Chapter 1351: Real Thought

Ye Xiao said that because he had to. He didn't want to embarrass Jun Yinglian and hurt her feelings or hurt the brotherhood he had with Li Wuliang. What he did was to change a topic to talk to Han Bingxue!

Jun Yinglian sighed and said, "You two are truly some stupid men, especially you, Xiao Xiao. Do you think I am trying to hurt your brother? You underestimate my generousness!"

Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang were both shocked by the way Jun Yinglian talked.

Her voice sounded deep, "Now, the martial world is at a critical time. The world needs your swords... You two, especially Li Wuliang, actually only see the value of the seat of the world's most powerful cultivator. You and your narrow views! Is it a good time to compete for the position of the world's best? Ye Xiao has defeated Wu Fa, which gave the world a message that Ye Xiao replaces Wu Fa! If he stands high and shouts to gather the people together, with the influence you two already have, isn't it the most efficient way to form a battle line against the calamity?"

"You two are actually too stupid to realize that you are surrounded by a huge and powerful group of people.

"Sky Ice Palace, Qiong-Hua Palace, Misty Cloud Palace, Cold Moon Palace, the Black Ride Alliance... the Grey Wolves Group... As long as Ye Xiao calls for support, countless individual cultivators will join us too..."

"Once the war starts, you two will have to play a role in it... Either of you will have to be the leader.

"The war is between the old force and the new force of the Qing-Yun Realm. We represent the old world, and the organization represents the new. We have to win, or we will all die..."

"There won't be two suns in the sky, as there won't be two kings in a kingdom. We will only have one leader, who commands the army. We can't follow two kings... It is the rule of leading... You two may never bother to think about it. I know that you don't care. However, I was once a leader of a sect. I know how important it is. We have to decide which of you will lead us all in the war.

"Ye Xiao has defeated Wu Fa, which means he has the fame of a leader... He is our leader. He is the person whom the old world will have faith in..."

Jun Yinglian looked at Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang, "Listen. No matter who becomes the leader, it only serves the purpose of winning the war. It doesn't mean the leader is better than the other. Brotherhood lives forever in our hearts. The only thing that changes... is only the way people call you."

Ye Xiao stayed quiet for a while and then said, "Well, I don't think this is necessary."

Li Wuliang nodded and said, "Yes, it is important. Look, from now on, you are my big brother... However, I still don't think you are the most powerful... When the war is finished, we should have a good fight and figure out who is the best!"

Ye Xiao smiled and said, "Fine. I see. You just want to get beaten up so bad. I don't think anybody can change your stubbornness."

Li Wuliang laughed and said, "Prime Master Jun is right. I am a man born for battles. I am great at fighting, but I can't do those scheming works."

"Besides..." Li Wuliang suddenly turned serious, staring at Ye Xiao, "Ye Xiao fought against the three factions for me and got killed..."

"He found me after returning to this world, took care of me, cured me, gave me all those dan beads. He is the only reason I can return to my prime and even get improved."

"That is the most valuable thing I ever have, our brotherhood!"

"I don't care who is going to be the leader. Ye Xiao and I are orphans. We don't know our ages... The only thing I know is that we are brothers!"

"We trust each other with our lives."

He sentimentally spoke.

"That's right. No matter what happens, we trust each other with our lives!"

Ye Xiao laughed loudly.

They exchanged a look by eye contact. Apparently, they both agreed with Jun Yinglian, but they also felt speechless about it. Through the eye contact, it seemed they were saying, 'This woman is troublesome. Let's not go against her.'

Jun Yinglian smiled.

She knew that what she said was a bit too pushing. She spoke like she only said those words to serve the good for the world, but she probably wouldn't say those words if Li Wuliang defeated Wu Fa, not Ye Xiao!

No matter what, she only cared for Ye Xiao. As Ye Xiao's woman, she only wanted more for Ye Xiao.

She wanted her man to become great, to become a hero, to become famous...

At this moment, Ye Xiao had all that was required to become the most significant person in the world. As his woman, she had to do everything she could to help him. She wanted Ye Xiao to go farther, fly higher.

Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang didn't really care who was the first and who was the second. Jun Yinglian knew that. However, Li Wuliang wasn't a better option for the seat of the leader. He was powerful and generous, but might not be able to take care of everybody.

Ye Xiao could cover all details with his thoughtfulness.

Li Wuliang might be the strongest, but might not be able to bring all the people together.

In another world, Li Wuliang was a perfect general who could fight the war, but Ye Xiao was a leader who could win a war. Ye Xiao had proved it in Land of Han-Yang.

Besides, after everything was done in Qing-Yun Realm, Ye Xiao needed to take a bunch of people to ascend Human Realm Upon Heavens to create a new era. If he didn't take the position of the leader, things might go wrong someday!

That was why Jun Yinglian had to get it done in such a pushing and slightly unreasonable way. On one hand, she wanted Li Wuliang to focus on fighting the enemy; on the other hand, she wanted Ye Xiao to keep gathering together the people around him, no matter in the Qing-Yun Realm, or in Human Realm Upon Heavens... They must be united.

They must stay united, descend to Human Realm Upon Heavens together, shock the world up there, and rule the realm!

Chapter 1352: Heading to Saint Starlight Sect

Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang were both individual cultivators, who never had been a leader to anybody. Jun Yinglian used to be the Prime Master of Sky Ice Palace for many years. She certainly had a more profound view than the two brothers.

If Ye Nantian and Zuo Wuji were around, they would probably applause for Jun Yinglian!

She was truly broadminded and wise!

In fact, even Jun Yinglian didn't know how this decision was going to have a far-reaching influence on the future. It was going to impact the Human Realm Upon Heavens a lot. She didn't know that what she suggested today would start a legend of Human Realm Upon Heavens!

The Qing-Yun Realm was boiling!

Two pieces of breaking news rose up a riot in the martial world.

The legendary Xiao Monarch who was known dead for years suddenly returned to the world and fought against Wu Fa as he appeared. Wu Fa and his brother fought against Xiao Monarch but ended up having his brother get killed, and himself escape!

The news had aroused a discussion in the martial world.

Some of the people were questioning it; some were only excited; some were praising... People had different kinds of reaction...

When the world was discussing it, another message spread around.

Xiao Monarch, with his good friend Li Wuliang, his woman Jun Yinglian, his friend Han Bingxue, and Yue Shuang and Yue Han, killed all the way up to Saint Sunlight Sect and destroyed the Saint Sunlight Sect in one night!

All the superior cultivators in Saint Sunlight Sect died!

Saint Sunlight Sect, one of the seven great sects, had been removed from the martial world!

It had become nothing but a name in the history!

The martial world was in shock.

One after another, Ye Xiao shocked the world!

The names, Ye Xiao, Li Wuliang, shocked the Qing-Yun Realm.

Everybody was talking about them.

...

However, they didn't know that the heroes were heading to Saint Starlight Sect.

Somewhere else, in the Black Ride Alliance, Shangguan Zhuifeng was giving an order, "All of you, warriors of Black Ride Alliance!

"Head on! Saint Starlight Sect!

"We shall support Xiao Monarch on his revenge!

"After Saint Sunlight Sect, Saint Starlight Sect will become a name in the history!"

As the order was given, the army of Black Ride Alliance started marching ahead on the grassland like a big wide black river, which had risen up the dust in hundreds of miles. With the will of fighting till the end, they were marching toward the Saint Starlight Sect.

"Destroy Saint Starlight Sect!"

In another direction.

In a valley.

A man who was covered in the aura of killing stood on a high position, staring far with his green eyes like a wolf.

"Is Boss still alive? Is he back?"

"Is my Boss going to take revenge now!"

"I didn't have the luck to join you in the fight against Saint Sunlight Sect! But I won't miss this!"

"Guys, follow me! Let's ruin Saint Starlight Sect down on our feet!"

"Ahowoo..."

"Ahowoo..."

"Ruin Saint Starlight Sect!"

These people who were gathering under where the tough man stood all had a tattoo of a wolf head on the shoulder. Everyone looked fierce and murderous.

“Let’s go!”

The tough man was Cang Gulang. With a long howl to the sky, he rushed out first and moved fast on the trees.

“Ahowooo... Destroy them!”

“Ahoow... Kill!”

Thousands of ‘wolves’ under Cang Gulang’s command, howling, rushed out like a tide.

...

In Qiong-Hua Palace, the Moon Queen stood up from the chair and gave an order, “Four elders guard the palace. All the others who were over level five of Dao Origin Stage follow me out.”

In her pretty eyes, there were some strange lights glowing. She spoke in a low voice, “Xiao Monarch... He defeated Wu Fa, which means he is capable of taking revenge secretly. He doesn’t need to let the information spread. If I am right, he must be planning on something else. I think he wants to gather all the forces in the martial world for another purpose...

“When he is done with Saint Sunlight Sect, the mass gathering much be done too. That will be the moment when he starts to turn the sword to the secret organization... This is important. It concerns the future of the world. We, Qiong-Hua Palace will never stand away to that!”

As she gave the order, hundreds of superior cultivators in Qiong-Hua Palace all were ready to go, who were all wearing long and beautiful clothes, together like a big cloud.

In Sky Ice Palace, three hundred ladies were wearing white and simple clothes, walking out the door.

“Prime Master is fighting the battle. How can we just sit here? All superior cultivators in Sky Ice Palace, move!”

“Go support our beloved Prime Master!”

“We must let the world know that the ladies in Sky Ice Palace are all hot-blooded.”

Suddenly, the world was in chaos. People all had risen their weapons.

...

Somewhere on top of a high mountain.

A man in black clothes was hiding behind a cloud of dark fog. The wild wind was howling but didn’t blow away the dark fog. He just stood there, as if he had connected the mountain and the sky.

There was a jade token in his hand, which glowed weird gloss.

It kept blinking, which meant a lot of information kept being received to the token.

The man in black didn't move but had already read the messages in his head.

After a while, the man humphed and said, "We haven't done anything serious yet. The world actually turned into chaos already. Hopeless losers... Xiao Monarch's appearance is unexpected, but he is an individual cultivator. He doesn't belong to any force in the old world..."

He thought for a while and murmured, "Is he really that powerful? Xiao Monarch, Ye Xiao."

After a while, he clapped slightly.

Another dark shadow appeared around him like a ghost.

"How is everything going?" The man in black asked.

"Nothing much changed." The dark shadow sounded pretty distant and weird, "As the Sima Clan died, the martial world is in a mess. Ye Xiao's people kept spreading the news to buy themselves more influence in the world. However, people never change. They only liked to watch, not to help..."

"It is quite a good show though." The black shadow said.

"What forces have moved?" The man in black clothes coldly asked.

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1353: Let Them All Out

"Misty Cloud Palace moved. Qiong-Hua Palace moved. Sky Ice Palace too. Ice Cloud Palace hasn't moved yet, but they were gathering up... The Black Ride Alliance and the Grey Wolves Group both were moving... They were connected to Xiao Monarch. It is predictable that they would go to help him..."

The dark shadow kept reporting, "Other than that, those great clans in Qing-Yung Realm all started to reach each other. I guess they were scared..."

"Saint Sunlight Sect is done. Saint Starlight Sect is going to be ruined soon..."

"Only Cold Moon Palace could be safe. Ye Xiao was a disciple of Cold Moon Palace after all when he was Ye Chongxiao. They have a pretty good relationship. I guess Cold Moon Palace was forgiven. They are also gathering up, which means they are gathering to guard against us.

"The rest of the powerful forces in the Qing-Yun Realm... Only the East Hall stayed still. Nothing changed... The other influential forces all have been doing something. We don't know what they will exactly do yet, but I am sure they are alert."

The black shadow talked humbly, told everything he knew about the current situation.

The man in black clothes nodded and said, "Is Wu Fa back?"

The black shadow answered, "Yes, he is having the treatment... Wu Tian is dead."

The man in black didn't continue the conversation.

After a while, still staring at the fogs over the mountain range, suddenly he said, "Wu Tian died. Wu Fa got seriously wounded... Is Ye Xiao really that powerful?"

The black shadow hesitated and said, "I don't think it could be fake. Do you want me to go and check?"

"Hmm. Sounds good. Always know your enemy's capability." The man in black said, "I have a feeling that Wu Fa's wounds must be weirdly different..."

"Now that things are different, should we make an adjustment to the plan?" The black shadow said.

"Hmm. How many more blood souls do we need?" The man in black asked blandly.

"We have enough blood souls to fill one altar already." The black shadow said, "In another word, we need... less than one billion blood souls from cultivators."

The man in black sighed and said, "The cultivators' blood souls..."

He paused for a while and continued, "We keep the main plan unchanged. Build the second blood soul altar as soon as possible. Once it is done, we wipe out the great clans from south to north. Sweep them off."

"Kill those who stop us, and get their soul into the Blood Soul Pool."

"Yes, we will!"

"Tell whoever is in the Blood Soul Hall, build the altar as soon as possible. Just go kill some lives if they need more! Time is passing! We don't have time to waste!"

"Yes!"

The man's shape eyes contained the scene of the crossing bolts of lightning. Besides, from the eyes, it could be seen that he was a cold-blooded and cruel person.

It seemed all cultivators in Qing-Yun Realm were stones that he could just use to build the altar. Nothing more.

"Tell the guardian of the Killing Hall to come to see me."

"Yes, master. After passing the orders, I will leave for Ye Xiao. What else do you want me to do, master?"

"One thing." The man in black clothes said, "You are going to test him, not to fight him with your life... Do you understand the difference?"

"Yes, I do."

The black shadow started twisting and then disappeared, as weirdly as he appeared.

The man in black clothes was still standing in the same spot as if he had been standing there for his whole life.

His eyes kept staring far away in the clouds and fogs. Deep in his eyes, there was only the color of dead grey. Nobody knew what he was thinking, nor what he was watching.

After a while, another black shadow which was a bit fat rushed up to the top of the mountain and said, "Master."

"Now, how many people do we have that can fight?" The man in black didn't turn over, just asked blandly.

"About two hundred thousand men around the world, being trained in our training bases..." The fat shadow said, "They are all about level three or four of Dream Origin Stage. Some of them can reach level nine of Dream Origin Stage... About three hundred Dao Origin Stage cultivators among them."

The man in black clothes blandly said, "Get them out. Get them all out now."

"Yes, master." The fat shadow nodded.

"Finally, the day has come, after thousands of years preparation..." The man in black clothes had his black robe flickering the air. He said, "Now we don't have to hide anymore... Don't hesitate to sacrifice our people. I don't care who died, I want everybody's dead body transported back to the Blood Soul Hall. We need to speed up over there."

"Yes, master."

"What if we let the trainers out too?" The man in black said, "How influential can we be?"

The fat shadow seemed sweating. "Master, this is cutting off all means of retreats. Are we going to launch the war?"

"What do you think?" The man in black indifferently said.

"Yes, master. If we get all the trainers out at the same time, we will have thirty thousand more high-level Dream Origin Stage cultivators, seventeen thousand Dao Origin Stage cultivators including four thousand level one, five thousand level two, one thousand level three..."

"No need for the actual number. I don't care." The man in black blandly interrupted, "Now, I just want to know how many people do we have in your department, Killing Hall."

"About... About two thousand." The fat shadow was a bit frightened.

"We need more!" The man in black scolded with a shout.

"Yes, master. It is my fault!" The fat shadow was sweating.

"What about Blood Soul Hall?"

"They have about seven thousand people..."

"Mortal Hall?"

"One thousand..."

"Demon Soul Hall?"

"..."

"Soul Slaying Hall?"

The man in black kept asking, and the fat shadow kept answering in fear. He felt wronged though. [I am the head of Killing Hall, not the others... Why do you have to ask me questions about the other halls?]

At the same time, he was also shocked.

[It seems we are going to start the war!]

[Master has asked me a lot of questions referring to details. Apparently, he wants to activate every possible force to sweep the entire martial world.]

“However, if we let all the young generations out, I am afraid...” The fat shadow was mumbling, “We always kept them behind the enemy’s sight, in case we need them to do anything else...”

The man in black suddenly laughed in a hoarse voice and said, “That was the past! Now everything is different.”

Chapter 1354: Frightened Saint Starlight Sect

“Those rookies. Even if they know something, they only get to know little of us.” The man in black coldly said, “Perhaps they will expose the bases, but that’s all.

“Now it is time we are going to rise up against the whole martial world. Nobody can keep a secret forever anyway.

“If we keep them in the bases only because we don’t want to get exposed, what is the point for feeding them all these years?”

His eyes looked cold, staring at the fat shadow.

“I understand.” The fat shadow lowered his head. The sweat dripped down on his feet from his face.

“Use the rookies in Killing Hall first. Let them out at the same time. I want them to cover every place in Qing-Yun Realm to kill their target. I don’t care how many of them will succeed. Just kill as many of the targets as they can.”

“Yes, master!”

“This time, it will be the first, and the last time Demon’s Palace take a move against the entire Qing-Yun Realm. We have to win.

“For thousands of years, we have been preparing for this last strike. If we can’t dominate the realm, we shall die!

“Tell the Blood Soul Hall that they have to finish the second altar within half a month. I don’t care how they do it! The third altar must be finished within one month too!

“In one month, we will activate the third altar!”

As the man in black gave the orders, the dark clouds in the sky started to roll. Suddenly, he shouted, "I will make the entire Qing-Yun Realm bend in front of me!"

The sky was covered by dark clouds.

It was daytime, yet suddenly became like midnight.

His shout sounded horrible. The clouds in the sky looked just like a giant demon, occupying the entire sky of the world.

The sun and the sky were gone in the darkness!

Ye Xiao and the others were approaching the other sect, Saint Starlight Sect.

The mountain where Saint Starlight Sect was located used to be surrounded by stars and clouds. People could see the stars even in the daytime.

It seemed the stars were shining forever in this place.

However, the Saint Starlight Sect had fallen into chaos.

Saint Sunlight Sect was destroyed within one day!

The two great sects' enemy, Xiao Monarch, Ye Xiao destroyed it with the Fierce Blade, Li Wuliang and the other powerful companions!

The leaders of Saint Sunlight Sect were all in panic.

They hadn't received any good news recently.

Their Prime Master Yun Xiran had gone missing along with a bunch of superior cultivators after they left for the Heaven's Terrace. It was already a disaster for Saint Starlight Sect.

However, that was not the only bad news they had gotten. In fact, having their Prime Master go missing was not the worst.

After all, he was missing, not dead!

What scared them most was what happened after that.

"Xiao Monarch is alive! Fierce Blade is alive! They have both been alive, cheating the three factions. They have been accumulated forces and plan for revenge. Now they are back! They are coming for their revenge!"

It had terrified all the leaders in Saint Starlight Sect to get to know this.

"Xiao Monarch has been cultivating secretly, and now he is much greatly improved!"

"Yue Shuang and Yue Han are Xiao Monarch's sisters! The two ladies said it themselves..."

When Saint Sunlight Sect got the messages, the leaders all felt like passing out because of fear.

[Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang are alive! Yue Shuang and Yue Han are on their side too, which means the Qiong-Hua Palace is on their side too! Jun Yinglian and her Sky Ice Palace, Han Bingxue, Cang Gulang, Shangguan Zhuifeng... the Black Ride Alliance... Do we have the power to even stand on the battle?]

The leaders didn't have faith this time!

Before they knew Saint Sunlight Sect had fallen, they still had hope. The three factions barely fought any powerful enemy alone. They always formed up a joint force. Saint Starlight Sect had the support from Saint Sunlight Sect, and also Cold Moon Palace. They believed Cold Moon Palace would step out to join them as long as they knew it was Xiao Monarch they were going to fight. They believed Ye Xiao couldn't defeat the joint force of the three factions at the same time!

However, after they knew more, they were losing hope bit by bit!

"What? Ye Xiao is Ye Chongxiao? Are you telling me he is the only disciple of the three great elders of Cold Moon Palace?"

"What? Did Cold Moon Palace apologize to Ye Xiao? Did Ye Xiao forgive Cold Moon Palace? Is he still Cold Moon Palace's disciple?"

[What... What is wrong with this? What is it? Cold Moon Palace joined us in the battle against Ye Xiao! Even though they didn't know it before they got to the battle, even though they didn't get any advantage after the fight, he couldn't just forgive them like that, could he? Was it a joke?]

[Fine. Cold Moon Palace is gone, but we still have Saint Sunlight Sect! The two sects of us may not be that powerful, but Xiao Monarch and Li Wuliang are individual cultivators after all. They may get improved a lot, but they are impossible to reach Tittle Phase. Saint Sunlight Sect and Saint Starlight Sect together can operate a one thousand men sword array. We have tens of great elders who are all in the Tittle Phase. We are powerful enough to fight against Wu Fa and Xuan Bing, not to mention Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang!]

Well, they then got disappointed again!

"Xiao Monarch fought against Wu Fa. Wu Fa didn't fight alone. He was with his brother. However, Wu Fa and his brother lost it. His brother got killed in Xiao Monarch's hand, and Wu Fa escaped the battle after severely wounded. Xiao Monarch won the battle and stayed unharmed! He is now the world's most powerful cultivator! He is the new best in the martial world!"

This message was like a bolt of lightning striking down right on the Saint Sunlight Sect and shocked the leaders' hearts.

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1355: Gathering Up

The leaders of Saint Sunlight Sect didn't have time to dream of a way to fight the new world's most powerful cultivator. Another bolt of lightning struck in their hearts.

"Xuan Bing killed lots of people in Saint Sunlight Sect."

After they got the message, Xuan Bing showed up in Saint Starlight Sect and created a mess before Saint Starlight Sect had time to react. Before they cleaned the mess, another piece of bad news arrived.

“A new superior cultivator of Misty Cloud Palace, Wenren Chuchu fought her way up in Saint Sunlight Sect to seek revenge for her master.”

People in Saint Starlight Sect started to wonder, [Who is Wenren Chuchu? Who is her master?]

[Why did she fight Saint Sunlight Sect?]

Before they figured out the answers, they got more unexpected messages.

“Fierce Blade, Li Wuliang showed up in Saint Sunlight Sect with Han Bingxue, Yue Shuang, Yue Han, Jun Yinglian, and started a big fight for revenge.”

“Xiao Monarch showed up afterward. Saint Sunlight Sect is destroyed. Saint Sunlight Sect has become a world in history!”

“Xiao Monarch, Li Wuliang, Yue Shuang, Yue Han, Han Bingxue, Jun Yinglian... are moving toward Saint Starlight Sect, arriving soon...”

The last message was the sign of doom to Saint Starlight Sect!

One could survive the striking lightning, but the Saint Sunlight Sect was never going to survive a fight against those people at the same time!

[How come?]

[Saint Sunlight Sect is a great sect that has been standing in the world for tens of thousands of years...]

[How could it just get destroyed in a few people’s hands? Just like that?]

[Did they even fight back?]

[Saint Sunlight Sect got swept off within half a day! How could Saint Starlight Sect survive that? We are no stronger than Saint Sunlight Sect!]

[We are going to be destroyed soon!]

The Saint Starlight Sect suddenly fell into hopelessness.

The names of Ye Xiao and his people were like murderous blades hanging over people’s heads.

Everybody felt the sharp and approaching killing intent.

Some of them even started to escape. Many superior cultivators began to send their families away...

Countless low-level disciples took leaves by making up all kinds of excuses... Within one day, ten percent of the people in Saint Starlight Sect were gone!

Saint Starlight Sect was a great sect with hundreds of thousands of disciples, which meant tens of thousands of people escaped before the fight!

Low-level disciples fled.

The leaders of the sect didn't stop them.

Some masters even taught their disciples to leave.

"Kid, you have done well in cultivation. How many years since you last went home? Several years, I believe. It is time to go see your parents. Go now. There is no need to come back soon. Just stay home for more days. Resting is one way to improve too!"

"My good disciple, you have been working so hard on cultivation. You must be tired and harmed... Go see some doctors. Stay home for some time. Don't come back before all wounds are healed..."

"Master, I am fine... I didn't get hurt..."

"I mean the wounds that are hidden inside you. You can't see them. Just rest for a few decades..."

"I don't think I ever got..."

"You did..."

"I didn't..."

"Are you serious? Don't you understand human language? I said you did! So you did! Just get the f*ck out of here! Shut your mouth and go!"

...

Fathers and sons had more similar conversations.

"Son, you must go."

"My son, go! Change your name! Do not expose yourself. Don't let anybody know you are a disciple of Saint Starlight Sect... You are the last of our family..."

"..."

The leaders of Saint Sunlight Sect were lost in the smell of death.

When the enemy was so powerful that they couldn't think of any possibility to win the fight, they lost hope, which meant they were lost in the deadly silence!

Saint Sunlight Sect had a much more powerful protective force than Saint Starlight Sect, but Saint Sunlight Sect was defeated by those cultivators! How could Saint Starlight Sect survive the fight?

"It is pointless to say more words. We did that, so now we are paying for what we did. No matter how unbearable the suffering is, we have to take it."

"Our glory is given by the sect. Now, we ought to die with the sect!"

"Saint Sunlight Sect is gone. Cold Moon Palace has been on Xiao Monarch's side. Saint Starlight Sect has to face it alone!"

The elders who had joint the battle against Xiao Monarch all showed their bloodless faces. After the silence, somebody finally stood up and talked.

“What we did was ignoble after all... Death is the way to pay for what we did.”

“Perhaps... there is a way to keep the sect alive.”

The Grey Group arrived at the entrance of the Saint Starlight Sect first. They were waiting for Ye Xiao around the mountain.

A cloud of darkness was approaching from far away with the sound of moving clops.

Shangguan Zhuifeng was leading the entire Black Ride Alliance to move toward Saint Starlight Sect.

They were like a long black dragon howling over.

“Cang Gulang!”

It shouted a thundering voice.

It was Shangguan Zhuifeng, who shocked Cang Gulang, who was standing high.

“Shangguan Zhuifeng, you stupid old man!”

Cang Gulang was standing on the top of a thousand-year-old tree. He jumped up high in the air and looked at the army of black rides with his sharp glowing eyes.

A big and tough man jumped up to the sky too, laughing loudly.

“Finally, today is the day!”

Shangguan Zhuifeng laughed.

Cang Gulang’s face turned red because of excitement. He nodded and said, “Today is the day! That’s right!”

The two of them held their hands and talked excitedly in the sky. They had spirited up all the people in Grey Wolves Group and Black Rides Alliance at the same time.

They just stayed in the air over the entrance of Saint Starlight Sect. Usually, people in Saint Starlight Sect would get furious and rushed out to beat the two arrogant men!

However, none of the Saint Sunlight Sect people dared to show up this time.

Chapter 1356: Come for Revenge

The Saint Starlight Sect was quiet as if none of its people had seen what was happening around them. The two men just audaciously talking over the entrance of the sect, enjoying the conversation like this was the place where they had fun chatting and drinking...

The disciples of Saint Starlight Sect who were leaving didn't dare to leave through the main entrance anymore...

They kept sneaking out the sect through some narrow and devious pathways...

The Grey Wolves Group and the Black Ride Alliance gathered together, became one army, set camps right at the entrance of the Saint Starlight Sect. They had occupied tens of miles long of the road!

As the camps were set, they started to beat the drum of the battlefield.

The atmosphere was immediately filled with the killing intent.

The day passed in the oppressing atmosphere.

At dawn!

In the silence.

A bolt of lightning struck the place.

The entrance of the Saint Starlight Sect was crashed. Broken rocks kept flying up to the sky as if there was an earthquake.

A slim figure of a lady rushed into the Saint Starlight Sect with the up-rising killing intent.

Then it cracked a furious shout...

"Wenren Chuchu of Misty Cloud Palace will take revenge for her master! Saint Starlight Sect, die!"

Sword lights started to shine everywhere.

Wenren Chuchu arrived!

Unexpectedly, nobody of the Saint Starlight Sect showed up to answer the challenge. The entire sect was in silence as if it was a world of death.

Wenren Chuchu kept rushing forward and pierced to the main square of the sect, and nobody actually showed up to stop her.

In the sky.

Ye Xiao and the others had arrived too. They didn't make moves because they wanted to give Wenren Chuchu the time to vent the anger. However, they were also surprised.

[What is wrong? This is unexpected and unbelievable!]

Li Wuliang couldn't endure the curiosity, so he shouted, "People of Saint Starlight Sect, where are you? Are you all dead? Have you all escaped?"

His voice was resounding among the mountains and shocked the rivers.

He was sneering the Saint Sunlight Sect people and smacking right in their faces!

However, nobody answered. It felt like their people had all gone!

Shangguan Zhuifeng was so happy to hear the voice, "Brother Li, is it you?"

Another voice casually sounded, "Wolfy, get in here."

Cang Gulang heard the voice and felt even happier. He nearly shed tears as he was excited, "Brother Ye... It is you... It really is you..."

Cang Gulang and Shangguan Zhuifeng didn't hesitate to give orders. "All of you, my people, rush in! Kill Saint Starlight Sect!"

– Boom... –

"Go, go, go!"

"Run!"

The two armies had become one. Tens of thousand people kept rushing into Saint Starlight Sect like a tide.

However, no matter how many people got through the entrance, nobody showed up to stop them.

The army rushed to the main square, and still nobody appeared.

They were all shocked.

[What is going on? Have they all given up?]

Ye Xiao and the others felt the weirdness, so they all got down and landed on the square, looking around the place.

Wenren Chuchu glanced at Ye Xiao's face and felt sour in the heart. Her eyes looked sad for a while, and then she saw Jun Yinglian beside Ye Xiao.

She bit her lips and lowered her head, trying to cover the envy in her eyes.

[Even if anybody could replace her, it should be my master.]

[Not me.]

Jun Yinglian sensitively noticed Wenren Chuchu's gaze, but when she looked over, Wenren Chuchu had lowered her head already.

Jun Yinglian sighed.

It reminded her the years when she kept following Ye Xiao, but Ye Xiao kept escaping... She still remembered the pain in the heart. She honestly felt sorry for Wenren Chuchu.

[Silly girl!]

[I kept following him, showing my love for him, and it took me all these years to finally be with him. If you keep getting away from her true feelings... you won't get any chance!]

[This man will never stop going up. He is going to ascend Human Realm Upon Heavens. If you don't seize it now, what is left for you will only be regrets!]

Jun Yinglian felt sorry for Wenren Chuchu, but as a woman, she wouldn't be generous to share her man with another woman.

That was why all that she could do was to make a sigh in the heart.

However, she didn't understand Wenren Chuchu.

Wenren Chuchu wasn't shy. She decided not to step forward in this relationship not because Ye Xiao wouldn't accept her.

In fact, if Bing Xinyue was still alive, Wenren Chuchu might still want to do it. She might hesitate, but she wouldn't give it up.

She was a brave and wise woman. She knew that she had to fight for her own happiness, not to wait for it.

A pie in the sky was just a pie; she wanted a true love!

People fell in love for the first sight, but the story of spending an entire life with the love in first sight only existed in books, not in reality!

If Bing Xinyue didn't die, Wenren Chuchu might be even more aggressive than Jun Yinglian!

However, now she had to shut the true feelings off.

Not because she was shy.

Her heart was rolling because of him, and she didn't know what she was thinking.

After knowing the man she loved was the famous Xiao Monarch, she didn't feel disappointed, but only felt more deeply in love.

[He turns out to be the Xiao Monarch.]

[Xiao Monarch is a hero with a cold heart. For a long time, he didn't give an answer to the world's most beautiful lady, Jun Yinglian's courting for love... no matter what she did...]

[He has been escaping it, which makes him look weak. However, it proves him a responsible man. He is not an amorous man...]

[Such man has his own persistence. Even such a gorgeous lady couldn't shake his determination.]

[Such man is the most reliable person for a woman.]

[At least he won't abandon the ladies he accepted.]

It was an important thing for a woman whether her man was responsible or not.

That was why Wenren Chuchu was more in love with him when she knew that he was Xiao Monarch.

Chapter 1357: Question

[Master... Master gave up her life... Master died for me!]

Wenren Chuchu would never do such thing.

How could she be with the man her master loved while her master was dead?

[If I do that, do I even deserve living?]

[No! I can't do that!]

[I will never do such ignoble thing!]

However, she was struggling in pain.

With the pain in her heart, she became more furious about Saint Starlight Sect. Her eagerness of destroying Saint Starlight Sect was rising!

[You killed my master!]

[You ruined my life!]

[You deserve to die!]

[You must die!]

[All of you! Die!]

Standing on the ground in Saint Starlight Sect, she saw Ye Xiao and his handsome face, which she had been charmed with...

She couldn't hold the hate and killing intent in her heart anymore. She was actually desperate for destroying the enemy!

At the moment, some clear sound of sword moves sounded. A group of ladies wearing simple clothes were approaching as if there was a white cloud descending to the world.

The ladies quietly landed behind the others, solemn and full of killing intent.

"Why are you here?" Jun Yinglian was surprised and happy to see the ladies.

They were exactly ladies of Sky Ice Palace.

The leader of the group was the prime elder of Sky Ice Palace. She looked calm, but her eyes looked happy. She looked at Jun Yinglian and tried to stay expressionless on the face but failed. She finally smiled and said, "You are willing to sacrifice your life to support your husband. Do you think we will just stand aside? We are your family!"

"Family!" Jun Yinglian felt warm in the heart, and her eyes turned red. Tears filled her eyelids, and she hurriedly controlled her emotion, smiled and said, "I appreciate it..."

"Of course you do! Hahaha..."

The three ladies from Sky Ice Palace spoke together, “We, disciples of Sky Ice Palace, will stand with our prime master forever! We fight together! We face the world together!”

“Prime Master’s business is our business! Prime Master’s enemy is our enemy!”

“Who dares to mess with our Prime Master, we won’t let them!”

“Not even Xiao Monarch!”

The three ladies spoke at the same time. Their voice wasn’t strong enough to shake the world, but it was pretty shocking. As Jun Yinglian’s family, they all came to support her.

At the same time, they were here to warn Ye Xiao!

[Be nice to our Prime Master, or you will have to prepare for our roar!]

Ye Xiao started to smile bitterly.

Li Wuliang and Han Bingxue looked at each other and found a hilarious smile in each other’s eyes.

They had a simple thought. [Do you think you know everything between the couple? They won’t tell others everything that happens after the bedroom was closed! Not to mess with her? Is it even possible? The battle in a couple’s bedroom is always the most terrible one! They definitely will have some tough fights in their room!]

The two of them kept exchanged looks and felt utterly amused.

Ye Xiao hurriedly expressed his loyalty to Jun Yinglian, “I never want to start a fight against you all... How dare I... I will be nice... I promise...”

The prime elder humphed and said, “Don’t forget what you just said Xiao Monarch. If you dare to break your word... You will know how sharp my sword is!”

Li Wuliang couldn’t hold it anymore, so he laughed and said, “Come on, ladies. You are being too harsh on him... Can’t you just keep it simple? Really? Swords? That rude? Come on... What do you think they will do after they close the door of their bedroom? Do you think they will let you know? Besides... We all know the lady’s terrible temper... Who dares to mess with her? I think, honestly, our brother will be the one who takes disadvantages. Listen to him. ‘I will be nice...’ How humble! How sincere! He expressed the true feeling in his heart!”

“From what just happened, I realized that the ladies in Sky Ice Palace are all...” Li Wuliang didn’t finish it because the ladies all stared at him with sharp eyes.

Jun Yinglian blushed and stared at Li Wuliang angrily.

[He did this because of what I said!]

[Listen to what he just said... I should beat him up really hard!]

However, she couldn’t be rude because she didn’t want to look like a bully!

Han Bingxue was impressed. [People think that Li Wuliang is a straightforward man who will never make schemes. However, I now have seen how he is a narrow-hearted man! Look at him, he didn’t show mercy as he seized the chance to tease Jun Yinglian! I guess I am never going to be the most shameless brother among us all!]

The prime elder of Sky Ice Palace was speechless too. She knew Li Wuliang, who was a big-mouth and simple-minded tough guy. She said, "You are right at some point, but I will only let the monarch decide what they will do. If our prime master feels sad, we don't care whose fault it is... We just can't let her feel bullied."

That was overwhelming, wasn't it?

Very overwhelming!

Super f*cking overwhelming!

People all laughed.

Han Bingxue thought, [You? Really... You are weak... Boss can defeat you all with a fart, I am afraid...]

[You should know your limits, ladies.]

Ye Xiao had used his spiritual mind to cover the entire place. Saint Starlight Sect people didn't all flee. Many of them were hiding around the place and just didn't show up. He didn't understand why.

[We have marched deep into their place, yet they still don't want to show themselves. I guess they must be planning something sneaky. We shouldn't stay too long.]

Ye Xiao made up his mind and shouted, "Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang come for a visit! Whoever in charge of Saint Starlight Sect, are you here?"

Ye Xiao's people had already gathered up, but Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang were the leading figures in this battle, so he only mentioned Li Wuliang and himself.

However, he didn't speak Wenren Chuchu's name.

Chapter 1358: Gratitude and Resentment?

Wenren Chuchu's resentment to Saint Starlight Sect was from the death of her master. She had much more hate than Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang. After all, Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang were still alive, but Bing Xinyue was dead. That was a big difference!

That was why Ye Xiao didn't speak Wenren Chuchu's name. It was inappropriate...

Ye Xiao had just finished speaking, and in the main hall of Saint Sunlight Sect, a wave of bell rings started resounding.

The bell rang eighty-one times!

Countless disciples of Saint Starlight Sect showed up and stood in line.

They were moving in order, but none of them seemed to have the pride of being a disciple of a great sect. In their eyes, there was only fear, hopelessness, and despair.

[Is this it? Is this finally happening?]

When they eventually had to face it, they realized it was much more unendurable to wait. Now, they felt more relaxed.

It was pointless to keep getting away from the problem, so they decided to face it!

Only those who had experienced such a situation understood what it really meant!

The people of Saint Starlight Sect kept moving out in lines, standing in squares.

The square of the sect was broad and wide. They must have spent quite a lot of resources to remove a mountain and build a platform like this. The floor had been polished and became like a mirror.

One hundred thousand people were standing in it, yet it didn't look crowded.

A big amount of people were standing in the square including the Black Ride Alliance, the Grey Wolves Group, the Sky Ice Palace, and all the disciples of Saint Starlight Sect, but there was still a spacious empty place between the two sides.

Over one hundred thousand people standing in the battle, one side to the other.

A forty meters wide passage was between the two parties of this fight.

It drew a line to separate the two parties!

Ye Xiao, Jun Yinglian, Li Wuliang, Han Bingxue, Yue Shuang, Yue Han, and Wenren Chuchu were standing in front of their people. Ye Xiao was in the middle, with Jun Yinglian on the left, Li Wuliang on the right. Han Bingxue stood beside Li Wuliang, while Yue Shuang and Yue Han stood beside Jun Yinglian.

Wenren Chuchu stood beside Yue Han.

Seven supreme cultivators in the world!

Yue Shuang and Yue Han had eaten the fruits on the way to Saint Starlight Sect. They were already extremely powerful cultivators before that, and now they were even more potent. If they had time to cultivate longer and enter Tittle Phase, they should be much more powerful than Jun Yinglian and Han Bingxue!

The two ladies were eager for a big fight after the improvement. They even wanted to fight Wu Fa and kill him as soon as they could!

Ye Xiao believed that he himself would be defeated by the two ladies at the same time unless he used the Golden Soul Bell. It meant the two ladies could definitely defeat Wu Fa. Well, they at least wouldn't be defeated!

The joint force of the two ladies was a bane to Li Wuliang. Li Wuliang had been concentrated in cultivating his impossible-to-miss martial art, which meant he would always choose to have a tough clash with the enemy. The ladies didn't enter Tittle Phase, but as long as they fought together, one of them would always get the chance to attack. Li Wuliang wasn't powerful enough to always deal with the two ladies at the same time, so he wouldn't be able to hold it for one hundred rounds!

Han Bingxue's unique martial art allowed him to survive the attacks of the two ladies. Even though he couldn't defeat the ladies, he wouldn't get himself defeated, either. No matter how powerful the two ladies' attacks were, it meant nothing if the attacks missed!

That was the mutual restraint between two martial arts. Li Wuliang's Tittle Phase skill and Han Bingxue's Tittle Phase skill were at two extremes. As Li Wuliang was restrained by the two ladies, the two ladies were restrained by Han Bingxue!

Well, the two ladies wouldn't be satisfied with it. [Tittle Phase doesn't mean everything, does it?]

[It is only a matter of time that we enter our Tittle Phase. Saint Starlight Sect will be the training target!]

Saint Starlight Sect people slowly stepped to two sides and made way for several old men.

The old men all had white beards. They all looked sullen as they walked out slowly.

The six great elders were leading, while the over ten elders were following.

They all seemed sullen, walking slowly as if their feet were thousands of kilograms weighted. Every step seemed to be difficult.

"Xiao Monarch, Fierce Blade... It has been a long time..." The leading great elder serious spoke with a low voice, "When we got the message saying you two had returned to the world, we knew that it is unpreventable to have this fight. We have been waiting for today!"

Li Wuliang blandly said, "The law of causality. You always pay what you take! No matter how long has it been... you are never going to get away from what you deserve."

The old man nodded and spoke bitterly, "That's right. We can't escape! We will eventually pay for the sin of what we did.

"One can never escape the heaven's will. It is only a matter of time!

"Today, it is our time to pay.

"I am Shen Chongshan, the first great elder of Saint Starlight Sect. I am the oldest among our people, who should have died sooner." He bitterly smiled and said, "I believe I shall get no chance to live any longer. We are never going to escape death today."

Li Wuliang blandly said, "Well, look at you. What a crowd of people you have! Just cut the bullsh*t. Tell me what you want!"

He sounded extremely impatient, and his words echoed sharp and full of killing intent.

"Fierce Blade is indeed a straightforward man. I won't waste time chatting. We are not trying to kill any of you, just to solve the problem that we caused a long time ago!"

Shen Chongshan's face was full of wrinkles and sadness.

“The martial world in Qing-Yun Realm is a world of nature rule. Who has the bigger fists represents the law. What we did was too much, but if you died... I mean if you died for real... nobody would care what we had done. As time went by, we would be alright.

“What would remain must be the fame of Saint Starlight Sect who had once killed two supreme cultivators in the world.”

Chapter 1359: Step Forward

"It may sound discomfoting, but it is only worse. Saint Starlight Sect has done a lot of things. In the hundreds of thousands of years in the history, countless individual cultivators died because of Saint Starlight Sect's authority!"

Shen Chongshan blandly smiled and said, "Xiao Monarch, Fierce Blade, am I right? I am not making it up, am I?"

Ye Xiao was silent for a while and then answered blandly, "It is true!"

It was.

Shen Chongshan was telling the truth of the martial world in Qing-Yun Realm.

It wasn't pleasant, but it was the reality!

The reality was cruel. People didn't want to accept it, but the world wouldn't care if anybody accepted it.

Who won became king, while the losers were sinners!

The bigger fists brought the bigger authority. It wasn't just the rule in the hundreds of thousands of years in history. It wasn't the rule that only Saint Starlight Sect followed. Everybody followed this rule!

Some people wanted to be a hero, to hold justice, to fight for the innocent, but most of them ended up following the rule of the martial world, and the rest of them died!

The three factions, the two great halls, the three palaces, they were all the same. Nobody, not any one forces in the world could live outside the rule. When Qiong-Hua Palace separated Ye Nantian and Yue Gongxue, they got the bigger fists. If Ye Nantian had reached the top of Dao Origin Stage when everything began, Qiong-Hua Palace would be happy to let their Saintess marry him. None of the tragedies afterward would happen!

If Ye Xiao and Li Wuliang had been as dominant as they were now, the three factions would never dare to mess with them! They would flee from them!

Ye Xiao couldn't deny it!

"I think I just said it. I want to know what you want now, not the great truth of the world! What do you want to tell us? Speak it out already!" Li Wuliang frowned and scolded.

"The past is still living in my head. No words can describe all. No matter how regretful we are, what we did is done. We can't undo the history."

Shen Chongshan bitterly smiled and said, "I thought maybe if I tried to convince you with a great speech, this can be ended with peace... However, I knew it was impossible. It is only a good dream of mine which would never come true.

"Even if you let us go today, we won't live in peace anymore... We won't trust you... You will still be the knife on our necks. Something else will happen for sure.

"Now that you are here, two supreme cultivators, we know what is going to happen to us. We do."

He smiled bitterly again, "As long as the fight begins, Saint Starlight Sect will become only a name in history, just like Saint Sunlight Sect. We will be the villain in history.

"A great sect ignobly killed two heroes but ended up killed by the two heroes who returned from death.

"What a weak and stupid great sect we are.

"Nobody will remember the glory of Saint Sunlight Sect. Nobody will remember the hundreds of thousands of years history of this great sect. Nobody will remember the heroes of the world who came from our sect...

"Nobody will remember why we became enemy to the two heroes.

"In the end, nobody will remember our name.

"We will become something lost in time." Shen Chongshan raised up his head and stared at the people opposing him, "How many people died forever in history?"

Nobody answered.

He was right. Qing-Yun Realm had a long history.

Many people, sects, and clans just died in the history...

People wouldn't know anything about them. They became some mysterious names, a few words in the book of history...

Only a few words.

"We won't ask for your forgiveness, Xiao Monarch and Fierce Blade... We were wrong. An apology is pointless. If I were you, I wouldn't let this go, either... Otherwise, Qing-Yun Realm won't be Qing-Yun Realm.

"If peace is this easy to gain, there won't be a martial world in the world.

"We pay for what we did!

"It is the rule of the world!"

Shen Chongshan sincerely said, "Now, I represent our sect, to do something that may ease your hate..."

Ye Xiao smiled and coldly said, "Do something? I wonder what it is!"

Shen Chongshan took a long breath. When he looked at Ye Xiao, his eyes were full of determination and fierceness. He sighed and made up his mind.

He lowered his head. His hairs were all white. The next moment, he suddenly raised up his head and stepped forward, talking to his people, "Disciples of Saint Starlight Sect, listen up!"

All the disciples stood straight and raised their heads, staring at Shen Chongshan.

"Whoever joined the battle against Li Wuliang, step forward!"

Another great elder and two elders took a deep breath and stepped forward with the others.

It was a heavy step to make.

Over one thousand people had stepped out slowly after the elders.

They were hesitating, angry, ashamed...

However, they all stepped out.

Their faces were all pale.

Apparently, they all knew what it meant to step out. They had to do it because it was an order!

Shen Chongshan looked at the men who stepped out, and he started shaking. He almost passed out when he saw them. After a while, he stepped firmly on the floor and turned around slowly, staring at Li Wuliang, speaking in a low voice, "Fierce Blade, please have a look. Are they all guilty? Do you see anybody who should step out but didn't?"

Li Wuliang was confused. He looked at Shen Chongshan and said, "What do you think you are doing? What's the point?"

Chapter 1360: To End the Liability

Shen Chongshan bitterly laughed and spoke hoarsely "Fierce Blade, we are at the end of our fate now. What I asked is just to recognize the faces you know among the crowd! I don't care if you kill any innocent, but I can't let any of them get away from what they deserve!"

Li Wuliang could never forget the battle. Every night when he was asleep, the enemies' faces would reflect in his head again and again. Dao Origin Stage cultivators had a better memory than ordinary people. He hated his enemies so much that it was impossible he would recognize them wrong! Now, as he looked around those faces, he felt like they were back to the battle again, with all those terrible faces.

When the battle began, he only drove the people of the three factions away and didn't kill anyone. However, the three factions weren't some kind of nice people. They returned to him and captured his friends as hostages. He had decided to give in, but... one man in Saint Starlight Sect actually forced him to abrogate his own cultivation. Therefore, his friend sacrificed in order to die with that vile man in Saint Starlight Sect. However, the suicidal attack only hurt the enemy a bit. That was when the three factions killed the hostages!

Li Wuliang went mad immediately and killed one hundred and seventy Dao Origin Stage cultivators of the enemy. The rest of them were also killed after three thousand miles fleeing! That man who wanted Li Wuliang to abrogate himself got killed by Li Wuliang with incredible saber moves!

However, the people he cared for were dead. Even if he could let down the hate in his heart, how could he not take revenge for his friends!

After that, he sent a message to Ye Xiao who was in the Boundless Divine District and couldn't go to Li Wuliang's side in time. The three factions attacked Li Wuliang the third time. Ninety-nine Dao Origin Stage level-nine cultivators fought him together, and at the end of the fight, he fell off the mountain and started the several years painful trial...

He felt like it all happened one day before! He just couldn't forget about it!

His breath became heavy, and his eyes were flaming in anger. He said, "That's right... Some of them are killed back to the days. Everybody I remember is here. However, some of these people, I can't recognize."

No matter how much he hated these people, he couldn't lie!

Shen Chongshan spoke piteously, "There are some of them you can't recognize because they only participated in making the plan..."

Li Wuliang clenched his fists, took a deep breath, and said, "What are you going to do now?"

Shen Chongshan turned around and spoke to his people, "I don't want to do anything! These people of my sect have done something that has caused a disaster to the sect. Now, since Fierce Blade is here to seek revenge, they should take the responsibility!"

He spoke as if he was telling about somebody's daily story, but what he meant was cruel. He wanted to sacrifice those people for peace to the sect! It was brutal and cold!

Over one thousand men suddenly fell into hopelessness.

The great elder who stood behind Shen Chongshan took one step forward and spoke with a pale face in a determined voice, "I, a great elder of Saint Sunlight Sect, although I didn't participate in the fight, has been leading the plan... The bastard who intentionally offended you was my useless son. If not for what he did, things wouldn't end up this way... It is fate!"

"Now, once again, I am leading what we should do now. What is to be done will draw an end to the hostility. I started it, so I shall end it!" He turned around and spoke, "All of you, listen up!"

At this moment, this old man stood straight up, as if it was back to the days when he commanded all.

Everybody was shocked. They raised up their heads and stared at him.

"Since we have made the mistake, we should make it up to it. To be forgiven or not is not what we should care about first. The first thing we should do is to pay the debt!"

"Starting from me, everybody apologizes to them, bow, and end his life! All of you and I shall destroy ourselves, soul, and body! This is what we owe to them! This is the way we apologize to the innocent people who died back to the year!"

As he finished talking, he turned around again facing Li Wuliang. In his eyes, that was mixed emotion. He bowed deeply and said, "Please accept my apology for what I did!"

Then he stood straight and raised up his hand!

- Pah! - A palm hit on his own head.

It was so powerful that not only his head but also his entire body was broken into pieces!

The great elder was in Tittle Phase, which meant his soul was strong enough to remain unharmed after the body was broken. The next moment, his soul showed up and then exploded. He was completely gone.

Thirteen hundred and fifty-seven men behind the old men bowed to Li Wuliang at the same time, "Apologies to what we did!"

At the same time, they raised up one hand and hit on their own heads!

Blood was everywhere.

Some of them were powerful, while the others were not. None of them could break their own body as thoroughly as the great elder. Most of them had broken the heads into pieces and died with blood splashing everywhere.

The smell of blood spread in the square.

Over one thousand dead bodies lied on the ground.

A lot of blood was running below the bodies. The color of dark red blood became like a red lake...

The bodies were lying on the floor, and the people of Saint Starlight Sect were in chaos all of a sudden.

Their sect couldn't protect their people against their enemies. What shocked the disciples most was that their sect sacrificed their own people to beg for forgiveness. They all started to consider whether or not to stay in this sect because none of them could be sure they were protected in the future!

Shen Chongshan turned over to his people again, looked around, and the crowd was back to peace.

Li Wuliang was shocked. He couldn't believe what he just saw.

He had never thought that Saint Starlight Sect would do such a thing. It was true that everybody who died was elite in the sect. However, they just committed suicide with one hit on their own heads! None of them refused to sacrifice!
