for several people, closed the door and left. Trick Kennedy said a few words briefly, and Mr. Clement then asked:

“Luo An, I hope you can describe the investigation process of this case in detail.”

“OK.”

Luo An nodded, and just as he was about to speak, there was a knock on the door of the office, and then a middle-aged man with gold-rimmed glasses and two white men in black suits walked in.

“Good evening, sir.”

Antoine entered the room and greeted Mr. Clement first. Trick frowned slightly:

"What's your business?"

Antoine smiled and replied:

“I heard that the murderer of Minister Alexander was caught, so I came over to learn more about this case.

After all, we are also investigating the death of Minister Alexander. ”

Trick's face changed slightly, and just as he was about to speak, Mr. Clement interrupted him with a wave of his hand, and then motioned to the secretary to get three more chairs, indicating that they had not started yet, and Antoine and the other three could listen.

“Thank you, sir.”

Antoine smiled and nodded to Mr. Clement. Then, with Trick's ugly expression, he walked up to Luo An and stretched out his hand, smiling and saying:

“You are the leader of the Special Investigations Unit, Roan Greenwood. Hello, I am the Director of the Office of Professional Responsibility, Antoine.”

Antoine's smile was very sincere, but in Luo An's “emotional perception”, the other person's true attitude was actually very unpleasant.

Luo An's expression remained unchanged, with a smile on his face, he stretched out his hand and shook it:

“Hello, sir.”

“If you have a chance, you can come to my place and have a chat.”

Under Terry's cold gaze, Antoine and Roan exchanged brief greetings, and then sat on the chairs next to them.

The secretary turned and left the office. Mr. Clement knocked on the table lightly:

“Luo An, it's time to start.”

Roan asked Mona, Winslow and Chenille to turn over the whiteboard not far away, and then turned over Minister Alexander, criminal group leader Jasper, arms dealer Hamilton, mole Alex, and arms dealer Herrick and Ivan, a member of the Chicago Special Investigations Unit, their photos were posted on the whiteboard one by one.

After preparations were completed, Luo An sat in the wheelchair and smiled slightly when facing everyone's gaze:

“Everyone, this case is full of accidents from beginning to end.

Everyone thinks they have everything under control, but in fact no one has ever learned the big picture.

Chapter 530: You hide it from me, I hide it from you, the truth of the case - Part 2

“Before returning to the Washington headquarters, our special investigation team has completed the interrogation of all persons involved in the case.

So, let's start with Minister Alexander. "

Luo An moved his wheelchair, tapped Minister Alexander's photo, and said:

“Secretary Alexander dispatched the Chicago Special Investigation Team and three agents from FBI headquarters to the dock where the crime occurred, with three goals:

First, use the criminal group leader Jasper to capture the arms dealer Hamilton.

Second, there is a senior mole in the Washington headquarters and his subordinate moles. He plans to use this operation to find out and confirm the identity of the senior mole.

Third, seize the key evidence of the high-level mole. "

“The mole?!” x5

When the words came to an end, Mr. Clement's expression remained unchanged, Trick Kennedy's eyes moved, and Antoine and his two men looked at each other and asked:

“So, Team Leader Luo An, have you found out who the high-level spy is?”

“It hasn't been found yet.”

Luo An spread his hands and said that he didn't know much about the Washington headquarters, and then said:

“But by the time I finish describing it, I believe the officers will be able to find out the identity of the other party.”

“Good.”

Mr. Clement nodded with satisfaction:

"go on."

Luo An picked up the whiteboard marker and continued:

“Minister Alexander's plan is this:

First, ostensibly, let the Chicago investigation team * Jasper, the leader of the criminal group, to the dock to make a deal, and take the opportunity to seize the arms dealer Hamilton.

Second, before this operation, Minister Alexander had already identified the mole at the grassroots level, and it was most likely among the three agents from the FBI headquarters he dispatched, but he had not yet determined which one it was.

So Minister Alexander gave the task of finding the identity of the grassroots mole to the leader of the Chicago Special Investigation Team.

The whole dock operation is a hook.

A hook to seduce the grassroots insider, find a way to let the criminal group leader Jasper go, and then let the leader of the Chicago Special Investigation Team observe and capture the grassroots insider. "

Mr. Clement picked up the coffee and took a sip. He had seen similar behavior too many times and did not find it too strange.

Trick Kennedy took out a notebook and started recording. Antoine and the three people next to him discussed in low voices for a few seconds and asked:

“Leader Luo An, what's next?”

“Next, we focus on Jasper, the leader of the criminal group.”

Luo An moved his wheelchair, pointed the whiteboard marker at Jasper's photo, and said:

“The leader of the criminal group, Jasper, was captured by the headquarters some time ago and later fell into the hands of Minister Alexander.”

Upon hearing this, Trick Kennedy glanced at Antoine and the three people next to him calmly, and sneered.

Luo An continued:

“According to the interrogation, we learned that Jasper was caught by Minister Alexander at that time, so he had to agree to Minister Alexander's request and go to the dock to make a deal with the arms dealer Hamilton.

Jasper naturally has his own ideas, such as running away and leaving the Federation.

But he was imprisoned at the time and could do nothing. At this moment, the insider at the grassroots level appeared. ”

Hearing this, Trick Kennedy's attention suddenly focused, and the eyes of Antoine and the others widened slightly.

Luo An knocked on the whiteboard:

“There was a low-level mole who followed the instructions of the senior mole and used some means to contact Jasper.

The senior mole said he could help Jasper escape.

But in exchange, Jasper had to find a way to let the men of the high-ranking mole capture the arms dealer Hamilton. "

Trick Kennedy looked solemn and narrowed his eyes slightly. The three Antoine looked at each other and saw the strange color in each other's eyes.

It is not difficult to understand the meaning of Luo An's words. The senior mole planned to make a deal with Jasper, let Jasper betray the arms dealer, and then capture the arms dealer himself and get the big credit.

Even if you think more deeply, the senior mole probably didn't intend to really let Jasper go, but planned to take advantage of Jasper later and then capture him. In order to prevent this matter from being exposed, the subordinates of the senior mole will most likely kill Jasper later.

This kind of thing is treacherous and dishonest, which is very disgusting.

But everyone present was not too excited. They were all people from the Washington headquarters. They had seen this kind of thing a lot.

Luo An continued:

“So, we can know that the senior mole also has three plans and ideas:

First, he let his subordinates at the grassroots level take action and used some means to release Jasper, which led to the failure of Minister Alexander's mission.

Second, make a deal with Jasper and use him to capture the arms dealer Hamilton.

Third, go out and clean up the mess yourself and capture Jasper and Hamilton.

Not only did he get a lot of credit, but he was also able to step down Minister Alexander, who "failed the action and let Jasper go". "

"... "xN

The air in the office was silent for a long time. Trick Kennedy glanced at Antoine and the other three and asked:

"So, Jasper, the leader of the criminal group, agreed?"

"Of course he agreed, because he wanted to escape and he had no choice."

Luo An chuckled, spread his hands, and said:

"But Jasper cannot completely follow the instructions of the senior mole. He also has his own ideas and plans:

First, he made a false promise with a senior insider, pretending to agree to the other party, and borrowed the other party's hand to pass the news to the arms dealer Hamilton.

The content of the news is that he plans to use the [FBI and CIA lists] he knows as a bargaining chip to make a deal with the arms dealer Hamilton, hoping that the other party can rescue him that day.

Second, find a way to leave the Federation and take revenge on the senior mole and Minister Alexander afterwards. "

Trick Kennedy wrote and drew in his notebook for a moment, then raised his head and said:

"According to what you just said, the arms dealer Hamilton received the message from Jasper and agreed to his terms.

At the dock that day, the arms dealer Hamilton made a deal with the Chicago Special Investigation Team.

The actual purpose is to rescue Jasper, and then ask Jasper for the [FBI's list of good CIAs]."

"That's right."

Luo An nodded and then added:

"In addition, the arms dealer Hamilton also planned to kill Jasper after getting the list.

After all, the less people know about a list, the more precious it is, right? "

Luo An paused for a moment while talking. The air in the office was very quiet, and everyone was thinking and sorting out the information they just heard.

Minister Alexander's purpose is to use the dock operation to seize the arms dealers and find out the insiders at the grassroots level and the insiders at the top.

The purpose of the senior mole is to sabotage Minister Alexander's actions, capture the arms dealer and Jasper himself, and climb up the ladder by stepping on Minister Alexander.

Jasper's purpose is to use the senior mole and arms dealer Hamilton to escape from the FBI and leave the federation.

The purpose of arms dealer Hamilton is to rescue Jasper and get the [FBI and CIA list] from Jasper.

These are the intrigues of the big guys above, and the specific implementers of the actions also have their own plans.

For example, the members of the Chicago Special Investigation Team only knew their apparent mission, which was to * Jasper to the dock to make a deal and capture the arms dealer Hamilton.

Three agents at FBI headquarters are tasked with guarding Jasper.

As the leader of the Chicago Special Investigation Team, in addition to the above transaction and arrest tasks, he also has to observe, find and arrest grassroots moles.

The task of the grassroots mole is not only to hide his identity, but also to find a way to release Jasper and obtain evidence to slander Minister Alexander.

It can be said that the whole operation was full of intrigue from the beginning.

You hide it from me and I deceive you. Everyone has their own ideas and goals, but on the surface they still pretend to know nothing.

The air in the office was quiet for a long time. After everyone thought about and sorted out the information explained by Luo An, Mr. Clement unknowingly straightened his waist and asked:

“Luo An, the arms dealer named Herrick behind him, what's going on with him?”

Luo An moved his wheelchair to the other side of the whiteboard, tapped Herrick's photo, and said in a deep voice:

“He was an accident, a variable that no one thought of, not even himself!”
