CHAPTER 41

As I stood on the branch of the tree watching that vampire with her so-called children since she created them, I couldn't help but wonder why. Why the hell was she so determined to get back in good with the head of the Vampire Council? I mean, most vampires stay away from the council if they can. They don't want anything to do with Alexander because he's so ruthless.

But then it struck me. A passage in the book.

Alexander has a lover. He's had a lover for many years. Decades who he cast out when he realized that she had betrayed him.

His feelings for her were the only reason why he didn't have her killed.

That has to be it.

She has to be the infamous Opal. The one vampire that has ever betrayed Alexander and gotten away with it.

I can't believe she's the one that's doing this.

I knew she was real, but I didn't think she would bother herself with triplet werewolves. It seems a little beneath her.

I had to act fast, before they got past me.

I focused completely on Opal and I focused on her mind.

I put all of my energy into it when she started turning around suddenly, looking at something behind her.

She started looking all around her. Turning like she was seeing something flying around her.

Her vampires saw this and stopped walking. They all came back to check on her. It was obvious that they respected her and they all loved her.

She started fighting off any vampire that tried to touch her before she started screaming and saying that they were everywhere. That they were surrounded. "Who is surrounded?" A guy asked.

"We are. The wolves. The werewolves. Can't you see them?" Opal yelled. And the vampires started looking around.

"There aren't any werewolves, Opal. What's gotten into you?" A girl asked.

CHAPTER 41

"I can see them. They're everywhere. We're surrounded." She yelled.

She started backing away from her vampires and looking around everywhere like she was ready to fend off a blow.

She started screaming and swinging in every direction until she was knocked to the ground by an invisible force and she hit her head on a rock.

She laid there for a moment and her vampires gathered around her, not knowing what to do.

Opal stood up and looked around at everyone.

"Opal. We need to keep moving if we're going to get to Alaska by daybreak." The guy said.

"We're not going to Alaska." Opal said.

"Why not?"

"Because the triplets aren't there anymore. They're gone. They've gone back to their homebase." Opal said. "How do you know this?" A girl asked.

"I don't know. I just know. They're back in California." Opal said, turning around and looking back at the direction that they came.

"Everyone here needs to eat. We're all hungry." A guy said.

"Yeah. Food. There's animals all over this forest." Opal said.

"You want us to drink animal blood. You said that it would poison us." A girl said, confused.

"I lied. I just wanted you to drink humans. We can't do that. The vampire council will kill us if we keep killing humans the way we have." Opal explained. But as I was in the tree, I was whispering the exact same words that Opal was saying. Commanding her on what to say. No more killing humans. And to get the hell away from Alaska.

"You're doing this to get Alexander back." A guy reminded her.

"Yeah. To kill the triplets. They're in California. Don't ask me how I know, I just do." Opal said. "She's never done us wrong yet. We need to follow her back." The guy said.

So Opal turned around and the vampires started following her.

"How do we hunt animals?" A guy asked.

"The same way we hunt people. It's just more fun. They put up a better chase." Opal smiled at them. She smiled at them almost like she was seeing everything in a whole new light. A smile that none of them had seen on her face before.

CHAPTER 41

But it didn't surprise me. Because it wasn't her.

I knew that this would wear off. But they were still commanded not to kill humans. And no matter how far away they got, I made sure that was the one order that stuck. They were to eat animals. Not humans..

As they were all walking back towards the states, the vampires were all confused but they were following Opal and doing everything she said.

She was their sire. The one that made them. They couldn't disobey her even if they tried. I mean, they could. But it would cause them actual physical pain to defy her. And that's all I needed.

The order came from her and she couldn't take it back. And she wasn't going to. It was stuck in her brain now.

I could have made anything stick in her brain. But that's the one that I wanted.

I waited up in the tree for a long time until I knew the vampires were far enough away when I finally jumped down out of the tree.

That was almost too easy that it wasn't even any fun.

The only fun I really had was watching her see those imaginary werewolves that I put all around her that she thought she had to fight.

I grabbed my phone out of the bag and I dialed a number.

"Hello." Jacob answered.

"Hey. Listen, there's a group of vampires. I don't know if you know about them. But get the pack ready. They're headed for California." I said.

"Is this your way of protecting the triplets?" He asked.

"Yeah. And it was also my way of forcing their leader to command them to stop killing humans." I said.

"Well, I guess that's good. I'll make sure everyone's ready. How far away are they?"

"They're still in Canada. It'll be a couple of days. Their leader is Opal. As in Alexander's ex-lover." I said.

"Damn. I've heard some stories about her. She's a little nuts, isn't she?"

"Yeah. She's not all there in the head. We already know that. Which is why you need to be ready. Kill on sight. There's a lot of them. At least about 70 or 80 of them." I said. +10 Bonus

CHAPTER 41

When I got off the phone I turned around and I ran straight into something solid that was standing behind me and I realized that it wasn't the tree that I had been standing in.

It was a man that was right in front of me and I looked up to see his face staring down on me.

Vampire fangs bared for me to see, his large stature staring down at me with lust in his eyes. Licking his lips like he was ready for his last meal.

I took a step back so I could get an even better look at him.

He was definitely bigger than me. I couldn't hear what he was thinking. He obviously knew what I was. He had a brick wall put up in his head that I couldn't break through. I couldn't read his thoughts.

His smile widened as he realized that I didn't know what he was thinking. That he had gotten the best of me. The only vampire who's been able to do that so far.

I stared at him straight in the eyes, ready for what was about to happen. I knew how this was going to end. And it wasn't going to end with me dead on the ground.

Not this fight.

Not this vampire.

Fighter 42

CHAPTER 42

As I took a step back to look at this vampire licking his lips and looking down at me with lust in his eyes, he took a step closer to me and I turned back to look at him with nothing but defiance on my face. Right before I punched him in the chest.

"Ouch. Was that really necessary?" He asked.

"What the hell do you think? Why are you sneaking up on me like that Johnny? You know I could have killed you." I snapped.

"Yeah. But I knew you wouldn't."

"What the hell are you even doing here?"

"Well, I was going to do something about those vampires. I knew that they were getting closer to you and I didn't want you getting hurt. But you seemed to have that under control."

"Yeah. I'm not a weak little princess Johnny. You know that. Now, wherever you are living you can go back there. Because I have to get home." I said, walking straight past him.

"What's the rush?" He asked.

"The rush is that I drugged the triplets because they were following me and now they are going to be so pissed at me." I said. And he started laughing.

"You drugged them? How?"

"I shot them with tranquilizers filled with wolfsbane. They'll be weak for a couple of days but it won't do any long term damage."

"You really are a badass bitch."

"I did what I had to. But they're not gonna see it like that."

"Oh no. They are going to hate you."

"Go home Johnny." I said, starting to walk away again. But he grabbed me by the arm and pushed me up against a tree, pressing his body up against mine.

"Really? Is that all I get? We haven't seen each other for over a year. How about a quickie for old times sake?" He asked.

"I don't think so."

"Wow. You're really invested in those triplets, aren't you?"

"Yeah. I don't really have a choice."

1/4

CHAPTER 42

"What do you mean? You don't have to protect them. You can walk away whenever you want."

"It's more complicated than that now." I said, looking away from him.

He had to think about it for a second before he took a step back and he let go of me.

"Holy shit." He said as he finally realized what I was saying. That the triplets were my mates.

"I have to get home. I'll see you around." I said picking up my bag and walking away without him saying another word.

I think he was too stunned to actually say anything at this point.

I didn't know if he was going to follow me or not, but I was really hoping that he wouldn't.

This would just be one more thing that I could argue with the triplets about.

Me sleeping with Jacob is one thing. But if they find out that I was having it off with a vampire.

That's something completely different.

Even though they choose to believe that I am only a werewolf and nothing else. I am a lot more than that. I have proven it time and time again.

I can't hate vampires like they can. Sometimes, I really wish I could. Because they do kill people for sport.

Unless they're like Johnny and they do actually feed on animals. It's easy to tell as well. It's the color of their eyes.

If they are crimson red then they feed on humans. If they are their normal color that they had as humans, then they feed on animals. It's easy to tell. If you can get close enough to see their eyes.

I managed to cross back over into Alaska with no trouble at all and now I had the massive trek back to the northern end of Alaska. But I wasn't in a rush this time.

Maybe now I could take in the sights.

I definitely wasn't in a rush to get home and see the triplets.

They are gonna be so pissed at me.

I made it so far when I finally stopped and turned around to see Johnny walking through the forest towards me.

"You can't follow me back to the pack. They will kill you on sight." I said.

"I know. I don't plan on getting that close to the pack."

CHAPTER 42

"Then why are you following me?" I asked.

He didn't say anything. He just kept walking closer to me.

When he was right in front of me he grabbed me and pushed me up against a tree and kissed

It took me by surprise at first, and I didn't push him away.

But when I got a flash of the triplet running through my head, thanks to my wolf, I had to push him away.

"You know that I can't." I said.

"Yeah. Because you're mated to those special little triplets. They're children."

"They're the same age as me."

"I've never seen you as a child." He said.

"Maybe you should. You're 250 years old. I'm 18. Pretty big age gap."

Johnny stood there staring down at me, the same look in his eye that he always gave me that made me go weak in the knees. That little half smile that all the girls swooned over. He knew that it drove me crazy and he knew that it was having an effect on me now.

But it was different. My wolf was screaming at me in my head. Telling me to get rid of him.

We have found our mates and they are the only things that mattered to us.

And honestly, as much as I have tried to deny them, I can't stop the way I feel about them.

I have tried to keep a distance from them. I have tried to keep us as a professional relationship of sorts, but it's never going to work. Not as long as we are mates.

So I pushed Johnny away from me again. But this time, it was much more forceful and he fell back a few steps. Knowing that I was serious.

"Go home Johnny. I'm not going to tell you again." I said.

I turned around and I kept walking until I started walking faster and it ended up into a sprint.

I ran for the rest of that day and most of the night before I finally decided to stop and rest.

But it was only for a couple of hours. Just to get a little sleep until the sun came up. But I was eager to get home.

As soon as I was going again, I ran all the way back to the pack. Not stopping for anything.

I was just glad that I had brought rations of food with me so I didn't have to hunt for my dinner 3/4 or anything like that.

When I finally got back to my house, I walked inside and all three of the guys were sitting at the table.

They all looked pissed and they stood up as soon as I walked inside.

I stood there staring at them.

Seeing Johnny after all this time and realizing that I didn't feel the same towards him as I did towards the triplets really made me realize that there was no way that I would ever be able to reject them.

They were my mates. And that was never going to change. They weren't going to reject me and I wasn't going to be able to reject them.

They already had this profound effect on me and I wasn't even old enough to feel the full extent of the mate bond yet.

How strongly was I going to feel about them when I was the right age.

fk my training.

"You fg drugged us." Tyler growled.

But I dropped my bag on the floor and I walked towards them, almost hypnotic. Like I wasn't doing it. But I knew what I was doing and I knew what I wanted.

I grabbed Tyler by the shirt and pulled him towards me and kissed him.

When I pulled away he was standing there shocked and not knowing what else to say.

I did the same with Dean and then Koda.

"Make yourselves comfortable. I haven't showered for a couple of days. I won't be long." I said walking upstairs towards my room.

CHAPTER 43

I knew that the guys were just as confused as I was, but I didn't care.

I went into the bathroom and I got undressed and got straight into the shower and I grabbed the soap as the shower door opened.

I looked over my shoulder and Koda was standing there. He was still fully dressed but he was looking at me a little confused. So I reached out to hand him the soap, which he gladly took from me.

He pulled his shirt off over his head and pulled his shorts down, leaving them on the floor next to the vanity as he got in the shower and he moved right up behind me, rubbing the soap over my shoulders to start with. "Koda." Dean mind linked him.

"Tell them that there's plenty of room." I said to Koda. And he smiled at me as he turned me around to face him.

It wasn't long before Tyler and Dean walked into the bathroom as well.

I looked over at them and I knew that they weren't shy in front of each other. So they undressed and got in the shower as well.

I moved around so Koda was behind me again and I was facing Tyler and Dean.

It wasn't an overly big shower, but it was big enough for the four of us for now.

Dean was standing right in front of me and Tyler was to the side of me, facing me.

Koda was reaching around to rub my stomach with the soap before he started moving his hand down further and started rubbing my py and down through my slit.

Dean leaned forward and started kissing me and I wrapped my arms around his neck.

Tyler started kissing and nipping at my neck. The whole three of their erections rubbed against me and I pulled away from Dean for a moment as I put one arm around Tyler and I started kissing him.

Koda pressed himself right up behind me and started kissing and nipping the other side of my neck.

Dean reached down and grabbed me around the thighs and lifted me off the ground and I wrapped my legs around his waist.

I felt Koda reach between my legs from behind and he started rubbing my slit again before he moved up and found my clit.

My moans were muffled by Tyler's kisses while Dean was kissing and sucking on my n*s.

It was pretty soon that we realized the shower wasn't big enough for all of us so Koda turned the water off and Dean stepped out of the shower while he was still holding me and Tyler grabbed a towel and started patting me down. He started drying me and Koda dried himself. The other two didn't get too wet from the shower.

Dean walked into my room and instead of taking me to the bed, he turned around and pushed me up against the wall next to the bathroom door.

He kissed me more passionately this time before he started kissing down my neck and down to my breasts again.

When he turned me back around he laid me on the edge of my bed and he was leaning over me and kissed me down the chest and stomach.

I saw Tyler standing on one side of the bed and Koda was standing on the other side of the bed.

Both of them were fisting their own cs as they stared at me, sprawled out naked on the bed.

Dean kissed all the way to my py and he grabbed my thighs and lifted them up higher before his face dove straight in and started licking my slit and clit.

I arched my back off the bed at the feeling of it when I felt the bed dip to the side of me and Tyler was kneeling on the bed next to me.

I grabbed a hold of his ck in my hand and I started rubbing it up and down before I wrapped my arm around the back of his leg and I pulled him closer to me.

When he was close enough I grabbed his ck one more time and I lifted up off the bed slightly and started licking the precum off the tip of it before I put the tip in my mouth and sucked on it as I pulled it back out of my mouth. Tyler was moaning as he started moving his hips back and forth, fg my face.

I felt the other side of the bed dip down as well, so I reached out and I grabbed Koda's dk without looking and I started rubbing it up and down.

Dean was working hard sucking on my clit and he reached his hand up and started rubbing up while his hand up and down my slit before he slipped a finger inside of me and he curled it he was still sucking on my clit.

Tyler was thrusting his hips back and forth as I was sucking on his ck but I pulled it out of my mouth with a loud pop sound, before I turned to look at Koda.

CHAPTER 43

I reached over and I licked his ck all over before I put it in my mouth and I started sucking gently before I started going faster and deeper on it.

I still had my hand on Tyler as I was jerking him off at the same time and Koda started moaning really loudly.

Suddenly I could feel myself getting goosebumps on my skin and I felt Dean put another finger inside of me and kept finger fg me.

Slow at first, but then he started getting faster and faster.

Tyler leaned down and he started kissing along my neck and down to my breast and started sucking on my n*e while Koda was thrusting in and out of my mouth at a pace that he loved. The room was full of the smell of my arousal, my muffled moans and Koda's moaning out loud.

I started getting butterflies in my stomach before I leaned up further and I stopped sucking on Koda, letting go of his ck with another loud pop and I reached down and put my hand in Dean's hair.

He started moving his fingers faster and sucking on my clit even harder and I was thrown over the edge of an intense orgasm as I was thrown back onto the bed as I rode it out and Dean sucked up all my juices before he started kissing up my stomach and was laying on top of me and he started kissing me.

Our tongues danced with each other and I could taste myself on him, but this time I was muffling his moans.

Tyler laid down on the bed on his back and I sat up and turned around to see where he was.

I climbed on top of him and he pulled my head down to his and he started kissing me. Eagerly and enthusiastically. Like he couldn't get enough. But I was feeling the same way. I couldn't get enough of them three at the moment either.

I felt Dean moving up behind me and Koda laid down beside us.

Tyler reached down and adjusted himself and lined himself up in my entrance before he thrust inside of me without mercy. Knowing that I could take it.

I let out a slight cry at first, but it didn't take long for me to adjust to the fullness of him inside of me.

I sat up straight while I was riding Tyler and I grabbed Dean around the neck and started

3/4

kissing him.

"Oh fk, yeah." Tyler moaned out.

"How far are you willing to go?" Dean asked.

"What do you mean?" I asked.

"Can you take two at once?"

I just smiled at him with a wicked little look in my eye, causing him to smile.

"I think she likes that idea." Koda said.

Fighter 44

CHAPTER 44

Dean moved around behind me and he pushed me forward so my chest was touching Tyler's and he started kissing me, while Koda was fisting his dk next to us. Loving the look on me getting f*d by his brothers right now.

Dean started rubbing around my backhole and he started probing it and pushed his thumb inside and started widening it up a little.

"Oh fuck." I moaned, moving my face away from Tyler's.

I knew that Koda was big and I also knew that his brothers would be as well. But this was a little insane.

The three of them all at once, I knew that I should be really lucky right now, but I knew that it was going to hurt as well. But only at first.

I've been pretty sexually experimental in the past, but no one has ever been as big as these three.

Dean pulled his thumb out and I felt him put his legs on either side of me as I felt his large and long shaft moving across my asshole before he started pushing it in really slowly and gently at first.

Koda sat up on the bed and pulled my face over to his and started kissing me to distract me while Tyler was sucking on my neck and breast and he started sucking on my marking spot. The spot that he had chosen to mark me and it was really sensitive, causing me to moan into Koda's mouth.

Dean pushed inside of me slowly and I felt a tear fall down the side of my face at the sting of it when he first entered me.

Tyler rubbed it away with the pad of his thumb and I could hear them mind linking with each other.

Koda was telling Dean to take it easy and slow on me.

"It's fine. Just let me get used to it first." I said.

"Have you ever had two guys at once?" Tyler asked.

"No."

Dean leaned forward, kissing down my spine and giving me a shiver as he did it and he started moving in and out of me really slowly. 1/4

CHAPTER 44

Tyler had to slow down as well when Dean started moving so they could stay in sync with each other.

I moaned into Koda's mouth as he kissed me and I reached forward and I started fisting his dk while he was lying next to us.

He sat up to lean against the headboard of my bed and he moved closer to me so I could lean over and I took his ck in my mouth again.

He was as hard as a rock and I started moving up and down on his ck as fast as I could. But he started thrusting up towards me as well which made it a lot easier for me.

I could feel myself getting closer to another orgasm but I was doing everything I could to hold it off.

I didn't want to climax yet. But I wasn't sure if I really had a choice here..

Koda was moving faster and faster in my mouth when he started making a few ragged movements and his breathing started getting really heavy.

He climaxed in my mouth, spilling his seed down my throat and I swallowed all of it.

As soon as Koda had finished, he leaned back down and took my head in both of his hands and started kissing me again. Tasting himself in my mouth, and not caring at all.

Tyler then thrust into me really hard a couple of times as he let out a loud moan and he fell back on the bed.

Dean was still trying to be careful not to hurt me, and he wasn't. It wasn't long before I climaxed after Tyler and my whole body spasmed as I rode out my enormous orgasm right before Dean spilled his seed inside of me as well. I collapsed onto Tyler's chest and Dean slipped out of me and he laid on the bed on the other side of Tyler.

"Holy fuck." I said, breathlessly.

"Are you alright?" Tyler asked.

"fk yeah." I said and he chuckled.

I rolled off of him and I laid between Koda and Tyler.

My bed was pretty small for the four of us, but we made it work and we were just laying there, completely spent but none of us sleeping. Well, not yet anyway.

I was laying on my side towards Tyler and Koda laid on his side and wrapped his arm around my waist. CHAPTER 44

"I am definitely not complaining or anything. But I need to know where the hell that came from." Tyler said.

"I just realized something while I was away."

"We're all ears." Dean said.

"I realized that I can't just be your bodyguard. Your protector or whatever the hell it is that I am. I knew that I was already falling hard for you guys, I was just denying it. Or ignoring it. I don't know. But I knew that these feelings were going to be a hell of a lot worse when I turned 18." I explained.

"So, you decided that you were gonna follow your feelings?" Koda asked in my ear.

"I knew that I was going to tell people to fk off when they try to tell me that I am meant to be here to protect you."

"I told you. We're going to protect each other. You're not going anywhere and neither are we."

Koda said, holding me tighter around the waist. And I nodded my head.

I knew the whole three of them felt the same way otherwise I wouldn't have slept with them.

I may be a lot of things, but I'm not a prick tease and I'm not going to hurt them like some people think I would. I belong to them and they belong to me. It was that simple.

It actually didn't take long for the guys to go to sleep after that so I got up to have another shower because I really needed it and just as I was getting out of the shower I heard the front door close downstairs.

I put my satin dressing gown on and I walked downstairs to see Jasper standing in the middle of the living room.

"Why do people think it's alright to just walk into my fg house?" I asked.

"Because you always make everyone feel so welcome." She said, being sarcastic.

"You do realize that one day I will mistake you for a bad guy and blast your head off." I said walking into the kitchen.

"With your abilities, that will never happen." He said, following me.

"What do you want?" I asked.

"I heard about Opal. And how she thought she was being attacked by the Alpha triplets in Canada. Which is so weird because they never left the pack." Jasper said.

I started making a coffee and I turned around to look at Jasper who had his arms crossed, wanting to know what happened out there.

CHAPTER 44

"So what? I got in her head." I said.

"You made her think she was being attacked by wolves?" He asked.

"They were very realistic. Even if she was the only one who could see them." I smiled.

"I didn't know that you could manifest things in people's minds." He said.

"There's a lot that you don't know about me Jasper."

"Well, I haven't been game enough to go near the triplets since they found out that I'm a fae. Because I lied to them."

"Well, I don't blame them. They were pissed at me too. But I'm their mate, so I knew they'd get over it."

"You bet we did." Tyler said, walking into the room with a towel wrapped around his waist and he walked straight over and kissed me.

"Wow. Did I catch you at a bad time?" Jasper asked.

"Where are the other two?" I asked.

"Asleep." Tyler said.

"I definitely caught you at a bad time. I'm gonna go."

"No. If you got here about an hour ago then you would have been in for a surprise." I said. And Jasper started getting really embarrassed before he quickly excused himself and he left my house.

"You manifested wolves to scare off those vampires?" Tyler asked, looking at me.

Oh st. They didn't know that I could do that yet.

Fighter 45

CHAPTER 45

By the next morning I was still a little tired when I got out of bed because my bed really wasn't big enough for four people but I wasn't going to ask the triplets to leave. So I put up with it and got whatever sleep I could. I didn't get a whole lot when I was away and that was my first night back, but I still wouldn't have been able to get a whole lot of sleep anyway.

I just had to put up with it and when I woke up I saw that Koda and Dean were out of bed and Tyler was still asleep next to me.

So I got dressed into a black singlet, tan cargo pants and boots.

I walked downstairs and the guys were sitting at the table.

"Are you going somewhere?" Koda asked.

"Gotta check the perimeter." I said.

"Our patrols are doing that. You don't have to anymore." Dean said.

"Yeah. I do."

"I can't completely forget about all of my obligations."

"We'll go with you." Koda said.

"I won't be gone long. Stay here and wait for Tyler to wake up."

"We wanted to talk to you about something." Koda said.

"Alright." I said.

So Dean left a note for Tyler to let him know where we were and the three of us left the house and straight out into the forest.

"Alright. You said you wanted to talk to me about something. What is it?"

"Well, we love your house and it's new and great. I know that you probably love it because it's your first house and everything..." Dean rambled.

"What my brother is trying to say is that we have more room at the packhouse. The beds are bigger and so are the showers." Koda said.

"You want me to move into the packhouse?"

"Yeah. I mean, if you want to." Dean said.

1/4

CHAPTER 45

"I really appreciate that. But I think that might be moving a little too fast. I mean, I've always wanted my independence away from Evelyn and Henry. And I finally got that. I just think it's too soon to move into the packhouse. I know my bed might not be as big as yours, but you guys can stay here whenever you want. I'm never going to say that you can't." I explained.

I saw the disappointment on Dean's face but Koda was pretty quick to step in.

"It's alright. It was just an idea. But if you think it's too soon then we'll wait. You can have all the independence that you want. And we will respect that." Koda said.

"Thanks." I said.

When we finished our hike around the perimeter, we got back to my place and Tyler was just making the coffee. So he handed us all a cup as soon as we walked through the door. But he got a kiss from me before he handed mine to me.

I sat at the table and the guys explained to Tyler what I said about not wanting to move into the packhouse just yet. He seemed to understand as well.

I was thankful for that.

The guys had to go home and take care of some Alpha business so after they left I walked out of the house as well.

I walked down the road to the house next to theirs and I knocked on the door.

"Nova." Lexie said, surprised.

"Hi. Can we talk or do you hate me too much?" I asked.

"I never hated you. Come in." She said. So I went inside and I could tell that she was home by herself.

We can usually hear her mother fluttering around the house doing something and we went into the living room.

"I was sure that you would hate me because I never told you who I was."

"I never hated you. I was shocked, but then it started to make sense."

"What do you mean?" I asked, confused.

"Well, usually when Izzy and her posse go after someone, that person always backs down. They know that they can't win against Izzy and her friends. But you never did that. You were always ready to take the whole lot of them on. And now I realize it's because you knew that you could." She explained.

"With one arm tied behind my back."

"It's pretty cool though. Knowing what you are. Having someone like you in our pack. Even if you're not officially a pack member yet."

"Yeah. I don't know when or if that's ever going to happen." I said.

"What do you mean?"

10 Bons

"Well, you might be cool with what I am. The guys asked me to move into the packhouse with them. But the problem is that I can hear what people are thinking. And I know what this pack thinks of me. If people give me weird looks then I listen to what they're thinking and it's never good. The pack doesn't like me." I explained.

"They'll get over it. I'm sure they will."

"I don't think they will ever accept me as their Luna. I told the guys that I didn't want to move in because I liked having the independence that I have right now. So please don't tell them the truth. I don't want them going after all of the assholes in the pack that don't like me." I said.

"They could make it better."

"I don't want this pack to like me because they've been ordered to by their Alpha's. I want them to like me because of me."

"Yeah. I get that. Well, you've got my support. And my parents haven't said anything bad about you since they found out the truth. They're the same as me. They think it's pretty cool. But the Alpha and Beta have both accepted you." Lexie said.

"Don't get me started on all that. I know that they will accept me but there's a lot more to that story than I can tell anyone right now."

"Alright. Well, I won't tell anyone. And you are always going to be welcome with me. So, now that we've got that out of the way. Have you slept with them yet?" She asked.
"Yeah."

"At the same time?"

"Last night was the first time with all three of them."

"Oh my god. What was it like?"

"It was kind of mind blowing." I smirked at her.

"Holy st. You are the luckiest bh in the world. And that is going to make a lot of people in this pack hate you. Mostly the teenage girls." She said.

"I know."

CHAPTER 45

"Where are they now?"

"Attending to Alpha business. I'm not too sure what they're doing." I said.

"Well, I heard that you stopped that vampire attack. That has to give you some points in the pack."

"I doubt that. But that doesn't mean I'm going to stop. I was sent here to protect them and that's what I'm going to do. Whether the pack likes it or not." I said. "Good. And you don't have to only protect them. You're also my best friend and that's never going to change. I'll have your back if anyone says anything about you."

"Don't get into trouble on my account."

"I won't. I'm sticking up for my friends. That's what friends do." She said.

"Honestly, I wouldn't know. You're my first." I said. And she leaned over and hugged me.

"Well, get used to it. Because I'm not going anywhere." She said.

CHAPTER 46

TRIPLER POV

Dean was the most upset that Nova wouldn't move into the packhouse, but at the same time he could understand why she wanted a place to herself.

He can't even begin to understand what it was like living with Evelyn and Henry. It definitely wasn't easy for her.

But she's away from them now and she wants to have that little bit of independence before she moves into the same house as the Alpha and Luna. They could all understand where she was coming from. The triplets went home to shower and get dressed for the day and they noticed how unusually quiet the packhouse was.

No one was there. Not even their mother.

They got a mind link from their father telling them to go to the meeting hall, so after they were dressed they met up at the front door and walked out again.

They saw Nova standing at Lexie's door talking to her before she went inside and they kept going on to the meeting hall.

As soon as they got close to the building they could hear a lot of voices inside. It sounded like the whole pack was there.

They walked in the door and stood at the back of the room for a minute to see what was going

They were right. Everyone that moved here from the pack in California were in the meeting hall and their mother and father were at the front of the room on the little stage that was in front of them.

Koda crossed his arms across the front of his chest, knowing that this wasn't anything good.

The last time they had a whole pack meeting like this was when they were trying to determine what to do about a pack of rogues that had set up not far from the border.

The rogues didn't even know that this pack was here and people wanted to attack them and get rid of them.

Instead, Koda talked them into just letting the triplets go and let the rogues know that they were too close to a pack and if they didn't leave then they would be killed.

1/4

CHAPTER 46

The rogues left without any worries at all. And that was just after they moved here.

So, they didn't know what the problem was now, but Koda definitely didn't like the feel in the air.

"I know that this is a very touchy subject. But we need to consider all of the evidence before we make a decision." The Alpha said.

"There's no decision to be made. I vote that we don't put the pack in any more risk than it already is." A man said, with a lot of other people cheering him on.

"Would you all please just listen to reason?" Ava asked, standing up from the front row.

"I saw we kick you out as well. You brought her here." A woman yelled. And the triplets all looked at each other with malice in their eyes. They knew this meeting was about Nova and the pack wanted her gone. Koda felt like he could kill them for this. Each and every person that said they wanted her gone. He wanted to kill.

"Don't blame my mother. She was doing what she thought was right. But she was obviously wrong. Nova needs to go. She ran my brother out of the pack." Izzy yelled.

"Actually, I believe you're the one that was responsible for that." Tyler yelled among everyone. Once he spoke, everyone stopped talking and they sat down and stared at the triplets that were standing at the back of the pack. "I'm not the one that ran him out of the pack. I would never do that. But she did. He had to leave because what my mother doesn't know is that while he was meant to be training her as a wolf, he was also sleeping with her." Izzy said. "And you're the one that told us. If you had kept your mouth shut then he'd still be here." Dean said.

"You did what?" Theo asked his daughter.

"I thought they were going to stay the hell away from Nova. I didn't know that they were gonna want to kill Jacob." Izzy defended. But Koda let out an exasperated breath.

"Nova is our fg mate. Of course we would want to kill your brother for touching her. But she defended him. And she assured us that nothing happened with him after she realized that she was our mate. These are the fg details that you never bothered to find out before you tried to ruin her." Tyler yelled.

"Alright. Everyone needs to calm down." The Alpha yelled.

CHAPTER 46

The triplets walked down the middle of the room and went up onto the little stage as well and they took the three empty seats near their mother. But none of them looked at their mother or their father.

They were all pretty pissed right now when they realized this is what was going on.

"Maybe we should focus on the good things that she's done around here since she's been here." Lexie's mother Emily said, standing up.

"Like what? What good has she done?" A man yelled.

"She saved the triplets' lives at the school." Emily said.

"Yeah. And she destroyed the school at the same time." Principal Marks said, who was also a member of their pack.

"Those were witches. Not her." Koda corrected him.

"And what about her leaving this pack to go and fight off a large group of vampires that were headed this way. Are you aware that she did that? Or did you all just think she disappeared and took off?" Emily asked.

"What vampires?" Another pack member asked.

"A woman who was an ex-lover of a vampire council member created her own army. New vampires. Causing havoc everywhere and killing people wherever they wanted. Nova headed them off in Canada and using the powers she has that you are all so scared of, she forced them back down south and made sure that they knew that all they could eat from now on was animals. Not humans." Dean explained.

"She's just saved countless lives. But all you can focus on is the fact that she's different." Tyler said.

"Boys. We wanted the pack to be able to have a say about Nova being here." The Alpha said to them.

"We don't care. She's our mate and she will be our Luna. If these people here can't accept that, then she will leave. But I'm going with her." Tyler said.

"Me too." Dean said.

"Me too." Koda said.

That got everyone whispering and Dean looked at Ava who was sitting in the front row. Noticing how her face changed as soon as they said that.

"Where's Nova when we need her? I need to know what Ava is thinking." Dean mind linked his brothers. So they both looked over at Ava and they noticed the look on her face as well.

"Nova did tell us not to trust her." Koda mind linked back.

"She doesn't look happy right now." Tyler mind linked.

"Ever since we said that we were going with Nova." Dean said.

The guys sat there during the rest of the meeting while everyone else talked, but they were a lot more respectful towards Nova now that they knew she was actually protecting the pack. But the triplets kept their eyes on Ava for the rest of the meeting.

As soon as it was over she said something to Theo and Izzy that no one else could hear and she left the meeting hall alone.

The triplets refused to talk to anyone, especially their parents, because they weren't sticking up for the future Luna of this pack. So the guys left but they had every intention to follow Ava. They needed to know what the hell she was up to.

Fighter 47

CHAPTER 47

AVA POV

What the hell is that girl up to? Everyone wants her to leave and I am trying to convince them that they need her protection.

What has she done to those triplets? They all look like they would kill for her.

She swore that the mate bond wasn't going to get in the way of her doing her damn job but now the triplets are feeling the bond a lot deeper.

I can tell just by looking at them and the way that they are defending her.

I can understand them wanting to be near her all the time. They feel the mate bond. But she said that she was going to keep her distance and she was just going to protect them to ensure the survival of this pack.

She was never meant to get close to them.

I went straight from the meeting hall to Nova's house but she wasn't there.

I wasn't sure where the hell she was. I could smell her scent at the house but I didn't know where it went after that.

She was trained to hide her scent whenever she's not at her house and she's gotten really good at it.

So I went to another smaller cabin that was in the forest and I started banging on the door. "Hey Ava. What's the matter?" Jasper asked. But I pushed him to the side and I walked into his house.

He closed the door behind me and he looked at me strangely.

"They just had the pack meeting. The one that we knew they would have. Trying to get Nova out of here if they ever found out what she was." I said.

"Yeah. We knew that was going to happen. But she's protecting everyone in the pack. They're just scared because they don't understand her." Jasper said.

"No. That's not it. The triplets showed up late. Right in the middle of everyone arguing whether or not she should stay in the pack. And they were pissed." I said. "Oh crap." Jasper said, rubbing his face.

He immediately looked like he knew something that I didn't. What the fk was going on

1/3

CHAPTER 47 around here?

"Spill it." I demanded.

"I went to her house last night. She was just getting out of the shower and she was wearing a dressing gown. Tyler came down wearing a towel and apparently the other two were asleep upstairs. I didn't see them but I don't think they would have lied about that." Jasper explained.

"They slept together. She's accepted them as their mate?" I asked.

"It looks like it. It surprised me too. I don't know what made her do it. Last time I talked to her she was determined that she was never going to get close to them." Jasper said.

"fk. Something happened when she was in Canada. That's the only thing it could be. Something made her realize that she wanted to be with them." I yelled.

Jasper stood there, dumbfounded. He obviously didn't know what the hell was going on.

"Can you ask your friends if they know what happened?" I asked.

"No one knew that she was leaving to head off those vampires. We were all preparing to send everyone here. All the fae's anyway. They were all going to come here and help defend the pack. The next thing we knew, Nova was gone." "She would have done that to stop the vampire council from coming near the pack. They would have taken the opportunity to kill the triplets." I said.

Jasper obviously didn't know what the hell happened while she was gone, but I know that something changed her mind.

She was a warrior before she left. But she came back as their mate and Luna. What the fk was that about.

This can't be happening. This isn't the way it's meant to happen.

"Find out whatever the fk you can." I demanded walking out of the house.

I grabbed my cell phone out of my bag and I dialed a number.

"Hello." A guy answered.

"We've got a problem."

"What?" He asked.

"She's accepted them as her mates." I said.

"I'll be there on the next flight." He said, hanging up.

I started walking through the forest and back to the pack trying to figure out what I am going to do.

This is going against everything we trained her for.

She was never meant to fall in love. She was never meant to live this long.

We only allowed her to live this long so she could protect the triplets.

We had to make sure that she didn't live past this war. She is fg up everything for us. And for every species in the world.

We're the only ones that know she exists. Us and the very few that trained her.

They haven't even told their superiors. So I knew that this wasn't going to end well.

It's been so hard to keep this secret from her, but I've managed to.

Her fate is to save the triplets and that's it. She doesn't have a fate after that. At least not a written one.

I even had a specialist change the written fate. Saying that she's not meant to exist for another 200 years. So all the other species in the world would have to wait for another couple of centuries for her to show up somewhere in the world. We've gone to so much trouble and now she's fg everything up.

I walked back towards her house but I saw her at Lexie's house. They were in the living room laughing and carrying on. Looking like a couple of teenage girls.

I knew that what we were doing wasn't fair. But we needed to make sure that she understood that she had to keep her distance from the triplets. It was only going to hurt them and the pack when this war finished her.

It was late afternoon when I got a text message on my phone.

I've arrived. I'll be at the pack in two hours.

So I waited for those two hours and I went to meet a car along the highway so Izzy and Theo didn't see him.

"Hello Wesley." I said as he got out of the backseat of his car.

"So, I hear my daughter is causing you a few problems." Wesley said

Fighter 48

CHAPTER 48 KODA POV

We had been following Ava all day. She had a go at Jasper about Nova accepting the mate bond and looked really pissed and disappointed that Nova didn't stick to their plan. I guess Nova was right. We couldn't trust Ava. She was definitely up to something.

But it was the person that she called on the phone that we were mostly interested in. We wanted to know who the hell he was before we said or did anything to Ava. We followed her for the rest of the day but after she made that phone call, she went home and she had a fight with Izzy.

That didn't surprise me. Izzy wanted Nova gone and Ava was doing everything she could to keep her here. She's the one that brought her here, but it was for a mission. I could feel how Tyler and Dean were both feeling towards Ava at the moment.

But we knew that we had to be smart about this.

She was smarter than us when it came to stabbing people in the back. She made that very clear today.

But Jasper was also in on their little plan.

Why was it such a problem if she accepted the mate bond? They should be happy that they have such a strong Luna.

And she's proven that she will do whatever she can to save us.

I know that she was tasked with keeping us safe, but she's done a lot to keep the pack safe as well.

We were really confused by everything that was going on.

Nova sent us a few messages today to see what we were doing and I hated lying to her. But we had to tell her that we were still doing crap for the pack.

The boring Alpha paperwork and stuff like that.

She understood and we knew that she'd just get on with what she needed to do.

She always seemed like she had something to do.

Ava finally left the house late in the afternoon and we followed her to the highway where a really expensive car pulled up beside her. 1/5

CHAPTER 48

A man got out of the backseat. A large, bulky werewolf who looked like he was in his 40's and he looked very showy as well.

A driver, a Rolls Royce, a $5000 suit. His hair slicked back and we could smell his cologne from where we were standing.

"Hello Wesley." Ava said.

"So, I hear my daughter is causing you a few problems." Wesley said.

We all looked at each other and we knew that something was seriously wrong.

Nova doesn't know who her father is. She's never met him. Why would Ava call him and get him to the pack?

"She's not following the rules." Ava said.

"What's she done that's so bad?" Wesley asked.

"She was meant to save this pack. Not destroy it. She's accepted the mate bond." Ava said. And Wesley snapped his head around to look at Ava.

"Are you fg kidding me? I told you that you had to find another plan once it was clear that they were mates."

"We didn't think that she would be so affected by the mate bond because of all the other species that she has in her." Ava explained.

"You know that this is bad."

"I know. That's why I called. I don't know what the hell to do." Ava said.

"I think I might. It's a long shot, but it might work." Wesley said.

"Good. What is it?"

"I'm not telling you st. You obviously can't be trusted to deal with this. So I will. Where the hell am I staying while I'm here?" He asked.

"At the hotel. It's the nicest in town. But it's probably not as nice as you're used to. I've already reserved you a room. It's the biggest building in town." Ava explained.

So he got back in the car and he drove off, leaving her standing there in the middle of the road. Ava looks nervous now that she's not a part of the plan that Wesley is putting together.

I guess that's what she gets for being a backstabbing bh.

Ava went back home and it looked like she was getting settled in for the night so we headed to Nova's house.

CHAPTER 48

When we got there, we checked the whole house and she wasn't there.

"She's probably checking the perimeter. Like she always does." Tyler said, sitting on the couch.

"Alright. Listen, we can't tell Nova any of this. So, try not to think about it when she's around. She won't read our minds if she doesn't have to. But if she thinks you're lying to her then she will. We have to find out what the hell Ava is up to before we start to worry Nova." I explained.

"We agreed to protect each other. Not keep secrets from each other." Dean said.

"We are protecting her. Until we know what's really going on, this is the best thing for her."

Tyler said.

So we sat in the living room to watch TV for a bit before Nova finally got back to the house.

"Hey. I thought you guys would be at your place." Nova said.

"No. Dad knows about us so he doesn't care where we sleep." I said.

"Good to know. You guys hungry?" She asked.

"How about we go out instead? The diner down the road." Tyler said.

"Yeah. If you want." She said.

So Nova grabbed her bag and keys and she actually locked her house up for the first time.

I guess she really is getting sick of people barging in uninvited.

We walked to the diner which was just around the corner and we sat at a booth and ordered something to eat.

I noticed that everyone was staring at Nova and it wasn't long before Nova noticed it as well.

I saw her concentrating so she was listening to what they were thinking and I mind linked everyone to mind their own business. So they all looked away quickly.

"Why are they all saying that I shouldn't be here?" Nova asked.

"There's just a few people that don't understand you yet. They're being ignorant and they aren't willing to give you a chance." I explained.

"Do you think I should talk to them?" She asked.

"I think we should just let the dust settle for now." I said. And she nodded her head.

I think she did agree. She wasn't going to argue with us when it came to the pack. We knew them better and she knew that they would probably not warm up to her anyway. That was always pretty obvious with her because she didn't like to do too many things around the pack.

And the fact that she can hear what they're thinking doesn't help.

I just wanted everyone to get over it and realize that she's not here to hurt anyone. She's not here to kill anyone except the people that are coming here to kill us. That's it. She's on our side.

I sat next to Nova and put my arm across the booth behind her and the waitress finally came over and took our order.

So I used my hand to push Nova's shoulder and she leaned into me a little more as we were sitting in the booth.

Tyler and Dean were doing their best to act normal, but Dean was being a little too quiet.

A lot quieter than usual.

"Hey. Is everything alright?" Nova asked him.

"Yeah. Sorry. Just tired. It's been a long boring day." Dean said, looking back out the window.

"What did you do today?" Tyler asked.

"Not much. Went to see Lexie. And I'm glad to report that she doesn't hate me. And I walked the perimeter. I did a bit of school work. Even though the school isn't there anymore. They're sending us assignments and school work through emails for the time being." Nova explained.

"Crap. We better check out emails." I said.

"Yeah. If you want to graduate at the end of this year." Nova said, looking at me. So I leaned over and kissed her.

"I'm definitely graduating with you." I said.

After dinner we went back to Nova's house and we decided to watch a movie and Nova was between Tyler and Dean on the couch.

She was lying on the couch between them and when I looked over at her again, she was asleep with her head on Tyler's lap and her feet on Dean's lap.

I just smiled at her and kept watching the movie.

I don't know how anyone could want to hurt something so perfect.

Fighter 49

CHAPTER 49

NOVA POV

Patrolling the perimeter of the pack was starting to get really tedious and it was the same trail every time.

I was getting really sick of it and I hadn't even been doing it for that long.

So I decided to have some fun with it.

I climbed up into a tree and I started jumping from tree to tree while I was still watching the ground for any intruders.

I saw the patrols running past but thanks to me hiding my scent, they didn't even know that I was watching them.

I loved messing with them when they didn't know that I was out here. And they never figured out that it was me.

I would throw things at them and then take off since I could run faster than a wolf and a vampire.

It was fun just to mess around with them a little.

But I still had a job to do and I kept jumping from tree to tree until I got to a larger space between trees because the highway was between them.

I was about to make the jump when I saw a car driving up the road and then I heard someone walking from the other side of the highway. Coming down from the pack.

"What the hell is Ava doing out here?" I asked myself.

So I stayed in the tree and looked down at her as she stood to the side of the road and the car pulled up next to her. "Hello Wesley." Ava said.

"So, I hear my daughter is causing you some problems." Wesley said.

What the fk?

That's not who I think it is?

"She's a beautiful girl but she's a pain in the ass." Wesley thought to himself, and a picture of me flashed in his head.

I knew that they were talking about me. And then they started carrying on about me not accepting the mate bond. I was never meant to and I was putting the whole pack at jeopardy by doing it.

1/4

CHAPTER 49

I was listening to these two ramble on about a lot of st about me when I looked off into the distance while trying to process what they were saying and something else caught my eye on the other side of the highway. It was the triplets.

They were also watching. They must have been following Ava.

First they have a secret meeting discussing whether or not I should be allowed to stay here and now she's called my father to get me away from the triplets.

I only know about the meeting because Emily came home while I was still at Lexie's and she was thinking about it.

I was happy to know that she was defending me. But it was still a slap in the face.

The triplets obviously know more than I do and they are the ones that have to tell me.

But I messaged them before and they said that they were doing pack paperwork. They lied to me because they are obviously following Ava.

As soon as everyone left I sat there waiting for a while and the triplets headed back into town. I didn't actually finish my sweep of the town that night. I just walked around for a little while before I went home and they were waiting for me at my house.

They all looked cheery and upbeat, like nothing was going on.

I was surprised when they offered to take me out to dinner but I agreed.

It was awkward at the diner because everyone was staring and I could hear what they were thinking.

All of them thinking that I shouldn't even be here. That they couldn't wait until this war was over and I would leave.

None of them were going to accept me as their Luna.

But Koda yelled at them in the mind link and they stopped staring at me. But it didn't stop what they were thinking about me.

Dean was acting really weird as well. I know that he wanted to tell me something, but he just wasn't.

When we got back to my place we sat around watching a movie and I fell asleep on the couch.

214

CHAPTER 49

O

I wasn't sure how long I was asleep for but when I woke up I was in bed with the guys and it was still dark.

I crept out of bed and I snuck down to the basement where I closed the door to the firing range.

I grabbed my throwing knives and I started throwing them at the target.

+10 Bonos

Each knife I threw got harder and harder until I couldn't pull the knife out of the wood cut out anymore. So I went into the gym and I started taking my frustration out on my punching bag. Putting holes in them all the time so I needed to grab another punching bag and hang it up as well.

When I finally felt like I had worked out all of my frustration I went upstairs to the kitchen to get a drink and I saw the sun coming up.

I sat at the table and I opened my laptop and I started searching for a man named Wesley that fit the description of the man that I saw last night.

I'd never seen him before but he called me his daughter.

And why would Ava call him because I decided to accept the mate bond.

I knew that Ava couldn't be trusted, but this was beyond anything I could have imagined.

Dean was the first one to wake up and he came downstairs, so I closed the computer and I grabbed my bottle of water.

He could see the sweat dripping off of me and he grabbed my hand to see the bruises covering my knuckles.

"Is everything alright?" He asked, concerned.

"Yeah. Just had a hard workout session this morning." I said.

"I'll say. I've never seen you bruised before." He said.

"Yeah. You have. While I was injecting wolfsbane so you didn't know who I was." I said. And he nodded his head.

"That was different."

He sat at the table and he was looking at me really concerned. But I just looked out the kitchen window watching the sun come up.

I was trying to come up with my next move. There were people within my own circle plotting against me and I didn't know why.

410 9

CHAPTER 49

But I had an idea on how I could find out.

Once the guys left that morning to go and do their Alpha duties with their father, I showered and got changed and I went to Ava's house.

I stood outside waiting until I was sure that everyone had left before I snuck around the back and I picked the lock on the door.

I went inside the house and I looked around the large house trying to find anything that might help me.

I found the office and I knew that this is where Ava would keep everything. She's mated to Theo so there's no way she would keep a secret from him.

I started looking through the filing cabinet and the desk and I even looked for a secret safe behind paintings and crap like that.

But it was easier than that. One of the desk drawers had a false bottom, so I lifted it up and I found several files in it.

I took them all out and I sat on the chair as I opened the first one.

It was all about me. And the second one was as well.

They were all written by my trainers. The trainers I had from all different species. And there was a file on the bottom that looked really suspicious to me.

So I took all the files and I put the desk back together before I walked out of the office and I left out the back door.

As soon as I got home I made sure that the curtains were closed and all the doors were locked because I wasn't allowing anyone to barge in on me right now.

I put the files on the table and I looked at them for a while without doing anything. I was actually scared to look at them. But I knew that the answers were in there. I just wasn't sure if I wanted to know what the answers were right now.

Fighter 50

CHAPTER 50

I was still standing there staring at the files when someone knocked on the door.

I ignored it, not wanting to talk to anyone.

"Nova. It's me." Evelyn yelled out.

I put my head up looking at the door really skeptically. So I walked to the door and I opened it a little way. Not enough so she could barge in, but just enough so she could see me.

She was standing on my porch with Wesley. That son of a bh.

"What?" I asked.

"I wanted you to meet someone." Evelyn said.

"Did you finally get rid of Henry?" I asked. I didn't know the exact reason why he was here but I knew that I had to pretend like I didn't know who the hell he was.

"No Nova. This is Wesley. He's your father." Evelyn said.

So I stood there staring at him for a moment and I looked him up and down.

"What do you want?" I asked.

"Don't speak to him like that." Evelyn yelled at me.

"I wasn't talking to you. I've lived 17 years without you. Why are you here now?" I asked.

"I know that I have made some mistakes in the past. But I thought that it wasn't too late for me to make up for them." He said.

"Oh. Is that what you thought?" I asked.

"Nova. He's trying." Evelyn said.

"Maybe you are py whipped by this piece of st but all I know is that he's the sperm donor that disappeared and left me alone with you." I snapped at her. "What's that supposed to mean?" Wesley asked.

"Don't pretend like you don't know. I know that Ava was telling you everything. She was helping me when I was a kid and she was the one that was giving me all of those checks that I received every month. You were giving me your child support directly. Instead of giving it to Evelyn." I said.

"What?" Evelyn yelled.

I

I looked at Evelyn like she was an it. She never fed me or bought me clothes or anything like that.

How the hell did she think I was surviving? Obviously someone was giving me money. It just wasn't her.

"Do you think I could come in and talk? Please?" Wesley asked.

"No." I said, slamming the door in their faces.

Evelyn started bashing on the door but I heard Wesley make her stop.

"It's alright. She has every right to be mad at me. I haven't been there for her and she has a right to feel her feelings." Wesley said.

I just rolled my eyes and I heard them leave.

As soon as they did I went back to the kitchen table and I sat down staring at the files that were right in front of me.

I grabbed the file on the bottom. The one that I couldn't understand in Ava's house and I opened it up first.

ORIGINAL TEXT

A child will be born to bring all species together. She will be the one that brings peace and saves the fated Alpha Triplets.

She will become their Luna and bear the next Werewolf King and mightiest warrior.

NEW TEXT

A child will be born to split all species down the middle and create chaos. A huge war will erupt. Once she saves her Alpha Triplets, she will die protecting them and all species will dissolve, naming one man, a werewolf, as the new leader of the supernatural council. Her father. He will take control of all species and no one will have the power to stop him.

They were written on two different pages so I grabbed my computer and I typed the first text into a program that I downloaded years ago to help me decipher ancient texts.

I had to learn as much as I could about all species and a lot of the material was in a different language or it would refer to other prophecies and stuff like that.

This program that I have would find where I could find these ancient texts or prophecies. And it would turn it into English for me.

I found the first text in an ancient text book that was about 100 years old. It was a prophecy about me. It doesn't say when I will be born, but it's definitely me because there is no one else like me in the world.

But when I typed in the second page, it didn't come up with anything.

I tried a second time and it came up saying 'false prophecy.

Why would Ava change an ancient prophecy that would bring peace to the entire supernatural world only to say that I was going to die and my father was going to take over as the head of the supernatural council. Oh my god. My father was behind this. But why would she go along with it?

He wants power but she is a good person. At least, she was when I met her. What the hell has changed?

How did he get her to agree to have me killed so he could get all the power that he wanted?

To rule the supernatural world.

I started pacing around my room and I saw the books on the side of my living room and I started looking through them.

I'd pull one off of the shelf and drop it on the ground before I grabbed another one.

I couldn't find anything in those books that I had.

All that studying and I couldn't find anything on this prophecy of myself.

Why the hell was it so hard to find in an actual book?

I started to lose my temper and I grabbed my table and I tipped it over. I grabbed one of the chairs that went with the table and I smashed it on the ground.

The coffee table was thrown across the room and it smashed into a million pieces because it was glass.

I knocked over the couch and the two other chairs in the living room.

After that I went upstairs and I started trashing all the rooms upstairs as well.

It was all a lie. Everything that I know is a lie.

Everything I was trained for is a lie.

My whole life is a fg lie.

Suddenly someone came running into my bedroom and saw the mess that I had everywhere and he grabbed me from behind and I started fighting him but Koda wouldn't let me go. hina with wide eyes.

I started crying and I couldn't control it. I wasn't able to stop.

"They told me that I probably wasn't going to survive the war. That's why I couldn't get close to you. They said that the war is going to kill me." I sobbed out.

"We already agreed that we're going to protect each other." Koda said, confused.

"They aren't going to let me survive. Ava and Wesley. They're going to kill me. That's why they don't want us together. They want me to protect you just so they can destroy you. And Wesley is going to take over the supernatural council. It's all because of fg power. Wesley wants the power and Ava is going to give it to him." I yelled while still crying.

Tyler and Dean looked at each other in shock before they both walked over and sat down in front of me.

"We're not going to let that happen. I promise. We are not going to let them do anything to you." Tyler said. "Why would Ava even be helping him do this?" Dean asked.

"We have to find out." Koda said.

"Everything I was training for was a lie." I sobbed. So Dean leaned forward and hugged me.
