Chapter 1881: 1881 – I'll help you take care

"Yue'er..." Ye Xiao smiled, striving to restrain his mood, but nevertheless couldn't help but recall that time at Hanyang Continent, every point and every detail, recall how that little girl went all out to defend him...

That love as deep as the ocean...

Still remembering what happened as they parted, that knot of hair and one glass of liquor... the ripple of her freely parted lips.

"Wah..." Su Yeyue's small mouth split open, seeing him she had to cry out.

It had been a long time since he had heard this sound of Yueyue's. It was just like he had returned to that day, returned to kneeling before his parents.

At this time she lost all her reservations and her figure collapsed as her whole body flew to advance and collide with Ye Xiao, entering his arms at a headlong run.

She once more felt that warm embrace, felt that long awaited sense of security, smelled the familiar scent of Ye Xiao's body. Her heart was suddenly full to bursting, and she at last couldn't help but burst into hysterical tears, unburdening her years of accumulation of parting worry and depression.

From start to finish, Su Yeyue only had Ye Xiao's person in her eyes. To Jun Yinglian following at Ye Xiao's side, her eyes skipped right over her without regard.

She really wasn't disregarding, but absolutely just didn't see her!

Her entire heart, spirit, soul, and thought, everything was drawn to Ye Xiao and sucked in.

Although heaven and earth were large, it didn't hold the least other thing to her!

Xuan Bing originally wanted to go meet them, but after seeing Su Yeyue's response, she couldn't help but lightly sigh and made an effort to stop her footsteps. She just looked towards Jun Yinglian, her face blossoming into a rarely seen splendid smile. "You finally came."

Jun Yinglian's gaze was especially complicated as she stared at Ye Xiao holding a sobbing Su Yeyue. She finally put her heart's indescribable mood in order and said, "As it turns out you came early."

The two women looked at each other and mutually smiled, that one smile saying countless words at this reunion.

The previous sour feelings had already passed, and at this moment they vanished like smoke.

In experiencing the long separation after they arrived in the Human Realm Upon Heavens, they were finally able to meet each other again, but where would they still have thoughts to be jealous? In this chaotic Jianghu atmosphere, being able to be together with the person you love is already a genuine gift of the heavens!

To extravagantly demand more than that is seriously just insatiable greed, and it's improper to hope for!

Especially, Jun Yinglian walking on this journey saw countless battles. These included many that completely and fundamentally lacked justification, ones where a person's talent aroused the envy of others, and ones where robbing occurred. In addition there was one gang fight when, after they withdrew, they found an additional gang to fight through, an unexpected enmity with the other side caused what person to go unscathed? They directly collided with the previous innocent bystander...

So much so that furthermore over ten thousand people were directly invited to this big spectacle, commanding the slaughter of everything in the area, regardless of innocence or guilt...

At a most irregular time, the remaining troops of the Hall of Returning Nature were fighting a fierce battle with the Ye Family forces. As they retreated, they unexpectedly met with the Brotherhood Association's people. Because someone in the Brotherhood's group saw these people in a difficult situation, the curious majority took a look.

The Hall of Returning Nature's side immediately had one person explode, shouting, "Whatcha lookin at?"

The Brotherhood's person was also not a vegetarian forcefully returning a sentence. "Lookin at you how?"

After that, both sides launched attacks simultaneously, with both sides mutually suffering, all casualties disastrous.

But they still hadn't calculated that the Hall of Returning Nature had continually sent out signal flares, and the Brotherhood was also asking for help again and again. Afterwards, it unexpectedly went so far as to develop into a large scale, violent battle of tens of thousands of people!

The cause appeared to be just because of those seven words.

"Whatcha lookin at?"

"Lookin at you how?"

That violent battle, Ye Xiao and Jun Yinglian were at the side with the cool eyes of a spectator. Originally at first, they had intended to speak with the manpower of the Brotherhood's side, but they absolutely didn't anticipate that before they had a turn to go out, that side just already fought with everything turned on its head.

Those two people watched everything that happened afterwards with their own eyes. Jun Yinglian felt deeply, that the Human Realm Upon Heavens was seriously too, too difficult and dangerous of a plane. Desiring to keep on living in this class of plane is seriously difficult, one cannot even dare to foolishly say even one sentence.

Living in this kind of place, you could be stabbed in the back countless times at any time and any place, facing countless crises. In this time apart, it was enough to keep living. That the people you care about could meet again and see each other in peace in itself was a heaven-sent happiness, a heavenly amount of luck...

Jun Yinglian unexpectedly had a bit of a feeling of achieving enlightenment.

Furthermore, viewing Su Yeyue's small appearance at the time of seeing Ye Xiao, Jun Yinglian couldn't help but sympathize.

On that day, in the Wind Snow Ice Heaven when she saw Ye Xiao again, that kind of yearning to the bone, that kind of hopelessness suddenly turning into hope, but also just before one's eyes having the emotions all bubble out... there wasn't anyone else who knew that better from experience than Jun Yinglian.

Therefore, not only was she not jealous, but on the contrary had some distress in her heart.

After a long, long time, Su Yeyue lifted her head up from Ye Xiao's chest. Ye Xiao let out a grimace. That little girl had cried until her jacket, belt, and undergarments were all drenched...

How did the saying go? Yes. Women just produce water, this saying still isn't at all false.

Ye Xiao examined her appearance, looking carefully at the deep red blush across her whole face with her makeup all running down her face. He unexpectedly calculated in his heart that these tears, a conservative estimate must be at least two or three jin, right?

In front of everyone she had a huge episode of crying and gave vent to all the emotions in the bottom of her heart. As Su Yeyue's feelings cleared out, reason once again rose, and she immediately felt profoundly embarrassed, fidgeting around unsure where to put her hands and feet.

She lifted her head up from the middle of Ye Xiao's bosom, charming face completely looking shy like she had just lost face. In a moment of desperation, she grabbed at Jun Yinglian's hand and happily smiled, saying "Big Sister, you came, hurry hurry, hurry and come in please..."

Blushing deeply across her whole face she pulled Jun Yinglian to walk away with extraordinary strength.

In the period of time where she was waiting for Ye Xiao inside, her cultivation level had also had a sudden increase. She not only broke through Undying Stage but also further promoted to Undying Stage rank 3. Just now when she pulled Jun Yinglian, she still somewhat wasn't able to control her own strength. This was also Jun Yinglian, changed to someone else they might have been pulled to pieces!

Unfortunately, everyone at the scene was a discerning person, and they almost collectively burst out laughing. The little girl had hit upon an effective new method to cover up her embarrassing predicament.

Jun Yinglian couldn't help but laugh as she was dragged along, her impression of Su Yeyue growing even more favorable. 'This clearly is still a young girl retaining her purity and truth, really after all I only pity her, let alone some people...

By the time when everyone had followed them in, Su Yeyue had already vanished without a trace, leaving Jun Yinglian sitting there by herself.

"Where's the little girl?" Ye Xiao was flabbergasted.

"I think she might be embarrassed and ran off..." Jun Yinglian was smiling without stop. "I said Xiao Xiao, this fiancée of yours is clearly just a little girl. Her appearance is not yet open, tender body is particularly young, mind is still more simple... Also luckily you are good in bed. You, this person with two lives, you really were victorious in the past!"

Ye Xiao had a black line on his head. “You shouldn’t talk nonsense, haven’t I started to cut down?”

“But you still are going to want to take care sooner or later, could it be that you still want to continue like you’re worse than a beast?!” Jun Yinglian glared.

Luckily at this time, Su Yeyue, who had already reapplied her makeup and fixed herself up, walked out. She excitedly floated over to Ye Xiao’s side, and said, “Who do you want to take care of? Tell me, I’ll come help you! I’m certainly ferocious right now, surely I’ll be able to help you settle the other side!”

Pu!

Jun Yinglian, Xuan Bing, and the Shuang Han sisters simultaneously sprayed out a mouthful of tea.

Chapter 1882: 1882 – Monstrous Murder Case

“Cough cough cough...”

Su Yeyue just sat at Ye Xiao’s side, seeming lovable, but unceasingly asking questions that caused Ye Xiao to feel some pressure. After the happy reunion, he definitely needed to confront the little girl’s lengthy, weird drip.

“When we have time, we’ll return to visit father-in-law and mother-in-law. We haven’t seen them in quite some time, those two old folks.” Ye Xiao responded to Su Yeyue’s question about returning to Han-Yang Continent, as he still very much wants to go back.

“Good! I already broke through Undead Stage, and I’ve already mastered the way to rip apart this world’s space, so we can all set off at any time!” Su Yeyue immediately shone before their eyes. “You said it, we have a deal!”

“I want to go back and see father and mother, hee hee ho ho... maybe when I arrive, I can scare a jump out of them?” Su Yeyue said, daydreaming. At first her face was smug, but then changed to look sentimental.

It called to mind all the homesick feelings piling up in her heart.

Compared to Ye Xiao’s pain, the little girl also strongly longed for her parents, her feelings not to be outdone. Meng Huaqing had already clearly said that she was used to Human Realm Beyond Heavens cultivator’s atmosphere, and that if she wanted to go back to the low level plane of Han-Yang Continent, not only must she be able to rip apart the space barrier, but she must also be able to exercise perfect control over her aura to the point of not letting any of it leak. Otherwise, if she leaked any small bit of her aura, it was possible to bring about a world-extinction level tribulation! If she didn’t have Undead Stage rank 3 or higher cultivation base, she must by all means never attempt it!

Concerning the husband and wife pair, they would naturally roam around later. Currently Ye Xiao’s return caused the Monarch’s hall to have a great celebration, from top to bottom.

Contrary to expectations, Ye Xiao was neither urgent nor slow. He first accompanied Su Yeyue to play for several days, waiting until she was tired of playing and went to work on her martial arts by herself. After that, he looked for Xuan Bing to be tender for several days. Afterwards, he went with Jun Yinglian to sightsee all over Chaotic City for a while, and finally accompanying Shuang and Han to talk and examine how his two younger sisters had advanced in their training.

As he was checking their training, just about a month of time had gone by.

But before this month had finished, the Ye Family's army shot to power and engulfed the Limitless Ocean, striking down on all the other powers indiscriminately.

First off, the Hall of Returning Nature suffered defeat after defeat, followed by the retreat of the League of Evil. Furthermore, the Brotherhood had difficulties managing the powerhouses of the Ye Family and broke up into pieces to return back to the Jianghu, no longer appearing in a group. Consistently unfathomable, the newly promoted first rank power of the Limitless Ocean, the House of Chaotic Storms, had serious damage inflicted to them for the first time. They bore the Ye Family's most direct and open disastrous attack and finally evacuated everyone out of the Limitless Ocean. With this, the Ye Family finally unified the whole Limitless Ocean.

The Ye Family's genuine unification of the Limitless Ocean had, in the strictest sense, been settled in just one day.

From then on the situation in the Limitless Ocean changed acutely. It wasn't a big change in momentum, but rather... a change of the whole flavor!

Because of this, the Ye Family army also suddenly stopped their expansion's march.

...

The starting point of this one day's fast change of scene was precisely when the Seven Petals Golden Lotus Yue Old Ancestor Yue Youyou finally took action!

Him taking action also represented the Seven Golden Lotus's first official step onto the battlefield, which hadn't yet been seen!

With Yue Youyou old ancestor's action, they were poised for battle with the House of Chaotic Storms. The scene was undoubtedly a nightmare, with the original deadlock situation immediately collapsing.

As soon as Yue Youyou took action, they really possessed an overwhelming dominance!

No one in the House of Chaotic Storms could obstruct Yue Youyou's powerful invasion. With one palm, 100,000 soldiers and 1500 li of land were affected, together changed into a fine powder!

In this way, his power and influence could be said to be world-shaking.

The survivor of this battle from the House of Chaotic Storms, Xiu of the Heavens, also reported serious injuries on returning.

All this was still only them confronting one person out of the Seven Golden Lotuses!

One person, no more!

If they had to simultaneously face all seven of the Seven Golden Lotuses, what would the outcome be then?

Who would dare to think of that, and there was also no need to think of that matter.

The House of Chaotic Storms's side immediately retreated. This retreat didn't lose them face, but was adapting to circumstances. If you don't have the strength to defy your confrontations but still resolutely go against them, that isn't courage and willpower, that's throwing away your life without meaning!

But at the time that the Ye Family armies were correctly pursuing the retreating enemy...

One piece of news after another arrived following on their heels.

The five Sky Kings sent out all their available scouts into the Limitless Ocean, including many competent subordinates. Unexpectedly, they were pulled up by the roots as a whole, all killed without exception down to the last chicken and dog!

First was the Eastern Sky King's subordinate, War Sky Marquis Tian Wuque, as well as his 18 Undead Stage guards. They simultaneously died a violent death, with their corpses strung up at the summit of a mountain in an extremely desperate state.

War Sky Marquis Tian Wuque precisely was a subject from when the Eastern Sky King had first started his reign, and his death directly shook the entire Eastern Sky Court!

Tian Wuque was not very good at using military force as his natural disposition was to be overcautious, so he was in charge of East Sky's intelligence system operations command. This time, he had arrived at the Limitless Ocean to personally head up the intelligence system. Because the situation in the Limitless Ocean was changing constantly, he came in person to oversee and stay in control of the overall situation. He didn't expect that before he could stay for even a year, he was murdered!

For Tian Wuque's murder, the East Sky sent all the secret agents and investigators they had into the Limitless Ocean. From beginning to end, the operation used numerous expenses and countless efforts, both mental and physical, to try to solve the case. Unexpectedly, they were also pulled up by the roots, left without even the slightest bit!

The total death count achieved over 30,000 people!

This count is somewhat shocking!

The power that the Eastern Sky Court controlled in the Limitless Ocean was completely wiped out.

Tian Wuque precisely was an old subject from when the Sky King had just started out, so his cultivation level was naturally extremely high. His cultivation level had already reached Undead Stage rank 7 and could be said to be an absolute expert in the present age! His 18 guards were also not weaklings. Although they had only obtained a cultivation level of Undead Stage Initial Stage, if they joined hands together to use the "Savage Suns 18 Extinctions," their strength was sufficient to create a great threat to Undead Stage high level powerhouses. However, this kind of fighting strength was met with a noiseless kill.

In that way, who could accomplish this feat right now in the Limitless Ocean?

No one needed to consider the answer to this question. Even if it was a pig, they could immediately answer: Seven Golden Lotus!

Apart from the Seven Golden Lotuses or Big Mister Ye personally taking action, it was impossible for anyone else to achieve this arrogant and prideworthy result!

But, expelling the infiltrators of the Sky Kings from the Limitless ocean was also necessary for the Ye Family forces to comprehensively control the Limitless Ocean. It could be said to be the most in accordance with the Ye Family's requirements.

Everything was apparently logical, don't make him think about it!

But also, not only did the Eastern Sky Court suffer heavy losses, but also the Western Sky Court, Northern Sky Court, Southern Sky Court, and Glaze Sky Court...

As long as subordinates of the Five Great Sky Kings existed in the Limitless Ocean, they were uprooted without exception!

The Southern Sky Court's 28,000 people were exterminated, including their intelligence organization leader who had always beaten the Marquis grandpa.

The Northern Sky Court also had in excess of 30,000 people killed by ambush with nothing left...

Western... destroyed in all cases.

Glaze Sky's Demon Race was entirely killed without even one survivor, so much so that many innocents in the Limitless Ocean's indigenous Demon Race were included by association. This time's unforeseen event, the death count of the Demon Race could be said to be a ghastly sight. Compared to the other four skies' casualties the number was still many many more, no less than 700,000!

Chapter 1883: 1883 – Who is shifting the blame?

In just one day, almost 1,000,000 lives, the majority of which were high level cultivators, were lost!

This kind of large scale bloody massacre simply was horrifying!

Unprecedented.

Dead bodies, especially those of important people, were all suddenly turned into a corpse wasteland! They still didn't know that the purpose was to threaten.

After all this was absolutely unrestrained, deranged to the extreme!

This kind of style, in the end just who does this?

There are no words to describe it!

In the current Limitless Ocean, are there people who could achieve such a thing?

Naturally, they had people who could achieve it!

For example, Big Mister Ye and the Seven Golden Lotuses!

They didn't even need to set out as a whole. Only including five out of the eight people could achieve the above-mentioned style!

Yue Youyou set out by himself, and with one violent push of the palm, he used his might to turn a 100,000 man army and 1,500 li of land into fine powder. There was this kind of example in the past, did they really need to think of a second power that could do it?

Everyone who heard this news couldn't help but say six words.

"Ye Family's blood, sky also red!"

Was the meaning originally actually this?

The fact before one's eyes was that inside the range of the Limitless Ocean, the Five Great Sky Kings influence had already been executed completely. Originally the Limitless Ocean had many factions, but they had all been expelled!

The Hall of Returning Nature had completely retreated all its personnel back to the Western Sky. The League of Evil (Xie League) was struggling at death's door and had withdrawn to enter the Southern Sky. The House of Chaotic Storms was subjected to heavy losses in this war, and had evacuated their power because of their first defeat; right now, the whole House of Chaotic Storms had already found themselves outside of the Limitless Ocean.

The Brotherhood had directly broken up into smaller pieces and disappeared into the Jianghu, without the slightest bit of news popping up again.

Right now in the Limitless Ocean, such a big territory, there was only one power, only one voice.

Ye Family!

Dominating the Limitless Ocean!

With this foundation in place, another question comes after: what does the Ye Family want to do next?

Is it still useful to ask that?

"Ye Family's blood, sky also red!" Clearly, wouldn't it be time for another "Time of Breaking Heaven" to come?

What did the Ye Family want to do before they retreated into secret preparations 100,000 years ago?

Take over the world!

100,000 years later the Ye Family reappeared in this region of earth to do what?

Nothing more than continue taking over the world!

With this as the argument, the matter right now would rightly appear to truly be a matter of course.

Only, the Five Skies, in comprehending this storm's movement from the Ye Family, will they actually declare war!?

But, was everything really like that, really logical, as it should be?!

It wasn't! The Ye Family forces' high level people and the Seven Golden Lotuses could confidently say, this wasn't at all the style of the Seven Golden Lotuses, and especially wasn't the personal action of Big Mister Ye!

"We absolutely just didn't do this!" Ye Yunduan's handsome face was a bit ashen.

This explosion of this series of actions seemed like it permitted the Ye Family to be at the peak of their power like the sun at high noon, but this peak Ye Family was all of a sudden escalated from the enemy of all the factions in the Limitless Ocean to the enemy of all powers in the Human Realm Upon Heavens!

The genuine enemy of the whole world!

"Who doesn't know that this matter wasn't our doing? Just think of how we would accomplish this matter, since we're still without this kind of strength," Old Man Guan snorted at the side. "Right now when we formally joined the war, among the seven old ancestors there was no alternative but to have Old Ancestor Yue alone. Everyone else is still accompanying Big Mister Ye and haven't reappeared in the world. This time if it weren't for the House of Chaotic Storm's power evaluation vastly exceeding ours, Old Ancestor Yue likely wouldn't have rashly taken action to join the battle. That battle that seemed to be our overwhelming victory was actually simply our loss. We had no choice but to ask Old Ancestor Yue to come reverse the situation, how was this our win?! We're all well aware of everything, but, right now it's no longer possible to re-evaluate... At this moment, even if we clearly tell the public that it wasn't our doing, would people believe us? Not to mention the Five Skies, do our own people even believe it?!"

The complexion of everyone on the scene was ugly to the extreme.

Yes, even if you said you didn't do it, would people believe you? The estimated number of people killed was also unbelievable!

So much so that internally, the Ye Family forces all widely had circulated that they had obtained this battle success. Apart from the Seven Golden Lotuses' divine abilities, they also directly asserted that the one who exterminated Glaze Sky's Demon Race was precisely Big Mister Ye himself! Big Mister Ye's enmity with the Glaze Sky was very well known. Throughout his entire life Big Mister Ye only had one defeat, and it was just that loss that the Glaze Sky King had given him!

As the rumor spread and opinions were formed, even if they desired to stop it they couldn't!

Clearly all these words are praising Big Mister Ye and the Seven Golden Lotuses, why would you want to stop it? Could it be that they were lacking in confidence?!

Old Man Qin stood trembling. "This matter is indeed very strange. If this old man himself hadn't stood here and watched all these matters happen, I'm afraid that even this old man would think it was all our doing!"

Ye Yunduan's face sank. "This matter is clearly just some people shifting the blame to frame us! They're trying to use this time of misfortune to push the whole Ye Family forward to where the wind and waves are the fiercest and make us the enemy of the whole world. Every step forward is even more dangerous. This person's intentions are dangerous, simply deranged, enough to make my hair stand on end in anger!"

“It is a pity that in the eyes of the general public, the whole Ye Family and even our seven families are just a bloody, deranged generation! There’s no need to doubt that someone shifted the blame to us, everyone present knows that, but the question now is who in the Limitless Ocean would be capable of doing this and shifting the blame to us?”

Old Man Yun unhurriedly stated, “According to the scale of this time’s shifting of blame and, considering that it also requires a very formidable strength, conservatively we can calculate they must have... at least must have five or more Undead Stage rank 9 powerhouses, perhaps even an Eternal Stage powerhouse, this kind of capacity would be enough to shift the blame!”

“In that case, right now in the Limitless Ocean, what power would be capable of possessing this many super experts?”

Asking this, everyone once again looked at each other in dismay, struck speechless for a time.

Inside the boundaries of the Limitless Ocean, other than the Ye Family forces, there just wasn’t another power that possessed that many super experts!

In the Five Skies experts were like clouds. If you wanted to construct this kind of lineup it wouldn’t be regarded as a difficult matter, but... not to mention that there is no trace of proof that the extinguishing of the Five Skies’ manpower was fake, but also, even if it was something that the Five Skies had done, they also suffered serious losses from it! It precisely affected the operations of all the Imperial Courts, wasn’t this using a sword to kill a chicken?!

Coming up with this kind of conclusion, not only would no one outside of the Ye Family choose to believe it, even the numerous low level forces inside the Ye Family wouldn’t believe it.

“If we disregard the idea that it was one of the Imperial Courts, the world perhaps still doesn’t have a power that possesses this kind of tyrannical battle power. The Hall of Returning Nature who is like a centipede that dies but never falls down, the Brotherhood whose true strength was never seen, or the continually unfathomable House of Chaotic Storms, none of them could possess this kind of high-end battle strength...”

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1884: Poking the Hornet’s Nest

Ye Yunduan had a gloomy face as he muttered to himself, lost in thought for a time. A long long time after, his eyes suddenly turned bright as he said, “But... if we don’t confine the direction to having an Undead Stage rank 9 expert, rather not consider the use of high-end battle strength, in that way there is still a power that could possibly... accomplish this one time of shifting blame.”

Old Man Guan’s eyes flashed. He asked in a sinking voice, “Who?”

“Monarch’s Hall!” Ye Yunduan said softly. “In these few years, the Monarch’s Hall has been concealing their strength and biding time all along, recovering and recuperating, keeping their real battle strength a secret all along. Although their casualties in the fight between the two halls were disastrous, their high-level losses were next to nothing. Also, the Monarch’s Hall’s members advance their strength at a godly speed, by far beating any influence of the present age. Even if they don’t have an Undead Stage rank 9 expert, if they used a large amount of extremely powerful high-level cultivators, they wouldn't necessarily be unable to bring about a similar result to this event!

Again think deeper, this one act of shifting the blame could be said to have caused all the powers inside the Limitless Ocean to meet with calamity and have disastrous losses. Like us, since we seem without damage, we have made countless enemies throughout the world. Only the Monarch's Hall genuinely has not even a hair damaged, they have perfectly stayed out of it!"

Ye Yunduan said, "Everyone can think about it carefully. I think that although this theory is a bit shocking, so much so that it is regarded as too much strength for the Monarch's Hall to have, but as this incident's sole power that gained an advantage from it? The suspicion is indeed the greatest, can we ignore this possibility?"

The seven old men simultaneously sighed.

"If we only listen to Young Master Ye's analysis, it indeed makes sense. It is a fact as well that the Monarch's Hall isn't even a hair damaged by this incident..." Old Man Song wrinkled his brows. "But, leaving aside the fact that the Monarch's Hall doesn't have this kind of formidable battle power, as this senile old man believes that sentence of Young Master Ye, you actually said that the Monarch's Hall was precisely the only advantageous one... This so-called advantage of the Monarch's Hall, where exactly is it?"

Ye Yunduan said, "The Monarch's Hall hasn't suffered the slightest bit of damage during this event, and at the same time managed to completely stay out of it. How is this not occupying the greatest advantage?"

"Originally Young Master Ye means that not suffering a loss is precisely gaining an advantage..." Old Man Yun sneered, "Originally not suffering a loss is gaining an advantage, according to some, this falls under the overwhelming majority of circumstances, we know this. What a pity that there are a few unsuitable circumstances!"

Ye Yunduan's complexion changed. His previous confidence immediately stagnated, and he stopped. "Please direct me, Old Man Yun!"

Old Man Yun, shutting him up, said, "Young Master Ye, don't tell me you don't know that the Monarch's Hall didn't just today start being perfectly uninvolved. As early as several years ago after the two Hall's war, they started this state of being uninvolved! But I would also like to ask, who could possibly make the Monarch's Hall suffer a loss, or even someone who could let the Monarch's Hall's Life and Death Hall suffer even a tiny bit of damage?"

Ye Yunduan's complexion appeared to be ugly.

Yes, who could let the Monarch's Hall suffer a loss?

They had the unrivalled in the world tree fortress barrier. Even if they directly confronted the Seven Golden Lotus, they could also defend themselves.

In that way, they only had to not come out and absolutely no one could make them suffer even the tiniest loss!

They had maintained the state of not getting involved for such a long time already, for quite a long time before this situation. Your thesis concludes that they are suspicious, but how are they guilty of any trouble?

At the side, several Ye Family elders also nodded continuously.

“Besides, let’s talk again about the Monarch’s Hall’s definite strength.” Old Man Yun said, getting somewhat angry, “Whether or not the Monarch’s Hall has this capability I don’t know, and I don’t dare to assert one way or the other, but... two years ago at their fight with the Hall of Returning Nature, the Monarch’s Hall’s hundreds of thousands were reduced to just three or four thousand people... the conclusion of that battle I know, but I also saw it with my own eyes.”

“Although the cultivation conditions inside the Monarch’s Hall’s Life and Death Hall are exceptionally good, but if it is capable of promoting a group of Saint Origin Stage, or at most Eternal Life Stage Initial Stage cultivators to having five Eternal Stage powerhouses within two years of time, I haven’t heard about it... As it should be, Young Master Ye just now said that it would take a large amount of high level cultivators to act together, afterwards we pretend it’s the doings of five Eternal Stage powerhouses. This theory holds water, but if they had this great amount of high level cultivators two years ago, they had to have had considerable strength, right? Even if it wasn’t Undead Stage Peak cultivation level, they had to have had Undead Stage Middle or Initial rank cultivation levels. On this point we old fellows can testify, the Monarch’s Hall absolutely didn’t have this kind of power, they didn’t even have many Eternal Life Stage cultivators! If they had that kind of power, why go so far as to see hundreds of thousands of followers dying in vain?”

Old Man Yun’s vision was a bit disappointed and pained as he looked at Ye Yunduan. “Thirdly, from the approach of one’s conduct... The Monarch’s Hall, Monarch Ye, after all saved everyone’s life, including yours and mine...”

“For Young Master Ye to make this kind of guess really is enough to make a person too disappointed.” Old Man Guan coldly added a sentence. “If we all approved of Young Master’s guess, would Young Master Ye want to decide to send troops to eliminate the Monarch’s Hall or not? Just calculating how we would be unable to break through the tree fortress, would we also summon the seven old ancestors, and even Big Mister Ye, asking them to appear personally to handle the Life and Death Hall tree fortress and accomplish the task in one fell swoop?!”

Ye Yunduan discovered that he had poked a hornet’s nest.

For almost two years, he had been industrious and conscientious, doing everything he could to make the group prosperous, putting his blood, sweat, and tears into developing the Ye Family’s power to be more and more prosperous with each passing day. Even if he was met with a great crisis, he gave the correct response. At long last, though, he was scared without danger arriving.

After the old ancestors involved themselves, the clan experts came forth one after another, standing firm at their heels.

Moreover, within these two years, he had been extremely polite and respectful to these heads of household of the Seven Golden Lotus. He had constantly maintained the proper respect of the younger generation, to the point of not holding on to the pretense of his status as the Ye Family Young Master...

Under the operations of this kind of anxious running back and forth, the atmosphere of their interactions seemed more and more harmonious, their discussions lacked many misgivings.

But at this moment he had obviously only raised a question on the level of probing, so much so that his basis for this was really trying to consider how the incident came about. He didn't even have too many selfish motives, how did he immediately attract the cold scowls of all the seven big shots?

Why?

How come even when he painstakingly put away his status, lying low and appearing small, did he still remain nothing more compared to Ye Xiao?

This whole two year's period of time, his exhausting mental and physical efforts, even if it's a chunk of iron, you should also cover the heat, right?

But the topic only had to touch on the Monarch's Hall, touch Ye Xiao, and to him the seven old men's attitude, expression, tone... everything, in any case, was totally all wrong.

Each and every one of them simply looked just like they wanted to tear his skin off!

What is this regard?

Am I not good as the Ye Family Young Lord?

Ye Yunduan was raging in his heart!

These seven old fogies, what did they want to do in the end?

If I said I was going to meticulously focus on them, you could feel so raw, but what I said clearly was according to reason and without mentioning any kind of follow-up, each and every one of you immediately turned hostile? This way is just extreme, comparable to ingratitude to a benefactor, going berserk, enough to make one's hair stand in anger and pull out the relations?!

Chapter 1885: 1885 – A cloud of dense fog

"Old sirs, please pause for a moment, that's not what I meant." Ye Yunduan gave a calm smile. "How could I possibly forget Monarch Ye's life-saving grace? I just wanted to discuss this on its own merits, that's all. After all, at the present stage they're the only ones who don't have any movements. I know we're obliged to the Monarch's Hall, but isn't this a fact?!"

Old Man Guan rolled his eyes. "How is this different from just now when you said that not having a loss is precisely having an advantage? Not moving can place great suspicion on them, but if they had moved, how are they not already wicked beyond redemption? It's nothing more than a desire to add guilt!"

"Hehehe..." Ye Yunduan had a fit of hollow, forced laughter. Immediately he used an even more sincere manner to state, "Today's matter is indeed very important, it could even be said to be an unprecedented crisis of the Ye Family forces. Yunduan wants to say the truth here..."

Old Man Guan coldly said, "Who doesn't yet know that the present situation is not wonderful? You have some more words you want to say, could it be that anyone still won't let you speak the truth?!"

Ye Yunduan's eyes were cold. He said in a sinking voice, "Good, then I was at fault formerly. If I've said something offensive, these few old men please forgive me! Until now, I have one matter that I'm extremely puzzled by, and I would like the seven oldsters to give me a straightforward reply."

"Don't be so troublesome, just say it straightforward!" Old Man Qin said lightly. However, the expression in his eyes turned very vigilant, similar to guarding against a thief, as he stared at Ye Yunduan.

In his mind, Ye Yunduan immediately choked again, but the smile on his face did not change. With exceptional sincerity, he asked, "That Monarch's Hall's Monarch Ye, indeed is a hero. But what I'm exceptionally puzzled by, so much so that in my mind I'm rather uncomfortable and even jealous... is that every time you mention him, this Ye feels all... cough cough cough, at least it's the case that in you seven's hearts, the difference between me and that Ye Xiao is very big... Could it be that there's just that much of a disparity between me and Ye Xiao?"

Hearing him admit he was jealous of Ye Xiao, the seven old men were all a bit embarrassed. Regarding Ye Yunduan's question, though, they felt unable to reply. You just straight up asking us totally makes us feel awkward, how is that good?

As for the disparity, it's not really big like that...

It's not that we aren't willing to reply to your question, it's that we're afraid to injure you young fellow's self-esteem, is that good?

Between you two, this so-called disparity actually doesn't exist!

After all, one was in the heavens above and the other in the ground below. How far was the distance separating the heavens and earth? Who knows how to tactfully describe that there is no comparison between them?!

"Even if you had a strong first impression of him, but... we have been host and guests thoroughly enjoying ourselves for over two years now..." Ye Yunduan continued complaining. "That Ye Xiao, is he really that good?"

The seven old men looked down their noses at the ground, the whole room went silent in a moment with no one making a sound.

Indeed, they really didn't know how to say the truth, that he really was that good! It really was enough to hurt someone!

"Cough cough cough..."

After a long time, Old Man Song finally supported his other few old brothers after seeing them all avoid each other. He braced himself to stand out, deliberately choosing his words one at a time, saying, "Young Master Yunduan, we have been watching together... this one part, I can't deny is outstanding..."

"But we also watched Monarch Ye's ability grow and mature all along..."

“Looking at both sides and saying who is strong and who is weak, this question... this, this...” Old Man Song kept repeating, as he couldn’t think of a good way of expressing it. Could it be that I really must explain: Ye Xiao is so much stronger compared to you... how are you compared to Ye Xiao at all? Knowing or not knowing something has no comparison, how can it not hurt? Insisting on comparing is precisely malicious!

How is this not evidently committing an offence?

Stammering as he thought for a long time, he finally remembered, damn! Weren’t we discussing the question of who shifted the blame? This isn’t important right now, how did we get off track way over here?

Complexion whole, he said, “Your question simply just isn’t the important thing here, the reason why we disapprove of your theory is because... that is just absolutely not possible. It’s precisely because you’re jealous that you resolutely hung on to someone not capable and not relevant, making a reluctant connection, so much so that launching against that target would only be a waste of resources and work to no avail... yes?”

The other six old men were as if they awoke from a dream, and each and every one of them nodded their heads again and again. “Exactly, exactly! Boss Song said it spot on, providing food for thought, and now we should in this way return to the matter at hand!”

“Currently we are already at confronting the motive of this extremely dangerous shifting of blame. We will research what response is proper, but this requires very, very careful discussion... if we do otherwise, we’ll immediately face possibly the entire Human Realm Upon Heavens’ hostility.”

Arriving at this point, Old Man Song glanced at Ye Yunduan, his eyes resentful of the iron for not becoming steel. “At this crucial point in time, Young Master Yunduan, despite everything, insists on involving us in this matter that has no reason, no foundation, no origin. It depends on me to say that the most important thing for Young Master Yunduan to do at present is precisely to get your jealousy under control. Youngsters being competitive is not a bad thing, but you have to take a look at the occasion.”

The other six oldsters nodded together. “Right, right... At this kind of time, it’s because jealousy of virtuous and capable people can delay major events, failing to divide between private and public, that’s the thing that a military commander needs to abstain from the most.”

Ye Yunduan nearly fainted at this.

Who... was jealous of virtuous and capable people!?

I... am failing to divide between private and public?!

Hearing these seven old fellows’ tones, it was very clear, Ye Xiao was precisely that ‘virtuous, capable’ person, and him being jealous of virtuous and capable people... in that way, it was saying that he was precisely an ordinary person, someone jealous of virtuous and capable people, someone incapable of dividing between public and private, a mistake-making small-minded military commander trying to abstain.

Like this, Ye Yunduan at last thoroughly understood the positions that he and Ye Xiao were at in the hearts of the seven family heads!

Ye Xiao was equal to a virtuous, capable sage!

Great Sage, Great Achiever!

He himself was equal to an ordinary person, a tacky, vulgar, narrow-minded person, so much so that he was a contemptible and nasty small character...

Arriving at this understanding, Ye Yunduan choked back a mouthful of blood.

Seven ignorant old fellows, this really is extreme bullying!

Little had he imagined those true positions in the hearts of the seven oldsters were actually like that. If you say that Ye Xiao is a virtuous and capable person, say that you, Ye Yunduan, are an ordinary person, that shows great regard to you, extreme regard to you, that you have the qualifications to compete!

En, generally speaking, he came to a firm conclusion!

Appears to be, as if, seems like, perhaps, probably, not too different is like that just a bit bullying the ordinary person, but the fact was that it was precisely like this. They still didn't let a person speak the truth, speak genuine words?!

You, Ye Yunduan, are just not speaking the truth a moment ago, is this not what you are saying!?

Seeing that Ye Yunduan's complexion looked a little bad and was completely incapable of disentangling himself, to the side a Ye Family Elder hurriedly came out to smooth things over, saying, "Right now our top priority is still how to respond to the way we've been framed by shifting blame... This is no small matter."

Thus, everyone continued back on target, launching the discussion on the shifting of blame.

However, as they discussed, from the beginning to the end they didn't have the slightest clue.

"In the end who killed all these people? Who has this kind of great style?"

"That super expert who took action, where did they come from?"

"Outside the fact that the person who took action's strength was overly strong, even more important is that they moved to target all five regions' manpower simultaneously. They completely uprooted them all without overlooking anyone, this information we know is accurate, and it's also significant, we shouldn't disregard it!"

...

The more they discussed it, the more everyone was depressed to the point of wanting to commit suicide.

They simply didn't have the slightest trace of a clue to connect...

At the minimum they still didn't have a direction for their response, yet again how could they discuss how to make the balance!?

Right now, the present circumstances in the Limitless Ocean was precisely that many experts from the five skies had all died here. The Ye Family forces exactly responded with one sentence: Yellow mud dropped inside of trousers, it doesn't matter if it isn't crap, it's still crap.

Chapter 1886: 1886 – Practice until you die

In the beginning of the time that Ye Xiao had returned to the Monarch's Hall, he spent every day accompanying several beautiful women, living free and unfettered like an immortal. One could say that it wasn't just in name but also in reality that he was beastly to the opposite sex.

A whole month later, he finally once again started to pay attention to the affairs of the Monarch's Hall, inquiring about everyone's advancements in practicing martial arts.

After one question, he erupted in thunderous fury!

He was like a completely different person compared to before when he was calm and contented with certain members of the opposite sex!

"Are you a herd of pigs? Saying that you are pigs is an insult to the pigs. Pigs would be exterminated if they were this stupid and lazy!" Ye Xiao roared. "You've been devoting yourself to practice for so long and you've unexpectedly promoted only this much? Unexpectedly, you're still inferior to my promotion, a person who walked outside for a stroll! You... you all simply are... I'm so disappointed!"

"Chi Huo!"

"Your subordinate is present!"

"Before I left, what was your rank?"

"Undead Stage, rank 2 peak."

"And now?"

"Your subordinate has currently arrived at Undead Stage rank 5 peak... this kind of progress... actually is already very quick..."

Regarding his progress, Chi Huo was still very proud. Inside this several years of time, he was capable of raising his cultivation level from Undead Stage rank 2 all the way until he soared to Undead Stage rank 5. This kind of progress could be said to be absolutely incomparable, enough to show disdain for the world!

"Bullshit! You have this kind of progress yet you still dare to be self-important?! Not convinced? You take a look at me! Take a good look at me, think again, what was my cultivation level when I left?"

"When Senior left, you were precisely Eternal Life Stage Peak."

"And now?"

"This... this... your subordinate cannot tell by looking..."

"Look carefully, look seriously, look carefully and seriously!"

“It seems to have an indication that it exceeds your subordinate’s realm... Senior, could it be that you have already arrived at rank 6? Or have you hit rank 7?”

“Idiot! This seat is already Undead Stage rank 8!”

Chi Huo staggered and fainted on the spot...

It wasn’t that Chi Huo’s mental ability to bear it was not good, but rather that the current situation was really too savage, too strange, too incomprehensible, too unimaginable, and even too mysterious and fantastical, too mythical! To not faint, it would really be too hard to unburden the pure shock that he felt as a result!

“Bu Xiangfeng!”

“Meng Youjiang!”

...

“Flower King!”

“...”

“Black Demon White Dragon Qiu Luo!”

“...”

“Where are my Seven Stars War Generals?”

“...”

After a round of scolding, many of the Monarch’s Hall’s upper leadership had collectively been scolded for a spell and told they were inferior to dog poop. Inside Ye Xiao’s mouth, the entire gang of high level Monarch’s Hall members were all just inferior to trash. He gave them a big pile of resources and a super cultivation atmosphere, even if a pig came to cultivate it would be faster compared to them. How could they still not have gone looking for a tree to hang themselves on? It went without saying that staying in this world was a disgrace...

In order to show that these many subordinates could bear it, as well as to show that his own progress wasn’t a special case, Ye Xiao directly pulled out Jun Yinglian and Su Yeyue to use as examples.

“You have a look, these two are precisely my wives. This is my first wife, who followed me to ascend together to the Human Realm Upon Heavens. Up until now, when all is said and done, it’s been about 56 years, and she is already Undead Stage rank 5... This is my second wife, all of you open your eyes real wide and take a look. My second wife has only cultivated for a little more than twenty years, compared with me it’s still shorter, but right now she’s already Undead Stage rank 3 peak and it’s possible she’ll break through again at any time... Again, look at you all... Each and every one of you, how long have you cultivated? You've lived a big handful of years, and yet unexpectedly you continue to be inferior to two little girls. Have you lived your whole life among dogs? Still don't know, you still want to quibble, do you still feel good? Do you really feel good?"

"In addition, your subordinates are even trashier than you all! Are you all sleeping every day?"

"You go, get out of here, scram for this seat! Hurry, go, go!"

"Just this sort of progress and yet all of you are still clamoring that you want to go wander the Jianghu? Must I carry you if we go out to battle? Carry you to go throw away your lives!? Eh?! Right now you still don't know what the circumstances are outside, right?"

"All of you, go keep practicing!"

"Half a year later, if I don't see remarkable improvement, you should all give up and commit suicide by knocking into a block of tofu, a clean attempt! At least if you die this way, it's less disgraceful than going out to be killed by outside people!"

Meng Youjiang and the others bowed and scattered like flies.

Each and every one of them was wiping a small amount of spittle off their faces, with lingering fears.

Sir Monarch is really having a heavy authority day, right now he's already angry to the point of tearing down the heavens and rending the earth!

This one gathering's admonishment really was extremely intense, like a torrential downpour from the heavens!

But with the truth laid out before their very eyes, not a single person had anything to say. They were left speechless.

Sir Monarch didn't cultivate in the Life and Death Hall tree fortress for two years, this is a fact, but he departed as an Eternal Life Stage peak. On his return, he had directly soared to Undead Stage rank 8 peak, this is also a fact!

What kind of speed is this?

If you don't want a bit of face, you could resolutely say that he was a special case, but Sir Monarch's close female friends, each and every one of them a delicate and pretty young lady, also had achieved that kind of promotion speed before their very eyes!

The people who were guarding the empty Life and Death Hall, such an amazing cultivation place, were unexpectedly still inferior to others in cultivation...

This... What did this say?

Although in the bottom of their hearts, they also silently criticized, 'You are all monster talents, we just, just, aren't comparable...'

But, they also clearly knew in their hearts that their current cultivation pace was precisely that so-called monster talent top quality...

After each of the big leaders had returned, their hearts were unwilling. Naturally, they all grabbed their head subordinates and chewed them out, unburdening their hearts of that kind of fire. Afterwards, with an intense campaign, they put out the new cultivation assignments!

Of course, each and every one of them arranged similarly towards topping the competition!

All of the smaller leaders had cold sweat steadily flowing on their faces, not sure if they wished they were immortal or dead. They had the intuition that dreaming of immortality was as stupid as being drunk.

“Head, this... this mission is just fundamentally impossible to complete...”

“This... this fundamentally isn’t possible to achieve...”

Meng Youjiang, Chi Huo, Bu Xiangfeng and the others’ faces went gloomy. “Impossible? Can’t achieve? I will inform you, even if it is something you can’t achieve you have to give me that achievement! Do you know what a death order is? It precisely lets you make the impossible become possible how?! You either achieve your breakthrough or you just walk into the fire and enter the demons as you practice yourself to death! Each and every one of you slackers just hurry up and scram, don’t follow me again to grumble about what you can or can’t achieve! In any case, if we don’t get results on time and I get admonished in front of Sir Monarch again, I’ll skin each and every one of you alive!”

Many subordinates exhaustedly scattered like flies, concentrating on using every second to the fullest to cultivate. The atmosphere was unprecedented.

Ye Xiao actually wasn’t being inhumane and pressing on them for no reason. He started to refine large quantities of pills for a long time, to the point of neglecting sleep and forgetting to eat. This time, in the Wind Snow Ice Heaven, he had obtained spirit materials. Although the quantity wasn’t high, the quality was unusually high. It was actually even more outstanding than the first-rate spirit materials in the Ten Thousand Medicine Mountain. Making medicine with it could be said to be sufficient...

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1887: 1887 – Watching Silently

Naturally, the first ones to promote their cultivation level were still Xuan Bing, Su Yeyue, and the Shuang Han sisters; after them were the strength of everyone else in the Monarch’s hall, and finally they were given to Jun Yinglian and Ye Xiao himself.

Because right now a certain someone’s cultivation level already surpassed Jun Yinglian by too much, he was raising his eyebrows and blowing hot air all day long. He still frequently played the game of “the evil tyrant snatching the commoner woman, intimidating her into serving him in bed” ... Occasionally he was still a bit forceful...

Jun Yinglian, although at the beginning she felt she quite took pleasure in it, but sometimes she still couldn’t help but have a bellyful of anger.

Before, I had a higher cultivation level compared to you, you couldn’t bully me like this, at least not being a bit forceful...

How you are now that you've accomplished your ambition and started a reign, you've changed to be even more absolutely unrestrained and intense, you're simply just deranged...

Humph!

The Monarch's big beautiful woman was in a fury, and simply announced a half year of seclusion.

Ye Xiao lost his well-matched adversary, and without any better option he started to call on Xuan Bing daily to start a fight...

As for the little girl Su Yeyue, a certain someone was admittedly daily lustful with his words, occasionally getting handsy, but he also didn't dare to go beyond the limits. After all, Meng Huaiqing's admonishment was not a joke.

Since it related to Su Yeyue's future achievements, how would Ye Xiao dare to be even the least bit impetuous?

As for the so-called reaping what one has sown, every time he finished dallying with Su Yeyue, a certain someone always felt like he had nowhere to vent to, having a nefarious fire and a spicy mind. Fortunately, Xuan Bing was still at his side, otherwise...

But, as it continued this way each and every day, although Xuan Bing was always gentle and agreeable in front of Ye Xiao, grinning and bearing it, she at last felt she couldn't bear going on like that...

That certain someone was getting more and more excessive, simply wanting to spend each and every day in bed... This guy keeps stubbornly continuing like crazy, completely incapable of containing him, and even more no way to escape...

Therefore...

Xuan Bing, on a certain day she was oppressed to the limit by a certain someone, at last flew into a rage and announced her seclusion.

This sudden announcement when he was already accustomed to spending his whole day like that caught Monarch Ye thoroughly unprepared. Generally, he didn't dare to tease Su Yeyue anymore in the fear that he would provoke the fire out. He didn't want to live separately!

But, him not looking for Su Yeyue didn't mean that Su Yeyue wouldn't come looking for him.

The little girl had finally met with Xiao Xiao again after a long period of separation and would come looking for a certain Xiao basically every day. After arriving and seeing that Ye Xiao had established a daoist school's standard of artificial morality and conduct, this little girl who was accustomed to the recent delightful rhythm was greatly unsatisfied. Unexpectedly, she started to be the one to get handsy with Ye Xiao...

Therefore, each time they met would be indescribably painful for Ye Xiao. It almost made Monarch Ye, the big man in charge, also go into seclusion...

Just as one mountain always has a taller mountain, an evil person will have an evil person to grind them, if you didn't exercise restraint in picking up girls daily, in the end you would be teased by girls daily!

Everything absolutely belonged to a single word: retribution!

But, finally...

The Limitless Ocean erupted with rarely seen activity, finally making Ye Xiao's thoughts return to the correct path.

The Five Great Sky Kings's manpower assigned to the Limitless Ocean, altogether exceeding 1,000,000 people, had completely and wholly lost their lives. This kind of event that was as big as the sky made Ye Xiao's head instantly sober!

"It's absolutely impossible for this to be the Ye Family's doing. This course of action is equivalent to making enemies with the entire world and bringing about one's own destruction."

Ye Xiao was very clear on this point.

The Ye Family admittedly possessed the strength to be capable of such a feat, but being capable didn't signify that they would actually do it. Ye Xiao from beginning to end had just previously returned to being involved. At the current time, they still hadn't had time to fully consolidate their occupied domain. All the powers even farther away hadn't reached such a level and couldn't do this kind of thing.

Not only were they now enemies with all five skies, even if it was only a single one, they didn't necessarily have good odds of success. Doing it like this was equal to them delivering themselves into a death trap!

Even if it was a stupid person, they still wouldn't do this!

The problem right now, though, was that outside of the Ye Family, it seemed like there wasn't another suspicious party!

Besides the Ye Family, the Human Realm Upon Heavens still had the five skies with the capability to pull this off. However, without pulling their brains out, it was impossible for the five skies to slaughter their own influences and shift the blame to the Ye Family!

Like this, what in the world was going on?

Ye Xiao racked his brains for a solution. Contrary to expectations, there really was one more person of choice, but first he wasn't sure if anyone else would believe it or not, even he himself wasn't very sure.

"If Young Master Bai knew, calculated, and plotted until now, it's actually possible. However, he would have sacrificed his own East Sky's ten thousand people and shifted the blame to the Ye Family, as well as dragging the other four skies to sink along with him. But, merely using the power of the House of Chaotic Storms, would he unexpectedly have this much strength?"

"This... is it impossible?!"

Right now the Limitless Ocean would panic at the slightest movement. Ye Xiao, even if he was somewhat skeptical, still didn't wish to act blindly without thinking. Whatever the case, he still wanted to see the situation clearly again before saying anything.

Ye Xiao chose to bide his time and restrain his heart's suspicions of his target for now.

He naturally couldn't have known that the Ye Family forces' leader, Ye Yunduan, unexpectedly locked his target on the Monarch's Hall as well as his smiling self!

Hehe, wasn't this thinking too highly of a certain monarch? Although the Monarch's Hall's battle power had risen as a group, they actually weren't necessarily able to manage to accomplish this matter!

Even more so, he didn't know that even inside Chaotic City people were looking at him.

They closely and attentively watched the Life and Death Hall's every move.

Before, the Life and Death Hall was closed all along.

This was because Monarch Ye wasn't present.

After that, the Eastern Sky Heaven Empress's legacy disciple, known as the future first person in the Human Realm Upon Heavens, Su Yeyue came.

Furthermore, the Eastern Sky Imperial Guard also came with her...

The Life and Death Hall had people go out, not knowing what they're up to...

The Life and Death Hall had people return back...

Afterwards, Monarch Ye came back, bringing along a woman with a considerably impressive cultivation level...

At this time, inside of an extremely common house in the Chaotic City.

There were three people living inside.

One old couple, a husband and wife, bringing along a girl who could have been their daughter, or maybe their niece?

The only thing was, if an outsider watched, they would certainly see that the relationship between these three people was actually very strange.

That old couple was clearly and obviously spoiling that young lady. This kind of spoiling brought with it a kind of... reverence.

But, that woman treated this as if it was a matter of course...

That was because this young lady was precisely the Glaze Sky King's most treasured princess, Bing Xin!

The Glaze Sky King was in every way not reassured at Princess Bing Xin's journey this time, and directly dispatched two royal servants to accompany and escort her.

Glaze Sky's royal servants were what rank, individually?

You could say that to the Glaze Sky King, they were equivalent to how the Seven Golden Lotus were to Big Mister Ye, approximately at just this level!

Precisely because these two were escorting her, the Glaze Sky King was finally relieved enough to let his daughter leave on a journey.

These three people had already arrived at Chaotic City for over a year.

Princess Bing Xin all along wouldn't say to return, but the two royal servants saw very clearly that the purpose of the princess's trip was most likely because of the rumors targeting the Monarch's Hall's owner, Divine Doctor Ye Xiao. Everyone else in the Chaotic City completely didn't enter the princess's eyes.

The only thing was, as they at last waited until Monarch Ye came back, the two royal servants originally thought that Her Highness the princess would go pay a visit to the Life and Death Hall. Unexpectedly, Her Highness the princess didn't have the least intention of going to pay a visit to the Life and Death Hall. Each day she only asked around for news, afterwards quietly practicing her martial arts and continuing to wait.

She still didn't say that it was time to leave.

Apparently just the news she was getting was enough to let her be happy the whole day...

The two royal servants couldn't help but look at each other in dismay. Could it be that we both judged wrongly? The person the princess is waiting for is not Ye Xiao, but someone else? But... they couldn't think of who else it could be!

Chapter 1888: Five great regions simultaneously move

However, over two more months, they were startled to see the wind and clouds suddenly change, as trouble arrived in their own backyard, the circumstances radically changing to a degree that could hardly be imagined...

"We are at the time where we should go," Princess Bing Xin said.

The two royal servants were scared and jumped. "Princess, Your Highness, we absolutely can't do that! Right now, outside... the sound of the wind is too tense, we should still stay here for a time..."

Earlier you didn't say to return, later you didn't say to return.

Now you finally want to return, but would they have to pay with their small lives?

The two of us view ourselves highly, but in asking ourselves we are absolutely not the match of the Seven Golden Lotus when they join hands... especially with Big Mister Ye's covetous tiger gaze behind them.

This period of time, while we royal servants can be considered to have the heart of a bear and the guts of a leopard, we also don't dare to rashly set food with Princess Bing Xin on the return journey!

That is very possibly a road of no return!

Right now the situation is clear. The Ye Family's side is mostly crazy, if we two go out, that's only giving them two more targets...

Regarding their obstruction, Princess Bing Xin didn't express her opinion, and went back to quietly continuing on. It was so much so that it had a kind of relaxing feeling.

Each day, she would continue to pay attention to the Life and Death Hall, continue to pay attention to the Monarch's Hall...

She was happy and never tired of it.

The winds of the Ye Family were chaotic, and the situation seemed to have no end. The side of the Five Great Sky Kings' Imperial Courts were similarly a disorderly bunch.

Actually, the five regions' high level cultivators had already known earlier: if the Ye Family truly had gone crazy, they also absolutely wouldn't do this sort of thing at this time, something was still fishy!

They had exactly this final conclusion, and were only afraid that they were going to become the next target of this resolute person's calculations!

They only touched on Ye Hongchen first, or possibly the Seven Golden Lotuses. Everyone said clearly to their faces, determine the truth of this matter! Everyone, especially the Five Great Sky Kings, believed that the Ye Family and Ye Hongchen had absolutely no reason to do this.

Thus, all the parties sent their respective experts, working day and night through the whole journey to come to the Limitless Ocean and inquire around in person as to what the heck was going on!

The five sides Sky Kings still had this point of trust and understanding regarding Ye Hongchen and the Seven Golden Lotuses!

Furthermore, this time, the Five Great Sky Kings dispatched messengers that were not to be trifled with. As they desired, the messengers were all Undead Stage peak cultivation level. Even inside the entire armies of the Imperial Courts, they were classified as some of the top few experts.

They basically all had the rank of Great General, Vice Commander, and so on.

These people each brought along a hundred or a thousand of their trusted subordinates and left in a vast and mighty proceeding. They could absolutely defend themselves without fail...

However... the fact was once again proven, that it wasn't in fact absolute. There was quite seriously a contingency that existed!

The reality that emerged before their eyes changed to become even more unimaginable!

It didn't matter which direction these people came from, as soon as they were on the verge of entering the Limitless Ocean...

Without a single exception, every single one had an accident, and the entirety were robbed and killed outside of the boundary of the Limitless Ocean!

It didn't matter how many people these messengers came with, in short they all just lost their lives, the entirety being snuffed out!

The Ye Family finally sent out a statement: The previous matter was not our doing, it was a resolute person that set a trap, please maintain a cool head Your Majesties the Sky Kings, clearly restrain yourselves!

However, the Ye Family's issuing of that statement was at too poor a time, unexpectedly it happened to be just after the eruption of the most recent murder cases!

At the same time, all Five Great Imperial Courts were furious!

Good Ye Family forces, good Heaven's Leaf, good Big Mister Ye, you're really acting like we're idiots!

We had two batches of people in a row die, and you give us this kind of explanation? Keep a cool head? Restraint?!

I'll cool headedly restrain him a fart! First let's have a war and then we'll talk.

Therefore...

The whole atmosphere of the Human Realm Upon Heavens changed all of a sudden, to become unprecedentedly blazing!

What was the feeling of having the whole world sink into an ambiance of having swords drawn and bows bent?

It was precisely this kind of feeling they had right now!

The Eastern Sky Imperial Court gathered their troops, and vowed to go into battle!

The Western Sky vowed to go into battle!

The Southern Sky vowed to go into battle!

The Northern Sky vowed to go into battle!

As the Glaze Sky King vowed to go into battle, he suddenly remembered that his darling daughter was exactly in the Limitless Ocean. He couldn't help but be even more anxious, and simply decided to lead the troops into battle himself!

From this day forward, the Human Realm Upon Heavens entered an unprecedented situation of chaos!

The later generations would name this time period as: Blood Colored Bewildering Fog!

Because, all the way until the conclusion, it was never made clear in the end just who the murderer was...

This scene swept all the official influences of the Human Realm Upon Heavens and even went so far as to influence the whole Jianghu, so much so that each individual person felt... completely without a warning sign, they were ringing in a super world war!

The five sides Sky Kings were capable of towering over the Human Realm Upon Heavens for hundreds of thousands of years and seemed like a huge mountain. With their ability, the schemes of these emperors were above the common people. For them, the Ye Family making a comeback after 100,000 years was precisely a threat in and of itself!

Big Mister Ye's phrase in those years of "time of breaking heaven" could even be said to be the most anxiously kept secret of the Five Great Imperial Courts. The Five Great Sky Kings themselves saw Ye Hongchen as their most dangerous adversary, even above the level of the other four Sky Kings.

As the Five Sky Kings saw it, they already had a kind of unspoken mutual understanding that had taken shape. They each continued to live in a state of harmony. While having an eternal monarchy was admittedly a burden, people who liked to play at politics could play for an enticingly long time!

With regards to this point, they still had a "feeling" that Big Mister Ye was still not above the Five Sky Kings, comparatively!

Just with regards to the current situation, although the five sides Sky Kings' intelligence organizations in the Limitless Ocean had suffered disastrous damage, and their personnel was even more so damaged to near exhaustion, they nevertheless wanted to believe that Ye Hongchen was not capable of pulling off this kind of thing. Also, perhaps it could be said that the five sides Sky Kings still didn't want to prematurely fall out with Ye Hongchen. Even if their personnel were snuffed out as a whole, the Limitless Ocean was classified as being the Ye Family's, and the Ye Family would arrange its power in such a major event.

If the Ye Family would agree to limit its own power to the Limitless Ocean, just giving the Limitless Ocean over to the Ye Family wouldn't hurt. The five sides Sky Kings had already faintly reached a mutual understanding.

Therefore, the few people they dispatched to inquire as to the detailed story were all the absolute confidants of the five sides Sky Kings. Their purpose was to target "the one behind the shifting blame", and a deeper layer of significance lied in investigating Ye Hongchen's further intentions. If he wanted to stop at this, regardless of whether or not "the one behind the shifting blame" actually existed, while finding who it was was good, it was actually not very important. In any case the five sides Sky Kings already wished to transfer the Limitless Ocean's land over to the Heaven's Leaf, so much so that Big Mister Ye being recorded as the sixth side Sky King was not out of the realm of possibility.

Naturally, the premise of all of this is that Big Mister Ye didn't get an inch and want a foot, continuing to expand their borders and travel with armed soldiers, soldier calamity Hongchen!

The five side Sky Kings themselves regarded their concessions as being rather large, so much so that they had all dispatched their trusted confidants to inquire around. It could be said that this was their biggest show of good faith, but... all of their old fellows unexpectedly died at once! Even if it was the Five Great Sky Kings, hearing such startling news was enough to make their hearts twitch.

Chapter 1889: Flustered

The accident before, you could still imagine that it had a resolute person behind the arrangement, so much so that they could create a false appearance of a great amount of ultra-rank powerhouses taking action, but right now the old fellows who had followed them for a lifetime had fallen. They were all genuine first class peak powerhouses. Without the Seven Lotus old ancestors or even Ye Hongchen personally taking action, how would they have perished so straightforwardly, without a single person having a narrow lucky escape!?

Apparently, the Ye Family wanted to persist in implementing their so-called “time of breaking heaven”, with no margin for error!

Since they had to fight sooner or later, Ye Hongchen had given them a good reason. In that case, then start the war!

We didn’t want to rush indiscriminately into battle, didn’t want unnecessary losses, but right now, indeed you have started a fight with the five regions together!

Just by taking advantage of this time when your Ye Family isn’t well prepared, the five regions will cooperate to get rid of Heaven’s Leaf!

The five regions making a move is just like the winds of the tiger or the clouds of the dragon.

The Ye Family forces naturally were also making emergency war preparations. Right now, sincere speech had no use. After the five regions Sky Kings’ information organization personnel were slaughtered and the important government figures that came to negotiate had all fallen, the situation was already incapable of being resolved with words.

But before this, who would have thought that without still having a truly formed Ye Family force, they had hurriedly come into contact with the five regions! This simply was just a tragic scene!

Right now the Ye Family forces were still only a Jianghu organization, can you deny that?!

In this sort of time period, coming into contact with the Five Great Sky Kings’ elite main forces was simply courting death!

Right now, how could Ye Yunduan still have the inclination to look for trouble with Ye Xiao?

Right now, he was at the stage of being hard pressed.

On the one hand, he was arranging his manpower and gathering a great amount of supplies, and on the other he was also calling on all of the talents of their side, organizing the Ye Family forces into teams to train and prepare to welcome the coming war...

Everyone on the side of the Ye Family forces were scrambling like flying chickens and jumping dogs!

Only, just now remembering to drill the troops at this sort of time, was unavoidably somewhat late...

Not to mention the Seven Lotus Families’ seven old gentlemen, just all of the talents coming out of the Ye Family saw Ye Yunduan as the same sort of freak. You let a good several years pass and, this whole time, you never thought to drill the troops?

Why on earth did you recruit so many people like this?

Again taking a step back... don’t you know what the most important matter of this time’s coming out is!?

All day long, shouting “time of breaking heaven, time of breaking heaven”, you still didn’t train the soldiers. How are you going to fight a battle? Didn’t you know who you had to confront in the end? On one side the Sky Kings, on the other the Sky King's forces, you couldn't exactly simply run to the Jianghu and occupy a base of operations...

Everyone was thinking this, and some people even more straightforwardly came and said it out directly.

This comparatively fierce and impulsive person was precisely one of the Ye Family's elder talents. With an age that could only be compared to Old Man Guan's class of people or perhaps even older, his quality was like that of ginger or cinnamon: the older it is, the spicier it gets. With a fully unsatisfied expression, he was staring at Ye Yunduan. "Clearly you knew that the old ancestor's original intention upon appearing back in the earth domain was to take over the world, why didn't you train troops early? Right now you're just starting? You... you know that our Ye Family... you know you yourself... you... just what on earth did you eat in the end?"

Ye Yunduan was nearly insane. Besides being humiliated from the bottom of his heart, he still felt a grievance that was as large as the sky.

"How could we not know what the ultimate target of our Ye Family's arrival was? Even more, I understand what we came out for, but everything has to have a process... who could think that this matter would progress so fast?"

Ye Yunduan felt that he was terribly wronged. "I still haven't gotten everything related to the Jianghu to a neat and tidy finish, right? Where would I know that the final ultimate big battle would erupt in this way? This is just like the student of a scholar who had just finished the exams having to take the top grade imperial exam at once. Even a top scorer wouldn't be able to do it in time! Even someone who has a high talent and also inside information wouldn't have enough time!"

"Before, we decided that our first target was to unify the Limitless Ocean, and that we would wait firmly until we achieved that. Afterwards, we would precisely structure our power, feed the weapons and sharpen the horses and campaign across the world... All of this has a process! This time, the matter has actually developed too quickly, but also touching, just directly coming into contact with all five regions, this is simply just a joke, a joke that isn't funny at all..."

That elder's complexion looked even worse. "Joke? You actually would sum up everything before your eyes as a joke? According to the way you said this, you don't have even the slightest bit of responsibility? I can only say that what you just said is precisely the joke, because what you thought was too pretty. First unify the Limitless Ocean, after that uniting all the forces, then forging an elite band of troops, then finish transforming into an incomparably grand lion and having a decisive battle for the world... You beat this scheme out, pow pow, could it be that you never thought where the time and the process of all of this came from?"

"You think that the Five Great Sky Kings are each and every one an idiot?! You unifying the Limitless Ocean, what sort of idea were you wishing for!? That they would wait for you to be completely ready again before starting war with you? From the ancient times until now, have you seen this kind of foolish leader? Not just this generation of Sky Kings, Their Majesties, even if it was a common Jianghu person, with this kind of cleverness how would they not take preventative measures? Would they really wait for you to train up all your troops, wait for you to have absolute certain victory in your grasp, and then determine it all with a desperate struggle to the death? And you were just stepping in place, not doing anything? They would let you do what you liked to your heart's content?!"

The more this elder said, the angrier he got. With an angry roar, he said, “Ye Yunduan, do you think that you’re an idiot? You think everyone in the world, especially the Five Great Sky Kings and you, are all the same kind of idiot?”

“Right now, this old man has done no more than point a few words out to you, and you unexpectedly still feel wronged?”

“You already shit in your pants just thinking that you were over a latrine, how ridiculous is this?!”

“Right now you still feel that it has no relation with you, that you completely don’t have any responsibility!?”

This elder was spitting in anger. “Ye Yunduan! You think that since you’re called Young Master Yunduan, you are precisely someone yun duan (high in the clouds)? You think boasting words can cover up your own mediocrity? I really don’t know that you haven’t developed brains. The inside of your brains have developed mold! You unexpectedly think that the Five Great Sky Kings are all morons! I spit at you, pei!”

Ye Yunduan, dejected and depressed, was unexpectedly not even allowed to retort.

The five sides great forces were still at the stage of pledging to go to battle before their troops, but on this side in the family, astonishingly internal strife had already appeared. Furthermore, everyone saw how the current situation came about, meaning that the owner of the Ye Family forces, Ye Yunduan, would find it hard to escape his blame!

This one big battle erupted suddenly, with the trouble being in their own backyard, this is fact. However, the Ye Family’s elder’s one point similarly was without a mistake: could it be that the Five Great Sky Kings would have to wait until you were fully fledged to start the battle?

If things really developed to that stage, what did that say about the five Sky Kings? That simply says that they are five stupid pigs!

If the five region Sky Kings had lacked such foresight up until now, how could they have stood straight atop the peak of the Human Realm Upon Heavens for countless years?

Ever since Ye Yunduan had entered the world, apart from the time that he was being conspired against by Ye Changqing, the time that he was in power was already not lacking. However, within that interval, he had never cultivated battle troops, had never made preparations for the future big battle! Indeed, this is a big unforgivable mistake!

Old Man Guan, who was participating in the banquet, watched the Ye Family turn into a quarreling bunch. He glanced over at Old Man Qin and the rest, and all he saw inside his counterparts’ eyes was a powerless disappointment.

With just this kind of basis and strategy, you still had vain delusions of comparing yourself with Ye Xiao?

Where did your self-confidence come from?

Chapter 1890: 100,000 years of brotherhood

Thinking back on that day that he met and made friends with Guan Tiemian and his status, the Monarch's Hall had already produced a militarization administration mechanism. The whole Monarch's Hall was operating with the same methods as a small dynasty. For a long time, Ye Xiao's structure had somewhat manifested. Even if you can only see one corner of the iceberg, that one tiny clue can reveal the trend!

Now again, look at Ye Yunduan on this occasion... when matters are imminent and things come to a head, he was still yet thrown into confusion and flustered.

Not comparing is just not injuring him. If one had to reluctantly compare, the conclusion could only be... biggest joke in the world!

Right now, the Ye Family forces' army had still not yet taken shape and was nothing more than a motley crew. The five Sky Kings' grand forces were already subjecting them to mountainous pressure and momentum, and were ready to set out with the troops and attack!

Inside people's hearts, future prospects were as bright as snow.

Except with being a little pessimistic and a little desperate, the future really wasn't all that bright!

As long as it was a person with some brains, they wouldn't have too beautiful of an imagining of this war.

"Okay, we really can't quarrel again! Right now, investigating all of those trivialities is useless!" Old Man Qin said, his face turning black. "Right now the question is how do we prepare for war! Even if we clearly know that our troops are only a motley crew, could it be that this time they will give up and spare us because their target is a mob?"

This one big shout finally reminded everyone.

The present situation was obvious. Even though they clearly knew that this fight was disadvantageous, could it be that they would be able to just passively give up and have a narrow escape?!

"First, count how many people we have who are capable of fighting."

"For each direction, set up a responsible person in charge for each work unit."

"Divide up the staffing of the army."

"..."

They actually had some methodically arranged people go start on these tasks. However, it is a pity that it was impossible to disperse the aura of it being just before the final days.

The five regions had always had standing armies, and even by the most conservative estimate, they had been training troops for 100,000 years.

But our side right now, we still don't even know how many people are qualified soldiers, and the absolute majority of our subordinates don't even know how to drill as a squad...

Fight?

They couldn't even fight a ball of yarn!

"The five regions skies' armies pressuring our borders has already become a foregone conclusion. Still, we should ask our old ancestors for instructions as quickly as possible, and invite them to bestow upon us a countermeasure for dealing with this!" Old Man Yun spoke these words, immediately reminding the Ye Family people.

"Right, we should ask the old ancestors for instructions on what to do!"

"The old ancestors will certainly have a good idea to deal with our current predicament!"

...

Inside of a secret mountain valley.

Over twenty people were gathered together in one hall.

These over twenty people were surrounded in a huge circle, with a tiny table in front of each person laid out with food and drinks.

Everyone was toasting and drinking to their hearts' content, having a joyous and harmonious time.

In the center position was precisely the old ancestor of the Ye Family, Ye Hongchen, Big Mister Ye.

Unexpectedly, he then heard a voice from outside seeking a meeting. Big Mister Ye's brows immediately wrinkled, and with a casual wave, he completely shielded the mountain valley.

Today was a gathering for reminiscing. All of the tedious troubles of the world weren't allowed to come before them and disturb them.

"My brothers, we have been separated for a long 100,000 years. At the present time, we have finally met again, but I didn't think that everyone would unexpectedly be exactly the same as they were. That so-called years not forgiving a person and so on, in the face of my brothers it's all just empty speech." Ye Hongchen was cultured and refined, with his voice gentle.

Everyone had a big laugh together. When their cultivation had arrived at this level, wanting to maintain one's looks to be eternally young was really not a difficult matter!

"Big Brother Ye is still just as elegant as he ever was!"

"This long separation was an entire 100,000 years..." Ye Hongchen lifted his glass. "Can everyone still remember this liquor of the Human Realms?"

"We can only relive that flavor in our dreams, how would we dare to forget?" Some people had eyes full of fond memories. "It seems if it wasn't for Big Brother Ye's 100,000 year agreement, we... hehehe..."

In one laugh, it was unknown how many vicissitudes of life were contained inside.

An endless 100,000 years of time was a thousand generations of reincarnation for common people!

"In those days, we had 28 brothers all shoulder to shoulder." Ye Hongchen paused then, and quietly said, "Now, at the present day, in the end we are lacking three people!"

Everyone looked over at those three empty tables and simultaneously sighed.

“Sir brothers, we have met again after 100,000 years, do you still have your great ambitions?” Big Mister Ye’s originally impassioned voice changed to be calm.

“Naturally we do! Why would we bide our time until this day and age if not in order to follow Big Brother Ye one more time, sweeping across the whole world and proving that we can break the heavens!” A big straightforward person opened his jacket wide to expose his chest as strong as iron while he loudly stated this.

“Not wrong, we’re going to follow Big Brother Ye again, sweeping the whole world and prove that we can break the heavens!”

Everyone gave a big shout together.

Ye Hongchen exposed a trace of a smile. “Our war preparations, right now how many troops do we have?”

Of the Seven Golden Lotuses, Guan Shanyao took the lead and stated, “Our Seven Lotus family clans have been planning these years to a decent effect. Following our seven people’s secret training of troops, each family has 100,000 people, each qualifying as above elite!”

“700,000!” Ye Hongchen nodded his head. If even the Seven Golden Lotuses considered them all to be elite, then in that way they were absolutely incomparable to common elite troops.

“Boss, we have 80,000 people here, although I don’t dare to boast that they are all elites. It’s fine to pull them all to the front lines at any time!”

“Boss, I have 70,000 people here.”

“Boss, over here I’ve prepared quite a few, I have 350,000. The individual strength of each soldier is possibly somewhat inferior, but once they arrive in team combat, they may actually be put to good use.”

“Boss, over here I have 90,000.”

“Boss, I’m extremely ashamed to say that over this many years, I’ve only trained 17,000 people. However, I dare to say that these 17,000 people are all the elites of the elite, and the individual combat ability of each soldier I would proudly dare to say could defy the whole Human Realm.”

“...”

“Boss, I- I... I haven’t trained any troops. With my act, I’m really not capable...” The final person had a very slim body and an ashamed look across his whole face. “However, I myself promoted my cultivation all the way to Eternal Middle Stage! Along with my assassination technique, I would say that any powerhouse of the present age would assuredly feel regret under my sword!”

Everyone turned their heads to collectively stare at this speaking person.

The speaker was precisely publicly known as the number one assassin of the present age in the entire Human Realm Upon Heavens.

This monarch relied on himself, one person and one sword, to kill the entire Human Realm Upon Heavens. There was no one who wouldn't be terror stricken and scared witless. Even if it was the five Sky Kings, they would be extremely serious and afraid of the consequences of facing this person, not daring to be the least bit neglectful.

He was really an unrivalled malefic star!

Blood River!

It was precisely this famous name that had been publicly known as the world's number one assassin for 1,000,000 years.

Blood River!

His name was also his nickname.

Originally, he was an abandoned baby, discovered in the ruins of the aftermath of a war. At that time, he was an infant struggling inside a river of blood.

For this reason, his master named him: Blood River!

Also, not long after that, Blood River gradually became the impossible to get rid of nightmare of anyone who wasn't a top world expert of the Human Realm Upon Heavens.

Even though Blood River had no longer been in the earth region for 100,000 years of time, he was still like this!

Ye Hongchen heard what he had said as his gaze stared concentratedly at this person for half a day. Just now, his face spread into a smile as he said, "Not bad!"

Everyone on the scene was quite clear of the meaning of this sentence, not bad.

As an assassin, he originally handled matters in the dark, and was accustomed to concealing his whereabouts to execute these things. Directly because of that, the world's best assassin wouldn't always pursue his own cultivation level too excessively. However, Blood River's cultivation level had now arrived at the Eternal Stage, furthermore the middle stage of that level!

Relying on this cultivation level, Blood River's corresponding assassination strength...

In this world, there was almost no one who was capable of resisting his assassination!

Even if it was the Five Great Sky Kings, so long as he seized their flaws, perhaps even they would have to die under his assassination!

This is precisely a true unrivalled ominous might!

Supreme assassin!
