Chapter 1671: The Mysterious Big Sister

After some serious discussion, Li Wuliang couldn't stay patient anymore. He and Xue Danru quickly got on the way.

"Why don't we take revenge first? We can destroy that clan first. It won't be late to find Ye Xiao afterward." Xue Danru said.

"It may be late! What is more important than the reunion of my brother and I? Nothing!" Li Wuliang laughed and said, "The clan is never going to escape anyway. They won't just run and leave the house behind. Let's spare them for now. They are a bunch of scared cowards at the moment! We must find my brother as soon as we can!"

Someplace else.

In a mountain stronghold.

When people in this place heard about the One Meter Higher Sky, they didn't really know what it meant, so they took it as a joke. Hundreds of people laughed at the same time.

"People from the west are all cowards. They actually couldn't defeat one guy, and they even keep telling everybody how powerful that guy is... Hah hah hah... Ridiculous..."

They all laughed.

At this moment, a clear and cold voice sounded, giving a chill to the people like the cold wind from the snow mountain. The voice said, "What is so funny?"

A slim shadow appeared on the hillside, and it was a woman, who was like a part of the clouds in the sky.

The men who were laughing suddenly turned silent. The leader raised up his drink and awkwardly stood up. He bowed and said, "Big Sister... It is just a rumor from the west... It doesn't mean anything serious..."

The Big Sister was in black clothes with a black silk mask on her face. She was like an ice mountain, and she said in an extremely cold voice, "What is the rumor? Why is it hilarious? I am listening."

She was waiting for the answer, but she didn't sound interested at all.

"Yes. We just received the news." The leader flatteringly said, "There is a message from the west. It says a powerful man showed up in the west, who now has defeated all the forces along the twenty thousand mile road in the west... They even call this man the One Meter Higher Sky... That is absurd..."

He looked at the woman and said, "They said... No matter where the man goes to, he takes away everything valuable... He won't even leave one yellow spirit coin behind... They said he was peerless in the world for how good he was at extortion... If that is real, he must be a stingy person... If that isn't real, it must be just a joke... Anyway..."

The woman humphed and indifferently said, "What? Similar things keep happening in the Limitless Ocean, don't they? What interests you so much? I just don't understand..."

After that, she was about to leave when suddenly...

The leader kept his head low and mumbled in a low voice, "There are a lot of powerful robbers, but none of them is like this Xiao Monarch... He leaves nothing for others at all... He is truly the first man in the Limitless Ocean, even the Human Realm Upon Heavens... What he does is unacceptable..."

He didn't finish mumbling when he suddenly felt choked.

The Big Sister was shaken when she was about to leave. She hurriedly turned around and approached the leader quickly. The next moment, her hand had grabbed the man's collar. She raised the man up in the air and shouted, "What did you just say?"

Her voice was shaking. She was obviously hasty.

The leader was scared, so he mumbled, "I... I... I didn't... Nothing..." He sweated on the forehead, and he nearly peed himself... His heart was beating fast. He wondered what he had said to irritate the Big Sister...

"Repeat what you just said!" The lady sounded hastier.

"I... Oh... Please... I..." The leader was so scared. He started to cry and said, "Please, have mercy, Big Sister... I didn't mean anything... I wasn't..."

He obviously misunderstood the lady. He thought he had offended the lady without knowing how.

"What a piece of junk!" The lady stared at the others and said, "Did you talk about the One Meter Higher Sky? Tell me more..."

'Oh, it is that...'

The leader felt relieved, and he didn't have trouble speaking again. "Big Sister, I know something..." As he talked, he smiled flatteringly.

"Well, speak out now!" The lady was angry. She threw the leader on the floor and raged in fury.

"Yes... Yes, Big Sister... I am speaking... I am..." The leader smirked and said, "This is all I know..."

He told the lady everything he knew from the information he gathered outside; he didn't dare to miss any detail.

The leader realized that the lady's eyes were lightening up while she heard about the One Meter Higher Sky... She was shaking...

'It can't be...'

The leader couldn't help but guess.

He used to be the leader of a small gang. He wasn't strong, but he managed to make the gang survive in this place. His men were all having happy days...

Someday, something happened.

A young lady walked over the mountain. One of his men saw the beautiful lady, so he stopped her. Unexpectedly, the lady killed the man with one palm hit... After that, the lady killed her way up to the gang...

Over ninety men of the gang were captured. She made them kneel in a row. They saw how the lady killed the guy with one palm hit and tore his dead body into pieces, so they thought they were going to die the same way. However, the lady didn't kill any of them. She decided to settle down.

The leader was no longer the leader anymore... He was second to the Big Sister after that...

Since the Big Sister took over his seat, the gang started to live a better life. She was such a powerful cultivator, and nobody around this area could defeat her. She was improving fast... Again and again, she had a breakthrough and reached a new level...

The gang with stronger power got a better position in the area.

Many people came to join the gang after that.

Their life quality improved because of the Big Sister, but the days weren't happy days for these people. They sadly felt like the painful days never ended.

Chapter 1672: Weird Chirp of a Bird

The Big Sister urged her men to cultivate as hard as they could every day. She had made some tough standards, and everybody needed to reach certain levels at certain times...

Anybody who couldn't meet her standard would be punished... Nobody would like to recollect the memory of the punishment... The Big Sister was strict... She never spared anybody...

After some tough days, the gang became much more powerful than before... The name of the Big Sister started to rise in the area. The gang became the strongest force within thousands of miles...

Now, everybody respected her very much. They were all sincere.

However, nobody ever saw the lady's face. She always wore the silk mask...

Nobody ever dared to discuss her appearance.

She had a pair of sensitive ears. In the beginning, some men talked about her face after getting drunk, and she rushed to them and threw them into an ice hole which was a thousand feet deep as a punishment...

After three days, when they were released, they were about to die... They could barely move their eyeballs...

After that, everybody knew it was forbidden to talk about the Big Sister's face. Nobody dared to mention it again...

That was all. They had never seen the Big Sister get emotional for anything else... They had never seen the lady shaking like this...

'What is going on?'

'Is that One Meter Higher Sky related to the Big Sister?'

'Are they friends? Are they lovers? Are they a couple? Are they enemies?'

"The man, One Meter Higher Sky, is a young man in white clothes, who looks handsome. Is that right?" Her voice was shaking.

"Yes!"

"He said he was the Xiao Monarch, Ye Xiao. Is that correct?"

"Yes!"

"Is he handsome? Does he have a good looking face?"

"Yes!"

"Does he come from the west?"

"Yes!"

"Has he arrived at the Five Peaks Mountain?"

"Yes!"

"The Five Peaks Mountain is seventeen thousand miles away, isn't it?"

"Yes!"

"I need a map. Show me the shortest route to go there."

"Yes... Wait. What? Big Sister, what are you doing?" The leader was shocked. "The Five Peaks Mountain is seventeen thousand miles away, but that is a theoretical number. We don't know how far it truly is. There will be a lot of dangers on the way. Mountains, rivers, natural traps... There must be many superior cultivators... The powerful forces of the Limitless Ocean all have their secret strongholds everywhere... Although it is not the main road of the Limitless Ocean, it is almost as dangerous as the main road."

"Stop talking. Just do as I said."

"Please, Big Sister."

"One more word, and you will be locked up in the ice hole!"

"Yes, the map!"

The leader quickly caved.

The Big Sister never lied about this. If he kept talking, he would be spending the rest of his life in that ice hole...

He didn't dare to anger her.

While he was drawing the map, the lady was standing on the rock at the top of the mountain. She was looking at somewhere far away... In her eyes, there were some special feelings...

"Master... I finally heard about you..."

"Bing'er is on her way..."

"Please, wait for me, Master!"

...

Somewhere else.

The story about the One Meter Higher Sky was spreading fast...

Two young ladies in perfect body shape were running fast to the west in excitement.

"Brother, we are coming! We are going to reunite again... We are not leaving you again..."

"This is great! Shuang, hurry up!"

"I am faster than you... Han, look at my face. Do I look different? Have I turned ugly or pretty? Will he treat me as well as before?"

"Oh, come on... You should stop thinking this much... Can't you just calm down? Look, check me first... Am I tanned recently? Tell me first, and I will tell you how ugly you look..."

"I hate you!"

"I don't like you!"

"Come on!"

"Hurry up... Why is it so far... It looks close, but the horse runs to death..."

"What? You are a horse. I am not..."

"I am just saying... Don't you want to meet him as soon as possible?"

"Of course, I do!"

"I wonder did he meet his wives yet..."

"They are such lucky women... Our brother is such a great guy... They must be happy..."

"Oh no, Shuang! You are in love... I am going to tell Brother!"

"You wicked girl! I am going to rip your mouth!"

"Hah hah hah..."

They were laughing their way to the west.

There were mountains, rivers, villages... People were running toward Ye Xiao...

It was like there was a strong magnet iron in the west, which kept attracting these people to come.

They were all so excited, happy, and relieved... They had been waiting for this for two years!

Somewhere in the west, the One Meter Higher Sky, the Xiao Monarch, Ye Xiao, was resting in the forest. The cat and the hawk were still staying on his shoulders... They looked pretty peaceful and friendly... They just lay on the floor, enjoying the sunshine through the trees...

They had eaten so much.

The King of Poisons hunted a level-four spiritual beast, and they roasted it.

Ye Xiao was hungry. He ate over half of the beast. He realized the King of Poisons was good at cooking. At least his roasting skill was amazing. With his company, Ye Xiao started to enjoy the journey...

The King of Poisons was hiding behind a big tree, trying to rest too. He cooked, but he didn't get to eat anything... The three powerful figures ate everything. He didn't dare to ask for it... He should take time to rest because they were going to get on the road soon. Ye Xiao moved pretty fast.

Suddenly, they heard a clear chirp of a bird...

The chirp sounded weird. It must be special. It was like the laugh of a young lady, but it was definitely the chirp of a bird.

Erhuo, who was resting lazily on Ye Xiao's shoulder, suddenly got the ears to stand up.

The hawk suddenly stood up and shook its feathers too.

"What is going on?" Ye Xiao was surprised. The two little things had stayed with him for a long time. This was the first time they both had a strong reaction to something.

What made these two stood up at the same time?

Erhuo meowed and suddenly became a flash of white light. It had dashed out extremely fast. Hawky had flown up to the sky and became like a dark arrow shooting away too!

"What is it?" Ye Xiao was totally lost.

The two of them actually left him behind without telling him anything.

Nothing alike had ever happened before.

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1673: Battle of Spiritual Beasts

What was so special about the chirp? It actually drew the two loyal subordinates away!

The hawk didn't experience much in the world, but Erhuo was known as the Primal Spirit in Chaos. How could Erhuo lose its cool so easily?

That was unbelievable...

Ye Xiao humphed and said, "When you guys are back, I am going to give you a lesson!"

...

A big bird was flying over from somewhere far away. It looked pretty leisured.

The bird seemed to be fearless and casual because it knew that nobody in the Limitless Ocean dared to mess with him. After all, its master was Fang Wudi!

Fang Wudi was almost invincible in the Limitless Ocean!

The bird didn't fear anything.

It flew out for fun every day, and it had become its habit.

It must have been tired of other places, so it came to this area, where it barely went to... The spiritual qi in this area wasn't rich, and it was difficult to find good food... There were only poor mountains and rivers...

The bird decided to just fly around. It was going to return after filling its curiosity. It might need to wash its eyes after seeing so many ugly things in this area.

At this moment, something happened.

The bird noticed a fast stream of white light and a flash of a dark shadow moving over to it. Whatever they were, they moved extremely fast... They were actually faster than the bird itself. If they came with bad intentions, what should the bird do...

The bird realized how fast they were, so it immediately waved both of its wings to fly up. It only made a dash, but it had already risen thousands of feet high!

The bird knew that it wasn't moving as fast as it could, but that was already unbelievably faster than people could imagine. It was slower than the two moving lights, but it was sure that there was a chance to escape.

However, a white shadow flashed over it right after that...

Puff! –

A small claw hit it on the eye...

The bird exclaimed and turned a roll in the sky after being punched by that tiny fist... It almost fell to the ground...

The bird was frightened. The white shadow was not moving at top speed. It must be something incredibly powerful. The bird knew it was a tough fight, so it used the punch to move even faster, trying to escape.

However, the pain hit it on the head again. It opened its eyes and saw a small hawk grabbing its head with both claws. The nails nearly pierced through its skull.

'Holy hell... They weren't moving the fastest they could! Two spiritual beasts that were both faster than me are fighting me together! Really?'

The bird kept exclaiming and struggling. It started to fly like a shooting arrow. It stretched out both big wings, which were hundreds of feet wide. As it wielded the wings, it had moved tens of thousands of meters away.

The cat and the hawk still kept chasing after it, like two nails sticking on the bird's body. The cat's fist punched like a ten thousand kilogram hammer...

Every punch caused a blast on the bird's body, shaking its inner organs...

Because the bird was flying fast in the sky, it couldn't use its claws to grab the two little beasts...

The bird had flown hundreds of thousands of meters away, and it was punched seventeen times by the cat. The bird kept spitting out golden blood from its mouth... Suddenly, the bird remembered it could transform!

With the sound of a beep, the huge bird suddenly became smaller and smaller. It started to fall down like a shooting star.

Within seconds, the bird had become as small as a sparrow.

The hawk didn't see that coming, so it got swung away. Erhuo seemed to look much bigger now. The bird and the cat both fell off the sky rolling ahead. They were still fighting each other.

Puff puff! –

Erhuo and the bird both hit the floor.

They both stood up in a haze. One cat, one bird, they just stared at each other with hate in their eyes.

With an exclamation, Hawky was rushing down from the sky. It was upset! It claimed to be the king of the sky, but it actually got thrown down by its prey... That was embarrassing...

The bird was just like a sparrow. Its golden beak was bleeding... The blood wasn't golden anymore but in different colors. When the blood came out, it was golden, but then it became silver, and then pink, black, yellow...

It wasn't red, unlike normal blood...

The little bird went down on the floor, coughing like it was dying...

However, it didn't stop staring at Erhuo with hatred in its eyes.

Erhuo knew that things had come to an end. It moved elegantly again, pacing around the bird. Its whiskers were shaking as if it was enjoying playing with the bird... The bird was pacing around Erhuo as well...

The bird wasn't weaker than Hawky. In fact, it might be stronger than Hawky. Erhuo was confident, but it had no idea what to do about the bird yet. Erhuo walked elegantly. It was trying to find the weak point of the bird. It wanted to put the bird down with one strike. The cat wanted to take down the bird before Hawky arrived, so it was actually in a hurry.

'Such delicious food is right in front of me, yet I don't know how to eat it! When Hawky arrives, I would have to share half to it. It was so good that Hawky got thrown away... Now I get this chance to enjoy the bird alone... But I can't find a way to do it... That sucks!'

With a loud chirp, Hawky was approaching from the sky. Its sharp claws were cutting the air, making a jarring sound. Hawky didn't hesitate to grab the bird with both claws, but the bird jumped aside with a shout. Erhuo finally saw its weak point at this moment, so it moved forward and scratched the bird with its sharp claws... The bird got three deep scratch marks on its body...

"Chirp... Chirp..." The bird was wounded, so it angrily chirped. Suddenly, it raised both of its wings up and unleashed some fire.

Erhuo's reaction was surprising. Ye Xiao would have been frightened if he saw it. Erhuo meowed and then opened its mouth to get the fire. It actually swallowed the fire!

...

Chapter 1674: A Bird that Burrowed

The bird couldn't beat the cat in the competition of speed, and its fire attack was swallowed by Erhuo. Erhuo and Hawky were attacking together. The bird was dying!

The next moment, what happened shocked Erhuo and Hawky.

The bird actually burrowed into the ground.

Hawky shouted and rushed down to it but hit the ground in the end. The powerful blast created a pit on the ground, and it only grabbed some feathers off the bird. Hawky hit the ground so hard, and it felt dizzy...

The bird was gone...

Erhuo shouted angrily, "Meow!"

Its hairs all stood straight up, and it fiercely stared at Hawky.

'It is your fault! You shouldn't attack when you got down! I was going to get it! I have locked it up with my invincible pacing technique! It didn't have a chance to get away! You did this! You got into it, and we lost control!'

Hawky cooed and lowered its head. It apparently knew it should be blamed.

Hawky's claw was still grabbing the colorful feathers. It wanted to throw them, but Erhuo shouted to stop it.

"Oh, my two great spiritual beasts are back!" Ye Xiao stared at them and humphed.

"Meow..."

"Coo..."

“Don’t! No chicanery! You two need discipline! Do you really think there is nothing I can do to punish you?” Ye Xiao was angry. “Both of you, get back to the Space! You are in confinement!”

Erhuo hastily jumped up to Ye Xiao’s chest and rubbed him with its furry head. Hawky got on his shoulder and rubbed his face with its head too.

Erhuo always did this to Ye Xiao, but Hawky didn’t always do such a thing. They obviously knew how to deal with Ye Xiao’s anger...

“You two little things!” Ye Xiao helplessly smiled.

The two beasts realized that Ye Xiao was not angry anymore, so they were relieved but didn’t stop fawning...

Suddenly, the feather in Hawky’s claws fell off to the floor...

It wasn’t so special, but something happened, and it drew Ye Xiao’s attention...

“What is it?” Ye Xiao saw it so he asked.

The feather was not a feather anymore. It became something colorful and shiny, and it looked like a root of some plant. It was extraordinary...

That was not some feather of some bird!

As Ye Xiao took a closer look, the colorful root was as thick as a finger, about thirty centimeters long... There were small branches too... It must be a part of the roots of some big tree...

The feather had become something else!

“Meow...” Erhuo stared at the weird root.

“Coo!” Hawky was shocked too. Apparently, it never thought the feather could transform. It actually got back something so magical!

The next moment, the cat and the hawk left Ye Xiao behind and rushed down to get the root. Ye Xiao was surprised how fast the two beasts could move.

“Meow! It is mine!”

“Coo! Mine! Mine!”

“Calm down! Don’t you move!” Ye Xiao shouted. “It is mine! The one who touches it will be shut in the Space in confinement for half a year! One year!”

Erhuo and Hawky both stopped and rolled up their eyes.

‘I have never seen a shameless man like you before. How could you get the food away from your pets? You are a terrible person!’

Ye Xiao picked up the colorful and shiny root. He held it in front of his eyes and looked surprised. “What is this thing?” He kept turning it over and over and smelled it for a little. Suddenly, he felt a strong flow of spiritual qi rushing into his nose. He almost choked...

The spiritual qi from the root was even heavier than the spiritual qi in the Boundless Space!

Ye Xiao was shocked.

After the despoiling around for all those days, the Boundless Space was richer than ever before. The spiritual qi in the Boundless Space was the richest. The spiritual root's spiritual qi wasn't pure purple qi, but the spiritual qi was still pure and rich. That was rare!

What was that root?

Ye Xiao looked at the four roots in his hand, and he was confused.

It must be the root of some extremely valuable plant. It must be something at an extremely high level...

"Where did you get this?" Ye Xiao was serious.

"Meow meow meow meow..." Erhuo explained everything.

"Did you mean it was a bird?" Ye Xiao was obviously astounded.

Erhuo and Hawky nodded.

Ye Xiao was lost. 'A bird? The root of a bird?'

"You found a bird, so you rushed over to fight it?" Ye Xiao was confused.

"You beat it down from the sky? It became a small bird? You beat it again on the ground? The bird unleashed fire? It was amazing?"

"Erhuo swallowed the fire? You two were going to catch it?"

"The bird burrowed? It fled away?"

"Hawky, you went after it, and grabbed the bird's feather?"

"The feather suddenly became this?"

"A bird? The root?"

Ye Xiao was dumbfounded. He was sure that the two little things wouldn't lie to him. Otherwise, he would be furious about it. It was like a terrible lie! Since when did the feather of a bird would change into the root of a plant?

And there was never a bird that could burrow...

"What happened? Erhuo, tell me more about it!" Ye Xiao turned over and looked at Erhuo.

Erhuo kept making gestures, blaming Hawky for being stupid. "Hawky was stupid. I swallowed that bird's fire, and I locked it down. I was so close to catching it... Hawky suddenly rushed down from the sky and interrupted our battle... The bird got the chance to flee... That stupid hawk ruined my plan, and the bird left."

"Coo..."

Hawky didn't agree. "Who knew that bird could burrow? If you got the bird, you wouldn't share a damn thing with me! How could I not get myself involved as soon as I could! Besides, I grabbed some of its feathers! What did you do? You didn't even realize what happened! You are the useless one..."

"Really? Are you sure you want to talk to me like that? If you didn't stand in my way, I would have caught it from behind! You actually gave such an absurd explanation! I am going to cut your food for the day!"

The cat and the hawk quarreled.

Chapter 1675: Precious Spiritual Medicinal Plant

"Stop!" Ye Xiao stopped the two beasts and said, "Erhuo, tell me what this is, will you? You are the Primal Spirit in Chaos. You know what it is, don't you?"

"Meow, meow..." Erhuo tried to explain.

"You mean... You don't know what it is either? You have never seen anything better than this? Come on. Tell me something I don't know. I know this is definitely something valuable. Don't call yourself the Primal Spirit in Chaos ever again! Shame on you!"

"Meow! Meow..." Erhuo stared at Ye Xiao angrily.

"Okay... I see... There are a lot of weird things in the vast universe... There is always something you don't know... Well, that makes sense... Hmm... You said that you have heard about similar cases. When the treasure gets a spiritual mind, it will transform into a living creature. Is that true? Like a bird?"

"Only the best treasure has the power, right?"

Ye Xiao was slobbering over the treasure already.

'It must be some really special treasure... If I have it...'

'I already feel happy just thinking about it...'

What Erhuo said stopped Ye Xiao's good dream about it...

"What did you say? Does it belong to somebody? There is a jade plate on its neck?" Ye Xiao was surprised when he heard Erhuo.

'Is there really such an idiot in the world? Someone has such a great treasure, yet he doesn't use it on his cultivation but raises it like it is a pet!'

'And it is free to fly anywhere it wants?'

'That was unbelievable...'

'No matter who the man is, he must be showing off to the others... This is such a surprise!'

"What now? The owner doesn't know what the bird truly is? He found the bird as a bird? He decided to keep it as a pet only because it was pretty? He doesn't have a pair of sharp eyes like you do?"

Erhuo nodded to agree, especially with the compliment.

Ye Xiao thought for a while, and he believed that was the truth because it made sense.

If the owner absorbed the energy from such a precious treasure, he should have been at the top of the world!

Nobody could resist such a great treasure!

Ye Xiao was lost in his thoughts. He recollected all that he learned from the books. He found nothing about such a treasure.

One book had a description that seemed to be relevant. 'There used to be some treasures with personalities. They are sacred, and they can become human...'

That was a myth, but it seemed to describe the bird perfectly.

A medicinal plant became a living bird... That was difficult to understand... It was unique!

The treasure must be intelligent. It lived in the form of a bird, so it could find someone to keep it as a pet...

A plant was always just a plant, but this one actually managed to live as a bird for a long time...

'That is ridiculous...'

'That is such an incredible thing...'

Sometimes, the safest place was the most dangerous one. Staying with a human being, the treasure kept itself safe...

It lived day after day with a superior cultivator... One small mistake, the treasure would possibly be eaten... However, it lived safely for a long time as a bird... A free bird...

The spiritual medicinal plant was intelligent!

According to Erhuo's description, the bird was even stronger than Hawky. It was a level-seven spiritual beast! Hawky was only at level seven too!

'That is ridiculous...'

'How fortunate the plant must have got?'

According to what Erhuo said, when a precious medicinal plant became a living bird, it must be weak in the beginning... Although it would grow stronger and stronger as a bird, it had to get through a difficult time in the beginning... There must be all kinds of enemies for it when it was weak... It needed a stroke of great luck to survive those days... The bird actually made it! That was so lucky!

The spiritual medicinal plant must be horribly powerful before turning into a bird!

Ye Xiao was excited about it.

'I am going to get the plant!'

'I want it!'

People said that a pet was always like its master. In fact, the master was always like his pet as well. Erhuo was stingy and greedy, and Ye Xiao was apparently the same... The bird must have gone through so many difficulties to survive, and Ye Xiao already decided to have it... That was domineering and shameless!

Ye Xiao wanted to have the treasure, but he didn't want it for himself. He realized that Erhuo was quite upset for losing that bird, or that plant. Erhuo was down.

'There was an opportunity to rise to the top of the world, but I didn't take it seriously... Now it was gone... If only I can have the chance again...'

Erhuo regretted it. It was upset and angry!

Soon, its emotion affected Ye Xiao, and what happened next had truly made him angry.

Ye Xiao threw the four roots into the Wood Space. After that...

With the sound of a boom, the spiritual qi in the Wood Space exploded!

The spiritual qi started to roll up and burst out in the Wood Space. In the end, it became a storm, hitting the boundary of the Wood Space and rushed into the Boundless Space...

The Wood Space didn't get seriously impacted. The Wood Space only got the spiritual qi burst out... The Spirit Space was worse...

The spiritual qi kept turning into energy crystal stones in the Spirit Space. When the qi rushed out the Wood Space, hundreds of crystal stones appeared in the Spirit Space!

Hundreds!

Just in a second!

Ye Xiao's eyes turned red!

That was only the impact of a few roots of that treasure. If he got the entire plant...

Ye Xiao was excited!

...

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1676: The Fool is Here

Ye Xiao was sure. As long as he got the precious plant, the Wood Space would be completed!

The entire Boundless Space would be greatly improved!

His East-rising Purple Qi would probably reach the fourth level!

He, as a cultivator in the Human Realm Upon Heavens, would probably reach the Immortality Stage, even the Undead Stage!

He would have to eat the entire medicinal plant!

“That medicinal plant... I mean... The bird... Where does it go?” Ye Xiao’s eyes were glittering.

“...”

Erhuo and Hawky both kept their heads low. They were pretty upset about it. They raised up their heads and looked at Ye Xiao with disdain in their eyes like Ye Xiao was an idiot.

‘Our master is getting more and more stupid... We don’t know where the bird goes, do we? It fled away under the ground... If we knew where it went, we would keep chasing it, wouldn’t we?’

“You f...” Ye Xiao stopped when he nearly spoke out the f word. He was so upset. ‘Where am I going to find it without even knowing where it went?’

...

Ye Xiao was upset. Erhuo was upset. Hawky was upset...

The three of them were all upset. As they walked ahead, they breathed a sigh.

At this moment, he wasn’t like the One Meter Higher Sky anymore!

He really didn’t have the mood to play the robbery game of a young lord!

It was such a great opportunity to get that precious plant when Erhuo and Hawky went after it!

It was great luck to have the opportunity once, and he knew it would be too much to ask for a second opportunity!

A spiritual plant that had become a living thing that perceived the best on how to keep itself safe. It was never going to make the same mistake again!

Ye Xiao had lost the opportunity, and he didn’t care about anything he was going to rob from some stupid gangs anymore...

He walked out three hundred miles... The three of them were all upset... It seemed they were getting worse...

At this moment, a long shout pierced the clouds in the sky!

Whatever made that shout was approaching them with a domineering power. It was still hundreds of miles away, but the power was already oppressing...

Ye Xiao could sense the strong power!

It must be a superior cultivator!

It must be someone of the Immortality Stage!

In the shout of this powerful man, there was anger! The cultivator must have tried to hold it down but failed!

It wasn't easy to irritate an Immortality Stage cultivator. Who had the power to provoke an Immortality Stage cultivator like that?

Ye Xiao was surprised, but he decided not to get involved in somebody else's business. He didn't want to mess with a superior cultivator like that. With the King of Poisons, he kept walking ahead as if he had heard nothing.

After a while, before the shout stopped resounding, the horrible power had come to him.

It was so close, and it didn't seem to move anymore.

Erhuo and Hawky were both excited again.

They were as excited as when they found the medicinal plant. In fact, they were more excited now!

"What is it?" Ye Xiao felt something wrong, but he wished things weren't as bad as he thought.

"Meow..." Erhuo was so excited. "That is the power of that medicinal plant..."

"Coo..." Hawky nodded. "That's right! Chief is telling the truth..."

Ye Xiao's face twisted and he said, "Are you telling me... This superior cultivator... who can shock the entire world with a shout... is the owner of that medicinal plant? Is he... the idiot?"

"Meow!"

"Coo!"

Erhuo and Hawky nodded like crazy.

"Holy f*ck!" Ye Xiao was blank.

This must be the most horrible situation! It was the worst!

It must be... The bird must have returned to tell its master what had happened... Now the owner was here for revenge!

Ye Xiao was impressed that a plant could be so intelligent... It was amazing...

Ye Xiao suddenly didn't know how to react. 'Am I lucky? Am I going to have a second chance now? Or... It seems to be a pie falling to my hand but turns out to be an iron pie that is going to crush me to death... A pie that is made from some fine Chaotic Iron must be a great thing, but if I am going to get killed by it... That is not so good!'

'This is definitely painful and joyful at the same time.'

'The superior cultivator, the owner of the bird, may still be an idiot. I don't know, but I know he is incredibly powerful. He is at least as powerful as Chihuo. He is much more powerful than me...'

'I can't give up the medicinal plant, can I...?'

'Well, every cloud has a silver lining...'

Ye Xiao was trying to come up with a plan, but the abrupt roar had drawn his attention.

“It was you! You sent your beasts to hurt my little Bab, didn’t you?”

The man seemed to be pretty outraging, but Ye Xiao couldn’t help wanting to laugh.

‘Your little Bab?’

‘Oh my heavens...’

‘No wonder Erhuo said the man was an idiot.’

‘If he isn’t, why does he talk like one?’

However, because of what the man called the bird, Ye Xiao knew that the bird must be very important to the man. The man didn’t know that he was deceived by the spiritual medicinal plant though...

With a sound, a shadow appeared. A big man showed up in front of Ye Xiao, whose eyes stared at Ye Xiao like lightning in the night.

Wherever he looked at, even the darkest shadow in the forest was brightened up. His cold power was like a huge mountain oppressing down into everybody’s heart.

The King of Poisons fell to the ground and couldn’t move when he was oppressed by power. He got to a tree and held himself up, but he was sweating and didn’t see anything but desperation.

He was a Saint Origin Stage cultivator, so he knew the supreme levels. He knew that the man was beyond the Saint Origin Stage! He reckoned the man was going to win the fight!

“Chirp, chirp, chirp...”

The voice of the bird sounded like the warm whisper of a girl. It was adorable.

Ye Xiao looked over and saw a colorful bird on the man’s shoulder, which was as small as a sparrow, jumping up and down.

The bird was jumping and pointing at Ye Xiao with its wing. Hmm... It was pointing at Erhuo and Hawky... The bird was telling its master about the two beasts...

“Master, those two! The damn cat and the damn hawk bullied me! You must avenge me...”

Ye Xiao almost laughed out loud.

The bird didn’t lose any feather. There was no feather missing on its back...

Apparently, it fixed the feathers by itself.

Chapter 1677: Fang Wudi!

It was a special skill of the spiritual medicinal plant. As long as it had enough energy, it also cured the wounds immediately!

Well, it had to fix the mess. If it didn’t fix the wound, the efficacy of the plant would be unleashed. Before it had the chance to take revenge, its master would have stew it already...

“How dare you!” The man shouted angrily, “Why did you boldly bully my bird?”

‘Bully your bird...’

Ye Xiao couldn’t stand it anymore. He laughed out loudly...

‘That was... embarrassingly ambiguous...’

‘I am interested in your bird, and I want to swallow it... But... Pah... This doesn’t sound right! I don’t want to blow your bird!’

The big man stared at Ye Xiao and said, “Hey, you! Why are you laughing? Your cat and bird bullied my bird! What do you think I should do now?”

Ye Xiao tried not to laugh again, and said, “Well... Hmm... It is a normal thing that animals fight each other... You don’t want to have a fight for this, do you? Even if you don’t feel ashamed about it, I do!”

The man raged up in fury. “That is some sharp tongue! Your cat and hawk have taken advantage of my bird! My bird is the most important part of my life!”

Ye Xiao couldn’t hold it anymore, and he laughed so hard that he nearly choked.

‘Your bird is the most important part of your life? My bird is the most important part of my life as well! Every man’s bird matters! But you don’t have to say it out so loud...’

“Why do you laugh?” The man was an experienced man, so he realized what he said could be embarrassing. His face turned red and he shouted, “Kid, you are messing with the wrong man! How dare you laugh at me, Fang Wudi!”

‘Fang Wudi!’

The King of Poisons heard the name, and he felt even more despairing.

‘Fang Wudi... The man who is more horrible than a demon!’

In the west of the Limitless Ocean, Fang Wudi was definitely the most horrible man!

“Fang Wudi...” Ye Xiao clicked his tongue and said, “Good name! It is such a great name... What do you want from me, Brother Fang?”

“Brother Fang?” Fang Wudi was annoyed. “Did you just call me Brother Fang? How dare you!”

The bird on his shoulder coo with a sneer. After that, it rubbed Fang Wudi’s face, standing on his shoulder, chirping like a baby. It was urging Fang Wudi to avenge for it.

“What I want is simple. Give me the cat and the hawk!” Fang Wudi humphed and smirked. “As for you? Cut your own arm off. Cut your eyeballs out. Then you can get the f*ck off. I have been trying not to kill anybody. You are lucky today!”

Cut the arm off and cut the eyeballs out...

Ye Xiao was irritated.

He slowly narrowed his eyes and said, "Fang Wudi, it was just a fight between our pets. Do you have to push things to a terrible end?"

Fang Wudi humphed and said fiercely, "If my bird bullied your pets, even if my bird killed your pets, it is nothing. The problem here is that your pets don't know how to show respect. How can we free them from punishments? What I asked is already the best you can have. Kid, you know, I am not a man with mercy. I don't want to kill people, but I can!"

Ye Xiao half closed his eyes and said, "Well, you are not a man with a nice heart. However, I, the Xiao Monarch, is not a soft person either! If you want something from me, you should fight for it!"

"You are Ye Xiao? The One Meter Higher Sky?" Fang Wudi stared at Ye Xiao and said, "It is you!"

Ye Xiao humphed and saw the greed in the man's eyes. He knew what Fang Wudi wanted.

The bird kept flying over the man's head, chirping like it was the one who made the final decision. As it flickered its wings, it pointed at Ye Xiao, like a man pointing and shouting at another person.

Ye Xiao stared at the bird and showed a wicked smile.

'You? A bloody bird? How dare you challenge me!'

'Do you know I am the world's strongest talker?'

'You will see what I am going to do to you!'

"Fang Wudi, you came with hate and anger, but now you want what I have." Ye Xiao was disdainful. "I never think these are treasures because they don't worth much. Do you actually want them so badly?"

"What do you mean?" Fang Wudi stared at Ye Xiao. His eyes were full of greed.

His hand had sneakily held the handle of his sword.

He was sure he would win the fight, but he had heard about the stories of the Xiao Monarch, so he didn't dare to underestimate the enemy.

He had lived in the Limitless Ocean for a long time, and he knew how to survive the dangerous world.

Underestimating the enemy was the biggest mistake.

"What do I mean? I mean you are a super f*cking moron!" Ye Xiao didn't care to tease and abuse the man. After that, he stared at Fang Wudi like he was an idiot. "The world's most valuable treasure is right next to you. It must have stayed with you for such a long time, but you don't know. Look at you. You are actually covetous on other's ordinary things! It is like... You are holding a purple crystal bowl in your hands, yet you keep staring at other's cheap china. If you are not a moron, who is?"

Fang Wudi raged up and said, "You actually abused me! Do you want to die?"

Ye Xiao was speechless.

He had already made it so clear, yet the man didn't realize what he was talking about... Fang Wudi didn't care about the treasure but got irritated because he was called a moron...

“Wait... Say it clearly!” Fang Wudi finally realized what he should pay attention to.

Ye Xiao humphed and said, “You just annoyed me. Do you think I would still tell you?”

‘I am not telling you anything.’

‘I am going to let you die in ignorance!’

The bird was cautious and frightened when Ye Xiao spoke of the world’s most valuable treasure. It stared at Ye Xiao and slightly moved both its wings up. It was ready to fly up to the sky at any second.

Apparently, the bird was quite attentive and careful. As Ye Xiao refused to speak more of it, it felt relieved.

However, it didn’t dare to chirp again, just stood on the man’s shoulder quietly, and stared at Ye Xiao in the eyes. Apparently, it was still cautious.

‘The man talked about the world’s most valuable treasure... He didn’t mean me, did he?’

Chapter 1678: Are You a Sword Man?

The bird was worried.

‘The man is so young. Does he really have such sharp eyes?’

‘Although the man is young, he tamed the two extremely fast beasts... I shouldn’t underestimate him...’

‘This is going to be tough...’

‘I am truly the world’s most valuable treasure, but... If people all know the truth, my life is going to be difficult... I am not guilty of anything, but being valuable makes me a target to everybody...’

Fang Wudi humphed and drew out his sword. – Clang! – His eyes were filled with thirst for blood. He looked calm, and said, “Ye Xiao, you have been tormenting the Limitless Ocean for quite some days with the name of the One Meter Higher Sky. Today, it is your payday! Go to hell!”

Ye Xiao was shocked. He knew people had been accusing him since he became a cultivator, but this was the first time he was accused of tormenting anybody. However, he understood immediately. He blandly smiled and took two steps back. He waved both his hands, so Hawky flew up to the sky and Erhuo suddenly disappeared.

Ye Xiao reached out one hand and there was a sword in it.

It was the Stars Sword.

As he wielded the sword, the stars started shining and became a long river in the sky.

Ye Xiao stared at the glittering sword. He didn’t look at Fang Wudi. He said, “Fang Wudi, mostly, people make trouble for themselves. Today, you asked for your own death. Do not blame anybody else for this. Do you agree?”

Ye Xiao had been improving fast since he arrived in the Human Realm Upon Heavens. However, he had always defeated his enemies by stratagem. The only fight he had participated in was the fight against Master Xiao. He didn't really get himself involved. Nobody ever made him fight in full power yet.

There were a lot of powerful men in the Monarch's Hall. Since Ye Xiao reached the Saint Origin Stage, he could see through the power of every Saint Origin Stage cultivator. When he had a contest with one of his men in the Monarch's Hall, neither side would make some truly fierce attacks. Contests like that didn't mean much for Ye Xiao. He had encountered many fights for some days traveling in the Limitless Ocean, but it always only took him a few moves to defeat the enemy. He never had a chance to enjoy the fight.

Now, Fang Wudi was here, who was much more powerful than Ye Xiao, one stage higher than Ye Xiao in the cultivation level system. Ye Xiao was on fire.

He knew Fang Wudi was much more powerful, and he knew he might lose, but he had a lot of equipment that might help him win the fight.

Most importantly, he wanted to seize the opportunity to test his true power.

He thought he could defeat all Saint Origin Stage cultivators, but that wasn't proved in practical fights. Fang Wudi was much stronger than a Saint Origin Stage cultivator. He might not be as good as the Red Fire Lord, Chihuo, but he was at least a superior cultivator in the Immortality Stage.

He had never fought against a man at such a powerful level!

He wanted to have a fight like this!

He wanted to prove himself right. He wanted to consolidate his power of the Saint Origin Stage!

Fang Wudi could feel Ye Xiao's enmity. He looked more serious now. As he shook his hand, the bird flew up high and disappeared.

It was not a good idea to have a pet on the shoulder in a fight. If the enemy was weak, having a pet as a company might be fine. If the enemy was powerful, it was better to keep the pet away.

Fang Wudi thought that Ye Xiao had let the two beasts leave to keep the pets safe...

However, he was wrong. Ye Xiao let the two little things go, not because he wanted them to be safe. When Erhuo and Hawky disappeared, people should be more frightened by them!

"This is the Stars Sword!" Ye Xiao's sword was shining cold lights. He calmly introduced, "It is made of the irons from the cosmos, heart of the stars, soul of the cold sea, and the colorful fire of the East Mountain. It took seventeen years to forge this masterpiece. It is about eight kilograms. It is sharp and unbreakable! It cuts gold and jade, shaves steels!"

Fang Wudi seemed to be shocked.

This was a fight about life and death. Normally, the less the enemy knew about oneself, the better. Ye Xiao actually told the enemy everything about his weapon. That was rare and surprising. Fang Wudi was shocked.

Ye Xiao was being honest, and Fang Wudi reckoned it would be a shame not to do the same.

“Are you a swordsman?” Fang Wudi looked a little worried.

“Yes!” Ye Xiao was calm. He was looking at Fang Wudi’s sword.

Fang Wudi took a deep breath and raised up his sword. “It doesn’t have a name. It is made of the iron of stars, steel of the earth, the essence of the three mountains, steel of the colorful clouds, and some other materials. It took six years to finish this sword. When it was finished, the light shined up the entire East Mountain. It is about four kilograms. It breaks everything. What a divine weapon from upon the heavens!”

“A divine weapon from upon the heavens? That must be a great sword!” Ye Xiao praised the sword.

The best sword was the most suitable sword. Weapons are at different levels according to their materials, forge techniques, and other factors. They could roughly be classified as failure, normal-grade, medial-grade, superior-grade, transcendent-grade, untrammled-grade, and dream-untrammled-grade.

Ninety percent of the weapons in the world were in the failure class, such as the weapons in the markets. These weapons were made of some normal steel. Normal-grade weapons were always made of some essence of the normal materials, which weren’t so terrible. Weapons above medial-grade were all made of some rare materials, which were known as divine weapons.

Bu Xiangfeng’s sword, the Farewell Sword, was Medial-grade, which was also one of the weakest divine weapons. However, it was already extremely rare and valuable.

The new Farewell Sword, which was reforged by Ye Xiao, had become superior-grade. It was now one of the best superior-grade weapons. In fact, the weapons of the people in the Monarch’s Hall, which were reforged by Ye Xiao, were mostly superior-grade.

Fang Wudi’s nameless sword was also a superior-grade weapon. It was even better than the new Farewell Sword, the best of the superior-grade divine weapons. If Fang Wudi wasn’t such a powerful cultivator, he wouldn’t have such a wonderful sword!

Having a good sword represented the power of the cultivator. It was such a great enhancement!

“Your sword is not bad.” Fang Wudi blandly said.

Fang Wudi was an experienced cultivator. He didn’t really know Ye Xiao’s sword, but from the glittering lights, he knew that sword must be extraordinary. He was even greedier when he thought of taking over the sword after defeating Ye Xiao.

Chapter 1679: Burst!

“Please!” Ye Xiao reached out one hand.

“Please!” Fang Wudi reached out a hand too.

Ye Xiao stopped talking. With a long shout, he jumped up to the sky, and then dashed down like a shooting star. He moved casually with the glittering sword in his hand and the sounding thunderclaps around the sword.

“Nice move!” Fang Wudi shouted and said, “Just good enough to have such a fine sword!”

As he turned around, the nameless sword unleashed many streams of cold lights shooting over to Ye Xiao.

When the weapons of both sides were at the same level, the cultivator’s own cultivation power was the key to the result of the fight. Fang Wudi was experienced in battles, so he naturally chose to fight with his ascendancy against Ye Xiao’s shortage.

“Laugh of the Monarch, Worldly Laughter Blast!” Ye Xiao knew the enemy was going to make a direct strike, but he actually stopped moving. Only the lights of his sword were still moving forward. It was amazing!

“Good!” Fang Wudi didn’t move aside either. He made a quick turn and unleashed eight streams of sword lights out to block Ye Xiao’s attack.

The two of them finally started to fight, and both of them knew more about the enemy...

Fang Wudi confirmed that Ye Xiao was really at level seven of the Saint Origin Stage, which was much weaker than him. As long as he could keep fighting directly, he would win the fight easily with his surpassing power!

Ye Xiao realized something as well. Since he reached the Seven Golden Lotuses, he could see through the power of every Saint Origin Stage cultivator. When he tried to figure out Fang Wudi’s true power, he saw nothing but a haze, which meant the man was extremely powerful. Fang Wudi was not as powerful as the seven great ancestors, or the Purple Dragon King, or the Golden Phoenix King, but it seemed he was a little stronger than Chihuo. Ye Xiao reckoned he must be a top-class Immortality Stage cultivator!

As the fight started, the haze was gone. Ye Xiao didn’t know everything about the enemy, but at least he knew how powerful the enemy actually was. He was beyond level nine of the Saint Origin Stage indeed, but still a little bit lower than the Immortality Stage.

He seemed to be better than Chihuo only because Chihuo was a dying old man, so Chihuo looked weaker. Besides, Fang Wudi wasn’t powerful enough to freely disguise his true power like some really powerful top-stage cultivators!

Ye Xiao was sure now. The enemy was powerful indeed, but not unbreakable. At least he still had a chance to defeat him!

Ye Xiao came up with an idea, so he turned the sword lights over. The sword lights gathered together and became one broad stream of sword light!

“Eight into one!”

Ye Xiao’s sword lights became one, and it erupted!

The sword light was moving fast. Within a second, it had already reached Fang Wudi’s chest.

Fang Wudi raised his sword to block it!

The two swords crashed!

Boom! –

Ye Xiao's sleeves were flickering, and he took three steps back.

Fang Wudi was surprised. He couldn't stand firm, so he took two steps back. He shouted and said, "You are truly good at the way of the sword! What a good move! The energy in your sword blade was smooth and sharp! I don't see much of the energy leaking! However, if this is the best you can do, you are going to fail today!"

It seemed Ye Xiao was winning in that crash...

Ye Xiao's sword moved, and everything around them seemed to move after him. It was amazing. Fang Wudi didn't have other alternatives but chose to wield his sword around to defend himself. However, Ye Xiao suddenly gathered the eight sword lights together to make one strike directly.

Fang Wudi didn't have time to withdraw his sword lights in different directions.

Therefore, it was difficult for Fang Wudi to deal with Ye Xiao's focal strike. However, Fang Wudi was still much stronger than Ye Xiao. He quickly raised his spiritual energy to resist Ye Xiao's focal attack. They had equal shares in the first crash!

In fact, Ye Xiao was still taking the initiative. Fang Wudi said that Ye Xiao was going to fail, and he wasn't lying. Ye Xiao had gathered all the energy to make that focal attack, but Fang Wudi only made a compromised move to defend. He barely used no more than half of his true power in this crash, and it brought up equal results for both sides. Ye Xiao was much weaker!

Fang Wudi was an expert cultivator. He knew why he didn't win the first crash. Ye Xiao's sword art was amazing, and that was the only reason he didn't lose it yet. As long as Fang Wudi could avoid getting affected by Ye Xiao's swordplay, Ye Xiao could never hit him. As the fight went on, Ye Xiao was eventually going to lose!

Ye Xiao took three steps back. He was shocked as well. 'Is this the true power of a top-level Saint Origin Stage cultivator? I have done such a thorough plan... My amazing sword move has weakened his power, but after the crash, I actually need to take one more step back than he does!'

'If he was in full power, I should have been severely injured by now!'

'He is truly so much more powerful than me!'

"It is the courtesy to return the attack after being attacked from the enemy!" Fang Wudi jumped up with his sword. There was actually a flow of dark qi rising up and became like a black dragon, shooting down to Ye Xiao.

After that, there were sword lights following the dark dragon like a mountain of sword lights, running over to Ye Xiao.

"Long Laughter in the Sky!" Ye Xiao moved the sword.

“Angry Laughter in the Sea!” Another move.

“Worldly Laughter Blast!” One sword move again.

“Laughter upon the World!” Again.

Four of the Monarch’s Nine Moves moved as one to fight against the dark dragon from the sky. However, the true power of the cultivators was the only thing mattered, not the martial arts. Even though Ye Xiao continually made four moves, he was failing.

As the sword lights glittering, Ye Xiao was sounded, and he started to bleed.

“Stars Sword!”

Ye Xiao made a long shout. It looked like he was going to make the final move now. The Stars Sword actually shot out like an angry dragon, pierced through the sword lights behind the dark dragon, flew out over a hundred feet to get Fang Wudi!

Fang Wudi humphed and said, “A great swordsman never leaves his sword. You actually threw your sword away to deal with my attack. I assume all your tricks have been exhausted!”

He suddenly clapped both hands to stop and hold the Stars Sword.

Ye Xiao had lost his sword now. Was it the end of the fight?

However, at this moment, Ye Xiao suddenly shouted loudly, “Burst!”

The Stars Sword in Fang Wudi’s hands suddenly exploded.

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1680: This is a Game

That explosion was such a surprise. Fang Wudi didn’t see it coming, so he got hit and started bleeding badly.

He angrily said, “What the hell was that?”

Ye Xiao looked sad and said, “You pushed me too hard, so I sacrificed my sword to save myself. What is the problem?”

“The extreme art of swords is to sacrifice the sword!” Ye Xiao looked like a mad man. “The great Sword Dao. The sword lives, the man lives. The sword dies, the man dies. This is a fight that decides life or death. My sword has died in the enemy’s hands. I think I should let myself die along with the sword on you!”

Suddenly, he turned crazy. He rushed forward with nothing in his hands!

“You want to die with your sword? I am happy to help! Just die with your bloody path of the sword!” Fang Wudi shouted and threw his sword aside as well. He made a fist with a bare hand and smashed down on Ye Xiao like a hammer. He was going to kill Ye Xiao with one strike.

He thought that since Ye Xiao, the Sword Dao expert had given up his sword, he must be desperate. Fang Wudi was much more powerful than Ye Xiao. No matter how Ye Xiao was going to fight, he was never going to win this.

Fang Wudi wanted to kill Ye Xiao with one strike and take over all the valuable items. That was it. He reckoned the two beasts were never going to escape him anyway.

However, it was his first time to fight a great expert swordsman like Ye Xiao... He felt bad for it, especially for that good sword. Now the sword was broken. What a shame!

Fang Wudi didn't waste time thinking. He didn't slow down a bit. The smash was going to take Ye Xiao's life.

The fists were going to crash soon...

After this, this fight was over.

Fang Wudi raised up the power in his fist. He wanted to end this in full power.

The two sides were moving forward at the same time fiercely. Fang Wudi's fist attack was going to kill. Ye Xiao, who was rushing crazily, suddenly stopped when the fists touched. It was so unexpected! At the same time, his fist suddenly burst into a bright mass of sword light!

That sword light was splendid! As it appeared, it was like a king that was descending the world.

It seemed nothing in the world could compare this sword light!

Fang Wudi felt terribly painful in his hand. The erupting sword light actually ripped his skin and tore his arm into pieces. That was not all. The sword light kept dashing forward, and it was going near his shoulder!

He didn't even feel more pain. He hastily made a long shout and started to move back. While he was retreating, his left hand was striking out in instinct!

Boom! –

An explosion shook the entire world.

Fang Wudi's last attack was more powerful than any attack of a Saint Origin Stage cultivator!

If Ye Xiao kept moving forward, he was going to die under that devastating fist!

However, Ye Xiao didn't stop. He knew he wasn't going to die because on his left hand, there was a golden tower!

It was the Golden Soul Tower!

When Fang Wudi's last strike approached, the Golden Soul Tower became the Golden Soul Bell.

It covered Ye Xiao in the front. Fang Wudi's incredible attack firmly hit the Golden Soul Bell!

With a blare, it shook the entire world. Ye Xiao was bleeding because of the blast, but he didn't step back a bit. The sword in his hand was still chasing after Fang Wudi with the glittering lights!

The rolling purple qi was rising up.

That was the true trump card in Ye Xiao's hand.

Boom! –

The Golden Soul Bell caused a reverse impact on Fang Wudi, but it also got him out of Ye Xiao's continual attacks. He had quickly flown ten thousand feet away. His right arm was broken, and it was bleeding terribly.

A palm hit mark was left on his chest, and it was still covered by some rolling purple qi!

Ye Xiao had stopped Fang Wudi's most powerful attack with the Golden Soul Tower. When he was going to withdraw the Golden Soul Tower, he had already made a palm hit with his left hand on Fang Wudi's chest. After that, he stepped back a little and took away the Golden Soul Tower!

That palm hit looked casual, but it was enhanced by the East-rising Purple Qi. The slight touch of the palm had broken Fang Wudi's Jing and Mai. The Monarch's Sword had broken Fang Wudi's entire right arm, but even if not, the palm hit should have killed Fang Wudi immediately.

Because Fang Wudi had lost an entire arm, the energy from the palm hit leaked away from the wound on the right shoulder... That was why Fang Wudi was still alive...

However, if Ye Xiao didn't use the Monarch's Sword first and used the Golden Soul Tower to protect himself, Ye Xiao might die before having a chance to make that palm hit...

It was a complicated situation.

Fang Wudi's face turned pale. He was shaking, staring at Ye Xiao. His lips were shaking. After a while, he spat out a mouthful of purple-gold blood. He angrily said, "Contemptible! You... You are not a swordsman!"

"That sword wasn't your real weapon!"

"You set me up since the beginning!"

Fang Wudi was extremely furious. He almost cried in tears because of the grudge! He was fooled! He nearly lost his life for this.

"I never said I was a swordsman." Ye Xiao blandly said, "You kept calling me an expert swordsman. I have been setting you up since the beginning... Well, you were going to kill me. One of us must die. You should have treated me as a real enemy!"

"You were fooled, and that is your problem. You are an idiot. That is it. Don't blame others!"

Fang Wudi gritted his teeth and said, "You cunning bastard!"

Ye Xiao blandly smiled and said with a sneer, "Maybe you are much worse than just an idiot?"

Ye Xiao had been pretending to be a man who was connected to the sword. He lied about the Stars Sword, trying to deceive the enemy. He even fought like a swordsman and played a trick to get Fang Wudi to tell him the information about his nameless sword.

That was when the trap was done, waiting for Fang Wudi to fall in.

However, Ye Xiao didn't lie about that sword's information except for the name of it! The iron of cosmos, the heart of stars, the essence of the sea... Those were all real...

Fang Wudi was a top-level Saint Origin Stage cultivator, almost an Immortality Stage cultivator. He must be pretty knowledgeable! Ye Xiao had to make sure the details were correct!
