Chapter 321 What Is Your Name?

"In the last two minutes, I did not see how good this student was. So this time, I want no one to stop within five minutes."

Hearing Paige's words, everyone was stunned.

Crazy!

So crazy!

Paige must lack social experience...

Is Paige stupid?

Didn't she see what happened to Bess?

Blanca's soldiery boxing is very good. She could not be defeated easily...

"Daniel, this is what Paige said. She cannot go back on her word!"

After saying that, Albert patted Blanca and said, "Teach Paige a lesson and let her know what real soldiery boxing is."

"Yes!"

After Blanca went on stage, after several rounds, Paige dodged and Blanca could not hit her.

Blanca smiled proudly. She originally thought Paige was powerful.

Everyone was worried about Paige. Why didn't she beat Blanca? Was Blanca too fast? Paige couldn't beat her at all...

Daniel was worried. He thought he shouldn't let Paige go up. Paige was pretty. If she was injured, he would be distressed.

"Paige, you have been dodging for a minute. There are four minutes left. Are you going to continue dodging?" Albert found it funny, "Is this tactic your drillmaster taught you?"

As soon as Albert finished speaking, everyone cried out in surprise.

They saw that Paige directly hit Blanca's waist.

Before Albert could react, Paige quickly kicked Blanca's calf and hit her head. The whole process was smooth.

This was the real soldiery boxing!

"Do you find the physical training these past two days tiring?" Cortez relented and asked gently.

Paige was surprised. She answered slowly. "No, it's fine."

"Okay. That's good. Who is her drillmaster?" Cortez asked Harley who was just on the side.

Harley was stunned. He wondered why Cortez, keeping a grave face just a moment ago, would be so polite to this girl now. Is she a big shot?

"It's me, sir. I am Paige's drillmaster, Daniel." On the side, Daniel gave Cortez a formal salute. He was stunned too. It seemed that Cortez knew the little girl and treated her differently.

"So you are Paige's drillmaster?" Cortez smiled and praised, "I saw that she's doing the soldiery boxing very well. You must be an excellent drillmaster

Daniel stood straight and did not dare to accept the compliment. "It's just that Paige is talented."

After all, it was not easy for Paige to play soldiery boxing so well, since she was absentminded in the class. So, it could be said that she had talent.

"Train her, and you will get a competent soldier in the future," Cortez suggested to Daniel and patted him on the shoulder with a smile.

Daniel was a little confused. She would be a competent soldier just because she could play soldiery boxing well for now?

How does that make sense?

"Oh right, what did you say about Paige?" Cortez looked at Harley. It seemed that Harley was going to lecture Paige just now

"Oh, no, nothing..."

As a Captain, Harley was not stupid. He soon realized that the girl must be a big shot, so he danced to another tune.

"I just wanted to remind her that the weather is hot, so don't forget to drink more water during the intermission..."

"Just that?" Cortez did not buy it. Who would bother to say that?

"And, I also. That's right, I saw that she played soldiery boxing well, so I wanted to praise her!"

Paige was even curing her grandparents.

Although Patricia felt that Paige's medical skills were not that superb, after all, she failed to save Cassie.

But it was always good to be careful.

What if her medical skills were better than Blanca's?

Blanca knew what Patricia was thinking. "Don't worry, Patricia. In terms of medical skills, I dare say that I am far better than her!"

Blanca had imbibed medical skills since she was a child. Paige could only surpass her in her dream.

"Then you have to defeat her in the academy Bring her down a peg. She's so arrgant."

"Don't worry, I will!"

Patricia put away the phone, and a touch of pride flashed in her eyes. your life Patricia thought, Paige, even if I am not at the University of Illinois in Chicago, I can make like hll.

For the next two days, since Daniel knew that Paige was not someone to be trifled with, he did not dare to ask her to train. The students were going to run 2 miles for exercise. He whistled and let Paige come out.

"Take the timer and stand under the tree to time."

Paige was confused. Did it mean that she did not need to train again? Was she just watching from the side?

Paige thought it was isolation.

The students could see that Daniel had been especially concerned about Paige during the past two days and did not let her participate in any training. Could it be that he wanted to chase after Paige for her beauty?

Thinking of this, they all let out meaningful laughter.

“Everyone, get ready Run!”

Daniel whistled, completely ignoring their thoughts.

Everyone began to run forward.

“Paige, you can stand in the shade to time.”

Daniel had just turned around when he suddenly found that Paige had disappeared. Looking carefully, she caught up with the team and ran behind her classmates.

Chapter 324 | Will Cover You

Early the next morning.

All the drillmasters drew lots for their classes, five classes in a group.

Class One for Traditional Medicine Paige was in, Class One for Modern Medicine, Class Two for Pediatrics, Class Two for Stomatology, and Class Two for Anesthesiology all selected the same draw. So they were the first batch for the race.

Each class lined up in a row, and five rows entered the course together.

In the early morning, the course was filled with morning fog, which looked gloomy.

“Paige, it is so scary here.” Leana could not help but grab the corner of Paige’s clothes.

Bess was also afraid, “Is there any shock waiting for us in front?”

Many people retreated to the back, and only Paige was left to take the lead in Class One for Traditional Medicine.

“Don’t worry. I think there might be single-plank bridges, piles, and so on.” Paige had experienced a lot, and she didn’t look panicky.

“She’s so strong.”

“Yes, she is not afraid at all, even in such a terrible environment.”

“I will just follow her. I believe she can lead us to success.”

“I think the same.”

Paige found that some fog was artificially made to create tension.

Paige knew the tricks, but the students didn’t, so they felt uneasy because of the fog.

“Is there a ghost ahead?”

“There shouldn’t be any wild beasts, right?”

“Will there be a maze waiting for us?”

The students chattered and felt more afraid.

Leonel thought, fk! Are they girls or what?

How can they climb such a high wall? I guess they used to climb a lot in high school. They look so experienced.

Paige ignored their surprise and encouraged Leana and Bess to climb over. The two managed to climb the second wall with great difficulty, yet the third wall was simply too much for them.

"It seems that you and I are stuck here today..." Leana was a little discouraged.

Bess also realized that the 6.5 feet high wall in front of them was out of their reach, and therefore she was dejected as well.

Leana and Bess figured that it would be easy peasy, given how relaxed Paige and Anna looked. However, when it was their turn, they realized that they had made a mistake.

"We will always be a group." Paige was still waiting for Leana and Bess. "Think about the words I told you just now, and give it a go again."

Since Paige moved too fast, Leonel did not get to take a closer look. However, he successfully learned it from Anna's movements.

According to Anna's means, he quickly rolled over to the third wall and held out his hand to Bess. below
"Here, let me help you.

I can't reach..." Bess jumped several times, but she could only reach Leonel's hand, and she couldn't climb up at all.

"Tell you what? I'll be generous once and let you step on my shoulder." Quentin squatted down. He did not look like some prtentious son of a rich family at all. Instead, he seemed kind and willing to help others.

With Quentin and Leonel's help, Bess and Leana went up as well. After that, Quentin took a few steps back, sprinted, and jumped up. Leonel pulled him, and the two boys landed neatly together

"Thanks," Bess and Leana thanked them.

"Don't mention it.

The six of them continued to walk forward, and somehow, they became teammates.

Blanca and Michaela brought a few friends with them. They wanted to settle scores with Paige at first, but not long after they crossed the wooden bridge, they saw that the group of six had already gone across three walls and were walking forward.

"Now, there are no surveillance cameras. After saying that, Anna kicked Michaela on the shoulder again. She fell into the water.

Michaela tried a few times but could not get out, and so did Blanca.

Every time they tried to get out, Paige and Anna would kick them back in turns..

After three or four times, they learned their lesson and stopped trying. They wanted to wait for Paige and the others to leave.

They knew that before Paige and Anna left, they could only soak in the water.

There was a dressing room nearby. It was prepared for the people who accidentally fell into the water. Paige asked Bess and the others to change their clothes, while she and Anna guarded the shore.

Everyone had taken a small bag with spare clothes inside. While Leana and the other three were changing their clothes, Anna kicked the stones on the ground and hit everyone in the water.

"It's really fun." Anna kicked again and said to Paige, "Don't you think it's like Whack-A-Mole?"

"You're insulting moles."

"You... You..." Blanca was furious, but she couldn't do anything to them!

After Leana and the others changed their clothes, Paige and Anna left leisurely.

"You girls are really scared when you intrigue against each other..." Along the way, Quentin said.

"Boys don't have so many complicated thoughts. When we are angry, we fight. If one fight can't solve it, we'll have a second one.

"What intrigue? They bullied us!" Leana could not help but correct him.

At the same time...

A few drillmasters separated Albert and Daniel and said anxiously, "Stop fighting. What happened to you two? Captain Rye is coming. Do you want to be punished?"

"Little . You will be sorry if you anger him."

Because he was the one who turned off the surveillance camera!

At that time, Albert saw that Blanca and Michaela were going to pick on Paige. Then Daniel happened to enter the tent, so Albert instantly pressed the remote control and turned off the screen.

Although the image was gone, the camera was still in real-time recording...

It was just that Daniel could not see it.

"What the is going on?" Harley was anxious, and his tone was a bit excited. He looked at Albert, and his eyes were sharp. "What did your students do to Paige? Tell the truth now!"

"Captain Rye, don't listen to his nonsense..." Albert felt even more guilty. Although he did not understand why Harley was so angry, he somehow had a premonition of something ****.

Daniel angrily added, "Last time, it was Albert who proposed a soldiery boxing contest. Paige won against Blanca. Blanca was angry, and she had probably been waiting for an opportunity today to take revenge. That was why Albert allowed her to make it personal with Paige and  her!"

"You are framing me!" Albert said.

Daniel said, "Then why don't you dare to turn on the camera and let everyone see it!"

"Turn on the surveillance camera!" Harley shouted angrily.

All the drillmasters were stunned.

They had never seen Harley care so much about a student before.

Albert did not expect that Blanca wouldn't influence Harley at all. Instead, it was Paige that made him so excited...

He turned on the monitor, and Daniel grabbed the remote control and zoomed the picture out to 49 different footages.

They were all videos of students trying to pass the test.

There was no Paige in it.

Daniel didn't feel good. He pushed away Albert and sat in front of the computer, quickly entered a programming code, and locked onto Paige's face. Soon, all the videos with Paige's face in it showed up.

Harley looked at Albert. "Today, you will be having an official reprimand, and you need to write a 10,000-word self-criticism letter. Don't think about staying on my team anymore if you can't finish it today!"

Albert knew that it was useless to say anything now. He saluted and replied loudly, "Yes!"

"Paige, you have worked hard. Go back and rest first. As a reward, your class can take the day off tomorrow."

"Thank you, Captain Rye." Paige handed the red flag to Harvey and left with her friends.

"Paige, do you and Captain Rye know each other?" After walking far away, Leana could not help but ask, "He is very gentle to you..."

"No," Paige said.

But Harley knew her. If something happened to her, he might not be the only one implicated....

"He is a snob. Seems that you have quite a good family?" Leonel raised his eyebrows and looked at Paige. Suddenly, he was interested in the girl in front of him.

"We just do some small business."

"You do business? My family, too. What do you do?" Quentin suddenly thought of something and said, "By the way, it is our first time successfully passing the test together. Why don't we celebrate? Let's eat together!"

Abbigail was still impatient.

Abbigail turned around to leave. She was about to return to her school when she saw Paige and

"The grudge between Paige and me has nothing to do with you, right? Are you her lackey? Why are you hostile to me every time you see me?"

"You ungrateful . Paige and her family treated you well, but how did you treat her?"

"Does it have anything to do with you?"

"Of course!" Anna retorted. "Since you made things difficult for Paige, you made an enemy of me! If you dare to play tricks behind my back again, I will beat you up every time I see you. Do you hear me?"

Chapter 330 What a Perfect Match!

Martin was dressed casually today, looking like a college student.

Although Martin was wearing a black, three-dimensional mask, his star-like eyes were very beautiful. In addition, he was 6 feet 3 inches tall. Just after he appeared, many girls noticed his presence and asked him for his Line account.

, when did you graduate? Can I have your Line account?"

"I want to get acquainted with you."

"I would like to ask you a few questions about my studies."

"Do you have a girlfriend? If you don't, can I be your girlfriend?"

Martin fixed his eyes on Paige. He slightly raised his chin, giving the girl in front of him a hint...

"Yes."

Seven or eight girls looked in the direction of the school gate and saw a slim and tall girl with delicate features and a refined temperament walking toward them.

So beautiful...

When did the school have such a beautiful student?

Judging from Paige's clothes, she should be a freshman. She looked stunning...

No one could take his eyes off Paige.

Martin walked towards Paige with Rhys, who also wore casual clothes. Before he got close, several male students ran to Paige.
