"Don't worry, Jack," said Paige.

Jack saw Martin's smile and was very worried. But he could only watch as the car went away, just as all he could do was watch when Paige was having a wedding ceremony with someone else one day in the future.

He was a little dejected....

"Jack, what are you doing here?"

Just then, a voice made Jack stop contemplating.

"Patricia, so it's you..." Jack glanced at Patricia and then could not help but look back in the direction where Paige left. The car Paige was in was long out of sight, so he looked back at Patricia. "You got up early today"

Davon could feel that the soft skin of Abbigail's fingertips was touching him and thought it was as seductive

When Rhys saw that Lord Pierce directly went offline after receiving the money, he was completely stunned.

He thought, what's the situation? He's not going to take the money and then run away, is he?

Everyone says that Lord Pierce is very powerful and has a 100% mission completion rate, but these are all legends. This is our first time working with him!

If he indeed runs away...

This was the fourth time Martin received a call from Rhys today. Martin was a little angry and said, "You better have something important to say."

He thought to himself, you have interrupted my date with Paige several times.

After breakfast, Martin brought Paige to the largest amusement park in Chicago. Today was Saturday, and there were many people there.

"Have you been here before?" Martin lowered his head and asked the girl beside him softly

When Paige was young, Tyrell and Lindsey were often not at home. Not to mention taking her out to play.

The man was noble, and the woman was cold. They seemed to be a perfect match.

"Wish you a good time." After the staff checked the tickets, they opened the door and let them in.

Paige took a map of the amusement park at the entrance. She didn't expect the park to be so big and there

Paige cooperated with him and took a lot of photos until the merry-go-round stopped. Martin got off the horse and took her hand.

“What do you want to play next?”

Paige felt that the theme park project was too childish. She took out the map and looked at it. The exciting projects were the roller coaster and the turbo drop

“Are you afraid of heights?” Paige looked up and asked the man in front of her “Afraid of you.” Martin looked at Paige and said word by word, “Afraid that you don’t like me or leave me.

Other than that, I’m not afraid of anything.”

Paige didn’t expect the confession and directly stepped forward.

Martin followed her footsteps and held her hand. “Paige, are you afraid of heights?”

If she was afraid, they could change to another project.

Paige smiled, thinking, me? Afraid?

If the position is not too small, I can cross my legs to eat desserts, provided that there was a plate of desserts in my hand.

“Please fasten your seat belts. The staff reminded them, “You must fasten your seat belts! Safety first!”

After Martin fastened Paige, he did not intend to do it himself.

Paige reached out her hand and gently held it for him.

“Afraid of my death?”

“Not really “Paige said casually, “I’m just afraid that your lower body will be paralyzed, and I’ll have to take care of you for the rest of your life.”

Martin laughed, “If I get to stay with you for the rest of my life in that way, I’ll be glad.”

Paige glanced at him, thinking, how could he curse himself like this?

“You are a girl. It is too hard for you to take care of me. I will take care of you for the rest of my life.” Martin held her hand and said with a smile, “Don’t worry. I will be healthy and safe for you.”

The roller coaster started very quickly, and Martin and Paige heard the screams of others.

One ghost after another was beaten down by Martin Paige was somewhat puzzled, thinking, these people are too weak Where do they get the courage to assassinate us?

They should get more training.

This level is too insulting.

Not long after, Martin kicked the last person into a corner. The person cried out in pain and fell to the ground.

Looking at the people in the room who were screaming, Martin whispered to Paige behind him, "Paige, turn around and cover your ears."

"Oh." Paige knew what he wanted to do, so she obediently cooperated with him.

Martin's eyes were suffused with a cold light. He crushed the bones of one of them with one foot, and his voice carried a cold chill. "Who sent you here?"

"Ah..." The man could hear the sound of his bones breaking, and he fainted from the pain.

The others were scared out of their wits and ran towards the exit, wanting to leave this place.

Martin only used thirty percent of his strength, and the coffin lid flew out, directly smashing into their bodies.

There was another scream.

“Next time, it won’t be as simple as just getting beaten up.” He reminded them word by word ruthlessly.

Everyone knew that they couldn’t escape, so they quickly knelt down and begged for mercy, their faces full of fear.

“Mr. Stowe, please spare us! We were just greedy for money and were blinded...”

“We really don’t know who wants your life...”

“That person is very mysterious, we...

Before they could finish their words, Martin stepped on the coffin lid, and the people below it screamed in pain.

“Today, you scared my girl.”

If they could recruit such talent, it would be of great help to the future development of their group.

"How about we give him dividends? As for the working hours, he can come whenever he wants! As long as he

After ending the call, Martin handled his work in front of the computer. After half an hour, he got up and walked to the bedroom.

He knocked on the door, but no one responded.

He didn't know if Paige had a quilt. It was summer. If the air-conditioning's temperature was too low, she might have caught a fever.
