Chapter 1401: Fear

It was pointless to emphasize how powerful the woman was because everybody could see it with their own eyes. That fact that who the woman was made her truly overwhelming and incredible!

The Shadow knew he couldn't hide the truth, so he just said it to avoid being more embarrassed!

"Pah..."

As expected, somebody spat.

[Concubine...]

Xiao Monarch's concubine was still just a concubine.

A super cultivator, the Shadow, actually got beaten by somebody's concubine.

He was almost dead...

That was unbelievably embarrassing.

Nobody questioned what the Shadow said. They just wondered how powerful that woman was to hurt the Shadow so severely.

How come a powerful woman like that would be somebody's concubine?

Some of the others, who were in low positions, looked skeptical thought. They thought, [He is not bragging, is he?]

However, most of them knew how powerful the Shadow was, and they were sure he wouldn't joke on such things. The wounds were real. How could he fake that?

"The sword wounds..." The master sounded gloomy, "Xiao Monarch did this. He left these wounds on you, didn't he?"

"Yes." The Shadow was shaking because of the pain.

Apparently, the sword wounds were getting more and more traumatic as time went by. At the moment, they were going to the level which the Shadow couldn't endure no more.

"The wounds... look normal. However, the weapon that cut these wounds... must be marvelous."

He then pried one wound with a finger and checked on it. As he looked at the wound, his eyes shined waves of dark lights. After a while, he said, "That sword... the blade of that sword is the sharpest in the world. It is peerless! It is unique!"

"Was it such a great sword?" The other men in black clothes all lit up their eyes when they heard so.

The master used three words to describe the greatness of the sword, and they made the sword more and more attractive!

"Not yet. I was just talking about the sharpness of its blade. I haven't said anything about its overall power. If I am right, the sword has the energy from stars... The wounds that are cut by the sword all have slightly little starlights, which made the wounds difficult to heal. As time passes, the starlight would explode and cause bigger injuries on the wounds... That is the sword's power.

"The sword seems to have some sort of special power. Xiao Monarch didn't use the power. It was the sword itself that activated the power... The sword had cut off the wounds and froze the muscle. The skin and muscle on the wound were dead immediately.

"I have spent so many years in Qing-Yun Realm, but I have never heard of any weapons that could be as powerful as this one. The universe is so big that nothing is too strange.

"Shadow has deep and tough cultivation, which defended himself to a certain extent. Besides, Xiao Monarch wasn't powerful enough, or maybe he attacked too recklessly, so he didn't cause the biggest damage as he could with the sword... Otherwise, you might have been killed both physically and mentally..."

The master sounded serious.

Then he looked the light purple qi around the wounds and said with a deep sigh, "The rolling purple qi... To be honest, I can't recognize it... Is it from Xiao Monarch too?"

"Yes." The Shadow seemed to be more painful. He was sweating because of the pain but still forced himself to answer.

The master had finished the observation. The Shadow hurriedly activated the energy in his body to cure the wounds. Suddenly, the master drew out his sword. The sword shined blinding lights fast, and it cut off the muscles of the wounds on the Shadow's body.

A lot of blood ran out.

Two dan beads were fed into his mouth. After a while, the dense dark demonic qi filled the Red in the Sky's body.

"Whoever will fight against Ye Xiao, if you get cut by his sword, get infected by the strange purple qi, remember to cut off the muscles on the wound entirely. If not, when it stayed on the wound long enough, it wouldn't be able to recover.

"As the Shadow said, Xiao Monarch's special martial art is a bane to our martial art. We can not be careless about it..."

The master looked at the Red in the Sky, which was covered by the dense dark qi. His eyes looked as solemn as he had never been before.

"Maybe I was underestimating him... This Ye Xiao, Xiao Monarch, has a lot of powerful supports, and a lot of secret forces... This man will be the only and final opponent of me in this world..."

The master murmured, talking to himself.

Suddenly, he was utterly spirited up by the will of battle.

The Red in the Sky, who was in the dark fog had recovered a lot. He secretly talked to the master through mind connection, "Master... The sword, and the martial art... Are they related to Master Bai?"

The master suddenly trembled, but fiercely answered, "Absolutely not!"

He seemed so sure, but it seemed he was not only telling the Shadow but also to convince himself.

[This Ye Xiao has nothing to do with Master Bai!]

[He is not! Impossible!]

"Master, I do not exaggerate something to scare people. Everything about Xiao Monarch is weird. That sword is definitely not from Qing-Yun Realm. The special martial art actually restrains our martial art. I don't think it is from Qing-Yun Realm either. Most importantly, as I was told... When Master Bai did his last collapse in Land of Han-Yang, a young man, Ye Xiao, was his rival. Ye Xiao is Xiao Monarch. They seem to be the same man..." The Red in the Sky continued talking through mind connection.

The master's face turned dark, but it was hidden behind the dense dark fog, so nobody saw his expression!

He seemed to feel scared.

However, after a while, the fear was gone. His face looked calm again, and he said, "The world is in chaos. Heavens are in a mess. The tunnel between the upper realm and the lower has been shut..."

Chapter 1402: Sanitation Issue

"One thing is most important to us. Master Bai has returned to the Human Realm Upon Heavens. I believe we are never going to see him again in our lives.

"In another word, we don't have to worry about that!

"Just finish our altars. When they are all ready, we will rush up to the Ultimate Demon Greatness...

"When we do... Even if Master Bai gets mad at us, there is nothing he could do to us!

"What happened is done. We shall not scare ourselves. Besides, it is only Xiao Monarch we need to take care of, not Master Bai!"

The Red in the Sky heard the master, so he sighed quietly behind the cover of the dark fog. He closed his eyes and decided not to say more about it.

The master continued.

"We must not restrain ourselves now!

"All of you, lose no time! Get on your works!

"We will kill in all different places in Qing-Yun Realm!

"We must kill those who ally to Ye Xiao. Kill them! Wipe out their clans or sects! Kill them all!

"Kill one, so we can frighten a hundred!"

"I would love to see who dare to follow him whole-heartedly!"

"Now! Do it now!"

"Yes, master!" All the other men in black clothes were sweating, separating away.

They all had the same thought in mind, [Master is... mad...]

[If we make such an aggressive step ahead, we may not be able to frighten the enemies. In fact, we may push all the people to Ye Xiao's side. Those who want to stay neutral will all swear loyalty to Ye Xiao. We are going to fight the entire Qing-Yun Realm by then!]

"Moreover!" The master's cold voice sounded behind the others' backs, "Every hall send three level-nine Dao Origin Stage cultivators, which means thirty people, to their camps!"

"Go stir up some mess! Kill! Kill! Kill them!"

"Kill all of them!"

"Gather the energy for the second altar!"

"Yes, master!"

...

On the other side, as more and more people are gathering from different places in the world, the valley became too small to hold all of them.

They had to expand.

Ye Xiao had been moving around all the areas in person, to encourage the cultivators. First thing in a war was to make sure the soldiers were all spirit up.

Ye Xiao could feel the horrible powerfulness of the enemy. He knew that the enemy was disciplined as an army.

However, his people were different. Those who were from the sects had some team spirit. However, the independent cultivators had been solitary and desultory for too long to follow the rules in an army.

If the battle started, even those who were good cultivators couldn't defeat a team of weaker cultivators. What Ye Xiao needed was to make his people fight as a team.

If he couldn't do it before the battle began, many people would have to be sacrificed. He might lose the war because of it.

That was why he had been working on it during those days.

The leaders of the nine groups of nine areas were wise people. They also realized the problem, so they walked around their own areas every day to urge their people to practice some joint attacks...

However, when so many cultivators gathered together, it was like an ocean of men. Independent cultivators were always free and indiscreet, so they easily started fights against one another.

During those days, before the enemies showed up, people among themselves had fought thousands of times... Nobody died in the fights, but everything was in a mess.

However, it was not the biggest problem.

When a lot of people stayed together, the problem of eating and drinking supplies became a problem. In fact, the worst thing was the problem of defecation issue.

Every single day, the entire area was full of the smell of fine liquor and meat. Hundreds of thousands of bottles of the fine liquor were drunk up. Hundreds of thousands of kilogram of meat were eaten.

The cultivators were much stronger than ordinary people, and they ate and drank times more than ordinary people...

However, people ate, people let loose of what they ate...

The cultivators were all ruleless people. No matter when they felt like taking a loose, they would just do it somewhere around, which was easy to reach... It felt the best just to let it go when it was pushing out...

However, that caused a really serious problem...

After a few days, the thousands of miles wide area was full of a strange smell in the air.

Some female cultivators, especially those from Qiong-Hua Palace, Misty Cloud Palace, Ice Cloud Palace, Sky Ice Palace, all frowned and felt troubled.

In the end, they finally couldn't endure the issue and protested about it.

Ye Xiao had a headache because of it.

To be honest, he was an independent cultivator in the previous life, which meant he had done the same as those people did in the days. However, he had been strict with himself since he became a handsome young man, that was why he wouldn't let loose of himself so freely anymore. In fact, he was still the same person so he could understand those people. Besides, he knew that if he wanted those people to fight in the front line, they would definitely go without hesitation. It was just difficult to make them stand in line to wait for the toilet...

It was unrealistic!

Ye Xiao spent one full night to discuss the solution to the defecation issue. Cultivators had the cultivator's way to solve the problem. As the discussion was finished, he had a plan made. He and Xuan Bing rose a mountain up much higher to separate two parts of the area. The left side belonged to the male cultivators, while the other belonged to the female cultivators. The problem was solved.

However, a new problem arose. The comparison of the two sides was too sharp.

On the right, it was peaceful, full of bird songs and flower scent. Sometimes people were practicing in battle skills, only in a harmonious condition. It was quiet. Beautiful ladies were everywhere. How delectable!

Peaceful, quiet, joyful, beautiful, and delectable, that was the right side.

On the other side, it was totally a riot. Every second, the area was noisy like pigs being butchered. The smell of alcohol and meat filled the air. Sometimes it rang up the howling of wolves. Sometimes the horse steps of the iron rides thundered up...

...

Chapter 1403: Li Wuliang in Charge!

Those were a bunch of male animals. When there were ladies around, they tried their best in self-restraint. Now as there were only men staying together, they had gone entirely wild. The sky was going to be stirred down.

On the left side of the mountain, after a few days, yellow and brown feces could be seen everywhere...

Ye Xiao thought that he was a tough man, so he shouldn't always stay on the right side with the ladies. However, after staying with the guys for two days, he gave up.

There were more men than women, so the left side was several times broader than the right. However, after a few days, the bigger area seemed to be more crowded with impurity.

The air was full of stinky smell. No matter how good the liquor and food looked, it was difficult to raise their appetite. At least Ye Xiao couldn't eat anything...

He couldn't eat, and he couldn't stay calm.

Somebody scolded the others to be careful or to find a spot to solve the problem. However, somebody got drunk and shouted, "What the f*ck! Do you think there is a rule or something to restrain our right of sh*tting and farting?"

That actually was rude but reasonable.

Thousands of men burst in roaring, "To restrain our right of shitting and farting?"

Ye Xiao hit his own head on the table.

He was speechless.

He understood. In his previous life, as the Xiao Monarch, he was still an independent cultivator, who did things in the same way as the normal unruly individuals in the martial world. He could understand how hard it was for so many guys to stay together and restrain themselves. It was a good thing that nobody got killed during the days, so how could he expected them to behave like a bunch of students...

It was impossible.

In fact, the person who was most possibly able to control the situation was Ye Nantian, Ye Xiao's father!

If the war god of Land of Han-Yang were here, he could definitely put all the unruly men in self-restraint. He could surely train an army of elites which was as good as the secret organization. However, that was impossible too!

He didn't have the best, but luckily there was a person to be the stopgap.

Li Wuliang was back. Ye Xiao directly assigned the mission to him, "Li Wuliang, go to the men's side and take control of the situation. Stay safe. Waste no time and train them as much as you can! I will take care of the issues on the ladies' side. You know it is complicated to deal with women. I am leaving the easy side for you..."

Then he hurriedly left for the ladies' side with Xuan Bing before Li Wuliang had time to say anything!

Li Wuliang accepted it gladly, and went to the men's zone, puffed up with pride.

He and Ye Xiao were totally two different types while staying among the guys. He had just joined the crowd, yet was already enjoying it.

It took him almost less than the time of a blink to be on good terms with the others.

In the beginning, the cultivators didn't dare to talk to the Fierce Blade due to his reputation. However, when they saw him drinking the liquor by a big jar, and then pee right over the same place, they knew this man was no different. It made the crowd cheer in joy.

Without no further communication, he started to drink and eat with the others wildly.

As for the smell in the air, he wouldn't care. The young Lord Xiao was simply unreasonable. A true man in the martial world wouldn't care to live like this!

"Drink up! Come on! Drink up or admit you are a coward!"

"Fine! I will drink up! And you will admit you are a coward instead!"

"F*ck you! You are a coward!"

...

Xue Danru heard about the new assignment, so she came over to see Li Wuliang. When she arrived, she was totally stricken down by the unendurable smell in the air. She pinched her own nose and found Li Wuliang, nearly threw up.

Li Wuliang smelled all kinds of things, except anything pleasant. Staring his drunk eyes, he dragged Xue Danru's hand and laughed, "Brother, this is my wife!"

Then he shouted, "Why are you doing? Just call her big sister!"

"Big sister!" The crowd thundered out the same shout. Tens of thousands of drunks yelled at the same time.

The wave of their voices shot to the clouds in the sky and actually scattered the dark clouds.

Xue Danru was shocked. She just couldn't believe what she just experienced.

[It has been just a while, and my husband has so many brothers... Where does this story start?]

Ye Xiao was the older brother because he had the power to be. Xue Danru wouldn't deny it. Han Bingxue was one of the best cultivators in the world after all, so he was qualified enough to be the younger brother. However, who were these people?

Xue Danru was the leader of the Ice Cloud Palace, so it was reasonable she cared so much about the connections. Normal people would never be in her eyes. Although she had become Li Wuliang's woman, she only submitted to Li Wuliang's incredible power. No matter how much she loved Li Wuliang, she couldn't change her personality thoroughly. When so many men called her big sister at the same time, she was actually less pleased but more awkward!

"Brother Li, you have a gorgeous wife... Haha..." A man winked, who was obviously drunk, "How lucky you are... I am just curious. The lady of which clan is our big sister here?"

People said that women were gossipy, but men were not that different. The others all listened with rapt attention.

Li Wuliang laughed, "Lady of a clan? No, no, no. She is just like us, a cultivator in the martial world... Her name is Xue Danru, Ice Cloud Palace..."

Suddenly, he rubbed the head and turned over, "Wait. You sect won't oust you from the position as their prime master because you are with me now, will they? I heard that the prime masters of the three great palaces can't be married."

Xue Danru's face turned green, and she said, "You idiot! Stop talking nonsense!"

"Oh, then they won't." Li Wuliang laughed and continued the introduction, "She, your big sister, my wife, is the prime master of the Ice Cloud Palace... Brother, she is hot, isn't she? Hahaha..."

The crowd suddenly fell into silence.

The cheering stopped. Everybody was silent like a duck that had been stricken by a bolt of lightning.

They didn't even dare to breathe deep.

[Xue Danru!]

[Prime master of the Ice Cloud Palace!]

...

Chapter 1404: Hit His Wife!

It was Li Wuliang's wife, the Fierce Blade's wife.

Wasn't it a crazy world? No, it was more than crazy. Crazy wasn't enough to describe it!

Xue Danru didn't want to embarrassed Li Wuliang in front of so many people, even though she didn't feel good about it. She had to protect her man's dignity in front of the public, so she asked in a low voice, "Have done showing off? What is the smell on you? Come back with me now..."

Li Wuliang laughed out loud, "Fine. Okay. Brothers, my wife got me. This is big. Let's drink tomorrow..."

Then he held up Xue Danru and left the place with a dash.

The others looked at each other and all had the same thought in their heads. Everybody's forehead was sweating.

[What have I done...]

[It seems we just called Xue Danru, the prime master of Ice Cloud Palace, big sister...]

The man who was joking on Li Wuliang after some liquor was now having his face pale.

He was utterly scared.

[What did I just do?]

[Considering what I said, how is it possible that I am still alive? Why didn't I get killed?]

[I should have died in misery... I should have gotten my soul scattered and destroyed!]

He was frightened by what he himself had just said, so he sobered up and started to sweat.

...

"You bastard! Don't you touch me!" Xue Danru furiously looked at Li Wuliang. "Look at you... You are such a bunch of dirty bastards... I can't believe you actually turned that place into such a dump... You... Don't you dare touch me!"

Li Wuliang moved over to her shamelessly, but then she pushed him away. "Get off me!"

Li Wuliang raged up. "How dare you to disobey?"

That night, Li Wuliang couldn't get what he want. In the end, Xue Danru said something—nobody knew what she actually said, and it aroused the unstoppable flame of anger in Li Wuliang which led to an attack.

Xue Danru definitely wasn't afraid of that, so she fought back without hesitation.

The couple started a big fight.

...

The next morning.

Xue Danru angrily went to Ye Xiao, her husband's older brother.

Ye Xiao was holding Xuan Bing on the bed, sleeping tight. Apparently, he had enjoyed quite some pleasure during the days with the lady, and vented out the thirst in him...

- Pang! -

She kicked open the door of the cabin, where Xiao Monarch lived in alone.

She was powerful. Although Ye Xiao and Xuan Bing were both beyond her in cultivation, they couldn't prepare for the surprise move from the lady. When Xue Danru kicked the door, the two of them didn't have time to react. The door was widely open!

Ye Xiao exclaimed, and Xuan Bing instinctively screamed. Xue Danru had already rushed in.

What a tough woman!

Looking at Xuan Bing, who was almost naked and piteous, Xue Danru was numb. Suddenly, she blushed. As a woman who had experienced the pleasure, she knew that Ye Xiao and Xuan Bing had done something about love the previous night. Luckily, although she had been sworn enemies with Xuan Bing, she hadn't truly seen Xuan Bing's face. What she had in mind was just how dissolute Xiao Monarch was to have sex with a lady while in such a place...

She hurriedly turned around and shouted, "Put on your clothes already!"

Ye Xiao was confused and provoked. As he hastily put on the pants, he furiously said, "Xue Danru, what is wrong with you, woman? This is my room. Couldn't you just knock before you break in? You... Even though you are my brother's wife, you can't just get into my room like this, can you?"

Ye Xiao was questioning her, but then he stopped. He was shocked.

He was surprised for a simple reason. When he looked at her face, he clearly saw a bruise on it... It seemed she was smacked!

[What is going on?]

[Who dares to hit her?]

[Not to mention she is such an incredibly powerful cultivator, she is Li Wuliang's lady! Whoever dares to hit her would definitely suffer from Li Wuliang's fury! Who could endure that?]

"You, Ye! Get that bastard Li Wuliang over here now! Now!" Xue Danru was bristling with anger. When she saw Ye Xiao finish dressing up, she raged up in a roar.

"Ye Xiao, good for you! Look at you, enjoying the day here, messing around. You let your brother fall into a filthy pond of stinky mess over the other side..."

She was obviously unbalanced in mind, and she didn't even bother to cover it.

"What is it? Is he not satisfied with the assignment? Did he tell you to come and tell me that?" Ye Xiao was confused.

[It shouldn't be like that. If Li Wuliang doesn't like it, he would come over and talk to me by himself. He wouldn't let his wife to do the embarrassing job for him, would he? There must be something wrong.]

"Li Wuliang is such a jerk... He..." Xue Danru's fingers were shaking because of anger. She pointed at her own face and angrily said, "I told him to return from that sh*thole, but he refused, and actually fooled around and hit me. Look at me! Look what he did to me! Me, Xue Danru! I have never been through such..."

Ye Xiao got three black strips of awkwardness on the head.

[What? Fool around? Hit her?]

[Li Wuliang is not a man who would hit his wife, is he? Fooled around?]

[What is going on?]

[Is this even possible?]

[Is this really possible?]

[Is this like, really, really, possible?]

[What the hell happened?]

"How could Li Wuliang do that? People say a man would follow bad examples when he starts to achieve something. Now, he has started fooling around after following you a few days, hasn't he?" Xuan Bing was Xue Danru's enemy for years indeed, but she couldn't help feeling angry for the lady. "The most cowardly thing that a man would do is to hit his wife! He actually fools around and hit his wife! What a total bastard..."

Although the two ladies had been enemies for years, Xuan Bing would definitely stand on the woman's side when such things happened.

Ye Xiao waved his hand and said, "Wait... As I know, Li Wuliang wouldn't do such a thing. If he went out and fooled around, tell me... Who could he be with? You didn't just listen to some story, did you?"

Xue Danru humphed. Apparently, the anger was still in her. "I did not listen to some stupid story. I saw it with my own eyes... He and a bunch of guys..."

Xuan Bing was shocked, and she exclaimed out, "What? He did? He fooled around with some guys? What the... Did you really see it with your own eyes?"

Xue Danru hatefully said, "Sure I did. I stopped him, so he hit me!"

Xuan Bing was filled with anger. "A man like that should be terminated! He is totally the enemy to all female cultivators! Where is he now? Does he think we ladies are all useless? How does he dare to do such a thing?"

[What?] Xue Danru and Ye Xiao both felt something wrong.

Xue Danru understood that Xuan Bing had thought too much about what Li Wuliang did. Ye Xiao roughly got to know what had truly happened!

Ye Xiao hastily said, "Bing'er, stop. It isn't like what you think. My sister, tell us. What exactly is the 'fooling out' you were talking about... Just take your time and explain clearly..."

Chapter 1405: I'll Repudiate You

Xue Danru spoke continually, "I went for him... I went to the right side of the mountain. The entire area became stinky and filthy like a toilet because of the guys... The stinky smell in the air could have killed me. Li Wuliang was actually having a good time enjoying the life over there... He sat around the latrine, eating meat and drinking liquor with a bunch of pricks... He was having a great fun..."

"Ugh..."

Xuan Bing was attentively listening, and she couldn't help imagining the scene, and then retched.

"I told him to leave for me... The bastard didn't want to..." As Xue Danru spoke to this, she was losing confidence. After a short pause, she continued, "After that, I said..."

"What did you say?" Ye Xiao realized that what came next was the most important part of the issue. He guessed what she said afterward was the reason to the conflict.

"... I said, how are those brothers useful to you? They are a bunch of good-for-nothing... What can you get by hanging with a bunch of those?" Xue Danru sounded pretty aggrieved.

"..." Ye Xiao clapped his own forehead speechlessly. Li Wuliang was straightforward and forthright. If he became friends to somebody, he wouldn't mind the others' cultivation or anything. If somebody reproached his friends, it would touch his most sensitive nerve. A conflict was inevitable.

"What then?" Ye Xiao held the forehead and feeling the pain in it.

"Li Wuliang boasted shamelessly, saying that every single one of his brothers was a tough man, capable man, and they were all life-and-death brothers, just like you. We are true brothers! How do you, a woman, know about it? That was what he said."

"Then?" Ye Xiao took a breath of relief. What Li Wuliang said was a bit overreacting, but he was still self-restraining... That wouldn't have started a fight...

"Then I said..." Xue Danru's voice was lowering down, and now she talked humming and hawing, "I said... Ye Xiao is more or less the same useless. He was seeking revenge for you, and guess what, he almost got himself killed, let alone the failure... Now, he has his great achievement, standing high above the others, yet he dumped you to this difficult job, and he gets to enjoy his life alone... You see him as a good brother... an honest brother, yet you are just a subordinate to him..."

Xue Danru weakly added, "I was so annoyed... I didn't mean it..."

Ye Xiao was speechless. He rubbed his temples and said, "No need for the details please... What happened then?"

"And then..." Xue Danru's tear started dropping down. "After that, the bastard hit me with a fist strike without hesitation... He jumped up in fury and told me to get away... He said he was repudiating me..."

She couldn't hold her piteous dignity anymore, so she sat on the floor and started crying in tears, "The conscienceless bastard... I have given him everything, and I didn't even have an official wedding yet... Now, he is going to repudiate me... I am so caring for him, yet he treats me like this. How are we going to spend the days together..."

Ye Xiao and Xuan Bing looked at each other, and both were speechless.

They both felt like millions of alpacas running across their heads, each of the alpacas covered by some pretty smelly sh*t.

Ye Xiao couldn't be surprised even to think of it with his toes.

Xue Danru was mean, and what she said was harsh, but she was definitely concerned for Li Wuliang. What she said, she said it because of haste and anger. However, no matter why she said it, what she said was too serious for Li Wuliang.

The most important thing for Li Wuliang in his life was brotherhood.

The others all went after brotherhood!

He would fight back if somebody humiliated him or hit him, but if anybody dared to insult his brothers, that would be some hostility he would start a life-and death fight for.

It only pissed him more when somebody insulted Ye Xiao!

He was Li Wuliang's best brother in a lifetime after all.

It totally touched Li Wuliang's nerve!

According to Xue Danru, Li Wuliang didn't use his Fierce Saber, only his fists. That was actually very self-restraining...

Now, Xuan Bing didn't feel filled with indignation anymore.

[You had it coming, didn't you?]

What Xue Danru said was reasonable, but it was too much.

Xuan Bing hated Li Wuliang for hitting a lady because it was dishonorable, but if he did what he did for his brother, for Ye Xiao, that would be a different story!

When the perspective changed, the first impression of something could be very different!

"Ah... I am going to check it out now." Ye Xiao rubbed the glabella and made a sigh. "We get together to fight against the evil... Yet it turns out the first challenge I have is to mediate the dispute of you two... This is putting the cart before the horse..."

Xue Danru humphed and angrily said, "What do you mean putting the cart before the horse? The man has no idea how to care for a lady... I have had enough staying with such an ill-bred person..."

Ye Xiao stopped and spoke in a deep voice, "Oh really? He said he wanted to repudiate you, and you said you have had enough being with him. You both want the same thing. I guess I don't have to go anymore. I don't want to offend both sides."

Xue Danru was numb, and her face turned pale. She started to look at Xuan Bing, begging with the expression in her eyes.

Xuan Bing tried not to crack out a laugh, so she softly said, "How could you say that? How can you give up just because you don't want to offend both sides? It is about your brother's happiness in his life. Do you think your feeling is more important than his life? Just go and solve the problem."

Ye Xiao looked at Xue Danru, and Xue Danru tried to avoid an eye contact. At last, she just lowered the head like a young married woman who had blundered, and couldn't say a word for a while.

After a long time, Xue Danru hesitatingly said, "Um... It ugh... He said he would repudiate me... He won't, will he?"

Ye Xiao stared at her. "I dare him! Unless he is going to pierce through the heavens! He has to get through me before he can repudiate his drossy wife!"

Xue Danru knew that Ye Xiao was on her side, but it just didn't feel right to hear what he just said. However, she didn't dare to say anything about it!

She murmured, "You are dross! Your families are all dross! Humph..."

The three of them reached the cabin that was built by Ye Xiao and given to Li Wuliang. What greeted them were the snoring inside the cabin, the smell of the liquor and meat... and the smell of something rotting.

Xue Danru's face turned red because of anger. "Look at this. Look! He... He hit me... and then he actually had the mood to enjoy his liquor and meat... He is actually sleeping so tight..."

Ye Xiao powerlessly sighed and then shouted loudly, "Li Wuliang!"

A sound of something hitting the floor sounded inside the cabin. It seemed somebody just fell on the floor. After that, Li Wuliang rushed over without wearing tops, "Who is it?"

As he saw Ye Xiao, he was glad. "It's you, brother!"

Then he saw Xue Danru, so got angry. "What are you doing here, woman? I have repudiated you already! I am going to hit you whenever I see you again!"

Chapter 1406: Blame Both Sides Alike!

Xue Danru was angry, so she responded in a harsh voice, "Li Wuliang, you ungrateful piece of sh*t! I dare you touch me!"

Li Wuliang humphed. "If I am ungrateful, I would have cut you into halves! Piss off now before I take out my saber!"

Xue Danru's tears ran out. "You bastard... You took my virginity... You said you would marry me, saying that you would be good to me for a lifetime... Now you are breaking your own words... And you actually want to use your saber on me! You... How is that grateful..."

As she spoke, she rushed forward to fight again.

Li Wuliang rolled up his eyes. "Didn't you take my virginity too? We are even! Stop nagging..."

Ye Xiao and Xuan Bing were both speechless.

"That's enough!" Ye Xiao's face turned dark in embarrassment, and he shouted, "No couple fights forever. What are you doing? Do you want to be a joke to everybody?"

"Li Wuliang, you first! What have you done? Did you hit your lady? What a capable man! Tell me, do you think it is something honorable to do? Repudiation? That must be easy for you to say! She has devoted herself to you in whole! She abandoned the great position in the world for you! Do you think you can just say it and repudiate her? You have absolutely lost your manhood! Talk to me, where is the humanity in you?"

Li Wuliang kept his head low and didn't give a response...

Xue Danru was annoyed instead. "What are you talking about, Ye Wuliang is a good man. How could you say that he has lost his manhood! Which part of him isn't manly enough? I say, my Wuliang is better than you in all aspects. He is responsible. He has a broad view... He doesn't mess around with others. Humph..."

"You, woman! You have gone too far! First, you spoke ill of my brother behind the back, yet now you are saying it loud and clear in front of everybody. How can I still keep such a woman with me? No way! I am repudiating her today!" Li Wuliang suddenly raged up again.

Xue Danru was choked in surprise. [I... I was protecting you...]

The couple were going start a fight again. Ye Xiao felt a headache all of a sudden, so he shouted, "Stop! Cut it now! Now I see it! You two completely have no idea what the problem is, do you? Li Wuliang, do you think a man can just hit his wife and repudiate his wife? Can this be more like a game to you?"

Then he spoke earnestly, "If you think your wife is disobedient, you can discipline her by reasoning. How could you just hold your fists against her and yelling about repudiation? Does it really make you feel in charge? Does it make you feel more like a man? This is wrong! Do you understand?"

Then he turned to Xue Danru, "And you, Xue Danru. You are wrong too... Li Wuliang is wrong to hit you, but you shouldn't have insulted his brothers! He is an orphan, and the most valuable thing for him is the brotherhood... Aren't you asking for the trouble when you insult his brothers? You deserve some lessons... This is the first time, and I want it to be the last. If you do this again, I won't stop Li Wuliang doing anything he wants!"

Xue Danru kept her head low like a quail.

Ye Xiao got his moment of success to be ostentatious as a big brother, so he blamed both sides alike, and then put an end to the disturbance, "Now we can be over it. Nobody mention this again. What happened has never happened... Nobody brings it up again! Do you understand?"

The couple looked at each other in the eyes, both were numb.

Xue Danru angrily turned aside. She was apparently still mad at it. [Ignorant fool! This is so annoying!] Ye Xiao hurriedly gave Li Wuliang a hint by an eye contact, saying, "Bastard! Look at your wife's face... The bruise... Go apologize already, will you? How could you do that to such a beautiful lady. If she leaves you, I wonder how you can ease the regret in your tears..."

Li Wuliang rubbed his head and suddenly took a big step ahead to Xue Danru, making a funny face to her. "My dear wife... You..."

Xue Danru humphed and turned around. Apparently, she didn't want to talk to him yet.

Li Wuliang go around and spoke with a smile, "My dear wife... When you left last night, I took a bath..."

Xue Danru blushed, stepping on the floor, too embarrassed to show her face.

[You vile prick!]

[It doesn't matter to me whether you took a bath or not!]

[What a fool! Why do you say that in front of everybody... Are you really this stupid...]

Li Wuliang knew that there was a chance, so he stepped ahead and held her up in arms.

Xue Danru seemed to struggle for a few seconds, and then gave it up. Maybe she didn't want to get down.

Li Wuliang laughed and spoke like he was giving a lecture, "It surely is my fault to hit you. A man should love his wife dearly, not hit her. However, you shouldn't have humiliated my brother. If you dare again, I will hit you again..."

"I shouldn't have hit you. I apologize to you..." he continued.

"I... I won't speak ill of your brothers..." Xue Danru spoke in an extremely low voice.

Li Wuliang laughed loudly. "Deal! We make no more mistakes like this!"

Then he turned to Ye Xiao and impatiently said, "Okay now. We are good. What are you still standing here for? Leave now."

Then he held Xue Danru into the cabin, closed the door with a loud bang.

Li Wuliang's hasty voice sounded inside the cabin after that, "My dear wife, let's finish what we should have finished last night..."

Xue Danru was utterly bashful. "Shameless! They are still at the door..."

Then she groaned with pleasure... A strong energy of spiritual mind covered the entire cabin afterward, which blocked all the sound inside...

What could be seen was the cabin shaking...

Ye Xiao and Xuan Bing looked at each other and couldn't speak a word.

[What the hell was that?]

[We two came here to help, yet now they have just left us outside.]

"Holy hell. The man and the woman, what a pair... As soon as the wedding is done, they abandoned their matchmaker... They just turned against the monk who just prayed for them..." Ye Xiao shook his head and sighed. "Bing'er, let's go and... Ahem... We didn't finish what we should earlier because she interrupted... Let's go back and keep it going..."

Xuan Bing blushed and pinched Ye Xiao's arm.

It was obvious that all women were good at pinching their men. They were all experts without any lesson!

However, the master's technique didn't work on Ye Xiao. Ye Xiao held her up in arms and then left fast...

...

Qing-Yun Realm was falling into terror.

Massacres were happening in different areas.

Because the terrible things happened more and more frequently, more and more people were heading to the base Ye Xiao set up.

Cultivators came over from everywhere were like hundreds of rivers running to the same sea. Every road to this place was full of hurrying people, which made the roads look like running rivers.

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1407: A Change before the War

When people were on the way to the base, lots of people in black tried to stop them and kill them. Many people from both sides died on the way. During those days, the number of death was increased thousands of times!

On those outlying roads, there were lots of dead bodies without heads.

When the information reached the base, the entire valley was depressed. Finally, the guys made a change one day.

Everybody worked together and cleaned the entire area thoroughly. All the living trashes were piled together in the pointed spot and buried well. On each direction, they built a place for recycling, which meant toilets.

The itinerant cultivators who used to be unruly started to follow rules of life. They didn't like group training, but now, they were pretty active to it. The guys started to pay attention to their personal hygiene and try to protect the environment. In fact, they were cherishing the environment...

Everybody looked solemn before the war.

"Nobody knows who will survive the war. Nobody knows who gets to win the battles. Maybe we all will die, but we should at least not live among some trash. We came with nothing, and we leave with cleanness!"

"The valley became like this because of us... The ladies don't even want to set foot on our place... Are we really going to die a bunch of lonely and smelly men?"

"The war is coming. Who knows who can survive? I have been enjoying the days for years. I have enough of it... Should I really continue such a pointless life before dying in the war? Do I have to get drunk at this moment?"

"If we win and I am dead, brothers, splashed a fine cup of liquor on my tomb when you are going to drink some!"

"If we win and I am alive, I will bring fine liquor to the brothers who died for the victory every year! Life or death, we get drunk together!"

"After the war, if we win, and I am dead, brothers, please take care of my families."

"After the war, if I am alive, I will do my best to take care of our brothers' families!"

"We fight the war without regret!"

"We fight the war with all strength!"

"Come, practice with me and my saber!"

"Come, practice with me and my sword."

"Come, let's make a sword attacks array."

"Come, brother! Let's discuss how to use poison to cause the biggest damage."

...

The area became like the habitat of dragons and tigers. The mountains and rivers were picturesque. The guys had completely new appearance, which was clean, spirited, and solemn.

The crisis was approaching, and everybody tried to live in a new appearance with different vigor at the same time.

The next day, when a group of female cultivators were out for some daily necessities, they happened to go by the other side of the mountain. They were surprised that they didn't smell the stinky air anymore, so they cast a look over. What they saw was astounding like a brand new land.

"How come it is so clean?"

"The smell actually is gone..."

"Actually nobody is drinking..."

"Nobody shouting dirty words..."

"Why such a big change? This is too weird. Do we see ghosts..."

"They always say that we should rather trust ghosts than believe in men. Well, this is more unbelievable than ghosts!"

"I have to say that these men are a little bit cute when they become serious on something. They aren't completely useless after all..." One of the ladies had her cheeks pink and eyes blurred.

"Um, that is true..."

"What a pity! I have been alone for my whole life. I never have the chance to taste love as the romance story tells..."

"Gosh, if a man can stay serious like this all his life, I would marry him..."

"..."

The ladies were touched, so they told everybody when they were back to the other side. More and more curious ladies came over to peek on the guys because of it. When they were back to the ladies' area, the men became more active... Serious men, especially the capable ones, were full of manly charm indeed.

Many ladies were shocked and attracted.

The crisis was near. The calamity would definitely happen soon. Women had soft hearts. Even though they were all cultivators who had the support from their sects, they still felt insecure, so they needed somebody to count on. After all, most of the ladies were single.

At this moment, none of them knew whether they could live after the war or not. Their hearts were filled with complex emotions. It was the critical time, which meant they might die every next day... Why would they hold it back if they hit on some reliable men?

What should they be scared for?

What should they worry about?

They all saw the prime master of Ice Cloud Palace, Xue Danru, went out bravely and caught the company of the man who was only second to Xiao Monarch. If an influential figure like that could do it, why couldn't they?

Many female cultivators professed their feelings to the men they liked in public without hesitation.

Disciples of the Ice Cloud Palace were the most.

The next few days, dozens of couples were made, who built their own cabin of love to live together. Ye Xiao didn't stop them because he liked it.

Some people were jealous or maybe some were only following the others. More and more women and men found their match. Finally, the mountain between men's area and women's area was removed. They were back together again.

It was a good thing to remove the mountain. After all, it blocked quite a good view and wasted a big piece of land. As the mountain was gone, more space was left out to build cabins...

During those days, Ye Xiao felt like he had become a drunkard.

He didn't just drink with others all the time. He just had to join many wedding feasts. Sometimes, he had to attend tens of weddings in one day, drinking from the morning to the night, from the east to the west, from the south to the north, until he threw up, until he felt sick, but he just didn't get drunk. He was too powerful in cultivation, and it kept him from getting drunk.

Ye Xiao was always calm and steady, but he truly couldn't hear no more love stories!

Outside the camps of the ladies, there was always a man shouting loudly to the lady he liked.

"Meng Qingqing, I like you! Marry me!"

"I don't know whether I can survive it or not, but I will spend every second in the rest of my life to love you!"

It was always a man with a profession.

In the camps of ladies, the crowd would burst in commotion.

"Meng Qingqing, say yes!"

"Meng Qingqing, say yes!"

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1408: I Like You

In the commotion of the crowd, a slim lady in white clothes was pushed out by some manly women, looking at the man bashfully and said, "I... Yes... I... No matter what will happen tomorrow, I will also spend the rest of my life to love you..."

"Oh wow!"

Both men and women were cheering loudly.

Everybody was shouting to wish the new couple the best!

"Lord Monarch, please come and join us in the feast."

The couple invited Ye Xiao together.

Ye Xiao had been invited to so many weddings during those days, so he was used to it already. However, when he heard it, he still felt pain in the head and cold in the hands and feet!

Tens of wedding feasts in a day, he had to get through the same every day, and he actually just wouldn't be drunk! That was scary!

...

On the tree.

Wenren Chuchu was wearing white clothes like snow. Her face looked bland, and she was watching the lively scene. She didn't seem to be moved at all. Standing on the tree, robe flickering the air, she looked calm and indifferent, but deep in her heart, she was fevered.

When she saw Ye Xiao being surrounded by all those people, she felt sour in the heart.

While everybody was facing an unpredictable future, even though the guys didn't dare to even look at Wenren Chuchu in the eyes, some of them actually professed their love to her.

Wenren Chuchu, whose heart belonged to one man, had to avoid seeing other men.

However, a lot of cultivators were courting her.

Her beauty and power were both top-class among all the single female cultivators in Qing-Yun Realm.

How could anybody not be charmed by such a fabulous beauty?

A bunch guys were pushing a man to Wenren Chuchu from far away. Wenren Chuchu sighed about it.

She truly couldn't endure the disturbance.

She couldn't kill them, not even beat them, which made her feel pretty helpless.

Before those men approached, she stretched her arms and flew out, moving toward Ye Xiao, who was on the way to a wedding ceremony.

[I guess I will just follow the impulse for one last time.]

Ye Xiao was trying to show everybody a smiling face while walking forward to a plain area, where many people were sitting around the tables and waiting for the feast. It wouldn't start before Ye Xiao arrived.

People who surrounded Ye Xiao were all high-level itinerant cultivators or cultivators from different sects. Everybody was smiling with happiness. It took only a few more steps to reach the table.

However, at that moment, a white shadow flashed as some elegant scent spread in the air. Wenren Chuchu abruptly showed up, wearing all white clothes, standing on Ye Xiao's way.

The guys were shocked.

[What is the lady doing?]

The guys seemed to understand something after the surprise.

These men who could crowd around Ye Xiao were all experienced cultivators in the martial world. All they needed was to think about what men and women were doing during those days, and they could figure out what was going to happen between the lady and Ye Xiao!

Was this gorgeous new goddess in Qing-Yun Realm going to do what the others did recently?

She was actually aiming at...

Well, Ye Xiao was already taken, wasn't he?

Ye Xiao was surprised too, so he looked at Wenren Chuchu in confusion. When he looked at her eyes, he seemed to know what she wanted to do. His heart shook, and he didn't know what to say.

[Should I stop her if it is true?]

[Should I not?]

[Should I really stop her?]

[Should I really not?]

It wasn't a joke. At that moment, Ye Xiao's head was full of pointless and repetitive thoughts!

Before everybody's eyes, while Ye Xiao was still in shock, Wenren Chuchu first broke the silence.

She actually made up her mind to say it!

Maybe she would die soon. It was going to be an eternal regret if she didn't say it! She had to say it!

Maybe she would regret after she said it, but at least she tried! If she didn't do this, she wouldn't have the chance to even regret about it!

She looked at Ye Xiao, with a clear voice, spoke loudly, "Ye Xiao!"

Ye Xiao raised up his eyes.

They looked into each other's eyes.

"I like you!"

Wenren Chuchu spoke clearly and deeply.

Ye Xiao was shocked. He really didn't know what to do.

Not only Ye Xiao, but also the others around them were shocked.

Many people had been pursuing Wenren Chuchu, but nobody earned her approval. Some people guessed that she was already in love with somebody, but nobody could ever think of Ye Xiao, Xiao Monarch!

It was Xiao Monarch, the leader of all cultivators in the martial world.

In fact, considering Ye Xiao's personality, power, and appearance, it was reasonable that a woman would fall for him.

No wonder Wenren Chuchu kept refusing those men. If Ye Xiao was the man in her heart, she surely wouldn't settle on somebody else. Not to mention those men who pursued her, even all other men in Qing-Yun Realm wouldn't be a match to Ye Xiao!

The world's most powerful cultivator, the great leader of the martial world!

Xiao Monarch, who laughed upon all heroes.

He was a person of distinguished position, who was powerful, smart, and handsome. He was brilliant!

Many guys suddenly felt sullen.

They knew that nobody could ever try to chase Wenren Chuchu after what she just said to Ye Xiao.

Otherwise, whoever dared to do it would be attacked!

"What are you? Huh? How dare you to court the woman of the Monarch!"

Though Ye Xiao didn't accept the lady...

"Lord Monarch doesn't accept it now, but he may accept it soon in the future... Just give it up!"

Everybody could see it coming.

...

While everybody was watching, Wenren Chuchu was wearing all snow-white clothes with waving cloth like a fairy descending to the mortal world. She was so beautiful and fabulous.

Ye Xiao took a long breath and just wanted to say something...

Wenren Chuchu spoke before he could, "Ye Xiao, I like you. It is true. However, the heaven's will must be teasing me. I can't marry you. After the war, I will go to you, and hopefully, you will give me your answer. Can you do that?"

As she said it, Ye Xiao understand what this clever lady was doing.

She didn't really want to pursue him. She made the confession just to get rid of the disturbance from the other guys.

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1409: Be Your Shield

However, what Wenren Chuchu was her sincere feeling. She did love Ye Xiao. She just had to give it up due to certain reasons...

What she needed was a shield, so in fact, she was asking Ye Xiao for help.

Looking at Wenren Chuchu's eyes, Ye Xiao was enlightened.

In that pretty big eyes, there was some deep affection, but also regret and pain... Moreover, there was request.

She wanted Ye Xiao to help her.

"Okay!" Ye Xiao nicely agreed, "Lady, your love touches me deeply. Lady Wenren, you are such a wonderful woman. I do have you in my heart. I like you a lot. However, there is no luck. The world is going to face a war. If I can survive the calamity, I will give you my answer!"

"Good! Deal!"

Wenren Chuchu took a breath of relief. Her eyes were shining in delight.

[He understood!]

[He knows me!]

Most importantly, she knew from what Ye Xiao said that he was being sincere and honest, even though they both were trying to fool the others.

[I am in his heart!]

Her heart was filled with joy, but also sorrow.

[I can't... I shouldn't... I won't...]

[I like you! I do! I want to marry you! I do!]

[I want to be your woman! That's true!]

[You like me. It is true.]

[You don't want to turn me down. It is true.]

[However...]

[We can't.]

[The heaven's will do tease me!]

"After the war, if I am alive..." Wenren Chuchu softly looked at Ye Xiao and said, "The rest of my life belongs to you."

Before Ye Xiao said anything, she had already rushed up to the sky and made a quick turn in the air before she finally disappeared.

Ye Xiao was shocked.

He got the meaning behind what the lady just said.

She was going to die fighting the war!

At that moment, Ye Xiao's heart was filled with complicated feelings that nobody could tell.

Ye Xiao had only been enamored by three women. Jun Yinglian was the first. She was his love in the previous life, whom he could never turn away in the current life. Su Yeyue was the second. The girl should be his wife in this second life, and they did fall in love with each other. Yu'-er was in the Human Realm Upon Heavens, but Ye Xiao hadn't forgotten her for even one second. Bing'er was the third— Bing-er, not Xuan Bing. She was the young lady who crashed into his life from the sky, who was tender and soulful.

Wenren Chuchu and Bing Xinyue had touched Ye Xiao before, but he didn't fall for either of them. He didn't even know what Bing Xinyue had done for him. He knew what Wenren Chuchu felt for him, but he didn't feel the same!

Now, as he saw such a beautiful lady making up her mind to die in a battle, he couldn't help sighing with emotion. It seemed she made such a decision because of him!

"Congratulations, Lord Monarch."

The others were all laughing because they thought it was something enjoyable for Ye Xiao.

"Lady Wenren is smart and beautiful. Lord Monarch is a lucky man... Haha..."

The compliments from the guys didn't please Ye Xiao, but he still responded with a smile. Afterward, he sat around the table and started the feast for the newlyweds.

Xuan Bing was still watching where Wenren Chuchu disappeared. Finally, she let out a sigh.

Wenren Chuchu didn't recognize her, but she definitely knew Wenren Chuchu.

Wenren Chuchu was the only personal disciple of Bing Xinyue.

The clothes on her had some lively lotus patterns on the sleeves...

Xuan Bing gave it out years earlier.

The lotus showed Wenren Chuchu's identity!

[The girl actually loves Ye Xiao too...]

Xuan Bing made a sigh and felt annoyed in her heart. [The family hierarchy of us...]

[This is a mess.]

[If the girl is taken by Ye Xiao too, how do we get along with each other?]

While she was lost in thoughts, Ye Xiao was calling her name, "Bing'er, Bing'er..."

"I am coming," Xuan Bing returned to her senses and hastily answered. As always, she sat beside Ye Xiao and behaved well.

That night.

Wenren Chuchu was sitting in meditation on a tree. The tree was prosperous, and its leaves covered her figure. She seemed to be cultivating, but truly was doing nothing. She was disturbed, and didn't know what she wanted at all. That night was a sleepless night.

In her head, Ye Xiao's words kept resounding.

"Lady, your love touches me deeply."

"Lady Wenren, you are such a wonderful woman. I do have you in my heart..."

"I do have you in my heart..."

...

After a while, Wenren Chuchu made a sigh. "I do like you... I do like you... What's the point. We are only the puppets of fate... Master is not going to return from death..."

She stared into the air with two unfocused eyes. Her heart had gone far away.

She made a long sigh in the darkness of the night.

...

Wenren Chuchu didn't notice that several men were right under the tree, staring at the tree, getting through the same sleepless night.

Wenren Chuchu should be powerful enough to notice it when somebody was peeking on her, but she was disturbed with the feelings in her heart!

Luckily, those men only wanted to have a look at their goddess for the last time! They wouldn't do more!

What Wenren Chuchu did was a strike to those who were pursuing her. However, no matter who those men were, they decisively gave up.

To compete with Xiao Monarch on a lady?

Maybe it wasn't insane, reckless, or self-overrated...

But it was definitely a suicidal move!

Even Wu Fa couldn't defeat Xiao Monarch and had to flee away from the Monarch!

The Saint Sunlight Sect, one of the seven great sects, was wiped out within one night!

The Saint Starlight Sect got their leaders killed in front of the Monarch just to save the younger generation!

Who in the Qing-Yun Realm dared to claim a match to Xiao Monarch?

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1410: Conversation of the Two Ladies

For the guys, they had seen how Wenren Chuchu confessed her love and Ye Xiao responded with a hopeful answer. The two of them could make a great couple. The guys' single-way admiration meant nothing compared to the love of the lady. Therefore, these men only wanted to have a look at the lady for the last time, and that was all!

As things happened, Wenren Chuchu finally got what she wanted. Nobody would disturb her again, and she regained peace.

...

On the other side, Ye Xiao was having a sleepless night too.

In the earlier half of the night, he did think about Wenren Chuchu because the lady had touched him and astounded him. He tried to remember something because he thought perhaps he had given her some promises, but he couldn't think of any. However, at the latter part of the night...

He saw Bing'er come out bashfully after a bath. What a fabulous beauty! He totally forgot about any other things, only became a wolf who grabbed the lady and pushed her on the bed...

That was so rude to such a delicate beauty...

Xuan Bing was unlucky because she was "tortured" by the wolf again and again. The wolf here had become pretty naughty now. As what happened in the day had touched him in some way, he forced Xuan Bing to "do" it with him in all kinds of positions...

They even played roles while changing positions...

In the end, no matter how strong Xuan Bing's body could be, she fell asleep, exhausted like a pile of sweet mash.

Ye Xiao had finally exhausted himself, too, so he lay down and started to think of the serious business. [What should I do next?]

He actually started to think about the serious stuff...

The sects, the clans, and the itinerant cultivators, all gave their lives in this man's hands! It looked like they had made a mistake!

Jun Yingliand, Yue Shuang, and Yue Han had returned to the base once.

Jun Yinglian wanted to talk to Ye Xiao, but when she walked to the cabin, she saw the cabin shaking like it was attacked by a ten-level earthquake, and two waves of spiritual minds were covering the cabin to block the sound. Jun Yinglian was powerful, but she actually couldn't hear a thing at all...

She knew what the man and woman were doing inside. She blushed and spat, hastily running away.

[Ye Xiao wants me for a long time. If I get in the cabin, he will get on me!]

[I am... I am his wife! The official one!]

[How can I let him do this to me before a serious wedding?]

[Absolutely not!]

[Humph! Just let his concubine enjoy the fun and serve him...]

Usually, if the husband had a concubine and he stayed with the concubine a lot, the wife should feel annoyed and threatened.

Jun Yinglian was completely an exception.

She didn't feel annoyed, but when she thought about the concubine being Xuan Bing...

Xuan Bing was a great figure who was beyond Jun Yinglian's league no matter in what aspect...

Xuan Bing would have to humbly call her big sister and stand aside while she was sitting...

She just felt so good about it.

[Humph! You set me up... asked me to be sworn sisters with you, and tried to be my big sister...]

[Now what? You became my man's concubine who has a low position in the family... I can do whatever I want to you now...]

She wouldn't actually do anything to Xuan Bing, but thinking of it just made her feel good.

[Xuan Bing is quite powerless after all... When she suffered memory loss, she was actually laid by somebody who was weak like an ant... Wait, she went to Ye Xiao. Xiao Xiao didn't force her. Pah! He actually didn't do it. He was worse than an animal...]

She felt better and better, and she started to add more into the thoughts.

[I should have been jealous... I should have raged up in anger... But... How come I feel so good? This is not right. Am I sick? I have no idea...]

She kept thinking...

[Forget it. My husband takes such a concubine with him all day. At least I don't need to worry about his safety... No matter who comes to get him, no matter how many people come to get him at the same time, he and his concubine will be able to kill in and out the enemy's crowd. I should just get a rest.]

Then she went to sleep.

Yue Shuang and Yue Han came to the cabin after that.

When they saw the cabin shaking like an earthquake, they were surprised.

However, they were women with hundreds of years of experience, so they realized what was happening soon. They left with red faces because it was embarrassing.

"Brother is bad..."

"His concubine is piteous..."

"Why is the entire cabin shaking and shaking... Is it going to rush to the sky..."

"I wonder how it feels..."

"Pah! What are you thinking of, gal!"

"Hey! I think you think of the same thing too! Say it, do you want it or not..."

"Stop the nonsense. We should go back and go to sleep..."

...

The next day, Ye Xiao went to Li Wuliang for discussion.

Jun Yinglian sneakily entered his cabin.

Xuan Bing just wanted to get up, but in surprise, she found herself so weak everywhere on the body. Her body still smelled nice because of the pleasure. She suddenly felt so lazy that she wanted to sleep for another few hours...

When she realized somebody had come in, she looked up and found Jun Yinglian. She was smilingly staring at Xuan Bing.

Xuan Bing blushed, "Why are you here?"

"Why am I here? What? Can't I come?" Jun Yinglian pursed her lips. "Don't you think you are reaching too far as a concubine? How can you question me? Don't you know wrong it is to take other's business into your own hands? Don't you know how terrible it is to worry about other's business? You are a concubine. You don't get to talk that much..."

Xuan Bing's face turned red. She had no idea, but she actually had this feeling, like she was a cheating concubine being disciplined by the first lady. She felt like she was lower than Jun Yinglian, so she didn't dare to argue at all. With a low voice, she said, "You know I didn't mean that."

Jun Yinglian laughed, and then suddenly took off her shoes. Xuan Bing was surprised, "What are you doing?"

Jun Yinglian had already gotten on bed under the quilt, and held Xuan Bing, and then spoke in surprise, "Ah! How come you are naked?"

Xuan Bing nearly killed herself because of the embarrassment, "You... Keep your hands to yourself!"
