Chapter 1681: Severe Injury! Too Late

The fake Stars Sword, which exploded... Since Ye Xiao arrived in the Human Realm Upon Heavens, he had collected a lot of fine materials from the weapons on the ancient battlefield. Almost everybody in the Monarch's Hall had a divine weapon in superior-grade. It wasn't difficult for Ye Xiao to prepare a superior-grade sword to set Fang Wudi up!

Fang Wudi was convinced that Ye Xiao was a swordsman, and that was the beginning of Fang Wudi's tragedy.

"As you can see, this is my weapon." Ye Xiao stared at the sword in his hand and said, "I am the Xiao Monarch. The Monarch's Sword is my weapon."

Fang Wudi was incredibly furious.

"I have explained everything. Now, it is your time to go." Ye Xiao slowly walked ahead and said, "Fang Wudi, if you have a second life, don't be my enemy again!"

Fang Wudi was shaking. His eyes were full of hate. He forcibly held himself up and said, "Ye Xiao, there is one thing I don't understand. Can you tell me why before I go?"

Ye Xiao said, "What is it?"

"You didn't explain one thing." Fang Wudi shakily said, "You said that I had the world's most valuable treasure but I didn't know it. What did you mean?"

Ye Xiao laughed.

Even if Fang Wudi didn't ask, Ye Xiao would have told him. Now that Fang Wudi asked, Ye Xiao was happy to tell him the truth!

"I thought you pretended this." Ye Xiao laughed and said, "You deserve the failure then!"

Fang Wudi tolerated the pain and tried to stand firm. He said, "I would love to hear it."

Apparently, he had to know what he would die for!

Ye Xiao smirked and said, "If you knew what you got, you might become truly an invincible cultivator in the world!" Ye Xiao paused and then said with a smile, "You might have become the most powerful man in the Human Realm Upon Heavens!"

Fang Wudi was shaking. He was shocked. "What is it? What is so powerful?"

'If I had this thing all the time but didn't use it... I didn't even know its existence... How regretful should I be?'

Ye Xiao raised up his head and unleashed his spiritual mind. He searched around and made sure the bird wasn't around. He said in a low voice, "Think of the reason why you came. That was it."

Fang Wudi was shocked. He said, "What do you mean? What reason? Why?"

Ye Xiao laughed and said, "Did you come to avenge your beloved bird? Do you want me to actually tell you everything?"

Fang Wudi hastily said, "You... You mean... My bird... It is... It..."

Ye Xiao laughed wildly and said, "Do you really think it is just a bird? Hah hah hah... You are the most foolish man in the world! Peerless! Unique!"

Fang Wudi tried to hold down his anger and said, "You are foolish! You are a blind f*cking idiot! That is a bird! What else can it be? A man?"

Ye Xiao said, "You are blind... That bird is the world's most valuable treasure, the most precious medicinal plant. Well, it is not a man. You are right about that. It is a plant. It got a spiritual mind, and it can transform... It didn't turn into a man, but into a bird. That is it. It obviously kept itself safe for quite some days."

"What? Ah..." Fang Wudi was shocked.

"You should know how good such a medicinal plant is... Think about it. A plant turns into the shape of a bird, and cultivate as a bird to reach the seventh level of a spiritual beast. How powerful must it be? Hah hah hah..."

Ye Xiao was laughing so hard. With a sneer, he said, "And you... You had such a powerful treasure in your hand... You kept the opportunity to reach the top of the world around you... Every day, every second, you could have gotten your dream come true... Well, you were blind. You actually kept it as a pet! Hah hah... Is there anything more hilarious than this? Is there anybody more foolish than you? Who is blind now? Fang Wudi, tell me!"

Fang Wudi's face was colorless.

Ye Xiao had won the fight. Fang Wudi believed Ye Xiao wouldn't lie to him. It must be the truth. Most importantly, he used to notice something strange about the bird, but he just ignored it. He even felt happy to have a bird that was so special.

As Ye Xiao told him the truth, he finally woke up from the stupid delusion. He regretted it so much.

"No wonder... I never smelled anything like birds on it... No wonder... It always smelled like plants... No wonder... I was improving unbelievably fast these years... No wonder... I have kept the bird for thousands of years, but I never saw it relieve itself..."

"It hasn't even dropped a single feather... Now I see why..."

Fang Wudi was so upset, murmuring to himself.

He recollected the memory of the bird and now he had an answer for all the strange things!

That was why he believed Ye Xiao's words!

"I am so stupid! I had such a great treasure with me, yet I never saw it!" Fang Wudi was so gloomy.

"Now you know how foolish you are. It is too late!" Ye Xiao coldly smiled and said, "When I kill you, I get the bird!"

“Fortunes and misfortunes come for a reason! It is my fate to have it! Hah hah hah...” Ye Xiao laughed so happily.

“Your fate?” Fang Wudi suddenly smiled and said, “It doesn’t really belong to you.

“Ye Xiao, you are contemptible, shameless, and ruthless. You are cunning and foxy! However, you are not experienced enough.”

Fang Wudi sneered and said, “When I read novels, I always think the side characters are trash. When they are happy, when they have the chance to kill the enemy, they never do it in time. Showing off is something they always do! The bad guys always talk too much, and always leave the chance for the main character to turn everything over! I thought such stupid men only exist in novels, but today, you just told me that I was wrong. You are such a foolish man. It is my fate to obtain such a great treasure, not you!”

Ye Xiao was frightened when he realized something went wrong. He quickly approached Fang Wudi.

“It is too late!”

Chapter 1682: The Hesitating Bird

Fang Wudi jumped up to the sky and spat out some purple-gold blood three times in a row. Suddenly, he became a flow of dark wind and disappeared. His voice echoed in the sky, “Ye Xiao, when I am fully recovered, I will return what you did to me! No matter where you go, you are never going to get rid of me!

“However, I should thank you. Hah hah hah... If you didn’t tell me the truth, I would never realize such a great treasure in my hand... I am going to be invincible with your help. Hah hah hah...”

The sound was lingering in the sky, but the man was already gone.

Ye Xiao didn’t even see where the man went.

However, Ye Xiao didn’t seem to be upset about it. After a while, he showed a big smile...

Beyond the clouds, a shadow flashed over.

That was Hawky.

...

Fang Wudi became a tornado in the sky and disappeared. When he showed up again, he was in a cave, where he settled himself for cultivation.

He was covered by blood and that didn’t look good.

On his face, it was excitement.

He hurriedly swallowed some dan beads and bound up his wounds. After operating the spiritual energy to recover a little, he started to curse.

“F*cking thief! Contemptible! Filthy bastard! When I am recovered, you are a dead man. Your family, everyone related to you, will die!

“I, Fang Wudi, has never been humiliated like that!

“Kill! Kill! Kill! Kill!”

‘The bird... It won’t defend against me, will it?’ Fang Wudi thought.

He was a little worried. After all, the bird was his only hope to rise to the great Dao!

He had never suffered any injuries before what Ye Xiao did to him. What Ye Xiao had done hurt him so much, and he almost lost ninety percent of his power.

When he fled away, he consumed his soul power, and that worsened his condition. He was almost at the end of his life!

However, he didn’t worry.

As long as Ye Xiao was telling the truth, he still had the chance to recover his power and even become the strongest cultivator in the world!

What mattered the most...

Fang Wudi took a rest for a while and made up his mind. He had been in meditation for a while, and he unleashed a wave of vibration in the air. The vibration wave was from his face and rose up to the sky. It spread out fast far away...

Such a technique consumed a lot of energy. Fang Wudi usually didn’t care about it when he was still powerful, but now, he needed every bit of energy to survive. Why would he still make that vibration wave?

After a long time.

In the sky over the mountain where Fang Wudi stayed, a colorful bird was hovering...

That vibration wave turned out to be a signal. It connected the bird and the man. The bird felt the vibration, so it returned to the mountain, but hovered over the mountain and didn’t dare to go home.

‘Does Master know something?’

‘That young man didn’t tell Master, did he?’

‘The man said something about the world’s most valuable treasure... It wasn’t me, was it? What else does he think can be the world’s most valuable treasure?’

‘Well... This is difficult...’

‘Master must be defeated. He must be severely wounded. Otherwise, he wouldn’t escape the battle like that...’

‘What should I do?’

The bird kept hovering over the mountain. It couldn’t stop hesitating. It didn’t dare to go back yet.

Fang Wudi frowned and thought, 'It seems that the bird has returned, but it doesn't want to come back to me yet... It must have noticed something... I can't expose myself... I must hide my emotions... It is still around, which means it doesn't really want to leave me... I should focus on taking care of my wounds first and wait for a few days...'

'Everything is just like before when it went out for fun for some days...'

'If I keep calling it, it may panic... The bird may leave forever...'

Fang Wudi was a cunning man. He immediately figured out what the bird was thinking. He stopped calling the bird but continued healing himself. After all, he was severely injured.

Whenever he operated the spiritual energy on his wounds, he felt extremely painful.

"Contemptible Ye Xiao!" Fang Wudi cursed. He was worse than he thought. It was impossible to cure himself alone.

His inner organs were damaged, his soul was hurt, and his body was crippled... Even his dantian was injured...

He was so terribly wounded. No wonder Ye Xiao wasn't cautious enough. If he was a little weaker, he should have died already!

'If I do this alone, it takes at least ten years...' Fang Wudi felt the pain in his body and hated Ye Xiao even more.

He really didn't want to think about anything else now, because he had to focus on his own condition... Bit by bit, he gathered the scattered spiritual energy...

...

The bird was still hovering over the mountain. It was anxious. It was terrified, but it also wanted to go home... After all, it had stayed with the man for so many years. There was a bond between them...

'Master stopped calling.'

'Just like usual, he calls me two times and then stops. He isn't urging me.'

The bird felt relieved.

'It is just like the old days...'

'Nothing has gone wrong...'

'Should I go back?_' The bird was struggling, and it decided to wait for some time.

One day was gone.

'Master still doesn't call me back...'

Two days after, nothing happened.

'It is just like the usual days. When I went out, he called me once, no more than twice. That is it. He always stops. He always let me spend as much time as I like outside.'

'He doesn't notice anything...' The bird felt guilty about what it did to the man.

'Master is wounded. He needs me. I should at least give him some of my feathers to provide spiritual energy...'

It decided not to hesitate. As it pulls off its wings, it quietly descended to the ground.

Chapter 1683: Unscrupulous and Vicious

The bird flew to the entrance of the cave, but it started hesitating again.

It heard Fang Wudi's heavy breath in the cave. It realized its master must be severely injured because Fang Wudi breathed so heavily.

'Should I get in? Should I help Master?'

The bird was hesitating. In the end, it slowly stepped into the cave...

Fang Wudi, who was sitting in meditation, showed a smile...

"Where have you been, you stupid bird!" Fang Wudi angrily said, "Do you know what trouble you have made for me? Yet you just ran away!"

'Master is obviously angry. He is mad at me.'

The bird felt relieved.

'If he knows what I am, he wouldn't just say nothing these days. He scolds when I am back after having fun outside for days. He always does.'

'This makes sense... Of course, he is angry. Everybody would be mad if his pet makes such trouble for him. I should be alerted if he is nice to me after being severely injured like this!'

The bird was relieved. It walked into the cave and saw Fang Wudi. It kept its head low and chirped.

It felt guilty.

'Should I go out and pulled off some feathers and get them to Master? I can say I got the materials by luck. With my roots, he will be recovered soon!'

"Don't be so upset though. I was careless." Fang Wudi said, "That young man is definitely much weaker than me. He is just good at playing cunning tricks. I hadn't been defeated for too long, so I became careless. When I am well again, I will avenge you. Those two beasts will be yours. You can do whatever you want. Do you feel better now?"

The bird cooed and rubbed Fang Wudi's foot with its head.

Fang Wudi looked around with half-closed eyes.

'Hmmm... The little thing is still cautious. It is so close to me now, but it still keeps its wings ready... Is it ready to fly away? I am hurt... If it flies, I can't catch it.'

“Enough now! I need to rest. Just go out and have fun by yourself.” Fang Wudi pretended to be impatient. “You can’t help me anyway... Do not go near that young man again. He wants you. If he catches you, I can’t save you!”

He waved a hand and let the bird out.

The bird was waved out a meter away. It chirped like complaining, but it was relieved. It stayed down somewhere and stretched its wings down.

‘I am not a fool! That man has beaten you up to death. How could I go near him anymore? If he catches me, I will be chopped into pieces!’

Fang Wudi focused on curing himself and kept breathing heavily. The bird looked at him with concern...

The spiritual qi in the cave was increasing extremely fast...

After a while, Fang Wudi finally took a breath. He opened his eyes. He had tried to cure himself in full power, but couldn’t even cure the injury on the Jing and Mai.

He was terribly damaged this time.

‘Ye Xiao! What a f*cking thief!’

Fang Wudi looked around and realized the bird was gone. When he was in meditation, he could feel the surroundings. He knew who was increasing the spiritual qi. He must focus on curing himself first, and he was sure the bird wouldn’t leave him, so he didn’t pay attention to the bird. Unexpectedly, the bird was gone. Maybe the bird was just out for fun, but he couldn’t help worrying.

At this moment, the bird flew back from outside. Fang Wudi didn’t know where it had been, but when it was back, it carried a ginseng in its mouth. The ginseng was in a human shape. The white skin in the ginseng seemed to have some blood underneath.

It was like a man’s skin.

The bird cooed and put the ginseng on the floor before Fang Wudi. It rubbed his leg with its beak.

Apparently, it was urging the man to eat the ginseng.

Fang Wudi opened his eyes and felt the warmth in his heart.

The next moment, his eyes became vicious.

He reached out one hand to hold the bird, as usual, touched the bird with his face. The bird stayed close to him and didn’t guard against him at all. It seemed to be warm and sweet.

The bird watched Fang Wudi’s broken arm and cooed. It felt sad about it.

The next moment, it suddenly chirped anxiously.

It clearly felt the murderous intent of its beloved master.

“Chirp, chirp...”

The bird exclaimed.

Crack! – Fang Wudi directly broke off the bird’s two legs!

The next moment, he grabbed the bird’s neck. A long and narrow stream of spiritual energy slowly flowed into the bird’s body, and the energy controlled the bird completely. The bird couldn’t move anymore.

It lost two legs, and it couldn’t fly anymore. The agony was tormenting it, and it kept chirping to beg for mercy.

It turned over its head and sadly stared at its master with confusion in its eyes.

As it looked the man in the eyes, it saw the greed and viciousness in the man’s eyes. It understood everything now.

The bird looked at Fang Wudi’s greedy eyes. It was blank. Suddenly, it even forgot about the pain it was suffering. After chirping for a while, it stopped. There was no anger, but only sadness and pain.

Fang Wudi couldn’t care for the bird anymore. He raised up the bird, and some light-cyan blood was getting out from the wounds of the bird’s leg. The blood seemed to smell nice...

Fang Wudi sipped a little of that cyan blood. Suddenly, he could feel his empty Jing and Mai filled up by bursting spiritual qi. At this moment, he even felt like the bursting spiritual qi was going to expand him entirely...

Chapter 1684: A Dead Heart; New Life

“It is truly the world’s most valuable treasure!” Fang Wudi was overjoyed, laughing wildly.

“I never thought that I have been having such a treasure for so many years!

“Well... What belongs to me will finally be mine! Nobody can take away what is mine! I am a blessed man!

“There will be one more king in the Human Realm Upon Heavens! Me! Fang Wudi!”

He stared at the bird in his hand. His eyes looked crazy.

The bird didn’t move and just stared at the man blankly.

It felt like the man was a total stranger.

‘Is this really my master?’

‘My master always treats me so well... My master is always caring... Is this him?’

“Why do you stare at me like this?” Fang Wudi felt bad after being stared for a long time. He suddenly got angry and said, “You bastard! You have been lying to me for all these years! I should have become the world’s only king if you have told me earlier! I wouldn’t be defeated by that young man, would I?”

The bird didn’t make a sound and just stared at the man quietly.

Fang Wudi was furious. He raised the bird and wanted to hit it on the floor, but changed his mind in the end. He said in a low voice, "I have kept you for so many years. Can you at least tell me what you really are? Where are you from?"

The bird didn't make a sound.

"Don't look at me like that! I know you are listening!" Fang Wudi raged up.

"Don't pretend to be innocent! You are a medicinal plant! Do you understand what you are?" Fang Wudi angrily said, "Do you know what can you do? You are born to be eaten! A medicinal plant! Do you understand? You are not a real bird! Understand?"

The bird's blank eyes became cold and indifferent.

It was strange.

It was apathy!

The bird was full of apathy as if the man was a total stranger.

It stopped looking at Fang Wudi. It looked away and stared at the white ginseng that it brought back for the man.

It looked so sad.

'Is every human being like this?'

'No matter how long we have lived together... No matter how loyal and nice I am to him... Even when I am willing to hurt myself to help him... He will always eat me when he realizes what I am...'

'Nothing else matters to him...'

'I am always the bird, but he is no longer my master!'

"Tell me!" Fang Wudi fiercely grabbed the bird in the hand, raised up, and stared at the bird's eyes. "Look at me! Tell me! What are you? Where are you from? Where did you grow?"

His face looked ugly, and he had gone crazy.

He knew that this was his opportunity to reach the top of the world!

The bird in front of him had become a living creature, but the efficacy of it as a medicinal plant was extremely powerful. It was much more valuable than the bird.

How to use such a valuable plant to get the most benefits from it? Fang Wudi had read a lot of books, but everything he got about such a treasure was ridiculous and fake.

However, he wasn't sure if those absurd stories were fake!

He was holding something unbelievable in his hands right now, wasn't he?

Perhaps, there were a lot of such plants in the world, but they became extremely rare for some reason. That was why the stories about such plants were so difficult to believe!

Fang Wudi studied a lot and eventually had a conclusion. He must make the plant return to its true appearance and put it into a cauldron to boil it. He must use the fire of the internal energy, and boil the plant into liquid form. That was the only way to get the most energy from the plant.

There was a better way though—to make it into dan beads. However, Fang Wudi knew nothing about dan-making.

In fact, not to mention Fang Wudi, even the best dan makers in the Human Realm Upon Heavens couldn't successfully make such a spiritual medicinal plant into dan beads. After the disaster in history, there were no more supreme-level dan makers in the Human Realm Upon Heavens. Only supreme-level dan makers had the power to make such incredible dan beads. Sightless attempts would only waste such great material.

Fang Wudi only needed to understand what the bird truly was and where it grew. He needed to get the plant and boil it into liquid. That was enough.

The bird lied on the floor. It had completely lost hope. After Fang Wudi shouting for a while, the bird suddenly stood up and chirped.

It was angry. It was furious. Its eyes were full of hate.

It didn't beg for mercy, because it wouldn't help!

It only kept shouting abusive words!

Fang Wudi was angry!

"This is wrong! You actually abused me! I have raised you for so many years. All I want is just to eat you! So what?" Fang Wudi angrily said, "If not for you, would I be damaged like this? It is reasonable that I want to eat you to recover myself! You are exposed! If I don't eat you, somebody will! The One Meter Higher Sky told me what you were! He knows! Do you think he will let you go? Come on! Give it to me, and I will kill the man and his two pets to avenge you! How about that?"

The bird disdainfully stared at him and then turned over its head. Tears came out of its eyes.

It was so sad.

"Tear of Soul? That is actually Tear of Soul?" Fang Wudi was so happy. He laughed so loudly and swallowed the two drops of tears. He felt warm, and the pain on his shoulder was eased.

"Do you have more? Come on! Keep crying! Why do you stop?" Fang Wudi wanted to get more. It held the bird and kept pulling off its feathers. The bird was shaking because of the pain, but it became silent again. There was no tear in its eyes anymore.

"You are just a spiritual plant in an animal's form... Are you actually this tough? Can you really tolerate this? Fine! You should tell me where you came from..."

Fang Wudi kept tormenting the bird. "Come on! Say it! Where are you from? Cry out! Give me your tears!"

The bird was blank, indifferent, hateful, painful, and desperate... It was dying...

It didn't make a sound!

Fang Wudi viciously smirked and said, "You won't say anything, will you? Fine. I will eat you now! You want to keep a secret from me, huh? Fine! It is not going to be easy! I am going to eat you anyway! I can still return to my prime status, and even reached the Immortality Stage! I am at least still the man I used to be!"

He grabbed the bird and wanted to chew it.

At this moment, something happened.

With a white flash of light, something moved over Fang Wudi's head at an incredible speed!

Chapter 1685: Another Setup

Fang Wudi was frightened. The bird that he was grabbing tight suddenly disappeared.

He looked around and saw a small white cat standing at the entrance of the cave. The cat was as small as a human fist, staying there, staring at him with disdain in its eyes.

In the cat's claws, there was a bird with no feathers.

It was the bird!

"That's..." Fang Wudi was shocked.

He was severely injured, so he was only ten percent as powerful as he used to be. However, he was still vigilant. He didn't notice the cat's arrival. When the cat moved over him, he actually didn't have time to react. Why was a cat so unbelievably fast?

"Brother Fang, it has been a while." A soft voice echoed. "A few days after our last enjoyable meeting, here we are again."

A man appeared at the entrance while talking.

The man was smiling, handsome and elegant, who must be an extraordinary man.

"The Xiao Monarch? Ye Xiao!" Fang Wudi blankly looked at the young man. He felt like he was in a nightmare.

'Why is he here?'

'How did he find my secret cave?'

"Exactly." Ye Xiao blandly smiled and said, "You have a good memory, Brother Fang. Much better than an idiot!"

Fang Wudi was angry. 'He still teases me!'

'How can I not remember?'

'You crippled me! The wounds are still bleeding...'

“What a poor bird.” Ye Xiao took over the bird from Erhuo’s claws. He looked at the dying bird, which had almost lost all its feathers and had both legs dragged behind. He knew the legs were broken, so he felt sorry for it.

The bird managed to open its eyes and recognized Ye Xiao. That only brought the bird despair.

It was first in the hand of its vicious master, and now in the wicked young man’s hand. It reckoned it was going to die!

Ye Xiao breathed a sigh and took out a supreme dan bead and put it before the bird’s mouth.

The bird was obviously surprised, so it didn’t immediately eat it.

Ye Xiao shouted at it, “I am giving you the dan bead, which means I am not going to eat you... Why would I do such a stupid thing? Don’t you understand? You silly bird!”

The bird hesitated, and eventually swallowed the dan bead.

Ye Xiao nodded and carefully held the bird’s two broken legs. He breathed out a flow of purple qi on its legs. The bird started chirping because it felt so good.

The bird was originally a spiritual plant. It had the physical body of a bird, but it was not an animal. The dan bead cured wounds, but it didn’t work so well on a spiritual medicinal plant. It had less than half of the efficacy of the dan bead. However, the purple qi Ye Xiao blew on its legs was extraordinary!

The purple qi was the purest spiritual qi of the East-rising Purple Qi. It was good for all spiritual plants, which meant it was the best cure to the bird’s injuries!

However, Ye Xiao didn’t know that much!

He didn’t know the purple qi was the best treatment, so it took out some paste to apply to its broken legs. He also used two small warm jade sticks to hold the legs, and some white cloth with medical liquid to bind up its legs.

He turned over his hand and put the bird into the Boundless Space.

Fang Wudi watched Ye Xiao do everything but said nothing.

Ye Xiao was the stronger one. If Ye Xiao was annoyed, Fang Wudi would get killed! No matter how tough Fang Wudi was, he didn’t dare to say a word to irritate Ye Xiao.

Any small mistake could kill him. He wanted to live, not to die!

He thought for a while, but couldn’t hold his anger down, so he said, “Ye Xiao, is this a trick you are playing?”

Ye Xiao blandly smiled and didn’t answer it.

“You told me what the bird was on purpose and then let me go! You wanted to use me to catch the bird! You knew I would sacrifice it for myself, so you showed up at the last second to be the good guy!”

Fang Wudi was so angry and regretful. “Ye Xiao, you are so contemptible! You are shameless!”

“Am I?” Ye Xiao humphed coldly and said, “If you didn’t try to eat the bird if you didn’t want to hurt the bird, why is the bird so badly hurt? You have lived together for a long time. You are its beloved master, yet you tortured it!”

“If you didn’t want to kill it, how could I get it?” Ye Xiao stared at the man coldly and said, “You were going to kill it. You were killing it!”

Fang Wudi was shaking, “You are contemptible... You are shameless... You are vicious...”

He kept repeating the same words like a mad man.

Ye Xiao smiled coldly and said, “Fang Wudi, you are going to die now! When you go to the netherworld, be invincible there if you can!”

Suddenly, a broad and bright stream of sword light flashed. Fang Wudi realized what was happening, so he tried so hard to jump. However, he froze in the air.

Ye Xiao’s flashing sword attack cut through his throat.

Erhuo disdainfully meowed. It raised up its head, and then a rolling flow of energy slowly got into its mouth.

The most powerful cultivator of the west outer range of the Limitless Ocean, Fang Wudi was dead!

Ye Xiao carefully picked up the feathers of the bird on the ground and breathed a sigh.

‘Fang Wudi... must be quite a weirdo.’

‘He has been having the best gift around but never knew it. When he finally knew it, he actually tried to ruin it. He had killed the connection that had taken him thousands of years to build to the bird...’

‘That must be his fate...’

‘A man’s greed always gets back at him.’

In fact, Fang Wudi was unfortunate to meet Ye Xiao... That was also one of the reasons why he failed...

Ye Xiao left the cave. Hawky was chirping in the sky and then landed on Ye Xiao’s shoulder. It seemed to be so close to Ye Xiao.

The man, the hawk, and the cat, they were heading down the hill and back to the path as the One Meter Higher Sky.

Little Bab, the bird, was lazily lying somewhere in the Boundless Space.

Ye Xiao specially created a special space, different from the nine Spaces, for the bird.

It was totally a strange place for Little Bab.

There was no spiritual qi in this special space. There were only cold rocks.

Little Bab only felt one thing in its heart, and that was despair.

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1686: Negotiate with the Bird

The bird didn't have a reason to live anymore.

Its master had betrayed it... Most importantly, it never thought that the man would treat it so terribly. He played tricks to make it take its guard down... He tortured it, forced it to tell him where its true body was... He obviously wanted to kill it both physically and mentally. When he failed, he actually wanted to swallow it!

They had been with each other for three thousand years, but what they had together meant nothing to him when there was a great profit to chase for!

The man's fierce eyes, roaring words, cruel tortures, were vividly displayed in its eyes and resounding in its ears.

It was safe from troubles now, but it was still locked up. It knew that this must be a private place of the Xiao Monarch.

It seemed to the bird that the Xiao Monarch was just another greedy bastard. After all, there were rumors about the One Meter Higher Sky!

'It seems he is nice to me, giving me all these medicinal materials, but he is no different. He just wants to know where my true body is. Sooner or later, I will be boiled and eaten by the man. Why should I bother curing myself anyway?'

'What scares me... The spiritual qi he gave me... That is extraordinary...'

'I know what I am. I am always a medicinal plant. No matter how powerful the medicine is, it doesn't work well on me. That shiny spiritual dan bead must be some kind of extremely high-level medicine. What a shame! It didn't work so well for me!'

Suddenly, the bird, Bab, realized that it was fully recovered from its wounds. Its broken legs was fixed after only a short time...

'What kind of mysterious martial art is the young man cultivating? Why is it so magnificent? That is amazing! I really wanted more of that spiritual qi!'

As the bird thought about this, it felt much better. It slowly stood up and looked around the place with curiosity and confusion.

'Master has a storage space too, but... this one is different...'

'Why is this place so spacious?'

'Is this a private Divine Space?'

'No... It can't be. He would take good care of this place... This place is raw... There should at least be some spiritual qi.'

At this moment...

A voice sounded behind the bird. "They call you Bab?"

Bab was frightened. It turned around and saw Ye Xiao, who showed up quietly and already sat down behind it.

The place should be empty, but now there was a chair, where Ye Xiao was sitting on.

Ye Xiao was looking at Bab on the chair, casually and lazily...

"Chirp, chirp, chirp, chirp, coo... coo..." Bab stared at Ye Xiao angrily.

"Why are you angry?" Ye Xiao smiled and looked at the bird. "I think you should be grateful."

The bird got emotional. Its wings were like two fingers, pointing at Ye Xiao and chirping.

"I know. You can understand me." Ye Xiao rubbed his chin and said in a low voice, "So, what I am going to do is talk to you.

"After that, you can make your own decision."

Ye Xiao finished talking. The bird stared at Ye Xiao with its dark rolling eyes. It seemed to consider his suggestion for a while and then eventually nodded to agree. It sat on the floor and let Ye Xiao start talking.

Ye Xiao was sitting, so the bird sat down as well. It couldn't be weaker. There was nothing it could lose anyway.

However, a bird, sitting on the floor like a man... Was that right?

Ye Xiao nearly laughed out loud.

"You are a precious treasure for any high-level cultivator. It brings great benefits to put you in full use. Fang Wudi was a good example. If he didn't have you around, he would never have reached such a high level." Ye Xiao said, "So... I could have swallowed you now... That should be understandable. It doesn't make a big difference even if I don't have your true body. I am satisfied to have you now."

As Ye Xiao said so, the bird felt a chill in its heart. It got nervous, and it didn't dare point at Ye Xiao with its two wings anymore. Its head was low, and it kept chirping. Nobody knew what it was saying...

Obviously, Ye Xiao was telling the truth. Ten birds in the forest meant less than one bird in the hand. Ye Xiao was only at level seven in Saint Origin Stage. If he swallowed the bird, he would very possibly reach the Immortality Stage. It was a great improvement for a cultivator. That should be enough for Ye Xiao if he wasn't so ambitious!

"However, I don't want to eat you. I never do!"

Ye Xiao surprised the bird. The bird stared at him with a tilted head.

'Is he... being honest? He isn't lying, is he? Does he do this to make me tell him where my true body is? After that, he will boil me with my true body, won't he? That's it!'

"Don't. If I want to eat you, you should have been stewed now." Ye Xiao seriously said, "It's better to make you a stew than swallow you alive."

The bird trembled. It thought of itself being stewed, and that frightened it.

Fang Wudi had thought of this too, but he didn't say it before he lost his temper and tried to swallow the bird. It didn't frighten the bird as much as Ye Xiao's words.

"But I can't free you." Ye Xiao frowned and said, "You should know that as an animal, you are a level-seven spiritual beast. People are crazy for a spiritual beast like you even though they don't know what you actually are. Fang Wudi can't protect you now, can he? What if you are captured, it may lead me to the end of my life as well."

The bird started chirping.

It was saying, "I won't be captured! I am fast enough. I am cautious enough. I have profound views... I am cunning and smart... You can trust me. Just let me go now."

Ye Xiao humphed and said, "Are you really as fast as you think? Are you faster than my cat? Are you really that cautious and smart? How did Fang Wudi fool you? Do you really have profound views? How come I don't see it? You are being ridiculous. You can't fool me. How can I trust you on this? If you can't get caught, how come you are here?"

The bird kept its head low, "Chirp, chirp, chirp..."

Chapter 1687: Extreme Purple Energy Field

'Because you are more cunning than me! You have an evil heart!'

"You are not convincing." Ye Xiao casually said, "I am not going to let you go. Just stay here. You won't die, and I will be safe. It is good for you, for me, for everybody!"

The bird was upset, sitting on the floor listlessly.

'Am I going to lose freedom from now on?'

'This is good for my ass! This is nothing good!'

"I am a cultivator. I want to be invincible. I want to be at the peak of the world. I want to be immortal." Ye Xiao seriously said, "I want to be strong, powerful... Do you understand?"

The bird twisted its mouth.

'Who doesn't?'

'Isn't every cultivator the same?'

'You are just like Fang Wudi. All cultivators are the same!'

"Well, you are a spiritual medicinal plant. Deep down, you know what you are. In fact, I do recognize you as a bird." Ye Xiao said, "Tell me then. What is it that you want? Let me put it this way... What do you want to get in your life?"

Bab looked at Ye Xiao with surprise and confusion.

'What is this guy doing? Why is he saying these to me?'

"I need a balance point." Ye Xiao said, "I must know what your life goal is as a bird."

'Life goal?'

The bird finally calmed down and started thinking.

After a long time, it stood up and paced around for two rounds with its two small legs.

The bird actually walked like a man. It paced around and got lost in its thoughts. Ye Xiao had strong self-control. If not, he would have laughed out to death.

'Life goal as a bird...'

Bab was truly thinking about this question seriously. It was the first time people asked Bab this question. It didn't know what to answer.

'I haven't thought about that ever before. What is my life goal?'

"Think about it. When you were a spiritual medicinal plant, your goal was to become this. Now you have successfully become a living bird, which meant you have fulfilled your goal. What's next then? Hmm... You still don't get it, do you? Okay. When you became a bird, you must have a reason or a plan for it... I guess you have already made the plan work. What is the next step though? Do you have anything else that you want to do? Let's say... Do you want to be immortal? You have become a living bird now, so you must want to be alive forever, don't you?"

Ye Xiao kept talking. "For example... Do you want to be free forever? You want to live freely, don't you? You want freedom. What about power? Do you want invincible power? It always brings you benefits! What about..."

Ye Xiao kept giving the bird many hints, but the little thing kept shaking its head.

Apparently, Ye Xiao didn't have a clue what the bird truly wanted.

"I want... forever..." The bird thought very hard and said, "Forever... I don't want to be eaten ever..."

Ye Xiao almost fell off his chair.

That was so simple and honest...

"Why are you so silly? Didn't I just tell you something much better? When you have invincible power, you will get many benefits, including not being eaten! The stronger you are, the fewer people can eat you!"

Ye Xiao kept explaining. "That's a simple reason. As long as you can be fast enough, nobody would be able to catch up with you. Who can ever eat you then?"

The bird's eyes shined for a while, but then it shook its head again.

Apparently, it knew that it was impossible to be the fastest in the world.

“What is it? You don’t have the confidence? You don’t have faith in yourself? You see, maybe you don’t have to improve so much to be as powerful as that!”

You can work with me. We can help each other. You will reach your goal with my help!” Ye Xiao said, “I can protect you. Nobody can hurt you when you are under my protection, and you should help me as much as you can in return.”

“Chirp, chirp?” The bird raised up its head and looked at Ye Xiao with surprise.

‘How... How can I help you? Do you want me to let you eat me? Do you want to eat my legs or wings?’

“The dan bead that I fed you, and those medicinal plants you got, how were they? You can feel it, can’t you?” Ye Xiao tried to lure it.

The bird thought of the dan bead and the medicinal materials. Its eyes shined with strange lights, and then it pretended to be obstinate. It chirped again.

What it meant was... ‘The dan bead and the medicinal materials were good, but they were not enough to convince the bird. I am a great creature in the world... Hmm... Dan beads don’t work so well on me, because I am a natural medicinal plant. Your dan bead must be some top-level dan bead, but for me, it isn’t so good... Well, that thing you gave me was kind of... impressive...’

“You know what? I have a lot of this kind of dan beads.” Ye Xiao turned over his hand and there were seven or eight dan beads with dan clouds on his hand. The dan clouds suddenly rose up and filled up the entire space.

‘You little thing! Nobody in the world can resist my valuable treasures! Hawky caved because of my... Well, cough... I wonder how you can resist this!’

However, Bab was quite surprised but stood straight up. It actually wasn’t really attracted!

Ye Xiao was dumbfounded. ‘What the hell is this? When I showed the supreme dan beads, people always caved no matter how powerful they are! What is this about?’

‘Such a little bird actually resists my great dan beads? How is this possible?’

Ye Xiao was blank, but Erhuo wasn’t. Erhuo talked to him through mind connection. It was a simple instruction. “Unleash your extreme purple energy field!”

Ye Xiao heard it, and he knew how profound and knowledgeable Erhuo was, so he was convinced. He raised his energy up and operated the East-rising Purple Qi. A flow of extremely powerful purple qi was unleashed!

“Chirp chirp...” Bab’s eyes lit up. It rushed over like a bear running to honey. A cat running toward a big fish. A dog running to... a poo... Anyway, it just didn’t pretend to be elegant anymore.

Ye Xiao was confused, but he didn’t hesitate. He knew he must take this chance. He came up with an idea immediately and suddenly stopped the pure purple qi. He humphed and said, “What are you doing? This is not for you!”

Chapter 1688: A Few Conditions

Bab couldn't resist it anymore. It kept jumping up and down in front of Ye Xiao, pointing at Ye Xiao with its two wings.

"You just showed me the pure purple qi, yet you don't allow me to have it! What the hell are you doing?"

"I have worked so hard to have my pure spiritual qi! Why should I give it to you?" Ye Xiao said, "You are not my bird anyway!"

When he said so, it reminded him Fang Wudi, and he felt embarrassed.

'You are not my bird...'

'Holy hell...'

'Why am I talking like Fang Wudi now?'

"You know how precious my pure spiritual qi is, don't you?" Ye Xiao said.

Bab showed a complicated facial expression with its two small eyes rolling up and down.

'Of course, I know it well! That is why I just lost my elegance! I am the best spiritual plant in the world. I am at the top of the system. None of the dan beads, medicinal materials, or spiritual qi in the world means anything to me. However, your purple qi is actually purer than the first sunray purple qi and the ancient times' purple qi... When it healed my wounds, I saw how splendid it was... This is something I want the most... You saw how it helps me! Why didn't you show this to me earlier? I would have rushed over to you long ago! Why go through those dan beads and medicinal materials things? Do you really have to?'

It kept making facial expressions to Ye Xiao, which made it look really like a man, and it slightly scared Ye Xiao.

Ye Xiao knew that the bird was giving in, and he was excited, but he held it down and said, "If you promise you will follow me with loyalty, I can provide this spiritual qi to you from time to time."

The bird was silent.

'I absolutely should agree with this, but I must pretend to hesitate, so he may offer me more good things!'

"Relax. I am not Fang Wudi. He wanted to eat you. If he knew who you were, he would have eaten you already. I am different. You don't mean that much to me. My martial art is good enough to prove me right."

Ye Xiao took the chance to condemn Fang Wudi again. He said, "I knew what you were, but I never wanted to eat you. I don't want you to eat you, and I won't eat you. Is that enough respect for you?"

The bird was still silent.

'What is wrong with this man? Why can't he see the real problem here? I decided to say yes when you showed me the purple qi... I just want more of the purple qi... Why waste time saying all these useless words? Just make a clear offer and I will say yes. Stop the useless words because they bring me hope! What do you think I should say now?'

"Come on, Bab. You know, spiritual plants and human beings all want to become stronger." Ye Xiao said, "Especially you. You have become a living creature, and you can cultivate yourself... I can help you."

The bird's eyes were shining, and it still didn't say a word!

'Just cut the nonsense and do it! Burst the purple qi out, and I will make a vow! Why don't you just decide? Why don't you make the final offer now? Why?'

Ye Xiao said, "I think you can understand. You are the world's best spiritual plant. I know that. However, you don't have a good energy source. It isn't pure. It is not the original energy of the world. You do understand, don't you?"

"Chirp, chirp, chirp..." The bird raised up its head. "Of course I do. If I have the original energy of the world, do you think you could catch me?"

'Stop showing off... Your purple qi is the purest energy source in the world!'

"So, even if I eat you, I can get no more than hundreds of thousands of years of cultivation." Ye Xiao said, "However, it seems to be a lot, but it also brings me setbacks in the future. I will have to pay for every bit of the energy I get from you since the first day of decades in the future..."

"Nobody can reach the top of the sky with one step. There is always a limit to the length between two legs... Reaching the top with one step means breaking the two legs apart..."

"If I get the outer energy to boost myself up, I would have to go through life and death for decades and torture myself for decades to find the balance of my power. What do you think?" Ye Xiao said.

The bird nodded, but it didn't understand why Ye Xiao kept talking about these big inspirations.

'Can't you just show me the purple qi again and let me get myself down to you? I only care about how much you can offer me! I know you don't want to eat me. I know you won't boil me, or stew me, or chew me... I understand... Why waste time?'

"I know that you understand why people make dan beads in the Human Realm Upon Heavens. The art of dan making is to combine two materials together, to create a new efficacy. The best way to create efficacy of cultivation increase was to purify the efficacy to make it as much close to the original energy source as possible... That would make the best efficacy!"

'Holy hell... What the hell is wrong with this man? Why does he talk about dan making? I... This is unbelievable!'

The bird was so upset, and it really didn't know what to say now!

"Okay, now. Let's talk about my offer. First, if you follow me, I will give you as many dan beads as you want. Because you are with me, the dan beads will become better, so I will make some dan beads that are one hundred times better than those I just showed you."

The bird's heart was beating even faster now. The supreme dan bead Ye Xiao gave the bird didn't work well, but it still had made a bit of difference. Supreme dan beads still meant something to the bird, unlike the ordinary dan beads. If Ye Xiao could give it some dan beads that were one hundred times better, the bird would happily take them. Ye Xiao said it was the first, which meant there was at least a second. The bird wanted to say yes, but it decided to wait!

"Second, if you follow me, I will give you a lot of chances to become stronger. You will have a lot of companions who will protect you and stay with you... You know who they are."

The bird's eyes were rolling. It remembered the cat and the hawk.

'Well, those are two powerful companions... If they don't want to eat me and just play with me, it should be fun...'

Chapter 1689: Super Temptation

"Third, if you follow me, you will become my bird, my favorite bird... Ahem... I mean my pet. I will love you and protect you. I will keep the truth about who you really are a secret."

'Holy hell... I will be your favorite bird! Of course! Can we get to the purple qi now? Don't just go about these unimportant things!'

"Fourth..." Ye Xiao casually said, while watching the bird's eyes. Apparently, he wasn't so sure if the bird would be absolutely loyal to him!

(Off-screen Voice: Why didn't I realize how dumb my mater was? I just told him what mattered to the bird! The bird obviously showed him how much it cared for the purple qi! How come he just forgot it now? Oh heavens!)

"Fourth..." Ye Xiao said, "You will have an opportunity to climb up to the greatness of Dao... You will officially get your own place in my Boundless Space."

"Chirp?"

Bab felt surprised about that.

'What do you mean officially get my own place? Isn't this your Boundless Space?'

"Heh heh... Follow me." Ye Xiao reached out one of his hands.

Bab took a few steps back and looked at Ye Xiao's hand with hesitation.

Ye Xiao didn't urge Bab. He just kept his hand still. When he first met Hawky, he almost did the same gesture. This was a different situation, but the result should be not much different. The bird was going to cave.

Bab looked around. It had already made up its mind but just couldn't stop feeling a little frightened and worried. As it looked at the flowing purple glow over Ye Xiao's body, it slowly walked to Ye Xiao's hand. It smelled his hand and took two steps back again. It cautiously looked up and then stepped forward again... It touched Ye Xiao's hand with its beak and then quickly stepped back again...

That was the end. It jumped into Ye Xiao's hand eventually.

The bird understood. 'If he wants to catch me, he doesn't need to do this to fool me. He can just grab me with one hand. This is his place after all...'

Even though it had given itself to Ye Xiao, it was still shaking in his hand...

It just couldn't tell why it was so scared.

Ye Xiao gently rubbed the new feathers on Bab's body. It started to tremble again. After that, it felt different... The hand was gentle and safe. It brought warmth and some purple qi...

'This is so good. It feels so good.'

It felt good to be touched by the purple qi, also to be protected...

It had never felt so secured before, not even with Fang Wudi.

Ye Xiao's hands had some scent that could calm the bird down... It was something the bird always wanted but never had gotten before...

Bab was lost in it...

However, it wouldn't say it. Even though it was convinced, it couldn't show it...

Bab didn't realize that it had stopped shaking already. In Ye Xiao's hand, being touched, it finally calmed down. It was finally relieved.

The feathers were all slowly loosened...

Ye Xiao smiled. He knew what was going on with the bird.

It was still playing touch, but it obviously had lowered its guard.

He laughed loudly and turned around. Purple qi kept rushing out from inside his body...

"Chirp, chirp..." The bird was excited. Its two wings were waving fast. In its eyes, there was astonishment and craving...

Apparently, it was shocked and attracted by the rich purple qi. It was finally going to get what it wanted the most!

The next moment, it suddenly started falling!

Bab was so surprised, so it was passed out in shock.

In front of it, there was a beautiful and spacious place.

It didn't care about the furnishings and other things in this place, only what was filling the air.

That was the rich purple qi which looked like fog!

'Oh, my heavens! This is paradise...'

Ye Xiao slightly raised up his hand, and the bird flew away. It looked around with happiness in its eyes.

It was breathing the purple qi...

It must be quite an enjoyable thing to cultivate in this place...

Ye Xiao was a bit confused. 'What is wrong with the silly bird? Is it really that exciting? This is just a little purple qi. Really?'

Erhuo suddenly showed up and looked at Ye Xiao with confusion. It explained the situation, and the conclusion was: "This is absolutely reasonable."

The bird was a superior medicinal plant in the world, but it was just a plant after all. Its improvement relied on the surroundings and the spiritual qi from the surroundings. The bird had only two ways to keep improving at this high level. First, it needed a long time to accumulate spiritual energy. Second, it could use some much higher-level spiritual qi. The purple qi in the Boundless Space wasn't as powerful as the energy of the East-rising Purple Qi, but it was better than the Dawn Purple Qi, even as good as the Ancient Purple Qi. It was such a big temptation for the bird to have all this purple qi in this place!

Erhuo was sure Bab was not so knowledgeable. It was such an ignorant bird. Things in the Boundless Space must be way over its league. It would be shocked again and again in the future!

Bab's reaction proved Erhuo's opinion...

'Oh... I must be dreaming...'

'What is this?'

'This is... This is a new space... Hmm... Why are there so many crystal rocks in this place? Oh? There are so many things hanging on the walls... They look like pearls... These are attractive... Does it taste good? I would love to eat some!'

Bab had arrived at the Spirit Space. It stared at the spiritual energy beads on the walls and thought of eating them.

Ye Xiao laughed so hard that he nearly passed out.

"What are you looking at, silly bird?" Ye Xiao said, "Those beads aren't something to be watched. They are something to be eaten..."

The bird's eyes lit up like searchlights. It rushed over to the wall immediately.

'They are something to be eaten?'

'I can eat them!'

'Oh!'

...

Chapter 1690: So Excited

The bird moved its beak to get one bead into its mouth. As it swallowed the bead, it felt so good that the bird closed its eyes.

'Holy hell... This is so tasty!'

'I thought the purple qi in this place makes it a paradise, and now I have got these!'

'This is the purest spiritual energy in the world...'

'I am so blessed...'

It took three beads in a row and looked at Ye Xiao with embarrassment, chirping for a while.

It didn't say yes to him yet, but I did eat something he gave me... That was not so honorable... I am embarrassed...'

"Do you want to check some other places? This one is the simplest..." Ye Xiao smiled, like a wolf trying to catch a rabbit.

'What? This one is the simplest? Are you kidding me? You are being arrogant now!'

The bird couldn't believe what it just heard, but it truly looked forward to the other places Ye Xiao said. It left the Spirit Space with hesitation...

Ye Xiao was smiling happily.

He was going to get the bird...

(Off-screen Voice: Erhuo said, "Pah, that bird is totally ignorant. It is never going to resist my great Boundless Space! I mean my master's Boundless Space!")

"Chirp, chirp, chirp... What is this?"

The bird was shocked again.

They were in the Water Space this time.

In the Water Space, it was foggy. The bird stood outside the entrance, and it already felt refreshed because of the amazing spiritual qi.

The bird walked in, and it saw the pond in the Water Space.

"The Water of True Spirits! Is this real? Is the Water of True Spirits real?"

The bird went crazy!

'Holy hell...'

'The Water of True Spirits...'

'One tiny drop of it gives a medicinal plant one hundred years worth of growth...'

'There is a huge pond of it!'

The bird was actually a medicinal plant after all. It needed not only spiritual qi but also good water. The purer the water was, the better. In fact, it needed water more than spiritual qi. Water was irreplaceable!

The Water of True Spirits was something the bird would die for!

'Oh, my holy mother...'

'I am a medicinal plant...'

'I need the Water of True Spirits...'

'I... I... I...'

The bird staggered ahead and reached the pond. It didn't dare to drink it and just turned around and chirped at Ye Xiao.

"Can I drink? Can I have just a sip? Just that... One sip..."

"What are you looking for? I brought you here to drink this, didn't I?" Ye Xiao was generous. "Well, you must not swell yourself though... There is a future ahead of us anyway..."

The bird immediately put its head into the water before Ye Xiao could even finish what he was saying.

It started to drink as much as it could...

After a while, the bird's belly swelled up high, and it staggered and raised up its head, and then it burped...

'This is awesome...'

'This is the life I want...'

"There are other spaces that are even better than this one..." Ye Xiao blinked.

Bab was not so interested now. It seemed like the Spirit Space and the Water Space were good enough, and it didn't need anything else anymore...

'Come on... What else can be better than these two spaces? I have made my decision! This is it!'

Ye Xiao laughed and held the bird up and walked to the Wood Space.

This time it didn't resist it at all. It leaned on Ye Xiao and almost fell asleep.

'This feels so good!'

'I feel so secured!'

'This feels so satisfactory!'

'I want to sleep... Nothing else is more important... I am not interested in anything else now...'

However, as they reached the Wood Space, Bab suddenly felt something. It immediately opened its eyes! Something spirited it up!

Bab was totally stimulated!

'This is...'

'I...'

'This is... This is the best place for me... I can smell it... What is wrong with me?'

As the Wood Space was opened...

Suddenly, a strong flow of green spiritual qi rose and rushed out...

Bab groaned and passed out because of excitement.

'Oh, heavens...'

'I don't give a damn about the heavens anymore!'

'This is what I want...'

'The purest spiritual qi of woods!'

Ye Xiao put Bab down and left it in the Wood Space before he left.

...

It didn't take Bab long to wake up. It shakily walked ahead in the Wood Space.

What did it see?

The Wood Space was full of spiritual medicinal plants!

Row after row...

'Oh, my god...'

Every plant seemed to be much stronger and bigger than the same plant outside... In this place, Bab could see every plant that it knew... In fact, there were a lot of plants that Bab didn't know...

As it looked around, it felt jealous!

'This place is my perfect match! How can these plants grow here!'

'These plants... These are useless trash!'

'These useless junks actually have been enjoying this magnificent place...'

'This is so annoying...'

'Who are you to live in this place?'

'Only I am qualified enough to stay!'

'These useless plants actually have lived here for such a long time, while I have lived a really tough life out there... I even got bullied by a damn cat and a stupid hawk...'

Bab almost cried.

Fang Wudi had tortured Bab for its tears, but he failed. Now, Bab was giving its tears to the Wood Space, paying back the favor...

Well, it wasn't paying back any favor though. After all, it didn't live in the Wood Space yet, so it never got anything from the Wood Space!

It was so jealous!

A man shouldn't compare others, and a medicinal plant shouldn't compare other plants either...

It hurt so bad!

Bab looked at those spiritual medicinal plants in the Wood Space, and it was so angry that its eyes nearly flamed up!

'This is too good for you! Don't you feel ashamed to stay here?'

'Oh... I am so mad...'

...

After a while.

Ye Xiao entered the Boundless Space. Bab was still in the Wood Space, and there were many pieces of Tear of Soul.

'What is this? Was it bullied? Nothing in the Wood Space has turned alive though!'
