Chapter 291 Invite a Person

"Sweet kid. Only you remember my birthday every year." Cassie smiled. "You are so busy, yet you still prepared

so many gifts for me..."

"Let's give this a try." Paige took out a massager and put it on the spot between Cassie's shoulder and neck.

After a while, Cassie felt so good that she closed her eyes to enjoy it. "It's so good. Where did you buy it? It must be very expensive, right?"

In the past, she had bought a few massagers through some friends. They were all expensive and bad. This massager made her feel so good and must cost a lot of money.

She felt bad for having her granddaughter spend so much money on her...

"It's not expensive." Paige set it to the mode for adults and looked at Cassie tenderly.

Cassie relaxed. "My shoulders and neck are sore these two days, and I can't sleep well. This gift came just in time!"

Hearing this, Paige frowned slightly. "Why didn't you tell me that you felt unwell?"

"I don't want to bother you with such trivial matters..." Before Cassie could finish her words, Paige felt her pulse.

Fortunately, it was nothing serious. Cassie's sleeping problem was not pathological.

Cassie smiled and said, "I'm old, and my body parts are dying. It is normal for them to ache... You are considerate to give me this gift. Then, I can sleep well."

"If you feel unwell, you must tell me. You will never bother me." After Paige finished speaking, she taught Cassie how to use the massager. "This is the remote control, and there are several modes..."

At this time, Paige glanced at Samuel as if saying, "Grandma likes it very much. She said that you are considerate."

"I'll go get the cake. You guys can talk for a while." Paige washed her hands and took the cake out of the box.

The cake looked cute. A round of peach surrounded an old lady who was smiling from ear to ear. There were also a lot of fruits as decorations. There were also the words "healthy and long life" on it.

It was made by Samuel. Samuel got up early to make it. A few dessert chefs took turns teaching him, and Samuel wasted a lot of materials...

Finally, Samuel made a decent one.

But Cassie did not know that. She asked with a smile, "Paige, did you make this? It's so beautiful!"

Cassie knew that her precious granddaughter knew how to make sweets.

Paige smiled and said, "I didn't make the cake this year.

Paige couldn't make it that good.

It was full of Samuel's feelings for Cassie.

Originally, Paige planned to celebrate Cassie's birthday at seven or eight o'clock in the evening, but because of Samuel's schedule, he had no choice but to celebrate in advance.

"You lit a candle?"

Paige put the candle in the shape of the number 70 on the cake. Samuel said, "I'll do it. I'll do it! I have a lighter."

Seeing Samuel take out a lighter from his pocket, Cassie was a little surprised, "I remember that you

"Paige, come to the hospital! There is no time to explain. Hurry!"

It was Colin who called.

Colin had always been a calm and cold person. For him to be so anxious, there was no need to think about it. Something big must have happened to Cassie!

The sound of a speeding car immediately left the villa.

At this time, Danica just got up to drink water. When she heard the sound, she looked out of the window and saw the shadow of a red Ferrari driving away.

It is so late. Where is Paige going?

What happened?

Paige stepped on the accelerator to the end and drifted into the late-night streets.

It only took Paige 10 minutes to arrive at the entrance of the hospital. It should have taken 30 minutes. When

Paige left the car there, the nurse who was waiting there was scared.

Paige's car almost hit her!

The nurse took a deep breath and rushed forward. "Ms. Paige, you are finally here! Dr. Williamson asked me to wait for you here. He said that your grandmother's condition is very critical. We have... missed the best time to rescue her!"

Paige was startled and quickened her pace to run to Room 301.

"Ms. Paige, wait for me..." The nurse had short legs and could not catch up with Paige's footsteps at all.

Paige ran to Room 301 like a gust of wind and opened the door to see that there was no one inside.

"Ms. Paige, operating room! Please change into your surgical gown, quick..." Another nurse reminded Paige.

Paige changed into a sterile suit as fast as she could. When Paige came to the operating room, she saw that all the instruments were telling her that Cassie was dying!

"The cardiac rupture was caused by myocardial infarction! Quick!" Colin's voice pulled Paige back to reality in Danica had already asked people to search for Paige, but there was no trace of Paige everywhere.

Danica had checked the surveillance cameras and only knew that Paige had passed through Saltmire Bridge at an extremely fast speed. It could be said that she was risking her life!

There was a road where the surveillance was broken, so Danica did not know where Paige went after she got off the bridge.

*On the side, Patricia was secretly delighted. Could it be that Paige ****in a car accident?*

If that was the case, then the position of the daughter of a rich family was still Patricia's!

Thinking of this, Patricia could not help but hope that Paige would never come back again...

"Paige left in a hurry?" Martin on the phone asked gently

*"Yes, Paige *very fast, faster than those racing drivers on TV. Something must have happened!" Danica was about to cry.*

"Don't worry... I know where Paige went.",

There was only one person who could make Paige so anxious!

As Martin sent people to investigate, he rushed to the hospital. Sure enough, when Martin rushed to the gate of the hospital, he suddenly received a message from his subordinates. At two o'clock in the morning, the hospital surveillance did capture the figure of Paige!

Paige came to the hospital.

"Not good. The patient's heart suddenly stopped!"

"Breathing stopped!"

"Dr. Lusk, what should we do?"

"Grandma, don't sleep!" Paige was desperately trying to save Cassie, and everyone was exerting their strength, racing against death at every second!

However, the situation was getting worse and worse. Paige was so anxious that her eyes turned red. It was the first time that Paige found that her medical skills were so useless that she could not even save a person!

Colin, who was on the side, saw Paige fighting for more than ten hours and could not help but persuade her.

Just as Ian finished his words, the audience burst into thunderous applause.

He was not as humble as he was when he begged for mercy in front of Kaia last night. He was in high spirits

"As the father of the groom, I sincerely wish my son and my daughter-in-law a happy marriage. I hope that you will respect each other from now on, share the joys and sorrows, and be happy for the rest of your lives."

Everyone applauded again with smiles and blessings on their faces.

Below the stage, Davon and Abbigail looked at each other with deep affection in their eyes.

"I also want to thank my in-laws for raising a beautiful and intelligent daughter here. It is also a great honor for my son to be able to marry such a girl. I sincerely hope that the two families can get along well for generations!"

Everyone applauded again. Ian handed the microphone to Greta. Greta smiled, looking dignified and generous.

"Today, to announce this happy event and thank all the guests who have taken the time to come to our engagement party, we have prepared some food and wine. Please make yourselves at home. If you need anything, please let us know."

Just as Greta finished speaking, the dreamy hall once again burst into warm applause.

The waiters began to serve the dishes. There were sixty-six big tables in the hall. Each table had ten seats, so

Donald and Danica came to the hospital with a lot of gifts. They heard that Cassie was still in the operating room for rescue. As soon as they arrived at the door of the operation room, they heard a girl's sad and desperate sobs.

It was Paige's voice...

Donald and Danica were stunned. Their minds were blank. They looked at Colin, who was silently standing at the door. In the end, they could not help but ask, "Dr. Williamson, Cassie..."

"She passed away just now." Colin stood at the door and looked at Paige, who was crying her heart out.
Martin embraced her and let her cry in his arms.

If it was possible, he also wanted to comfort her like that. However, with his identity, he was destined to only stand aside and watch her in pain. He did not even have the qualifications to go forward and comfort her.

Colin's eyes also became a little red, and his voice was distressed. "Paige has been in the operating room for eleven hours, and she has done her best."

Eleven hours! If there was any way, she would not let Cassie d*e.

However, there was no way to bring Cassie back to life.

Danica couldn't take it, and the things in her hand fell to the ground. Donald hurriedly threw away the things in his hand to help her. "Danica, are you okay?"

Danica felt pain in her heart and also felt sad. She did not expect Cassie would d*e before they arrived.

They were late!

At that moment, Paige must be very sad!

"Cassie, Cassie..."

Meanwhile, an old man ran out of the elevator and stumbled toward the operating room.

He tried his best to walk through the crowd and abruptly pushed open the door of the operating room. But he only saw a cold corpse.

He almost couldn't stand steadily. If not for Colin, who was at the door supporting him, he would have fallen!

"Cassie!"

This broken voice carried the old man's pain.

His heart suddenly felt uncomfortable in the morning. At that time, he had a premonition that something might happen to Cassie.

Paige didn't answer his phone calls. His heart was not feeling well, so he could only send someone to the hospital to inquire about it. He knew that Paige was performing

“Now, please let the bride put on the ring for the groom!”

Abigail took the ring box that the staff handed over and opened it. It was also a big diamond ring.

The host cheered again. "Let me tell you something. The bride and the groom have never seen the rings prepared for each other. This is their first time showing the rings!"

The audience burst into applause.

"They both prepared diamond rings. It shows that their hearts are connected and they can reach each other's minds. It also proves that their marriage is destined..."

The Tate family bought this diamond ring from a famous brand abroad to show off. It was worth about 20 thousand dollars.

The diamond ring Davon bought was also that expensive.

The diamond rings prepared by the two families were similar.

The groom was the son of the richest man in Skokie, and the bride was the daughter of the richest man in Dolton. It was said that not long ago, the richest man in Dolton spent 1.92 billion dollars to buy a piece of land...

They were perfect for each other, and they were a great match.

When Davon saw this ring, his gaze became even gentler. He did not expect that the Tate family would value the engagement so much. The Bai family had always been stingy...

"Now, please let the beautiful bride wear the ring for the handsome groom. Let us witness this sacred moment with the warmest applause!"

The applause of the audience continued for a long time.

Abbigail smiled happily. Just as she was about to put the ring on Davon's ring finger, the big screen on the stage suddenly lit up!

The more than six hundred people who came today could be said to be relatives and friends of the Elinor family. How could the Elinor family face anyone? How could Davon face others?

"Is this how the Tate family teaches their daughters? You don't know how to behave. Shameless." Greta was so angry that she pushed Lindsey.

Abbigail in this video looked young. It should be shot a year or two ago...

How old was she a year or two ago?

Lindsey was stunned. Although most of the guests who came today were from the Elinor family, some of them were from the Tate family. This engagement banquet was very embarrassing. And she was self-conscious.

Lindsey subconsciously grabbed Greta's hand and explained in a gentle voice, "You know Abbigail is a good girl. She would never do such a thing. Possibly she was framed!"

Tyrell said hurriedly, "Yes. Isn't it very popular to change faces in videos now? The man

"Mr. Tate, we are not blind. As her parents, how can you not tell if this person is

"Bitch, I will let people see your true color today!" Greta pounced on Abbigail and scratched Abbigail's face hard with her newly manicured nails today.

Abbigail screamed in pain. Her hair was pulled by Greta, and even her wedding dress was stripped.

"Since you are a shameless bitch, why don't you take your dress off and let everyone appreciate your body! Anyway, everyone has seen what they shouldn't see just now!"

"What are you doing? Let me go!" Abbigail pulled the wedding dress with one hand and hit Greta with the other. She didn't expect to hit Greta in the face.

"Bitch! How dare you hit me!"

Greta quickly pressed Abbigail to the ground and sat on Abbigail. She kept slapping Abbigail in the face and holding Abbigail's wedding dress.

Abbigail screamed and turned to Davon for help, but Davon only stood at the side and looked at her coldly.

Some guests from the Tate family stepped forward to dissuade Greta, but they argued with the guests from the Elinor family.

A few guests from the Elinor family helped Greta to hold Abbigail down and spit on Abbigail's face. They even helped Greta to take off Abbigail's dress.

Knowing that she could not save Tyrell, Lindsey turned around to save Abbigail. However, she was also surrounded by relatives from the Elinor family, who pointed at Lindsey's nose, cursed her, and threw things at her.

Just as everyone was in a mess, the screen changed again. This time, the screen turned into Cassie's ward.

At eleven o'clock last night, Tyrell and his family sneaked into Cassie's ward while the medical staff was changing shifts. They all asked Cassie for help.

"I thought you were here to celebrate my birthday in the last hour. I didn't expect..." Cassie was awakened by their noise and slowly sat up. She coughed a few times.

In the video, it seemed that Tyrell did not know that it was Cassie's birthday. He hurriedly said, "Mom, please wait a moment. I'll get someone to order a cake and send it over in a while! However, the Tate family encountered a crisis! This time, you must help us!"

"Cassie, we know we were wrong in the past. Please give us a chance to turn over a new leaf," Lindsey, who was kneeling on the ground, cried and begged.

But Cassie replied coldly, "If I didn't see your ambitions, perhaps I would give you an opportunity."

Cassie thought, but their nature is like this, and they will never change for the rest of their lives!

Thinking of this, Cassie ordered, "You can leave now. It is none of my business."

"Cassie, we haven't begged you for so many years. Why don't you help us this time?"

Lindsey pulled Cassie's clothes and refused to leave. She cried very sadly.

"Didn't I make it clear enough just now? You should know why I don't want to help you.

All the things you have done over the years have disheartened me! So I won't help you!

"You said you haven't begged me for so many years. Only this time? That's because it was Paige who helped you behind the scene! She contributes to your achievements.

"If Paige hadn't given you the resources and orders and helped you, would you have what you have today?"

"But what did you do to her? You dr**ve her out of the house and said all kinds of cold words to her! You always wanted to beat and scold her!

"You dr**ve away good luck yourself. Now you are in trouble. Why do you ask me for help?"
