Chapter 1311: Surprise Him

Other than recovering from the deadly wounds, Ye Xiao could feel that his power was significantly enhanced!

Not that his spiritual power improved... It was his East-rising Purple Qi! It had improved greatly!

Now, this magnificent martial art was in the middle phase of the third level!

Ye Xiao even felt a bit frightened by what happened! He just couldn't believe it!

As he recognized, every step of the improvement of the East-rising Purple Qi required a lot of accumulation. The accumulation that he had been made since he was reborn was merely enough to push the East-rising Purple Qi to such a level! However, during the time when he was in a coma, it just happened!

There must be a reason for it!

He couldn't stop thinking about the weird dream he just had.

He remembered how the man in the dream casually grabbed some colorful glowing light from the air—actually from the void, and pushed the light into his chest and said, “Here you go!”

That was when he woke up from consciousness.

Then the wounds were all cured, and he was improved. The inner core of the fish started to be digested faster than ever... There was even something shining seven colors in his Jing and Mai.

“Was that... not a dream?” Ye Xiao murmured.

Suddenly, he remembered the words from the man.

He didn't think of the words earlier, but now he did. The words kept ringing inside his head, shocking his soul like bolts of lightning!

It was washing his soul.

“The greatness is in the heart!”

“Everything comes from your heart! The heart creates everything; the heart contains the firmament!”

“The stronger heart you have, the further you go.”

“Young man, how strong is your heart?”

Ye Xiao murmured, lost in thoughts, “How strong is my heart?”

There seemed to be a blurred door in front of him, which seemed insubstantial, but was actually real. As long as he could break the door, he could get through the door and reach the greatness!

His own greatness!

The key was his heart.

How strong was his heart?

“It wasn’t a dream...” Ye Xiao took a breath.

“Meow...” Erhuo lost its patience, waving its paws and jumping up and down, shaking its long tail like a spinning fan. Apparently, it was extremely curious about Ye Xiao’s dream. ‘What was that? Talk to me already...’

Ye Xiao frowned and tried to describe everything in the dream, “I had a dream... It was a dream, but perhaps it was not...”

“Meow... Meow meow meow!” Erhuo seemed to be emotional, waving its paws, ‘Impossible! That was impossible! Even the one who created the world wasn’t able to do that!’

Ye Xiao’s lips twisted. He thought, [The dream must be real. I am well now. Erhuo said that the person who created the world couldn’t do this. Doesn’t it mean... that the man I met... was the most powerful person in the universe?]

...

Ye Xiao jumped up from the ground and reached his hands out. He was shocked! He remembered that his both hands were gone! Now they were unharmed!

There were even no scars on the hands...

Then he was eased. If the man in his dream was powerful enough to save his hands like this, that colorful power in his Jing and Mai must be marvelous!

When he focused on the colorful power again, he found that the power was running inside his Jing and Mai. The power stayed as a whole, cleaning the impurity inside his body while digesting the energy from the inner core of the fish!

Ye Xiao’s body was supported by the East-rising Purple Qi and many treasures, but there were lots of impure materials that were left by the dan beads!

People thought that supreme dan wouldn’t leave impurity in one’s body, but actually, it did. However, it only caused a tiny bit. It was already a great fortune for ordinary people to get one supreme dan bead. Even Master Bai, Ling Wuxie, Wan and Xiu were surprised by the supreme dan beads of Ye Xiao. Ye Xiao had hundreds of them and often took them out and chewed them like they were beans. It was quite a waste. Whoever knew the value of the dan beads would want to kill him with a smack!

The impure thing from supreme dan was deadly. The gathering of all the impure things from tons of supreme dan beads became an extreme poison. It might not cause any harm in a short time, but sooner or later it would!

However, the colorful power was running over his body and cleaning all the impure things inside his body, including his veins, Jing and Mai. He had taken so many supreme dan beads that a big amount of impure remains were left in his body. Now they were disappearing bit by bit...

Ye Xiao felt so good about it. He hadn't felt better ever.

It was so comfortable... [This is so f*cking good!]

He was excited, stretching his arms, kicking his feet, suddenly made a somersault in the air.

Erhuo was shocked. [What the hell is wrong with my stupid master? Is he a real moron now?]

"Erhuo, how long has it been since I passed out?"

"Not long enough... Only one and half a day!"

Ye Xiao's eyes shot out the sharp lights, while his mouth curled up a vicious smile. "Oh, only one and half a day? What are Wu Fa and Wu Tian doing? Are they still searching outside?"

"Let's go give them a surprise! I am sure it will be unforgettable for them," Ye Xiao said. "Let's go!"

...

He had no idea what had happened out there. A great change had occurred!

Wu Fa couldn't believe Ye Xiao could actually disappear in front of him, even leaving no trace behind! [If Ye Xiao were that capable, he wouldn't lose the fight,] He thought.

That was why Wu Fa believed Ye Xiao must have played some camouflaging tricks that they hadn't seen before. He believed Ye Xiao hadn't gone far.

[He must still be here!]

Chapter 1312: Frenzied

Wu Fa and Wu Tian, the twin brothers, had been taking dan beads and searching for Ye Xiao within thousands of miles at the same time!

All the mountains that they had reached were broken into pieces!

All the plants were destroyed into ruins!

The land within three thousand miles had become a flat land.

Beneath the feet, it was all dust.

The entire area was dry and full of dust.

They were totally frenzied when searching for Ye Xiao.

"Brother, there is a clan in this place... Do you think it is possible that they have helped to hide Ye Xiao?"

"Say no more! Sweep it off!"

"Brother, there are quite a lot of people living within three thousand miles... It is a bit tricky to..."

“Tricky how? Kill them all! Destroy everything! Crash everything! Dig down ten meters! Search every corner! I don’t care what it takes! Just kill all living things in this area if it needs to be done! I have to find him and kill him!” Wu Fa’s eyes were full of viciousness and cruelty.

The two invincibly powerful men, who were also atrocious killers, killed tens of thousands of innocent people within one and half a day!

Even so, they still didn’t give up.

They kept killing on.

Wu Fa’s mind was occupied by one thought, [Find him and kill him!]

He actually did everything it took for it.

Yet because of his thought, lots of people died in their hands. The murderers didn’t feel anything at all.

“They are just like ants!”

“Why pity them?”

...

“Brother, a village over there...” Wu Tian was totally lost in the killing.

“Let’s go.” Wu Fa’s vicious eyes shined the glow of dark.

The two of them rushed over to the village, which was located behind a hill.

It was a small village, which was quiet and harmonious, with cooking smoke rising up from the chimneys.

The people had heard about some strange changes around the area recently, but they believed it was the battle between gods, not mortals like them...

However, their only choice was to accept whatever the cultivators would do to them.

The sound of the fight had disappeared. They thought the battle was over. That was why they all came out from their houses for food. After all, food was the most important thing for these people...

However, unexpectedly, the battle hadn’t ended yet. The two cruel murderers were heading over to them!

After a while.

Two dark shadows showed up in the sky over the village, like two demons.

They were staring at the people in the village who were shaking with fear while cooking and working in the fields...

Wu Fa’s eyes were emitting the light of darkness. He said, “Look at them! They must be guilty! Kill them all and search this area!”

“Okay!” Wu Tian excitedly answered.

He then slightly moved forward, shouting, “Die, all of you!”

A huge hand appeared from nothing in the sky.

The hand was covered by floating demonic energy. It was big enough to cover the entire village. The next moment, it started to strike down!

“Wu Tian!” Somebody’s voice sounded from far away, “How dare you!”

Wu Tian laughed, “Finally! You are here! Ye Xiao, these people die because of you! Watch them now!” He didn’t seem to stop, but only fiercely stroke down the huge hand.

The innocent people in the village were going to die soon!

Suddenly, a blinding stream of sword light arrived light a striking bolt of lightning!

Ye Xiao scowled.

He was shocked by what he had seen when he came out of the Boundless Space!

Whatever he saw, including the mountains, forests, were all ruined into a flat piece of waste. The towns and villages were entirely destroyed too.

The entire land was soaked in blood!

What he could see was all the redness of blood!

The twin brothers had actually killed so many innocent people!

The world’s best, the most powerful cultivator in the world, was actually a frenzied pair of twin brothers! That was insufferable!

When he saw the misery, he nearly passed out because of the extreme fury.

As Xiao Monarch or as young Lord Ye, he never wanted to be a great man, but he was a good person. He had done some heroic things before, but he wouldn’t help everybody he saw. He was never a knight.

However, he couldn’t accept what Wu Fa had done! Wu Fa had been the world’s most powerful figure for many years! He shouldn’t do such unacceptable thing!

That was entirely against his fame!

Ye Xiao felt that his blood was boiling inside his vein. At any risk, he speeded up and came over. While he saw the twin brothers, Wu Tian was about to kill more innocent people. Ye Xiao shouted angrily. Although he was still far away, he didn’t hesitate to make a strike!

He was done talking.

Talking to two unforgivable beasts in human clothing was useless!

Wu Fa was standing in the air with both hands behind the back, watching Ye Xiao. A thought could be read in his eyes, [Here you are, finally!]

[Don’t ever think you can get away this time!]

[You won’t recover even if I give you one year to, let alone one day and a half!]

[Well, it appears you have some special medicines that grew your hands out. So what? Do you think you can fight as you did earlier?]

[Ye Xiao, you are a dead man now!]

[You are not ruthless enough! How could you do this for a group of ants? You should be merciless! You are bound to die in my hands!]

“Kill!”

“Kill!”

Wu Tian and Ye Xiao both shouted.

Wu Tian shouted at the innocent people, while Ye Xiao shouted at Wu Tian!

Ye Xiao’s sword light crossed the sky like a shooting sky, arriving like a bolt of lightning!

Wu Tian’s palm strike was like a huge net that covered the entire place, striking down from high in the sky.

Ye Xiao’s sword strike was more like a tray holding up from under!

Ye Xiao and his sword had become one stream of shooting light, breaking the limitation of time and space.

In Wu Tian’s stunned eyes, a magnificent light suddenly exploded under his palm.

It was too late to realize the stunning attack. The palm and the sword light had crashed in the air!

– Boom! –

Chapter 1313: Attack with the Extreme Hatred

The two impactful powers crashed in the sky. An invisible blast wave spread out to all directions like a ripple.

In the sky over the small village, a storm suddenly arrived, which was able to blast away the lights of the sun, the moon, and the stars.

Suddenly, the sound of cracking the air rang up. All the trees were chopped at the same height and flew far away. The blast was so powerful that half of the houses in the village collapsed.

Moaning and screech filled the village.

Ye Xiao had done his best to guard against the attack from Wu Tian, but the palm attack effected in a huge range. Besides, Ye Xiao made the strike in a hurry. Well, even if he didn’t, he still couldn’t stop the huge-range attack. The blast from the crash of the two significant powers would still make a great impact on the people down in the village. Human power was limited. There was nothing more Ye Xiao could do.

The blast destroyed lots of trees and houses, also injured lots of people.

Cries and moans were everywhere. Many people were hit by the fall walls and died.

Wu Tian laughed, "Ye Xiao, that was fast, but there is nothing you can do!"

Ye Xiao's eyes turned completely red.

"Wu Fa, Wu Tian, you sick bastards! The battle is among cultivators! Why get these innocent people involved? Why did you kill these people gratuitously?" Ye Xiao felt like his heart was bleeding inside when he saw the misery on the land.

Those were all innocent people.

They were ordinary people, who had nothing to do with the martial world.

They knew nothing about the martial world. All they wanted was to live their lives in peace. None of them knew how to cultivate, nor to master martial arts.

They purely lived their lives in happiness.

That was all!

Yet a disaster came from nowhere. The two monsters slaughtered them for no reason!

This small village was not the only one. During the time when Ye Xiao was missing, many of the same villages encountered the misfortune!

Tens of thousands of people died!

Wu Fa and Wu Tian killed tens of thousands of people.

Those people had no idea what was going on when they died.

They died for nothing...

"They are ants!" Wu Fa indifferently looked at Ye Xiao, "Ye Xiao, do you think I want to kill them? Their souls contain piteously little energy that I don't even want to absorb!"

Ye Xiao took a deep breath and suddenly calmed down.

His eyes stared at the twin brothers with the fury which was going to burn them alive.

He didn't want to talk anymore.

It was a disgrace to talk to such kind of people!

The only thing to do was to kill them!

"Ye Xiao, are you angry? Are you aflame with indignation now? Do you think you are a sage? Are you going to redress the injustice for these ants? Are you going to claim the moral high ground now? Do you really think you can?"

Wu Tian sneered, "Come on. They wouldn't die if not for you! Don't play this."

“If you didn’t cowardly hide away, why would we kill these people? What could we get from killing them? The only thing we wanted was to find you!” Wu Fa coldly added, “You care only about your own life, not theirs! Now you showed up and talked like a sage. Don’t you think you are ridiculous? No. You are disgusting!”

He just couldn’t stop.

What he wanted was simply to irritate Ye Xiao. He realized Ye Xiao had recovered from the injuries when Ye Xiao made the sword attack. He knew that it was not easy to defeat Ye Xiao in a fair fight. Since Ye Xiao showed his sympathy to some ordinary people, he decided to make use of such a weakness! That was why he kept trying to irritate Ye Xiao!

However, Ye Xiao actually stayed silent.

The next moment...

Ye Xiao raised his sword and the beautiful sword lights shined upon the sky. The sword lights converged as one stream and rushed over Wu Tian!

Ye Xiao kept his lips pressed together and looked pretty determined.

“Ye Xiao, you and me, only one can leave this place alive!” Wu Fa suddenly flew down from the sky like a falling aerolite, with his dark robe flickering the air like a huge bloodsucking bat.

Ye Xiao looked calm and indifferent. He had hit Wu Tian over three hundred times with the sword light storm.

Only death could stop him now.

Ye Xiao had made up his mind.

[It is an unforgivable crime to let these men live in the world!]

[Either they or I die!]

The raging flame of anger made his attacks hundreds more oppressive. He and his sword were both emitting the scorching white lights as if there was another sun appearing in the sky.

Wu Tian showed a vicious smile, “Good!”

A sword suddenly showed up in his hand. He just rushed toward Ye Xiao without hesitation.

Wu Tian knew that Ye Xiao was cured, but he was sure Ye Xiao was unable to win the fight by one strike, which meant he only needed to stay over the first round of attacks before Wu Fa approached and killed Ye Xiao. Any second mattered in the battle between true powerful figures!

However, what happened was out of Wu Tian’s expectation...

“Move away!” Wu Fa anxiously shouted.

As an excellent cultivator with a pair of sharp eyes, Wu Fa noticed that Ye Xiao had become greatly improved after recovering from the injuries!

Two days earlier, Wu Tian was more potent than Ye Xiao in cultivation, but at present, Ye Xiao was the stronger one instead!

Wu Fa didn't understand. However, he was quite certain that Wu Tian, who was severely injured, was not going to win the fight this time!

However, he was late.

Within a short moment, Ye Xiao and his sword had already crushed Wu Tian.

Hundreds of flows of sword lights crazily slashed Wu Tian.

"You..." Wu Tian exclaimed. As Ye Xiao just arrived, the crazy sword lights had caused a few breaches on the edge of Wu Tian's sword. Wu Tian was staggering in the storm of attacks.

The only thing he could feel at the moment was that he was a small boat floating on the sea under a roaring storm. He was going to fall at any second.

Chapter 1314: Until the Arrival of Death

Wu Tian wasn't as good as Wu Fa at broad outlook. He could never have thought that Ye Xiao would be improved so much. Even though he was wounded, he didn't believe Ye Xiao could surpass him so much!

He was also an expert in cultivator after all, so he didn't dare to wait for Wu Fa anymore. After a weird exclamation, he hurriedly moved backward.

As he flashed, he became a rising wisp of dark smoke.

Ye Xiao was shouting, "Fallen Stars!"

It was the Sword Art of Stars! Ye Xiao was making the most powerful attack he could to let out the extreme energy! In such a close distance, striking out such an overwhelming attack, he was apparently putting up a desperate fight!

He wanted to kill the enemy by one attack!

"I dare you! Ye Xiao!" Wu Fa was behind him, making an extremely oppressing palm attack ahead on Ye Xiao before he got any closer.

Wu Tian knew that Ye Xiao would never slow down, so he turned into a cloud of dark smoke again to fight back. He thought Ye Xiao might slow down a little bit.

It was the best choice he could have made though. As long as he could survive Ye Xiao's sharp attack now, the battle would be turned over as long as Wu Fa arrived!

Ye Xiao coldly humphed and accelerated forward! That seemed thirty percent more powerful!

He was fighting in disregard of everything at the moment, totally ignored Wu Fa, who was right behind him.

He was determined to kill at least one of the twin brothers even if he needed to sacrifice himself!

At the moment, Wu Tian was the best option among the two!

[Wu Tian, I am going to kill you! You are a dead man!]

- Boom! –

Wu Tian's miserable screech sounded up. His sword in hand instantly became ashes. Half of his body had turned into the dark smoke, but the stars sword caught him before he got away.

Hundreds of flows of sword lights cut through his body.

His screech shocked the whole world.

At the same time, Wu Fa's palm attack had arrived. It was like a billion-pound hammer hitting right on Ye Xiao's back. The hit made Ye Xiao spit out a mouthful of blood, and his inner organs were almost torn into pieces.

It was impossible to avoid this attack though. It was the price Ye Xiao paid for the severe injury on Wu Tian. Even though he had already been significantly improved, he didn't have enough spiritual energy to keep himself shielded and perform the Sword Art of Stars at the same time. In fact, it was the most fortunate that he was still alive!

He didn't panic though. Suddenly, a giant golden bell appeared behind him, protected his back.

- Dang, dang, dang... –

Hundreds of palm hits afterward from Wu Fa were all taken by the Golden Soul Bell.

The echoing sound suddenly spread out to the world. People within thousands of miles could all hear it.

Interrupted by the palm attacks, Ye Xiao couldn't have enough time to finish what he started.

The dark smoke flew away.

Wu Tian appeared in a far distance, moaning.

He was totally wrecked at the moment, lost the entire right arm and the left eye. On his thighs, back, and abdomen, there were countless sword wounds. That couldn't be worse.

Over half of his body was destroyed by Ye Xiao's full-fury ultimate attack.

Wu Fa saw the Golden Soul Bell appear and was shocked by how the shield kept Ye Xiao unharmed from his attacks. However, he didn't have time to figure it out. Instead, he moved back to his brother's side like a whirlwind.

"Wu Tian, are you ok?" Wu Fa held Wu Tian's back and poured demonic qi into his body.

Wu Tian moaned and shouted, "Kill him! Kill him! We must kill him!"

"Oh?" Ye Xiao coldly smiled, held the downsized Golden Soul Bell in hand, and blandly said, "What? You are too badly wounded to recover, aren't you? Look at you... So much hate... I even can't bear to watch you suffer. The world's most powerful figure... Oh, wait. The substitute of the world's most powerful figure fails to continue his life. How miserable!"

Wu Tian shouted out in the voice of a beast, "Ye Xiao, you won't die in peace!"

Wu Fa had lost hope on it when he started to pour the demonic qi into Wu Tian's body.

Wu Tian was not only severely injured, but definite to die!

Usually, cultivators like Wu Fa, Wu Tian, and Ye Xiao, could always survive any injuries as long as they were still breathing. The undamaged core of their spiritual energy guaranteed their survivals.

However, Wu Tian was in a different situation. He had been hit by Ye Xiao's purple qi earlier and hadn't get rid of the impact. It was the reason why Wu Tian couldn't get himself cured during the two days!

Ye Xiao was so eager to kill Wu Tian, so he performed the Sword Art of Stars in the extreme level, adding the energy of his Tittle Phase. Over three hundred sword attacks all hit Wu Tian and slashed him with the great purple qi. The energy of the purple qi had invaded his Jing and Mai.

To cure his wounds, he had to force the purple qi in his Jing and Mai out thoroughly. However, the most reliable power they had was the demonic energy, which was restrained by the pure energy of the East-rising Purple Qi. Wu Tian had been operating the demonic energy trying to stop the purple qi from going further, yet he failed. In fact, even with Wu Fa's help, the best he could have was to stay alive for a little longer. However, it consumed a lot of Wu Fa's energy.

It was the twin brothers' first time encountering such damage. They never thought that in Qing-Yun Realm, there was actually something that was a bane to their demonic power!

Wu Fa's eyes were wide open because of anger. He shouted at Ye Xiao, "Ye Xiao, you vicious bastard!"

Ye Xiao coldly said, "Vicious? Me? Compared to you two, I feel like I am the most virtuous in the world."

The citizens of the village were still moaning. A woman was crying, holding her son, who died because of the fallen bricks.

Ye Xiao couldn't bear to watch these poor citizens. He stared at Wu Fa and raised up his sword again.

The sword was in his right hand, while the bell in the left hand.

The anger in his chest was driving him to desperation!

Wu Fa and Wu Tian were so determined to kill Ye Xiao. In fact, Ye Xiao had also made up his mind to kill the twin brothers because of the fury!

There was only one thought in Ye Xiao's head at the moment.

Kill the monster brothers!

Chapter 1315: Ge Clan

After another improvement, Ye Xiao could use the Golden Soul Bell at command to resist the attacks. Although he couldn't operate fully the power of the Golden Soul Bell, he could at least use it whenever he wanted to.

Wu Fa flashed and appeared beside Ye Xiao. – Shoot! – He became many phantoms surrounding Ye Xiao, ready to attack. It felt like countless Wu Fa attacking Ye Xiao together.

Ye Xiao made a shout and started to swing his Stars Sword and operate the Golden Soul Bell. The bell could turn large and small at his command, which made it easier to resist most of Wu Fa's attacks. The sword attacks made Wu Fa busy on defending himself.

After all, Wu Fa wasn't in good condition—his arm was chopped off after being poisoned by Ye Xiao's sneak attack. He was still using only one hand.

On the other side, Ye Xiao was even better than earlier, so Wu Fa didn't have any advantage. More unlucky for him, Ye Xiao's two weapons were both rare treasures in the world, a sword that cut through everything and a bell that resisted everything!

Now, facing Ye Xiao, Wu Fa was like a tiger who wanted to eat the sky. There was nothing he could do. Aside from that, he even had to be careful not to get the reverse impact from the energy inside him. If he got hit by the reverse impact, he would also endure the attacks from the Stars Sword and the East-rising Purple Qi. East-rising Purple Qi was the most insufferable thing for him at the moment! Things were in a pretty nasty situation for Wu Fa.

However, Ye Xiao's courage mounted as the battle progressed. The crazy flame of anger was getting him up, boiling his blood. He was fighting in desperation.

- Boom! Boom! –

Wu Fa hit the Golden Soul Bell with a palm strike and took the Stars Sword attack with the other palm strike. A powerful blast hit on Ye Xiao through the sword, and he flew out like a stringless kite.

He was flying backward for over a thousand meters. Wu Fa viciously humphed and dashed forward to catch up. Wu Tian, who was barely in human shape was following up too.

He finally understood why his elder brother worried so much about having Ye Xiao alive.

Ye Xiao was indeed a huge threat to the twin brothers!

If they didn't kill Ye Xiao, they were going to be defeated by Ye Xiao soon in the future...

They had to get Ye Xiao killed as soon as they could!

Aside from that, Wu Tian had another thought. He knew that nobody was able to solve the problematic purple qi in his body except Ye Xiao. He wanted to capture Ye Xiao and force him to solve the problem!

Wu Fa and Ye Xiao kept fighting while flying in the sky. Within a short time, they had gone a thousand miles far.

In fact, Ye Xiao was indefectible with the Golden Soul Bell. When he got hit by Wu Fa, he was on purpose—he wanted to move the battle farther away to the mountains, where nobody lived.

After all, this battle was going to destroy quite a piece of land for sure!

In the sky, bolts of lightning were striking again and again.

The huge sound had drawn many people's attention. Many figures were fleeing over from far away.

Everybody knew that it must be a fight between some super-level cultivators.

However, who on earth could make such a noise to the world?

People were all curious.

Curiosity kills. What a simple truth!

Over seventeen hundred miles away, there was a powerful clan. They were the closest to the fight.

Ge Clan was one of the nine great clans in Qing-Yun Realm, which meant they had a lot of superior cultivators in the house. Although they were not powerful like Xuan Bing or Wu Fa, several of them were at level nine of Dao Origin Stage.

The great ancestor of Ge Clan had reached the top of level nine, who was powerful enough to be among the best league.

It wasn't easy to reach the top of level nine. As a matter of fact, Han Bingxue used to be only in the beginning phase of level nine! He couldn't have defeated the Great Ancestor Ge!

Such a great clan was definitely one of the dominators in the world.

Compared to Ge Clan, Ye Clan was nothing.

For the recent few years, Ge Clan had been seeking expansion. As the clan grew bigger and bigger, they seemed to seize the highest position in the nine great clans.

That day.

The elders of Ge Clan were sitting together discussing what had been happening. All of them were worried.

The more they knew, the smaller they thought of themselves!

Ge Clan finally realized how weak they were...

"I wonder... who are fighting up there? Three thousand miles... The entire land was destroyed. We are lucky they didn't come over any further, or we will be destroyed as well." Ge Yuanhong, the Clan Chief of the Ge Clan, spoke with a breath of relief.

"That's true... That was close..." An elder wiped the sweat on his forehead, "It was only five thousand miles away from us... If they kept moving toward us, they were going to put us into a ruin..."

"Well, we can't let that happen..." Another elder took a breath and said, "We have never heard that a fight between two men could destroy the land like this. The world is shaking because of them... Our land is shaking even in thousands of miles distance..."

"That is a fight between two ultimate figures in the world." An elderly voice sounded.

The others all stood up humbly, "Great Ancestor."

It was Ge Zhenfeng, the person who built up Ge Clan in the past.

He had been a hermit for decades, but unexpectedly, he actually showed up this time.

He looked skinny and weak, more like a skeleton than a living person.

He casually nodded to the others and sat on a random chair. The others all changed their seats right away, surrounding the old man.

As long as their great ancestor showed up, he must be the center of the entire clan!

Everybody looked at him with respect in the eyes.

"The fight between some great figures..." Ge Zhenfeng raised the eyebrows and started to yearn for the old times. "When the eight great cultivators started a war in the Grey Mount Region, over three thousand miles of the mountain range was destroyed... That's how the Grey Peak Lake came to the world... That year, the war destroyed the mountains and created a huge pit that was deeper than human sight..."

...

Chapter 1316: Onlooker

People of the Ge Clan all took a breath.

"When the three factions fought against the Fierce Blade, Li Wuliang... The world was turned colorless..."

"And then the three factions fought the Xiao Monarch, Ye Xiao... In forty thousand miles... All the clans kept the gate shut, didn't dare to get involved in the battle."

The great ancestor Ge Zhenfeng coughed and blandly said, "Well... According to the sound of the fight... none of the battles in the past could be as significant as this one! The fight is eased for now... It is hard to imagine how powerful they are to make such a stunning sound... I wonder how deep the hatred is between the two sides. Why would they actually fight so desperately? I thought about going out and check on it... Well, what a shame. It is too much beyond my league... I don't think I am able to..."

The others all agreed with their great ancestor. To watch the fight of somebody in a too much higher position in the martial world was to seek for troubles or even death. However, they were surprised by what their great ancestor said.

If the people in the fight were more potent than their great ancestors, they must be super-level cultivators. Cultivators in such levels basically knew the capability of each other, so they usually wouldn't fight with their lives.

It wasn't difficult for such powerful cultivators to decide a winner of a fight, but extremely difficult to end the battle with death.

Maybe one side could put an absolute suppression on the other, but it still paid a lot to kill the other side!

After all, they were in the same range of levels. If one side was pushed to the last moment to death, he or she might perform the most extreme attack with self-sacrifice, which would definitely put an insufferable and incurable strike on the other side.

“This is a battle of life and death between the two super cultivators. There should never be such fight among people like them, yet it just happened!”

Ge Zhenfeng frowned and said, “Yuanhong, send somebody out to investigate. Try to figure out who is fighting around us... Bring back the result of the fight if possible. Hmm... Do not send people at high levels, in case any trouble to be caused!”

“Yes.” Ge Yuanhong respectfully answered.

“One thing is sure...” Ge Zhenfeng sighed and said, “No matter who wins the battle, which of them dies, the world will be shocked...”

He looked worried, “Stay alert on this. I am afraid they are not only super-level cultivators but also as powerful as the prime masters of the two halls and three great palaces... Perhaps more powerful.”

“What? Is it even possible to surpass those people...” The others were shocked again.

They knew that cultivators in the fight must be really powerful, but they couldn’t believe they could be that powerful!

Anyone of them could wipe out Ge Clan alone!

They now understood why their great ancestor told them not to send out people at high levels. If the cultivators in the battle thought that Ge Clan was planning on something, they might attack Ge Clan!

Ge Yuanhong was ready to give an order.

However, when he was going to say something...

– Boom! –

They all felt the earth shaking.

They were all masters in Ge Clan, who were superior cultivators, so they knew that somebody made the land shake. That was why their faces all turned pale.

It was scary...

The sound of thunderclaps was getting louder...

In the sky, bolts of lightning stroke everywhere as if they were going to the end of the world.

– Pang, pang, pang... –

The cups on the table fell down because of the shake.

People in Ge Clan all stood up but had no idea what to do next, just like a bunch of headless flies.

“They are fighting again. Two people!”

Ge Zhenfeng looked solemn, and he smiled bitterly, "So it wasn't finished... Did they agree to take a rest before it restarted again?"

The others were speechless.

Such influential figures in the world could put on an eternal fight without a stop. It was impossible that they needed to rest in the middle of the fight!

The next moment, they all felt something different.

It just didn't stop shaking this time, unlike the previous one. Their world was shaking, more and more drastically, for hundreds of times, thousands of times...

"They are really fighting with their lives. Only death will stop this." Ge Zhenfeng sighed.

The others were all anxious, but also excited, looking at Ge Zhenfeng.

They all knew that it would be beneficial and helpful for them just to watch the fight between such powerful figures.

"It is an opportunity indeed. Whoever has reached level seven of Dao Origin Stage are allowed to watch in a safe distance. Stay alert. Don't be noticed... We can't afford to mess with people like them... An opportunity could lead to a disaster sometimes." Ge Zhenfeng said after thinking for a while.

[They must be so concentrated on their fight that they would very likely ignore us, aren't they?]

[For the future of Ge Clan, for the rise of our clan, we should take the risk.]

People of Ge Clan were all thrilled. Some of them stood up and followed their great ancestor toward the battle.

Far away, they saw dark clouds covering the area of the fight. Silver snakes were striking in the air, making thunderclaps. The mountains around the battle were shaking... Rocks fell off the mountain...

Specks of dust were rising up covering the sky!

They were all shocked.

[Is this... Is this a battle of human?]

[It looks like... two gods or demons fighting in the blurry sky among the fog and clouds.]

What eased their mind was that many people were going the same direction from other paces. It seemed there were a lot of people who had the same plan as Ge Clan people.

The law couldn't be enforced when everyone was an offender. Even if the great cultivators of the fight were irritated, they wouldn't attack all of the onlookers at the same time!

However, they still moved forward in caution.

When they were only hundreds of miles away from the center of the fight, Ge Zhenfeng's face turned dark, and he shouted, "Be careful! Take cover now..."

Chapter 1317: Identities of the Men in the Fight

Whoever could or dared to come to watch the fight must be superior cultivators. People of Ge Clan were alerted by Ge Zhenfeng, so they noticed something wrong as well. The rising and expanding dark clouds moving closer to them at an incomparable speed.

“The battle is moving?” Their faces all turned pale.

If the dark cloud kept moving to the current direction at the same speed, it wouldn’t take long for the battle to arrive at Ge Clan’s place...

There was an expansive forest below them, and Ge Clan was behind them bordering upon the forest. If the battle moved to Ge Clan, Ge Clan would definitely be destroyed.

Was this prosperous clan going to be ruined in such a short time?

“I hope not...” Ge Zhenfeng looked pretty sullen at the moment.

He was a level nine superior cultivator, who was one of the best in the world, but he was so helpless facing the disaster that was going to fall to his own clan! If he took any reckless moves, he would only get himself killed!

That was all!

– Boom! –

What they could do was to hope that the battle wouldn’t destroy their home. At that moment, in the thick layer of clouds, a sword light that was covered by some dense dark qi shot out like a black dragon, cutting the cloud into halves. Meanwhile, another glaring sword light covered by some purple qi shot out to crash the first!

A black dragon and a purple dragon that were both hundreds of miles long hit each other really hard in the sky.

With an explosion sound, the dark clouds were blasted away. The onlookers were all shocked. They felt their hearts were shocked, with their eyes and mouths wide open.

[What if such attacks hit me... or just scratch me...]

They couldn’t dare to imagine more about it, just swallowed briefly.

A dark shadow flew up to the sky fast, covered by a world-striking aura, with a sparkling sword in hand. The hundreds of meters long sword light suddenly became a huge circle of lights. Suddenly, it became like a mountain, falling down fiercely.

When the sword light mountain fell down, a white shadow flew up to the sky as well with a shining sword in hand. His sword lights started to shoot out like waves. In his other hand, there was something shining golden lights.

A black shadow and a white shadow, with each’s incredible power, hit together really hard.

– Shoot! –

After the crash, the black shadow dashed backward in a parabolic curve. The white shadow flew backward directly for about a thousand meters, staggering on the way. It seemed there was blood in the sky...

The onlookers didn't know which of the two figures got hurt so bad.

What drew their attention was that the white shadow got closer to the watching crowd.

When the dark shadow was still flying in the sky, suddenly another black shadow dashed out from somewhere else, also covered by some dark qi, rushing toward the white shadow.

The dark sword light was shining in his hand as if it could cut the sky into halves!

The white shadow was staggering backward, but the white light of his sword shined again. With a sound of metal crashing, the sword was swung out fiercely. The latter dark shadow suddenly flew back in a confounded way with a faint moan.

The onlookers were all trembling after watching that.

Their eyes all nearly popped out of their eye frames.

[A fight like this, such powerful figures, the two of those actually fight against the man?]

[They actually fight against that man together? Even cultivators in such a superior level did such dishonorable thing?]

It was totally against their recognition for the martial world.

The white shadow took a spin and the golden light shined. He actually threw out the bright golden thing in his hand. In the sky, the glaring light turned bigger and bigger, shining the area around it.

Finally, everybody had a clear image of that golden thing—it was a huge bell!

The golden bell was spinning, flying out in the sky. The dark shadow who was still falling down got directly hit by the spinning bell!

Almost at the moment when the bell hit that man, the white shadow laughed and said, "Wu Fa, let me give you a bell that rings the last second of your life!"

[What? A bell rings the last second of your life?]

The onlookers were all surprised.

[Really?]

[Such a great cultivator talks like this?]

However, the name that came out from the white shadow's mouth shocked them a good one.

[Wu Fa!]

[The recognized world's most powerful man, Wu Fa!]

[It is him! The legendary man!]

[No wonder it shocks the entire world!]

[He is as great as the story tells!]

Although they were shocked by knowing it was Wu Fa, they were more confused about what happened.
[Why would Wu Fa need help to fight that man in white clothes?]

[Who is that man in white clothes?]

[The world's most powerful man can't defeat him alone...]

[Wu Fa needs help to fight that man! Who is he?]

They were extremely shocked at the moment. They just couldn't understand why even Wu Fa needed help to fight the man in white clothes. In fact, it appeared Wu Fa was losing... They all wanted to know who the man was!

They couldn't even think about how powerful this man was.

What was his cultivation level? What position should he take in the martial world?

Since when such a world-shaking superior figure appeared in the Qing-Yun Realm?

In fact, it didn't take long for them to get the answer!

– Boom! –

Wu Fa got crashed by the bell. The sound was like a ringing bell of a god from upon the highest sky! The bell didn't get broken, just spinning back to the white-clothed man's hand. He just grabbed it casually, and the bell just disappeared.

However, Wu Fa was hit away to the sky again. Before touching the floor, he viciously shouted, "Ye Xiao... Xiao Monarch... You are never able to put an end to my life!"

After that, he suddenly turned into over a dozen figures and flew forward to reach Ye Xiao from different directions.

The other black shadow shouted at the same time, "Ye Xiao, today is the day of your death! Accept your fate!"

Then he rushed forward crazily before finished talking.

[Ye Xiao!]

[Xiao Monarch!]

[Xiao Monarch, Ye Xiao!]

The thousands of people, who had heard it, had the same reaction—transfixed!

Chapter 1318: Kill Wu Tian

[How is this possible?]

[How could he be Xiao Monarch Ye Xiao?]

[It is actually Xiao Monarch, who has been known thoroughly dead! Is it really Ye Xiao fighting against Wu Fa now?]

[Isn't he dead?]

Indeed, if Xiao Monarch were this powerful, the three factions would never mess with him. Even the world's most powerful man Wu Fa couldn't fight him alone. How did the three factions dare to mess with him?

However, nobody could question the identity of the man in white clothes anymore!

Even though the whole world knew about Xiao Monarch's death, Wu Fa just told everybody the white-clothed man was exactly Ye Xiao!

How could Wu Fa, who had been the best for five thousand years make such a foolish mistake?

"World of Lawless!" Wu Fa shouted.

Suddenly, the world was filled by dark fog, which appeared as many long tentacles crawling to all directions.

There must be tens of millions of them.

Ye Xiao also made a sharp exclamation, but then he flashed. It was only shorter than a second, but it felt like he had already flown over thousands of mountains and rivers.

"One step cross over the world; one laugh upon all heroes!"

Xiao Monarch was spinning fast with all the sharp sword lights around him shooting out. As the shooting sword lights piled up, it became a huge mountain that connected the sky and the earth!

The sword light mountain fiercely rivaled Wu Fa's World of Lawless.

Meanwhile, the golden light started to shine again. That secret golden bell reappeared. This time, it was about one hundred meters wide. As the golden bell appeared, Xiao Monarch was lost behind it...

– Boom, boom, boom, boom... –

"Ye Xiao! You impudent!" Wu Fa's angry voice sounded from the dark fog in the sky with a moan.

A white shadow was flickering inside the golden lights. As Ye Xiao appeared, he dashed to the other dark shadow and sneered, "Me? Impudent? Says who? Wu Tian, if you can survive this, I should name myself after you!"

The white shadow flashed and then appeared in front of Wu Tian. He moved so fast that it felt like he had broken the limitation of time and space. The next moment, the sword light exploded fiercely, created something that covered the entire sky including the sun!

It was a full sky of stars!

That was right! Stars!

The sky became dark, and the stars were shining everywhere!

The stars were spinning, gathering over toward the same spot!

Ye Xiao had kept Wu Fa away by the Golden Soul Bell, and turned to Wu Tian to make his counterattack! It was quite a sharp counterattack!

He had put Wu Tian completely under his boundless sword lights!

People who saw what happened all widely opened their eyes, frightened and shocked.

In the sky, the dark shadow was surrounded by the beautiful starlights. In waves, a vibration spread away...

On the other side, Wu Fa was rushing as fast as he could, but the bell kept hitting him again and again, blocking his way ahead. There was nothing else he could do...

All the onlookers held their breath...

Though they couldn't see through the starlights, they all waited for the result of what was happening in the lights...

It wouldn't take long for the end...

"Ah..." A shrill cry sounded shakily from inside the surrounding of the stars. It was extremely deplorable.

The next moment, a huge piece of the dark cloud in the sky was swept...

At least one-third of the clouds were gone.

The thunder and lightning were reduced one third as well...

The stars were disappearing. The white shadow flashed and flew up to the sky again. Ye Xiao's white clothes were stained by the blood.

The man in black clothes was gone...

He disappeared!

There was no trace of him left in this world.

All the onlookers felt like their hearts were stricken when they saw it!

It was done.

That man in dark clothes was dead.

They didn't know his name, but they knew he must be strong. He was not as good as Wu Fa or Xiao Monarch, but as Wu Fa's man, he must be a powerful cultivator too!

The dark clouds were reduced one third, as well as the lightning and thunder, which meant the three of them were at the same level!

They were all super powerful figures in Qing-Yun Realm!

However, he was killed by Xiao Monarch, even though he was on Wu Fa's side! He died both physically and spiritually!

All the onlookers were blank, shocked by the truth.

[Xiao Monarch...]

[The man who is known to be dead since three years ago... A legend in the world... unexpectedly, showed up in front of the public and wrote another epic chapter of the legend of him. He alone fought against the joint force of the world's best cultivator and an equally powerful figure...]

[Even though he had to fight against the two powerful rivals, he actually killed one of them!]

[Doesn't it mean... Xiao Monarch is the true most powerful figure in the world?]

[He is undoubtedly the best in the world!]

[Wu Fa's days are gone... Xiao Monarch has taken the place!]

"Oh Brother..." Wu Fa exclaimed sadly. His voice was full of grief and sorrow. His heart was covered by the demonic power, but he still felt pain because of his twin brother's death. He was known as a calm and steady man, but at this moment, under such a grievance, he couldn't hold it anymore.

"Oh, so you would feel sad when he died, wouldn't you?" Ye Xiao watched Wu Fa rushing over like a madman and sneered, "Let me ask you one thing then. When you killed tens of thousands of people with a snap, how did their families feel? All their feelings together must be tens of thousands of times as yours. What do you say?"

Chapter 1319: Wu Fa Went Crazy

"Ye Xiao! You and I will never see the day of peace!" Wu Fa crazily shouted, with his eyes wide open.

"Come on. You told the same joke too many times. A joke becomes boring when it is told too many times. Will you treat me well if I didn't kill your brother? Shut up. It is not funny at all!"

Ye Xiao sneered.

Wu Fa rushed over to Ye Xiao like a madman with the long hairs swaying like water plants under the sea. The extremely dark qi kept emitting from his eyes. The muscle on his shoulder where the arm hadn't grown out yet kept wriggling. The next moment, the arm grew back from nothing.

However, it was thoroughly dark-colored, even the skin!

It was the Great Art of Demon!

He had made a perfect move of the Great Art of Demon.

He didn't want to use such an extreme martial art to have his arm back, because wherever the wound healed, it became dark-colored. It was definitely not human flesh.

He just didn't want any part of his fair skin to become black!

As the most powerful man in the world, he had his pride, which didn't allow any flaw in the appearance!

However, he didn't care anymore!

If he didn't use it now, he might be killed by Xiao Monarch soon, let alone taking revenge for his brother!

Instead of to die, he would rather expose his Great Art of Demon.

He kept pushing his arm out in everything he hadn't tried before. At the same time, under the power of the Great Art of Demon, his qi expanded, and his cultivation was boosted. He was even more powerful than he was before he got injured.

– Boom! –

Ye Xiao with his sword and bell got blasted away and staggeringly moved back thousands of meters. After staggering such a long way, he still couldn't stand firm.

After the improvement, Wu Fa made a fierce strike on Ye Xiao and then rushed into the place where Ye Xiao and Wu Tian had fought. He kept looking around, trying to find his brother's body...

As long as he could find a piece of his brother's body, he could operate the incredible power of regeneration to bring his brother back from death. Wu Tian might become a pure demon, but for Wu Fa, it was better than a dead man!

However... all Wu Fa could find was the smell of blood in the air... and some finely-divided flesh!

Wu Tian's body had become countless pieces after getting hit by Ye Xiao's limit-breaking attack. The biggest piece of flesh was only as big as a peanut bean!

A flash of purple qi was drifting in the air, perishing the tiny pieces of flesh bit by bit. Wu Fa felt sick about it.

Apparently, the purple qi that was created by the East-rising Purple Qi was still searching for the source of the demonic energy.

Under the significant sweep of Ye Xiao's East-rising Purple Qi, Wu Tian was killed, even his soul was gone.

He was both spiritually and physically dead!

Wu Fa raised his head, and some red streaks appeared in his full-black eyes...

“Ye Xiao! You are vicious!” Wu Fa gritted his teeth, with his black robe flickering the air in the strong wind, as if it was saying goodbye to his brother.

“Am I really? No way. I must be the least vicious compared to you brothers.” Ye Xiao coldly said, “You know what. He is a man that never existed! It should be a good thing for you that he died! It is a great fortune to you, me, and the world!”

Ye Xiao wickedly stared at Wu Fa and spoke slowly, “Wu Fa, you two shared the same name for all those years. You know what you have done, how you fooled the world, don’t you? Now your brother is gone. You are alone now. Do you feel lonely?”

Wu Fa gritted the teeth and said, “So what?”

Lonely...

As he heard the word, he felt a chill in his heart.

For so many years, he had been living with his brother together in the world, looking down upon all the others. Now his brother was gone...

[Will I feel lonely?]

[Ye Xiao, did you ask me if I will feel lonely?]

The hatred in his chest was driving him crazy.

The demonic power was rising inside him, so his power was enhanced again!

“It seems you do feel lonely. Well, I guess there is one thing I can do for you. I shall send you to hell to meet your brother!” Ye Xiao coldly smiled and his Stars Sword shined again. “Wu Fa, come on. Let me send you to your brother. It must be so good to have you two together walking the path to hell!”

The glaring lights shined again, covered the sky and earth.

Wu Fa shouted angrily and suddenly exploded into a big cloud of dark fog. This time, he wouldn’t hold back any power he could use to attack Ye Xiao in the most vicious way!

The demon’s art!

Wu Fa was already lost in it.

The fully-demonized Wu Fa was enhanced thirty percent because at this moment, he was not a human being anymore. Instead, he was a demon. The demonic energy had infected his qi, his martial art, his mind, and his heart. He was completely a demon!

He was now a demon who had lost the only family he had!

He was a demon that only pursued revenge!

The stars in the sky suddenly lit up and then became starlights splashing away. Ye Xiao actually put the sword away and started to operate East-rising Purple Qi in full power. He poured the energy of the purple qi into the Golden Soul Bell, which made the bell become nearly a thousand meters wide, falling down on Wu Fa!

The joint attack of East-rising Purple Qi and the Golden Soul Bell was not only the accumulation of the two streams of power. It was a bane to the demonic energy and also great protection to Ye Xiao...

Ye Xiao had been a little freaked out since this battle began. He had turned the Golden Soul Tower into Golden Soul Bell forcibly and made it a method to attack rather than only do defense. It seemed well-designed, but he was actually hitting it out at random.

After all, a tower seemed not so tough as a bell...

In fact, he was overcautious about it. Golden Soul Tower of Golden Soul Bell was impossible to break in Qing-Yun Realm.

If Ling Wuxie saw what he did with the Golden Soul Tower, he might pass out because of grief...

Chapter 1320: Ruined Legend

The East-rising Purple Qi was indeed the most powerful martial art in history, and the Golden Soul Bell was indeed the most valuable treasure in Qing-Yun Realm. The two things together, even though in a random way, perfectly suppressed the fully demonized Wu Fa!

[You are fully demonized. You are enhanced. So what? I have an incredible martial art and a great treasure! That's why I am going to wreck you!]

What Ye Xiao said earlier had aroused a great disturbance among the crowd though!

[What? That man was Wu Fa's brother?]

[Wu Fa has a brother? Another superior cultivator?]

[They shared one name for all those years?]

[They did something to fool the world?]

It wasn't necessary to explain more about it. When they thought about the stories about Wu Fa, everything was clearly explained. They all got to know the truth behind the legend of Wu Fa!

At the moment, they all looked pretty weird.

Nobody wanted to admit being fooled, even though they were fooled by the recognized world's most powerful man!

[You are indeed a potent figure in the world, but you shouldn't have fooled us around!]

[It is unforgivable!]

What they were watching now was Xiao Monarch, who was wearing white clothes, moving his huge golden bell that was as big as a small mountain to smash Wu Fa fiercely.

Wu Fa would hit the bell from time to time and made the blast that blew away the dark clouds in the sky.

– Dang, dang, dang... –

The sound almost broke people's eardrum.

However, nobody complained anything about it, because they all knew that it was a battle of some god-like cultivators!

Perhaps Ye Xiao became the righteous side in the fight because he revealed the ugly truth about Wu Fa.

It was a fight between the man in white and the man in black. Wu Fa was covered by the horrible aura of darkness. He was just like a demon in the world. Xiao Monarch was wearing white clothes, surrounded by the rising purple qi and the golden light. It was easy and reasonable to think of Wu Fa as the evil one!

After watching the fight, they all had their own judgment now.

[Well, it seems the world's most powerful cultivator... isn't really as good as people always say. The two brothers together didn't defeat Xiao Monarch. Now one of them is dead. Wu Fa is totally losing it here. I guess the evil will always lose!]

The sound of the blasting fight was ringing in the sky. The onlookers were all hiding in the forest, watching the epic battle...

Finally, a sound of explosion...

Wu Fa and Ye Xiao both moved backward. Ye Xiao felt like the spiritual energy in his Jing and Mai were exploding out of his body. He seemed to feel heavy because of the wounds, but the spiritual power was rising and boiling inside him.

Wu Fa had been enhanced by the demonic energy but also got severely suppressed by the East-rising Purple Qi. It activated the automatic performance of the East-rising Purple Qi inside Ye Xiao. The energy from the core of the Golden-scale Dragon Fish in his Jing and Mai was turned into some impactive spiritual energy. Inside Ye Xiao's dantian, it was like a pot of boiling water... All those energies were running in...

The spiritual purple qi from the Boundless Space also kept entering Ye Xiao's Jing and Mai at the same time...

Ye Xiao had used the Golden Soul Bell to attack, but it didn't mean it stopped offering the incredible protection. That was why Ye Xiao had been overwhelming in the fight.

After making the continual crazy attacks for some time, Wu Fa had consumed lots of his demonic energy. He started to feel tired. The dark face of him was turning pale. Ye Xiao was winning it.

At first, Wu Fa forced Ye Xiao to fight hard. Ye Xiao did it but mainly used the golden bell to block Wu Fa's attacks. It seemed to be a drastic fight between the two of them, but Wu Fa was the one who was making the offense. After the East-rising Purple Qi rose up and the Golden-scale Dragon Fish provided endless spiritual energy, Ye Xiao feared nothing anymore.

After that, it became really a hard fight between the two of them.

Now, Ye Xiao was holding his golden bell to force Wu Fa to fight, but Wu Fa was trying to get away from a hard fight...

It was obvious that Ye Xiao was winning the game.

The onlookers were all shocked and kept their eyes wide open... [Really?]

They surely wanted Ye Xiao to win. After all, they had been fooled by Wu Fa for all those years. Besides, they didn't want an evil man to defeat a righteous person!

Xiao Monarch was shouting, waving the huge Golden Soul Bell, smashing it down on Wu Fa...

– Boom! –

Wu Fa tried to block it but got hit away flying hundreds of meters. Ye Xiao caught up and smashed one more time with the glaring golden bell!

– Boom! –

Wu Fa was hit away hundreds of meters again. He twisted his body to dodge the incoming attacks...

The golden light shined again, and Wu Fa had to face it once again... As expected, he got hit away hundreds of meters...

– Boom! –

– Boom, boom, boom, boom! –

...

Finally, Wu Fa shouted and spat out a mouthful of black blood to the sky. He looked pretty f*cked up, but still yelled, "Ye Xiao, wait and see... You will regret this..."

Ye Xiao raised his golden bell and sneered, "Really? I can make you regret right now! Let's not waste time! It is better you regret! I won't make the wrong choice. Nobody will!"

However, Wu Fa suddenly dashed away and fled.

The world's best, the legend in Qing-Yun Realm, the most powerful cultivator actually fled away from the battle after his companion got killed!

The onlookers were all shocked.

[Is this... Is this really happening?]

[The world's most powerful cultivator... should at least have the dignity to finish a fight! Even if he dies, he will still be a legend in the history! How could he just flee away? He fought together with his brother against Xiao Monarch but escaped in the end! This is unbelievable! It ruins people's recognition! It destroys the legend!]

[This is such a disgrace!]

"Holy f*ck!" Somebody couldn't help swearing.

It must be somebody full of dissatisfaction!

Wu Fa heard it and turned over while crazily dashing to the forest. "Who's there?" Suddenly, with a double-palm strike, a cloud of dark qi shot over to the forest.

...
