Chapter 8 [The disappearing boss and the entangled Cao Chenghui (thanks to the leader

If you follow the boss, you will still be bullish in the bear market.

Maybe in the big guy's world, there is no such thing as a bear market at all.

The big guy is in a bull market with a daily limit every day. Cao Chenghui feels that even last year's epic market was not as strong as it is now.

The big brother's legs must be tightly hugged, and no one will let go.

For the Shanggong Shengbei ticket, yesterday's full-day turnover was only 6.4 million yuan, but today the volume has reached more than 30 million.

As the big A closed, Fang Hong glanced at his position information.

[Target held: Shanggong Shengbei (600843)]

【Number of shares held: 3000 shares】

[Average transaction price: 5.00 yuan]

[Current market price: 5.65 yuan]

[Market value of positions: 16950 yuan]

[Profit and loss of the day: 2687 yuan (+20.00%)]

[Floating profit and loss: 1950 yuan (+9.92%)]

[Total assets: 16018.35 yuan]

[Cumulative income: +85.18%]

Fang Hong looked at the accumulative rate of return of the account, and said with a smile to himself: "From the first bid of Xinhuajin on July 11 to today's four trading days, it has reached 85 points, which is not bad."

At this time, Cao Chenghui immediately took advantage of the situation and praised: "To be honest, brother, I think your skills are far superior to the chief rudder, and your future achievements will definitely not be inferior to the chief rudder."

The profit made during these four trading days, if calculated according to the minimum wage standard of this era, is equivalent to earning a year's wages of an ordinary worker in a small city.

And the more principal, the greater the absolute profit.

Cao Chenghui only followed for two days, but his principal reached 100,000 yuan, and he earned 25,000 yuan in two days.

The following day, Thursday 17 July.

Fang Hong came to the Internet cafe this morning. This is also the fifth trading day since he re-entered the market through rebirth.

The ticket for Shanggong Shengbei opened slightly higher by +0.53% today, and quickly fell by 2.6 percentage points after the opening.

As long as the boss is around, he doesn't know what to panic about.

Five minutes after the opening of the market, Shanggong Shengbei quickly rose and turned red, and then began to fluctuate upwards. After rising to 5 percentage points, it began to maintain a pattern of narrow-range shocks and consolidation until the market closed in the morning.

Opening in the afternoon, the stock continued to fluctuate and narrow, and the stock price was quickly pulled up around 13:30, hitting a new intraday high, with an increase of more than 7 percentage points.

However, Fang Hong still didn't move, and the time-sharing timeline of Shanggong's promotion fluctuated and fell back again.

Until around 14:30 in the late trading, the stock rose rapidly again, with an increase of more than 9 percentage points.

At this time, Fang Hong made a move.

All the chips I held were sold, and the average transaction price was 6.16 yuan. Today, I gained 9 percentage points. Ignoring the transaction day cost, I made a profit of 1,530 yuan. The total assets of the account also reached 17,500 yuan, and the cumulative rate of return was +102.87% .

It took five trading days to double the income.

At this moment, Cao Chenghui, who was ready to buy with the market at any time, looked at the time, and the market would close in a few minutes.

But Fang Hong didn't seem to have made up his mind about the tickets he was going to buy today.

After a while, Fang Hong suddenly said: "I didn't find a satisfactory ticket today, let's take a short position."

Cao Chenghui was also stunned when he heard this, and immediately smiled when he realized it: "It's good to take a break with a short position, it's too exaggerated to earn more than a dozen points every day with a full position, and now I feel that Qin Shihuang eats peppercorns—win Numb."

In fact, there is no such thing at all.

Fang Hong deliberately said that he did not find a satisfactory ticket, and Cao Chenghui next to him was already hooked. He earned 37,000 yuan in three days with him, and he had already tasted the sweetness and was fascinated by it.

At this time, Fang Hong guessed that Cao Chenghui might have already dreamed of realizing the wonderful freedom of wealth by copying his homework with him.

This emotional node is just in place, and the next strategy can be carried out.

Fang Hong's rhythm is firmly in control of Cao Chenghui's personal emotions.

After quickly exiting the market software and getting off the plane after settlement, Fang Hong and Cao Chenghui exchanged casual greetings and left the Internet cafe.

The next day, Friday, July 18, is the last trading day of the week.

As usual, Cao Chenghui came to the Internet cafe on time as if he was going to and from get off work, and waited for the boss to come.

But today there was an accident.

As time passed, Cao Chenghui saw that it was almost nine o'clock, and he didn't see the boss coming.

Therefore, Cao Chenghui took the initiative to help open a machine, helped the boss download the market software in advance, and then continued to wait.

Soon the call for bidding came, but the goose boss still didn't come.

"What's the situation? Why haven't you come yet?" Cao Chenghui got up and looked around for a while, then sat down again and continued to wait, feeling a little uneasy in his heart.

9:30 came soon, and the big A had already opened, but the big guy still didn't come.

Cao Chenghui immediately logged into the QQ account, found the boss on the friend list, and entered the chat window, but he thought of the five-character message "Do not disturb unless necessary" that the boss sent before.

He hesitated again.

At this time, Cao Chenghui was very entangled in his heart. He wanted to ask what the boss was doing and why he hadn't come until now.

But I was afraid of offending the boss.

Cao Chenghui can be said to be cautious about Fang Hong now. In his eyes, the boss is the password for him to achieve sudden wealth and freedom of wealth. He must not be messed up by himself. If you miss this opportunity, you will miss it.

Unknowingly, the time has come to 11 o'clock, Cao Chenghui glanced at the time in the lower right corner of the computer screen, and sighed secretly: "Big brother probably won't come today, do you want to ask?"

Cao Chenghui continued to hesitate, struggled for a long time, and finally decided not to disturb Fang Hong.

"He didn't come today. Maybe he has something to deal with. It may be counterproductive to contact people at this time." Cao Chenghui thought about it and nodded secretly.

So I decided not to disturb others for the time being.

Today's A-share market closed sharply higher, and the Shanghai stock index rose +3.49% to 2778.36 points. It seems that the second bottoming has been completed on the technical side. The W double bottom has formed, and the second bottoming has not reached a new low.

There seem to be signs of stabilization.

Since Cao Chenghui followed Fang Hong for three days and tasted the taste of copying homework, he didn't care about the market index or anything.

Follow the big guys, every day is the daily limit of the bull market, and still look at the big market index?

The next two days are weekends and weekends, and the big A will not open.

On July 21, the new week came as scheduled, and Big A also ushered in the first trading day of the new week.

Cao Chenghui still came to the Internet cafe early.

Today, the A-shares continued to rise sharply. The Shanghai Stock Exchange Index rose +2.99% and closed at 2861.40 points. In just two trading days, it rose from more than 2600 points to the current 2800 points.

However, Cao Chenghui was quite disappointed again today, because the boss still didn't come.

He really wanted to ask Fang Hong what's going on through QQ, but he chose to endure it.

In the next few days, on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, Cao Chenghui went to the Internet cafe on time every day, hoping that the boss would show up every day, but it turned out to be the opposite. The boss has not appeared since July 17.

Today is already July 24, and the market has already returned to the 2900-point integer mark today, but the boss has not appeared for a week.

Cao Chenghui felt that the opportunity to get rich was about to slip away.

"Continuing like this is not an option, let's contact you." Cao Chenghui secretly said, really can't bear it anymore, it's too painful to go on like this, and if it doesn't work, he can give up early, so he opened the QQ friend list and clicked into Fang Hong's chat window Start editing the text message.
