Chapter 271 Ten Times the Original Rent

"I said get out..." Cassie slapped the bedside table hard. Her body was shaking due to anger.

"M*m, calm down. Calm down..."

"Get out! Be gone! Don't you understand human language? Both of you, get out of here. Kaff, kaff. Get out!" Cassie shouted angrily with all her strength.

Tyrell was afraid that it would make her condition worse, so he pulled Abbigail up. "Have a good rest then. We will visit you again in a few days..."

"Go away! Go away! Go away!" Cassie shouted so loudly that her voice got . Her body was shaking violently. After they left, she found that there were tears on her face.

Cassie mocked herself. She didn't expect her later years to be so bleak.

None of her blood relations was reliable.

After a long while, Cassie took out her mobile phone from under her pillow with trembling hands. She clicked into the recent calls and called Paige. Cassie just wanted to hear her voice.

"Grandma, what's the matter?" Paige found her voice strange as soon as she picked up the phone. "Are you alright?"

"I'm fine. I just miss you. What are you doing?"

Paige paused and looked at the message device. She said gently, "Nothing. It's just some work."

"Don't make yourself too tired. You should have a good rest. By the way, when is my surgery?" Cassie couldn't wait any longer.

"It's in three days."

"Three days..." Cassie covered her heart with one hand and muttered. She didn't know if she could wait until that day.

After being angered by Tyrell for the past two days, Cassie felt that her heart was aching badly. Sometimes she couldn't get her breath.

Paige thought Cassie was worried that the surgery wouldn't work. She smiled gently, "Grandma, don't worry. After the surgery, your health will definitely be better. If you recuperate well, you will live to 100."

When Abbigail heard that, her face instantly turned pale.

Abbigail thought, no, my family can't break down, at least not now.

My engagement party with Davon will be held soon. If my family went bankrupt at this critical moment, I could not even marry an ordinary rich man like Davon.

In that case, my life will become ordinary....

No, I can't let it happen!

“I will go in and talk to that old *...” Lindsey stepped on her high heels and wanted to enter the ward.

“At this point, sell the shares I have first. Let's hold on for a while longer... Don't go to her. She won't help.”- Tyrell sighed. He seemed to have expected the result.

Lindsey still wanted to say something, but Tyrell interrupted, “You know her character. The more we want her to give us money, the more reluctant she will be. Let's wait a few days to see her.”

“Why do you think an old like her with so much cash and shares in her hand? She'll be dead soon.

Why won't she save us?”

When Lindsey said this, she hated Cassie more.

Abbigail also thought that way. She wished for Cassie to early. In her eyes, Cassie didn't benefit her while she was still alive. Abbigail thought Cassie was partial toward Paige.

Abbigail held that Cassie would not be an eyesore if she as there was no need to pay medical expenses.

Paige knew what that ring meant to Cassie. "No, it's your treasure in memory of grandpa."

"It will only be valuable if it is passed down. It's just a little something." Cassie patted Paige's hand and said with a smile, "You must help me bring it. I am giving it to my grandson-in-law, not to you."

"Okay." Paige smiled and chatted with her for a while. 2 didn't leave until Cassie was tired and fell asleep.

Two days later.

Tyrell and Lindsey successfully sold all the shares, houses, and shops. They also borrowed a lot of money from many banks in the name of the group. In addition to a few rounds of financing, they were finally qualified to participate in the auction.

The participants in the auction today were all international first-tier groups, including PQ Fashion, Pai Group, the Stowe Group, the Daybreak Group, and so on. Even Samuel came to join in the fun.

Among these groups, only Tate Clothing was the least powerful. In comparison, it was insignificant.

Tyrell came to the door and looked at the majestic door in front of him. He couldn't help but say, "Lindsey, we must succeed in getting this land today..."

As long as they could get this land, Tate Clothing would definitely be able to have a turnaround.

And all their problems would be solved.

Lindsey became excited. "And our value will immediately increase by hundreds of times. At that time, the Elinor family will be nothing. Abigail, this is why I made you dress up so well today."

The people who came here today were either rich or powerful. As long as Abigail was chosen by one of her future would

"Sorry, may I ask which group you are representing?"

"Didn't you see the message just now? Have you never heard of Tate Clothing?" Tyrell was stunned.

"Tate... Tate Clothing?" One of the security guards seemed to have never heard of this name. Today, the participants in the auction were all first-tier groups. The security guards had never heard of such a small group.

The security guard hurriedly asked his colleague. "Is there Tate Clothing at the auction today?"

"I don't know. I don't seem to have heard of this name. I'll go check it."

"Sorry, please wait a moment."

Tyrell's family was left outside. They couldn't help but feel a little angry. "Your organizer sent me a text message and reminded me to come over today. How can it be fake? Why can't the text message prove my identity?"

Lindsey couldn't help but say, "This is the richest man in Dolton."

"Dolton?" The security guard was stunned. He had obviously never heard of it before.

The other security guard was also confused. "Dolton? Where is it?"

The third security guard couldn't help but whisper, "There are four districts in Chicago. The backward one is the North District, where there are four counties. The backward one is Burbank, where there are four towns,

After a while, Abbigail finally found that something was wrong. "*, look at the clothes they are

All of them were very formal. Even Paige was wearing a light pink suit. Her hair was tied back with a cool vibe.

The three of them, however, were like clowns...

"Did we wear the wrong clothes?" At this time, Abbigail felt that her dress was particularly annoying. No

It turned out that they were wearing the wrong clothes!

Lindsey also noticed this and became a little embarrassed. They had never participated in an auction before and did not know what to wear today.

Tyrell comforted, "It's fine. In a while, others will only care about who buys the land, and no one cares what kind of clothes you wear."

Martin and Paige sat side by side in the first row. They had their fingers clasped together. Hernan, who was at the side, coldly said, "Watch your behavior."

"It is too cold. I am just helping Paige warm her hands."

Then Hernan's gaze fell on Paige. He softly asked, "Is it cold?"

"Yes." Paige could only nod.

Hernan took off his coat and gently covered Paige's knees. "Put it on first. I'll get someone to raise the temperature."

"No need." Before Paige finished speaking, Hernan had already talked to the staff.

"Your hair is very pretty." Martin reached out and stroked the hair on Paige's forehead. He looked at her beautiful face and said gently, "You look good in a suit."

"You look good today too," Paige looked into his eyes and said gently. "I will give you the land later."

This piece of land could be bought with 1.28 billion dollars, but now...” Tyrell looked at the number on the screen. It had already reached billion dollars, and the cold sweat on his forehead was getting more.

Abbigail also clenched her fists tightly. She was extremely nervous. They had to take this piece of land, or they would be finished!

“1.44 billion dollars.”

“1.52 billion dollars.”

“1.68 billion dollars.”

Finally, Paige stopped bidding.

“How much money does Tate Clothing have?” Hernan asked Martin, who was beside him.

“2 billion dollars.”

Thus, Hernan raised the card again.

“1.68 billion dollars! Daybreak Group offers 1.68 billion dollars!”

Following the host's voice, everyone held their breath. They had never expected that this piece of land would be able to sell at such a high price!

Lindsey subconsciously grabbed Tyrell's hand. “What should we do, hubby? It's 1.68 billion dollars now!”

Tyrell's hand trembled non-stop. They were staking everything on this day, but now...

“1.68 billion dollars going once...”

“Dad, quickly raise your card! We still have a chance, Dad!” Abigail saw that her father’s face was pale and cold sweat was forming on his forehead. “Hurry up and raise your card. Did you hear me? Dad!”

“1.68 billion dollars going twice...”

Tyrell finally came to his senses and raised his hand.

When the host saw him, he exclaimed, “1.76 billion dollars! The gentleman behind bid 1.76 billion dollars...”

"Mrs. Lusk, I heard that your daughter Patricia got high scores on the SAT. She is much better than my

"That's right. My daughter got lower scores. Mrs. Lusk not only has a perfect appearance but also has skills

Several noble ladies kept praising Danica.

After Paige went to the bathroom, she was washing his hands when she suddenly heard a proud voice.

“You didn’t expect that the Tate family could buy the land today, right?”

“I know you wanted this piece of land. Why don’t you kneel and beg me? I can ask my dad to sell it to you at a

“Are you again? I asked you to go to the psychiatry department to take a look, but you didn’t go. Why did you come here?” Paige rolled her eyes at her and was about to leave.

No one would have thought that Paige was the real founder of PQ Fashion!

It was awesome.

However, was it really like what Lindsey said? Were they beating people because they couldn't get the land?

"Did my daughter not make it clear enough?"

Suddenly, an elegant lady walked out of the crowd. She sneered coldly at Lindsey.

"My daughter said that your daughter deserved it. Why don't you ask your daughter? How dare you question my daughter?"

When Lindsey saw the woman who came, Lindsey's face suddenly turned pale with fright. "What did you say?"

Danica actually said that Paige was her daughter..

How was that possible?

A piece of news suddenly flashed through Lindsey's mind. "Top scorer for SAT, Paige Lusk..."

Paige's surname was Lusk.

Could it be that Paige's biological family was really the richest family, the Lusk family?

No, it couldn't be...

When Tyrell saw that all the people were making things difficult for them, only Hernan had not expressed his opinion yet. He held his last hope and called out tentatively, “Mr. Hernan...”

“Do it now.” Hernan looked at him coldly. “Do you want someone else to help you?”

Everyone wanted the Tate family to educate Abbigail well.

Tyrell had no choice. He gritted his teeth, closed his eyes, and gave Abbigail a hard slap.

Abbigail had already been slapped by Paige more than ten times just now. Now that she had been slapped by Tyrell, she felt that she could no longer hear out of one ear. Her pained expression did not look like she was faking it.

However, the few ladies around her were still mocking her.

“Come on. Did you just tickle your daughter?”

“You want to end this with just one slap? I’m telling you, there’s no way!”

“We will not tolerate anyone insulting Mrs. Lusk. Since you can’t do it, let us help you!”

“Mr. Plath, I didn’t expect that you would also come to participate in today’s auction...” When Lindsey saw him, she felt a sourness in her nose. She wanted to tell Samuel all her grievances. They had really suffered a great humiliation just now!

They last saw each other three or four years ago.

This did not hinder the friendship between the Tate family and the Plath family.

If not for the fact that Samuel was abroad all year round, she would have almost forgotten that the Tate family had such a powerful backer!

Thinking of this, Lindsey became even more aggrieved. "You saw what happened just now. We..."

"You guys have gone too far."

Tyrell, Lindsey, and Abbigail were all stunned. What did Samuel mean?

Wasn't Samuel here to stand up for them?

It seemed that Samuel was here to find trouble with them!

"My precious granddaughter is willing to let you go. You should be grateful for her tolerance!"

Tyrell was stunned. It was a while before he realized that he meant Paige.

"Mr. Plath, you are abroad all year round. You may not know that Paige is not the daughter of the Tate family.

She doesn't belong to our family anymore. You don't have to treat her as a granddaughter..."

Did Samuel think that Paige was Tyrell's daughter, Cassie's granddaughter, so he wanted to help her?

Tyrell breathed a sigh of relief.

Speaking of which, Samuel was single and still unmarried. He had no son and no daughter. If Abbigail could be his granddaughter, the huge wealth he had would belong to Abbigail.

"She's not my biological granddaughter, but she is someone very close to me!" Samuel's voice was like a bell,
