

Introduction

Hey hey hey!

I am, as we all are, obsessed with a certain Scarlet Witch (I wonder who...), and have been reading some very good stories on here, but mostly, some quite bad ones loool:)))

ā

So I thought I should add my own attempt to either of those categories, you, dear readers, will be the judges of that!

So, this is obviously going to center around Wanda Maximo , the point of view in this story will be ours, so I will be writing from the perspective of "I" and "me" because Y/N is too tacky, sorry 'bout it! So our character's name's Olivia, but you can just pretend it's your name instead if you want to! Some chapters will be from Wanda's POV... :)

As said, we are set somewhere a er the events of Wandavision. I will try to stay as true as I can to what has happened before now, but I might deviate slightly...

Hopefully this will be an exciting journey, I'm excited to see where we'll end up!!

(Also, if anyone is bomb at doing covers on here feel free to help me out haha!)
