Chapter 1811: A Rolling Wave of Spiritual Beasts

That was a huge group of wolves, a few times more than the tigers. There were over ten thousand of them!

Each wolf was twenty feet long and ten feet tall. They were bigger than a horse!

Over ten thousand wolves, their furs were like silver, glaring. Their eyes were red. That was right. The silver wolves didn't have green eyes like normal wolves. Their eyes were red like blood...

"Are those... Are those wolves?" When people saw the horrible creatures, they took a cold breath.

In fact, there were stories about such special wolves, but those were only stories.

As it was said, this kind of wolf was called the Silver Wolf. Their furs were shiny silver. As they grew older, they became stronger. They were strong, and their bodies were tough. They moved so fast that they could ride the wind. They could easily move ten thousand miles within one night. The most horrible thing was they could breed really fast.

A silver wolves couple could become a big family with over ten wolves. These younger wolves would continue breeding. Within three years, they would become a clan!

How horrible it was!

The Silver Wolf was a legend because it had been the most powerful beast among all monsters. Back to the old days, when a silver wolf howled, within a few minutes, thousands of other silver wolves would come over.

The leader of the Monster Clan had once started a war in the world of beasts. The worst battle was against the Silver Wolves. The war lasted three thousand and seven hundred years.

When the war was finished, the Silver Wolves became only a story in history!

However, the extinct wolves actually returned to the world! There were over ten thousand of them!

...

Jin Wei's face looked dark.

Over a thousand Black Golden Tigers weren't such a big problem. It only took a little time to kill them all. However, over ten thousand Silver Wolves were such a big problem.

No matter what they did, they couldn't avoid getting hurt.

He couldn't retreat.

It was such a great opportunity to destroy the Monarch's Hall once and for all. He just needed to defeat the spiritual beasts. After that, the Monarch's Hall would fall immediately.

Jin Wei believed this was the only chance he had in his life!

If he missed the opportunity, the Monarch's Hall would become a big threat to the Hall of Returning Nature. It would become a nightmare for the Hall of Returning Nature!

Jin Wei had to insist.

However, the Silver Wolves were so powerful. How was he going to win?

Jin Wei kept thinking about it. Suddenly, he remembered a story about the Silver Wolves. The Silver Wolves cherished the connection of blood very much. There was a wolf king in every ten thousand wolves. The king was the most intelligent wolf among the ten thousand wolves. Every other wolf followed the king's orders. To defeat these wolves, he only needed to kill the wolf king. Once the wolf king was dead, the other wolves might start attacking each other!

If that was true, then Jin Wei only needed to find the wolf king!

He was so glad. It wasn't easy to find the wolf king, but at least he knew what to do now. There were a lot of wolves, and Jin Wei had a lot of God Slaughter Arrows. It wouldn't be difficult to defeat the ten thousand wolves...

It must be a bad day for Jin Wei. He just had a plan, but Ye Xiao waved his hand again...

Behind the Silver Wolves, a huge group of leopards in golden color showed up and howled. They rushed into the sky and joined the battle!

The leopards were even bigger than the Silver Wolves. There were two thousand of them. They were horribly powerful and fast.

"Purple Golden Leopard!"

Somebody exclaimed. It was another extinct species.

People recognized the leopards immediately. If there were just over ten Purple Golden Leopards, people might feel great about it.

The Silver Wolves were good at battle, and they were gregarious. The Purple Golden Leopards always live alone. Each of them was powerful and fast. Their furs were extremely valuable. It was a perfect material for armors. People had been hunting the Purple Golden Leopards, so in the last five hundred years, nobody had really seen any Purple Golden Leopards.

Nobody expected to see so many Purple Golden Leopards. The appearance of the two thousand Purple Golden Leopards terrified the Hall of Returning Nature. They were aiming at those who were bitten by the wolves. These leopards were nightmares!

In fact, compared to the next spiritual beast, the leopard was weak. After the leopards, a group of huge things showed up. These beasts were all black, which were thousands of kilograms. It was a group of bison. Unlike other bison, these bison had a sharp horn on the head!

They were running toward the Hall of Returning Nature.

They were going to crush them!

It was powerful!

If the bison just kept running forward, the Hall of Returning Nature wouldn't be so desperate. The bison were incredibly tough. Even the God Slaughter Arrow couldn't kill them, and it just caused some sparks on their iron skins.

Many Immortality Stage cultivators started to attack. Hundreds of the bison were turned into broken pieces. However, more bison had rushed into the crowd!

The Hall of Returning Nature was in a mess!

...

Chapter 1812: Chance for Freedom

Many of the Hall of Returning Nature people flew to the sky. They realized that none of the tigers, the wolves, or the leopards could fly to the sky. At least they couldn't stay in the sky. In other words, if they attacked the beasts from the sky, they might win it!

After that, they didn't get the turnover as they wanted. The beasts had their air-force too. As the men of the Hall of Returning Nature flew to the sky, some other beasts suddenly appeared, covering the sky. That was a lot of hawks flying out with their hundreds-feet long wings.

Men could fly, but compared to the hawks, men lost. The high-level cultivators of the Hall of Returning Nature didn't have time to attack the beasts on the ground, because the hawks crushed them!

After that, many pythons appeared like tide rolling over the people of the Hall of Returning Nature. Among these pythons, there were forty Silver-scaled Golden-caruncled Snakes. It was glaring...

After that... Well, all in all, all kinds of beasts appeared and joined the battle...

After a while, the thousands of miles battlefield was filled with spiritual beasts.

When the Black Golden Tiger appeared, the Hall of Returning Nature took the absolute advantages. When the Silver Wolves showed up, the Hall of Returning Nature was still wining... However, as more and more spiritual beasts joined the battle, the Hall of Returning Nature started to lose...

People of the Hall of Returning Nature had fallen into the ocean of beasts!

Their chance to win became smaller and smaller.

Would they escape?

They had thought of it. The problem was... How? Was it possible?

All kinds of flying beasts were fighting in the sky. Whoever dared to escape would be attacked by the flying creatures!

Who could move faster than these creatures?

They couldn't fly away. Stayed fighting, they might live a while longer. If they try to escape, they die!

The Hall of Returning Nature was losing it. Dozens of beasts fought against one enemy! It was horrible.

It was an enormous army of spiritual beasts. People on the Hall of Returning Nature's side were despairing!

Even though the beasts were winning, Ye Xiao didn't stop waving his sleeves to call for more spiritual beasts...

Apparently, he was trying to kill every single one of the Hall of Returning Nature people. He wanted them to all die in the beasts' belly!

He was using the superpower that he had never used before.

These beasts were from the fifth and sixth floor of the Mountain of All Medicines. Beasts from the two floors of the Mountain of All Medicines had come out. A part of the beasts on the seventh floor was out too.

"You are in the Human Realm Upon Heavens. These beasts are the blood of the Monster Clan. After this battle, some may return to the Mountain of All Medicines, but the others should be free to stay in the world. It is heaven's will to keep these beasts as the bloodline of the Monster Clan!"

When Ye Xiao opened the seventh floor of the Mountain of All Medicines, he read the note.

He could free these beasts to fight for him, but after the fight, the beasts could choose whether or not to return to the Mountain of All Medicines.

In other words, having these beasts to fight could be a one-time thing!

Ye Xiao was full of hate at the moment. He gritted his teeth and freed all the beasts on the two floors.

The Monarch's Hall had just started to rise. How could he not be angry about this misfortune?

'Aren't you going to destroy my Monarch's Hall? This is the price! Die in the belly of the beasts!'

Survivors of the Monarch's Hall who stayed on the mountain were severely wounded. They were powerless. However, they enjoyed watching the fight.

They saw the enemies moaning, struggling, fighting, being torn into pieces and swallowed...

They saw the powerful cultivators hopelessly exploded themselves...

They saw the enemies full of desperation and fear. They just couldn't stop enjoying it.

There were over one million spiritual beasts in the battle. Within three thousand miles, there was blood and marks of fights...

Outside the three thousand miles, more spiritual beasts were making the encirclement!

These beasts greedily watched the fight from outside, and they were ready to fight at any second.

They got the order to make sure no enemies escape the battlefield. Nobody could be spared!

If any enemies escaped successfully, the beasts who were supposed to stop them lost their chance to be free!

A chance for freedom!

It was important for every beast!

The beasts had been kept in the Mountain of All Medicines for hundreds of thousands of years. Even though the Mountain of All Medicines was a vast place, these beasts must have walked over every corner of the mountain...

They knew everything in the mountain, and everything had been so boring.

Freedom was incredibly important for these creatures!

Whoever locked down the Mountain of All Medicines must be so powerful that the beasts couldn't resist. They had to accept it. Their only hope was on the new owner of the mountain. Ye Xiao could free them. As long as they finished the mission this time, they could get freedom!

The beasts were all looking forward to it!

Ye Xiao had let them out for the fight.

They just needed to do a good job on the battlefield, so they would be free.

They would all be free!

It was such a great opportunity for all the spiritual beasts!

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1813: All Dead

They had to seize the opportunity for freedom. They couldn't make any mistakes!

If they failed, they wouldn't have a second chance!

The leader of each group gave orders to the others. "If anybody does anything to fail our mission, he eats our sh*t for the rest of his life!"

It was a punishment that every beast was scared of. However, that was not enough.

"If anybody makes any mistake to take away our opportunity for freedom, he becomes the slave of the clan! No exception!"

They might feel frightened by the first rule, but the latter one was scarier. It was the worst punishment they ever had. A slave's children would always be slaves! It was horrible!

Those who were guarding the encirclement kept their eyes open. They had to. In fact, they had never been so concentrated before!

They just couldn't make any mistakes...

The battle was in chaos. Beasts were howling. People were screaming. They were killing each other...

Jin Wei couldn't feel more awkward.

He planned to kill the wolf king. He thought he finally had good news, but it turned out to be bad news. He wasn't dealing with just a wolf king. He had to face the tiger king, the bison king, the hawk king, crane king, and the roc king...

All in all, the beasts knew that he was an extremely powerful enemy who could control the army. They knew they should aim at him. If this man escaped, they lost their chance for freedom. Therefore, the kings of the beasts decided to fight him.

The Golden Tiger, Jing Wei was in the most desperate situation. His face carried all kinds of wounds... He was scratched, bitten, twitched, burned, and even exploded...

The beasts weren't showing him mercy...

As the leader, Jin Wei had his own guards. In the beginning, over a hundred men were fighting with him side by side. Those who were able to stay on his side were powerful cultivators. Some of them were Immortality Stage cultivators. These men were good. With these men, Jin Wei could kill all the people of the Monarch's Hall!

However, as things developed, it was getting worse on his side. These men became only dozens, and then over ten, eight, seven, in the end, the last two guards were dead. Young Master Meng particularly sent these two men to help Jin Wei.

Jin Wei was on his own now.

He was still alive because he was a powerful cultivator, and the others kept protecting him. Now his men were gone and he was going to fall soon.

He could feel his energy running out fast. However, there were more and more beasts coming out. He felt powerless because these beasts were quite intelligent. They wouldn't fight the man alone. When a beast attacked, it stepped away for others to attack.

Were these still beasts?

How could beasts fight like men in the battle?

Jin Wei roared and roared. He kept raising his spiritual energy to make attacks. He wanted to fight a way out. No matter where he looked at, there were a lot of spiritual beasts on guard. These creatures would die to stop him.

If he ran away, they lost freedom...

They weren't going to let that happen!

For the younger generation, they had to stop this man even if they had to die!

Jin Wei was helpless. He just couldn't get out!

The war was coming to an end. Spiritual beasts kept joining the battle like tide... People died one by one...

The beasts who were staying outside stayed quietly!

Even when the enemies were all dead, they couldn't get into the encirclement on their own. They needed an order from Ye Xiao, the owner of the Mountain of All Medicines. If they stepped in too early, one enemy escaped, they failed.

Somewhere far from the fight.

The Tiger in the Dream, the Golden Phoenix, and the Red Phoenix were desperate!

They had been watching their own men marching toward the enemy. They were so close to defeating the enemies once and for all. However, after that, they watched those beasts kept showing up and joining the battle... Their men were falling...

One after another, their men fell from the sky. Before the bodies touched the floor, the beasts ate them up...

There were over a hundred thousand men, and it became about fifty thousand, thirty thousand, a few thousand, and in the end, a few hundred... Jin Wei was fighting on his own!

The others were all dead!

The Red Phoenix's face turned pale. The Golden Phoenix was too emotional to stay calm, so her wounds cracked. She spat out some blood and passed out. The Tiger in the Dream was blank.

He felt cold.

They should be winning it. After just a short time, their men were all gone!

Things were turned over just like that!

The Tiger in the Dream was as good as Jin Wei, but he had been hiding in the Guan Clan with Master Guan for many years. He was not as powerful as Jin Wei in practical fights. He was at the first level of the Immortality Stage. Jin Wei had been leading a powerful army to the battle. It should be a sure win. However, Jin Wei was the only one left now. He wasn't going to hold on any longer! How did things end up this way?

"This is..." The Red Phoenix tried to stay sober, but she was going to break down soon. She was shaking, and her eyes became hollow. She couldn't believe it. "Why? How come?"

She sounded powerless. She was trying so hard to stay calm, but her voice was shaking.

...

Chapter 1814: Nowhere to Run!

The Red Phoenix's voice was shaking. She was powerless. No matter how she tried to stay calm, she couldn't control it.

The Tiger in the Dream coughed and wiped the blood on the corner of his mouth. "It is finished. We must keep ourselves alive and send back the message... We should go. Otherwise, the Hall of Returning Nature will fall..."

"Ye Xiao actually has such an army of beasts. It is horrible. We were wrong about this man..." He looked so upset.

The Red Phoenix was blank. "Go? We are surrounded. How do we leave?"

The Golden Phoenix woke up and made a long sigh.

The Tiger in the Dream sighed too. There was nothing they could do.

The Red Phoenix was right. If they stay, they die, but how were they going to leave?

They were surrounded. Even a fly couldn't get out. They were three people!

No matter how they were good at hiding, they couldn't get away from this. Even if they blocked the spiritual mind sensation, the beasts weren't using their spiritual minds... They were using their noses...

Smell perception was the best of the beasts' sensations.

By the way, they were two ladies. How were they going to cover the scent of the ladies?

Suddenly, in the center of the battlefield, somebody was shouting. "Tell the young master... I can't serve him anymore... If only there is an afterlife..."

Before he finished talking, there was an explosion.

The mushroom cloud rose up.

The Golden Tiger of the One Dragon, Two Tigers, and Three Phoenixes of the Hall of Returning Nature became dust in the sky.

The army of beasts didn't stop. They kept marching forward, digging deep into the ground to kill those who were hiding underground.

As they searched around, they were approaching the three people.

The Tiger in the Dream looked desperate. He kept holding their fists but only breathed a sigh.

There was nothing he could do. If he steps out, he dies. He stayed still, he was exposed soon. He thought about running out and made a self-explosion, but it might harm none of the beasts!

"We are going to die. The Hall of Returning Nature has never suffered such a great loss ever." The Tiger in the Dream sadly shook his head. "The young master built the Hall of Returning Nature himself. One Dragon, Two Tigers, Three Phoenixes, Four Kong Warriors, Eight Sky Masters... We used to rule the world! It has been only over ten years, and we are already beyond the Brotherhood Alliance... We are the most powerful force in the Limitless Ocean... What a shame..."

"After today, our Four Kong Warriors and Eight Sky Masters are dead. Two of the Three Phoenixes will die. I will die just as Jin Wei did. He is gone. I guess I am joining him soon..."

The Tiger in the Dream sadly said, "When the war began, nobody knew this small force that was built only one year ago could actually defeat us. Look at his unbelievable army of beasts. They killed everyone... The two guards, Undead Stage cultivators, both died... It is horrible..."

The Red Phoenix and the Golden Phoenix didn't speak.

That was right. Nobody knew. The Monarch's Hall was known to be just somewhere provided medical treatments. It was unbelievable that it actually pushed the Hall of Returning Nature to the corner of destruction!

The Hall of Returning Nature never lost a battle like this before, not even to the House of Chaotic Storms or the Brotherhood Alliance.

However...

That was the Monarch's Hall!

The beasts were rolling over on the ground. The silver Wolves ran as one, like a silver stream. The Purple Golden Leopards and the Black Bison followed... The hawks, the cranes, and the rocs were flying in the sky...

They were everywhere.

It was a wonder in history!

It was a wonderful sight of murderous intent.

About three hundred men of the Hall of Returning Nature were protecting the three leaders. These men were powerful, but they couldn't be better than the army of a hundred thousand men that were already dead.

If one hundred thousand men couldn't stop the beasts, what could these three hundred men do?

They were going to die!

The beasts were running everywhere. These men were hopeless!

'Why? Why did we have to fight the Monarch's Hall?'

'Because of the death of the Iron Kong?'

'He was killed in a fair trial! Did we have to start a war to avenge him?'

Well, it wasn't just about that. They started to war to show their power to the world. They wanted the world to know that nobody bullied the Hall of Returning Nature!

They planned to defeat the Monarch's Hall with the advantage of outnumbering!

Well, was the Monarch's Hall as weak as they thought?

The Monarch's Hall had such a great army of beasts! Even a royal army of one of the four Sky Kings probably couldn't defeat these crazy beasts!

'If the young master knew, would he still start the war?'

'Would he decide to go against this unbelievable small force?'

"Report! A group of enemies is detected!"

It was the hawk king.

Erhuo was doing the translation.

As Erhuo looked at the hawk, Erhuo's eyes showed nothing but pride and prestige.

“Hmm.” Ye Xiao nodded. He checked on his men again, gave them some dan beads, and then felt relaxed.

“There must be many people of them. Let’s go and watch those men die!”

Ye Xiao flew up to the sky in white clothes like a saint. He went to the front of all the beasts within a few seconds. He just flew to the sky, but the murderous intent that he sent out had traveled thousands of miles.

It chilled the enemies!

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1815: Tell Meng Wuzhen, I am Going to Kill Him!

“There is no way to escape.” The Tiger in the Dream breathed a sigh. He looked sad.

They were exposed. If he kept talking about escaping, he was only going to be humiliated.

It was an army of millions of spiritual beasts. They couldn’t run, because there was no way for the three hundred men to run. They couldn’t defeat all those beasts...

While the Tiger in the Dream was lost, a sharp stream of sword light dashed over the sky.

The forest where they were hiding in was chopped half off. The three hundred men were exposed.

The beasts knew that it was time for them to put on a show. They kept roaring and picking up the tree trunks. There were no woods anymore, but only three isolated men.

The beasts ran to Ye Xiao and waved their tails, asking for credits. They were such a bunch of bootlickers to Ye Xiao.

‘Master! We did everything you told! We have done a good job! After these men die, can we be free? Can we?’

Ye Xiao rolled his eyes up and blandly talked to the enemies. “Lady Red Phoenix, it has been quite a while. You look ill. What is the matter? It seems you are living with a heavy burden in the Human Realm Upon Heavens. Do you want me to give you some treatment? It is free...”

The Red Phoenix was shaking. “Ye Xiao, why are you doing this? Just do what you have to do! If I ever frown, I am not the Red Phoenix!”

Ye Xiao shook his head and said, “I am doing nothing. The Monarch’s Hall is a small force. We are trying to survive the Human Realm Upon Heavens. It is such a shame. I failed to keep my brothers safe. They died, and it hurt me so bad.”

“I know the reason. It is simple. We messed with the Hall of Returning Nature.” Ye Xiao blandly said, “The Hall of Returning Nature, what a great force! Three months’ continual battles killed most of my men.”

“Maybe this is what a martial world really is like. It is a shame that I only got to see it clearly today. How reality hurts!” Ye Xiao’s eyes shined chilling lights. It was merciless. “Martial world means killing!”

The Red Phoenix took a deep breath and said, "You are right. This is the martial world. Killing is all we have in the martial world. The stronger lives while the weaker dies! You win, so you are right!"

"The Hall of Returning Nature lost the war. I won't deny it. You got us. You are right. Whatever you want to do, we won't stop it."

The Red Phoenix said, "This is the martial world, and the winner has his rights."

Ye Xiao shook his head and sighed. "I am impressed by you. I always liked you, a brave lady. However, we are enemies. There is nothing I can do to change the fact."

"When Master Meng built the Hall of Returning Nature, he had the One Dragon, Two Tigers, Three Phoenixes, Four Kong Warriors, and Eight Sky Masters. That was incredible! Well, this is sad. After this, will the Hall of Returning Nature become a much weaker force because of me?"

The Golden Phoenix coughed and angrily said, "Our young master has a lot of superior cultivators. We aren't that important. The Hall of Returning Nature is ruling the world. It won't be any weaker. We will fight back. Wait and see!"

"Well, I am relieved." Ye Xiao nodded. "I was very worried. Would Master Meng lose hope after he loses you guys? Since he won't, I think I will take my time here now. To be honest, you guys are not enough to fill my beasts' belly. It is such a big problem to feed all these beasts..."

He was talking gently and nicely like talking to one of his friends, complaining about the problem of life.

However, for the Red Phoenix and the Golden Phoenix, what Ye Xiao said made them feel cold.

"You should be proud. Do you know that?" Ye Xiao sighed. "This army of beasts, I wanted to save it for somebody else... Now I have used it on you guys. In fact, it isn't fair for Master Meng... It certainly is unlucky for the man to whom I planned to use this army."

Ye Xiao looked in the distance and sighed. "When I meet that man someday, it is going to be a tough fight for me. I am not happy about this."

The Red Phoenix angrily said, "You are not happy. So what?"

"I am not happy, so I will have to do something about it. Why do you ask, lady?" Ye Xiao smiled and said, "I am trying to survive this dangerous world. I am showing kindness to everybody. I don't want any trouble. However, trouble keeps coming for me. Nobody dares to have a fair fight anymore. It is all about power. I think I am going to stop staying low, because people may keep underestimating me."

"We were bullied. I can't let that happen. I have to fight back. Otherwise, how does the Monarch's Hall live in this world? I don't think there is any fair way to solve any conflict anymore."

"Your master is the crown prince of the West Sky, Meng Wuzhen. He has stepped in my way. Well, it could be an opportunity for me... I can tell the world, that I will kill even the crown prince of the West Sky if he dares to mess with me!"

He blandly said, "Well, it turns out to be a good thing for me. How things change!"

The Golden Phoenix viciously said, "You? You want to kill my master? Come on. Stop dreaming. What do you think you are?"

"I am not something." Ye Xiao blandly said, "I am a man! Your master, however, is not a man for me... He is a dead body that luckily still breathes."

Ye Xiao said, "Do you hear that? The voice in the wind? Isn't it piteous? Isn't it angry? It is the voice of the hundreds of thousands of souls that died for the Monarch's Hall! They are asking me to avenge them! Killing you is not enough. I have to kill Meng Wuzhen!"

The Red Phoenix shivered.

The wind was howling. She felt like it was the whispering of the dead souls.

"I am depressed. I made a mistake, and my brothers died because of it. I have to avenge them... Or else..." Ye Xiao took a deep breath and shouted to the sky.

His shout pierced the clouds!

"All the brothers who died for the Monarch's Hall, I swear to you!" Ye Xiao said, "I will destroy the Hall of Returning Nature! I will kill for Monarch's Hall! I will avenge you all, brothers! I promise!"

The voice reached the clouds. Something was shaking beyond the clouds in the sky.

After that, a stream of purple light shot down and got into Ye Xiao's body.

"Approved!"

It sounded from somewhere.

It seemed to be the voice from beyond the heavens.

The Heavenly Dao had approved his vow!

The Golden Phoenix and the Red Phoenix were frightened.

"What a bastard!" The Golden Phoenix shouted. She was severely injured, but at this moment, she seemed to regain a bursting power. She suddenly dashed out fast, and her sword was moving toward Ye Xiao. She gritted her teeth and stared at Ye Xiao viciously.

"I don't kill women." Ye Xiao was indifferent. "But this is an exception... You have to die today! I will avenge my brothers. I don't care if you are a woman or not!"

He raised up one hand and grabbed the moving sword in time. – Crack! – The sword was broken into pieces. Ye Xiao didn't stop. His hand moved forward and hit the Golden Phoenix's chest.

"Pah..."

The Golden Phoenix spat out blood and flew out immediately. After that, she became a blood mist in the sky. She was gone.

One palm hit, Ye Xiao killed both the woman's body and soul!

He wanted her dead, so he didn't show mercy.

The battle went on for three months. The Golden Phoenix had killed thousands of the people of the Monarch's Hall!

Ye Xiao hated her so much. He wanted to kill her!

"Go! Kill them all! Leave the Red Phoenix. She will deliver my message to Meng Wuzhen! That is my promise. I will spare her!" Ye Xiao waved one hand and coldly said.

"Ahwoo..."

The beasts were howling and running out excitedly...

The Tiger in the Dream made a long sigh. With a long sword in his hand, he blandly said, "I have traveled the world as a powerful cultivator. I can't die in the mouth of some beast! Ye Xiao, I will take vengeance in my next life!"

His sword shined. He stabbed it into his own heart.

The next moment, the sword exploded inside him. The Tiger in the Dream became a blood mist in the sky just like the Golden Phoenix.

The Tiger in the Dream exploded his own body and became a mist in the sky. The beasts couldn't eat him if they wanted to.

He just didn't want to become food in the beasts' mouth.

He would rather explode himself and turn into a mist!

It was the dignity of a powerful cultivator.

The three hundred men of the Hall of Returning Nature weren't so lucky. They were surrounded by the beasts. Within seconds, they died.

Nothing was left of them. The beasts ate everything!

The Red Phoenix was scared. She wanted to kill herself, but she was too powerless to kill herself.

The others were dead in the mouth of the beasts. Her heart was bleeding.

"Ye Xiao! Kill me!" The Red Phoenix cried in tears.

"I want to, but you are the only one left. If you die, nobody goes back to Meng Wuzhen." Ye Xiao blandly looked at her. "Do you know why I picked you? You kept your promise when you said you would let Master Guan go. You don't break your word."

"I want you to go and tell Meng Wuzhen everything. I promised Jin Wei I would spare one person. I don't break my word." Ye Xiao said, "I will never stop fighting Meng Wuzhen!"

Ye Xiao turned around and waved his hand. "Retreat!"

Then he left.

The army of beasts retreated.

After a while, the area was back to peace. The Red Phoenix was the only person in this place.

As she looked around the blood within the three thousand miles, she spat out blood. The Hall of Returning Nature had been winning. She had a great army, but there was no army anymore, just herself. She couldn't make it anymore, and she fell to the floor...

'Master... We... We were wrong... We shouldn't have messed with Ye Xiao...'

Before she passed out, that was the only thought she had.

Chapter 1816: I Can Do it Myself

...

Ye Xiao stood on top of the mountain, watching the beasts disappearing into the forests and mountains. He felt helpless but relieved.

The beasts ran to Ye Xiao and kowtowed to him. After that, led by their kings, they ran into the mountains, howling along the way...

"Guys, protect yourselves. Maybe we will meet again someday." Ye Xiao's mind power spread out and delivered the message in three thousand miles. "When I meet you again, I hope you have become kings!"

The beasts stopped and looked back at the man in white clothes on the mountain and then ran away again...

Ye Xiao was filled with anger when fighting this tragic battle, so he set millions of beasts free. Over a hundred thousand of the beasts died in the battle. Less than one thousand beasts decided to return to the Mountain of All Medicines after it was finished.

The other beasts all chose to return to the wild world to get their freedom.

When the beasts were gone, Ye Xiao checked on the Mountain of All Medicines. He was surprised that those who chose to stay were mostly from the seventh floor.

Two Silver Wolves were as powerful as level-eight Immortality Stage cultivators. They were a couple, and they both chose to stay with Ye Xiao.

Ye Xiao didn't understand, so he sent Erhuo to ask for the reason. The answer made him lost in silence for a long time.

"We want to be strong, not free. Without absolute power, there won't be true freedom. We chose to stay in the Mountain of All Medicines because we would improve much faster here."

"We have chosen to stay. When we are powerful enough, we will ask for permission to leave."

The wolf's word kept Ye Xiao in thought.

'Without absolute power, there won't be true freedom!'

Even wolves knew it but most of the people didn't!

...

“Let’s return!”

Ye Xiao looked at his men, who were severely injured. He didn’t feel relieved about that.

The Monarch’s Hall had to take a long time off after this.

Ye Xiao got nobody to use again!

As he checked on his men, most of the people were severely injured. No matter how powerful Ye Xiao was, he couldn’t cure them in a short time.

...

“Stay and rest as long as you can. When you feel better, keep training. You must improve two levels at least, or you will not be allowed to leave the Monarch’s Hall. Violate my rules, then you are no longer one of us!”

Ye Xiao gave the order.

...

The mountain where they stayed at the end of the war became a grave.

“People of the Monarch’s Hall will always be monarchs!”

“Ye Xiao builds this monument to the brothers who died protecting the Monarch’s Hall!”

“Life or death, the monument shined everywhere. We will avenge you, brothers!”

The golden words appeared in the air and shined upon the mountains around.

Whoever saw the image of the words could feel the killing intent!

...

The war between the Monarch’s Hall and the Hall of Returning Nature shocked the entire Limitless Ocean.

Those who heard the news were all astonished.

In an old dirty tent somewhere in the Limitless Ocean.

Ye Changqing’s face was pale. He crazily shouted, “How is that possible? Impossible!”

He hated Ye Xiao so much. When he knew the war began, he chose to tolerate the humiliation to go near the battlefield.

He wanted to hear the news about Ye Xiao’s failure as soon as possible!

However, it turned out to be a victory for the Monarch’s Hall and Ye Xiao!

Ye Changqing almost went crazy as he heard the unexpected news after waiting for three months.

“Puff!”

A big foot stamped the musty bun in Ye Changqing’s hand on the floor. A tall guy smiled and said, “What is it? Are you disappointed? Young Master Changqing? Hah hah...”

Zhao Yi was dull. He was powerless, and he didn’t notice Ye Changqing being humiliated like that. He stared at the bun on the floor...

A second later, Zhao Yi dashed over to the musty bun with dirt...

“That is mine!” Ye Changqing shouted and jumped over.

The two men got down on the wet floor, fighting for the stamped and musty bun. Everything they cared about was food, nothing else...

Finally, Ye Changqing took half of the bun and hastily swallowed it with mud. He kept chewing hard, and the sands in the mud cracked his teeth and made an unpleasant sound...

Zhao Yi was swallowing the other half...

“Hah hah...” A tall man in yellow clothes, who was in charge of watching the two men, laughed and said, “Brothers, do you see this? These two beggars are your enemies! Hah hah hah... You can rest now...”

“There is no peace for these two bastards though!

“Hah hah hah... I am off now. Time to hand it over to others...”

The man laughed wildly and left.

A few others were waiting for him to leave...

Ye Changqing and Zhao Yi were despairing...

The next moment, Zhao Yi suddenly went crazy. He gritted his teeth and stared at Ye Changqing. Suddenly, he jumped over and choked Ye Changqing’s neck. He shouted like a mad man, “It was you! You did this! You bastard! You f*cking useless prick! You did this to me... You son of a b*tch! You coward! F*cking trash...”

Ye Changqing’s face turned purple. He panicked and tried to get help. “Help... Help...” He waved one of his hands and grabbed Zhao Yi’s hairs...

Zhao Yi felt the pain and let go of his hand. The two of them fought on the muddy ground...

A few tall men flew over from somewhere, holding their arms and watching these two men fighting with disdain in their eyes.

Zhao Yi got up and sat on Ye Changqing. Some of his hairs were ripped off. He grabbed Ye Changqing’s neck as hard as he could. The fingers had deeply gotten into Ye Changqing’s throat...

Ye Changqing’s eyes rolled aside. His hands were tightly grabbing Zhao Yi’s hands. He tried so hard to get away but he couldn’t. Finally, he was losing consciousness...

The tall men usually should have stopped them...

However, not this time, they didn't.

They sneered while watching the two men fighting.

"It is an order that we show mercy to the Heaven's Leaf. There is no need to keep torturing the man anymore!"

Ye Changqing's neck was cracking, and finally, he stopped breathing. His eyes were still staring at the sky, but his eyes were hollow...

Somebody drew out the sword and chopped off Zhao Yi's head!

These two men had been humiliated, played around, teased, and tortured. Finally, their lives ended.

Nobody had thought they would die this way.

The tall men stood there for a while and then finally left.

The crows in the sky were hovering in the sky.

The two corpses lay on the ground weirdly...

After a while...

A man in cyan clothes appeared. He stared at the corpses and sighed.

"Shangguan Lingxiao is a good man. He stopped." The man in cyan clothes waved one hand and took away Ye Changqing and Zhao Yi's dead bodies. "If they kept humiliating these two longer, somebody is going to be really angry. He was one of the Ye Clan after all. Nobody gets to humiliate our people too much!"

"It is the end. Ye Changqing had paid his debt. However, the Heaven's Leaf will need an explanation from the Brotherhood Alliance."

The man flashed and then disappeared...

...

"How is it possible?"

The real Master Yunduan, Ye Yunduan, stared at the distance for a long time. He wasn't able to accept it yet.

The seven old masters were with him. The old masters seemed to be dull, but in fact, they were staring at Ye Yunduan.

Ye Yunduan was blank.

He looked into the air.

He held his breath.

His eyes were flickering...

The seven old masters saw everything.

They didn't move, but their minds were busy. They tried to figure out what Ye Yunduan was thinking.

Ye Yunduan's reaction only lasted for a few seconds.

In the seven cunning old foxes' eyes, it was long enough to tell them everything they wanted to know.

Ye Yunduan was surprised, shocked, astonished... That was reasonable. It was surprising news he heard.

After that, he was a bit lost and a little jealous.

The old men saw everything, so they sighed.

When the war started, the old masters thought about going to support the Monarch's Hall. Ye Yunduan didn't stop them. In fact, he agreed with them.

When the seven clans were ready to go, the Monarch's Hall refused their support.

"It is our own business. If you join the battle, it will become complicated!"

The Monarch's Hall insisted not to have their support. The seven old masters knew that it was protecting the Seven Golden Lotuses. If the seven clans joined the battle, it wasn't simply a war between two forces anymore.

The entire Limitless Ocean would be at war.

The Hall of Returning Nature wasn't just some normal organization. The seven clans had the Heaven's Leaf to get their backs. However, the Hall of Returning Nature had the West Sky King. If the Hall of Returning Nature lost the fight against the seven clans, the West Sky force would come and join the battle soon. The Hall of Returning Nature definitely would get support.

The Hall of Returning Nature was using armors and weapons from a royal army, especially the God Slaughter Arrow.

If the royal force got involved, it would become a war that involved the whole world.

Even the Heaven's Leaf and the Seven Golden Lotuses couldn't be sure to defeat the royal force of a Sky King unless the seven great ancestors came out to fight too.

In fact, even if the great ancestors joined the fight, the war wouldn't just end. The war in the Limitless Ocean would become the war of the world.

Nobody could take that responsibility.

The seven old masters weren't happy about the Monarch's Hall's decision, but they had to accept it. They had been waiting for the message from the battlefield!

In the end, they couldn't just sit and watch anymore. Each clan had prepared two thousand of their best men to rescue the Monarch's Hall's people.

They came up with an excuse.

'We are just here to save lives, not to kill.'

'We get the people we will save, and we leave immediately!'

'The war itself doesn't concern us, but we have to save lives.'

'We owe the Monarch's Hall so much. We have to repay the favor. It is reasonable and understandable that we have to save their lives.'

When the old masters were very close to the battlefield, Ye Xiao returned all of a sudden.

"Guys, please return. This is our own business. You can't get involved. I will handle it."

Ye Xiao looked pale. He looked at the clouds in the sky and said, "If we are going to die, I would have asked for your support. I won't sacrifice my brothers just for my self-esteem."

"This is not our end."

"The Monarch's Hall has lost a lot of men during the three months. It is true. However, this cruel battle is something we have to get through. It was unexpected that I had been absent, but it was also something we needed."

Ye Xiao sounded casual. The seven old masters knew he was suppressing something in his heart.

"The Monarch's Hall has become one."

"It is like an iron board, but it is not strong enough."

"This fight will push us to the end, and it will make us stronger. The Monarch's Hall has lost a lot!"

"But after this, the Monarch's Hall will truly start to rise!"

"Please, masters, I don't need you yet!"

"I can do it myself. I can save the day!"

After that, Ye Xiao became a long rainbow, moving toward the south.

The seven old masters were shocked.

...

Chapter 1817: Escape a Disaster

Although Ye Xiao had shown his determination, the seven old men couldn't just turn away. They assumed Ye Xiao had already reached the Undead Stage, but it was not enough to win the war on his own. They decided to follow Ye Xiao secretly. If the Monarch's Hall was going to fail, they would have to save Ye Xiao's life.

When they got near to the battlefield, they saw the great army of beasts running toward the men of the Hall of Returning Nature. Within a short time, the Hall of Returning Nature was defeated.

That was only about an hour. Over a hundred thousand men of the Hall of Returning Nature died.

The seven old masters were shocked. They were shaking in astonishment.

'Is this... Is this the real power of the Lord Monarch?'

When the Tiger in the Dream killed himself, Master Guan closed his eyes and kept his head low.

He wept.

...

In fact, the seven old masters were alone. Ye Yunduan had led some men to wait near the battlefield, so they could save Ye Xiao when he was in danger. These men saw the result of the war too.

Ye Yunduan had a complicated feeling when he saw how Ye Xiao easily won the war.

He realized that the Monarch's Hall had officially joined the competition in the martial world.

However, as the true descendant of the Heaven's Leaf, he was restrained in the City of Chaos.

Ye Xiao was like a dragon rising up to the world while Ye Yunduan was just a worm in the city!

Everybody knew it. Everybody saw it!

After a while, Ye Yunduan breathed a long sigh. He said, "Ye Xiao is truly a dragon! He has been hiding, staying low... Now it is his time to rise, to fly to the top of the world..."

He sounded jealous, but he tried to stay calm and steady.

The old masters looked at each other. They nodded and sighed.

He must have tried very hard to calm down. He had already done a great job to calm down so quickly.

'We don't mind if you are weak, not strong... We want you to be honest.'

'We can see your real feelings. You were shocked, and you still are.'

'It isn't bad, but it isn't good either!'

'It is reasonable that you are jealous of him. You don't need to hide it!'

'This man is better than Ye Changqing but still not good enough!'

...

"Master, Ye Xiao suddenly showed up and released the army of millions of beasts. The Hall of Returning Nature failed! Over a hundred thousand men of the Hall of Returning Nature died!"

Master Bai was drinking tea. As he heard the message, he coughed. "Cough, cough... Cough, cough, cough..."

Master Bai was always calm and steady. Even if a mountain collapsed in front of him, he wouldn't even blink. As he heard the report, he actually acted awkwardly!

The question was... About four hours earlier, it was said that the Monarch's Hall was going to die in the war.

Unless the Monarch's Hall had many Undead Stage cultivators to help them, they wouldn't be able to win the battle.

Master Bai knew that Ye Xiao wouldn't ask for the help of the great ancestors of the Seven Lotus Clans!

Master Bai had been wondering where Ye Xiao had gone and what had happened to him. Suddenly, the Monarch's Hall won!

Master Bai wasn't expecting such a message. He thought of many other possibilities, but this was not one of them!

The army of the beasts showed up and defeated the Hall of Returning Nature!

The Monarch's Hall was pushed to the end. It was going to lose the war. Suddenly, a great army of millions of beasts showed up to win the war!

How was that possible?

It was unbelievable!

Master Bai turned around and looked at Xiu'er. He was waiting for her to confirm it.

Xiu'er bitterly smiled and nodded. It was real. The Monarch's Hall won.

Master Bai turned over his head. He was in shock. He looked at the tea that he spat out and then laughed. He said, "Ah, it cost me a cup of fine tea."

He grabbed the teapot and poured himself another cup of tea. He took a sip of it and got lost in his thoughts.

"Spiritual beasts?" Master Bai finished his tea and said two words.

He then slightly shook his head. He was confused.

It was rare that Master Bai felt confused. In his life, whenever he was confused, it must be something about Ye Xiao.

The last time he was confused, it was about Ye Xiao and his supreme dan beads.

"How does he get those spiritual beasts?" Master Bai frowned.

"Ye Xiao has no connection to the Monster Clan. I can assure you that.

"But... That was an army of millions of spiritual beasts... It crushed over one hundred thousand men of the Hall of Returning Nature..."

"If he truly controls millions of spiritual beasts, he should have ruled the Limitless Ocean for a long time. He could even become the seventh most powerful force in the world other than the five Sky Kings and the Heaven's Leaf..."

"Why didn't he use it before? Why?"

Master Bai was asking himself.

"Master, the Golden Phoenix King, and the Purple Dragon King met him before... Could it be..." Xiu'er said.

“No. Definitely not!” Master Bai said, “They went to the Monarch’s Hall because of Chihuo. They stayed for only a few days, and Chihuo stayed in the Monarch’s Hall!”

“The Golden Phoenix King and the Purple Dragon King said the Red Fire Lord was gone. However, it was not true.

“Well, the Red Fire Lord was gone. That could be right. However, Chihuo was still there as a member of the Monarch’s Hall.”

Xiu’er was enlightened. “That’s a lie, but... The two kings were so angry when they got to him. They even asked the seven great ancestors for help. It must be something important. Why would they spare the old man?”

“That’s easy. Ye Xiao must have given them something. That is also why Chihuo would agree to join the Monarch’s Hall.”

Master Bai blandly said, “What does Ye Xiao have? At least, he has Supreme Dan. We used to promise him many things for his Heaven Seizing Supreme Dan beads!

“Think about Chihuo’s martial art. Think about how the two kings hated Chihuo. Chihuo must have reached his hand to the children of the phoenix and the dragon because of his special martial art. The two kings hunted him down, and they happened to meet in the Monarch’s Hall, which gave Ye Xiao a reason to get involved. Ye Xiao must have saved the kids, so the problem was solved. The two kings spared Chihuo, and Chihuo joined the Monarch’s Hall to return the favor.

“Isn’t it too easy?” Master Bai blandly smiled.

Xiu’er admired the man.

If Ye Xiao was here, he would admire Master Bai as well. He actually made a good guess. With a little information, he saw the truth! How impressive!

Ye Xiao and Chihuo almost deceived the entire world, but for Master Bai, it was so easy to see through it!

“When the two kings left the Limitless Ocean, it was over.” Master Bai blandly said, “The two kings would never give Ye Xiao an army of millions of beasts after that. In fact, even if the two kings wanted to, they couldn’t...”

Master Bai paused and then continued, “What beasts were in the army? Do you know them?”

Xiu’er poured energy into a purple jade and looked into it. She said, “There are many of them. Most of them should be extinct in the Human Realm Upon Heavens for quite a long time. There was the Silver Wolf, the Black Golden Tiger, the Purple Golden Leopard, the Silver-scaled Golden-caruncled Snake...”

Master Bai bitterly smiled and said, “Well, Meng Wuzhen must have taken it for me this time!”

Xiu’er was shocked. “Master, do you mean those beasts should be used on you? Is Ye Xiao really that smart?”

Master Bai shook his head and said, "Not just that. He is my only opponent in my life. He must be seeing me as his worst enemy as well. It makes sense that he would prepare some powerful moves just for me. If the Monarch's Hall didn't fall into this disaster and Ye Xiao didn't have other methods to save his men, he wouldn't use the army of beasts so soon! Nobody could resist that powerful army!"

"He has never shown the power of the beast. What was he planning? I don't see any others he would plan on. He got it for me. Meng Wuzhen is powerful but only because he is the crown prince of the West Sky."

It was difficult to understand, but the two ladies understood.

"Meng Wuzhen was not in Ye Xiao's eyes."

"Ye Xiao prepared these beasts to fight me! However, Meng Wuzhen was stupid. He pushed the Monarch's Hall to a dead end. Ye Xiao had no choice but to use it sooner than he expected."

"Meng Wuzhen is not a great person. In fact, if I have to face such an army of beasts all of a sudden, I will lose no less than Meng Wuzhen did."

Master Bai frowned and said, "Check it. After the fight, how many beasts died? Did Ye Xiao have them back? If Ye Xiao could use them freely, that would be horrible!"

Xiu'er frowned and said, "No, he couldn't. I don't know how many beasts exactly died, but I do know that most of the beasts left Ye Xiao. Master, you are overestimating Ye Xiao. He can't use the beasts! He is not a god, is he?"

Master Bai felt relieved. He said, "Well, that is much better... I see."

He said, "Xiu'er, you shouldn't underestimate Ye Xiao. We fought him before. Think about what he did before. Wasn't it god's work? I think he should be able to control those beasts... Well, it truly is difficult to gather up millions of beasts... How is he going to gather up so many beasts in the Limitless Ocean?"

He was thinking. Xiu'er said, "Master, you are right... He did it once, and it was enough to shake the world. I think he only needs a little more time, and he won't need the support of the beasts anymore..."

Master Bai said, "That's true! It is something we won't be able to get an answer to. I think those beasts will return to him someday. When we face Ye Xiao in the future, we must be careful."

"Yes, master."

"How many of his men died?" Master Bai asked.

"His men, do you mean the Five Kings, One Saber, Two Warriors, Seven Stars, and leaders of the Twelve Units?" Xiu'er hesitated.

"That's right." Master Bai blandly nodded.

"Well..." Xiu'er said, "He has lost quite a lot of people this time, but... These important men were severely injured, but not dead... None of them died..."

Master Bai turned over and looked at her. "What?"

...

Chapter 1818: Life and Death; Wuxie Arrived.

Master Bai's sharp eyes scared Xiu'er.

She hadn't seen her master's eyes being so sharp for a long time.

Xiu'er kept her head low and said, "That's the information we have..."

Master Bai took a deep breath and said, "What about the Hall of Returning Nature?"

"The Two Tigers of the Hall of Returning Nature died. The Golden Phoenix of the Three Phoenixes died. The Red Phoenix survived because Ye Xiao wanted her to return with a message. The Four Kong Warriors and the Eight Sky Masters died! Meng Wuzhen had sent two Undead Stage cultivators to make sure they won the war, but these two were dead now!"

– Pang! –

Master Bai hit the table with his hand. "With all those powerful men, the Hall of Returning Nature still lost. Meng Wuzhen is useless!"

'Master lost control again.'

Xiu'er looked at Master Bai, who was always calm and elegant. She was surprised.

'It was surprising. The Undead Stage cultivators shouldn't have died... But... He doesn't need to lose control, does he?'

'The House of Chaotic Storms hasn't been in the Human Realm Upon Heavens for a long time. However, it lives for a long time in the Land of Han-Yang and the Qing-Yun Realm. Because of the wisdom of the Master, we never lost any important people. Ye Xiao seems to be as good as Master now. However, even if Ye Xiao has become this powerful, should Master lose control like this?'

Xiu'er was confused. Master Bai blandly sighed and said, "Xiu'er, you don't understand. That is not just about this battle. There is more..."

Xiu'er was confused.

Master Bai said, "It is one's life. It is one's destiny!"

Xiu'er was still confused. "Master, I am lost."

Master Bai blandly smiled and said, "Forget it. You don't have to understand. I can handle it myself."

Master Bai slowly closed his eyes. He had a few words in his mind. Destiny. Heavenly Dao. Luck. Variance... He didn't say it aloud.

After a while, he said, "Has the Hall of Returning Nature sent their most mysterious men?"

“No. Ye Xiao didn’t send the Five Kings either. It is said that the Monarch’s Hall doesn’t have Five Kings yet... But the Hall of Returning Nature wouldn’t believe it.” Xiu’er said, “So the Hall of Returning Nature didn’t send their best men for the battle...”

Master Bai smiled and said, “Ye Xiao is truly a lucky man. Meng Wuzhen actually lost a great opportunity. What a fool!”

He took a few steps ahead and said, “Ye Xiao is good at dan-making. In seven days, the superior cultivators in the Monarch’s Hall will recover. Bu Xiangfeng has always been better than those at the same cultivation level... I think we have a person who is as good as Bu Xiangfeng. They are quite similar to each other!”

He didn’t wait for any response. He said, “Tell Yang Rui to kill the Jade Phoenix in eleven days!”

Xiu’er was surprised. “Jade Phoenix? Why?”

“Just try to kill her. I need him to do the assassination, but it doesn’t have to succeed. Tell Yang Rui to stay alive!”

Master Bai said, “He must try to do it just like Bu Xiangfeng would do. Make it a secret. Do not leave any traces that can be tracked to us.”

Xiu’er nodded and said, “Yes. I will deliver the order.”

“No rush.” Master Bai said, “Don’t tell him now. If he knows the target now, he will raise the killing intent against the target. I don’t want our guy to make any tiny changes. Just give him the order in nine days. He will do the assassination on the eleventh day. That is the best way to keep the assassination a secret!”

“Yes!”

“By the way, start to cover our real power in the south-east. Other directions remain the same.”

“Yes!”

“Let Muzi go to the City of Chaos. Make some trouble but be careful. Tell him to come back immediately if his identity is exposed. Make a plan for his retreat before he goes!”

“Yes!”

Master Bai slowly walked out the door. He watched the bamboo forest outside and blandly said, “It isn’t easy to watch the tigers fight. When the Hall of Returning Nature falls, my war against Ye Xiao begins!”

The dark clouds covered the sky. It started to snow.

Master Bai reached out a hand and held a snowflake. He said, “I heard that it had been snowing for three months in the City of Chaos. Is it true?”

“We are in different areas. Nobody can control the weather.” Xiu’er said, “It snows later than the City of Chaos.”

Master Bai said, “Why? Why is it later here?”

Xiu'er was shocked.

That was unexpected. She didn't know what to say.

The climates in the two areas were different. Sometimes one side was in summer while the other side was in winter. Nobody knew why!

Master Bai stood in the falling snowflakes. He became white like a part of the snow. He said, "Find out why Ye Xiao didn't attend the battle when it began. I want to know what he has been doing during the three months!"

Xiu'er nodded and said, "We are working on it. Even people in the Monarch's Hall don't know much about it."

"It is different timing now. The Monarch's Hall has won. They won't try so hard to keep the secret anymore. I want to know it in three days." Master Bai blandly said.

"Yes!"

Master Bai had done the first arrangement.

He walked into the heavy snow with both hands behind his back. It seemed nothing if the world had anything to do with him anymore. In his mind, there was only the snow.

Xiu'er stood in the snow with him. She knew that Master Bai would be happy when it started to snow.

He was happy.

However, this time, she felt something different. It seemed like something else was bothering Master Bai... It seemed like he wanted to meet somebody but had to wait before the time came...

Outside the City of Chaos.

There were ten people moving into the city. Nine of them were following the other one, who was dressed in colorful clothes.

The man in colorful clothes seemed to be the leader, a handsome young man.

There were the patterns of a big flower on the man's chest, a phoenix on the back, a cyan dragon on the left shoulder, a white tiger on the right shoulder, and two strong trees on the legs.

There were some snakes on the trees too. The images were so beautiful and these animals seemed to be real.

The man was wearing a weird hat. It had seven colors just like a rainbow. His hairs also had seven colors! That was so weird!

He was like a peacock flying into the City of Chaos...

He was like a peacock that was almost going to gain a human shape...

His eyes were in two colors, red and green.

People on the street couldn't stop looking at him.

The man was quite proud of his special clothes. He thought he was the most beautiful man in the world. As he walked on the street, his nose was pointing up to the sky.

People on the street were shocked when they found the man. 'Holy hell... Where does this fool come from? Whoever has a friend like him must be unlucky...'

"Hah hah hah... I am here! Ling Wuxie is here!"

Yes, the peacock man... It was the prime leader of the Xie League, Ling Wuxie, Young Lord Ling. "No matter who you are, if you joined that fight against the Hall of Returning Nature, I should get drunk with you... Hah hah hah... It felt so good! It felt so f*cking good!"

The other nine people all looked away. They were embarrassed...

They were so unlucky to be assigned to this mission... They felt so disgraced to stay with Ling Wuxie along the way. They wanted to tell others they didn't know that man, but they couldn't leave him... What was the difference?

The Monarch's Hall.

People were cheering for their great victory. However, some of them were sad.

They were happy to win the war, but they were sad about losing so many people. They had lost too much to achieve this victory!

They had lost over ninety-five percent of their people. It was difficult to make it up soon.

The snow around the fortress of trees was almost ten feet thick. The snow became a wall surrounding this place, like two long and giant pieces of jade.

It had been snowing for three months, and it wasn't going to stop. Snowflakes kept falling from the sky.

Somebody in colorful clothes appeared in the snow. He was moving unbelievably fast.

"Stop!" The guards shouted outside the fortress of trees.

They were guards outside the fortress, but they were also level-five Saint Origin Stage cultivators!

The Monarch's Hall didn't have enough men. These men were too good for the job, but they couldn't find any weaker ones!

Ling Wuxie laughed loudly. "Hah hah hah hah hah... Go inside and tell Ye Xiao that his best friend has come to visit him. Ling Wuxie, the prime leader of the Xie League. I am here to have a drink with him. Hah hah hah hah..."

The nine men around him all turned their faces away...

'We don't know this man... This is embarrassing!'

'Look at you... How can you tell anybody you are the prime leader of the Xie League... Oh, my bloody lord...'

'You disgrace the Xie League...'

'Best friend? Come on... Does he even know you? He must be fooled in the old days, but he is not a fool anymore. Is he even going to consider being friends with you now?'

Ye Xiao was surprised when he heard the guard.

'Ling Wuxie, Master Bai's best friend. Why is he here? Is he going to fight me now? Is the House of Chaotic Storms going to fight me too?'

'Wait... Since when have we become good friends? What the hell is he thinking?'

However, he didn't want to be impolite, so he went out.

Chihuo followed Ye Xiao out. Ling Wuxie had come. After all, he was one of the most powerful young lords in the Human Realm Upon Heavens.

The Monarch's Hall had just become sworn enemies with Meng Wuzhen. Chihuo didn't want to have a new enemy now. He had to come out and make sure everything was okay!

"Brother Ling, where are you? Where are you?" Ye Xiao stood up and looked around, but he didn't see the man, so he asked.

"Hah hah hah..." A man who was dressed like a colorful chicken started to laugh. "I am here! I knew you wouldn't recognize me. I am so good-looking. Can you believe it? No, you can't... I am such a surprise..."

The next moment, Ye Xiao was shocked as he saw Ling Wuxie.

It was like the rainbow had been pushed hard into the man's body... Ye Xiao was shocked, and he felt blank and lost...

"You..." Ye Xiao wanted to say something but couldn't.

In fact, Ye Xiao had already become a calm and steady man after Zuo Wuji taught him. No matter what happened, Ye Xiao could always stay calm.

His face was always calm and emotionless. It was his sign.

However, he failed this time. Ling Wuxie totally wrecked him.

It was astonishing! Ye Xiao couldn't stay calm anymore!

He was so shocked!

Chapter 1819: The Red Fire Lord Chihuo and the Green Water Lvshui; Wuxie Asked for Dan Beads

The nine people around Ling Wuxie kept showing an embarrassed face. They couldn't help sighing. They tried to stand straight. They looked at Ye Xiao, and they felt like they had been stricken by thunder.

The next moment.

Chihuo suddenly made a sound.

The leader of the nine men stared at Chihuo with both eyes widely open.

They looked at each other.

“It is you! It is!” Chihuo humphed.

The leader humphed and kept both of his hands behind his back. “It is the Red Fire Lord. It has been quite a while! I never expected to see you again, old friend!”

Chihuo rolled up his eyes and blandly said, “Lvshui, the Green Water Lord, you haven’t been seen in the martial world for a long time. Well, it turns out you have been serving the Xie League. Are you the steward? That is quite a surprise. The proud and arrogant Greed Water Lord actually becomes somebody’s servant... Hah hah...”

The Green Water Lord laughed and said, “Likewise. The Red Fire Lord does not make any difference though! You were hunted down like a wild dog and then was saved by a young man. Now, you are asking for his protection, living on your miserable life. Come on. Your story is much better than mine!”

Chihuo was furious. “You are an ungrateful bastard! Who do you think you are to talk to me like that?”

The Green Water Lord was angry too. “Bullsh*t! If you didn’t betray us, we wouldn’t end up like this! The seven brothers broke up. Aren’t you responsible for that tragedy?”

Chihuo was so angry that his face turned purple. He stamped and shouted, “What the hell are you talking about? Lvshui, I can’t believe you are shameless enough to bring up the past. How could you make such shameless lies? You... You bastard! Do you even have a conscience?”

Lvshui looked at Chihuo and blandly said, “Of course, I do. Well, the question is... Was your conscience eaten by a dog or a wolf? Listen to you. Conscience here, conscience there... I think you have lost it. You are jealous of me because I still have mine! You are going to pay! The Heavenly Dao never spares the evil! Heh heh heh heh.”

Chihuo’s face turned dark. He stepped out and said, “You have to clear this! Who betrayed his conscience in the past?”

The others looked at the two men quarreling with each other. They didn’t know what to do.

‘What is going on with these two?’

‘They are both Undead Stage cultivators. Why are you two still doing such a stupid thing?’

These men followed Ling Wuxie to pay Ye Xiao a visit. The leaders of both sides had just said hello, and the conversation hadn’t started yet. Ling Wuxie had just shown his stupid face to Ye Xiao. What happened next was the two old powerful cultivators having a quarrel.

Ling Wuxie frowned and said, “Lvshui, what is going on? What happened, old master?”

The Green Water Lord was one of the Seven Colored Lords. Well, he was much more powerful than Chihuo, almost as powerful as the seven great ancestors of the Seven Lotus Clans. Ling Wuxie was the leader, but he still had to show respect to Lvshui.

Ye Xiao grabbed Chihuo’s arm and said, “What’s wrong? What is it? What is going on? Is that the Green Water Lord? Come on. You guys should be old friends to each other. Why make it so intense?”

Chihuo humphed and said, "That shameless, ungrateful, dishonorable, contemptible bastard!"

The Green Water Lord's face turned red. He talked to Ling Wuxie. He angrily said, "That old dog is Chihuo! He is a hypocrite! He is full of filthiness and vileness! All he did was bring troubles to our brothers! He is an animal, a filthy animal!"

Ye Xiao and Ling Wuxie were both embarrassed.

Ye Xiao felt a bit of a headache, so he said, "Let's get inside. Two powerful cultivators having a quarrel in my place, it must be a great honor of mine. Let's get inside and continue the conversation, shall we?"

Ye Xiao wasn't teasing them. Two lords of the Seven Colored Lords quarreling in the middle of the street? That could be the start of a novel, The Unavoidable Fight between Lords.

"Lord Monarch, wait. He is such a contemptible bastard. He can't get in the Hall of Life and Death!" Chihuo was still angry. "Even if he is dying, I would feed him poison to send him to hell as soon as I can!"

The Green Water Lord said, "I will refuse to get in even if you invite me! Wherever Chihuo stays, it must be a sh*thole! You pollute everything! I don't want to be poisoned by your breath! I just can't understand. Why did the great Lord Monarch save you? Was he blind? He has a kind heart, so he saves your life, but recruiting you? That is another story! You are trash!"

"You are a dead meat!" Chihuo was ready to dash.

"I am here! Come on!" Lvshui wasn't showing weakness either.

The other hurriedly stopped them. Ling Wuxie was here to visit Ye Xiao. If it became a big fight in front of the Monarch's Hall, that would be a joke.

Ling Wuxie was awkward. "Fine. We won't get in. Let's talk outside. Ye Xiao, it isn't anything serious. I heard that you became quite famous now. You recently defeated the Hall of Returning Nature. That is something to celebrate! I think we should have a drink together. What do you think?"

Ye Xiao frowned and said, "I am glad to have a drink with you. That is a good reason for us to have a drink... But... Do you have to dress like this? It is... It's just... Unbelievable..."

"Beautiful, isn't it?" Ling Wuxie laughed and shook. He made a turn to show the details of the clothes.

"No, it isn't! You are disgracing the word beautiful!" Ye Xiao wasn't being polite at all. "I thought you were a wild chicken pacing down from the mountain."

Ling Wuxie disdainfully said, "You know nothing, you rube!"

While the two leaders were talking, somebody in the Monarch's Hall suddenly did something. Meng Youjiang casually waved his hands. The snow on the ground flew up and became a house!

The roof and the walls were made of ice. Inside the house, it was warm.

The tables and chairs were like white jades.

"This is awesome!" Ling Wuxie laughed. "You are different now, Ye Xiao."

After that, they smelled their teas.

Ye Xiao laughed and said, "Brother Ling, have a seat. There should be tea while there is a conversation."

The two of them looked at each other and smiled. Nobody paid attention to the two masters, Chihuo and Lvshui, who were staring at each other with anger in their eyes.

"Humph!" Chihuo walked into the house.

"Humph!" Lvshui walked in as well.

The host and the guests were all seated.

"Since you are not coming into the Monarch's Hall, let's have some tea here. It is quite the same anyway." Ye Xiao blandly smiled and said, "We are in the middle of the heavy snow, and it is quite interesting."

Ling Wuxie said, "That's true."

They had tea and talked about something unimportant as a start. Ye Xiao suddenly smiled and said, "The Young Master Ling comes to the city in his most luxuriant clothes. It must be something important, isn't it?"

Ling Wuxie laughed. He wasn't angry. "That's right. I am here because my father told me to. I need to send an invitation to the great ancestors of the Seven Golden Lotuses. I just feel like coming to see you in passing."

Ye Xiao smiled and said, "Well, it turns out you come for the seven great ancestors... I guess what I have done recently isn't good enough! I thought you were my best friend who would pay me a visit when I needed you. You said you came to have a drink with me, but you were just saying that, weren't you?"

Ling Wuxie smirked and said, "Come on, Brother Ye. I would come here even if my father didn't tell me to deliver the invitation. You destroyed the army of the Hall of Returning Nature! Come on! That means a lot!"

Ye Xiao laughed and said, "Is that all? Don't you have other purposes? Well, I will let people bring up the liquor, and we can just drink and talk about the past. Is that all you want?"

Ling Wuxie blushed and said, "Hah hah. I am definitely here for the drink. However, there is something else I need to talk about. We are good friends. We don't keep secrets, do we?"

Ye Xiao said, "Brother Ling, just speak."

Apparently, they both thought highly of each other after they met in the Land of Han-Yang. Ye Xiao knew that Ling Wuxie could never be a true friend to him.

Ling Wuxie was an unruly person, but he would never betray Master Bai. He was Bai Chen's best friend, so he would never be Ye Xiao's friend. In other words, because of Master Bai, Ling Wuxie and Ye Xiao could never be friends.

It was impossible!

They were both well aware of it!

They could drink and talk as much as they could, but they couldn't trust each other!

"Well, here is the thing." Ling Wuxie seemed hesitating. He said, "The ladies... You know... The ladies in my family... Hah hah... They... They heard about the Agerasia Dan beads, which you gave to Wan'er and Xiu'er... You are not going to believe this... Hah hah... The ladies... are jealous... You know what women are like. They just can't resist that thing..."

Ye Xiao raised the cup and said, "Oh?"

Ling Wuxie looked at Ye Xiao. This conversation reminded him of the old days. He got close to Ye Xiao and said, "Brother Ye, you should have given me some... I gave you the most important thing of mine, remember? You should have given me some of the dan beads... Look. After the ladies knew about those dan beads, I have been living in hell!"

Ye Xiao laughed and said, "Come on, gentleman... Watch your mouth. You didn't give me the most important thing you have!"

Ling Wuxie angrily said, "Hey! You called me Brother Ling before. Now you are calling me a gentleman? Do you remember the Golden Soul Tower? That was the most important thing to me! You can't do this to me!"

The others were all shocked! The Dark Evil Spirit was most surprised. He had seen Ye Xiao use the Golden Soul Tower, so he believed Ye Xiao had a strong background. In the end, he realized Ye Xiao got no background at all, so he wondered where he got the Golden Soul Tower from. Now, as he heard Ling Wuxie, he finally knew the truth!

Ye Xiao was surprised that Ling Wuxie could actually be that shameless. He looked around and felt like he was the wrong one. He hastily explained, "Ling, what the hell are you talking about? You gave it to me as a gift! You liked the fact that you gave it to me! I spent a lot of time on our..."

'Oh!'

Everybody was shocked. Apparently, it was difficult to change their view!

Ye Xiao realized there must be something wrong. He was simply telling the truth, but as the others heard it, they just couldn't help thinking the other way!

Ye Xiao was angry. He said, "Ling Wuxie, say something. I helped Bai Chen make those Heaven Seizing Supreme Dan beads, and that risked my life! You gave me the Golden Soul Tower, so I could escape the punishment! You gave it to me for him! They took so many dan beads from me and gave me almost nothing in return! How could you blame me for that?"

COMMENT

Ling Wuxie said, "I didn't say anything. Come on... When we met, we were like old friends already. What did I say?"

Ye Xiao was surprised. 'That's right. He didn't say anything yet. I shouldn't be so emotional!'

Ling Wuxie said, "Brother Ye, you did give him many dan beads, but he took them all. I didn't get many. Wan and Xiu got more than I did. I gave you most of the materials, remember? I even gave you the Golden Soul Tower... Guess what? I got fewer than any of them..."

Ye Xiao was still angry. "Why do you tell me this? You should get Bai Chen. You two are good pals, aren't you? He took all the dan beads, and that is not my business!"

Xuan Bing walked in. Ye Xiao held her in his arms and said, "Look. My lady never asks me for dan beads to keep her beauty. You should really do some cleansing in your back yard... And teach your women some rules..."

Ling Wuxie angrily said, "You are better at talking than doing. You have so many dan beads that you treat them like candies... If I have so many dan beads, I won't come here... I don't!"

Ye Xiao laughed and said, "Fine. Just tell me how many do you want."

Ling Wuxie's eyes lit up. "One hundred Agerasia Dan beads, please. The more the better."

"F*ck off!" Ye Xiao furiously said, "What do you think they are? Cabbage? You get nothing!"

Ling Wuxie begged, "Please, I really need one hundred! Please..."

"How could you say that? I am giving you nothing!" Ye Xiao stood up.

"No... Please..." Ling Wuxie grabbed Ye Xiao's sleeve and said, "Eighty... Eighty..."

"Are you deaf?" Ye Xiao was ready to leave.

"Sixty! How about that? Sixty..."

"Go away!"

"Fifty! Come on... It can't be less..."

"No!"

"Forty-five, big brother... You are my dear big brother... Come on..."

"You are deaf. You get nothing. Just go. Go as far as the sun goes!"

"Forty, man. Please, just forty! Kiss!"

"Eww... Not a f*cking thing! Go to hell!"

The two of them kept talking like that, which shocked everybody else!

One was the prime leader of the Monarch's Hall, while the other was the prime leader of the Xie League!

They were both influential men in the Limitless Ocean! How could they talk like that?

How could they?

They were grabbing their sleeves, dragging their legs... It was unbelievable!

'Are they... really our prime leaders?'

'They are like two stupid kids fighting for some lollipops!'

In the end, Ling Wuxie sadly said, "Fine, fine. Just give me twenty! Please. Give me less than that and I will die in my own house!"

Ye Xiao angrily said, "Twenty! Do you have twenty wives? Come on... Do you want to die in bed?"

Ling Wuxie cried and said, "I don't have that many wives... But... Not only my ladies want the Agerasia Dan beads... My father has his women... Come on... I don't want to piss them off... Master! Master Ye! If you don't give me the dan beads... I will live in your place for the rest of my life... I will sleep on your bed. If you don't help me, then I won't let you go easy... I will be dead if I go home with nothing..."

Ye Xiao looked at Ling Wuxie and had an idea.

'Well... This is more and more like a great opportunity to get something from him.'

'Look at him. He is a fat sheep waiting for me to rip his skin off...'

'I really need to get something valuable as soon as possible. The Monarch's Hall has been through a great loss. I must get as much as I can from him!'

'Never refuse an opportunity!'

Ye Xiao said, "Ah, I am such a nice man. I am such a hero. I just can't bear watching people suffer... I thought you were having a happy and easy life... Look at you... I guess there must be something I can do for you..."

"What did you say?" Ling Wuxie's eyes lit up. He knew Ye Xiao was sneering, but he just wanted the dan beads.

"I am being honest with you. If you really want the dan beads, I have one hundred, even more!" Ye Xiao raised his head.

"What? You..." Ling Wuxie said, "You didn't say you have so many..."

Ye Xiao casually said, "Well, you should do more than just talking if you want to get my dan beads."

It was obvious Ye Xiao was going to exploit the poor man!

Chapter 1820: Agerasia Dan; Anger

Ling Wuxie was shocked. After a while, he sat down and said, "I didn't say I was going to give nothing in return! Supreme Dan beads are rare. I can't just take them. I don't want to owe you. You are just like Bai Chen, and Bai Chen never gives anything to others for free. Just tell me you want money, and it will be much easier... Come on. You are the One Meter Higher Sky, aren't you? I heard. Just don't call yourself a hero..."

"What did you say?" Ye Xiao was angry.

"I... Nothing! I was saying... that you were such a hero with a kind heart! I am impressed... I admire you... Let's focus on the business, shall we? Just tell me the price, and I will pay!" Ling Wuxie tried all he could to fawn on Ye Xiao, which made the others feel sick!

'That is some bootlicking expertise!'

'The prime leader of the Xie League. Impressive!'

"You know how rare and valuable my dan beads are, so stop talking about money." Ye Xiao laughed and said, "I heard, the five royal clans have some special Spiritual Qi Stones. I want about one million pieces. That shouldn't be a problem, right?"

Ling Wuxie was furious. "What? That is a huge problem! Do you know how rare the Spiritual Qi Stone is? One million pieces? Come on! What are you thinking? Besides, they belong to the royal clan members. I don't have them! Just kill me... I don't want to live anymore..."

Ye Xiao nodded and said, "Come on. Don't be pessimistic. If you don't have them, then there is no deal. That is all. You don't have to die..."

Ling Wuxie was gloomy.

'That's true. I can't give him what he wants, so there is no deal. I shouldn't have talked about death. He doesn't care... I can't do this!'

He regretted it so much.

Ling Wuxie had gotten some dan beads, just not as many as Master Bai and the two ladies. He got a few Heaven Seizing Supreme Dan beads, two Nine Turns Heart Dan beads. He was quite happy about it, so when he was drunk, he told his sisters about the Agerasia Dan. "Normal Agerasia Dan is nothing. I can't keep your beauty for a long time. I saw some supreme-level Agerasia Dan beads. It keeps people young forever!"

No women could resist such a treasure. His sister kept asking him about it.

Ling Wuxie was drunk, and he couldn't control his mouth. He kept telling everything he knew. "The man is such a great dan-maker. I found him while I was traveling. We are good friends. I am going to ask him for some dan beads, and you can count on me! Just wait!"

Ling Wuxie didn't know what he had gotten himself into.

His sister was glad, but she couldn't be sure about it. "Really?"

After all, supreme dan beads were extremely rare in the Human Realm Upon Heavens, not to mention Supreme Agerasia Dan beads. Every woman wanted it, but it was impossible to get any. The lady of the Ling Clan was a decent lady in a big clan. She wouldn't believe it so easily!

"I am telling the truth!" Ling Wuxie said, "I am telling you... The man and I, we are good friends. If not that I asked him for help, Bai Chen and his maids could never get those dan beads!"

The lady of the Ling Clan heard that, so she traveled three hundred and seventy thousand miles to ask Bai Chen about it. After knowing the truth, the lady was excited!

“My girls got the dan beads thanks to your brother. Your brother does have a good relationship with the marvelous doctor.”

Master Bai knew that it could only be huge trouble, so he pushed everything to Ling Wuxie before things lost control. “Think about it. I didn’t know the dan-maker. Wuxie must be an important man to the dan-maker. Otherwise, why would the dan-maker give me the dan beads? You know what? My girls admire the dan-maker the most and then Wuxie, and I am only the third!”

That was totally a lie. Lady Ling didn’t know the truth. She believed that the dan-maker must be a great man. Master Bai and Master Ling must be famous enough to talk to the dan-maker. Wan and Xiu were only maids. Master Bai didn’t know the dan-maker, so it must be Ling Wuxie!

“Can Wuxie get the dan beads?” The lady’s eyes lit up. She asked Bai Chen.

“Of course. You must know. When your brother met the dan-maker for the first time, he gave the dan-maker his Golden Soul Tower!”

Master Bai sold his brother out without hesitation. “You know what? If there is anybody in the world who can get the Agerasia Dan from the dan-maker, it must be Ling Wuxie, your brother!”

Ling Wuxie’s sister was so glad. She left Bai Chen and returned to Ling Wuxie immediately.

The lady started to urge Ling Wuxie to get her some Agerasia Dan ever since. However, Ye Xiao was still in the Land of Han-Yang, and Ling Wuxie couldn’t lower down his power before resting for a long time. Therefore, Ling Wuxie never did what his sister asked.

His sister was a reasonable person. She was in a hurry, but she knew it wasn’t easy.

After half a month, Ling Wuxie’s mother found him. “Wuxie, I heard that you could get some supreme-level Agerasia Dan beads. Is that true?”

Ling Wuxie knew it wasn’t a good sign. He kept sweating, but he couldn’t deny it. He had to say yes. What he hoped was that his mother was the last one who asked him for the dan beads...

‘I am in big trouble...’

After that...

His father’s concubines suddenly became unbelievably nice to him. They kept giving him all kinds of valuable things, delicious food...

After that, they started to ask him for the dan beads. They wanted the Agerasia Dan so much! They just couldn’t wait!

At first, they all asked him nicely. As time went by, they started to push him... Nine ladies kept forcing Ling Wuxie to get the dan beads they wanted...

Unluckily, Ling Wuxie’s own ladies heard about it too!

It wasn’t hard to imagine how miserable Ling Wuxie’s life became. His life was full of darkness after that.

His mother, sister, his father’s nine concubines, eight ladies of his own... Nineteen women!

Nineteen women who Ling Wuxie didn't dare to mess with! He was under big pressure this time!

He promised one lady, so he had to promise the others too. It meant he had to get at least nineteen Agerasia Dan dan beads from Ye Xiao.

In fact, he had to get more than nineteen...

Even if he got twenty Agerasia Dan beads this time, he was sure that they would be taken away before he could give them to the ladies he promised!

Ling Wuxie had been waiting for Ye Xiao, but he hadn't heard anything about Ye Xiao. When he left the Land of Han-Yang, Ye Xiao was only at Sky Origin Stage. Ye Xiao couldn't even defeat an ant in the Human Realm Upon Heavens. He believed Ye Xiao had to spend over a hundred years to get to the Human Realm Upon Heavens!

Unexpectedly, news about the One Meter Higher Sky, the Xiao Monarch, spread to the world. Ling Wuxie was surprised, so he decided to come and find Ye Xiao as soon as he could. However, he was fighting the Hall of Returning Nature at that time, so he had to wait a little longer...

When the Xie League, the House of Chaotic Storms, and the Hall of Returning Nature finished the war, Ye Xiao and the Monarch's Hall was fighting his own enemies.

Ling Wuxie wasn't shameless enough to go and ask Ye Xiao for dan beads while Ye Xiao was in trouble.

He even thought about sending people to help Ye Xiao. He couldn't. He and Meng Wuzhen were both princes, and the war between them was a war between two royal families. If he helped Ye Xiao, things might become complicated!

He had to wait, and he was worried. He was afraid that Ye Xiao would die. Finally, he heard the news about Ye Xiao's victory, so he came to the Monarch's Hall immediately.

After some unimportant talk, he frankly asked for the dan beads. Ling Wuxie thought that it should be easy to get the dan beads because he thought Ye Xiao was just somebody from some lower realm. He thought he could just give Ye Xiao some purple spirit coins and bought the dan beads. After all, Ye Xiao made dan beads easily. He was sure Ye Xiao would just give him as many as he wanted!

However, he was wrong. That made him feel like sh*t!

"Brother Ye, we are friends. Let's be honest with each other. I don't have the Spiritual Qi Stone." Ling Wuxie said, "They are only served for the five Sky Kings. Within one year, only a few pieces are produced... Even the crown princes can't easily get them... Brother Ye, I really can't get that for you..."

Ling Wuxie looked very sad. "Can you ask for something else instead? Please, Brother Ye..."

Ye Xiao raised his eyebrows and said, "Something else?"

"Absolutely something incredible!" Ling Wuxie nodded.

"Brother Ling, we are friends, so we should be frank with each other. I don't need any treasures anymore..." Ye Xiao casually said. He had reached the fourth level of the East-rising Purple Qi and unlocked two floors of the Mountain of All Medicines. He had more valuable treasures than the entire Human Realm Upon Heavens. He really didn't need anything else...

"However, Brother Ling, I am still interested in rare metals, special crystals, and special weapons..." Ye Xiao smiled and said, "For example, the Golden Soul Tower is nice. I have been keeping it with me all the time. If you can give something like that, I can give you three to five dan beads in return!"

Ling Wuxie looked so upset. "Brother Ye, you are the One Meter Higher Sky so is your price. My Golden Soul Tower for only five dan beads, really? I have only one Golden Soul Tower. I don't have anything as good as it anymore!"

Ye Xiao humphed and said, "I have told you the price. If you don't have what I want, I am not giving you what you want! Don't think my Agerasia Dan is nothing to me. You can try to find them somewhere else. I don't mind..."

"Come on. We are friends. How could you do this to me?" Ling Wuxie said, "That Golden Soul Tower I gave you was my life treasure... Come on..."

Ye Xiao rolled up his eyes and said, "That is why I am giving you the chance. If Master Bai comes to ask for the dan beads, he gets nothing!"

Ling Wuxie sighed.

Ye Xiao just didn't give in. At last, Ling Wuxie took out all kinds of treasures and weapons he had, and Ye Xiao finally nodded.

There were two Helpless Herbs, which were extremely valuable plants. The Helpless Herb could bring people back from death for real. It could rebuild a physical body for the person who died and fully restore a person's power! It was unbelievably powerful. Even the Mountain of All Medicines didn't have any Helpless Herbs!

"Fine. For these junks, I will give you twenty-five Agerasia Dan beads." Ye Xiao said, "When you are ready to leave the City of Chaos, come to me and you will get the dan beads. Look. One is enough for one person. Eating more won't work better."

Ling Wuxie said, "Yes, I see."

'I am losing too much for these things!'

'All those valuable things I had, I lost them all for just twenty-five Agerasia Dan beads. They are useless for a cultivator...'

Ling Wuxie felt that he was the most foolish fool in the world.

However, there was nothing he could do. He couldn't let the ladies down.

If he had the chance to take the dan beads back and gave it up, he was going to die in misery!

He had his pockets emptied this time, but it relieved him.

He finished the job... There were a few more than the ladies needed...

He lost something, but he saved his life...

“Brother Ling, everything has a price. How much do you think my dan beads are? How much do you have to spend if you want to buy one supreme Agerasia Dan bead from somebody else? Look. If you give me what you are wearing, I can give you one hundred.” Ye Xiao looked at Ling Wuxie and said with a smile, “I will give you one hundred dan beads, Heaven Seizing Supreme Dan, Agerasia Dan, or even Nine Turns Heart Dan. Whatever you like. One hundred.”

Ling Wuxie was angry. “Don’t even think about it!”

Ye Xiao laughed.

That was right. Ling Wuxie’s clothes looked unbelievably ugly, making him look like a clown. However, Ye Xiao felt its strong spiritual power. He was sure the clothes would definitely keep Ling Wuxie alive even in a fight against some Undead Stage cultivators.

“It is one of my father’s most valuable treasures. You can’t get it! No matter what you give me in return!” Ling Wuxie drank the liquor and rolled his eyes up.

“Oh, I never asked about your family.” Ye Xiao said, “I thought you were a member of the royal families. I guess I was wrong.”

Ling Wuxie smiled and said, “You are just like Bai Chen. You just can’t stop thinking. You think and think, but that is just what you think, not the truth.”

Chihuo whispered to Ye Xiao, “He must be the descendant of the Carefree Lord.”

“The Carefree Lord?” Ye Xiao said. He tried to think of the information about the Carefree Lord. As he realized who the man was, he took a cold breath.

Over a hundred thousand years before, the two Supreme Masters died in the fight. Heroes came up and fought for the top of the world. The five Sky Kings were the best, so each of them ruled one place, the north, the south, the east, the west, and the middle area. The Great Master Ye rose up after that, so he became the sixth of the most powerful men in the world. However, there were still others who were equally powerful, and the Carefree Lord was one of them!

Nobody knew how powerful the Carefree Lord was. He never cared about his fame, so he spent most of his time traveling around the world. Besides, he was so powerful. Whoever fought him had died!

Nobody in the Human Realm Upon Heavens dared to ignore his power.

He was a powerful cultivator, but that was not all. He was the East Sky King’s sworn brother, who was at an equal position with the East Sky King.

In the Glaze Sky, the Glaze Sky King named him the Carefree Honor Lord, the Honor.

In the South Sky, he was the Saint Carefree Lord.

Who dared to mess with such a powerful man?

Ling Wuxie was his son.

When Chihuo whispered, the Green Water Lord stared at Chihuo with anger in his eyes.

Ye Xiao and Ling Wuxie were both curious about the two old men's problems, but they knew it wasn't a good time to ask about it.

The deal was done. It should be a relief for everybody. However, the two old men still wanted to kill each other. Ling Wuxie stood up and said goodbye. He had to go to the Seven Lotus Clans. Ye Xiao didn't ask him to stay; he just told him to drop by again someday. He saw Ling Wuxie off. The Green Water Lord kept looking back at Chihuo with killing intent in his eyes.

"What was that, Chihuo? You told me you had lost contact with the others of the Seven Colored Lords." Ye Xiao was confused.

Chihuo was furious. "Humph. That man is such a contemptible man!"

Ye Xiao asked, "Can you tell me what it is about? I want to know why he is such a contemptible man."

"Back in the old days, the seven of us got the name Seven Colored Lords by luck. We weren't so close to each other. Lvshui, Huangshang, Lantian, and I, we are four sworn brothers, so we are close, unlike the other three.

"When the seven of us fought against our enemy one day, we got a treasure map. The map belonged to a great king in the history... It was about the great man's martial arts and treasures...

"The Great King Fentian was defeated by Supremacy Ji. His properties were missing... The map was the guide. It was precious to us.

"We agreed to look for the treasures together. After searching for twenty years, we finally knew where the treasures were. We went there together, but nothing was left for us... It was empty.

"The seven of us were equally powerful. The four of us were brothers, so we got to decide that the four of us kept the map. In fact, as we checked that place, we found that the treasures were taken during those twenty years..."

"That was to say the man who took the treasures was one of us... Suspicion grew among us. Twenty years was not a short time. Anybody had been alone for some time..." Chihuo said, "We couldn't always stay together, could we? Everyone had his own life!

"The Seven Colored Lords never trusted each other anymore. The other three men left. In fact, the four of us weren't together anymore.

"Lantian came to me and told me that Lvshui's wife got a new coat, which was the Fire Phoenix Coat. It was extremely valuable. The Great King Fentian was known to be good at fire power...

"Lantian and I thought that we should ask Lvshui about it. Lvshui and Huangshang came to us first. They said I took the treasures... It was his word against mine... We ended it with a fight..."

Chihuo made a long sigh. "The four of us all got wounded... The brotherhood was gone... We weren't together anymore..."

“After collecting more and more information, all the evidence pointed at Lvshui. Lvshui hated me the most...”

Chihuo lowered his head. “Now, we are each other’s worst enemy...”

“I haven’t seen Lvshui for tens of thousands of years until just now...” Chihuo said, “Why was he staying low alone? He must be the one who took the treasures!”

“Don’t jump into conclusions. You didn’t do it, yet you were staying low as well...” Ye Xiao blandly said, “Chihuo, we are friends. I believe you... If you did that, you wouldn’t be just at this level. If you had the treasures from the Great King Fantian, you wouldn’t need to risk your life to take the eggs from the dragon and phoenix...”

Chihuo angrily said, “Lord Monarch, you could see it clearly after spending a short time with me! Lvshui knew everything about it, yet he chose to ignore the facts! He was pretending! He is a contemptible man! He must have stolen the treasures!”

Ye Xiao sighed and shook his head.

He felt that Lvshui was truly angry, not pretending...

Chihuo was too angry to listen to any other explanation. Ye Xiao decided not to say more. He sighed and said, “Master, sometimes we can’t trust even our own eyes. There could be something else you don’t know yet. Calm down first!”

Chihuo was still angry, but he said, “I will calm down.”

Ye Xiao knew Chihuo wasn’t being honest, so he stopped talking.

After all, it was something in the old man’s heart for tens of thousands of years. It wouldn’t be easy to change.

“Let’s go. Let’s restore our power first.

“The Hall of Returning Nature won’t just stop attacking us. I am afraid they are coming soon... You are the best of us. If you are not at your prime when they come to us, that will be disappointing!”

Ye Xiao said, “When they come again, they will send the best men they have, who have been hiding all these days...” Ye Xiao looked in the distance.

He wasn’t afraid of the arrival of the Hall of Returning Nature. In fact, he was a bit excited about it.

...

Tens of thousands of miles away!

– Pang! –

A piece of jade ruyi broke into pieces!

Meng Wuzhen almost cracked his teeth when he gritted his teeth!

The Red Phoenix was covered in wounds. She had passed out. She did everything she could to make it back to the Hall of Returning Nature. Once she was back, she said something before passing out.

“Master... We lost everybody in the battle... I... am the only...”

What she said was like a huge thunderclap striking in Meng Wuzhen’s head.

‘We lost everybody!’

‘I am the only...’

‘What is this about?’

Meng Wuzhen wasn’t stupid. He knew that his men had all died in the battle. The Red Phoenix was the only person who made it back. The others were all dead!

The Two Tigers, the Golden Phoenix, the Four Kong Warriors, the Eight Sky Masters, over one hundred thousand men, and the two Undead Stage cultivators, died!

It meant eighty percent of the good men of the Hall of Returning Nature were lost in the war!

Meng Wuzhen spent half of his life to build it up.

It hurt him so much!

After a while, Meng Wuzhen shouted to the sky!

“Ye Xiao! I am going to kill you!”

“Monarch’s Hall!”
