Chapter 241 A Heavy Price

The founder and the person in charge of the Pai Group, Pai?

The Pai Group was a well-known venture capital in America. Its founder, Pai, was a good venture capitalist. Any projects she aimed at would definitely develop after her investment.

Many small enterprises could become strong because they were invested by the Pai Group

Before, when Robert took the project to the Pai Group to ask for investment, he was lucky to see Pai.

Although he was far away, Robert was still shocked when he saw Rylan, the CEO of the Pai Group in America, being respectful to Pai.

The outsiders did not know that the founder of the Pai Group was actually a woman.

*Robert didn't expect his **son to provoke two big shots that they could not afford to offend ever*

Robert almost lost his breath and hurriedly bowed to say, "Ms. Paige, I didn't expect it to be you. If you hadn't agreed to invest in our project and give us a sum of money, my family would not make it today. It can be said that without the Pai Group, there wouldn't be the Cohen Group..."

Hearing that, Martin thought, the Pai Group? Ms. Paige?

Who can make Robert so humble? Who can approve the Pai Group's investment...

Who else could it be besides the founder Pai?

So my girl is Pai?

Pai is Paige?

Interesting.

Paige did not expect that her two identities would be exposed in one day. She was speechless.

"Ms. Paige, you are the benefactor of the Cohen Group... How dare my son ask you to..." Robert turned around, grabbed his son's ear, and came to Paige, kicking him to kneel.

"Paige, how many more identities do you have that I don't know?" Martin lowered his eyes and looked at Paige beside him.

"Not many."

In other words, there were still some more.

Martin looked at Paige gently. He did not expect Paige to have so many identities. Martin wondered what she had experienced in the past to become so powerful.

"The Tate family was... not good to you in the past?" Martin seemed to have expected something and asked.

"Yes, not very good."

"So, when you were a child, you must have suffered a lot Martin stopped and could not help but hold Paige.

Paige was suddenly pulled into his arms and smelled him. Suddenly, she felt warm all over, and her icy heart began to warm.

"I will be here in the future." Martin held up her face and looked at her lovingly. "Tell me if you are wronged

Don't hide it, okay?"

Did Paige smile at him?

Martin could not help but lower his head and kiss her.

The staff in the cinema were all stunned, especially the manager. They could not believe that Martin would love a girl to this extent. They only knew that he was a cold man!

It could be seen that Martin loved Paige very much, and he looked at her in a very affectionate way. Everyone.

was jealous of Paige.

They thought, Mr. Stowe is so handsome!

I didn't expect that he would be tender.

This girl is so blessed to be held and loved by him like this.

Martin let go of her and looked at her lovingly. "I will carry you.

Paige wore a pair of high heels today, and Martin could not bear to see her walk hard...

But Paige reminded him in a low voice, "We're in the cinema."

"Does the cinema have a rule that I can't hold my own fiancée?"

this, he smiled and patted her head. "I'm not tired at all. You don't have to worry about me."*

*When entering the gate of ***Villa, Paige found that Jack was wearing a handsome set of clothes today. and could not help but say, "You look dashing today."*

"Is that so? You like it? Then I will wear it for you every day!"

"No need."

In the living room.

As soon as Patricia went downstairs, she inadvertently found a lot of beautifully packaged snacks on the coffee table and was about to open one

As soon as Jack entered the door, he noticed her movements and immediately rushed forward to stop her.

“Hey, Patricia! Wait, that is for Paige.”

Patricia’s hand holding the snacks suddenly paused.

Jack took the snacks from her hand and smiled, “Didn’t I buy you a lot last time? You said you couldn’t finish them all and you wanted to share them with your classmates... This time, it’s for Paige!”

Patricia smiled awkwardly. “It’s just snacks. Jack, look how nervous you are!”

“You know that this one is very difficult to buy!”

It was a famous brand that was exclusive to the royal family of Denmark. Ordinary wealthy families had no way to buy it. Jack personally came to buy them.

Paige, come, eat some biscuits! They are custom-made for the royal family. I heard that the Princess also likes to eat this.”

He raised his lips. “How do you know my size?”

“Martin!”

“Your blushing face is really cute.” Martin touched her face, his eyes full of love. He did not expect her to be

*Just now, in the bag, he also saw a *****, toothbrushes, toothpaste, leather belts, and other things that were commonly used.*

“I really want to keep these things in the safe.”

Paige had personally chosen them for him. Some of them were personally designed by her and made by her!

He really didn’t wanna use them!

The next second, Martin kissed Paige's lips, and they cuddled affectionately.

Boohoo...

Is it too late for me to take a leave and go home now?

Why?

Why do you have to kiss in front of me?

I'm pitiful enough!

After a while, Martin stopped. He could only see Paige.

After Jack finished his work, it was dark outside. He took out his mobile phone and called Paige, "Paige, have you eaten? I will take you out for dinner!"

"I have eaten." Paige's gentle voice came from the phone. "Jack, have you just finished your work?"

"Haven't you eaten yet?"

"Well, it's not..." In order to not let her worry, Jack chuckled and lied, "I have already eaten. I just asked if you wanted to have some more..."

"Jack!" At this time, his agent rushed over and whispered into Jack's ear, "Mr. Stowe promised to give you 160 million dollars, saying that he will transfer you privately."

"Oh."

"He told you to wait a little longer. He said that he needs to save money to marry in the next few years. After it's done, he will transfer the money to you."

Jack was dumbfounded.

What does he mean?

Transfer money to me in a few years?

He's not planning to give it to me, huh?

Sincerity?

The Stowe Group is too generous. There are twenty storefronts. They're all free....

This is the gowning area. Do you need me to recommend it to you? Or do you want to choose it yourself?"

I'll choose it myself!" Abigail began to choose the new designs, unable to suppress the excitement in his heart

These dresses were beautiful and unique. She could imagine how she looked when she wore them. She was

For a moment, Davon felt that he was too much of a jerk. How could he be misled by Paige and believe her nonsense?

Abbigail was his fiancée, and she also gave him his virginity. But he didn’t protect her and even questioned her along with outsiders!

Thinking of this, Davon took Abbigail’s hand and said firmly, “You don’t have to take it off! They said you are on the blacklist, then they have to prove it! If they can’t prove it, I will complain to PQ Fashion’s headquarters. Im going to let your boss know how you people spoil this brand’s reputation and how you treat your VIP customers!”

Winnie was amused by his words. It turned out that these two young people still didn’t know that PQ Fashion’s founder was standing nght in front of them.

But it made sense. As PQ Fashion’s manager, Winnie herself only had the honor of meeting Paine a few times since PQ Fashion started

These two people were obviously not from the upper class. It was normal that they didn’t know Paine yet

“If you want evidence, I will give you evidence.” Winnie raised her eyes and said, “May I know the full name of this lady? I will check it

Every store could log into the internal system and check the customer’s level and status.

But you damage the dress, so you have to pay for it. The price of this dress is 2,1 million dollars. Are you going to pay it by card or by PayPal?"*

Davon's face darkened when he heard this. 2.1 million dollars? How could it be so expensive?

The people around them watched them as if they were a joke. After Davon paid the bill, they all dispersed.

Almost none of them paid attention to them anymore.

"Mr Terrell, can I have a moment with you?" Tyrell had to brazen it out and stepped forward. He ignored the people around him and smiled humbly. "PQ Fashion and Tate Clothing used to be good partners in the past. I think maybe there were some "Good partners?" Seeing that Tyrell was still daydreaming, Jaylen sneered and interrupted him, "If not for our boss, PQ Fashion would

Tyrell felt his blood freeze with random thoughts popping out in his head

What did he just say?

So, it was really Paige who was helping Tate Clothing. No, it was impossible!

How old was Paige back then?

How could she be PQ Fashion's boss?

"My boss is the founder of PQ Fashion. If it wasn't her who gave you resources and helped you clean up all the mess. Tate Clothing would have already gone broke in Dolton!"

If it weren't for Paige's help, not to mention going broke in Dolton, the Tate family might even be the poorest one in Chicago!

Tyrell felt as if he was hit by a ***. He couldn't believe it at all!

Chapter 250 Conflict

From time to time a few employees would peek at Paige from the side Paige looked so young and beautiful! They didn't expect their boss to be so good-looking and talented at such a young age. What's more, she looked so dominant and eye-catching

She was so awesome!

They all felt lucky today to be able to see Paige with their eyes!

The surrounding customers discussed

"n didn't expect her to be Paine Quinn. She is a real looker and has a personality. No wonder she can design so many beautiful

"I want to take a photo with her, but I dare not disturb her!"

She looks so cold, but she is polite when talking to the store manager! Is she really a boss? She doesn't have any airs at all.

"I heard that PQ Fashion treats its employees very well. When I graduate, I also want to work for her!"

"I heard that PQ Fashion's threshold is very high. They won't hire an ordinary undergraduate. Their designer who won the first prize, Manela Robins, has graduated from a famous university!"

Paige noticed that there was a gaze fixing on her for a long time. She raised her eyes and met the eyes of a short-haired girl next to

The short-haired girl hesitated and her face turned red.

"Can I help you? Paige asked gently.

The short-haired girl's face reddened even more. After a moment, she mustered up her courage and walked up to Paige, saying, "Nice Nice to meet you, Paine. I love design. I'm your***fan. I... I'm not here to ask for your signature or photo! Don't worry..."

Paige's eyes softened. "Yes?"
