Chapter 1503

Gilbert's eyes narrowed as he looked at the unfamiliar number flashing on his phone.

He answered the call and heard a woman's voice, which sounded vaguely familiar.

"Hey, Gilbert. Your grandma is with me, and she's safe. Can you come see me alone?"

The woman hung up the phone after speaking and immediately sent an address to Gilbert.

Gilbert quickly checked the address and headed toward his car.

Kisa's heart was heavy with worry, and she was about to follow Gilbert. But he turned around suddenly and gave her a cold, hard stare.

"Don't follow me!" he barked.

And with that, the car sped away, leaving her standing there feeling devastated and alone.
