Chapter 1841: Princess Ice Heart

Somewhere else.

The Purple Dragon King and the Golden Phoenix King returned to the Glaze Sky. The Glaze Sky King was curious why the two kings would make such a big scene, so he invited the two kings to the royal court.

When he asked the two kings what happened, Princess Ice Heart, the Glaze Sky King's youngest daughter, was standing by his side. She had just returned to the Glaze Sky a few years earlier.

Princess Ice Heart was spoiled. In the officials' eyes, Princess Ice Heart was more like the queen of the Ice Palace than just a princess.

The ice qi on her almost froze people to death.

She didn't need to speak to freeze people to death because her appearance was cold enough to scare people...

The officials gave up the thoughts of having a special bond to the royal family by marriage alliance. Who would want to face the daughter-in-law who was so cold and distant? Besides, they wouldn't dare to displease or scold the princess, would they? How did that work?

The young men had a different thought.

The colder the princess was, the young men were more obsessed. They were totally lost in her beauty...

Princess Ice Heart was known as the most beautiful lady in the Glaze Sky. Her face, her body, her prestige, her charm... She was the top of all!

The young men of the Glaze Sky kept following her. Almost eighty percent of the young men were after her. Somebody even abandoned their wives and concubines to get the princess' attention...

Day after day, things went worse. People in the royal court of the Glaze Sky was in the show of fighting for the beauty.

The Purple Dragon King and the Golden Phoenix King were always disdainful about that.

'Humph... Useless!'

'Don't they know power means everything?'

'Even if one of these men marries the princess and gets the favor of the Sky King, he can surely spend thousands of years of effort to become a man on top of the Glaze Sky, but he won't earn my respect. My child is much stronger! After eight hundred or one thousand years, my child will become the strongest in the world! My child will become supremacy in the world someday!'

When the Glaze Sky King was asking questions, Princess Ice Heart stood by his side, playing a warm jade ruyi in her hands...

The Glaze Sky King was also from a monster clan. They wouldn't tell the Sky King everything about their children, but they didn't lie about it. They just told a part of the truth that wouldn't matter. After all, if the dragon clan and the phoenix clan had two supreme masters, it was a great thing for all the monster clans!

No matter how the dragons and the phoenixes respected the Glaze Sky King, they decided to keep it a secret!

When they talked about Ye Xiao, it caught the attention of the princess. The next moment, when the Purple Dragon King praised Ye Xiao for his amazing capabilities...

– Bang! –

The warm jade ruyi in the princess' hand dropped to the floor.

The floor of the royal palace was made of the toughest jade stones. The jade ruyi fell to the floor and broke.

"My baby girl, what is wrong?" The Glaze Sky King stood up and asked. His spoiling tone made the Purple Dragon King disdain.

The princess seemed distracted. Her face turned pale and she said, "I don't know. I just don't feel so well... I need to rest."

"Yes, sure. Go! Guards!" The Sky King was nervous. He told the guards to escort his baby daughter and told the royal doctors to check her...

When he finished, he turned around and said, "Purple Dragon, what was it you were talking about? You lost me..."

The Purple Dragon King was surprised.

'Holy hell? You aren't like this before! This is unbelievable!'

The Purple Dragon King started over again. The Sky King was obviously impatient...

In the end, the Purple Dragon King and the Golden Phoenix King left. They sighed as they left the royal court. "The Sky King spoils the princess so badly... That was too over the top!"

That was right!

The two kings weren't so happy about it.

However, things were actually worse than they thought. The Glaze Sky King hurriedly went to see his daughter before the two kings left the court. He cared about the girl too much.

"Father, I want to go out." Princess Ice Heart said to the Glaze Sky King as he came in.

The Glaze Sky was shocked and terrified.

'Baby, you are leaving?'

Well, he couldn't displease his baby. The Glaze Sky arranged an escort team by himself to make sure the princess was safe!

"Father, I mean I want to see the martial world. I don't want them to know I am a princess." The girl looked determined.

The Glaze Sky King wanted to turn it down, but looking at the girl's eyes, he couldn't.

"Father, just say yes. Since I returned, I have been staying with you and cultivating myself. I am quite strong now. I need to experience the outside world." Princess Ice Heart said. She was begging her father. The Glaze Sky King was so happy that his daughter talked weakly.

When he looked at the queen, who was looking back at him with a pair of fierce eyes, he was vexed...

'Holy hell!'

'That feels good. A daughter talking to a father so softly... Did I say yes? I did!'

'Holy heavens!'

He regretted it... 'How can I say yes?'

'I shouldn't say yes!'

'Why should I?'

'The martial world is dangerous... Too dangerous...'

However, the princess was begging him. He couldn't hurt his baby girl...

"At least, I will arrange an escort team... They will be elites..."

The Sky King fled away while the princess was so happy and the queen was so angry... That was awkward...

Chapter 1842: The Secret Assassin

The Hall of Returning Nature.

Meng Wuzhen had been so upset.

He was upset not only because the Monarch's Hall killed lots of his men, or the House of Chaotic Storms and the Xie League were winning the game.

He was upset about something else...

There was a mysterious assassin in the Limitless Ocean!

The assassin was powerful and hard to track down. He was like a phantom. He only killed the men of the Hall of Returning Nature who were lone outside!

As he attacked, he killed!

The Hall of Returning Nature did a lot of work to track him down, but the information was limited. He only killed people of the Hall of Returning Nature!

Since the assassin was against the Hall of Returning Nature, the Hall of Returning Nature had to fight back. In fact, the Hall of Returning Nature had arranged dozens of traps to get him. The assassin seemed to have a great precaution. Nothing ever got him!

The traps didn't get the assassin, but it didn't mean he wasn't there. Every time when a trap was dismissed, somebody got assassinated!

In the beginning, people under level eight of the Saint Origin Stage would be attacked. After about two months, people of the Immortality Stage got attacked...

The strongest among the victims was at the fourth level of the Immortality Stage!

There was a dead body covered by a white cloth in front of Meng Wuzhen. He looked angry!

'Who is that bloody assassin? Why does he assassinate my men?'

'Does he belong to the Monarch's Hall? Or the House of Chaotic Storms? Or the Xie League? Or the Great Ye Army?'

'His moves... It is thorough... Perfect timing... That is a great assassin. He should be famous... Why haven't we heard of him before?'

Looking at the list of the names of those who were killed... Meng Wuzhen's advisers came up with a conclusion. Even the top ten assassins in the Human Realm Upon Heavens weren't that good!

When did such a powerful assassin come to the martial world?

Nobody knew who he was. Nobody saw his face. They weren't so sure about the gender of the assassin...

Famous assassins always lived in the shadow... This man came up against the Hall of Returning Nature... It was weird...

Meng Wuzhen thought a lot. He had set up many traps, but none of them worked... Day after day, his men were dying!

Who was the guy?

...

There was a tree in the woods. It wouldn't catch any attention.

In the shadow...

A dark shadow was sticking on the tree. As the wind shook the tree branch, the shadow moved along as if it was a part of the tree.

Even if people walked over and looked up, they wouldn't notice the man on the tree!

It was such a brilliant insidious skill!

Even if Ye Xiao was here, he might not be able to do any better.

The black shadow was doing an excellent job of hiding himself!

Many people dressed in the clothes of the Hall of Returning Nature were searching for something right under the black shadow.

There were some spiritual beasts that were good at searching...

The black shadow was so silent like a part of the tree.

The searching team of the Hall of Returning Nature almost searched everywhere, and they were moving away.

One man seemed to be lost in thoughts. He was walking slowly.

The dark shadow hadn't moved a bit.

The people of the Hall of Returning Nature were gone, the dark shadow was still quiet.

After a while, a few men approached. The dark shadow wasn't moving. The next searching team started searching, and the dark shadow wasn't moving...

After four searching teams went over, somebody complained. "How on earth does such a forest hide any man? I think that assassin has long gone... We are wasting time here..."

The others nodded to agree.

After a while, they split up and then gathered up again. Nothing was found.

"He's gone. Let's move next." A man sighed.

"Yes!"

Everybody moved.

The black shadow wasn't moving. He watched them leave.

After a long time, another shadow appeared. He sighed and then disappeared.

This man was the one who took charge of the searching work.

The black shadow wasn't moving.

When another man of the Hall of Returning Nature showed up, the dark shadow moved!

There was a flash of cold light!

The man didn't have time to react before his throat was cut open. The only thing he saw before he died was a blurry image of a man dashing over him.

It was so fast. It didn't even make any air flows.

The dark shadow flashed over.

The man of the Hall of Returning Nature staggered and then fell down. As he fell, his head ran away over a hundred feet...

– Shoot shoot shoot... –

A few other people got over there quickly.

“The assassin! He’s here!”

Somebody was shouting.

The dark shadow had long gone...

Behind the hill, there was a river. Somebody appeared, and the water rippled... The dark shadow disappeared again.

He took a bucket of water and put it in his space ring.

In the sky, somebody sighed. Nobody heard the sigh.

“Wenren Chuchu, how long haven’t you drunk...”

...

“You failed to catch the assassin!” Meng Wuzhen almost spat out blood.

He looked at his men, who were frustrated. He felt helpless.

All these men together, searching again and again, got nothing. He was losing his people!

He was having a headache dealing with such an excellent assassin.

While Meng Wuzhen was upset about it and thinking about his next move...

“Master.” The Jade Phoenix walked over. “A letter from the House of Chaotic Storms.”

“The House of Chaotic Storms?” Meng Wuzhen said, “Bai Chen?”

The Jade Phoenix said, “Wan of the Clouds delivered it.”

Meng Wuzhen said, “Let her in!”

Chapter 1843: He Has to Jump

After a while.

Wan’er walked into the hall and looked at Meng Wuzhen. She slightly bowed and said, “Glad to meet you, Master Meng.”

Meng Wuzhen was sitting high, and it was hard to see his face. His elegant voice sounded. “Wan’er. It has been a while. You are more beautiful now.”

Wan’er said, “I am flattered. Sister Jade Phoenix is truly the beauty of the time.”

Meng Wuzhen laughed and said, "Where is the letter from Bai Chen?"

Wan'er turned over her hand and a letter was there. Suddenly, the letter flew up. Meng Wuzhen waved his hand and the letter flew to his hand.

It was so fast that Wan'er didn't have time to react.

Meng Wuzhen opened the envelope and raised up his eyebrows. He looked fierce all of a sudden.

"Wan'er, your master scolds me. Do you know that?"

Wan'er was surprised. She said, "No, I don't. However, it is between you two. I won't ask questions that I shouldn't."

Meng Wuzhen humphed and said, "Go now. Tell him I get it."

"Yes." Wan'er slightly bowed and walked out. The Jade Phoenix walked her out.

When the Jade Phoenix returned, Meng Wuzhen was holding the letter and frowned.

"Master?" The Jade Phoenix asked.

"Check this." Meng Wuzhen handed over the letter.

"Ye Xiao will go to the north of the North Sky in three days." That was it. The Jade Phoenix read it out loud and got surprised. "That... That's the whereabouts of the monarch of the Monarch's Hall!"

Meng Wuzhen stood up and kept both of his hands behind his back. "That's right."

"Master Bai told us this. What does he want?" The Jade Phoenix was shocked.

"It is clear. He wants me to kill Ye Xiao in the north for him!" Meng Wuzhen said.

"Could it be a trap?" The Jade Phoenix was concerned.

"No." Meng Wuzhen shook his head and said, "Bai Chen is too proud to lie about this."

"There must be a reason. Ye Xiao will go to the north!" The Jade Phoenix said, "This is the best chance we have to kill Ye Xiao and destroy the Monarch's Hall."

Meng Wuzhen said, "That's right."

"What is your plan, master?" The Jade Phoenix was thrilled.

The reputation of the Hall of Returning Nature was getting lower and lower because of Ye Xiao. Many people died in the martial world. Her sisters died. She hated Ye Xiao so much.

"It has to be true. Ye Xiao will go. This is our chance. Bai Chen is using us, and I don't like it."

Meng Wuzhen humphed and said, "Bai Chen did nothing, just sent me a letter. Does he expect me to be his fighter? Isn't it too good for him?"

The Jade Phoenix was speechless. "But... He is helping us in a way."

"Why would he do this if he wouldn't get any profit from it?" Meng Wuzhen said, "Ye Xiao's death will definitely bring great benefits to Bai Chen. Otherwise, he wouldn't want me to do it!"

“No matter why he does this, we have to kill Ye Xiao.” Meng Wuzhen gritted his teeth. “I hate Bai Chen mostly because of his cunning mind.

“When he is using you, he makes sure you know it. You still do it, even though you know you are being used. It feels sick!”

The Jade Phoenix smiled bitterly.

That was right.

That was Master Bai.

If he wanted to use a person, he would tell him. However, he also made sure the man wouldn't say no. This was a typical case.

It wasn't an intrigue because it was on the table.

To kill Ye Xiao, the Hall of Returning Nature had to lose lives. Meng Wuzhen would have to pay the price. Bai Chen made that clear.

No matter what, Meng Wuzhen had to do it!

As he did it, he was used. Bai Chen got the biggest benefit from it.

“What can he get anyway?” The Jade Phoenix frowned and asked.

“A lot.” Meng Wuzhen said angrily, “If Ye Xiao dies, people of the Monarch's Hall will avenge him. What could they do without Ye Xiao? They will have to pledge loyalty to somebody else against us.

“They will join the force that fights us.

“It is an easy choice, isn't it? The entire Limitless Ocean, who else but the House of Chaotic Storms could fight us? Bai Chen is the only one who dares to promise he will avenge Ye Xiao!

“The power of the Monarch's Hall will become a part of the House of Chaotic Storms... The fortress of trees will be the headquarters of the House of Chaotic Storms...

“That's what Bai Chen gets.

“That's his plan.

“After we kill Ye Xiao, we won't be able to kill the others in the Monarch's Hall, because they hide in the fortress of trees.

“We kill Ye Xiao, and we create the worst enemy that we ever have. House of Chaotic Storms! With the fortress of trees, the House of Chaotic Storms will become twice stronger than before!”

Meng Wuzhen gritted his teeth.

The Jade Phoenix didn't know what to say.

It was a big plan behind the letter! Bai Chen was going to rule the martial world!

“Well...” The Jade Phoenix said, “Are we going to spare Ye Xiao?”

“We have to kill him!” Meng Wuzhen took a breath. “We won’t get another chance.”

“That’s why Bai Chen is so good...” Meng Wuzhen shouted angrily. “He set up a trap for you and make sure you have to jump into it! We have to!”

The Jade Phoenix sighed.

[Master Bai of the House of Chaotic Storms truly is good at scheming. My master has been losing the game against him...]

The Jade Phoenix wanted to tell Meng Wuzhen many times that he shouldn’t be Bai Chen’s enemy... She just never dared to mention it.

Meng Wuzhen was arrogant and proud. She wouldn’t want to irritate him.

“Order!” Meng Wuzhen took a breath. The letter in his hand was tweaked. A cloud of cyan smoke rose up. The letter was burned.

He gritted his teeth, taking deep breaths, trying to stay calm. “Pick some good men, twenty men, of the Dark Hall. They have to be Undead Stage cultivators. Go to the north of the North Sky and kill Ye Xiao at all costs!”

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1844: The North of the North Sky; Ice Flame

It was an order. Meng Wuzhen stood straight up.

“Bai Chen, I will make you bow to me someday!”

Meng Wuzhen gritted his teeth. “I would love to see what your face looks like when you have to kneel to me!”

The Jade Phoenix sighed.

When the Limitless Ocean was in a mess, as the leading role of the chaos, Ye Xiao was riding the Golden Hawk, heading to the north of the North Sky. It was over seven hundred thousand miles away...

Even the Golden Hawk spent one and a half month to fly to the destination!

As Ye Xiao looked down, it was a world of ice!

In the snow, there was a red stone monument, which caught his attention!

There were four letters on it.

North of North Sky

Ye Xiao looked at the letters and he looked different.

The north of the North Sky.

Ice would never melt.

This area had never stopped snowing. The ice had never melted.

The red monument was there for longer than people could remember. No matter how heavy the snow was, the monument was never covered.

It was there. It would always be there.

The monument was like a red lotus in the world of white snow.

Even if the snow on the floor was ten thousand feet thick, it wouldn't cover the monument.

They arrived, so the Golden Hawk returned to the Boundless Space.

It was truly the world of ice. Ye Xiao spat, and the saliva became ice. He could spit out ice to attack. The cold wind blew over, and his eyebrows became frosted.

The coldness wasn't only physical. It got deeper into one's bones and even on the soul... Ye Xiao almost broke down.

He used to use the cold qi of the Cosmic Hades to cultivate. He used to be confident that he could never fear for coldness. However, he wasn't anymore.

This place was like the end of the sky, also the end of lives.

It was a special feeling.

Ye Xiao knew that it was a perceptual illusion. When he was at the Divinity Origin Stage, he already feared no coldness. The East-rising Purple Qi was a pure Yang martial art, so he was protected from coldness. He felt the cold, only because he got that illusion!

However, as he looked around, he felt that his body was freezing. It didn't seem to be an illusion!

"The cold qi here is different." Ye Xiao operated the pure energy inside him, but couldn't fix his freezing limbs. It was getting worse. He had an idea.

He decided to link the Boundless Space and the reality!

Suddenly!

A tornado appeared, which connected the sky and the earth.

It started from the north and howled over to the Boundless Space.

Ye Xiao was shocked. After all, the Boundless Space was somewhere higher than the Land of Han-Yang, the Qing-Yun Realm, and the Human Realm Upon Heavens. This place was weird, but it could never hurt the Boundless Space. However, it looked like this place was attacking the Boundless Space!

Was the North of North Sky really so overwhelming?

After that, Ye Xiao realized the cold qi was assimilated by the Boundless Space.

The Sky Space, the Earth Space, the Water Space, the Spirit Space started to absorb the powerful cold qi.

These four Spaces together digested most of the cold qi from the outside world. The tornado was still moving, collecting cold qi from the outside world and then coming back to the Boundless Space...

It went all over the entire North of North Sky...

Ye Xiao stood in the center of the tornado, but he didn't feel anything.

He felt cold earlier, but now he didn't.

The dark clouds were twisting in the sky, moved around by the tornado. After a while, the clouds were gone.

For the first time in history, the North of North Sky had a blue sky.

Ye Xiao stood there, hearing the howling tornado. The spiritual qi kept running into the Boundless Space for ten days!

Ten days after, the tornado became smaller and smaller... In the end, it was gone...

The North of the North Sky was still cold, but the cold qi didn't hurt cultivators anymore... At least it couldn't hurt Ye Xiao.

One thing surprised Ye Xiao... After what happened, the four Spaces gathered a lot of energy, and even the Wood Space, Yin Space, and Yang Space had collected a lot of pure energy!

It wasn't hard to understand. The four Spaces digested most of the energy from the cold qi, and the other Spaces collected the rest. The energy was so pure!

Ye Xiao was still surprised... The Fire Space changed! One more flame appeared in the Fire Space!

It was burning and rising high!

It was never been there before.

The flame was blazing, but it felt cold.

Ye Xiao didn't understand.

'What the hell is happening?'

Burning fire was always hot. The weird flame in the Fire Space felt so cold!

Erhuo didn't just stand and watch. It had been dealing with the energy. As it heard Ye Xiao, it looked at the bouncing flame in the Fire Space and casually said, "Ah, it is the Ice Flame!"

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1845: Weird Monument

However, the Ice Flame was a weird thing. It was very weird and rare. Erhuo only gave Ye Xiao a name, but no further explanation. Apparently, Erhuo was busy, and it didn't really care much about the flame. Ye Xiao was the ignorant one, so he decided to wait. When Erhuo finished what it was busy doing, there was time to do more explanation.

Nothing could stop Ye Xiao in the North of North Sky now.

The North of North Sky was small.

Ye Xiao spread out his spiritual mind, and it easily covered the entire area. He searched thoroughly but found nothing.

There were no lives in this place. Ye Xiao understood why. Even he couldn't handle the cold qi in this place... However, Master Bai told him Jun Yinglian was here. Why could he find her?

"What's wrong?" Ye Xiao frowned. "Was it a lie? Did I misunderstand?"

Ye Xiao flew up to the sky and flew around in the snow. He still got nothing. If he moved forward, it was the chaotic area!

It was called the Edge of Sky!

That was truly where the sky ended!

Ye Xiao frowned and tried to think of anything he missed. He remembered that when he first arrived in the Human Realm Upon Heavens, he also got lost in a special place!

It rang a bell. He believed Master Bai was telling the truth. He was sure there must be a mysterious place hidden in the North of North Sky.

He just had to figure out a way to get into that place.

There was one problem though. If there was such a mysterious place, how did Jun Yinglian get in?

Ye Xiao was lost, staring at the red monument.

He tried to rush into the chaos outside the sky, but he failed.

"How do I get in?"

"There must be a hidden space."

"The problem is... How do I get in? And how do I get out afterward?"

"Master Bai wouldn't lie to me. He didn't do this to help, but he wouldn't lie to me. Maybe he happens to want me to be here!"

"I need to get into that place and find Yinglian. I need to finish this soon."

"How?"

Ye Xiao took a deep breath. He recollected the details of the days he spent on the ancient battlefield. However, he couldn't figure out anything useful. It seemed there was a connection, but he just couldn't find it. Even so, he was still calm and patient.

"There must be a way!"

Ye Xiao nervously thought.

His hand gently touched the red monument.

After that, he froze!

“The stone monument!”

Ye Xiao was suddenly enlightened.

“That’s right! The monument is the key! This monument is a puzzle!”

“It stays in this place for tens of thousands of years.”

“The North of North Sky has been snowing forever. The monument always stays here. It is always red. There is no snowflake on it!”

“It has to be special!”

“There must be a reason.”

“I have seen several monuments that brought me special experience. On the Mountain of All Medicines, in the area where the Ji Clan and Ce Clan are located... Maybe the stone monument is my lucky item!”

“This monument could be the key to the special space!”

Ye Xiao thought for a while and slightly pushed the monument. However, even if he pushed it in full power, the monument was still here. Nothing happened.

Ye Xiao could easily break down a mountain with one hand after the great improvement. He could even crumb a piece of the toughest iron with one hand!

The monument was fine. Nothing happened.

That was unusual. It was unbelievable!

Ye Xiao drew back the hand and touched the fingers.

The monument didn’t push him back in any way. It just felt the touch. It touched just like a stone...

It was unimaginably tough...

Ye Xiao humphed and waved his hand. A sword appeared in his hand.

It was not the Monarch’s Sword or the Stars Sword. He didn’t think it was necessary to use the divine weapons so soon. After all, he just wanted to do some tests. If he could break the monument with a normal sword, that was it. Besides, he didn’t know how hard the monument was. What if it cracked his good swords?

The normal sword wasn’t ordinary though. He made the sword earlier with many special metals, which was better than most of the weapons in the Monarch’s Hall!

The sword blade was broad. Ye Xiao didn’t hesitate. He poured sixty percent of energy into the sword and slashed on the monument.

– Puff! –

The sound was weird. It wasn’t the sound of metal clunk. It was like the sound of a big hammer hitting on a rotting wood.

After that, the sword was bounced back high. The blade was cracked. If he slashed harder, the sword would be broken into halves.

The moment was still fine.

There wasn't even a notch on it.

Ye Xiao stared at the monument and slashed again.

– Dang! – The sword broke into two pieces.

The monument was still fine.

The second slash was powerful. Ye Xiao was sure it could cut a ten thousand high mountain into halves.

However, the monument didn't even bear a notch after the two slashes.

What kind of stone could be so tough?

Ye Xiao waved his hand again, and this time, he was holding a huge hammer. The hammer was in several colors, which was definitely made of some special metals. Without hesitation, he waved the hammer down!

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1846: : The Monument Got Angry?

Ye Xiao made that hammer hit in full power! He really did his best on this!

Ye Xiao had been cultivating for over one year, and he hadn't told anybody about his improvement. He knew that with the improved East-rising Purple Qi, there was no barrier in his way to higher levels.

The Boundless Space was absorbing the enormous spiritual qi from the Human Realm Upon Heavens, even from the universe. As the spiritual qi was converted, it became extremely pure. Ye Xiao particularly used the pure spiritual qi to cultivate.

In other words, he could get as much spiritual qi as he wanted.

It was only one and a half year, Ye Xiao had already reached the ninth level of the Immortality Stage. He was one step away from the Undead Stage. Actually, he didn't feel it difficult to take that final step.

The Boundless Space happened to absorb so much spiritual qi. Ye Xiao knew that he was going to reach the Undead Stage very soon. All he needed was a little time.

He was at the Immortality Stage, but that hammer attack wasn't only at the Immortality Stage, because he was supported by the East-rising Purple Qi. That attack was a level-three Undead Stage attack!

It should be unbelievably powerful!

– Boom! –

The hammer hit the stone monument.

The next moment.

– Crack! –

The hand of the hammer broke. The hammer flew out and disappeared.

Ye Xiao was affected, and he took three steps back.

His right hand was bleeding, and his face turned red.

Ye Xiao's right arm was shaking. He barely felt anything on the right hand.

Ye Xiao knew that the reverse hit must be hard. It wasn't a good idea to hit something tough in a hard way. The sword hit made a much smaller reverse blast. Besides, the sword itself took a part of the reverse hit. An iron hammer made a bigger blast, but if it failed to destroy the target, the reverse impact would be massive. The harder the hammer attack was, the harder the reverse impact was. Ye Xiao made the strongest hammer attack, so he had to take as much strong impact!

When the handle of the hammer broke, Ye Xiao's hand got injured, and he was hurt inside too!

The red monument in the snow was still fine.

There was no trace of being attacked!

After the hammer attack, the monument didn't even crack a little bit.

"What is the material?" Ye Xiao was shocked.

The monument was tougher than he could imagine.

After a while, Ye Xiao walked ahead again. He reached out both hands to hold the monument and tried to shake it. Maybe he could shake the monument down. 'I should do this slowly!' However, it wasn't moving. Ye Xiao was surprised. 'I am like an ant, and this monument is like a mountain!'

'I can't move it!'

'I can't shake it!'

'I can't slash it!'

'I can't hit it!'

'It just doesn't move!'

Ye Xiao failed to break the monument, so he started to clean the snow around the monument. The snow in the North of North Sky wasn't an ordinary snow, but it made no difference for Ye Xiao. After a while, he cleaned out a pile of snow that was thousands of feet thick!

He thought the monument should be fully revealed after the snow was clean. After all, there was a limit to the length according to the width!

However, when he checked the monument, the monument was the same! It was just as tall as it used to be!

'How is this possible?'

Ye Xiao didn't believe it. He went on cleaning more snow. When he was cleaning the snow, he looked at the monument and found an astonishing fact. As the snow went off, the monument got shorter. The height of the monument was fixed, about five feet over the ground.

Ye Xiao was angry. He waved the sleeves and created a wind storm. In that way, it was easier to move the snow. After a while, the snow went back where it was.

He was shocked again. As the snow became thicker, the monument moved higher! The monument stayed in his sight all the time!

"This is so weird!"

Ye Xiao was frustrated. He helplessly sat down around the monument.

The letters—North of Northern Sky seemed to be sneering at him.

He was sure that the special hidden space must be connected to the monument!

However, he had no idea how to break it.

If he couldn't find out how to get in, how come Jun Yinglian did it?

Ye Xiao sighed. He was so angry, so he hit the monument with a palm hit. "What the hell are you?"

Suddenly, he stood up as if he was hit by a thunderclap.

What he said made a difference to the monument. He could actually feel something from the monument.

The angry feeling flashed in his head. Ye Xiao was sure that he felt it!

The monument was angry!

It was... It felt like it was angry about being underestimated.

It was clear.

How could a monument have emotions like a man?

Ye Xiao held the monument and said, "What the hell is this thing?! How come it..."

The monument was angry again, and Ye Xiao surely felt it. It only lasted for a shorter time.

Ye Xiao understood.

The monument was alive.

Chapter 1847: The Anger of the Mysterious Man

Ye Xiao cleaned the monument and checked it bit by bit. After a while, he didn't see anything special, so he started to shout at it.

"What the hell are you?! Just a trash that never moves!"

“Useless trash! Standing here like a tombstone! You are worse than the stone in a toilet. At least the stone in a toilet was both smelly and tough. You are just a stupid stone!”

“Bastard... This is unbelievable!”

“You actually got angry because I said something. No matter how angry you are, you are just a useless stone!”

“Standing here for hundreds of thousands of years like a fool. You are going to stand here for an even longer time afterward! You are a useless thing! What can you do? Aren’t you worse than a stone in a toilet?”

Ye Xiao kept shouting.

As he shouted at the monument longer, the monument got angrier. The flame of anger was clear... He could sense it...

No matter how angry it was, it didn’t move.

Ye Xiao could feel the bursting anger of the monument, but nothing happened.

“Fine. I see. I understand. No matter how angry you are, you can’t move!”

Ye Xiao laughed and said, “If I piss at you, even sh*t at you, you won’t do anything. You have to suck it!”

The monument was angrier as if it was going to swallow the entire world... However, it just couldn’t burst. There was no way for a monument to vent its anger!

Ye Xiao only wanted to say something, and that was all. As he felt the anger, he had an idea. He stood up and started to put off his pants. He said, “Are you going to let me in or not? If not, I am going to piss at you here! I dare you!”

The monument was even angrier. It wanted to swallow the world earlier, and now it wanted to chew the world and bring chaos to the world! If the anger burned, it would definitely burn Ye Xiao to ashes!

After all, peeing at it? That was nasty!

Ye Xiao didn’t feel ashamed. He humphed and said, “Oh? You don’t believe I will do it? I am going to do it... You will see...”

He took a breath and then...

He did it.

Ye Xiao peed at the monument and kept the urine splashed all over the monument. He said, “I am not hungry, so you are lucky. If you still won’t let me in, I will go get something to eat and sh*t on you. You could be a smelly stone too!”

“Watch me! I can do it, and I will!”

Before he finished talking and peeing, he suddenly started to fall.

It was fun. When he fell, the urine splashed everywhere and he couldn't control it. His white pants became quite dirty...

However, he didn't have time to take care of his pants. As he looked around, he was surrounded by ice mountains.

As he looked further, the forests on the mountain all carried snow on the branches.

Ye Xiao was in the air falling down fast.

On his head, a voice was shouting angrily. "Aren't you coming in? I am letting you in! You f*cking prick! You damn bastard! You shameless rat... Ah... How could you sh*t on me! You... I won't forgive you... I am going to kill you... I am going to torture you! Ah..."

Ye Xiao laughed. Things got nasty, so were his clothes, but he got in. He casually took up the pants and tied it. He raised his qi and slowly landed on the floor.

'No matter what you are going to do to me, I am here right now. I win. Hah hah hah...'

When Ye Xiao just entered the hidden space...

There was a special space which was far away.

A cyan-clothed young man frowned. He was surprised. "What is going on? How did this guy get in? How is this possible?"

"This is impossible..."

The young man grabbed something in the air, and there was something red in his hand. That thing was shouting angrily. "I am going to eat you! I am going to kill you! Ah... Ah..."

"Damn. You did this?" The cyan-clothed young man clenched his fist, and the red thing stopped shouting. It shivered and then regained consciousness. As it saw the young man, it started shaking.

"I... Oh... Nooo..."

It suddenly didn't know how to speak. It was so scared of the cyan-clothed young man.

"What was it? What happened?" The cyan-clothed young man was angry. "Didn't I tell you that he had to offer his soul and blood before you let him in? How could you let him in? Am I just a nobody to you?"

The red thing was shaking. Its face, if that was its face, became colorless. It was so terrified, and he begged for forgiveness.

"Please... Mercy..."

The red thing started to cry in tears.

"Give me a reason!" The young man said, "Who told you to let him in? I wanted to test his soul's purity! I need an assistant! How could you just let him in? You useless trash! What do you think I sent you there for? Why do you think I let you stay there for millions of years? Talk to me! You f*cking useless trash! A stone in a toilet is much better than you!”

Chapter 1848: The First Young Lord of Gloom

The red little thing was shaking. “You... He... He...”

“What is it?” The young man shouted. Suddenly, his clothes became black and he angrily said, “Tell me now! What was going on? I gave the woman a great opportunity. I led her into the Sky Beyond Sky, taught her the way to immortality. I gave her everything to get his soul as an exchange. I want him to be my ally... Look what you did! You let him in without doing what I wanted you to do! My plan failed because of you! You bastard!”

The red little thing’s face became uglier. It didn’t even dare to cry. It was shaking and sobbing.

“Speak!” The cyan-clothed... Well, the dark-clothed young man shouted. There was some horrible yin qi floating around him.

As the qi appeared, the place became gray and white!

“No... Please... No...” The red little thing cried sadly. “Please, mercy... I had no choice... Oh, no... That f*cking pretty-face boy couldn’t hurt me. He didn’t wait for me to say anything but kept insulting me... He even pissed on me... I am angry... He... He... He did something even worse. He... He threatened me that he would sh*t on me... Nasty bastard! A nasty pretty boy... Oh... I had no choice...”

“He sh*t... on you?” The young man staggered and almost passed out. “Are you sure? He dares to sh*t on you? Was he truly going to do that? No... Wait. Is that it? That was why you let him in?”

The young man was almost the most powerful man in the universe, but he was shocked as he heard the reason!

He felt lost!

‘What kind of reason is that?’

‘Is that really a good reason?’

‘What the hell?’

‘Could it be more ridiculous?’

The red little thing was still crying. “I have no choice, Master. I... I... I have always been clean. I am the cleanest in the world! I couldn’t let him do that to me... I... I just... I am too clean for that...”

“Too clean...” The young man staggered again and said angrily, “You are clean my ass! You are not clean! You are a clean piece of sh*t! You clean my c*ck! You clean...”

He kept scolding it for almost six hours without stopping! He actually could think of different words to humiliate it in such a long time!

Even Ye Xiao had to admit that this young man was much better at humiliating!

“How could you talk about shame and purity with me? Do you think you are smelly and tough like the stone in the toilet? You are just a grass!” The young man was so angry. “What do you expect? Pissing on you isn’t the worse you got! Sh*tting on you is feeding you! That was good for you! Do you know you have ruined my great plan?”

The red little thing seemed to be so frustrated.

“Come on! You feel bad now? Are you angry too? You are such a bastard! You broken little f*cking piece of sh*t! You ruined my plan! You... You made a big enemy for me! That was such a great plan! I can’t change his fate! I have to get his soul and blood, so he will become my royal servant! It is about to get fun for the rest of my life that never ends!”

He was furious. “The Lord of Wickedness has been bothering me. Over ten monsters keep disturbing me recently... Bastard! I need help! Do you know that? I need this plan to work! I need a great show! I need this great man to be my royal assistant! You... Because you felt uncomfortable, you ruined my plan... My plan is ruined because of some f*cking urine...

“I am going to go crazy!”

The young man suddenly waved his hand.

Thousands of stars in the sky suddenly disappeared!

“I have spent such a long time... Some f*cking urine ruined it...” The young man was so upset. “This is making me mad...”

The young man was frustrated.

As he had planned, when Ye Xiao opened the door to the special space, he had to use his soul and blood. If he did it, he and the dark-clothed young man would be connected. If the connection was built, the ten people, who were watching all this, couldn’t do anything about the young man.

Fate was fate. The young man didn’t force Ye Xiao to do it, but he didn’t want to do things like what was done to give Ye Xiao the Mountain of All Medicines!

Who knew that Ye Xiao would use such a nasty way to force the door open?

The young man spent a lot of time to create the special space and taught Jun Yinglian so many amazing skills. All he wanted was to build a special bonding with Ye Xiao. That was the only chance he could get Ye Xiao’s help... It was about a bet...

However, it failed. He lost the bet!

He truly had lost too much.

“F*ck this... This has cost me too much! I did this to myself! This is stupid...” The young man shouted at the sky. The world turned dark. “I am the First Young Lord of Gloom! How could I fail like this...”

The young man was furious, and the red little thing was scared as its soul scattered.

Chapter 1849: Her Smell

After a long time.

The dark-clothed young man sighed and said, "Fine. It got a disciple after all... That means something... It is some kind of connection..."

After a while, he felt it funny and annoying at the same time. "No way. This isn't right. I blocked my qi when I met my disciple. She doesn't know who I am! Wait... If she marries the young man, and the young man becomes my enemy... She will fight me and I will have to be an enemy to my disciple..."

"Damn... I was fooled!"

The young man gritted his teeth so hard when he spoke the last few words.

Under the firmament, different realms suffered the same heavy rain...

"Mo Tianji, you f*cking bloody wizard! You framed me again!"

The young man's voice pierced the firmament.

...

The dark-clothed young man was so upset.

"I have been fighting the Lord of Wickedness, but never, not even once, have I been fooled like this..." His anger was rising high enough to burn all the stars in the sky. "Bloody Mo Tianji... He plays me like I am a monkey!"

"I can't let this happen! I won't stand it!"

Many years earlier, there was a bet.

"No matter how you try, you won't be able to do that. You won't even have a connection to him!" The man said.

"Let's not jump to the conclusion so soon. Anything could build a connection... Having a connection with him? That is too easy. I don't want to beat you so easily. That's an insult. What if I say I can have a soul mark on him?" The dark-clothed young man said.

"A soul mark? That's not just some connection. It lasts forever. Do you really want to make it that big?"

"Bet?"

"Well, sure."

"There must be something to bet for." The other man said with a big smile.

"Just something."

"If you win, our plan fails. You will get a powerful assistant. We know you need that badly. What if you lose?"

“What do you want? Just say it.”

“Okay. Get yourself a disciple.”

“What? What does that mean? I surely will have a disciple. Let’s make it clear. If I win, I will have both a good disciple and a great assistant. You can’t break your word!”

“Come on. As long as you play the game fair. We brothers never break our word. We never do that!”

“Deal!”

“Deal!”

The bet was made.

The young man was so confident. He was sure he was going to win everything, and he was glad the other man would be frustrated!

However, after all the efforts he put into the plan, Ye Xiao’s nasty move ruined the plan...

The young man lost it...

He really wanted to kill somebody, but as he stayed calm and thought about it, he realized it was a set-up. The bet was a trap. He never stood a chance to win the game.

The Wizard and his brothers had all kinds of martial arts, but they didn’t have any great yin attributed martial arts... They obviously used the young man to get to what they needed.

The young man was too confident, so he jumped into it gladly.

Now, as he had to face the truth, he was broken down by some urine...

He was getting more and more furious. Suddenly, he shouted, “I am going to kill you all! I will!”

Suddenly, he disappeared. Wherever he passed, stars cracked. Within seconds, he had already traveled over tens of thousands of realms...

The red little thing was so scared. It sat on the floor, feeling dizzy. After a while, as he was shaking, he looked up.

‘Why is Master angrier than me? Was it really so serious?’

‘I did it... Oh, heavens!’

‘He is gone, isn’t he?’

‘What do I do now?’

‘No...’

It was lost in thoughts for a long time and then disappeared in the end.

‘I should go back... It is dangerous staying here... The horrible anger... I won’t survive if he wants me dead...’

...

Ye Xiao was falling. He hadn't pissed his pants for a long time in his life. Even though the urine splashed on him, he didn't feel less confident about his appearance...

There was the smell of urine on his clothes... Well... Ahem... He grabbed some snow and rubbed his clothes... That was it... Nobody saw it anyway...

As he looked around, the snow on the ground was thin. As it went further, the snow got thicker. Somebody must have cleaned the snow at this place.

Ye Xiao was excited.

He saw where he was falling. He was in a small valley. There were broad lands around, but this small valley was the only place that was comfortable for a man to live. The icicles everywhere were beautiful.

Somewhere on the snow, there was some green color, which looked lively.

As Ye Xiao took a close look, they found that it was some special spirit herb that he had never seen before.

Ye Xiao believed it must be some amazing medicine. The spirit herb was extremely green, and it was a sort of crystal at the same time. He could see the glowing qi inside the herb. It was amazing!

Ye Xiao stepped on the thin snow, so it made some rustling sound. As he walked along a lane, he felt like he was stepping on the cloud.

After a while, he smelled some sweet scent.

He was so familiar with the smell. It belonged to... her.

Chapter 1850: Reunion

Ye Xiao was so excited thinking about her.

As he looked far away, there was some sword qi. Apparently, someone was trying some sword moves. As the sword qi burst, some cold power qi spread out.

As the sword qi flowed out, thousands of feet away, a snowflake moved up. The sword hit seemed so fierce and strong, yet the power flow only raised up the snowflake without breaking it. It was amazing!

After that, another sword qi flowed up, and another snowflake floated up.

Each sword hit flowed up one snowflake. The fabulous sword attack could always raise the snowflake without hurting it!

The accurate power control amazed Ye Xiao.

Ye Xiao was good at accurate control. He used to teach Ning Biluo a special sword art, and that sword art was great for its accurate control. He was a master of the Tittle Phase too, and his Tittle Phase skill was to observe things to its very detail. As he saw the brilliant sword move in the snow world, he was still shocked and amazed!

The success in the sword art must be the best of the Human Realm Upon Heavens, even the best in the Land of Han-Yang and the Qing-Yun Realm!

In fact, the Human Realm Upon Heavens was the highest realm in these three. It was certainly the most powerful realm. However, people in the Land of Han-Yang cultivators were best at sword skills. Cultivators in the Land of Han-Yang was the least powerful, because they could only reach the top of the Sky Origin Stage, and live for only about two hundred years. That was why they practiced more sword move skills.

People in the Qing-Yun Realm were certainly more powerful and lived longer than those in the Land of Han-Yang. Therefore, they spent more time in something else other than only the sword skills, such as the skills in the Tittle Phase, the Cage Phase, and the Tatter Phase. The sword art that Ye Xiao taught Ning Biluo was a set of sword skills that was brilliant in speed, power, and accuracy. Such sword art was rare in the Human Realm Upon Heavens!

In the Human Realm Upon Heavens, people were at much higher levels, and they lived much longer too. They could live for hundreds of thousands of years without limits. Because their lives were long, they focused more on strength and the purity of their spiritual energy. As long as they were powerful enough, they wouldn't care about skills, because their power could give them strong protection to stay safe from any skillful attacks!

Cultivators in this world barely mastered the skill of the Cage Phase. Some of the big organizations might know how to use some Cage Phase skills, but not so good. Nobody in this world knew how to use the power of the Tittle Phase, except those who were from the lower realm!

However, cultivation was the same in all realms. Great cultivators like Meng Huaiqing had almost reached the limit of their lives, so they would start to refine their skills. If Meng Huaiqing wasn't so skillful, he would have broken down the entire Land of Han-Yang with a breath!

Whoever was practicing sword moves in this snow land was more skillful at sword moves than any other cultivators in the three realms.

When a cultivator became strong enough, he would stop chasing for power improvement, because it wouldn't make any big difference.

All he needed was the skill of control.

Lifting heavy things as if they were light wasn't enough, because that was only the basic level of power operating.

There was a story about a cultivator. When this cultivator was cultivating, he put a plate of peanuts a hundred thousand feet away. He grabbed two mountains as chopsticks and picked up the peanut into his mouth.

He only picked up one peanut at a time and took a sip of liquor with the other hand. He never put down the special chopsticks. That was how he practiced his skill of control.

As he put down the chopsticks, actually the mountains, it raised up no dust.

According to the story, the cultivator still sighed after practicing. "I am still not good enough. I wasted one peanut. This is not great!"

Whoever was practicing the sword moves now was also cultivating the skill of control. The cultivator was definitely not as good as the man in the story, but the skill was mostly the same thing.

The cultivator was making some mysterious qi around his body. It indicated that the sword moves were excellent.

It was an extremely high level.

Ye Xiao was far below the league!

Ye Xiao didn't dare to break the scene, so he casually watched the swordplay about a hundred feet away. He was patient.

His heart became soft and warm.

Xiao Monarch who stirred the storms; Jun Yinglian who traveled the sky!

'Lian Lian, I found you!'

Ye Xiao still remembered when he saw Jun Yinglian for the first time.

Jun Yinglian was also lost in the swordplay. The sword lights were beautiful, so was she.

Her eyes looked strong, and she was so relaxed as if life or death wouldn't scare her a bit.

Ye Xiao felt so soft in his heart.

As he was lost in thoughts, he almost forgot everything else but the beautiful lady who was playing the sword.

Ye Xiao smiled with love and tenderness.

It made him full of charm and gentleness.

It was rare for him, especially after he arrived in the Human Realm Upon Heavens.

He just stayed there like a fool, charming and gentle, staring at the beautiful lady who held the sword in the hand. Suddenly, nothing else could draw his attention.

Ye Xiao and the beautiful woman were the only living things in the world.

At this moment, a sword power qi flew over to him. He was still there and didn't notice the attack.

The sword power stopped right before him. A cold voice shouted, "Who is that?"

When the lady shouted, she saw the man who was watching her, and she was stunned.

...
