Chapter 351 Spit Out Blood

I myself brought the medicine from outside, there will definitely be no problem!

As long as Paige and others drink the water, even if they are beaten up, they will not know who has done that after waking up.

When Blanca thought of it, the corner of her hooked up into a smile.

In the rest area, Paige raised her slender neck and drank several of water.

Paige's movements were elegant, and pleasing to the eye, like a frame cut from a movie.

Not to mention boys, the girls next to Blanca were all fascinated.

It had to be admitted that Paige was very beautiful, and her every move was very eye-catching.

"I'm so thirsty!" Anna finished the water in the bottle and looked at Paige. "Paige, let's go buy some water. It is so hot!"

"I'll go with you guys. My tissue just ran out. I remember there is a small supermarket at the foot of the mountain."

"I'll go too."

Seeing the four girls intending to go together, Blanca felt it was a great opportunity.

Originally, Blanca had thought of many excuses to trick them into going where no one was and then made a move.

Blanca thought, this is great!

I am so lucky.

"Blanca, should we follow them?"

"To get to the back hills, they have to pass the small path, and there is no surveillance there!"

"This is a good opportunity."

Blanca smirked, "Let's follow them."

Along the way, Paige and the other three were chatting and laughing. When they reached the small path, Paige suddenly stopped and rubbed her head with her hand.

"Paige, what's wrong? Are you alright?" asked Anna in a hurry.

"I feel... I feel a little dizzy." Paige seemed to be unable to stand still and reached out to support the tree trunk at the side, "What's wrong with me? I can't see clearly."

In the department head's office.

After hearing what had happened, Yazmin, who had rushed over, pointed at Paige and cursed angrily. "How, how dare you..."

Just now, Blanca was sent to the school infirmary. The school doctor said that she was fine, not even a light injury. However, Blanca said that she spat out some blood and her stomach was in great pain.

", Paige must have bribed the school doctor. He didn't tell the truth! You can't let Paige go. I just spat out some blood and my friends saw it!"

Several friends of Blanca's hurriedly nodded.

"Mrs. Hart, Paige did hit Blanca."

"Originally, we wanted to go down the mountain to buy some drinks, but Paige and the other three of them deliberately blocked our way and did not let us go down the mountain."

"Before Paige beat Blanca, I told her that Blanca was a member of the Hart family, but Blanca was beaten the worst. Paige does not put the Hart family in her eyes at all!"

When Yazmin heard this, she looked at Byron angrily. "How could you have such a student in your school?"

"Mrs. Hart, please calm down... Let me ask about what happened first." Byron was so scared that his forehead was covered in sweat. He looked at Anna and was shocked again. "Anna, you must be innocent. This has nothing to do with you. You can leave first."

"Wait a !" Yazmin's sharp gaze fell on Anna. "Why did you let her go?"

Yazmin had heard from Blanca that there were a total of four bullies this time.

And Yazmin knew Anna was one of them.

Byron bent down and whispered, "This is the young lady of the Elliott family..."

"The Elliott Group?"

Yazmin was finally a little afraid, thinking, the Elliott Group is a top financial group.

The power of the Elliott family is around the country, let alone in Chicago.

When did such a person come to our school?

He looks so young...

It was Paige who recognized the man first, wondering, isn't this the person who wanted to invite me to join the Ministry of Security last night?

What a coincidence.

"Nathan... It's you." Blanca called out after a while.

Blanca had met Nathan several times in the previous top-class gatherings and was fascinated by him.

Blanca was younger than Nathan.

Yazmin also recognized Nathan and asked in a gentle tone, "Mr. Lusk? What brought you here?"

Yazmin found there were a few handsome young men behind Nathan, all of whom were full of righteousness.

Yazmin thought, it is said that Mr. Lusk works in a top national department. No one knows exactly what his position and level are.

But I heard that even state leaders had to listen to him, so he must be of a very high level...

Nathan did not know Yazmin or Blanca, but Yazmin said in a pleasant tone, "In recent years, our two families have been on good terms..."

Nathan immediately distanced himself from the mother and daughter. "These years, I have rarely been at home, and I am not clear about the matters at home. Today, I am here because of Ms. Hart being beaten up."

Hearing that, Blanca's friends became even more proud, thinking that Nathan came to help them.

This time, Paige is doomed!

Knowing that Nathan wanted to stand up for Blanca, Yazmin was overjoyed. Could it be that Mr. Lusk has taken a fancy to my precious daughter?

That will be great!

The Lusk family is the richest family in the country!

Any flower in the garden of the Lusk family costs more than tens of thousands of dollars...

Seeing how happy Yazmin was, Byron naturally knew that this man was not simple. Byron thought, from the man's tone, is he going to stand up for Blanca?

Complacently, Byron looked at Paige and asked, "Aren't you going to apologize?"

"You asked the wrong person. They should be the ones to apologize," Paige sneered.

“Alright! You are so stubborn! Well!” Byron asked the others to wait for a while and went next door to the counselor’s office to ask for the student profiles. Then he called the parents of Paige, Bess, and Leana, respectively.

Chapter 354 Whatever You Say, Nathan

Only then did Martin notice Nathan, who was at the side. There were too many people in the room, so Martin didn't look carefully when he entered the door just now.

Martin and Nathan were not familiar with each other. They had seen each other a few times since they were children. The last time they saw each other was two years ago at Jack's birthday party...

Martin heard that Nathan was in a high position in the Ministry of Security and rarely had time to go home. Did he come here today for... Paige? Martin wondered.

Nathan looked at Martin with a touch of displeasure. But Nathan still answered his parents' questions.

"I'm here to settle it down. Why are you here?"

During this period, Donald and Danica had been calling Nathan to go home to see his sister. Did they chase him all the way here for this?

Hearing Nathan calling Donald and Danica as parents, Paige raised her eyebrows. She thought, so the person in charge of the Ministry of Security is my brother.

It was such a vital position.

It turned out that they had met each other yesterday.

"Why are you here? Did you hear that your sister was bullied so that you came to help her?" After Danica said to Nathan, she suddenly remembered something and looked at Paige. "Paige, did you get hurt?"

This was the most important thing.

This time, everyone in the office was shocked.

Was Paige... the daughter of Donald and Danica?

How could it be?

They didn't hear anything about it.

Nathan looked at Paige who was not far away, wondering, is the girl my biological Martin thought, why didn't you say you would listen to your fiancé? You're so docile in front of Nathan. I am quite jealous.

"Since Mrs. Hart wants to take Blanca home for self-education, we won't say anything," Danica said,

"Well, you just said that Paige kicked your daughter to the point of vomiting blood?"

"I was talking nonsense." Yazmin smiled warmly without any anger. "Maybe Blanca has a digestive ulcer or acute gastroenteritis. I'll ask the doctor to give a body check later."

"So it is..." Danica nodded thoughtfully. "Okay, then you have to ask the doctor to give a thorough body check."

Everyone was stunned.

Imposing gazes fell on Byron. He was stunned for a while and immediately said indignantly, "I've seen the video. This vicious deed. Blanca would be kicked out of school.”

Bess didn't know what to say.

Leana didn't know what to say.

Anna didn't know what to say.

Why didn't you say it just now?

“As the chair of the department, I will personally handle the withdrawal procedures for Ms. Hart! I won't favor her!” Byron hurriedly ran out, afraid that if he was a bit late, he would also suffer...

Danica held Paige's hand and asked, “Paige, are you hurt? Are you tired from physical training?”

“Not at all...”

Leana and Bess both thought in their hearts. Such a gentle mother. Living in such a family, Paige must be very happy.

Leana suddenly remembered something and felt like being struck by lightning.

Only then did Anna drive them away.

Paige's identity had not been revealed yet. If the matter were to spread out, it would bring about unnecessary trouble. Anna and Paige still had a lot of things to do. They didn't want to have their identities exposed so soon.

Paige thought the same.

Byron thought of something and hurriedly took out a phone from his pocket. He returned it to Bess with both hands and said with a smile, "Bess, I forgot to return it to you just now, and I accidentally put it in my pocket."

*Bess twitched the corner of her and thought, I don't buy it.

"Paige, you guys go out first. I want to chat with Byron." Danica looked at Byron.

Byron felt embarrassed, but he had to make tea for Danica and Donald and asked them to take a seat.

Outside the office.

Looking at Paige, who had exquisite facial features and outstanding temperament, Nathan said seriously, "How do you do? Let me introduce myself. I am your elder brother, Nathan. I am very happy that you have returned home."

Bess and Leana, who were next to him, were stunned and wondered, what did he mean by he was very happy that Paige had returned home? Paige just returned to the Lusk family?

No wonder rumor had it that there was only one young lady in the Lusk family.

Could it be that the Lusk family had just found Paige?

Thinking of this, Bess and Leana felt distressed for Paige, who had just returned to her family. They did not know how many hardships she had suffered in the past.

Paige was confused when she heard the name "Nathan".

She found this name funny.

Nathan seemed to see through her mind and explained with a smile, "After my parents gave birth to the first child, they always hoped that the second child would be a girl. However, they gave birth to me. Maybe they were unhappy, and they were not in the mood to give me a good name."

After saying that, Nathan secretly swore in his heart that he would definitely buy a gift for Paige and leave a good impression on Paige.

Martin thought, four days? Then what about me?

At this time, Nathan looked at Martin with an inquiry.

"Paige, chat with your classmates for a while. I want to have a chat with Martin."

Paige knew what Nathan wanted to say, so she nodded and patted Nathan on the shoulder. "Don't be rude."

Nathan was startled. Why did it sound like Paige wanted him to be nice to Martin?

Nathan wondered, is she protecting Martin?

Or did I make a mistake?

After Paige left, Martin took two steps forward, reached out to shake hands with Nathan, and said gently, "Nathan, I haven't seen you for a long time."

Unexpectedly, when they met again, their relationship changed.

In the past, Nathan and Martin were not even friends.

"You have gotten Paige's agreement before you dated, right? Or did you for her with the engagement?"

Nathan was sharp when he talked to Martin.

"It was me who fell in love with her at first sight," Martin answered truthfully.

Martin didn't force Paige. Nor did he chase her.

Speaking of which, Martin felt that he should have officially chased Paige.

He briefly explained the matter of Paige saving Killian to Nathan, who did not expect Paige's medical skills to be so superb. She not only saved Killian but also saved Rosa, who had become a vegetable.

Previously, Nathan only knew that his family had found Paige. As for what powerful skills Paige knew, he had no idea.

Before Anna could finish speaking, the subordinates hurriedly shushed her, indicating for her not to say it out loud.

Leana and Bess were puzzled. "What's that? What are they talking about?"

At this time, Nathan and Martin finished their conversation and walked over.

The sun shone on them. They were about the same height and were both handsome.

Leana and Bess were attracted by them. Nathan and Martin were more charming than the male stars in the entertainment industry.

"Sorry to keep you waiting." Martin touched Paige's head.

Nathan was a bit annoyed when he saw their intimate interaction. He had just told Martin not to be so intimate with Paige in public. But Martin didn't take his words to heart.

Paige looked at Nathan and asked in a low voice, "Are you done talking?"

"Yes." After receiving Paige's gaze, Nathan immediately added, "I was nice."

He didn't shout at Martin.

"After the physical training today, Nathan and I will take you home for dinner. After dinner, we will send you back to school," Martin told Paige about their decision.

Paige nodded. "Alright."

*At this time, Danica came out of the office holding Donald's hand, and Byron bent over to

"Mr. Lusk, Mrs. Lusk, be careful!"

Danica came to the door and only saw Nathan. They wondered where their daughter was.

"Where is Paige? I haven't even spoken to her yet," Donald asked.

"She went to have physical training. After she is done with the training, she will be home for dinner tonight."

"Great!" Danica was happy that Paige could finally return home after staying at school for so many days.

She hadn't been able to eat or sleep well these past few days. She was always worried that Paige didn't live a good life at school or was bullied by others.

Donald said happily, "Tonight, you can finally have a good sleep! Since Paige will go home for dinner, let's quickly ask the chefs to prepare more food that she likes. We can get more shrimp from Australia."

"Yes, and the fish."

Nathan was sad when he heard that. "Why did they treat me so well?"

He hadn't been home for several months. However, Danica and Donald only discussed the dishes Paige liked. They didn't even ask him about what he liked. They left as they discussed, as if they couldn't wait to go home and prepare food.

Nathan was ignored.

Nathan felt a little jealous.

On the other hand.

Seeing that Paige had returned, Daniel wanted to ask something, but in front of so many students, he didn't know where to start.

Paige was amused.

Chapter 360 Who Is Hiding in the Dark?

In the evening.

A low-key and luxurious car was parked at the school gate.

Two tall and handsome men stood beside the car. Their outstanding facial features and height attracted the attention of many people.

"Oh my dear, look over there. Those two men are so handsome!"

"Are they waiting for someone?"

"I don't know if they have a girlfriend. Let's go ask for their Line?"

Some girls wanted to get close, but they were politely stopped by the driver.

The two men looked at the school together, as if they were waiting for someone, and they would talk from time to time.

Their appearance and temperament were so unique that others couldn't take their eyes off them.

Finally, a girl walked out of the school and walked in their direction.

Two men's eyes lit up. One went forward to touch the girl's head, and the other helped open the car door.

Both of them were gentle, seeming that the girl was very important to them.

Many people looked at the girl and saw her bending over to get in the car. From her back, they could see that she had a good figure and was very tall. But they couldn't see what she was like. Inside the car.

Paige sat between the two men.

"Are you tired from the physical training? Come, drink some water." Nathan unscrewed the cap and handed a bottle of KonaNigari water to Paige. It was not expensive for Nathan. It just cost 500 dollars per bottle.

Martin took out some snacks and said, "I bought them on the way here. Try them and see if they taste good."

"Shall you wipe your hands first?" Nathan tore open the packaging of the wet towel.

After Paige wiped her hands clean, Martin took her hand and dried it. Then he put on the disposable gloves for her.

Seeing the two men taking care of her carefully as if they were treating a child, Paige smiled warmly. guys try the snacks too.” Paige gave the snacks to moved.
