Chapter 5 [Brother, do you mind if I copy your homework? ]

The next day, Cao Chenghui came to the Internet cafe early again. Not surprisingly, Fang Hong should still come.

Anyway, there is already contact information, so Cao Chenghui is not in a hurry.

We added each other as friends on QQ yesterday, but he chatted without coming up, mainly because he was afraid of disturbing him and arousing the boss's disgust.

It's safer to wait until we're more familiar with each other before further chatting.

Sure enough, at around 8:40, Fang Hong came to this Internet cafe very punctually.

Still came to the original location in the small corner, where it was relatively quiet and no one disturbed, the two of them greeted each other as soon as they met.

Fang Hong sat down and turned on the machine, and Cao Chenghui started it right away, boasting: "Brother, I am really impressed, Shuyuan Technology has reached its daily limit again in late trading. I never believed that there is a stock god in this world before, but now I Believe me, the stock god is by my side."

Hearing this, Fang Hong smiled slightly but did not respond. He suddenly looked around but didn't say anything.

However, Cao Chenghui saw his deliberate or unintentional actions, and immediately realized that his voice might be a bit loud, and this big guy didn't seem to want to attract other people's attention.

Cao Chenghui's voice was consciously lowered when he spoke next. Fang Hong was not a student in an ivory tower who appeared to be inexperienced. Cao Chenghui's lowered voice immediately let him know that this old man understood him. That's right, he's in his thirties.

Fang Hong's move just now was indeed intentional. He didn't want to show off in places like Internet cafes. If word spread, it might reach the ears of loan sharks. When the other party knows that you are so talented in stock trading, Fang Hong judged 100% that the other party would be forced to pay immediately.

At this time, they will definitely not be able to pay back, and then the other party will take this as a condition and ask Fang Hong to make a lot of money for them in stocks before they will give up.

As a generation of top financial tycoons, in the capital market, the ups and downs of those data in the market are the interpretation of people's hearts and human nature.

East and West are all too clear about human nature. You must not try to test human nature. Try it and you will die.

If he didn't want to make money as soon as possible and accumulate original capital as soon as possible, because the conditions were limited and he couldn't find other ways to increase leverage, Fang Hong would not show off his skills to Cao Chenghui and induce him to take the bait.

When the time came to 9:25, the results of the call auction came out, and Shuyuan Technology's bid opened +2.12% higher today.

After the market opened, the stock price showed an upward trend without stepping back.

At this time, Fang Hong is waiting for the emergence of selling points, and at the same time, he is also paying attention to the few self-selected stocks that he added during the stock market sweep, all of which he is optimistic about today.

At this time, Cao Chenghui felt itchy, and finally couldn't help but said: "Brother, you don't mind if I copy homework with you?"

When he heard his words, Fang Hong couldn't help but smile inside, the prey bit the hook further, and everything went as expected.

Fang Hong turned his head and glanced at Cao Chenghui. The latter also looked anxious at the moment, obviously ten years older than him.

After a while, Fang Hong said: "There is no problem with this, but let me tell you in advance that I do not constitute any investment advice. I am responsible for my own profits and losses. If I make money, it is yours, and if I lose it, it is yours. It has nothing to do with me." ."

Cao Chenghui was overjoyed on the spot, so excited that he almost raised his voice again, and nodded repeatedly: "That's natural, that's natural, thank you brother!"

After speaking, he immediately logged in to his own securities account. Before Fang Hong came, Cao Chenghui had already downloaded the market software in advance, so he could log in directly at this time.

As the time passed, at around 9:49, Fang Hong suddenly sold out with one click. At this time, the stock price of Shuyuan Technology rose to 6.65 yuan per share, an increase of +8.66%. At this point in time, 2.11 million yuan was sold within one minute.

Fang Hong's current amount of capital is too small, and his entry and exit will not affect the time-sharing trend of the market, so there is no such thing as capital selling pressure.

"Brother, why did you throw it before the daily limit?" Cao Chenghui said a little puzzled seeing this scene.

"The consistency of this ticket in the early trading was too strong. Without a back step, it almost rushed up along a slope of more than 70 degrees. There was not even a consolidation, and the profit margin was too generous. They all thought about the daily limit, and even the game was expected to enter the second board and the third board. Then I'll go first." Fang Hong said.

Sure enough, not long after Fanghong cleared his position, the stock price of Shuyuan Technology plunged, and then became weaker and weaker.

"Definitely!"

Cao Chenghui couldn't help slapping the table, and he really dived into the water. The boss can be said to follow his words. Fang Hong's selling point is almost the highest point of the day. Seeing the boss's short-term operations these days, Cao Chenghui thinks it's okay. Shocked him for a whole year.

But more excited, the opportunity to make a fortune is right in front of you, hugging the boss's big thick legs tightly, getting rich is right in front of you.

Cao Chenghui's heart is extremely excited now, and he has already started gearing up. He is just waiting for the votes that the boss will vote for today, and then he will copy his homework and stud directly. He is not cowardly at all!

There are big bosses sitting in charge, coax a basket!

At around 11:25, near the end of the morning session, Cao Chenghui saw that Fang Hong finally made a move.

Quancang Stud Dinghai Seed Industry (002041), the Shenzhen market target, caught 400 shares at the position of -0.77% underwater, and the average transaction price was 24.43 yuan.

Just as Fang Hong just bought, Cao Chenghui next to him also hurriedly entered the transaction code, followed by a stud.

Why worry? Only get rich!

How to get rich? Only Stud!

Stud is a kind of wisdom!

At this time, Cao Chenghui, who followed the stud, was very excited!

"How much did you buy?" Fang Hong pretended to ask casually.

"100,000 yuan, just a stud, to be honest, it's exciting!" Cao Chenghui smiled while holding back his excitement, and then added: "To tell you the truth, my account was only more than 20,000 yuan before. Just kidding, this time I took out all the savings my family had saved over the years without telling my wife, and I didn't keep a dime for the tuition fees of my two children."

Fang Hong couldn't help being stunned for a while when he heard this. This buddy is also a ruthless person, but he said concisely: "Then you are rich."

Hearing this, Cao Chenghui laughed again and again: "Get rich together, get rich together, haha!"

As the saying goes, people do not get rich without windfall, and horses do not get fat without night grass. When it is time to make a move, stud is the embodiment of wisdom and courage. I followed this big guy to copy homework, lie down and win. After observing for so many days, the big guy's operation Thrilling but stable as a dog, this is not dare to stud that deserves not to get rich.

After buying, there is nothing to look forward to next, no matter how the future rises or falls, it will not be able to operate today.

Fang Hong got off the plane and was about to leave the Internet cafe.

It's already 11:30, and it's almost lunch time. Cao Chenghui's heart moved, and he planned to propose a treat to the boss and have a meal together.

But after thinking about it, he temporarily dismissed the idea.

Cao Chenghui felt that it would be more appropriate to invite him tomorrow. He has made a lot of money with the boss, and it is more appropriate to treat the guests to a meal because there is a cause and effect.

However, not long after saying goodbye and leaving, Cao Chenghui was still staying in the Internet cafe. He looked at the stock of Stud again, and suddenly saw that Dinghai Seeds suddenly issued a new announcement, regarding the revision announcement of the first half year performance forecast, trading was suspended for one hour in the afternoon , Trading will resume at 14:00.

"No way? No way? Can't you memorize it like this?" Cao Chenghui saw the headline of this news bulletin, and when he thought that he had put all his family's savings into it, his head was buzzing before he clicked it in. , he no longer had the courage to click in and see.

At this moment, Cao Chenghui had a pain mask on his face. Last second, he was still immersed in the dream of getting rich. At this moment, he was like falling into an ice cave. If the number of thunderstorms continued to drop to the limit, the wife knew that the marriage would probably be impossible to keep. .

At this moment, Cao Chenghui felt extremely regretful. If he had known earlier, he would not follow. It was all caused by greed and his superiors.

"Don't panic, don't panic, there is a boss here, as long as you hug the boss's legs, even if you are bored this time, you will definitely be able to make money back. It's easy, right, right...don't panic." Cao Chenghui thought of Fang Hong His super short-term technology has stabilized a lot for a while.

Immediately afterwards, he clicked on the QQ friend list, found Fang Hong and edited the message to send to him. He had to ask the boss for his opinion, otherwise he still couldn't calm down. Few people can really calm down.
