Chapter 1911: Really is drunk

“Change it to another person, and they would all have a huge opportunity to accept Meng Wuzhen’s conditions, but, as it happened Ye Xiao was unable to.”

“Therefore at that time, even though it wasn’t necessarily Ye Xiao’s original intention to kill Meng Wuzhen just then, but even Ye Xiao himself was without another choice!”

“Mobilizing the troops and setting in movement a many tens of thousands of li long-range raid, don’t tell me that they would finally capture the main offender at the end but wouldn’t dare to kill him? That Ye Xiao would have to be ready to be mocked for eternity! Therefore, Meng Wuzhen himself pushed him into a dead end, and also left Ye Xiao pressured with nowhere to go...”

“Meng Wuzhen’s death caused the Monarch’s Hall and the big Western Heavens to be in extreme opposition, and the Life and Death Hall’s tree fortress in the middle of Chaotic City’s originally absolute neutral status has vanished from the face of the earth. This is even more because the geographic location is caught up right in the middle of the retaliation of the big Western Sky. This matter is already an irreversible change, and in order to defend himself, Ye Xiao will most likely take the lead to attack, employing various kinds of methods. If it was me, I would do the same.”

“But, right now, the Human Realm Upon Heavens has already been changed, and the chaos is unprecedented. Once Ye Xiao comes in to participate, that means that regardless of Ye Xiao’s original intentions, his current objective is now reluctantly the same as mine!”

“Actually... if it wasn’t to arrive in this supreme position, why would Ye Xiao refuse Meng Wuzhen’s opening conditions?”

“This itself is already a paradox!”

“The goal of starting a war here was to target the entire world! Regardless of whether Ye Xiao’s strength right now is insignificant, but from this moment on since he killed Meng Wuzhen, he has already entered the middle of this huge war for world supremacy!”

“Since he participated, his objective would certainly be to aim for victory.”

“Therefore at this time, the Monarch’s Hall is not the Monarch’s Hall of before. They will undoubtedly want to obtain the maximum advantages out of this war situation. Only in this way will they have the ability to continue to participate in the war situation, and the strength to strive forward.”

“But I am also the same. I also must first obtain considerable advantages from this war situation to have the strength to strive forward.”

“I had originally planned for this time of gaining benefits to be set at one year later. In my established plan, one year later, not only would the Limitless Ocean and the five skies be ruined and broken beyond recognition, but even many of the Seven Golden Lotuses and similar powerhouses would have died.”

“So much so that... Perhaps at that time, the five skies would have already been exterminated as influences. The five Sky Kings themselves would all have already personally taken action who knows how many times, and their whole battle strength would have already been exposed...”

“Only at that time would be the genuinely advantageous time. That would also be the optimum moment that we would enter the stage. At that time, whatever side that would be able to would try to prevent having us as an enemy. As our strength is not weak, we would be able to influence both sides as a secondary enemy, and we would be able to grasp and own the largest of minor advantages. Contact the secondary enemy, attack the primary enemy, that is the most logical way of all conflicts since time immemorial!”

Bai Chen’s steady face clenched his teeth. “Of course this good situation would be easily obtained, but just because of Meng Wuzhen’s death, this is an unexpected variable for everyone. It also causes Ye Xiao to be unable to stay out of it, and he can only move forward at a fast pace, clinging to his course and following one road until it grows dark. He was unable to just die, and still caused a careless mistake in our setting of the trap. Under these circumstances, Ye Xiao can go all out, but we are only able to try and strive to make up for a shortage.”

“If it was just trying to make up for a shortage, actually it also doesn’t matter much, but Ye Xiao entering the battle before we have our trap set up is my biggest concern at the moment. Ye Xiao is already our biggest enemy. His destiny is high, as high as mine or above. In this situation, where he’s entering the battle ahead of time and plundering for loot, I undoubtedly will not be able to sit still. In other words, with his movement, I must move out of necessity. If not, then we will fall into an unimaginably nasty state.”

“However, with this happening, and us going in to participate now, it’s a year in advance of our scheduled plan!”

“Therefore, not only is Ye Xiao able to be flustered right now, even I was also consequently caught unprepared.”

“Damned Meng Wuzhen, his death will end up being the biggest variable. From six countries waging war to eight sides contending for supremacy, this situation will cause unprecedented chaos!”

Bai Chen bitterly laughed. “My cousin really is worthy... Even his death is world-shaking, profoundly significant and long-lasting!”

Finally, as Bai Chen mentioned up until here, he was still somewhat unable to control his mood in the end, and couldn’t help but ferociously spit out a mouthful of saliva, gnashing his teeth and cursing. “Damn!”

Wan’er and Xiu’er were dumbstruck. In the entirety of their memory, they have never seen Young Master Bai lose control of himself until now. This was too unexpected.

“Prepare.” Bai Chen’s face was trembling. “Within three days we must undo all of my seals, breaking through the whole solid seal. We... must promote my strength, promote it... to the highest limit that we are capable of promoting!”

“Following, we will not have any more leisurely free time, only hard battles are ahead!”

As Bai Chen said these words, a flash of anger and resentment went through his eyes.

What Bai Chen disliked the most was a frontal hard battle!

The strategy that he always pursued was to always defeat his enemies without battling. He would hide behind the scenes in the chaotic storms, watching the whole world as the wind and clouds were stirred by his hands, then and only then was it the most beautiful.

Without a movement or a word yet achieving supremacy of the whole world, this was Bai Chen's life desire.

This is also why the House of Chaotic Storms never formally declared their position, regardless of whether it was with the Ye Family forces, the Hall of Returning Nature, the Brotherhood, or others. All along these were their secondary enemies. Since the primary enemy still existed, naturally they didn't have the mental or physical efforts to go respond to their secondary enemies. If the others could mutually destroy each other, it would be the best benefit for the House of Chaotic Storms. The current situation was also the same. Since the House of Chaotic Storms conspired in this world war situation, the Ye Family forces and the five Sky Kings would only have each other in their eyes, how would they put an insignificant little House of Chaotic Storms in their eyes? For the House of Chaotic Storms to draw support from this disregard and strengthen step by step, so much so that they would be above the heights of the six sides, this was Young Master Bai's established one year prospect plan!

But, in any case he would never have thought that the first time in his life he had to go up and fight hard unexpectedly arrived because of one extremely idiotic Meng Wuzhen!

Meng Wuzhen's death caused Ye Xiao to have to enter the battle, but Ye Xiao would undoubtedly not ignore Bai Chen as he took his leisure, so he also had to smash his fixed plan and enter the war, fighting with true swords and spears!

Because of other people's stupidity, the balance of the whole world was moved, and he had no choice but to participate. This kind of feeling, as Bai Chen would say, simply was the worst luck and an extremely unprecedented setback!

Descending from Mount Tong, Ye Xiao's face was similarly gloomy.

In his hands, the summoning jades were broken one piece after another.

Inside the Monarch's Hall, Chi Huo, the Flower King, and the others of that class had their startled roars echo out and rise across the day.

Mo Feiyun was following at Ye Xiao's side at this moment, and his consistently steady expression had some secret concerns appear. He naturally was aware of what Ye Xiao was thinking. However, with the matter progressing to this degree, not only was Mo Feiyun speechless, but even Ye Xiao was left speechless and asking the heavens.

Is something of this scale considered to be a natural disaster or a man-made disaster, could it simply be regarded as a man-made disaster!?

Who would have thought that such a highly important crown prince could unexpectedly be stupid to this degree?

Unexpectedly, he completely didn't consider the possibility of the opposite side moving to kill him, and just sat there waiting to be killed...

He still naturally thought that this was a certainty filled within his highly intelligent grasp.

This outcome really is drunk.

Chapter 1912: First get rid of Western Sky

"Sir Monarch, what is our next step?"

Mo Feiyun asked in a rough voice.

Ye Xiao turned his head, looking at his one hundred person team.

After this battle, he still had a full 100 people. Of course, this counted both Xuan Bing and Jun Yinglian, who were not counted before. Destroying the entire Hall of Returning Nature only took the investment of two people's lives as the price. If it wasn't because they wanted to capture Meng Wuzhen alive, they still would have had one person capable of a lucky escape. This battle accomplishment could be said to be extremely glorious.

And at this moment, everyone's fighting intent was still rising without end.

Obviously everyone had just destroyed the previous number one faction of the Limitless Ocean in battle, but unexpectedly they hadn't fully expressed themselves. It wasn't certain if it was because they were restrained from killing for too long or if another reason urgently needed to be discovered, but in any case, after this violent battle, they were still somewhat unable to restrain their battle intent. They were itching to do it again two or three times, only then would they have enjoyed to their hearts' content.

"Everyone, straight to the Limitless Ocean!"

Ye Xiao's voice resounded out, lightly saying, "Since the matter is already done, we might as well do it to the extreme. We'll immediately go over and engage the middle of the Western Sky's main forces!"

"..."

Mo Feiyun was speechless again for a moment.

This strategy, this route, was just excessively reckless.

It really is one or the other, either you don't do it at all, or you must do it to the extreme, do it to the end!

"With this trouble in our own backyard, many people might think it's pointless. Since we already have no way out and we're doomed to start participating in this one big war, then we might as well start out taking the most drastic direction."

Ye Xiao coldly stated, "Just let the Western Sky, from top to bottom, become the first milestone on my journey's advance. In this way, it will also be regarded as worthy of the reputation of the Western Sky's Crown Prince, Meng Wuzhen, as well as... his name will be spread as the eternal pit father!"

Ye Xiao's corner of the mouth showed a sincere sneer, without restraint.

Mo Feiyun's heroic spirit also accordingly rose in his heart.

Not bad, since the road ahead was already blocked by this large of an unforeseen event, then, let me just use the most fierce, most extreme style to go confront it! There is only one road forward!

"Perhaps some people will die." Ye Xiao's sentence gave rise to a roar of laughter.

People who wandered the Jianghu must face life and death at all times.

Since they wanted to do big things, it was inevitable that sacrifices would accompany them.

Then...

"We'll just have to see whose luck is a little worse comparatively... hahaha..." Mo Feiyun gave out a huge laugh, in high spirits. The current head of the Brotherhood's ten big shots still had a graceful bearing about him.

"Well said, hahaha..." Ye Xiao again gave out a huge laugh, as pleased as he could possibly be.

What Mo Feiyun said wasn't wrong. With this kind of battle that swept the entirety of the Human Realms, a battle that encompassed the whole world, individual cultivation level was admittedly very important, but destiny was undoubtably even more important in and of itself.

Everyone said Meng Wuzhen was stupid and an idiot, but was his strategy really that stupid?

No, absolutely not, if today's party wasn't Ye Xiao, casually changing one person to the sort of old established Jianghu names like Mo Feiyun or Chi Huo, those old super powerhouses... They might not necessarily have served Meng Wuzhen, but at the very least, they wouldn't have seriously moved to kill Meng Wuzhen. Therefore, Meng Wuzhen's stupidity was only reflected in his personal knowledge being dumb. He viewed himself too highly, too arrogantly and too conceitedly. He wasn't smart with his relations, and only one statement could be said in lament: Time, Fortune, Life!

This is the number, the number of life, the number of destiny. The whole world has numbers, from ancient times it has been thus.

Once this life number, this destiny number, comes, even those super powerhouses like the five sides Sky Kings will die.

But if you finally survived, and furthermore followed your team to ultimately achieve victory, then you would be an outstanding minister starting a new country. Not only would you be capable of enjoying your own destiny, but you would also still have this new country's destiny!

Therefore it was said...

"Living to unify the whole world is fate. Dying before daybreak is life!"

Ye Xiao shot out like a strand of lightning, taking the lead.

“Let us examine what our lives and our fates are, in the end!”

“Hahahaha... good!”

Meanwhile.

The Ye Family forces confronting the Western Sky’s main army were astonished to find that the enemy’s momentum, which was previously like a fierce tiger, and morale, which was high just a moment ago, was suddenly acutely vanishing. They didn’t know how, but their fighting strength was going down.

There was no one who didn’t suspect that it was some sort of ruse to entice the enemy, but did it really make sense?

The Ye Family forces still had an ability to stubbornly resist. The majority of forces all depended on their side’s top-notch powerhouses to personally go into battle, but that meant that this sort of powerhouse couldn’t go deep and get stuck in a dangerous spot. If a powerhouse fell, it was a very difficult matter. Using this so-called strategy of showing weakness to tempt the enemy in was something that was ridiculous.

But, after Yue Youyou killed his way into the enemy ranks and returned, it was even more completely clear to him: Yu Luo Chen, the prime minister who was currently in charge of the Western Sky’s forces, had unexpectedly gone missing at this time.

“No wonder it felt like a chaotic battle that had no command...” Yue Youyou contemplated, looking towards the enemy ranks. “Anyways, that old fellow Yu Luo Chen isn’t a thoughtless guy, in the end what sort of thing would make him break away from his command post at a time like this? So much so that he didn’t even get to finish explaining the attack and defense plans. Only if...”

Yue Youyou’s vision had a flash run through it. “Only if some big matter occurred in the Western Sky?”

This unexpected idea, once birthed, became more and more likely the more he thought on it.

“Complete personnel attack, everyone assemble their battle strength to attack the Western Sky!” Yue Youyou’s long cry shocked the vast sky. “Heaven has given us an opportunity, and if we fail it will not come again. We must first get rid of this side!”

If you had exchanged someone else with Yue Youyou at this moment, it’s possible that they would have hesitated a bit. Even Ye Xiao and Bai Chen were not necessarily capable of making this sort of prompt decision, and yet, Yue Youyou actually didn’t hesitate at all! In this time of not knowing what sort of fundamental change the enemy had gone through, he only relied on his intuition and directly issued orders! You must know that this command was taking matters into his own hands. It was originally Guan Shanyao’s command position.

This class of military strategist’s biggest dread is to act without thinking!

In all directions, the whistle of alarm rose up to the heavens continuously.

The Seven Golden Lotus's other six people charged into the Western Sky's main forces from six directions. Some other shadow shot in as well before completely disappearing in a flash: this was Blood River appearing once more!

The world's number one assassin once more infiltrated the battlefield in the midst of this sudden change.

One strand of sword light, flying in like a long dragon with a dazzling light ray, dropped like a great sword mountain. It fell from the blue dome of the heavens straight into the middle of the Western Sky main army's battle formation.

One strand of blade qi then turned into an azure ocean's golden wave, surging like the tide and overflowing the heavens. It changed into the crashing waves of a hundred rivers converging unto the sea as it rushed into the middle of the Western Sky's main forces' camp.

A big lotus leaf suddenly was projected down and revealed. The Seven Golden Lotuses finally took action simultaneously, and it had an incomparable sense of momentum to it.

Like the horizon, endless lotus leaves surged in like a green tidal wave, packed extremely densely and piling up layer upon layer, hiding the sky and covering the earth. In the middle of this boundless green intent there was a golden lotus blooming piece by piece, the outer wall of rosy clouds burning as if to split open the heavens and vent anger upon the earth.

This was precisely the Seven Golden Lotuses' most magnificent combined attack!

Welcoming the heavens lotus leaves boundless and jade, projected lotus special and red!

Only this reflected lotus of the sun was a different kind of red, and before the eyes of the several million strong main army forces, their lives became dyed with this red!

Bang!

...

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1913: Monarch clash!

A golden lotus, as far as the eye can see, loudly burst open in the middle of the Western Sky's main forces!

A mushroom cloud arose with a boom and a rumble, beginning to rise up into the skies and subsequently diffuse into the air, enveloping almost half of the Limitless Ocean. Yu Luo Chen and Western Sky Commander-in-chief Feng Nuchao flew into a rage and appeared once more, like two tornadoes whirling out.

Clearly, they intended to prevent this devastating attack. Even if they were unable to fully restrain it, they could at least prevent some of the damage and weaken it.

Unfortunately there were far more top-notch powerhouses on the scene than just those two and the Seven Golden Lotuses. The Ye Family forces' side suddenly had thirteen or fourteen different groups of light rays suddenly appear, simultaneously obstructing the two people's way forward. There was an instantaneous explosion of battle between these top-notch powerhouses!

They are all old rivals from 100,000 years ago. During that time, they were unable to determine victory or defeat. To this day, they are still evenly matched. When this combined fire came down in the middle of the Western Sky army's camp, it immediately cleared out no less than 300 li's radius of land in a circle!

In a fight where the old hands weren't willing to separate away from the battlefield and fly high above, it would clearly harm the innocent, but Yu Luochen and Feng Nuchao were only able to be on the ground accompanying the fight. Carrying out this eternal ranked fight in the middle of a big army... the degree of bloodshed was something that one could well imagine!

A random strong wind spilling out would cause the violent death of what must be 100 people at the lowest estimate. A random strand of sword qi swirling and shooting away would carry out a blood wave that would overflow the heavens in that direction...

"Dulang! Cangjiu! You are shameless!" Yu Luochen's long sword was like rain, spraying out sword qi that hid the sky and covered the earth, while his mouth was flustered and cursing exasperatedly.

Those people opposite coldly laughed. "Two armies fighting, this whole world's power struggle, this is precisely the moment of committing all manner of crimes! Many who would be shamed are shameless in this way!"

At another side, Guan Shanyao, who was wreaking as much havoc as he liked in the Western Sky's army camp, gave a loud shout. "Yu Luochen! Big Western Sky is looking like a landslide defeat right now, where are your lords?! Is it possible that you've truly turned into a turtle that pulls its head in?!"

This one huge roar caused nearly the entire battlefield to raise their eyebrows in answer.

This speech wasn't wrong, at least although the speech was rough, the truth was there.

The Western Sky right now was faced with unprecedented chaos, at any time it was possible for their army to face a landslide defeat, being crushed utterly and smeared across the ground.

But... His Majesty the Western Sky King, Meng Tianluo, where had he gone at this crucial moment?!

Everyone else had already arrived at this time, but Meng Tianluo unexpectedly still had not appeared. This might actually be inexcusable!

However, just at this delicate moment, the horizon unexpectedly had a strand of glorious sword light appear, instantaneously lighting up the whole sky.

This one sword's brilliance was even many times more intense than the fierce sun up in the sky!

Burning fiercely many many more times!

This splendid sword light dropped down from the cloud layer, not only looking extremely dazzling, but also wrapping up in an incomparably frightening heavenly vigor. Like a lightning bolt reaching from the earth to the sky extinguishing life, it had already chaotically charged into the Western Sky's main forces army camp!

From the outside circling in, an irresistible controlling strike began dashing in!

What's more, an extremely loud voice burst in, roaring, "This occasion, we declare to the Human Realm Upon Heavens that the Monarch's Hall is officially engaging in this war, to bully the Western Sky in a moment!"

This one voice possessed a sort of imposing air about it. It seemed as if the monarch of the nine heavens had suddenly descended upon the battlefield in the Human Realm Upon Heaven's Limitless Ocean!

An even stronger and more tyrannical incomparably splendid sword light rushed along unsurpassed, like a flash flood descending from the mountains to attack the Western Sky straight on!

"Above heaven and under the earth, I am the Monarch!"

Ye Xiao crossed his sword. The bloody sword light burst forth and fell, and then vanished from the face of the earth, all the blockers perishing.

"Monarch's Hall mediating, release and return the four oceans, all as Monarchs!"

Along with an orderly and majestic cry, altogether the group of a hundred people fought together as a group. Their joint cooperation changed into a huge unfriendly sword blade!

If it was said that the Seven Golden Lotus's projected lotus was special and red, blood red spreading a path, then this huge sword rising to the firmament could divide the heavens and break the earth!

The Western Sky's military, from top to bottom, was all completely cleaved by this one sword!

Ye Xiao is precisely the point of this sword. To the left is Xuan Bing, to the right Jun Yinglian. They took the lead to charge unhindered into the middle of the millions big force, separating the whole!

This battle was the first time that Ye Xiao could finally feel it after he had promoted to a higher rank and reached the Undead Stage. This military force of high-end cultivators was being crushed and rolled over, unexpectedly it was this easy to break through them!

The frequently used expression was that he could kill a person as easy as blowing off dust and so on, but on this occasion it was actually real! For ordinary experts, it was seriously no more than one mouth of air that could blow and turn them into a trace floating in the air!

In this charge, in the middle of this million strong army being routed, there was unexpectedly not a single person whatsoever who was capable of resisting and stopping Ye Xiao's one sword!

Behind him, Meng Youjiang and Mo Feiyun lead both sides as the points of the wing. The 97 people had imposing vigor like a rainbow, taking one path to wreak havoc and go!

Dong!

Ye Xiao suddenly felt the middle of his hand sink down. He was shaken all over, and a mouthful of blood suddenly and violently sprayed out without any warning. This still wasn't the end, as his five senses and seven orifices also had blood spurting out of them.

Ye Xiao's scary transformation naturally wasn't without cause. Ye Xiao's Monarch Sword, which had brazenly gone unblocked before, had actually met with the sole one time it was effectively obstructed since he had rushed into the Western Sky's army!

Ye Xiao's first setback didn't make him scared, or even angry, but instead he laughed loudly, swinging his longsword in a circle like a broadsword. In no more than the blink of an eye's time, he continuously struck out 99 swords!

On the opposite side, the enemy that had obstructed the sword saw an instant effect. In their mind, they were somewhat complacent, and even more waited to follow up the victory and press home the attack, taking Ye Xiao's life. They didn't think that Ye Xiao wouldn't collapse from this injury, that he would advance instead of retreat! This simply wasn't a reasonable move by Ye Xiao to forcibly resist!

What was even more frightening was that the Monarch's Sword in Ye Xiao's hand was precisely an unworldly Divine Weapon. You could dare to say that in the entirety of the Human Realm Upon Heavens, it was again difficult to find a second weapon that could compare to it. That person who was his counterpart, even though they had a stronger cultivation base and were capable of using their origin strength to protect their hand and guard their sword, was having a hard time under this high-frequency repeated conflict. Their fine weapon was gradually becoming harder and harder to carry.

By the time that the other side resisting against Ye Xiao had fended off the 90th sword, their fine weapon had reached the limit. Along with a "ka cha" sound, sharp and clear, at this point it finally fractured and broke apart. As for the remaining nine swords in the chain, even Ye Xiao himself couldn't stop or restrain the momentum, and they all fell upon that person's body.

That person immediately let out a wretched cry that was enough to scare the heavens and move the earth.

If it only stopped at this, that person would still be unlikely to go so far as to end this amusement. After all, this person's true cultivation level strength was still above Ye Xiao's. They could obstruct his one sword and then inflict serious damage to Ye Xiao, their strength was self-evident. Although the other nine swords had hit, they were still only injured and hadn't yet died, so much so that only their Origin Power protecting their body was broken. This still wasn't regarded as suffering too serious of an injury!

But Xuan Bing and Jun Yinglian's saber and sword also followed on the heels of it and arrived. The two women's fine weapons were refined by Ye Xiao, and he had picked the best quality, most unusual metals to refine them with. With that outstanding grade Divine Weapon, that person's body had already carried a heavy wound, and had their body protection Origin Power removed. How could they again resist the two women's saber and sword surrounding them? Along with "shua shua" two sounds, this person's two hands and two legs simultaneously went flying. Immediately following that, their head also flew into midair, and in an instant it was crushed with Divine Soul Power. With a "peng" sound, the rest of the body was destroyed and turned into a bloody fog filling the sky!

The skeleton of the dead did not exist, the soul had flown away and the spirit dispersed. There was no hope of reprieve!

Ye Xiao took the lead to dash out of the middle of this bloody fog. Even he didn't know who this person who had just died under his hand was.

Being besieged by countless enemies, he didn't have the time to consider it. He could only feel a burst of lingering fear after the event!

He only knew that this person's cultivation level was absolutely above his own, so much so that it was higher than just a bit!

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1914: The situation is hopeless

He himself was situated at the huge sword's tip position, which demanded a vigorous effort to be unstoppable. This move he displayed was at least five times as much destructive power as was displayed with the Extreme Purple Sword move. However, the person in front of his eyes unexpectedly was capable of blocking it; not only just blocking it, but even in the instant of one touch reversing it and inflicting serious damage to himself!

This simply is inconceivable.

That this power was able to hold him in check, and even more unexpectedly, that it obstructed him for 90 furious strikes was insane!

The opposite party finally suffered a defeat to their body, and ate a loss to their sword!

Those final nine swords of his, under this unexpected situation, also didn't seriously damage and defeat the other party, and merely broke the other side's body-protecting Origin Power. Xuan Bing and Jun Yinglian's pair finisher was the most important factor!

Ye Xiao, until he had made it over 100 li outside of where he clashed, still felt the cold sweat pouring down his back.

Who was this person? How did they arrive this sharply?!

Ye Xiao was thinking this in his heart, but, his footsteps never stopped for even one moment!

The most terrible and dangerous thing in a battle that soldiers dreaded the most was hesitation. When they were using 100 people's strength to clash with an army of countless thousands, the thing that they could least lack was spirit! If someone again obstructed the tip of this arrowhead, in that way, everyone would fall in the middle of the encirclement of countless thousands, and their power would be exhausted until their bodies were dead!

"Commander Dian!"

Along with some people's frightened cry from behind him, Ye Xiao at last knew who he had injured under his sword and who had died under the two ladies' finisher!

No wonder Erhuo was satisfied with the soul force that he had absorbed afterwards.

That person unexpectedly was an Eternal Stage powerhouse, one of the big Western Sky's Four Main Pillars, the middle of wind and rain, thunder and lightning, Dian Changkong!

While the heavenly emperor was stuck in the circumstances of having a soul injury and urgently needed time to heal, the main army was being attacked. As one of the big Western Sky's Four Main Pillars, he had no alternative but to attack along with Yu Luo Chen and Feng Nuchao's joint offensive. Not only was he completely useless, but he was pushed into a disadvantageous position by the other side. Like a group of dragons without a head, the countless thousands of the army gradually collapsed and fell to pieces. At all times, it was possible for the soldiers to face a landslide defeat, as they failed and were wiped all over the floor. Originally acting as Dharma Protectors guarding the heavenly emperor's side, Dian Changkong and Lei Weiqi could only divide out a person to come command the army, looking for a stabilizing force to calm them like Sun Wukong's heavenly staff.

Dian Changkong had only rushed out just a moment ago, and still didn't have a chance to clearly make out the current battlefield situation. He was startled to see that the front side was completely chaotic, the offensive of the Seven Golden Lotus and the Ye Family forces' subordinates already succeeding in a furious wave of power.

Dian Changkong speculated that if he participated in fighting the Golden Lotus's circle, because of the integrated strength's relationship he would only end up accompanying Yu Luo Chen and Feng Nuchao to fall together. To this end, he turned around to command the army, stabilizing the army's heart and morale, so as to keep their own side's camp from collapsing. Just a moment ago he had issued orders, but had suddenly discovered that, apart from Ye Hongchen, there was astonishingly some other party's super expert troops attacking the middle of the Western Sky main army.

This batch of experts of unknown origin were a fierce power, and their strength was formidable. They used a strategy of boring a hole and penetrating to bring a strong attack to the Western Sky's troops, causing the troops of the big Western Sky to arrive in even more imminent danger. After weighing the pro's and con's, Dian Changkong quickly made a decision: if this band of troops and Ye Hongchen's troops met up in the middle of his main army, then, he was afraid that today would be the day that the big Western Sky would withdraw from the stage of history in the Human Realm Upon Heavens!

Therefore, Dian Changkong had no other choice, and could only go to meet Ye Xiao's line of people!

It's just that Dian Changkong still was very confident that he could defeat Ye Xiao's row of 100 people. Ye Xiao's power to kill one person in the same class could be said to be formidable, and if you compared, it was difficult to oppose his attacking point even if one was an Undead Stage Peak level expert. However, what sort of person was Dian Changkong but indeed a true Eternal Stage powerhouse? There was a big potential rank of difference! Who would say they couldn't beat that leader?!

He was merely different from Ye Xiao. Ye Xiao was killing a road forward. As his eyes were filled with enemy troops, he naturally didn't have the least apprehension of killing his way ahead!

But Dian Changkong's surrounding was filled with friendly forces. There was simply no way for him to launch at full speed, and therefore he could only choose to just descend from midair to come into contact with Ye Xiao, using his higher cultivation level. It could even be said that there was a large disparity between strong and weak, and it wasn't in the least bit suspenseful, he would completely check Ye Xiao's side!

Originally everything was within Dian Changkong's budget, and indeed in the first moments of arriving in front of Ye Xiao's advance, he was so powerful that he inflicted serious damage on Ye Xiao!

However, variables appeared one after another in quick succession—

Experts doing battle originally are afraid of being too weak to strength, and even more dread not being able to withstand the enemy's attack despite using all of their power. Meeting force with force, it may be said that this kind of battle method completely lacked flowery cheap tricks. If your power was strong, then you would be victorious. If your power was weak, you would face defeat. Who was better and who was worse would be judged!

Dian Changkong anticipated that Ye Xiao's strength was naturally uncommon, and that he would understand this sort of argument. Under his ambush, he should make some sort of halt and regroup after a setback. However, Ye Xiao's reaction actually wasn't to retreat but on the contrary was to advance, using the most extreme style to carry out a violent attack!

Originally this kind of violent attack was not enough to worry Dian Changkong, although it stemmed from his own accident. Directly fighting openly is a style that Dian Changkong was actually happy to see, but the sharpness of the Monarch's Sword in Ye Xiao's hand greatly exceeded Dian Changkong's expectations!

He absolutely had not had the thought that the super grade treasure sword known as the Human Realm Upon Heavens' number one Divine Weapon would unexpectedly break his sword under its swift strikes in the first round!

The unexpected destruction of his sword immediately created a tragedy wherein Dian Changkong was unable to redeem his life!

Suddenly losing his sword out of his hand, he naturally couldn't prevent an enormous weak point appearing, and was only able to use his fleshy body to bear Ye Xiao's remaining chain of nine swords. Even though there existed a big rank disparity between them, Dian Changkong still had his body-protecting Origin Power broken to the extreme. After that...

After that was Jun Yinglian and Xuan Bing's joint finisher!

Therefore, Dian Changkong died by Ye Xiao, Jun Yinglian, and Xuan Bing's hands, killed under the one early strike and unexpected two strikes after!

Dian Changkong died very unjustly. His strength wasn't taken advantage of at all, as it was far ahead of Ye Xiao. Not only Ye Xiao, Jun Yinglian, and Xuan Bing's connected strike, even if the hundred people of Ye Xiao's had surrounded him, there wasn't very large odds of success. However, he also didn't die unjustly, as Ye Xiao's Monarch's Sword had reached a level exceeding the entirety of the weaponry of the Human Realm Upon Heavens! His sword was united with his heart, spirit, and person, three people all united.

But Ye Xiao originally hadn't revealed this out, therefore there were simply very few people in this world who knew about this incomparable divine edge!

Today, one morning examining the sword, he unexpectedly used an Eternal Stage expert as the sacrificial offering!

Divine edge blood sacrifice, prestige suppress the universe!

Dian Changkong's unexpected death became the fuse that lit the collapse of the big Western Sky's army disposition!

Originally it was hard to maintain the difficult situation, but this made matters even worse like adding frost on top of snow. Dian Changkong's death was the starting point of the landslide, and extremely quickly it started to spread out!

Not only did Guan Shanyao's side clearly perceive that the pressure was suddenly lessened, but Ye Xiao's side even more acutely couldn't be blocked, sweeping invincibly through everything before them!

The troops of both sides continued their advance, fiercely charging in...

Bang!

Along with qi wave that overflowed the heavens once more rising up, Yu Luochen and Feng Nuchao simultaneously retreated, their two bodies flying back like a kite with the string cut. That qi wave vibration went out 100 li. Opening one's eyes and looking at it, that big Western Sky army's troops had already turned into a lump of scattered sand, their army ruined and generals defeated into scattered remnants. They were fleeing in disarray in all sorts of crazy and pathetic ways, proclaiming that the big Western Sky's situation is hopeless...

Chapter 1915: Western Sky troops defeated

Along with an outrageous flash of sword light, hundreds of disorderly soldiers were swept away off the road they advanced along. One division of 100 people emerged out of the smoke and dust filling the sky, urgently and swiftly charging out...

Both sides' troops abruptly came face to face, and everyone was startled, feeling very unexpected!

Ye Xiao's side also felt it was rather unexpected, but actually still weren't regarded as being too astonished. With their side attacking the big Western Sky's camp, if the main enemy of the Western Sky, the Ye Family forces, couldn't take this opportunity to ambush them, then they had no need to continue muddling along... On the contrary, the side of Yue Youyou, Old Ancestor Yue, sat there blinking their eyes, faces perplexed and not understanding. They were completely clueless on when the Monarch's Hall and the Ye Family forces forged an alliance, and even more clueless as to how they had taken this subtle moment to take action and enter the war, this...

Actually, Ye Xiao at this moment had a big lucky sigh appear on his face. His own side had killed a road in, but hadn't felt how truly tyrannical the big Western Sky's main forces were, so much so that they were completely unorganized and never saw experts taking action... Originally, Ye Family's violent attack on this side drew away their peak powerhouses on the levels of the Seven Golden Lotus...

Make no mistake, if there were more experts like that commander Dian something, ones that needed his combined assault with the two ladies to assassinate, the battlefield situation would have been a very different and reversed circumstance!

Ye Xiao at the same time didn't have too many superfluous words to say. Without warning, he gave a big laugh, and said, "Seniors, everyone take care of yourselves!"

Immediately with his long sword flashing out, he again took the lead and turned to another direction to start deeply penetrating into the enemy forces once more.

With that, Yue Youyou and Guan Shanyao's people also simultaneously laughed before all turning in the opposite direction to violently kill their way through!

This side had 100 Undead Stage experts violently clashing and fiercely killing, and that side had ten odd Eternal Stage experts bringing along a few tens of Undead Stage experts to violently clash; with both sides cooperating together, the big Western Sky's side fundamentally had to take out a lineup of this many peak experts to come obstruct them...

Even if they planned to use the tactics of taking the enemy down with oneself together, it was still no use when fighting with this level of expert, and they could only sigh to no avail!

Both sides were cooperating for the first time, to no one's surprise, but even with this careless way of cooperating between them, where each other didn't know the other's situation, they still managed to perfectly and abnormally complete their cooperation!

Once more launching an assault, Ye Xiao suddenly felt the pressure loosen up. Actually, they were already once more prominently redoubling a siege, and the Western Sky army camp behind them had already become a pot of porridge.

A pot of thoroughly mashed porridge.

Countless officers and soldiers were all fleeing in disorder.

This was had already completely smashed the big Western Sky's army's spirit to pieces!

When the tree topples the monkeys scatter. With troops defeated like a landslide, failed and wiped over the floor, they were nothing more than this!

Ye Xiao didn't turn his head at all, carefreely laughing a big laugh, and immediately said in a deep voice, "We're returning home!"

Behind him, his assistance had sufficiently killed to their hearts content, solving their addiction. Following after Ye Xiao, they freely left with a swagger!

Excepting Ye Xiao, Jun Yinglian, and Xuan Bing, the 97 people who had followed Ye Xiao out only had 85 people remaining!

Confronting this kind of desperate big battle and only having 12 people who died, Ye Xiao's heart, although inevitably still regretting, even more than that actually felt proud. As for the other people, they were all entirely excited from the bottom of their hearts.

How can people not die in war?

Confronting the big Western Sky, this sort of government backed official big army, at the moment they initiated the fight, everyone had already made ready for them to be completely annihilated, planning to bury all their bones here!

However, they only had 100 people's strength together to clash and kill their way into an army of countless thousands two times, but they only had to invest this low of a price. This military success was something that was already enough to seriously be proud of!

“We made preparations for a high office and generous salary! We made preparations to overlook the whole world as monarchs!”

“But we also made preparations for sacrifices!”

“If you want to support the glory of a high office and generous salary, the splendor, wealth, and rank of a Duke or Marquis for ten thousand dynasties, first you have to make preparations for the price to sacrifice for it!”

“This is a campaign for the entire world!”

“This is the lord of the whole world!”

“To not pay the price for this and just want to obtain this kind of honor and glory is just daydreaming and getting carried away by wishful thinking!”

“We are alive, we enjoy; we are dead, we die content!”

“Heaven’s law and earth’s principle, right and proper!”

“From ancient times it has been thus!”

This battle up until now, one could already declare a conclusion. The big Western Sky’s side had almost completely had their troops defeated like a landslide, and the whole front had dispersed and retreated.

This result really emerged too quickly, and almost no one who saw the matter actually understood what happened, it suddenly just collapsed...

Especially Western Sky big king Meng Tianluo, the man himself, had never from start to finish revealed his face! They were just directly bound and defeated by troops, one road’s violent retreat of seventy thousand li!

The other four side skies all didn’t take action to help and selected to sit on the mountain and watch the tigers fight; firstly, they didn’t understand that the Western Sky big king in the end was sparing no effort to obtain some medicine and wouldn’t come out in the end, secondly, there was also no lack of wanting to sit back and watch the two of them injure and defeat each other...

In short, this Ye Family forces and big Western Sky still had Monarch’s Hall entering the war situation in a disorder’s strange outcome in this way...

Ye Family forces side seize total victory!

The Monarch’s Hall chaotically entering and going to war wasn’t a big matter at all. As far as the five sides sky kings and those level of people at peak strength were concerned, the Monarch’s Hall’s manpower, although already very strong, still belonged to that kind of small character not worth a mention.

But, Monarch’s Hall engaging in the war’s consequences in this war was enough to make all people be astounded.

Coincidence!

Everything seems like it was fortuitous, but everything was also all a completely logical coincidence!

Meng Wuzhen was fortuitously imaginative, indulging in the fantasy of wanting to subdue and force to capitulate. He completely didn't consider retreating. After that, Ye Xiao's only choice at the time was to kill Meng Wuzhen, but Meng Wuzhen's body fortuitously had the west side Sky King's protective Divine Sense on it. Fortuitously Ye Xiao had Erhuo, this abnormal character, at his side. The grand sky king's Divine Sense not only didn't activate, but on the contrary was torn to shreds in a most uncivilized and extreme manner, and then eaten by Erhuo.

This coincidence caused the west side sky king's Divine Sense to suffer damage. One could say that the consequences on the Western Sky King, besides the huge damage, was still a huge suffering. His spirit cut with a knife, he was barely pieced together.

In this period of time, no matter if it was military affairs or governmental affairs, Meng Tianluo absolutely didn't have the time or energy to go manage them.

Afterwards, just at this time, the Seven Golden Lotuses also very fortuitously launched a dominating attack; the strong firepower ripped apart the whole battle array of the Western Sky main army.

To be honest, even if it was the Seven Golden Lotuses personally taking action during this time period, they also hadn't thought that the results would be quite this splendid.

The west side big king from start to finish never appeared to suppress the chaos on his side. To go so far as to reverse the war situation, Ye Hongchen had originally made his preparations. So long as Meng Tianluo took action, Ye Hongchen would immediately take action in return. In any case, today was their fight to the death with big Western Sky. Don't forget as well that there was still one Blood River concealing himself at the side glaring like a tiger at his prey, with the idea in his head of "murder the king"!

But, Meng Tianluo never took action, and instead it was Ye Xiao who came in at this time killing his way in.

Just as Ye Xiao himself said: since we're unable to avoid it, then, we might as well enter and participate in the most fierce, most extreme manner!

But his most fierce, most extreme manner actually came, as luck would have it, at the most fatal opportunity for the Western Sky main army!

Ye Family forces targeting the big Western Sky unleashed an assembled attack.

Apart from Ye Hongchen, fundamentally all of the peak level experts took action.

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1916: Dead end Sky King

The big Western Sky's side's great king was still incapable of going out to battle. Not only was he incapable of battling, but instead he still needed big Western Sky's quite strong personal guards to stay by his side to act as protectors... naturally they also weren't able to participate in the fight.

Even maintaining this strength of security was still not enough to let Meng Tianluo feel reassured. Among the four pillars of wind and rain, thunder and lightning, he still had one person remain behind from the remaining two.

(TLN: Wind and Rain are Feng (风) and Yu (雨) as in Feng Nuchao (风怒潮) and Yu Luochen (雨落尘) and Thunder and Lightning are Lei (雷) and Dian (电) as in Lei Weiqi (mentioned later, 雷为旗) and Dian Changkong (典长空). 电 is pronounced dian4 and 典 is pronounced dian3. They use 电 here to keep with the theme.)

Since this happened, then, although originally there should be ten or so experts of the level of the Seven Golden Lotus who could put up a response, in the end they only had Yu Luochen and Feng Nuchao who could take action. The strength to withstand them was naturally comparatively unbalanced, and although they wanted to fight they had no way of actually doing it.

Even more frightening was, four big experts' Dian Changkong, who they were originally counting on to go out and stabilize the army's morale, unexpectedly went out and carelessly lost his life...

This many coincidences, causing this many layers upon layers of shocks, how could the big Western Sky not be defeated in a landslide defeat?

At this sort of chaotic time, even if the five big Sky Kings simultaneously appeared among the great armies of the four sides, they might not have had the ability to recover the army's already defeated morale!

Besides... the remaining four side Sky Kings fundamentally just wouldn't come to assist them. Although the current situation looked as if it was the five sides Sky Kings jointly sending a punitive expedition against Big Mister Ye and Heaven's Leaf, in reality how was it not dirty between them? If one's own side went undamaged while one or two of the other Sky Kings perished, the survivors would all look favorably on it, so much so that they might not use their strength to help each other out!

This is precisely the schemes of kings. Inside the hearts of kings, there are never eternal friends or enemies, the only eternal thing is benefits!

After this big battle, the desolation filled the eyes of any who looked on.

It was eye-catching to see. All four directions had rolling thick smoke rising from the ground.

This was actually from burning the corpses.

Regardless of whether one was originally a powerhouse or an expert, dead just meant dead. A corpse was a corpse, and there were too many corpses. If they weren't buried for a long time, a plague could subsequently start.

Plague, there was no exception just because the corpses were from powerhouses!

Big Western Sky side's main army from top to bottom was completely covered in a gloomy fog cloud of worry.

This event of assembling the troops strength it could be said was an astronomical figure for the big Western Sky. Regardless of whether it was the Seven Golden Lotus's vast firepower and attack range or Ye Xiao's impressive hundred person team, because they killed so many officers and soldiers in the fight, no more than one or two out of ten remained. After they were utterly defeated and trampled, those who were discouraged and wandered off were no less than two or three out of ten.

This meant that among the remaining soldiers, the majority were also all easily frightened.

Many small team leaders in the army, as long as they heard the slightest whiff of trouble immediately had panic spread across their faces, and prepared to proceed with escaping.

With this kind of appearance how could they still go to war?

Yu Luo Chen and Feng Nuchao were spitting blood.

They were not only spitting blood because of anxiety over the current condition, but also had really gotten hit hard to cause a large amount of bloodshed.

With the strength of just those two, they strove to lead the charge against the fierce Seven Golden Lotus with their subordinates. This originally wasn't strong enough to catch them in the first place.

After this big fight was completed, not only had the two people's trusted aides and elite personnel all died down to the last man, those two people themselves were also hit by master assassin Blood River's sudden ambush in the middle of the warfare.

Right now they had exceptionally critical injuries.

This was just from one strike from Blood River, after which he immediately disappeared and didn't finish out the kill. If not, it's likely that those two people would have already died in the middle of that battle!

Blood River's disappearance was not without cause, naturally. This guy's eyes had seen that the big Western Sky's senior ministers and generals had gone together to battle helplessly. Boss Ye as well as himself and his many brothers were at hand, and something was up. Using his heart, he reckoned that those two people from the big Western Sky were just putting up a front, and that the truth was that the Western Sky King was perhaps not in a good condition, caught up in some sort of situation where he couldn't use force!

Therefore...

Someone directly wanted to touch the Western Sky big king's place of seclusion, and in one action beheld the army, creating a legend of 'assassinating a Sky King'...

One can't help but say that this imagining was basically matched up with the facts, besides... Big Western Sky couldn't stop these two people, Yu Luo Chen and Feng Nuchao. Meng Tianluo was too afraid of dying, therefore all of the big Western Sky's top-notch strength was all gathered to protect his majesty. To this extent, apart from the angered action of four big experts' Lei Weiqi, ten imperial guards also attacked Blood River from all sides. This kind of battle formation, don't even mention Blood River, even if Big Mister Ye went in person he wouldn't be able to get the desired outcome. Even more frightening was that Western Sky big king Meng Tianluo had more or less recovered a portion of his strength after some healing. He thus quenched this sneak attack, almost turning Blood River into smoke and ashes with one slap. Spitting a big mouthful of blood, he fled for his life...

Even though Meng Tianluo had somewhat recovered, looking at this already rotten situation, he could only retreat. He had no other way of reversing the situation.

Once he arrived several tens of thousands of li outside along his retreat, during the next time that he rearranged his personnel, he only then had discovered that of the Four Big Pillars, Wind and Rain, Thunder and Lightning, Dian Changkong hadn't returned."

"Where's Dian Changkong?"

"..."

Yu Luo Chen and Feng Nuchao simultaneously lowered their heads, looking completely mournful across their whole faces.

Only seeing these two people's complexions, Meng Tianluo then knew the result.

He stupidly stared blankly for a moment, then suddenly again "pu" sprayed out another mouthful of bright purple-gold blood...

Just like the time when he was informed of Meng Wuzhen's death, his state of mind was similarly wounded, adding injury on top of injury.

Meng Tianluo's already grizzled and greying hair unexpectedly changed to become thoroughly snow white.

At this moment, this once magnificent Sky King's expression was unexpectedly and conspicuously vacant.

Yu Luo Chen and Feng Nuchao's pale complexions, as well as their weak feeling after all those serious injuries, hadn't been seen for 100,000 years. It was really enough to shock the eye and astonish the heart.

"Those days... our 18 brothers together stormed the picturesque rivers and mountains. This many years have passed, and already I have had 11 people leave me forever and go... up to the present, I originally thought that I wouldn't have any of our old brothers leave once more. Our same trials and tribulations were also our common riches and honor.

Meng Tianluo's complexion paled. "Unexpectedly, Changkong actually also left, because of me... because of my cause."

Everyone else was simultaneously a bit sad, as Meng Tianluo's words also jabbed right at their own worries.

"My Divine Soul's creation, originated from the root, beforehand also because of Blood River was forced to take action... During the next short amount of time, it will be absolutely hard to return and recover, changing the turn I am unable to set about the task..." Meng Tianluo's expression was downcast and gloomy, and had a kind of 'discouraged' feeling suddenly rush up in his mind.

“Luochen, Nuchao, you two and the Seven Golden Lotuses fought hand to hand, how did it feel?” Meng Tianluo raised his head to look at Yu Luochen.

“We were no match!” Yu Luochen and Feng Nuchao’s faces both exposed a sort of ashamed anger, following which, they again sighed.

“You were no match?” Meng Tianluo said, “What if you fought alone? If I remember in those years Luochen was indeed capable of directly putting a steady pressure on Guan Shanyao.”

“What I just said was one on one combat. Right now Guan Shanyao and the others would directly pressure me. Were it not for relying on our larger numbers for more power, contending with them, this day perhaps wouldn’t be limited to just the death of Old Dian!” Ye Luochen bitterly said.

Meng Tianluo, having heard what was said, stared for a time. A long, long time afterwards, he bitterly smiled and shook his head, sighing, “Should be...”

Yu Luochen and Feng Nuchao again were simultaneously a bit sad.

With a cultivation level as deep as them, they could only want and wish for it to not be so clear.

The Seven Golden Lotuses concealed themselves from the Human Realm for 100,000 years while maintaining their resolve for revenge. They made preparations for this time of breaking heaven’s battle. Meng Tianluo’s class of people, though, spent this 100,000 years enjoying a life of luxury, beautiful clothes, splendid garments, and a high post and generous salary. Their seats held high weight, and they had the power to decide life and death as well as speak out and have the law follow. Simply on mentality alone, they already couldn’t be compared.

Furthermore, the other Seven Golden Lotuses spent 99.9% of that 100,000 years in seclusion practice, cultivating bitterly in secret. With Meng Tianluo and the others of his sort, 99.9% of their time was spent busy outside of cultivation matters. Besides the large scale operations they were obligated to take control of, they still enjoyed life and still fought and schemed against each other, as well as many other matters!

Although each person clearly knew their foundation, but they were always thinking that their own cultivation level had arrived at the absolute apex. In the present age, powerhouses that arrived at this realm would slack off and become complacent without concern. With just one idea in this fashion, then tens of years, hundreds of years, thousands or tens of thousands of years they thought the same. They simply didn’t have a person capable of resembling the Seven Golden Lotuses, going into seclusion for a few hundred years!

Even several years or several months were all no good!

In this way, after 100,000 years, how were they still even able to keep on the same starting line as the opposite party?

“This time big Western Sky has been defeated in battle, I concede!” Meng Tianluo tilted his head upward, expression flashing a certain melancholy. He said, “Nuchao, you are the banner, Luochen, you carefully recuperate. Three days later, we’ll go get rid of the Ye Family forces!”

“What I said is... Ye Family forces!”

“Yes!”

“Although we’ve been defeated in battle, but... Heaven’s Leaf must pay the price, we must still do this!”

“I don’t want Ye Hongchen to be able to have things go so smoothly, taking away my things from the palm of my hand!”

“No matter who it is, it’s also no good!”

...

Ye Family forces barracks.

Ye Xiao stood there with his white clothes fluttering. The inside of the barracks was actually in disarray, like chickens flying and dogs jumping.

Ye Xiao’s whole body was overflowing with a murderous aura since he had killed his way twice into the middle of the Western Sky’s army. Ordinary Saint Origin Stage and Eternal Stage experts turned pale and ashen from his imposing manner, while somewhat weak ones simply directly passed out.

“Please pass on to the Seven Golden Lotuses seven heads, Monarch’s Hall’s Ye Xiao is paying a visit!”

These words just now let the few high ranking officers heading the Ye Family forces’ barracks feel a soaring sense of boldness!

In the Ye Family forces’ headquarters, he didn’t say he was looking for the chief commander Ye Yunduan, but rather... called on the heads of the Seven Lotuses by name!

This kind of attitude, where did it place Ye Yunduan, who was nominally the master of the Ye Family’s forces?

This is considering everyone else beneath one, seeing nothing worthwhile all around, still is arrogant, yes?!

But, Ye Xiao just matter-of-factly and self-confidently spoke out these words without the least bit of apprehension or misgivings!

Ye Yunduan, who was sitting in the middle of the big tent, heard this announcement and turned ashen, but completely lacked any method to do anything about it.

Old Man Guan concernedly was still looking at Ye Yunduan. After he didn’t get a response for a long time, only then did Old Man Guan start to say, “Since Young Master Yunduan doesn’t have any other commands, we’ll just go out to see our old friend.”

Ye Yunduan’s ashen complexion transformed, and with a strong smile he said, “Yes, that’s how it should be, seven seniors, don’t hesitate and do go ahead, it’s no bother!”

Old Man Qin sighed in his mind and nodded his agreement. The seven brothers simultaneously walked out of the army tent, and as they looked at each other, shook their heads endlessly.

“Could it be that the so-called lotus leaf is called into question with this kind of disgrace and defeat this easily?! Ye Yunduan’s structure is still by far not capable, ah.” Old Man Guan sighed as he faced the sky.

Ye Xiao coming today was admittedly nominally to see those seven people, but, if he really only wanted to see those seven people, why would he come here like that?

What time or place would he not be able to see them?

Wouldn't directly going inside for a private meeting be even better, letting everyone step back fairly?!

This sort of honorable, without deceit's paying a visit, was clearly to give Ye Yunduan an opportunity to create a friendly meeting between both sides.

Because... there were still friendships between each other. Ye Yunduan had also previously received Ye Xiao's life-saving grace!

Your life savior came, regardless of what the reason he came is, you should go out to see him, right?

But Ye Yunduan chose not to go see him, as it happened!

So much so that he also thought that Ye Xiao was there to come slap his face.

...

Outside the camp.

Ye Xiao looked as the seven old heads of household appeared. His eyes flashed, and immediately the sides of his lips revealed a warm smile.

The seven old heads of households' gazes as they looked at Ye Xiao were all rather complex.

In those days, his cultivation level was so weak that he was unable to withstand a single blow from the immortal five dregs, and he still needed someone on their level of strength to go out and protect the little guy... nowadays, he had already grown as the authority of a side!

The weight of that was already by far above what their own positions as the seven big families' heads of households was!

He even already faintly possessed the power to be able to claim himself as an equal to the five great sky kings!

The heads of households could even be said to have watched every step of his difficult struggle and rise; they saw how he had gone from one individual small person, refusing to enter their factions, and had grown to arrive at this day, where he became a heroic and mighty person who was able to walk the road of the whole world!

At that time, they had clearly and assuredly said that this guy was showing extraordinary gifts. He had the capability and the method, his only deficiency was the strength of his foundation and that's all.

This absolutely was a super person with good prospects...

Yes, they hadn't seen wrongly, and even more had not spoken wrongly!

But what they absolutely hadn't thought was that, with only several years between, this weak and small's immortal five dregs had already grown to become a present-day leviathan!

He became someone they could only look up to, a genuine big protagonist high above the clouds! (TLN: could also be above Yunduan)

From beginning to end, the contrast was huge, and one could only gasp in amazement and surprise!

“If at that time we were capable of not wanting face, borrowing those years that we blamed Ye Changqing’s matter on the Monarch’s Hall, what would the situation be right now!?” The seven old people couldn’t help but simultaneously have this sort of thought flash through their minds, but at the same time, their hearts also changed into a long sigh.

That was impossible!

From beginning to end... they were the later generations of the Seven Golden Lotuses, ah...

“Seven elderlies, long time no see.” Ye Xiao smiled mildly. “Allow me to introduce these two people to the seven elderlies... this is Xuan Bing, and this is Jun Yinglian... en, both are my... wives.”

Turning his head to look towards Xuan Bing and Jun Yinglian, he said, “En, these seven elderlies are the people who took care of me the most after I arrived in the Human Realm Upon Heavens!”

Xuan Bing and Jun Yinglian blushed and paid their respects.

The seven old men hastily returned their politeness.

What a joke.

One look at the bodies of each of these two women’s auras showed that they were as vast as an ocean and as great as a mountain. They were clearly peak level super powerhouses!

This kind of strength, they had seemingly already experienced on their old ancestors’ bodies!

This kind of powerhouse paid respects towards me?

This... wouldn’t it be wanting to break me?!

But Ye Xiao’s introduction style transformed the position of both sides into a younger generation bringing oneself’s woman home to honor the older generations or something similar. This action couldn’t help but warm the hearts of the seven old men. At this moment, their hearts felt all melted.

“Nah nah, Monarch Ye started from scratch, and in a short short few years is on level ground with the wind and thunder, nowadays you are already the overlord of a side! Us old farts are only able to be spectators, we don’t have the least bit of meager strength to contribute... I’m ashamed, I’m ashamed.”

Old Man Guan’s speech was evasive, sounding like he was sighing, but his face was overflowing with gratification and contentment.

Chapter 1918: Finish my regards

Ye Xiao laughed and said, "This time's main purpose was naturally exactly to express my sincere sentiments to these seven old people for their help before. Next... a certain Ye right now also can be considered to have some small achievements. Therefore... I was thinking some..."

Old Man Guan and the others, hearing this, had their eyes simultaneously brighten, but afterwards they also immediately sighed.

Ye Xiao smiled. "Perhaps you few old fellows misunderstood somewhat, I don't have that meaning at all... My meaning is... in the middle of this worldwide battle, if I have something that I'm capable of doing to help the seven elderlies, please be generous and instruct me, you mustn't be polite. I still have some considerable achievements in the Pill Dao... If your younger generations have a headache and fever, it's hard to seek good medicine, yes. Don't hesitate to accompany me in the Tree Fortress, I don't refuse any who come, the more the better, for saving a life is more meritorious than building a seven-layer pagoda..."

Old Man Guan and the others suddenly raised their heads! In that one moment, seven pairs of eyes shone as bright as lightbulbs!

Ye Xiao's words had a strange appearance, and their outside appearance and inner reality were different. Those seven old people, who were deeply versed in the true meaning of those words, all felt warm sentiments in their hearts.

So-called headache and fever hard to seek good medicine and so on, all of that was no more than an excuse. It was almost equal to just telling these seven elderlies that the Tree Fortress has room, and that they could place people inside of it as they wished. Everyone was one of his people, and he would naturally give his people a place to shelter in the chaos of the battle, as it should be by rights!

With this sort of chaotic worldwide battle situation, although they were members of the same clan as the Seven Golden Lotuses, they were simply unable to withstand a single blow to their humble clans.

Even if just now the Ye Family forces had obtained a great victory, beneath the surface it was still extremely clear that they were... vulnerable!

So much so that you could say that they could give up at any time, so much so that they had already started to give up!

This point, no matter whether it was Big Mister Ye or the Seven Golden Lotuses old ancestors, they were clear early on. Those transcendent high-end existences naturally could be careless, but, people on the level of Old Man Guan absolutely had to care.

Family, bloodlines, inheritance... these actually are all matters that the seven old men kept in mind constantly and were unable to let go of.

But Ye Xiao, to give out this promise, is equal to giving the many descendants of the Seven Lotus family clans a most dependable opportunity to continue!

"Obtaining this promise now from Monarch Ye... these old fogies... can also die content!"

Old Man Guan had tears in his eyes, and he deeply saluted.

Ye Xiao gently sighed, but didn't dodge the salute of the seven elderlies.

If possible, Ye Xiao would still like to put these seven old people together under his protection, but... Ye Xiao himself knew, this wasn't possible.

The seven old people's identities were the issue. They were already thoroughly locked until death with the Ye Family forces!

This point was something that Ye Xiao was unable to change!

This time, as his visit came to an end, Ye Xiao brought the commissions of the seven elderlies, and quietly left as he tucked a name list away into his bosom.

Mo Feiyun and the others left behind twenty people.

Inside these few days of time, they will go to every effort and whatever method necessary to carry away the people on this name list!

Bring them back to the Monarch's Hall, bring them back to the Life or Death Hall Tree Fortress!

...

A piece of divine sense shrouded the area.

The Seven Golden Lotus old ancestors all silently watched the direction Ye Xiao left in. All were quiet without a sound.

"Inherently genuinely good, he is aware of favors and pursues recompense."

"Not bad, not bad!"

"Obtaining this opportunity to escape calamity, this old man can actually put down a load off of his mind."

Yue Youyou had a gratified smile on his face.

Ye Hongchen watched Ye Xiao go far off into the distance, his expression that of a full heart and plenty of reassurances!

At his side, a sturdy youth and a white clothed beautiful woman watched and regarded him.

"Big Brother, this youngster is the person you chose?" The sturdy youth cracked his neck.

"En. Also not bad, eh?" Ye Hongchen slightly smiled.

"Also okay also okay, but it's like... he's not ferocious enough, rather is somewhat motherly!" The sturdy youth scolded with a toothy smile.

"What is this? Could it be that you insist on him not recognizing his own family like you!?" The white clothed beautiful woman's facial features were gentle, and her temperament was like that of water, able to melt the whole world. It was a pity that as soon as she opened her mouth, words came out that directly caused that sturdy youth to choke and roll his eyes.

"I say, phoenix younger sister... how can you say that to me! This also..." The sturdy youth scratched his head, speechless.

The white clothed beautiful woman snorted and said, "What phoenix younger sister... call me elder-sister-in-law!" (TLN: specifically the wife of the elder brother, someone higher in seniority than a younger sister would be)

That sturdy youth was dumbstruck, and pointed with a shuddering finger. "Y-you-you... hey!" He turned his head to look over at Ye Hongchen, looking a bit vexed. "Big Brother... you said in those days that you would restrain this dead girl, did I ever left my head up in those years? Through those years, in any case, I'm also a big brother, hey!"

The white clothed beautiful woman snorted and held out her hand holding Ye Hongchen's arm. She curled her lip towards that sturdy youth and said, "We're two different groups, please don't muddy saying elder brother and younger sister, understand?"

The sturdy youth was immediately dumbstruck and unable to reply.

Ye Hongchen let out a big laugh.

The sturdy youth thought a moment, suddenly blinking his eyes. "Big Brother, it seems like you're really sort of alike with this Ye Xiao, a sort of deeper acquaintance..."

The sturdy youth nodded his head, and honestly stated, "Thinking about it carefully... it's also indeed not a big resemblance. Although both sides have one dragon and one phoenix, however... Big Brother, you had a dragon become your brother and a phoenix become your wife... but friend Ye Xiao actually accepted a son and a daughter, that's baselessly higher by a generation..."

Ye Hongchen and the white clothed beautiful woman to the side's complexions immediately changed.

The next moment, fierce wind, violent rain, and the sounds of thunder and flashes of lightning suddenly arrived...

The sturdy youth's screams resonated world-shakingly through the skies. "Help... Spare me... I don't dare... Big Brother... elder-sis-in-law elder-sis-in-law elder-sis-in-law... I called you elder-sis-in-law, understand? You also hit... you also... help me..."

... "Since we're already done, why didn't we take those seven elderlies away together with us?" Xuan Bing softly asked.

"Ai, they already appointed who we should bring, and those seven elderlies certainly wouldn't agree to be brought along." Ye Xiao sighed. "Acting as the Seven Lotuses present era heads of household, they could only remain here, regardless of whether the final result is life or death. This is the Seven Lotus family clan heads' destiny, also is lotus and leaf's mutual following bind..."

"Even if they clearly know that it means death?"

"What is clearly knowing is death? The current deadlock, as long as someone has a discerning eye how would they not know?"

Jun Yinglian was silent for a good long time. "It's a pity!"

Ye Xiao said, "Today's battle, the Ye Family forces seized total victory and gave the big Western Sky a crushing defeat, but... Perhaps it will be tomorrow or even the day after. In short, the big Western Sky will inevitably launch a destructive counterattack towards the Ye Family forces. I will wait for Mo Feiyun's 20 people here and look for an opportunity to move... again add our Snake Hall's and Mouse Hall's strengths to this..."

"If the Ye Family forces's main force Ye Yunduan ends up dying... I expect our people will be capable of saving many of those who come out."

Ye Xiao shut his eyes, saying, "Only... those people capable of surviving will not be too many..."

Emperor's anger, excessive corpses for a thousand li! The big Western Sky King hadn't experienced this kind of humiliation for hundreds of thousands of years, and he would be performing a counterattack. It was inevitable that he would be employing the most fierce, most extreme methods. Saving people under this kind of situation is having a heart for the heartless. Ye Xiao also didn't feel very optimistic!

Chapter 1919: Decisive battle with Western Sky

"If the Seven Golden Lotuses can send some clansmen as assistance, we perhaps can save even more people, but this time... I feel as though it gives me a kind of..." Ye Xiao creased his brows and pondered for a moment before continuing, "Just have a kind of... feeling like the Human Realm's matters are past their prime..."

"Could it be that 100,000 years later, with Heaven's Leaf appearing again in the earth realm, this so-called time of breaking heaven, will unexpectedly end in a tragedy?" Jun Yinglian said, astonished.

"You also said is 100,000 years later... hearts can change." Ye Xiao said one word after another. "Even if the original intention hasn't ever changed, and the long-cherished wish is still as before, however, the attitude of the heart still ages to a point beyond recognition... The Seven Golden Lotuses are naturally an unquestionable existence with regards to cultivation level, so much so that they are above their old rivals. However, when you have gain you must have loss and vice versa. Just as I see it, those old enemies of theirs are admittedly inferior in strength, but their attitude of the heart is too good compared to them. A high post and generous salary, high ranking position, dazzling with paper and gold and indulging in a life of luxury, these things are perhaps a sort of obstacle to forging ahead vigorously with cultivation level, but towards mental state... The whole world without exception has scattered this feast, but they eat endless dishes, and also enjoy endless pleasures and are busy with endless work. On the contrary, the Seven Golden Lotuses spent those years dry and dull as they sharpened themselves on a grindstone, even if mental state has changed, it's also very weak... therefore I would say that, just in the respect of mental state, instead the Seven Golden Lotuses have changed beyond recognition and dropped to a disadvantageous position..."

"In this sort of time period, they already had their mental state degrade to a dangerous degree. Only if they are able to transcend the worldliness of this world and arrive in the middle of an even vaster world, using a young fellow's appearance to start afresh, no matter if it's in romance, friendship, or familial love, it's possible... Otherwise... The extreme vicissitudes of their mental state would cause them to arrive at the extreme point."

Jun Yinglian couldn't help but be somewhat perplexed, and surprisedly said, "What are you saying? With regards to a person in the middle of cultivating, isn't the more faint and silent the mental state, the better and more exceeding the cultivation? But you're saying..."

Ye Xiao faintly smiled, and said, "Things of the world all have their limit. Cultivation is also thus. As the years that you and I have cultivated are limited, narrow and shallow, it's naturally hard to imagine being miserable in the middle of it. Just think a moment. Should one person, year after year not growing old, watching one's wife and lovers, each and every one go from a unique young beauty to becoming old and rickety, their lives slowly going to an end... What kind of feeling is that?"

"This person's experience, time after time as they taste this, this person will gradually not again dare to touch this kind of sentiment, and even sentiment in general..."

"And similarly, this person watches their own son grow big, get married and have kids. Afterwards their grandson grows old, the son and daughter-in-law die, and one can only watch with the cool eye of a bystander, not able to redeem these relatives' lives. By the time that again afterwards the grandson dies, the great-great-grandson also... Watching the family graveyard become more and more large, ranging even farther and wider, but there is always only oneself remaining there, what kind of feeling is this as well?"

"These kinds of vicissitudes of life and death, the boundless desolation, if you aren't disturbed by some equivalent foreign affairs... It's actually so much so that whatever lofty ideals they had were all exhausted and ground up. The original intention of those years, the previous stubborn pursuit of dreams, now would seem perhaps no heavier than a goose feather..."

"Perhaps I should say that, right now, what's supporting them is only a part of their past faith and conviction, that's all... And with Heaven's Leaf appearing again in the earth realm, honoring the commitment of this so-called time of breaking heaven, with this whole grand battle spanning the whole world, it's fundamentally just because of this sort of conviction's support."

"Finally right now, Heaven's Leaf has already reappeared, with this their conviction has already obtained expression. With regards to this battle, regardless of victory or defeat, no matter if it's life or death, they won't take it too seriously, so much so that this world isn't at all inside their eyes..."

Ye Xiao sighed.

Monarch's Hall engaged in the war!

This previously small Jianghu organization was clearly not in the eyes of the big shots before in a fundamental sense. At most it was a small power with a somewhat out of the ordinary Medicine and Pill Dao. However, at this one battle, they actually erupted out with such a capability, it actually made everyone not be able to help sitting up and taking notice!

This meant that even the five great Sky Kings found material on the Monarch's Hall lying on their desk tops. In the middle of their busy schedules and marching armies to combat, they were finding time to study this side influence that was currently rising to the skies.

Just as Ye Xiao expected, on the evening of the fifth day after the big Western Sky army's defeat, the Ye Family forces encampment suddenly encountered an unprecedented attack!

No less than 50 Undead Stage experts, commanding an elite army of hundreds of thousands, entered the Ye Family forces' encampment and launched a devastating attack!

It took no more than overnight for the Ye Family forces' encampment to be razed to the ground by the enemy!

Ye Yunduan was saved by a Ye Family expert who risked life and limb to get him out. In the end, he was hit by a powerful enemy's penetrating palm; because he didn't have any support to save him, midway on his escape he breathed his last.

This attack that came down totally wiped out the Ye Family forces' accumulation these few years, and thoroughly reset them!

This occurrence was sudden, and ended even more quickly. By the time that the Seven Golden Lotuses had received news and hurriedly come to provide assistance, it had already been over for a long time, and the invaders had cleanly gotten away. They were only able to arrive to see a camp full of corpses that had been devastated beyond recognition by the enemy!

The whole battlefield unexpectedly didn't have any remaining survivors whatsoever.

The enemy's action was ruthless and spicy. It was really enough to make one's hair stand up in anger.

The Seven Golden Lotuses, confronting this situation, naturally and suddenly flew into a rage. What was before their eyes was clearly a retaliatory slaughter movement.

"Expedition for the whole world, fight at close quarters in the battlefield, winner is the king loser is the villain, nine deaths have no regrets, for all eternity arrive at the truth! Fight to determine victory, committing all manner of crimes, it's not your death, it just is my death; cultivation level relates to success or failure, schemes achieve life or death! With people especially not!" Guan Shanyao angrily faced upwards and screamed. "But only because you gave vent to anger, and turned towards the family who had cultivation level of no use to take action, you actually violated the most dreaded course of action!"

(TLN: Guan Shanyao is being all poetic here, so it doesn't translate terribly well)

"In the Jianghu, fighting in close quarters is also okay, whole world's power struggle it's also okay; inevitably some regulations need to be abided by! But in case these regulations are destroyed, Meng Tianluo, don't blame me for being vicious and merciless, a tooth for a tooth! You did one at the beginning, don't tell me that now I'm not allowed to do fifteen?!"

Guan Shanyao's words, bursting out and echoing through the night sky, instantly spread widely across the entire Limitless Ocean.

The four directions were quiet for a time.

The middle of the sky suddenly had a wisp of a red colored flash, and Ye Hongchen's imposing silhouette suddenly appeared at high altitude. Apparently at this moment Ye Hongchen's body became a lofty giant, all over shining bright, illuminating and giving life to color throughout the world. His eyes watching all four directions attentively, he faintly said, “Meng Tianluo, you broke regulations and violated taboo. With this occurrence in the whole world’s power struggle, your big Western Sky doesn’t have any more leeway!”

These remarks were as flat as water, yet seemed like the same as a judge pronouncing a sentence. From then on he clearly told the whole world that he had reached a verdict in the Human Realm.

When his voice had not yet fallen off, Ye Hongchen’s figure had a burst of wind that swept through heaven and earth rush forth from it. This imposing figure turned towards the west side and left. “Meng Tianluo, come out and fight with me!”

Below, countless shadows of people burst forth at high speed like lightning, traveling back and forth. All of the Heaven’s Leaf’s well known experts all dispatched their troops!

Turning towards the west side’s camp, they launched to the limit, sparing nothing to violently attack and go!

Meng Tianluo’s silhouette flagrantly appeared in the sky and looked off into the distance at Ye Hongchen. “Ye Hongchen, the matter of extinguishing the Ye Family forces, although it was intentionally done, so much so that I had issued a similar order, this evening’s attack was not our doing. Today’s battle is admittedly unavoidable, but I must say this up front!”

Ye Hongchen faintly smiled. “Just like you clearly knew that the massacre of the information specialists was not my side’s doing but still dispatched your troops to attack me.... War, actually only needs one reason. Whether this reason is specific or not, or even is true or is false, is not important!”

Ye Hongchen’s gigantic silhouette abruptly released out an extreme magnificence which then blossomed out over the boundless horizon as a scarlet canopy that suddenly descended upon the world. This endless grand light subsequently became sword qi that overflowed the heavens, illuminating everything in sight.

Along with the grand light illuminating the world, the horizon again had a dragon roar and a phoenix cry appear.

Together counting no less than several thousands of meters, a huge azure dragon body suddenly appeared high in the clouds, charging strongly into the Western Sky camp. Almost at the same time, another creature with stature no less than several thousands of meters appeared, a white colored phoenix. Its whole body had an extremely sharp cry sound lingering on it as it dropped straight down into the Western Sky main forces!

Chapter 1920: Western Sky without an owner

Yu Luochen, Lei Weiqi, and Feng Nuchao, those three great peak powerhouses, directly engaged in battle. Gathering their origin and condensing their qi, the concentrated qi became another incarnation of a huge body. It welcomed the dragon and phoenix’s attack, both sides not saying anything further. Without asking anyone, they took action with a big hit, large enough to make the earth quake, the mountains shake, the rocks break, and the heavens be startled.

Again observing the big Western Sky's camp on this occasion, it was already completely enveloped by Ye Hongchen's sword qi that was wide enough to conceal the sky!

Meng Tianluo furiously took action, and directly shook towards Ye Hongchen. Both sides were closing the hundreds of li of space in this way. You send a punch towards me, I'll shake back a strong punch!

This one fist that started the battle forced the Sky King. Even though his heart was completely unwilling to fight resolutely with the other party, it was yet necessary for him to resolutely receive it!

This is the problem of his identity.

It is also the struggle of morale!

If the magnificent Sky King avoided receiving the other party's first fist, in that way, then was the big Western Sky's existence still necessary?

Therefore, Meng Tianluo clearly knew that although receiving this fist was bound to be very unpleasant, he could only brace himself to the extreme.

Why did his Divine Sense have to suffer damage right before this?

Otherwise, how would Ye Hongchen treat him as a pushover and be the first one to take action?!

Time, life, fortune!

Not right, this cut's source is clearly because of Wuzhen's death, this caused this emperor's Divine Sense and Origin Spirit indescribable damage!

Wuzhen that child, dead and gone, still must be a pit father!

Those two huge fists traveled across midair towards each other, and finally drew near and contacted!

However, this one moment of collision arrived to the extreme. Along with a huge boom, the boundary of the camp hundreds of li around beneath the confrontation immediately changed to become ashes, the sky similarly filled with dust!

Ye Hongchen's body only shook a bit, but Meng Tianluo actually shudderingly withdrew several hundred meters!

His majestic face immediately and suddenly became deathly pale.

Unexpectedly, he had already received an injury just from this fist!

This fight's result caused everyone to be indescribably amazed!

One era's Sky King, the Western Sky's great king, was equally as famous a character as Ye Hongchen was, how could this not help? Only, beginning with one fist, he already cuts this sorry of a figure?

Could it be that Big Mister Ye's cultivation level has unexpectedly already surpassed the level of the five great sky kings?

Zoom!

Ye Hongchen moved one step to cross a thousand li in a blink and arrived in front of Meng Tianluo.
“Meng Tianluo, your time can end here!”

Meng Tianluo’s face was gloomy, and he let out a despairing sigh.

His strength was largely damaged, and his soul was damaged, while the other party was actually at his peak time. This battle, no one needed to ask to know the result.

This fist one moment ago let Meng Tianluo feel very clearly that, even if he wasn’t damaged, he absolutely wasn’t Ye Hongchen’s match, so what about right now?

“Being able to use the Western Sky to help Brother Ye succeed in his matchless military glory, I can also dream of sharing this glory with you.” Meng Tianluo faintly smiled, and said, “Please! When all is said and done, this 100,000 years old match, having you, Ye Hongchen, send me off on the road, this Meng Tianluo has also not lived in vain as a hero!”

Underneath.

The Seven Golden Lotuses, together with over a hundred Undead Stage experts from their side, crashed into the middle of the big Western Sky’s camp like a pack of mad tigers.

...

This battle continued through the night.

As soon as daybreak arrived, the result was obvious.

The West side Sky King’s big army was thoroughly broken. First off, the Western Sky Prime Minister Yu Luo Chen perished under the joint assault of the azure dragon and white phoenix; next, Feng Nuchao then lost his life under the besiegement of the Seven Golden Lotuses; lastly, Lei Weiqi was first sneak attacked by Blood River and afterwards met with a deadly besiegement as well!

Up until now, the West side Sky King’s four great pillars of wind, thunder, rain, and lightning, had all fallen in just a few short days of time!

In addition, the big Western Sky’s subordinates above Undead Stage were all, without exception, searched out and beheaded. The Western side Sky King Meng Tianluo also suffered a crushing defeat under Ye Hongchen’s hands, and finally self-detonated his Origin Soul.

This battle, one of the five sides Sky Kings of the Human Realm Upon Heavens, Meng Tianluo, perished seven thousand li outside of the Limitless Ocean region’s territory!

Yes, Meng Tianluo of the five side Sky Kings perished. Even though the five sky kings’ bodies were glorious, and they rested at the summit, they still could die, and once they did they ceased to be like everything else!

Generally speaking, his death wasn’t like a common person’s though. In the moment of Meng Tianluo’s self-detonation, the Western Sky’s top had a huge bright star emitting an extreme magnificence. Afterwards, it dissipated, and dispersed to fill the whole sky with a resplendent and splendid but momentary light.

The big Western Sky of the five sides skies henceforth became ownerless land!

This one battle expedition's course of events went unexpectedly smoothly. The alliance army couldn't really be regarded as an alliance, and the remaining four sides skies didn't have a single person come to assist. As long as they had another side take action, it would have been impossible for Big Mister Ye and the powerhouses with him to so smoothly annihilate the big Western Sky's army in this fashion!

Unfortunately, the fact was that the other four side Sky Kings didn't meddle in the affair from start to finish. They sat and watched as Ye Hongchen defeated the big Western Sky, not knowing how they should comment.

In the East side Sky King's temporary imperial residence, the Sky King and Sky Queen erupted in a long and intense dispute.

No, it should be said that Sky Queen Meng Huaiqing and Eastern Sky big king Bai Yutian had already exceeded the category of a dispute. They were almost at the point of drawing weapons to face each other.

"Why didn't you go to rescue him? Why? You said you would do something for me, ah!" Meng Huaiqing had almost gone insane. West side Sky King Meng Tianluo was her closely related blood brother. His dynasty's soldiers were defeated and his body had died. Her husband was obviously close at hand and only had to help out. If he had, then not to mention saving the losing battle, but he could at least be able to defend him enough to not have him die. However, her husband watched from start to finish with folded arms, sat there and watched as her family's elder brother was defeated and killed.

This reality caused Meng Huaiqing to directly burst with rage. After obtaining this information, at the first moment, she had rushed out from the Imperial Palace towards this side. Even further, she had combusted her True Origin in an extreme way, ripping apart layer upon layer of space to hurry and arrive at the Limitless Ocean. But, no matter if she had rushed urgently or rushed slowly, by the time that she had heard the news, the war situation had already completely finished and the curtain had dropped. The West side Sky King had perished, and that was already an established fact.

"Qing'er, you have to know that there are some regulations you can break, but there are indeed some regulations that you absolutely cannot touch! Since he violated taboo, then he had to pay the price, no matter what person it was there is no exception!" Bai Yutian's face was quiet and tired as he sighed.

"This battle, I was unable to take action!"

"Don't say this pompous nonsense to me, I want to hear the truth!" Meng Huaiqing's two eyes were very red.

"This precisely is the truth. Put yourself in someone else's place and think for a moment. If Ye Hongchen became unable to defeat us and chose to circumvent us, going to arrive at the Eastern Sky Imperial Palace and swapping over to putting his hand to our descendants and offspring, are you able to accept this kind of consequence? Are you willing to accept?"

Bai Yutian's face was closely packed with helplessness. "We are unable to accept this, and even further are not willing to accept. Therefore, touching this taboo, Meng Tianluo must necessarily pay the price!"

“There’s no one who can touch this taboo and not pay the price, even if one is a Sky King there is no exception!”

“Precisely because of this reason, we weren’t able to get involved in this battle. If We did get involved in the middle of it, it would be making our standpoint clear, and expressing our acquiescence and favor of Meng Tianluo’s doings. That way, Ye Hongchen would immediately withdraw from the battlefield and command the Seven Golden Lotuses and others to target our rear side and destroy!”

Bai Yutian said, “If this happened, who would be able to prevent it? Would you be happy to see this sort of consequence? It’s not that I don’t know that it’s hard for you to bear, but... this is the bottom line of our sort of people, a bottom line that absolutely cannot be touched!”

Bai Yutian’s words caused Meng Huaqing’s whole heart to be filled with anger. It didn’t unburden her heart in the least.
