Chapter 1921: He is a hero, you are ruthless

Yes, if the situation really evolved in this way, then with Big Mister Ye's strength, if he went to the rear of the world to destroy... the result really is just too horrible to contemplate, so much so that no one dared to imagine exactly how rotten the situation would be!

Ye Hongchen's present strength was at peak capability, plus he still had his old powerhouse brothers and friends. From clear turning obscure, setting one's heart on surreptitiously destroying instead of fighting with you directly hand to hand, this would definitely make the five side Sky Kings strongly join hands and act sincerely together with unprecedented solidarity. However, their disciples would have no alternative but to sigh and helplessly report!

This kind of price indeed didn't have any person who was willing to see it, and even more didn't have a person who could bear to withstand it!

"Ye Hongchen, I vow to the heavens, I must kill you!"

Meng Huaqing's raving voice made the sky above the Limitless Ocean tremble.

Ye Hongchen naturally had no way of not hearing this, but with regards to this voice, he merely gave a slight smile in return.

Kill me?

The people who want to kill me really are very many. Just relying on you, Meng Huaqing, the Eastern Sky Queen, you had better get in line and take a number!

"Big Western Sky's destruction!" House of Chaotic Storms' Young Master Bai was originally in the process of setting out to arrange his operations and abruptly heard this piece of news arrive!

Young Master Bai's countenance immediately slightly changed.

Wan'er and Xiu'er followed him with eyes that suddenly grew wide.

The original intention of Young Master's action was only to use a wave to push the boat along with the current, taking advantage of the situation and muddying the waters. How... How did the Western Sky suddenly cease to exist?

Isn't this a little too sudden?!

That is indeed one of the five side skies that had been standing strong for more than 100,000 years, ah!

"Notify all the House's subordinates at the highest speed, cease all movements and immediately return to one's unit. If they haven't obtained a step further's assignment, no one should have any sort of movement whatsoever!" Bai Chen issued his first order with a calm face.

"Yes."

“Have you found out clearly where that other batch of troops came from when we were targeting the Ye Family forces the day before?” Bai Chen’s gaze was flickering.

“We haven’t. These people apparently fell out of the sky. Up until now we still don’t have the slightest bit of information disseminated on them. Compared to us, they were even a step earlier to hide and escape in their surroundings, waiting for an opportunity to move. Finding the window of opportunity first, it’s enough to cause a person to exclaim in admiration...” Xiu’er bitterly laughed.

Bai Chen contemplated for a moment, and slowly nodded, seemingly approving Xiu’er’s judgement.

After the defeat of the Western Sky’s soldiers, Bai Chen took advantage of the time accurately, and sent his subordinates to perform a sneak attack on the Ye Family forces’ base camp station. Overnight, they got rid of the whole of the Ye Family forces!

Bai Chen had calculated that, at this time, the Ye Family forces base camp station wouldn’t have any old established peak powerhouses overseeing it. No matter if it was Big Mister Ye, the Seven Golden Lotuses, or even Blood River and friends, they would all be recovering. After all, in the big battle with the big Western Sky’s forces before, the damage they had received was not small, and at the very least a large consumption of Origin Qi was unavoidable. Although the Ye Family forces main camp was known to have a great number of talents among their members and was a big army station, the fact was that it was surrounding the weakest members of Heaven’s Leaf. Because they were constituted completely of the Ye Family’s clan members and the Seven Lotus Clans direct line of descendants, the powerhouses on all sides had formed a tacit approval of the unwritten regulations, marking it a family member area. They must not move against this extraordinary rule to extinguish their battle strength!

But, it was also this unwritten regulation that gave Bai Chen an opportunity to exploit, thereby drawing Heaven’s Leaf into launching another attack on the big Western Sky!

At this time, Bai Chen was fundamentally unafraid of someone discovering that something was strange. Just before the action, Bai Chen actually said, “The five sides Sky Kings clearly knew before that their information personnel weren’t killed by Ye Hongchen and the Seven Golden Lotuses, but they still dispatched their main armies. That they wanted to eliminate Heaven’s Leaf was abundantly clear! They only needed this one excuse, the definite reason why was not important!”

“But right now because of Ye Xiao’s chaotic interference, they have been defeated and dispersed for ten thousand li. No matter the influence and strength, they all unprecedentedly underestimated them. Especially the Western Sky’s Sky King Meng Tianluo himself. Because he didn’t ever appear personally, it’s extremely possible that it’s because he suffered some kind of damage. It could be the number one assassin Blood River’s plot, or perhaps some other kind of reason. In any case, his strength was not whole. To Ye Hongchen, this could be said to be a golden opportunity bestowed by the heavens, and he had no time to lose. After all, if one gave the Western Sky’s Sky King a chance to recover, then next time he would return in a swirl of dust, making a huge comeback, and one would pay an even more disastrous price! However, because of Ye Hongchen’s identity, it’s also not possible for him to take action at this time. Because he had already defeated the other side’s soldiers, and even further had caused them to disperse for tens of thousands of li, in this time period, ferociously chasing after the cornered enemy would actually be touching their bottom line. It’s extremely possible that it would give rise to the other four side skies’ intimately interdependent anger towards a common enemy... For Ye Hongchen, the gains undoubtedly don't make up for the losses. But conversely, if big Western Sky is the first one to violate the bottom line, he finally has an excuse to set about attacking!"

"And we will be the ones to make this excuse for him to take action!"

"In other words, our way of handling this is actually handing a knife over into Ye Hongchen's hands. If Big Mister Ye doesn't use it, it's just foolish, and his great ambitions of the time of breaking heaven were all in vain."

This is what Bai Chen had originally said before the operation.

But even Bai Chen hadn't thought that Big Mister Ye's course of action would be unexpectedly so decisive!

The unexpected result of this battle was the complete uprooting of the power of the Western Sky's big king, killing them down to the last man!

This even included the Western Sky's big king, Meng Tianluo, who also perished in the middle of this battle!

This battle of the century had unexpectedly just barely pulled open the curtains, and already there was one side's Sky King conveniently finished off in this large scale production!

Birth of the No. 1 convenient king!

"Xiu'er, you said at that time, another side's soldiers got involved..." Bai Chen knit his brows and contemplated. "Could it maybe have been... Ye Xiao's people?"

Xiu'er knitted her graceful brows and thought for a time. She said, "Young Master's doubts are something that Wan'er and I previously shared with you, but... once we considered it further, we think that it shouldn't be Ye Xiao's people."

Bai Chen faintly smiled, and said, "Why? State your considerations!"

Xiu'er carefully peeked at Bai Chen's complexion, and drumming up her courage, started to speak. "The world is in chaos as people contend for supremacy. By hook or by crook, it's completely unscrupulous to conduct oneself as you would originally. Your whole life you've said that if Ye Xiao were able to do this, although it wouldn't make him blameless, it would be forgivable... However... with our understanding of Ye Xiao, it's not even his habitual first road to take, but isn't even a possibility that exists."

Bai Chen smiled. "Oh?"

"In the past, Young Master has already had us reflect many times on what happened in the Lower Realms. With our history and ways of the world, we are accustomed to seeing countless lives. Regarding the understanding of human nature, our Human Realm Upon Heavens' native cultivators are actually too much stronger than those of the Lower Realms. In the past, we didn't always think this way, and thus along with our cultivation level advancing day by day, we came to realize the benefits of this as we experienced these lives. Our judgement of Ye Xiao is also precisely because of this... Young Master himself is an unrivalled hero, planning strategies to obtain victory over the whole world. However, one aspect of your character that has never lapsed was a decisiveness to kill and cut down, so much so that you are the best at exploiting every possible condition to make the situation advantageous to us. But Ye Xiao is actually the other sort of person... Even if doing so would clearly be advantageous, in the end he would contrarily not abandon people in the end. Therefore, our definition of Ye Xiao is that, beneath the surface, he is precisely a man's man."

Xiu'er bit her lips, continuing. "An even more dignified way of saying this is that Ye Xiao is a hero. He possibly has the talent to become a formidable and ruthless person, but he only behaves like a hero. Therefore, in these sorts of matters, it could even be said that he is impossibly stupid!"

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1922: Imperial Guards Return

Bai Chen gave a big laugh in a flash of understanding. "Xiu'er, this open praise and secret disdain, open disdain and secret praise of yours is becoming perfected the more time goes on. You just directly said that Young Master would attain his goal by hook or by crook, why should you still need to take a turn like that? Furthermore, you can just directly say, I, the Young Master, am precisely a matchless formidable and ruthless character, and Ye Xiao is actually a matchless hero! In our eyes, this so-called matchless hero really does choose to make many impossibly stupid actions, hahaha..."

Xiu'er's bright and beautiful eyes blinked a time. "Young Master, this evaluation of my considerable assessment, sure enough painstakingly fine and detailed, Xiu'er thinks that it isn't as good as yours comparatively, I'm completely ashamed."

Bai Chen laughed uproariously, and suddenly embraced Xiu'er, fiercely saying, "Xiu'er actually dares to slander this Young Master, I must heavily punish you, this mouth that said it was completely ashamed is not okay, I must give you a severe punishment to make you appropriately and genuinely completely ashamed!"

As he finished saying this, he sealed Xiu'er's cultivation level and directly entered the bedroom with her in his embrace.

"Wan'er, save me..." Xiu'er's cry for help could actively be heard.

Wan'er's whole face flushed red, and her eyes turned. With a sigh, she escaped without a trace...

Another side.

Ye Xiao looked at the disorderly casualties. He couldn't help but have a deep and profound sigh in his heart.

He originally knew that this day would come in the end, but... he didn't expect that it would arrive this unexpectedly quickly!

Mo Feiyun and the others went to the limits of their strength to save people, but because they weren't allowed to expose their identities, even if they had prepared in advance and hid long ago, they were only able to save five people in the end and nothing more.

Old Man Qi and Old Man Ju actually unfortunately died, and from now on yin and yang strangers.

(TLN: as near as I can tell this is a shortening of the phrase: from now on yin and yang these two are apart, when we meet again we will be strangers.)

The old friends departed from this life. Ye Xiao couldn't help but think about the years that he got along with Old Man Ju, and for a moment he was sad and dejected.

Actually, there was more than just the departed Old Ju and Old Qi. The five men who luckily survived were similarly in bad shape, and they all remained unconscious, their bodies riddled with scars. It really was a tragic sight. If not for Mo Feiyun and the others carrying Ye Xiao's Spirit Medicine in bulk, those five men might not have been capable of surviving!

Fortunately, the majority of the important later generations of the seven big family clans were secretly shifted out before by Ye Xiao during those few days. Generally speaking, although the seven big family clans had inevitably suffered serious injury, they didn't yet have a fundamentally final injury.

In contrast, the actually genuinely miserable ones were Heaven's Leaf... Without exception, the entire Ye Family clan's bloodline was stationed there, and they were truly dead without a single one remaining, having cut the weeds and eliminated the roots.

Ye Xiao genuinely hadn't considered this point. Rather, he absolutely hadn't thought that Ye Hongchen, this world-shakingly famous for a hundred thousand years' Big Mister Ye, would not have prepared even a little bit behind the scenes to protect his later generations!

Ye Xiao believed that this kind of iconic military fortification of the Ye Family forces must sooner or later be the target of being wiped out, and that it was no more than a question of whether it was sooner or later. Yet, among every family's direct line of descent, surely Ye Hongchen and the Seven Golden Lotus wouldn't always sit by and not be concerned?!

Ye Xiao's preparations were at most simply adding flowers to brocade, improving upon perfection and providing the crowning touch. Arriving at that time would simply be out of good intentions for an old friend!

But something he hadn't thought of had come to pass. This group of old fogies... seriously were unconcerned?!

This person who was only prepared to add flowers to brocade truly became someone to genuinely deliver charcoal in the middle of the snow! (TLN: providing help in the hour of need)

However, this result caused Ye Xiao to be all the more bitterly disappointed.

Even if the flames of battle were developing more and more fiercely, gradually permeating the whole Human Realm Upon Heavens, the Life and Death Hall's tree fortress remained the safest place in the world. Originally, the people in the vicinity of it were still able to have their hearts remain smooth and steady!

However, for the Eastern Sky Imperial Guard members who had been staying in front of the gates of the Life and Death tree fortress for quite some time now, their hearts were currently fluctuating wildly, anxious and hard to calm down.

The Human Realm Upon Heavens has comprehensively started to battle, what course should we follow now?

On top of that, from beginning to end they hadn't had a single command come down. This... what to do?

If Ye Xiao had stayed like he had in the past, remaining completely neutral and not taking action, the group of Eastern Sky imperial guards could have continued to pass their days smoothly and steadily. After all, the Monarch's Hall wasn't involved in the war matters, and even though there was a centuries-large battle outside, as long as no one destroyed the sect, everyone just continued to be amusingly free and unfettered.

It was especially so that residing in the surroundings of the tree fortress to protect Miss Yeyue nearby would be better said to be a big opportunity instead. Cultivating in this area was absolutely better than cultivating in a so-called heavenly paradise. The group of Eastern Sky imperial guards had, on average, progressed by a level of strength or more during this time. This kind of peaceful, smooth and steady environment in addition to the holy land atmosphere, they would be stupid if they disliked spending even 1800 years there!

However, right now the situation had already radically changed. First, Ye Xiao had gotten involved in the century-large battle, and his neutral identity was lost. Even further, he had joined hands with Heaven's Leaf together to perform a joint strike at the big Western Sky, causing the big Western Sky to arrive luckily at a defeat. Both sides already had no margin for error. No matter what, the West side Sky King was precisely the blood brother of the Sky Queen. They could only say that Ye Xiao joining hands with Heaven's Leaf was equivalent to finding oneself on the opposite side of the Eastern Sky.

Because of this kind of identity's standpoint, the group of Eastern Sky imperial guards couldn't help but feel awkward. In any event, they shouldn't be helping to guard the Monarch's Hall's front gate. Even if they still regarded themselves as guarding the gate, would the other side be able to trust them?!

Finally, Su Yeyue came out to clear up the matter. "You all go ahead and head back. I will stay here and accompany Ye Xiao. Ye Xiao is my husband, and even if it is dangerous he will also protect me. You all from beginning to end are the Eastern Sky Imperial Guard, and you have inseparable ties with the Eastern Sky. In this conflict for the whole world, perhaps we will also come into a conflicting position... You all staying here will only make things even more difficult to manage. It would be better to leave as early as possible and return to the Eastern Sky to report on the completion of your mission. This kind of impossible situation where advance and retreat are both hard naturally cannot continue."

The little girl Su Yeyue's words caused those people to fall silent.

Miss Yeyue's words are very reasonable. Right now, the whole world is in chaos. Along with the Monarch's Hall's Monarch Ye entering the battle, the towering meaning of this event already cannot be concealed. Clearly a conflict of positions has already started to appear, and along with time passing, the conflict will only continue to escalate. How would they deal with this?

Since it was like this, they might as well directly go to the Eastern Sky army. Even if they died, they would be able to die with their hearts at peace.

A good long time later, the leader of the group of Eastern Sky imperial guards issued out an order, leading his force to strike camp and return.

Watching this group of people's banner gently sway as they walked off into the distance, Su Yeyue had a sour feeling echo in her heart.

Yes, in the future... what should I do?

Right now... apart from relying completely on Ye Xiao, I truly have no other place to go in the Human Realm Upon Heavens...

The little girl stood there in a daze, her state of mind blank for a time.

"Girl, what are you thinking of? Your expression is rather strange?" Ye Xiao's voice came through.

Hearing this familiar clear and sonorous voice, Su Yeyue's many trains of thought abruptly came to a halt and she relaxed. Yes, ah, I only must stay at Big Brother Ye Xiao's side. I... what am I afraid of?

Her lovable and delicate body slowly leaned over and entered Ye Xiao's embrace. Su Yeyue showed a rarely seen trace of weakness. "Big Brother Ye Xiao, I was thinking that it has really been a good long time since I have seen Father and Mother..."

Chapter 1923: 1923: Monarch goes to war

Ye Xiao quietly said, "As soon as we finish fighting this war, we'll go return back to see them. Indeed we should go back and pay respects to Mother-in-law and Father-in-law."

"En." The little girl's faintly red face cuddled into Ye Xiao's chest. As she watched her guard troops leave, she could hear the sound of Ye Xiao's heartbeat thumping behind her head, and she felt that she was supremely happy and content.

...

"Monarch's Hall, prepare for war!"

"Bu Xiangfeng!"

"Subordinate present!"

"Battlefield law enforcement is for you to wield. His words are law, if he orders you go, if he forbids you stop. If you neglect the army commanders, kill without mercy."

"Yes!"

"Meng Youjiang!"

"Present!"

“Battle Hall subordinates, Dragon, Tiger, Ox, Horse, Sheep, Monkey, these six halls are now under your total authority to command. These will act as the Monarch’s Hall’s main force vanguard!”

“Chi Huo!”

“Present!”

“The three assassination halls are now under your command to deploy. Your duty is to assault fortified positions and ambush, rigorously take note of the battlefield’s enemy movements...”

“Flower King! The three information halls are now under your command!”

“Mo Feiyun!”

“It is up to you to command the Brotherhood’s former subordinates. Continue gathering up the former subordinates of the Brotherhood from all over the world. You are our reinforcements, you will reside in the middle to support, and use your discretion to attack!”

“Qiu Luo, White Dragon, Black Demon, Seven Stars!”

“Present!”

“You will wait and follow by my side, together we’ll campaign across the Human Realm!”

“Yes!”

The vigor and imposing manner of the Monarch’s Hall broke through the skies at this moment!

It really is already not just one cry, but one cry to startle the world; already not just flying, but soaring!

Everyone in the Monarch’s Hall was regarded as an individual, and everyone had prepared for a long time. Their body strength had already been promoted and arrived to a height that even they were unable to imagine. Even now that the day had come and they had been assigned as subordinates to their leaders, if they weren’t excited and joyful, then they had just seen a ghost!

Mo Feiyun quietly arrived at Ye Xiao’s side.

After entering the Monarch’s Hall, Mo Feiyun was anxious all along. Originally, he didn’t know whether or not the main part of the Brotherhood that followed him would be treated as cannon fodder.

However, hearing Ye Xiao’s arrangement come to an end, Mo Feiyun felt a bit of an uneasy and oily feeling in his heart.

“Sir Monarch.”

“En?”

“Regarding Sir Monarch’s arrangements... The Brotherhood’s strength still has quite a few components... Merely serving as support in the middle is, generally speaking, not sufficient to let us really show our strength. Sir Monarch, is it possible to show some consideration to us... This, our brothers all feel in our hearts that you regard us as important and care about us. In light of this, we think that your care should let us put in our utmost mental and physical efforts, and then and only then is it good...”

“Feiyun, you really think too much. The missions I assigned were only for assigning the Monarch’s Hall’s brothers, not for giving missions to another faction of people!” Ye Xiao said in a heavy voice.

“Yes!” Mo Feiyun was apprehensive in his heart.

Since he had commanded the Brotherhood’s many brothers to attach oneself to the Monarch’s Hall, there was still a strong division between the Monarch’s Hall and the Brotherhood. Sure enough, it was a big dread that Ye Xiao was currently pointing out rather bluntly. On the one hand, he was drawing attention to his aspiration, and on the other hand he was actually giving advice to himself. He didn’t want to make a similar offending error again, and his mentality still had problems since the last time!

“Furthermore, residing in the middle to support... is the same as entrusting you with a heavy responsibility.” Ye Xiao said, “You need to understand that the enemy we are facing is the very strongest enemy under this sky! Moreover, we aren’t limited to only one side’s enemy.”

“At least in my opinion, residing in the middle to support is actually the most challenging and hardest job of the utmost importance. To carry out the responsibility in between, you not only have to control the overall situation and accurately analyze current events, but you also have to be ready to attack at any moment, constantly playing a supporting role. There cannot be the slightest bit of disorder emerging!

Even further, you cannot be affected by whatsoever bit of chaos that might influence your proper decision. In particular, when you need to support by attacking, you usually are confronted with a situation where we are precisely on the verge of utter defeat! If we on the front lines stay at the apex, how would you need to take the chance to attack and support? On the other hand, during the time when we actually need your assistance to attack, it would seriously be a life or death live or die juncture.”

“Even this isn’t the most challenging, most arduous place. You must know that other people are only concentrating on one side, engrossed in oneself as the protagonist. But you, on the contrary, are observing not only the whole battlefield but also the entire war situation! At any time you must be capable of issuing an analysis and judgement, to give the most timely and effective assistance!” Ye Xiao said, “In this kind of atmosphere, you naturally need an old schemer with deep calculating ability. This person must have ample war experience, and even further must be absolutely calm, wise, and farsighted. Then and only then can they be up to the task!”

“Taking a broad view of our Monarch’s Hall, there are only four people who have these kind of qualifications, and no more. Me, Flower King, Xuan Bing, and... you!”

“Flower King has another important position to be in, and Xuan Bing must also be with me at my side. As a result, you, Feiyun, became this link’s sole and only candidate! Naturally, apart from your aptitude in this position, I also believe that you would be even more skilled at the job of commanding the original Brotherhood’s former subordinates. You’re absolutely the most suitable for the job compared to anyone else.

Ye Xiao’s vision was deep as he looked at Mo Feiyun. “Feiyun, you’re shouldering a heavy burden, I don’t want you to disappoint me!”

Mo Feiyun’s spirit was suddenly roused. “Yes!”

“A large quantity of the Monarch’s Hall’s manpower has already moved out of the tree fortress one by one!”

“The Monarch’s Hall, headed by Ye Xiao, has already surpassed ninety percent or more of the manpower having left the tree fortress. Soon after, they then scattered and went. Apparently they had prepared long ago and already had each person’s target location set, because the whole process took way too short of a duration, to the extent that we were incapable of following their trail...”

This information rapidly spread out to the four side skies and also the House of Chaotic Storms!

“The Monarch’s Hall’s main component of their manpower, how strong are they?”

What the Sky Kings were paying attention to the most was still those final four words.

“According to the former information, the Monarch’s Hall, after fighting with the Hall of Returning Nature on that day, had their strength acutely extinguished. The whole hall’s manpower only counted around 110 at the peak of that. The upper limit was also just six or seven thousand people, even though they had holed up in the Life and Death Hall’s tree fortress for some years. Therefore, their actual strength assessment was directly not that high. Even when they came into contact with the Hall of Returning Nature as a Jianghu organization it was not much different from breaking a halberd in heavy sand. When this point came down, even if their comprehensive strength had been somewhat raised, how much would they be able to improve... But just now, the main portion of their manpower appeared in an instant, and the image painted could be said to be one of horror. Altogether the Monarch’s Hall had less than 10,000 people, but included among these people were Undead Stage cultivators... just 5,000 or more of them!”

“Other than that, fewer than 3,000 were Eternal Life Stage cultivators, but not a single person had a strength lower than level 9 peak.”

“The remaining people had an even higher cultivation level, and our subordinates were unable to put out accurate readings...”

“To sum up, the Monarch’s Hall’s actual battle strength that they possess by far exceeds imagination. In the end, its inside information has arrived at an unusual level, exciting a person to hear it!”

Similar information to each of the four side Sky Kings caused them all to simultaneously shiver and change color!

More than 5,000 Undead Stage experts?

5,000?

Even if it was one side sky, wouldn't it be pretty good if they could gather together such a huge lineup of Undead Stage cultivators?!

One tiny Monarch's Hall, however, managed to possess this strong of a strength? How was this possible?

If they seriously had this kind of strength, then how was it possible for them to be so oppressed by the Hall of Returning Nature on that day!

Again thinking one layer deeper, if this lineup seriously was the survivors from that battle those years ago who had been promoted to a higher position, this, this already wasn't just exciting someone just to hear it, but was a horror of ten thousand accusations, enough to shake the heart and move the soul! Deranged, even?

Never mind, that already isn't the current important point, the current important point is...

If this portion of strength enters the battlefield, and if they're on the opposite side of us...

In view of this, all the parties immediately convened their own urgent conferences, discussing their response and tactics. Everyone's faces were grave, each and every person looking as if a big rival had arrived!

Chapter 1924: Someone knocks on the door

Ye Xiao stood in front of the Monarch's Hall's gate, and lightly relaxed for a breath.

On this occasion, he only had a few people at his side.

Black Demon, White Dragon, Qiu Luo, Jun Yinglian, Xuan Bing, Su Yeyue, Yue Shuang, Yue Han, and the Seven Stars Battle Generals.

Including Ye Xiao, there were only these mentioned 16 people.

But these 16 people's strength was still universally shocking enough!

"Finally... it's over." Ye Xiao lightly smiled.

"It's over? What's over?" Jun Yinglian asked.

"This tormenting stage of sheltering in the Life and Death Hall all day long is finally over." Ye Xiao bitterly laughed.

Wanting to succeed, it's inevitable that you must pay a price. If you want to have remarkable progress, you naturally must have an equivalent exchange. Jun Yinglian and the others hadn't found themselves situated in Ye Xiao's position, and naturally didn't know or understand Ye Xiao's bitter experience of the past few years. Right now, the Monarch's Hall's whole personnel had stopped cultivating, and for Ye Xiao, that was the same as being relieved from a heavy burden off his mind.

In this insignificant several years of time, the Monarch's Hall had over 5,000 people promoted to Undead Stage. This sort of advancement couldn't have been accomplished by only relying on concentrating fully on cultivation and cultivating in a holy land. There was still Ye Xiao giving out countless Spirit Medicines, which he had pressed Erhuo into changing into a huge volume of Dan Cloud godly pills.

In only one year, they consumed no less than millions of Dan Cloud level Spirit Pills.

If not for Ye Xiao's dedicated thought that he possessed from beginning to end, he fundamentally just wouldn't have achieved his current heights! His thought was: for all people's cultivation level as a whole promote to Undead Stage in the Monarch's Hall!

However the facts showed that his opinion was actually wrong. People's strength was sometimes exhausted, some people's aptitudes were actually subpar. Even though he had many heavy cheating tools as a driving force to constantly urge them, they still remained halted at Eternal Life Stage peak!

Wanting to promote another step in the short term absolutely wasn't possible.

He really didn't have a few people who stopped making progress after arriving at a certain degree. Even if they continued taking Dan Cloud godly pills, they still couldn't advance, so much so that some had already had a momentary cultivation backlash phenomenon.

Ye Xiao knew that these people's potentials were already currently displayed to their peak. All the accumulation in the background had gone to the limit, and the entire person's strength had seriously already gone to this life's peak. It was absolutely hard to have another advancement!

So much so that, along with time elapsing, the quality of their health declining, and other indications of decline that appeared year after year... there was nothing to be done about this matter. When cultivation level had not yet arrived at the Undead Stage, in the end one must face the cycle of Samsara, living, ageing, getting sick and dying. It was unavoidable for everyone.

In those years, Chi Huo was actually in just this kind of situation. It's just that Chi Huo was very fortunate, and met Ye Xiao. He then succeeded in breaking through the Undead Stage!

As certain Monarch's Hall members had already arrived at the peak, and at least in the short term it would be hard to have any more big breakthroughs, Ye Xiao finally put the hammer down on his decision, and declared that they would jointly go out of seclusion!

Using the strongest strength, the strongest lineup, the strongest attack, they would go to the extremes of this life's most extreme strength and go all out, painting this world in the most magnificent fireworks!

"Seven thousand Undead!"

Ye Xiao's heart could even be said to be filled with magnificent aspirations.

This undead legion of his subordinates were in the strictest sense better than any ordinary Undead Stage cultivators, and had the advantage.

Because the Monarch's Hall's members each had a blood contract with the Life and Death Hall, no matter where everyone walked to, and whatever the local speed of taking in spiritual energy, they would still receive the influence of the Life and Death Hall. Regardless of whether it was supplying one's own cultivation practice, recovering Yuan Qi, or replenishing battle strength, they were all absolutely better at it than usual Undead Stage cultivators.

Don't even forget to mention that everyone was still allocated a supply of Dan Cloud level spirit pills.

Therefore, Ye Xiao's undead legion was perhaps the truest sense of an undead legion!

Ye Xiao also thought about it. Those personnel who had stopped at Eternal Life Stage level 9 were limited to their own aptitudes and natural gifts. Simple cultivation practice was surely not enough to push them over that final hurdle. He might as well just let them throw themselves into this battle of the century. Real combat is also another big gateway to cultivating enlightenment. This opportunity was heaven sent. With self-control, perhaps this extreme battle was just heaven showing those less than 3,000 people another opportunity!

Fate, this plaything, followed the same way that words did. You can also say, or rather instead can say, that it is still very profound and mysterious!

"As all living things wish for strength, push above my clear skies!"

Ye Xiao's eyes were gazing out into the distance, apparently looking at the wide and vast world outside of that clear sky.

This one step still came in the end.

"If I don't succeed, then together with my many brothers I will smile as I lie on the battlefield. If I can succeed, then when I depart, I must give you the seat as the dominators and overlords of the whole world. The picturesque landscape, the nine heavens of the world of mortals, from age to age glory and splendor, honorable nobles for ten thousand generations!"

Ye Xiao soared high into the sky and rose up, his suit of white clothes fluttering. He folded his hands behind his back, his appearance awesome, handsome, clear and bright. He was absolutely graceful above the world of mortals.

Behind him following were clothes whiter than snow's Jun Yinglian, clothes blacker than ink's Xuan Bing, the rainbow and flowery clothes of Su Yeyue, the light yellow dresses of Yue Shuang and Yue Han, and again following's Black Demon, White Dragon, Qiu Luo, and the Seven Stars all dressed in purple robes. They all looked out uprightly, unabashedly and disdainfully askance.

At this moment, everyone brought together by fate to see this scene of people were destined to be unable to forget it for the rest of their time in this world.

This situation is publicly known as the most beautiful and most splendid scene of the Chaotic City by its residents!

Ye Xiao waved his sleeves, right about to turn around and leave, but he suddenly had felt that, from somewhere underneath, someone was gazing at him deeply.

Ye Xiao's heart abruptly moved. The next moment, his whole body disappeared in midair.

Xi Xue and Bai Fai, those two Glaze Sky consecrates, both had a sort of elderly decrepit appearance as they watched Her Highness the princess's deep emotions as she stood in a daze gazing at that imposing figure. They both felt powerless.

Those two consecrates were regarded as powerhouses of the present age, and had also seen many worldly affairs and experienced their generation. How could they not see that this Princess Bing Xin, Her Highness, was unexpectedly feeling that kind of deeply rooted sentiment that was hard to free oneself from for that Ye Xiao, Monarch Ye?

Although both people completely couldn't comprehend how Princess Bing Xin took a fancy for that pretty boy. Princess Bing Xin just returned back to the Human Realm not all that long ago, and since she had left the two of them had been following her the whole time. Her parents could assert that Bing Xin should never have seen Ye Xiao's face, how could she have these kind of deep-rooted feelings!

Moreover the situation was still getting even more and more critical. Right now, even if it was just being able to gaze upon him from afar, only being able to experience the other party's existence, she was also a glutton for punishment.

Such a deep feeling completely without a cause, with no complaints and no regrets, deeply devoted, but... the other party had absolutely no clue, how was that good?!

The two consecrates' hearts were extremely complex, and they were also puzzled. When had Her Highness the princess previously seen this Lord of the Monarch's Hall? How can her feelings be as deep for her to go so far as this?! Princess, I'm afraid that perhaps your infatuation is futile, ah!

The figure in midair suddenly disappeared without a trace, and Her Highness the princess also finally lowered her head, taking back her vision.

Only the corners of her mouth were still exposing a trace of a gentle smile.

He is good.

I'm very relieved.

Jun Yinglian, Grand Elder Xuan Bing, Yue Shuang and Yue Han, they're all at his side, I'm very happy.

Since he's happy... then... I'm also just very happy...

Just at this time.

"Thump thump thump thump."

The main gate which had always been tightly closed suddenly had someone raising the alarm.

Chapter 1925: 1925: It's you?

The two consecrates quickly raised their heads, their eyes both entirely bewildered and unsure.

Although the two consecrates' cultivation levels were extremely near the top, they also had three people on their side to face the enemy's strength. However, the fact that Her Highness the princess was here was a secret that absolutely wasn't permitted for outsiders to know.

Who was this person who came outside?

Could it be that they mistakenly knocked on the wrong door?

If they knocked on the wrong door that was good, if it was some other reason, perhaps they had someone on their tail!

A somewhat short while ago, the door again had a knock echo from it. The arrived person's rhythm of knocking the door was not urgent nor slow, not relaxed nor delayed, as if the person's patience was rather good. There was only a slight hint that this person didn't have an urging heart!

But this also represented that the other party had an incredible amount of confidence in themselves. They dared to give the other side preparation time for contingencies!

The two consecrates fiercely stood up, shooting each other meaningful glances: if the newcomer is an enemy, it certainly won't be an easy one, so if I'm unable to rapidly subdue the enemy and control the victory, then while I'm obstructing them you bring the princess and go first!

This was a dangerous moment when the soldiers were in the vicious battlefield. They definitely couldn't let the princess fall into other influence's hands at this crucial moment.

The two consecrates were both Undead Stage peak experts. Each individual was able to move unhindered across the whole world as smiling and proud old brand Jianghu powerhouses. However, the current chaotic situation in the Limitless Ocean had already arrived at an unprecedented stage of crisis. Even though these two were Undead Stage peak powerhouses, they also didn't have the slightest sense of security, so much so that they didn't have too much certainty!

The two elderlies' Zi Xue quietly stood up and gradually ambled along towards the door, obviously guarding against whatever was on the other side.

It's not strange that the two elderlies would take these sorts of precautions. The two people's cultivation level had already arrived at the top. If the other party hadn't arrived in secret, then they still wouldn't be so agitated, but they hadn't felt the arrival of the outsider at all.

That already said clearly that... this person outside's cultivation level had, at least, arrived at the Eternal Stage level!

Zi Xue's senile appearance gradually disappeared step by step as she slowly walked forward. It was nearly one different appearance per step, one different image with every step forward. The new image removed and replaced the old, and it completely had a strict, severe qi associated with it, as well as... that original, exceptional magnificence!

No more than a few short tens of steps' path, this one person went from ageing past one's prime years to contacting the prime of one's youth period in walking over. It was only through these tens of steps of time, but this person had already unloaded all the burdens of her life's hardships, again returning to her youthful years!

The big door strugglingly opened.

As her eyes caught sight of what was outside, Zi Xue stopped and blankly stared for a moment.

Just outside the door was actually a white clothed youth. The arrived person's long body stood handsome like jade, with sword eyebrows and starry eyes. With an elegant appearance and a warm smile on the corner of his mouth, he harmoniously said, "It's an old friend paying a visit, senior doesn't need to mind too much."

"Monarch Ye?!" Zi Xue suddenly screeched. This time, she only felt that the middle of her brain was blank.

Ye Xiao was clearly just still up in the sky, how did he suddenly come over and arrive here?

Ye Xiao looked in from the entrance, and could only see a beautiful purple clothed woman in front of him with a head full of purple hair. She was charming, beyond the beauty of a fragrant flower, and gorgeous beyond compare. In the middle of the courtyard, there was still another white clothed middle aged person, who appeared to be taking precautions to guard against oneself.

That one head of white hair unexpectedly seemed to shine as brightly as silver.

But in between them was a pair of clear eyes like limpid autumn water staring at himself. Unexpectedly it was a beauty unmatched in her generation!

This female was currently using her pair of clear and bright pupils to gaze at himself. Her tender body was faintly trembling somewhat.

Ye Xiao would dare to bet that he himself hasn't seen this female. As long as he had seen such a beauty, it would have moved his devious mind, and he absolutely could not forget her! After all, this white clothed girl's mien had already arrived at a difficult to depict, unpaintable, remarkably beautiful degree.

Ye Xiao had seen overly beautiful women all of his life. Generally speaking he also has Xuan Bing, Jun Yinglian, and Wenren Chuchu who could compare. Even Su Yeyue, who was right now still possessing the innocence of childhood and hadn't yet emerged into her gentle and beautiful bearing's time period, was unexpectedly also a bit inferior!

This absolutely beautiful girl's hair was pitch-black as an ancient starry sky. Her pair of eyes were glitteringly bright, similar to the graceful water of a thousand mountains. Her clothes were whiter than snow, contrasting her temperament to make it even more distinctly cold. Like the world of mortals' ice and snow, this female had seriously arrived at the pinnacle of beauty!

Ye Xiao was conscious that he had never seen the beautiful person in front of him, this wasn't strange, but... this remarkably stunning and beautiful woman, for some reason, also gave Ye Xiao an exceedingly intimate, extremely familiar feeling.

This sort of feeling left Ye Xiao feeling somewhat baffled.

At this moment, as she saw Ye Xiao enter the gate, this woman had already stood up and slowly moved forward two steps. The tranquility in her eyes had all thoroughly vanished, and her red lips were slightly parted, somewhat shivering...

"I am Ye Xiao, may I venture to ask who Her Honored Highness is?" Ye Xiao faintly asked as he looked at Zi Xue.

One sweep of his eyes.

Zi Xue only felt her whole body go cold. Apparently she had already been seen completely through by this youth in one look.

Before this youth, she unexpectedly had a subtle feeling that there was nothing she could do to hide from him.

He made use of this gaze to lay bare the other side.

This sort of absolutely disadvantageous position and absolutely vulnerable feeling was something that she had only previously had when she was in the Glaze Sky facing His Majesty the Sky King!

Could it be that the youth in front of her eyes' strength had already actually arrived at this sort of boundary?!

"This one is Zi Xue, I am a consecrate of Glaze Sky." Zi Xue had originally not wanted to reply truthfully.

However, under Ye Xiao's gaze, she actually couldn't help but feel a subtle feeling that she dare not offend him, and her subconscious mind answered truthfully as requested.

"Glaze Sky consecrate?" Ye Xiao nodded his head. "It's an honor to meet you. But I don't know..."

Zi Xue said, "We two people have been accompanying our princess Bing Xin to go out and have some fun to relieve boredom. We were passing through the Chaotic City and just happened to be present at the right time when the chaotic war in the Limitless Ocean suddenly arose. In order to prevent the unexpected, we decided to temporarily stay at this place. It's nothing more than that, we don't actually have any other intention."

"En, Glaze Sky, princess Bing Xin... I'm convinced that you all don't have any other intentions." Ye Xiao nodded his head. "This princess, Her Highness, please forgive this Ye for being rude, but have we met before or not?"

This sentence of words, once it came out of his mouth, caused that princess Bing Xin's tender body to suddenly shake. Looking at Ye Xiao's expression, she abruptly turned to the side and leaned her head, saying, "We haven't ever seen each other."

Saying these words, princess Bing Xin only felt her young woman's heart twitch and ache for a spell.

Yes, indeed we haven't yet met each other, since... I returned to the Human Realm Upon Heavens, we just haven't seen each other again...

In your heart... I have already been a dead person for a long time...

Princess Bing Xin's voice was sharp and clear, and in Ye Xiao's memory he really didn't recall this voice, and even more he hadn't ever seen her.

Ye Xiao lightly breathed out a mouthful of air.

But, just now when he felt that sort of gaze in high altitude, why was it so stomach-twistingly adoring?

Although Ye Xiao wasn't an unduly humble person, he also wouldn't go so far as to be narcissistic. Princess Bing Xin displayed that sort of deep-seated lovesickness that was enough to be felt by him all the way above the nine heavens... if they seriously hadn't met before, how was this so?

But this certain Monarch was now one side's person of influence. He had a big identity, and he couldn't use his certain method of pestering her like he would have in the past!

"I've disturbed you." Ye Xiao gave a refined and courteous nod, and turned to retreat. "In the turmoil and chaos of war, it's difficult to survive a crisis, everyone please take good care of yourselves. It would be best if you could return to the Glaze Sky as soon as possible."

Princess Bing Xin couldn't bear to raise her head, watching as Ye Xiao was in the process of withdrawing out into the shadows outside of the door.

As Ye Xiao contemplated, he withdrew outside the gate. Zi Xue gave a relaxed sigh, and again said a few polite words before going to close the door.

However, she saw Ye Xiao suddenly look fiercely distracted for a time, his eyes shooting out an unusually dazzling light. He fiercely turned his head, looking inside the courtyard at a still dazed princess Bing Xin. Involuntarily, he cried out, "It's you?!"

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1926: Finally will see Boss again

That one sentence "it's you" actually arrived rather abruptly, shaking him to the core. The reason was actually that Princess Bing Xin's look was unexpectedly kind of familiar, and in the end Ye Xiao only had to see or perhaps recall this look, and couldn't help but think of a person.

This individual often caused Ye Xiao to recall them in his midnight dreams, that beautiful image of a woman who his thoughts of were inevitably sad and depressed!

But, she already died!

In his embrace, she changed and became ashes, and together with the heavens turned to dust!

But how was it possible for her to reappear here again?

Ye Xiao's mind was hugely shook. After that one sentence of words was blurted out, that regretful matter that he had buried in the dusty bottoms of his heart was again dragged into his mind.

Before his eyes once more seemingly appeared a pair of miserable and beautiful eyes, determinedly looking at himself. Disjointed, she said, "...you...must not feel sad... in fact I... haven't ever liked... you...."

That is that female, that female whose love had not arrived at himself. On the verge of her life's ending she said those words of the dying with one foot in the grave.

Even though she herself was dying, she didn't want to let himself feel the least bit of grief.

That moment when her life was withering away, she determinedly stared at his gaze, and at last finally exposed a trace of tenderness and a blessed feeling...

That deepest part of his memory that he would never easily dare to touch, that beautiful image, suddenly today matched up with the front of this Glaze Sky Princess Bing Xin's appearance...

With that one remembrance of that look, Ye Xiao's mind finally found the source of the familiarity, and he finally knew who he was looking at before his eyes!

Princess Bing Xin's tender body gave a shiver, and she suddenly turned her head, hoarsely saying, "I am not!"

Ye Xiao said: It's you?!

Princess Bing Xin said: I am not!

This sudden question, as well as the answer trying to hide it that only made it even more conspicuous, was there for even Zi Xue and Bai Fa to hear their shenanigans.

Ye Xiao stamped forward a step. His voice sounding somewhat urgent, he said, "Bing Xinyue, it really is you!"

He already didn't have the least bit of a questioning tone left, he was completely positive now.

Princess Bing Yue's pearly white teeth lightly bit her red lips. Again, she resolutely denied it. "No, I'm not!"

Ye Xiao scratched his head. In the middle of his heart, he had already determined that this beautiful person in front of him was precisely Bing Xinyue!

But, why did she herself not admit it?

Ye Xiao, although under repeated happy encounters, had luckily shed the times of being a virgin. However, beneath the surface was still a rude man. Since he was a rude man, naturally he clearly couldn't understand how the daughter of a family's thoughts bent and moved.

Scratching his head for a good long time, still thinking about this situation and still feeling unclear about what the reason was, he finally said after a while, "Whether you are or are not isn't important. Right now, the Chaotic City is in the autumn time of many matters, at the heart of confusion. The Limitless Ocean has already become a super battlefield, and countless bright knives are ready to stab you in the back. Even though you have your two consecrates at your side, they also are not necessarily capable of assisting to protect you. You continuing to stay here is admittedly dangerous, but returning back to the Glaze Sky is similarly not acceptable. Let's do it this way. You can temporarily go over to the Life and Death Hall and stay there for a while. While you wait for this series of events to be over, while you're residing in the Life and Death Hall, I don't dare to say much about other things, but I can at least guarantee your safety without any worries."

Zi Xue and Bai Fa, upon hearing this, were simultaneously hugely joyous. They had indeed been in the Chaotic City for more than a few days, and they naturally had an understanding of the Monarch's Hall's Life and Death Hall, and even more had directly observed it. So long as they went to the Life and Death Hall, they indeed would 100% be able to guarantee Her Highness the princess's safety.

"I won't go. Nowadays, everyone's position is like this, and it's really inconvenient to rely on your distinguished self for protection!"

Princess Bing Xin lightly said, "I believe I still have the ability to protect myself."

Ye Xiao creased his brows when he heard this, and shortly afterwards, said in a deep voice: "Listen to me!"

Princess Bing Xin originally resisted this implication one hundred percent, but after a moment hearing these words full of the flavor of a command, her original inclination to fully defy him suddenly disappeared without a trace. Unexpectedly, she lowered her head, aggrievedly muttering, "That... that's okay too I guess."

Zi Xue and Bai Fa almost had their eyes fall out of their sockets.

Her Highness the princess hadn't just returned back, but her stubborn disposition was actually renowned in the upper echelons of the Glaze Sky. Although she was usually habitually silent, if she was determined, her plans definitely could not be altered. Even the Sky King and Sky Queen had no way of convincing her, and they would often be in conflict with each other. Always, though, they would end up submitting to the princess's standpoint. This had already become the Glaze Sky Heavenly Palace's general impression of Her Highness the princess.

But, right now how did...

Later, Ye Xiao then escorted Princess Bing Xin and her group along the road to enter the Life and Death Hall. He exhorted his remaining caretaking personnel that they must receive this honored guest well, and that their standard of care must be at the highest level. This was also the level that Jun Yinglian, Xuan Bing, and Su Yeyue were on. The personnel who were staying behind to take care of things were completely flabbergasted, but also somewhat clearly understood. After all, this newcomer young girl's appearance was outstanding, they could understand how her high entertainment status came about. A person who wasn't romantic was living their youth in vain, and the Hall Master was just a normal person comparatively in this way!

Settling down Princess Bing Xin's delegation, Ye Xiao still gently massaged beneath his eyes as though he had a headache. Even until now, he was still unable to understand that person. Why couldn't Bing Xinyue admit her own identity, and just let them reconnect like old friends?!

Clearly she was determined. Her sentiments of the past were approved deep in her heart, but, she still resisted admitting that she had the identity of Bing Xinyue.

Was it because of the problem of both sides' current standpoints?

But he had a very intimate friendship with Glaze Sky's Dragon and Phoenix Rulers, a friendship with very deep ties and impediments. It was even above his friendship with the Ye Family, so there shouldn't be this kind of conflict, right?!

Just as Ye Xiao was about to let his imagination run wild while his thoughts were spinning and going nowhere, Xuan Bing, who was standing at his side behind him, slightly smiled and softly said, "Young Master doesn't see the forest for the trees. Princess Bing Xin has reasons to not acknowledge."

Jun Yinglian thought for a moment, looking at Xuan Bing for a time, before she also smiled. "Not wrong, not wrong, Bing'er is right. If I were in her place, I also wouldn't admit that it was me."

Su Yeyue naively tilted her head. "Why, ah? Having such a good man like Xiaoxiao express goodwill towards her, why wouldn't she want to acknowledge such a walking treasure?"

Xuan Bing and Jun Yinglian both showed a tender smile, and rubbed Su Yeyue's small head. Laughing together, they no longer said a word. They only gave a meaningful look at Ye Xiao...

Why?

Su Yeyue's doubt was also Ye Xiao's doubt. Although he had suspicions that it was boasting and praising himself, but eventually it was still fact...

Looking at the appearance of these two women, they surely wouldn't end up telling him...

Watching a certain someone's temporarily depressed appearance continuing was still very fascinating to them.

In any case, there would inevitably be a day when a certain someone would be clear on this matter, why should they need to be urgent at this time?

At the same time.

Three people were hurrying towards the Chaotic City at extremely quick speeds.

It was actually Li Wuliang and Xue Danru, those two honorable people, and one more person to make three. They had disguised themselves and transformed as they carefully passed through the surroundings of the Limitless Ocean hurrying on the way to the Chaotic City.

That third person was different from the Li Wuliang husband and wife pair, and hadn't changed his appearance. He specially used his true identity to reveal himself. This person had snow-white clothes, a tall and straight body, sword eyebrows and starry eyes. He really was an elegant beautiful youth worthy of being a beautiful young master of the mortal world.

It was precisely that man who it had been a long time since they had last met, Han Bingxue.

Handsome throughout the universe, unrivalled under the dome of the heavens, surpassing the earth!

"Again going forward another seven thousand li will, by and large, put us in the Chaotic City." Li Wuliang was looking ahead.

"Finally we will see Boss again..." Han Bingxue sighed.

...

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1927: Brothers' Heart

"Han Bingxue." Li Wuliang gave a smile that was not a smile. "I don't want to be together with Ye Xiao in the same place. The main reason is that I don't want to argue with him over the boss's position... but you knew where he was for quite a long time, why were you so slow in going to look for him?"

Han Bingxue scoffed and disdainfully said, "Big Brother Li, before I thought that all along you were a pure person, that you wouldn't hide nor conceal whatever matter. You had a sentence to say, you said it. How is it that right now you have also studied how to speak tactfully, that you not wanting to strive for the boss position with Boss Ye is simply you just not wanting to go act as Boss Ye's subordinate, right? Originally I held you in very high esteem. Besides Boss Ye, you were the next on the list. But just relying on you, how could you also strive to be more than my boss? With our brothers together we'll naturally raise a person's worth and crack jokes after the event is finished, but if outsiders hear, then we're clearly losing face. People should still have some knowledge of themselves. A good dream originally is most easy to wake up from. Only by waking up are you able to be intoxicated with it, in plain terms, we would say that dreams are all crazy... that person!"

Hearing the end of this argument, Li Wuliang fumed with rage.

How dare that bastard speak this way, you say you raised that bastard Ye Xiao up high, I'll grant you that, but how did I get belittled until I arrived under the nine springs of the underworld through this version of events? Unexpectedly you're still speaking off the cuff 'although I held you in very high esteem' really think I didn't hear that, you precisely said I have the dream of a crazy person?!

"Han Bingxue you self-centered show-off! I your father had good intentions to reminisce with you, but you focused on poking my weak spot, you precisely respect me that way!"

Li Wuliang panted heavily in anger.

Han Bingxue giggled.

"You still dare to laugh? You little youngster, what cultivation level are you right now?" Li Wuliang looked askance at Han Bingxue. "You unexpectedly only obtained Saint Origin Stage level 8? That's no more strength than a cricket or an ant. You unexpectedly also dare to look down upon your Uncle Li, do you not trust that your Uncle Li can crush you to death with just one finger?!"

Saying this really wasn't boasting shamelessly. Although they had only been separated for a period of time counting in years, Li Wuliang husband and wife pair's cultivation levels had astonishing breakthroughs. But, Han Bingxue's current strength was no more than Saint Origin Stage level 8, he seriously might not be able to take one small fingertip of Li Wuliang's, it might crush and roll over him.

As he knew the matters of himself the best, Han Bingxue flushed red and retorted, "Li Wuliang, what do you mean by that? Your cultivation level is extraordinarily high, ah, you emphasize that fact means that your argument is no more than that. Can it be that you just want to depend on a fight? Relying on your cultivation level being higher than mine by a point, that you had better dogshit luck than I did, you just want to bully me?"

Li Wuliang made a vomiting sound at this viciously shaped accusation. "Bully you? You think you are my wife? Your pee doesn't shine golden with morality. You think your little pretty boy face is omnipotent?"

Han Bingxue was flabbergasted, and simply didn't dare to believe his ears. Where did that past Li Wuliang who was careful with his words, smiled, was heroic, generous, noble, and benevolent go? What was this ghost in front of his eyes?!

To the side, Xue Danru was listening to those two buffoons' glib bickering. Originally she was still smiling, but when she heard up until here, she was actually suddenly quite indignant, and ruthlessly pinched a firm portion of his waist. Whoosh whoosh, she had wringed it 7 or 8 times.

"...sss... lost..." Li Wuliang shook with pain, hastily begging forgiveness.

Han Bingxue, upon seeing this, gave a huge laugh. Li Wuliang indeed wasn't the original Li Wuliang, how could Li Wuliang with a wife be the same as that time's Li Wuliang!

“Psh, what are you laughing at. You still haven’t answered my question from just now, why didn’t you go look for Ye Xiao?” Li Wuliang said, “If you went to look for him, your cultivation level absolutely wouldn’t be limited to the point that you’re at right now. The Shuang and Han girls were serious about meeting Ye Xiao, and their cultivation levels were even weaker than yours, but I would dare to assert that right now, those two’s current realm must absolutely be too much stronger compared to you, maybe not even weaker than the wife and I.”

Han Bingxue lightly shook his head, and faintly said, “I admittedly knew boss’s information very early on in time, but even then at that time, Boss had already revealed his outstanding talent, and his smile was moving the wind and clouds. I painstakingly cultivated this way for many years, practicing day and night. Right now I only managed to reach Saint Origin Stage level 8, and with just this kind of cultivation level, whatever would I need to go look for Boss for? Wouldn’t I just cause trouble for him? The Shuang and Han girls could go look for Boss because of their childhood sentiments, remembering him with a longing heart. If I went, what would I be regarded as?”

“I also knew that if I went to look for him, Boss would certainly treat me favorably, and even more would go out of his way to find a hundred and one ways to cultivate me. But, inside his organization, I would become a different kind of person, a pretty boy who depends on others.” Han Bingxue frustratedly said, “I don’t want to make things difficult for Boss.”

Li Wuliang said, “En?”

“From me to Boss, from beginning to end all I feel evolves from my innermost heart’s respect for him. No matter what time I would become Boss’s subordinate, I would be willing. On that day Boss Ye first returned to the Heaven Realm, when his cultivation had dropped, I would have been able to crush him dead with just one finger. However, I still know him as the same Boss, this is my thoughts towards him.” Han Bingxue’s elegant face held a warm recollection. “But Boss and I are not the same. Towards us, Boss only has held brotherly feelings, and has no way of knowing the meaning of subordinates towards us.”

“I’m convinced that on that day, he will release you to leave, just because he doesn’t want to destroy the brotherly sentiments of that year and have sworn brothers change into subordinates. That’s why I didn’t go look for him all along, it was precisely for this reason. In those years, he needed me at his side, and me protecting him was fine. I also finished being his companion, even if I can’t be said to be relieved of that fact, but now...”

Han Bingxue bitterly laughed. “I know this sounds very silly, and too biased, but... I still have hope that, when Boss arrives lonely at the top, he still has his brothers in his heart. He still has what he thinks in his heart, even though he misses us in his heart, he won’t be lonely.”

Li Wuliang didn’t speak for a long time. A good while afterwards, he finally said, “But if you can continue accompanying him, together arriving at the peak, wouldn’t it be even better?”

“I originally very much thought this way, and I am also convinced that Boss would help me do it. He would walk the road with me and do his utmost to help me advance, this point there is no need to doubt.”

Han Bingxue said, “Before we reached the peak, Boss and I wouldn’t have any change whatsoever. But after we arrived at the peak? In a time where two mighty heroes were existing side by side, even if the two of us didn't have our original intentions change, would the hearts of our subordinates also not change?! The peak's summit is always narrow and can only house one person. It's an either this or that situation, and isn't something that two people's steadfast original intentions is able to resolve."

Han Bingxue faintly smiled a time. "Because of this, I decided not to receive Boss's help again. Might as well let the disparity between our cultivation level be even a bit bigger, that also won't hurt. In any case, in the hearts of our brothers, brothers are brothers from beginning to end. Just because the gap in cultivation level is big doesn't mean that you will look down upon your brothers..."

"Actually right now, this appearance is also rather good." Han Bingxue gave a warm smile.

"Then why must you come right now, do you not fear that you will be cumbersome to him when you arrive!?" Li Wuliang asked, smiling and mischievous.

"This occasion is precisely the crucial moment of his life, his autumn moment of life and death. If he isn't able to win this fight, I'm afraid we would only meet again after an unspecified period." Han Bingxue said in silence. "Today has come, and I intend to meet together with my brothers. If we live then we live together, if we die then we die together. In this world of brothers, life and death mutually follow. This time, if I didn't accompany Boss as his companion, wouldn't it be lonesome?!"

Chapter 1928: Overflowing with unforeseen events

"If Boss wins, I will naturally just quietly depart, or perhaps just cultivate under Boss's jurisdiction. I'll be an ordinary person moving smoothly and steadily, cultivating at ease and walking alone on the great way."

Han Bingxue faintly said, "It's also possible that I might as well live in this Human Realm Upon Heavens, look for a wife again... just this way live my life. It's not a bad option."

Finishing his words, Han Bingxue laughed, his handsome and outstanding face suddenly having a smile appear on it. It was really enough to dazzle a person. His features were picturesque, and uniquely gorgeous.

Although you didn't want to use this kind of metaphor for a man, but on this occasion, Han Bingxue apparently had just this kind of description, there wasn't any other description that could compare!

Li Wuliang and Xue Danru gave each other a look, not speaking for a long, long time.

They genuinely hadn't thought that Han Bingxue was unexpectedly capable of thinking to this level for Ye Xiao.

This brothers' sentiment wasn't something to frighten the heavens and earth and make ghosts and gods cry, but it absolutely was something that was warm for a long time. Just like thin streams flowing together and working steadily at something little by little, although it perhaps wasn't an impassioned surge, it still inevitably continuously existed, until the end of time...

"Actually, with regards to the level of this fight, Danru and I's cultivation level admittedly has risen to the Eternal Life Stage level 8 or 9, but we still are maybe not qualified to participate... But, we still want to stay with you. We want to fight shoulder to shoulder with our brothers at full strength. The rest just isn't important, and isn't worth thinking about."

Li Wuliang was silent, and then suddenly laughed, and said, "Bingxue, your words have actually reminded me. If after this battle we don't see a victory, naturally we will both be dead. If we win, though, perhaps we two families... can still be neighbors."

Han Bingxue, having heard this, had his eyes shine bright with happiness, and said, "That is absolutely the best, can't be better!"

"Hahaha..."

The two people looked at each other and laughed to their hearts' content.

"Right, do you know the whereabouts of Liu Changjun's three people?" Li Wuliang asked. "Last time, Ye Xiao mentioned that their whereabouts nowadays were unknown. You had misgivings and didn't want to come together with Ye Xiao into a bad situation, but those three were originally Ye Xiao's subordinates, so there would be none of those nonsense misgivings, ah."

Han Bingxue shook his head. "I also had a time just recently where I met with them, after that, Zhao Pingtian's wife Rou'er again came after me one day to come tell me that a very able person had received the three of them as disciples... She didn't tell me exactly who it was, and from that time afterwards, I didn't hear anything anymore. No news is good news, though..."

Li Wuliang nodded his head. "Right, no news is good news. As long as they're still alive, that's good..."

The two people both knew that Zhao Pingtian's wife was a Soul Body and couldn't be considered an ordinary person. Therefore, she was capable of hiding some matters and looking for Han Bingxue. Those two people both shut their mouths and didn't mention this, however.

Then, just at this time, an unforeseen event finally arrived.

Some person suddenly softly laughed, saying, "The Great Way's road is difficult and hard to walk, bumpy and rugged. In my opinion, compared to finding Ye Xiao, it's even more simple to make you wait until the time I find him and let you die together, right?"

Along with this suddenly rising sound, the shadows in the forest shifted with a gorgeous change, and a white clothed youth suddenly appeared.

This white clothed youth was wearing a fur coat with a relaxed belt, his appearance elegant and bearing free and easy. He seemed as though he was a heavenly immortal banished to earth who had suddenly descended to the human world.

Originally, Han Bingxue was already considered to be a beautiful man, and was the very model of a self-restrained reserved man. Coming into contact with this white clothed youngster, though, he finally found someone in this life who could compare to him! You really can have an able person above another able person, and a pretty boy could find an even whiter prettier boy!

Along with that pretty boy's appearance, at his side he again had an additional two women show themselves and appear.

These two women were both absolute beauties. One of them was wearing fully white clothes, devastatingly beautiful. The other was wearing fully green clothes, her magnificent style unmatched in talent.

“Who are you?” Li Wuliang didn’t have the slightest bit of appreciation seeing this man and those two women in front of him. He had instinctively felt that a crisis had arrived, and he extended a hand to block Xue Danru and Han Bingxue behind him to protect them. His Horizontal Heaven Edge came out, the rays of light flickering on it. “Who are you newcomers?”

The white clothed youngster mildly smiled. “You all have perhaps already heard of my name, I’m called Bai Chen, en... Not right, Bai Chen, this name apparently very few people actually know. However, Young Master Bai, though? The House of Chaotic Storms’ Young Master Bai is precisely me!”

Li Wuliang’s pupils rapidly shrank. At this moment, his heart was unprecedentedly heavy.

He knew that what was perhaps the most desperate situation of his life with the most frightful enemy had been encountered right in front of him.

House of Chaotic Storms, Young Master Bai.

Once they knew that this person in front of them was the legendary Young Master Bai, they naturally knew exactly who the two women at his sides were.

“Left has Wan of the Clouds, right has Xiu of the Heavens; wave one’s hand wind and clouds come together, shake one’s arm and the universe is tucked into one’s sleeve!”

House of Chaotic Storms, the three big shots actually had all appeared in the same place. It was really a marvelous spectacle!

Bai Chen humbly smiled. “How is it? My group of three has arrived at the same time as yours. I invite you three to my small house to be a guest, you three honored friends should not decline to give me this face, right?”

Li Wuliang’s hand gripped harder. The Horizontal Heaven Edge’s radiance was blazing even more brightly. Faintly, he said, “Since you’ve given us your invitation, how could we not see Young Master’s sincerity?”

Bai Chen couldn’t help but shake his head and laugh. Following that, he lightly waved his hand.

Wan’er took a step forward, faintly smiling sweetly. “Wan of the Clouds would like to move the Horizontal Heaven’s Edge, please.”

Li Wuliang’s group of three had their hearts go ice cold...

The Limitless Ocean’s war situation was still locked in a deadlock state.

Even though the soldiers of the big Western Heaven were defeated, the other four side skies hadn’t yet renounced the attack towards Heaven’s Leaf.

Besides Glaze Sky, which temporarily held back its troops without moving, the other three sides' and Ye Hongchen's strengths were all there, and they killed until there was a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood. The entire Limitless Ocean had been turned over again and again for tens of times.

It wasn't known whether or not it was the influence of the big battle beforehand, but at this stage of the war, both sides' peak battle strengths had not appeared again from start to finish. No matter if it was the few big Sky Kings, Ye Hongchen, the Seven Golden Lotuses, or Blood River and company... in any case, none of the old established powerhouses had taken any action whatsoever.

These people were just like deities watching from over the clouds. With a cold and detached eye they watched the ordinary mortals campaign under the blue sky. Whether it was victory or defeat, life or death, none of it was taken seriously.

They only had the cool eye of a spectator.

Along with the continuation of the war, the number of people engaging in the war grew larger and larger, and also the number of people who had died grew larger and larger.

People were finally starting to look at the war and consider that maybe nothing was happening in this stage of the war...

It was simply a fight of life and death, winner lives loser perishes.

Ye Xiao's subordinates in the Monarch's Hall also had a portion of their battle strength go and participate in this.

Bu Xiangfeng's Law Enforcement Hall, with the assistance of the Poison King, took the lead to enter the battlefield!

Bu Xiangfeng, this war freak, simply seemed like he was enjoying a sweet rain after a long drought that then continued on dangerously to flood somewhere with plentiful rain water. Entering the battlefield, he was directly just excessively excited in appearance.

"War is precisely the most optimal way to sharpen the grindstone of your cultivation and improve your martial skills!"

Bu Xiangfeng's crazy argument was: "Boys, this is indeed your best opportunity for promotion after cultivating in secret! Missing out on this war, you may not have this sort of golden opportunity again, ah... Brothers, be it a king, marquis, general, or minister, riches and honor, glory and splendor, ah... hahahaha..."

"A high post and generous salary is beckoning. The nine underworld hells are also opening their gate unrestrictedly wide. In the end, whether you set foot in a dead end and have your spirit walk the nine springs or whether you still walk the way of life, becoming a duke or marquis for ten thousand generations, all of this depends on you brothers' fate number in the end..."

This kind of troop barging through the whole battlefield astonishingly became a distinctive thread of the landscape.

Chapter 1929: Covering the sky, two big powers

Everyone was originally battling numbly, struggling for their lives, not knowing whether or not they would still be able to exist past this day...

How were there people who were happy and excited to dash and enter this life or death battlefield?

Moreover, each one had the same dragon's vitality and tiger's ferocity like they had eaten aphrodisiacs.

This bunch of people were just a bit too outlandish, right...?

After Ye Xiao heard of Bu Xiangfeng's actions, the first thing he did was cover his forehead with his hand and sigh: this killing fiend!

In the past, Parting Sword Bu Xiangfeng wasn't addicted to killing and war like this, how did he turn out like this? Could it be that he spent too long in seclusion, and needed actual combat to stabilize his realm, just this reason?

It's perhaps just this reason, right!

But besides Bu Xiangfeng's team of people, there was still a strength that finally exposed its figure and spread its famous name throughout the battlefield of the Limitless Ocean that engulfed the Human Realm Upon Heavens.

The House of Chaotic Storms, following closely in the Monarch's Hall's footsteps, entered the war!

These two strengths came into being covering the skies, suddenly entering in a chaotic fashion. They actually caused the disorderly war in the Limitless Ocean to unexpectedly appear all the more strange.

That was because these two groups of troops seemed to run around uncontrolledly and take action as they wished.

The current main battlefield had four troops in it. Heaven's Leaf was besieged by the combined forces of the Eastern, Southern, and Northern Skies. Therefore, the Southern Sky, Eastern Sky, and Northern Sky's troops were only attacking the Ye Family forces' side and wouldn't attack each other.

However, once these two divisions suddenly entered the war, they killed wildly with reddened eyes. Not knowing who is hitting who, they were completely without a fixed target. They would take action towards the Southern Sky, start a fight with the Northern Heaven, go fight hand to hand with the strength of Ye Hongchen's subordinates, come into contact with the Eastern Sky's troops... they were absolutely unrelenting. They wouldn't stay their hands the least bit, and occasionally if they were near the Glaze Sky's big army, they would also harass them for a time...

This method of enemies filling the eyes and provoking all directions' manner caused the few sky kings and the high-levels of all sides to be completely bewildered.

What in the world are these two influences wanting to do in the end?

Could it be that they don't know that their method of handling all this is disgracefully harming them and simultaneously violating taboo?

Does it not seem like they're wishing for death?!

But indeed, can these two strengths die?!

Assuredly they will not, because aside from having the ability to cause trouble, these two strengths still have formidable battle strength to depend and rely on. They had high-end support that let them continually replenish their battle ability, often right in the middle of the battle itself, and they were gradually strengthening themselves. What's even more unbridled is that they were keeping control of the scattered remnants of every Sky King's army. Once they were incorporated into their own troops, they simply turned around and continued shoving right on through...

"Bai Yutian!"

The Southern Sky big King indignantly spread the question: "What is your son doing!?"

The Northern Sky big King and Glaze Sky King also discontentedly condemned him one after another.

But...

His Majesty the Eastern Sky big King himself was also bewildered by the current situation, and had no idea what the reason was.

What was his son doing?

No need to say that you don't know... Even I, his father... also have no idea ah!

What is he wanting to do?

Making this big of a movement, could it be that he also wants to pull down his father as well?

Eastern Sky big King's face was like a pot bottom. His whole face confused, his heart madly depressed, he finally asked the Sky Queen Meng Huaqing, "What the heck is your son doing in the end!?"

Meng Huaqing tilted her mouth in a cold sneer. "How should I know what he's doing? He's not just only my son... since you, his father, doesn't know what he's doing, me as his mother... it's only natural that I don't know even more..."

"This one shameful thing, could it be that he wants to build an opposition to this king?!" The Eastern Sky big King was panting, breathing fire out his nose.

Meng Huaqing added in a sentence as lightly as a feather. "Revolt is also very ordinary, ah, just think about the task of establishing hegemony through the world for a thousand years, how couldn't it be exactly our son's true colors!"

The Eastern Sky big King, after hearing this, had his whole face turn thoroughly black. "Could it be that him actually putting his hand towards his own father is also our son's true colors? Also, must it really be a thousand years of hegemony?"

Meng Huaqing gave a cold laugh. "Our son's ambition is the whole world, this is just as it should be. Not only can he abandon a friend's spirit of loyalty and self-sacrifice, he will also pay no heed to his uncle's death and turn a blind ear to it. In this way walking one step after another, killing oneself's father and mother... how is that strange?!"

She tilted her mouth and sourly said, "Since ancient times until the present, in order to be an emperor seeking hegemony, those who have killed their brothers and murdered their fathers... could it be that it was a small number? That my son is able to do this proves that... like his father he is mature... is there anyone who has so-called emperor's intentions who isn't thus?! Having a son in this way, really should deserve a toast!"

Eastern Sky big King's anger nearly split his belly open. He felt that it was somewhat hard to have a good talk with his son's mother right now. He was reluctant to say anything more, as then he might really have to go arrange liquor to celebrate!

He immediately furiously flicked his sleeves and left.

Watching the back view of the Eastern Sky big King as he left, Meng Huaqing gave a long sigh. Just then, her fully sharp and unkind features suddenly fell to become peaceful. She faintly sighed another breath of air, and two drops of tears at last finally fell down...

"Chen'er, in the end... what are you doing? In the end... what are you thinking?"

Along with the continuation of the war, the House of Chaotic Storms and the Monarch's Hall, those two troublemakers, continued to exist. Not only were they not tired and feeble, on the contrary, the more they leapt the more lively they were. Firstly the House of Chaotic Storms sent more and more manpower out. However, the Monarch's Hall's side also seemed to do the same as the House of Chaotic Storms, and they had reinforcement troops appear one after another.

Ye Xiao and Bai Chen both had not personally taken action yet. The two people currently resembled two who were testing the other side's hidden trump cards. One after another they threw out tyrannical strength, seeming as though it was unending and unceasing.

Also apparently these two people both possessed inexhaustible strength reserves for their endless use...

The House of Chaotic Storms's battle strength appeared more and more formidable, more and more mysterious, more and more high-end.

But the Monarch's Hall's battle strength similarly appeared more and more formidable, more and more terrifying, more and more approaching the peak...

Both sides' strengths seemed to be growing at the same swift speed as a rolling snowball, manifesting out ever expanding battle strength...

If it only stopped at this, then the few big Sky Kings wouldn't go so far as to forget one's manners too much. What genuinely caused them to speechlessly spit blood was... the troops that they had who had previously been defeated in the battles before and incorporated into the two groups' manpower quickly arrived to participate in the battle. This was already very hard to believe, after all, they had just lost the battle. Their battle spirit and battle heart was all on the verge of collapse. Letting this kind of soldier return to the battlefield required them to be rather devoted to their side. Just their battle strength wasn't all that optimistic, but indeed they also had no idea how the House of Chaotic Storms and the Monarch's Hall were training these soldiers. Those scattered remnants of troops unexpectedly were regarded as part of the force, and collectively seemed like they were shining with a second springtime.

One after another, they all called out, brimming with fighting passion, completely different from when they were on their own sides. Just like they were two different people...

This current situation caused the several big Sky Kings to be completely befuddled and puzzled.

What on earth was going on in the end?

These two groups hadn't entered the battle for very long, but they were creating this sort of situation that, again and again, defied common sense, strategy, and tactics. The whole war situation was disturbed. Today, there was only one way out of this, and that was by hurriedly understanding the whole situation!

Several sides' Sky Kings took the same action by chance and dispatched their spies they had concealed in the past. Then, they finally knew the reason.

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1930: Fourth prince seeks an audience

But, even these spies also had an astonishing amount that were brainwashed into defecting to the other side.

"The few big skies are already finalized, and in the end the official positions are already set. If you want resources for your generation, you follow the prescribed order. Your position right now, if you want to grant your wife a title and make your son the heir, a noble for ten thousand generations, someone with high post and generous salary, it's impossible even if you endure for 100,000 years."

"But, if you come over to my side right now, so long as at that time our lord above us accomplishes his goal, you are a dragon's minister, officer, or soldier; an outstanding founding hero!"

"Right now there's a crisis in all directions on the battlefield. Heaven's Leaf, who desires to perform the time of breaking heaven, is glaring covetously like a tiger who watches his prey. If you go back again and participate in the battle, sooner or later you won't be able to avoid death. However, if you fight here with us, admittedly it's also possible that you will die. But if you're lucky and you don't die, you can win a future for your offspring. One side's deaths become cannon fodder, one side's survivors have a future. Do you really not know which one is better?!"

"I believe that you all have also had a look at the strength that we actually possess. Besides what we've shown so far, we also have innumerable hidden trump cards. The so-called five sides sky kings, reigning supreme, five side skies, can't sway... It's been an old and yellowed history for many years now, and the big Western Sky's annihilation is already clear proof! In short, if you remain at our side here, there's a chance you won't have an opportunity, but if you return, it's definite that you won't have an opportunity!"

"One side is dying in mediocre battles, turning to dust with the heavens. The other side, contrastingly, has brilliant future prospects. You only need to use your cannon fodder life as the gamble, that's all!"

"Come on, work together with us!"

"It only needs you to gamble a bit, fight a bit, do you dare? Are you willing?"

“The humiliation you previously received can be prevailed over if you only join us to struggle together. Everyone will get your capital back plus profit!”

“Do you want it? Are you willing? Are you aroused?”

“Right now we urgently need manpower. I can talk to you this way right now, but I believe that you’ve seen how our hidden strength is extremely tremendous. Currently, we only just don’t want to prematurely expose ourselves, that’s all... In other words, perhaps tomorrow, perhaps the day after, but definitely sooner or later, we won’t require this much manpower anymore.”

“Right now is the best opportunity. Right now, if you come over, you are your own person!”

“Sending charcoal in the snow is something we treasure. Adding flowers to brocade... we are unwilling to respond!”

By and large this was their argument.

Giving this argument to one group of already defeated and disheartened officers after another...

Usually they didn’t even finish their talk, and they had already accomplished their goal!

Those who made it through about halfway before leaving and paying respects to their new head were numerous, and the examples were extremely many...

The House of Chaotic Storms and the Monarch’s Hall both adopted a similar style, and their pitches weren’t too different.

But the effect was also similarly good.

Especially the side of the Monarch’s Hall. They had even more advantages, and the effects could be seen instantly.

“So long as you come over, not only do you get a future, but your hope to survive also has a big increase. I believe that everyone present should have heard how our Monarch can look death in the face and not die, his famous reputation of having ten deaths and still living... throwing yourself into our Monarch’s Hall is equivalent to having several long lives. So long as you aren’t dead on the spot, preserving your small life is absolutely not a problem...”

“This is still only your subsistence allowance. So long as you are sincere in devoting yourself to us, and you meet the requirements or the relative standard, the Monarch will bestow a Spirit Pill onto you that will let you immediately break through your current bottleneck!”

“This still isn’t the whole of the material benefits. If the situation is truly unfavorable, sincere defectors can still follow us back to the Life and Death Hall. The Life and Death Hall Tree Fortress, you know of it, right? That is indeed regarded as the strongest, most impregnable fortress that not even the five sky kings joining hands together could break through...”

This enticement was something that was fundamentally just irresistible!

Under this sort of enticement, who wouldn’t decide to surrender?

Learning of these circumstances, the big skies' high levels were each and every one furious!

They're using this way!

We're here hitting each other for life and death, and we unexpectedly have people picking up a bargain on the side...

Originally these two roots were only troublemakers, but they're still nibbling away at our strength, ah!

The few sides skies' high levels were this way towards this kind of shameless enticement strategy, but also expressed their powerlessness to answer it. They fundamentally just couldn't think up an answer to these tactics.

What the others said was very true, and even more pragmatic. Even if you wanted to use an identical method to lure people in and coax their hearts, right now all the levels of official positions were all already fixed. It's impossible that you will collectively dismiss all the currently existing high officials and let their subordinates be promoted, right?

Since it's impossible...

That scheme of using gains as a lure fundamentally became a sentence of empty talk.

In light of this, the few big sky kings were moved to true anger. Letting these two troublemakers move about was truly nurturing a tiger to invite a calamity, just asking for trouble. They would simply extinguish these two portions of soldiers first and talk about it again later.

But... once they talked about handling Bai Chen's House of Chaotic Storms, the Eastern Sky's big king's manner immediately turned ambiguous... occasionally he would still help the participants, and in extreme situations would obviously give them an advantage that would allow the other side to escape unscathed in the end...

As for putting one's hand to handling the Monarch's Hall's side, the scene was even more desperately unwanted...

Often, as soon as the Monarch's Hall's manpower got stuck in danger, so much so that even if they weren't stuck in danger but had merely fallen into a disadvantageous position somewhat, the experts of Heaven's Leaf would dash in insanely, and intensely take action...

With this appearing, the high levels of the few sides skies could understand that the Monarch's Hall's lord Ye Xiao had obviously had a favorable relationship originally with the Seven Golden Lotus. Assuredly with these assists, the Monarch's Hall was also the enemy of these few side skies!

Therefore for a moment, the strength of these two groups unexpectedly became a scalding hot sweet potato. If you received it, you wanted to immediately throw it away.

Coping with Bai Chen, you had to confront the risk of rupturing the alliance of the four side skies.

But coping with Ye Xiao, then you had to deal with Ye Hongchen and the Monarch's Hall's strong joint all-out counterattack, a concentrated hit!

This was sort of like riding a tiger in that it was difficult to get off of. They had no room to advance or retreat. Not to mention the aristocracy, generals, and ministers of the skies, even the four side sky kings themselves were also all scratching their heads endlessly in puzzlement.

How can this sort of strange situation appear?

This, this, this...

Really is just too incomprehensible...

Just then, the Eastern Sky big king had his whole heart tangled as the other three side sky kings had sent letters disgracing him. He had no room to advance or retreat.

“Reporting to Your Majesty, the fourth prince has come.”

Eastern Sky big king Bai Yutian, upon hearing this, immediately slapped the table as his rage soared. “Let this unfilial son roll on in here to me!”

The Eastern Sky big king had felt that recently he had been getting by extremely unfavorably. His son wasn’t obedient, and was burdening the king by messing around, and even his wife also had started to not be obedient. His originally harmonious family life was simply a complete mess right now.

“It wasn’t just a brother-in-law who died...”

The Eastern Sky big king cursed angrily in his heart. “Meng Tianluo, that bastard, had already lived hundreds of thousands of years, and already should have died. Darn him, this world’s creature that most deserves to die, was just my trash brother-in-law!”

The moment he heard that his son had come, he immediately felt that he had a target to vent his anger upon.

To vaguely assist and protect his son’s House of Chaotic Storms before was one thing, but he still wanted to maintain his attitude of acting as a father towering above and looking down. His son, though, was extremely like himself. He was great at skill and strategy, and had deep plans and distant thoughts. In this way, he had established this big of a base with this king unexpectedly not knowing anything. He understood, though, that the other few sky kings were regarding that person as his own person, and that person was his remarkable son. Unexpectedly they were still denouncing this king’s son, and they wanted to renounce this remarkable son of the king! He mulled over this back and forth.
