Kisa sat on the ground, stunned.

'Gilbert didn't even bother saving my number. How much does he loathe me to treat me like a complete stranger? And that woman, what the is she doing with Gilbert? They seem too close!' Countless speculations raced through her mind, making her heart ache.

But she took a deep breath and forced herself not to overthink.

The urgent task was to get out of here.

Suddenly, a shadowy figure appeared in the distance. she gritted her teeth against the pain in her belly and squinted in its direction.

With a streetlamp close by, she eventually saw that the person was Thomas.

He had escaped, but he was hurt.

Without hesitation, Kisa ran over to him and asked, "Are you okay? "

Thomas froze for a second before blurting out, "What the hell are you still doing here? You need to get out of here, now!"

Kisa did not reply.
