Chapter 281 Her Identity

"Is this your fiancé?" Samuel looked at Martin.

Martin, who was standing tall and straight at the side, looked at Samuel. He took the initiative to shake hands and greet Samuel. "Mr. Plath, it's an honor to meet you."

Samuel held his hand and sized him up. "Not bad."

Martin had a handsome and noble appearance and was very cultured. He was already the richest man in the world at such a young age.

Samuel had heard of Martin a long time ago, but today was the first time he had come into contact with Martin.

"The person my precious granddaughter likes is indeed extraordinary

"Thank you, Mr. Plath."

Samuel got close to Martin and whispered to him, "Those two heartless  of the Tate family have been treating Paige badly since she was a child. Paige had suffered a lot."

Martin listened attentively and nodded.

"I know. It is so lucky for me to be able to be with Paige." Martin held Samuel's hand and promised solemnly. "I will definitely cherish her and spend more time with her. I will make her feel secure and happy. I promise."

"Good boy." Samuel patted his shoulder and felt relieved. Samuel then looked at the others. "I will take my leave first. Paige, I will come to see you another day."

"Yeah, aren't you going out with your classmates tonight?" Danica asked.

"I..." Patricia never thought that her mother would not take her to the charity party just because Patricia said that she would go out with her classmates when her mother asked her what plans she had for tonight.

Could it be that Danica would only bring Paige to the charity party?

"Student gatherings are not important. However, this is probably the first time Ms. Paige has attended such a big event as a charity party, right? How about we let Ms. Patricia go with her? They can look after each other." Amily kindly suggested.

Danica took a few sips of tea and said disapprovingly, "I'll go with Paige. That's enough. Besides, what kind of scene has Paige not seen before? In terms of experience, Paige has seen more than Patricia!"

The sentence made Amily and Patricia speechless.

Danica smiled and looked back at Paige. "Go upstairs and rest. I will ask Bonnie to call you."

"Okay."

Paige received a call after going upstairs.

It was Jairo. "Boss, you asked me to investigate the cause of the fire in Sam Clinic on September 10th, 18 years ago. The more I investigate, the more I find it strange."

"Strange? How?" Paige walked to the balcony with an indifferent expression on her face.

"Didn't I find out that the cleaner, Dolores, who picked up Abbigail and raised her, heard the explosion when she was dealing with the stagnant water? At first, the sound of the explosion was deafening, and she did not dare to approach. When she did, she saw a few black cars that left in the opposite direction.

"At that time, Dolores was in a hurry to save people and didn't pay much attention. She didn't know what kind of car they and what they looked like. So I found her cleaner colleagues at that time and asked them about the situation that day. It was almost the same as what Dolores said.

Seven o'clock in the evening.

Accompanied by Donald and Danica, Paige attended the charity banquet.

This banquet was started by a famous big shot in Chicago many years ago. It was held once a year. Since his death, his daughter continued to hold it. It had been seventeen years since then.

Every year, the project of the banquet was to raise funds for meals, study, and healthcare for children in remote areas.

The people attending the banquet were all upper classes. The banquet was not open to the public, and the people who came were all people with strength and status.

Donald and Danica attended the banquet for the seventeenth year. Unlike in the past, tonight they came with their own daughter, and the moment they appeared, they stunned the entire ****.

Paige was elegant and noble in her black evening dress, like an unattainable queen.

She held Donald in her left hand and Danica in her right. As soon as she appeared, she became the center of attention.

Many guests were curious. Who was she? Why did she seem to have a good relationship with the Lusk family?

When the host of the banquet, Kaia Tucker, saw them, she immediately went forward to greet them. "Paige, you are finally here. I was worried that you would not come!

Chapter 284 Tyrell and Lindsey Are Embarrassed

There was every flavor of cake Paige liked here.

When Paige was eating a piece of cake, she heard that the Tate family and the Elinor family come.

“I heard that the Tate family spent 1.92 billion dollars on that piece of land in the suburbs. I really can’t believe that Mr. Tate is so rich.”

"Mr. Elinor and Ms. Tate seem to have come as well. I heard that they are a perfect match. And they will have an engagement party in two days."

"Good news is all around the Tate family."

Paige ate the cake and thought, the three guys are indeed cheeky. They have just been sent to the hospital not long ago, and now they attend the charity banquet.

Did the hospital not leave a great psychological shadow on them?

They had taken so much trouble joining the upper class.

This was the first time that Tyrell had attended a banquet in the upper class of Chicago. This was the private house of the Tucker family. It was magnificent and more than ten times bigger than the villa he lived in!

From the moment he stepped into the garden, Tyrell had been sighing with emotion. The house was really luxurious. The rich man's vision and ambition were not what lowly men could compete with.

The Tucker family had been in business for generations and had a hundred years of history. Because it was deeply rooted in Chicago, the Tucker family was influential in the city.

At this time, a guest saw Tyrell and greeted him with a smile.

"Mr. Tate, I heard that you spent 1.92 billion dollars on a piece of land. You will donate a lot at the charity party tonight, right?"

"Well, it depends, Tyrell laughed guiltily. Apart from the Maybach and Abbigail's outfits at her engagement party, they had nothing valuable.

On the way here tonight, he and Lindsey discussed what to donate later and how much they should give.

Chapter 285 Get Beaten Up

Davon thought, she was going too far. After all, the Tate family had raised her for 18 years. How could she embarrass the Tate family time and time again?

She just liked me and could not be together with me. So, she deliberately made trouble!

Davon made up his mind to go over and talk to Paige!

Paige was eating pastries at the table when she suddenly heard an angry voice.

“Paige!”

Paige saw Davon angrily walking towards her and coldly asked, “How could you have the mood to eat?”

Paige was confused, but she didn’t stop eating. Paige swallowed the pastry in her . She did not even Paige’s action of holding the glass was very beautiful, elegant, and charming. When Paige raised her head

Davon thought, Paige was  , but it is also true that she is good-looking...

I had never noticed her beauty before. Ever since she left the Tate family, I had been attracted.

Davon almost forgot about what he wanted to do. He came back to his senses and said, “Why did you send Abbigail and the others to the hospital today?”

Abbigail saw Davon talk with Paige. She hurriedly walked over and held Davon’s hand. She said, “What are you guys talking about?”

Davon did not answer Abbigail’s question. Instead, he stared at Paige. Davon thought, Paige cared about me, but she pretended not to talk to me!

It must be because Abbigail was here!

“I’m asking you! How could you beat Abbigail? Look at what you did to her face!” Davon added.

Abbigail was beaten up. When she put on makeup, she was in so much pain that tears welled up in her eyes. However, for the sake of tonight’s dinner party, Abbigail still put on layers of thick makeup...

It looked like Abbigail’s face was swollen and a little funny when matched with her facial features.

When everyone heard this, they were shocked...

They thought, niece?

Paige is Kaia's niece?

How is that possible? Isn't Kaia still unmarried?

She doesn't even have a spouse. How could she have a niece?

Is Paige her biological niece?

Members of the Tate family and the Elinor family were all shocked...

"If I don't come, I won't know that someone is bullying you." Martin stroked Paige's head lovingly and looked at Ian coldly. "Is Mr. Elinor planning to educate your son by yourself, or are my people helping to teach him?"

When Ian heard this, he was so scared that his legs went soft and he kept begging. "This... This was a small matter. I won't trouble Mr. Stowe to..."

Looking at the intimate manner of Martin and Paige, Ian knew that the two of them were a couple!

Knowing that Davon had caused big trouble today, it was too late for Ian to regret it. He could only wipe the cold sweat on his forehead and walked towards Davon.

"Dad..."

Davon had not finished speaking when Ian slapped him.

"You brat! How dare you touch Paige's hand?"

Davon had been pampered since he was young. How could he bear the sudden slap from Ian? He almost fell to the ground.

"Davon..."

Abigail was frightened. She did not expect that Ian would use so much strength to hit Davon.

It was fine if Abigail didn't say anything, but once she did, Ian noticed her and a hint of hatred flashed in his eyes. "I'll settle your score with you later!"

Abigail was frightened. She felt that the surrounding gazes were all on her, and her expression changed.

*The slap just now had caused Davon's to bleed.

However, Ian did not intend to let Davon go. Ian slapped Davon several times in a row. "You brat! Today, I'll take this opportunity to teach you a lesson! Remember to get as far away as you can from Mr. Stowe's girl! If you dare do something to Paige again, I'll chop off your hands!"

Davon was slapped so hard that he couldn't see things clearly and his ears were buzzing. He never expected that Martin would be Paige's boyfriend.

Before, Davon thought that Paige was indifferent to him because he had been chasing after her for a while and disappeared.

Davon thought that it was because he chose Abigail and did not choose Paige. Davon thought that it was because he decided to get engaged to Abigail and abandoned Paige...

Davon thought those were the reasons why Paige hated him!

"Dad!" Davon endured the pain and moved back. Davon could not believe that Ian was determined to cut his hand off.

"Which hand of yours touched Paige?"

Seeing Ian approaching step by step, Davon spoke as if he was crying, "Dad, I won't dare to do it again..."

"I asked you which hand!"

"Dad!" Davon trembled in fear and cried.

After a while, a scream came from the garden.

Martin covered Paige's eyes and said in a gentle voice, "Don't look."

It was not suitable for her.

Paige removed his hand and saw that Davon's hand was bleeding...

Although Ian did not cut off Davon's arm tendons, there was a long scar on his arm. Average doctors would not be able to help Davon and could only leave a scar for a lifetime.

"Mr. Stowe, I wonder if you are satisfied with this result..." After Ian did it, the first thing he did was not check.

on Davon's injuries. Instead, Ian first bent down in front of Martin to ask for instructions.

Seeing his humble and respectful appearance, Martin spoke as coldly as ever. "You asked the wrong person."

"Ms. Paige, I wonder if this will work? Can you let us go... When we get home later, I will continue to teach him a lesson!" Ian hurriedly bent over and turned to Paige.

"Well, you can leave," Paige said indifferently.

"Thank you, Ms. Paige. We'll get out of here now. We won't bother you..." Ian bent his waist even lower.

Abbigail pretended to help Davon. But before she could touch Davon, Greta pushed Abbigail away and said,

On the other side.

The house that Tyrell used to live in had been sold.

Next to the house was one of the villas under Cassie’s name.

Before Lindsey went to the charity banquet, she asked servants to break the lock of the villa. She wanted to move in.

With three members of her family and about five servants, they couldn’t afford to live in the hotel every day.

Not long after the servants finished moving house, a plainly dressed woman came to the house where Tyrell had lived. When she learned that Tyrell had moved next door, she changed her destination.

One of the servants saw her and immediately wore a sullen look. “What are you doing here? Didn’t I tell you not to come over anymore?”

“I heard that Abbigail would have an engagement ceremony in two days...”

The woman sounded humble. However, the servant rolled her eyes before the woman could finish her sentence. “What does it have to do with you? Who do you think you are? The Tate family won’t invite you. If you don’t leave right now, we will call security guards to drive you away.”

Hearing what the servant had said, the woman felt depressed. Soon, she explained, “You are mistaken. I don’t want to attend the ceremony...”

Just then, van over and then stopped in front of the Tate’s home.

Before the servant and the woman could react, they saw Tyrell, Lindsey, and Abbigail being thrown out of the
