Chapter 1931: : In this way, Father and Son

Bai Yuntian on this occasion looks like a huge bear of a king. Like a tiger squatting on his throne, he was living high and looking down at his son below him. Originally his whole heart was appreciating him, but as soon as he hit his eyes, all of that appreciation was gone!

His son Bai Chen unexpectedly wasn't coming before him for a lone audience. At his side, he astonishingly still had brought two women!

"Shameful!" The great king pounded on the table. "Bai Chen! You little bastard! What are you wanting to do, messing with me like this? Could it be that you really want to anger me, your father, to death?!"

"Cough cough cough..." To one side, the Eastern Sky Prime Minister Dongfang Youmeng and the Great General Ximen Wusheng repeatedly coughed. "Your Majesty, your servants ask for leave to be excused."

They had no alternative but to retreat, ah.

Scolding one's son as a little bastard, but also actually claiming to be the father.

Isn't that saying that he has been cuckolded and still is a bastard!?

Even though Dongfang Youmeng and Ximen Wusheng were hundreds of thousands of years old foxes, they also still thought that it was somewhat unbearable in their hearts.

In ordinary times, Your Majesty is not irritable like this, what's going on here?

Whatever, from beginning to end this is Your Majesty's household matters, we shouldn't mix up with it. At this crucial moment, doing much does much wrong, doing little does little wrong, and doing nothing is doing nothing wrong. To hurry up and leave is what is proper!

"Excused? What excused? Where do you two old fogies want to go? You two fellows with one foot in the grave don't know that you forced this emperor to this point?" The Eastern Sky big king stared at them. "You still aren't hurrying to help me lecture this unfilial son of mine!"

"Cough cough cough..." Sir Prime Minister and the Great General arduously rolled their eyes. "Your Majesty's family matters are something that is truly inappropriate for us officials to participate in!"

"Stand right there for this emperor, no exceptions, you aren't allowed to move!" The Eastern Sky big king was seething in anger. "My son isn't obedient, my wife isn't obedient, how is it that now even you all won't listen to this king's words?! This is collectively going against this king, ah!"

"Cough cough cough... officials will follow your orders..." The Prime Minister and the Great General drooped their heads. Since the Eastern Sky big king had said so, asking once more to be excused would clearly not be giving face to the big king, and that was a very bad strategy.

"Talk, why have you come?" The Eastern Sky big king had for a time tidied up his mood, and he asked this with a calm and collected face.

There was no one who would know a son as well as their father. Regarding his son's acidic personality, the Eastern Sky King was very familiar with it still. He was the lord of hidden agendas!

"This son has already for such a long time not seen Father Emperor, and has remembered anxiously with longing. Today this son has intentionally come before you to have an audience." Bai Chen said.

"Your mom's fart!" The Eastern Sky big king's anger was fuming at this point. He slapped the table once more, causing both the Prime Minister and the Great General to shake once.

This is a dialogue between a father and a son? Moreover is this still the dialogue between one generation's Great King and the Prince?

This is going too far to lower their statuses, isn't it?!

His Majesty's self-restraint usually is pretty good, how is it that every time he sees the fourth prince he is easily provoked into anger, so much so that he is almost angered to death?

"You little bastard, little brat!" The Eastern Sky big king was gasping for breath as he called out, his eyes as wide as bells. "You unexpectedly still dare to straight out say that you missed me? This really truly is releasing a round of 17 or 18 chain farts! Long time no see? Seriously, it is a long time no see, you little bastard you went out for 13,000 years. That sure is a long time. You said you missed me? In the end just where did you miss me?"

He pounded the table once more, his anger bubbling up like a mountain. "You said, you said for your father, your eyes still didn't have your father emperor in them! Still didn't have your mother empress in them!"

"Child's heart seriously was frequently concerned, every day this one would burn three sticks of incense early and late, day and night three kowtows, one day would not pass when I wouldn't shower blessings upon father emperor and mother empress. Long life not ageing, longevity and day equal." Bai Chen calmly said.

"Wayaaa..." The Eastern Sky big king nearly passed out in anger. "You this disobedient unfilial disobedient son! To go so far as to light three incense for me morning and night, three kowtows morning and twilight... You, you, you... Do you think your father should be a memorial tablet for you to come offer sacrifices to? You shameful thing! Are you wanting to kill me by angering me to death?!"

"Father emperor really has been missed immensely, child in that place did dare to have this kind of idea." Bai Chen lowered his head, and said, "In addition, Father Emperor absolutely wouldn't die of anger..."

"Bang!"

He finally was unable to endure. The Eastern Sky big king once more had an urgent and angry slap descend. This time, the white jade table didn't have the luck of the two times before, and with this slap it was turned to dust. "If I was capable of being angered to death, this king would already have been angered to death by you, is that so?"

"Child there dares to have this disgraceful opinion."

"I see you dare! You extremely dare! You hugely dare!"

The Eastern Sky big king looked like an enraged lion, walking back and forth with big strides. His irritable anger at his son caused the Prime Minister and the Great General at the side to feel a cold chill down their back, and their bodies did their utmost to shrink, doing a great effort to put an end to their own senses of existence so as not to be noticed.

“Hurriedly tell me properly, whatever did you come for today?” Eastern Sky King rolled his eyes, and with a great effort suppressed the rolling anger in his heart. “Don’t say something about missing me again, this emperor really wanted to spit upon hearing that!”

“This...” Bai Chen started to speak but then hesitated.

“Whatever for?!” His Majesty the Eastern Sky big king couldn’t help but have his anger rush forward once more. “If you have words, say them! If you want to fart, release it! Are you not able to follow your heart here a bit?!”

“This child before Father Emperor only dares to speak, and doesn’t dare to fart.” Bai Chen lowered his head.

“Fart your mother...” The Eastern Sky big king nearly had his breath caught in his throat. His eyes nearly protruded right out of their sockets, and like he wanted to eat Bai Chen he gazed at Bai Chen. After a long time, he finally and resolutely exhaled. Soon after, but while still angry to the extreme, he contrarily smiled. “Okay, okay... Bai Chen, House Lord Bai, you indeed have matured and developed now, awesomely developed... Right now you already won’t attach any importance to your father at all, will you?”

“Father Emperor erroneously offers praise, this child how dares to do such a thing!”

“I...” The Eastern Sky big king finally couldn’t help it anymore, and madly rushed down. With a shake of his hand and a “pa”, all of a sudden Bai Chen was slammed back over thirty meters, and with a “bang” sound slammed against a column.

The big king once more urgently dashed out, pelting punches to greet his son. “You little thing once more use that sort of broken tone with me! You little thing once more give me this sort of not dead not alive bastardly appearance, you again give me...”

Pa pa pa pa, the sound of bodies knocking together filled the room...

“Father will beat you to death while you’re still alive! You little bastard, if you hadn’t even lived it would be just fine! You, you, you...”

The Eastern Sky big king really was angered mad by this son...

After a long, long time, Bai Chen, Young Master Bai, was ravaged miserably by this event. His clothing was ripped and torn and he was covered all over in cuts and bruises. His handsome face had even earlier already been slapped into a pig headed appearance, and the corner of his mouth was dripping blood. His description was extremely dismal.

The Eastern Sky big king, after he had given vent to his feelings, was still furious, and gathered his hands behind his back. Coldly, he said, “Don’t say anything else, just scam!”

One turn of the head, he again saw Wan'er and Xiu'er, who were completely distressed gazing at Bai Chen and deeply concerned. Once again, he couldn't help but have a sort of nefarious fire rise forth, and he was once more itching to go a round with his son, pa pa pa.

"I've heard of these two girls of yours..." The Eastern Sky big king's sharp vision stared madly at Wan'er and Xiu'er as though he was a vulture looking at a corpse in the desert. "They're known as something Wan of the Clouds, something something Xiu of the Heavens?"

Bai Chen calmly wiped away the bloodstain at the corner of his mouth, and not urgently but also not slowly responded. "Yes, they are precisely called these two names. The names your son has obtained for them still aren't bad, right?!"

Chapter 1932: I wish to get married

"One high in the clouds, one above the heavens..." The Eastern Sky big king produced a strange cold hooting laugh that was hard to listen to. "Bai Chen, Crown Prince Bai, your ambition is not small. In the past, this emperor had unexpectedly belittled you!"

Bai Chen lowered his head. "Father Emperor really is praising me too much, this child is only the fourth prince. Where would this one dare to serve or be suitable as Crown Prince Bai? If people with aspirations heard this, this one is afraid that baseless rumors might start spreading!"

"Ouhouhuhuo..." The Eastern Sky big king angrily laughed. His right palm came up shakingly. He very much wanted to go slap Bai Chen's handsome small white face another hundred times. To the end, he still wanted to beat him up, pa pa pa!

Although the Eastern Sky big king was of a high cultivation level and usually had a level temperament, he was unexpectedly unable to keep this urge under control.

"One little blue bird, one little white bird..." The Eastern Sky big king's lips trembled. "Bai Chen! It would be better if you changed your name to Bai Chi (Idiot)! That way you would be much more worthy of your name!"

Bai Chen lifted up his head, and with a smile that was not a smile, said, "Bai Chi... isn't that my third uncle's name, how would this child dare to overstep one's authority..."

"Pu..."

At the side, the Prime Minister and Great General, who had been doing their best to wipe out any trace of their own existence, suddenly had their faces flush red. They dangerously were unable to restrain themselves from smiling, and small laughs escaped before they hastily covered their mouths in the fear that they would laugh uproariously from the bottom of their hearts.

The Eastern Sky big king launched back into action like a whirlwind, once more "pa pa pa" pelting punches to greet his son. "Your third uncle! Your third uncle! Fuck your third uncle! Your third uncle... I'll show you third uncle! I'll show you... I fuck your third uncle..."

Pitter patter, Bai Chen's body rocked left and right, forwards and backwards, coming and going.

Exactly at this time, the main hall's large entrance door had a middle aged man enter, walking in giant steps. Astonished and shocked, he stared at the scene. "Emperor Brother... you... this is..."

The Eastern Sky big king retreated, stunned. His whole face was completely astounded, and he couldn't manage to reply coherently.

Bai Chen wiped his mouth, and unexpectedly grinned. "Third Uncle came, you came at just the right time..."

This third uncle's appearance clearly looked somewhat disheveled in the wind. He was stupefied to the utmost looking on at this pair of father and son. How in the world was he supposed to answer this matter? He had just walked in to hear his own big brother shouting 'Your third uncle! Your third uncle! I fuck your third uncle...'

Mouth opened, he felt speechless, and he again scratched his head. Blankly, he said, "Eldest Brother... Emperor Brother, I... I am indeed your blood brother, ah..."

Implication: You cannot, ah, you really cannot, ah...

The Eastern Sky big king had his entire face go red, and his eyes were as wide as bells as he stared like he wanted to eat his little brother.

"..." The Prime Minister and Great General's shoulders were trembling and shaking as they tenaciously covered their mouths.

The life and death of the universe or the dying of the entire world was not necessarily capable of making these two old foxes be moved emotionally. However, at this time, this one moment, they seriously couldn't endure it. In the end, it was just too coincidental, too fortuitous. Perhaps it was the very will of heaven facilitating this outlandish situation. In any case, it was enough to shake the old and illuminate the new, and there had never been in all of history and perhaps would never again be this sort of situation!

This time at the main hall may genuinely be... a once in a lifetime experience...

"Scram!" The Eastern Sky big king finally returned back to anger, and with glaring eyes he stared at his third brother, pointing towards the main hall's entrance with one finger.

"This... Your Servant Brother has an important matter to report..." This third uncle stated, startled.

"SCRAM!" The big king exploded as he shouted, his volume distorting his words.

Third Uncle was scared shitless, and hastily retreated, wiping a handful of cold sweat off his head. His heart beat like a drum again and again in his chest. He didn't know if his Emperor Brother had eaten some sort of aphrodisiac with how irritable he had been so far today... If I stay in the main hall, wouldn't it just be asking to meet with...

His heart was half depressed and half apprehensive: Emperor Brother wasn't being serious just now, right? Indeed, just now he said that he wanted...

Thinking this far, he abruptly shivered.

Clearly a certain third uncle was scaring himself. After all, the Eastern Sky big king was, to him, a brother, a monarch, and still a supreme powerhouse. This three-layered identity, if he really wanted something out of him, he really just wasn't able to resist, and could only obediently follow along...

That consequence, was certainly too dreadful...

The main hall was completely quiet without a sound. All that remained was the big king's panting breath.

After a good long while...

"If you wanted to come then just come, but you actually still brought these two girls with you. Why was that?" Eastern Sky big king Bai Yutian knitted his brows and asked.

It seems that the big king had finally returned to normal.

At this point, the Prime Minister and the Great General finally let the air out of their mouths.

"En, son official has come this time precisely wanting to report a happy occasion to Father Emperor." Bai Chen calmly stated, "Son official has for a long time wholeheartedly admired Wan'er and Xiu'er, and desires to accept these two as my concubines, this one still asks Father Emperor for permission."

Quiet!

The whole main hall was incomparably silent!

The Prime Minister and Great General, upon hearing this sentence, had their originally still tall and straight bodies immediately shiver, and once more look as though they had been disheveled by the wind...

Year after year there have been strange events. This year there have been unexpectedly many, or perhaps even just saying this one day has had unexpectedly many strange events, as today's things seen were all earth-shattering matters that exceeded all expectations, but...

My fourth prince!

Have you truly planned to completely pierce through this day?!

Not having your father and mother's command, not having the word of a matchmaker, and personally determining your marriage... Even if it was a common rich and powerful household this was taboo, and even more so to say of a prince. Even if it was only two concubines, but... the imperial household was without personal matters. The prince taking a concubine, even if it was just side concubines, was an equivalent to an extremely important matter!

What's more, if you really like these two girls, then if you had just kept silent about the matter and kept it behind closed doors, then who would know? They believed that even if the big king knew, he would most likely just turn a blind eye to it.

But right now you have stubbornly put forth, not only in front of the big king's face but also having we two civil and military head officials on the scene... you are wanting to do what now?

The Eastern Sky big king's complexion turned from white to red, then from red turned green, then from green turned black, from black became purple, and finally directly turned blue...

Apparently he was directly restrained for quite a long time from these words for a long, long time afterwards. Finally, like a clap of thunder, he exploded. "Unfilial son! What did you just say? Will you say it again?!"

This one thunderbolt from the clear sky was enough to shake the heavens in the region, and the whole Eastern Sky army camp location's highest mountain peak fiercely trembled at the sound.

Bai Chen calmly and unhurriedly said, "Son official's meaning is as said... I and these two girls have already joined together and determined to marry. These two have given their bodies to your son, this servant, and son official as a real man doesn't want them to feel wronged. Therefore, my wish is for Father Emperor to please issue an imperial decree, and let these two girls be able to have face by having a ceremony, marrying into my Bai family. It's considered to be a gift to thank these two for their comradeship in dealing with son official!"

The Eastern Sky big king's voice suddenly turned floaty, and like a dream he uttered, "Connected for a lifetime? Please have me issue a decree? Wanting to give these two a dignified ceremony? Marry into the Bai family?"

Wan'er and Xiu'er's faces were pale, and shivering, they lowered their heads.

Bai Chen actually didn't step back at all, and with both eyes looking straight ahead at his father's severe gaze, said a single word resolutely and decisively. "Yes!"

"You are dreaming!" The Eastern Sky big king roared and instantly flew into a rage. "I'm about to butcher you three shameful things and let you walk the nine underworlds together, with the yellow springs to keep you company!"

With a long whistling noise, the crown on top of his head suddenly cracked and exploded!

The Eastern Sky big king's deific might was as though it wanted to extinguish the world. His urgent hate was thrown forward, the momentum earth-shaking, and his killing intent imposingly coming out.

Chapter 1933: 1933: It seems possible to win, doesn't it?

The Prime Minister and the Great General were greatly alarmed, and hastily moved to get in-between Bai Yutian and Bai Chen. "Your Majesty, calm down, the Fourth Prince is only momentarily confused... Fourth Prince, quickly leave... His Majesty is already furious, and I'm afraid that he seriously will kill all of you..."

The Eastern Sky King's roar shook the heavens and the earth. "Get out of the way! If you don't, this emperor will butcher you all together!"

Tyrannical killing intent beat down on them, and Dongfang Youmeng and Ximen Wusheng were beaten into retreating again and again. Their faces were wholly flushed red. Even if it was those old established powerhouses like Dongfang Youmeng and Ximen Wusheng, they were still actually incapable of resisting the Eastern Sky King's might. After impeding it for only a moment, they were already a spent force like an arrow at the end of its flight...

Although it was only his prestige for the moment, it had already put on display the cultivation level of the Eastern Sky King's body. He had seriously already achieved great heights, enough to shake the old and illuminate the new!

Bai Chen reached out a hand, and had already used his arm to block Wan'er and Xiu'er behind him. He actually hadn't retreated even half a step, and his eyes were calmly and attentively watching his crazily raging father. His eyes were completely calm like a land of ice and snow.

While this takes a while to explain, it all happened very quickly.

Two voices cried out in surprise at almost the exact same time. Dongfang Youmeng and Ximen Wusheng staggeringly retreated one after another. The Eastern Sky King's tall and sturdy body, though, had already arrived above Bai Chen. Ruthlessly, he slapped his palm down!

The Eastern Sky King clearly was filled with anger and resentment, and his killing intent was distinct to the utmost. Although this one palm didn't display his full power, it was still about eighty percent or more of his power!

This level of power was also the limit of what the Eastern Sky King was capable of controlling as he desired!

Any powerhouse has this sort of limit at their extremes. When they used power beyond this level, it might be too hard to take back or control it once mobilized. Bai Yutian was admittedly extremely angry, and was determined to ferociously lecture his son, but this palm's power still fell into the category of power that he could freely manipulate. He was still always unable to seriously kill his own son!

"Slow!"

Bai Chen suddenly shouted, and unexpectedly raised his palm to meet his father's. With a big "boom", both palms came together. The Eastern Sky King's figure suddenly shook in midair, and fell to the ground. Bai Chen, though, actually staggered out seven or eight steps.

Pleasant surprises were unexpectedly coming one right after the other. Again there was a new and rare matter cropping up, but indeed... what was before their eyes, was it considered to be a pleasant surprise or a frightening one?!

The Fourth Prince' cultivation level... when was it this unexpectedly excellent of a high realm?

After this one palm, although it seemed as though Bai Chen had fallen into a disadvantageous position, he nevertheless straightened his back to stand motionless and stiffly receive the attack. The Eastern Sky King had already formed his powerful assault, but Bai Chen unexpectedly just received it without any preparation. He only withdrew seven or eight steps, and didn't even spit blood out of his mouth. This sort of cultivation level was definitely challenging to define exactly, but... a conservative evaluation also put it above the Prime Minister's and Great General's!

"In the end, how are you willing to just agree?" Bai Chen angrily yelled. "I am a man, could it be that I'm not even allowed to choose the women I love?!"

“You fart, I can’t agree with this in any case whatsoever!” Eastern Sky King Bai Yutian snarled as he flew into a fit of rage.

“If I beat you! Will you agree to it?!” Bai Chen gave an explosive yell.

This sudden declaration caused the Prime Minister and Great General’s jaws to drop open as they simultaneously stared in astonishment. They nearly didn’t believe their own ears!

What had they just heard?

The Fourth Prince said... he wants to defeat His Majesty?

Defeat His Majesty?

This...

Am I dreaming?

I’m definitely dreaming, how else would I be able to hear this absurd of an argument!?

The Eastern Sky King’s approaching momentum was arrested by Bai Chen’s unusually swift and powerful counterattacking yell, and his body came to a halt in midair, after which he fell back down to the ground. With a bizarre gaze, he looked at Bai Chen. “What did you just say?”

Bai Chen, upright and unafraid, said, “Son Official inquires Father Emperor. If Son Official can defeat Father Emperor, can Father Emperor agree to the matters between us or can’t you?”

“Hahahaha...” Eastern Sky King laughed his head off at the top of his lungs. “Defeat me? Haha, good good good... If you little bastard are truly capable of defeating this emperor? Not only will this emperor recognize those two’s identities, I’ll personally host your wedding... If you really have this kind of strength, then why should you bury your head in the sand again? You don’t need some sort of modest scheme to install them as your wives, wouldn’t it just be good to directly make them your wives?”

He made fun of his son as he stared on. “Naturally... the premise of all of this is that you are able to achieve this.”

Bai Chen’s whole body unexpectedly shivered. With both eyes shining bright, he gazed at his Father Emperor. “Monarch is not joking?!”

The Eastern Sky King gave a cold snort. “Naturally this monarch is not joking! Just, boy, do you seriously have this kind of true strength?!”

“Monarch is not joking, Son Official thanks you for your favor!” Bai Chen’s eyes lit up dazzlingly.

“Carefully setting an auspicious date does not beat seizing an opportunity. Son Official would like to issue a challenge to Father Emperor today! Hope Father Emperor is capable of remembering the commitment made just now!”

The Eastern Sky King stared at his son like a falcon for a good long time, grimly laughing. “This emperor already said that this monarch was not joking about this matter. The commitment will naturally be kept. This emperor bestows upon you this opportunity for your cherished desires, use your strength to come take it!”

Bai Chen gave one long hiss, his body remaining straightly upright. His upper body was unmoving, his lower body didn't shift, and his position didn't change at all.

However, Young Master Bai's entire vigor already had a radical change!

In a single moment, this Young Master Bai had astonishingly shifted from a cultured and refined aristocratic young master and instead become a sword sharp enough to startle the heavens!

The sword qi was dense, and directly entered the 9th layer!

But Young Master Bai's waist stood straight, supporting his long body to stand firm like a handsome jade in front of the Eastern Sky King!

It was also at this moment that Eastern Sky's Prime Minister Dongfang Youmeng and Great General Ximen Wusheng unexpectedly had a strange sort of misconception unexpectedly appear.

It seemed as though it was also a fellow ruler that had come out, and that he claimed he was an equal to His Majesty the Sky King, whom they had given their whole life's loyalty and devotion to!

Regardless of his vigor or his majestic presence, he wasn't the slightest bit panicked, and also hadn't fallen the slightest bit into a disadvantageous position.

But the Eastern Sky King's complexion was also unprecedentedly dignified.

His attention was fully on his son. Suddenly, he gave a faint laugh. His rage of beforehand naturally no longer existed, and he clearly was thoroughly cool-headed. "Bai Chen, boy, it seems you've come prepared today, ah!"

Bai Chen smiled, and his vigor nevertheless got stronger and stronger.

"Since childhood you've always been scheming to surpass others, and your considerations have been comprehensive. You calculate what people don't calculate, and you think of what other people don't expect. Today, you've come before me, and first used this matter to infuriate me, then took the opportunity to battle with me. I'm convinced that your true objective is inevitably not just limited to you wanting to marry these two women! Fine, if you want to say something, just spit it out at the end of the battle!"

"Even though you have some sort of crafty scheme, this emperor's commitment remains unchanging."

"So long as you can win, boy, you may receive the commitment of this emperor!"

The Eastern Sky King stood in this place, as broad as a mountain and as deep and profound as the ocean. He was really endlessly abstruse, to an immeasurable degree.

"Son, come, battle!"

"Son Official has offended!"

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1934: Can you still remember?

The old ancestor of all the Eastern Sky's civil officials, Prime Minister Dongfang Youmeng, truly felt as though he was dreaming at this moment. The chief martial general of the Eastern Sky, Ximen Wusheng, also had this sort of feeling, but he felt it even a little more intensely. He was completely shocked...

What did I just see?

What did I just hear?

The Fourth Prince unexpectedly... directly challenged the Great Emperor!

And the outcome of this would decide the marriage positions of those two women?!

But, the Great Emperor, he still agreed!

T-this...

Would you dare to make this even more ridiculous than it already is?!

"Come with me!"

Eastern Sky King Bai Yutian deeply gazed into his son's eyes, and soon after soared up, flashing out of the middle of the main hall.

Bai Chen glanced towards Wan'er and Xiu'er briefly, indicating that the two women should be at ease. Afterwards, his body also changed into a strand of white light as he accompanied the Eastern Sky King and left.

Father and son, these two people, with one ahead and one behind, disappeared just like that.

This battle, regardless of who was victorious in the end, could not have people spectating.

Even the big Prime Minister and the General were not capable of being exceptions to this!

Dongfang Youmeng and Ximen Wusheng, these two people, felt as if their brains had turned completely into mush. They had always heard about people's brains getting flooded and so on, but they never expected such a melodramatic thing to happen to them.

But no matter how muddled their heads were, these two people still deeply knew one thing: with the Great Emperor's personality, he wouldn't agree to such a gambling battle if Bai Chen's cultivation was any weaker than his own!

With the Great Emperor being this straightforward, it was proof of one thing: Bai Chen already possessed the qualifications to have a fair battle with the Great Emperor!

So much so that the Great Emperor didn't have 100% assurance that he would have success within his grasp!

Again, what does this mean? What does this represent?

In this case it goes without saying!

These two people's hearts were accidentally left in what was entirely a perilous situation, something that was unfolding on a magnificent scale.

The Human Realm Upon Heavens had unexpectedly also produced another peak expert on the Great Emperor level!

But this new Great Emperor was born out of the Eastern Sky, and was even the Eastern Sky Prince. Should they say this was lucky, or unlucky?!

“Ai...” Dongfeng Youmeng gave a long sigh. With a bitter smile, he shook his head. He obviously had a mind to say something, but again for a long time did not speak. His long-time colleague Ximen Wusheng understood him completely, and also gave a bitter smile and a shake of the head in return.

These two people knew each other’s worries, because they were both thinking the same thing. How many of the capital’s princes were lingering around the Eternal Life Stage, scrambling for power and profit and scheming against each other? They had already completely disregarded Bai Chen and thought of him as having withdrawn from the fight for imperial power among brothers.

They had scarcely realized that this Fourth Prince, without a sound, had already reached a height that they had dreamed of all their lives, and would probably never reach!

There was no longer any suspense as to who would be the inheritor of the Eastern Sky King!

Furthermore, with this strength that Bai Chen possessed, as well as his foundation in the House of Chaotic Storms that he had established, the foundation of the Eastern Sky was perhaps already beneath his eyes. If he had it, it would perhaps be nice, but without it he wouldn’t be all that frustrated!

The two people had come to the same conclusion without consulting each other, and their eyes had a flash of shock, or maybe terror, flash through them as they arrived at this unimaginable conclusion. They felt out of sorts in their heads. This feeling, they couldn’t help but say, was just truly... too him!

Just at this time, the two people suddenly felt a difference on their bodies. Turning their heads to look, they couldn’t help but be startled.

Really, just after they mentioned a person, just muttering a sentence about him, and here his mother walks in the door?!

“These officials pay respect to the Heaven Empress.”

Actually they didn’t know when Meng Huaiqing had appeared in the entrance gate to the main palace hall.

Meng Huaiqing faintly smiled and nodded her head, strolling inside. Her eyebrows were tightly locked together and her expression extremely complicated as she looked at Wan’er and Xiu’er, for a long time not opening her mouth to speak.

Wan’er and Xiu’er managed to calm down, but their small hands were already damp with sweat.

Their hearts threatened to beat right out of their chests.

“Congratulations Heaven Empress, congratulations to the Heaven Empress.” Dongfang Youmeng and Ximen Wusheng simultaneously uttered.

“What happiness do I have?” Meng Huaiqing’s phoenix eyes swept the room.

“Fourth Prince’s cultivation level has already reached the top peak of the Human Realm. With the Empress having a child like this, this can be said to be the fortune of Eastern Sky!” Dongfang Youmeng said.

This was too subtle this time, as the priority was to report only the good news and not the bad!

“This trouble long ago exceeded common sense. Perhaps it is better for all of you to actually think this way about today’s affair. With this disturbance in the Eastern Sky, everything is entirely unknown...” Meng Huaiqing sighed.

This son of hers had been a deep schemer ever since he was a child, with deep plans and distant thoughts. Even though she was his mother, ever since he was ten odd years old, she had no idea what he was thinking in his heart anymore...

Even with today’s battle, she had no idea what he was thinking.

Such a big matter between father and son had already started, and she didn’t have the least bit of understanding as to what was really going on...

Meng Huaiqing thought to here, and again couldn’t help but sigh. Looking over at Wan’er and Xiu’er, she couldn’t help but recall her final disciple Su Yeyue.

Yeyue, this disciple, was someone she had seriously thrown her whole heart into taking care of. In her own words, she praised this treasured disciple as inevitably being the future number one person in the Human Realm. On the one hand, this was admittedly sincere praise, but on the other hand there was no lack of other thoughts, as Meng Huaiqing wanted to play matchmaker between Bai Chen and Su Yeyue, thinking that would be the most ideal. If her son and disciple could get married, not only would they achieve a charming story for eternity, but this husband and wife pair had a very big chance of achieving the great undertaking of unifying the Human Realm Upon Heavens, but she hadn’t thought that...

“Wan’er, Xiu’er, this palace master has seen you already for a long time!” Meng Huaiqing looked at the two women, her tone unexpectedly a rarely-seen mild one.

“Yes, Empress is above, Wan’er and Xiu’er are courteous.” The two women hastily knelt down to salute, and executed their courtesies to be respectful.

These two women had followed at Bai Chen’s side from a time long ago, as early as when Young Master Bai was still Fourth Prince Bai they had already served at his side. The Eastern Sky Queen had known all along that they had existed, but their identities had radically changed in just one day.

“You all walking this road together and assisting each other really hasn’t been easy.” Meng Huaiqing mildly smiled. “I will say only this, Bai Chen’s vision really isn’t bad.”

The Heaven Empress hadn’t complimented the two beauties, but instead had said that their support had helped Young Master Bai. This nonetheless was a spontaneous show of kindness. To be capable of serving at Young Master Bai’s side, it went without saying that the two were beauties, but there were good-looking women aplenty in this world. Someone who was capable of serving for a long time was always rare, and to state it bluntly that the two women were capable of helping Young Master Bai in his undertaking was the biggest recognition the two women could be regarded with.

Wan'er and Xiu'er simultaneously had their faces flush red, and they lowered their heads, saying, "Empress has erroneously praised..."

"En..." Meng Huaqing was lost in thought for a long time, and in a low voice, said, "This son of mine, we have never managed to stop... Actually, I can be considered to know a thing or two about your matters... three years ago, you met with a crisis that threatened to extinguish body and soul together... can you still remember?"

Realms In The Firmament

Chapter 1935: Taboo Of Interracial Marriages

Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er's delicate bodies trembled.

This matter was etched deeply into their bones and hearts. Every time they thought of it, they would still feel a lingering fear. It was truly the greatest crisis they had ever encountered in their lives!

How could they not remember such a life-and-death event?

Or it could be said that in the battle three years ago, if not for the protection of the Yin-yang soul pill that ye Xiao had given them back then, the two women would have long turned into nothingness by now.

"I was the one who did that. In my opinion, it is already a great fortune for you to be able to serve my son. If you want to take another step forward, it is because you have ulterior motives. It is also because of this that you have the intention to kill me." Meng Huaqing sighed softly. "I have spoken openly today, but I have to ask you a question. Do you hate me?"

The two girls were stunned by Meng Huaqing's sudden words and were at a loss for a moment.

The Heavenly Queen was the one who did that day?

That was no wonder. No wonder young master had been keeping that matter a secret and did not pursue it seriously..

Did she hate him?

Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er both had a complicated look in their eyes and were in a daze.

That life-and-death Calamity was bestowed upon them by the person in front of them. If it was purely a matter of life and death, it would be secondary. As long as they thought about how they would be separated from young master and never see each other again, how could the two girls not hate him, however... the person in front of them was the birth mother of their young master. Her starting position was definitely based on their young master's considerations... the two women felt a surge of emotions in their hearts, and for a moment, they felt inexplicable.

"Even now, I still don't want Bai Chen to marry you." Meng Huaqing smiled faintly. "It's not that I'm discriminating against your origins, nor is it a problem of your character, personality, and ability."

"I just said that you've been protecting and taking care of Chen 'er for so many years. You've been meticulous and devoted to him. I know all of this very well! It can even be said that it's because of the two of you that Bai Chen was able to smoothly get to where he is today!"

Meng Huaiqing paused for a moment, then, he said slowly, "As for the so-called identity problem, although the Tian family's marriage is concerned about identity, this is just the tip of the iceberg. For a strong person, only the person they truly love is their partner for the rest of their life. If it weren't for some other important reason, the emperor and I wouldn't have made things difficult for Chen 'er."

Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er's faces fell. They were as pale as paper, and as intelligent as they were, how could they not know that Meng Huaiqing was about to get straight to the point!

"The reason why I didn't hesitate to commit murder and the emperor even personally fought to stop the two of you from getting together was because... you're not human," Meng Huaiqing said, wan 'er and Xiu'er's faces turned pale. It was clear that these words had struck the most vital part of their hearts.

"In the end, I didn't stop you because of you. I stopped you because of your descendants," Meng Huaiqing said slowly. "Men and women love each other, and it is common sense for people to love each other. Having children is also the path of creation. "However, intermarriage between different races... has always had a major flaw."

Wan 'er and Xiu'er said in a trembling voice, "May I Ask Your Majesty, what is the problem?"

"You are still inexperienced. Although you have achieved good things with Chen 'er, you have not reached a certain stage yet. Naturally, you do not know the difficulty of procreation. It is difficult to ascend to the heavens!"

Meng Huaiqing said word by word, "Regardless of any species, the mother giving birth to a child is indeed the Heavenly Dao. However, when the child is born, it is also the mother's great calamity. The child's birthday and the mother's bitter day are not just a common saying! "It is especially difficult to conceive a child between humans, let alone you... Even if you are now in human form, in the end, you are only in human form. In the end, the main body is still..."

"May I ask, when you two are certain that you have a child... What form the child will take..." Meng Huaiqing said with some difficulty, "Have you thought about this, or rather, do you understand?"

Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er looked at each other and said in unison, "I hope that the empress can clarify this."

This matter was truly a huge matter for the two of them!

"Heaven has its Heavenly Dao, Earth has its geography, and man has his human relations. Although man is known as the spirit of all living things, and his physique is the most suitable for cultivation, he is in fact the most vulnerable species among the cultivable races. It's just that the human race's adaptability is exceptionally good, and they are best at absorbing other races'talents for their own use. Little did they know that this advantage has also created the unique weakness of the human race. The talents of the human race and the talents of the other races are in conflict with each other, resulting in the limit of the talents of the original body being reduced. In other words, if a child born from an intermarriage has talents of the human race that are on par with the talents of the other races, he will be reduced to an ordinary person, a completely ordinary person!" Meng Huaiqing said gently.

"And in this state, after all, a healthy child is born; it's just that he doesn't have the body to cultivate... or should I say, this mortal state is the most ideal and most impossible dream."

Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er's expressions changed once again.

Giving birth to a child, unable to cultivate, was actually the most ideal state, the most impossible dream state?

What did that mean?

“Is it hard to imagine? No, it’s not hard at all... This state is at least much better than being a bird or an egg...” Meng Huaiqing’s face was filled with pity. “Also, if your child was born in a half-human, half-bird, half-human monster state, how would you feel... After all, that’s the most likely state to appear.”

“Sigh...” Meng Huaiqing let out a long sigh.

Wan ‘Er and Xiu ‘er’s pretty faces were deathly pale. Their delicate bodies were on the verge of collapse, and they felt their vision darken.

They were both intelligent people, so how could they not know that what Meng Huaiqing said was the truth.

However, these words, every word, every word, were like a sledgehammer that weighed ten thousand pounds, fiercely smashing onto the two women.

It made the two women’s hearts ache, so much so that they wished they were dead. Their hearts were shattered into pieces!

“Don’t think that I’m being alarmist here. If you were to marry your own clansmen normally, what would you give birth to?” Meng Huaiqing said, “Would it be sir laying an egg, and after it hatches, there would be a little bird that would cultivate to a certain level before it could transform into a human. “This process isn’t wrong, right?”

Wan ‘Er and Xiu ‘er’s faces were pale. They could only nod, because that was how they had lived.

“The two of you and Chen ‘er have been in the lower realm for countless years. Even if you don’t see each other, you should have a certain level of experience. The birth of a human child is truly like the birth of your race. The human race reproduces, and the mother gives birth to a baby. After a few years of raising it, it will grow into an adult and cultivate smoothly.”

Meng Huaiqing said.

“However, in the past millions of years in the mortal world, interracial marriages are one of a kind. Even if there are occasional exceptions, those people and their descendants also quietly disappear into the mortal world, and there are no legends about their descendants. Why do you think that is?”

Wan ‘Er and Xiu ‘er were trembling all over, and their tears had already blurred their eyes.

However, Meng Huaiqing did not care about their feelings at all and continued to speak. “Because of such a scandal, even if those people were at their peak, they would not be able to withstand it

“So, once they discover such an outcome, they will choose to immediately disappear from this world and never return to this world again.”

Chapter 1936: The Difficulty Of Ascending To The Heavens

Meng Huaqing said calmly, "In ancient times, it was very remote at that time. Even if I had a glib tongue, the two of you might not have believed it. But do you know Mr. Ye Hongchen? Coincidentally, his fortuitous encounter was the same as yours..."

Ye Hongchen?

Wan 'er and Xiu 'er widened their beautiful eyes at the same time.

Mr. Ye?

He had intermarried with a different race? !

"Then... Mr. Ye... how did he do it?"

Wan 'er asked weakly.

"Ye Hongchen had many fortuitous encounters the moment he debuted. He had a dragon and a phoenix as his two favorite pets. He became a legend for a time. I believe that you all know this. But there is one thing that you must not know." Meng Huaqing said, "His spirit pet phoenix... after it transformed into a human, it fell deeply in love with Ye Hongchen."

"And Ye Hongchen himself was also moved by it. Under the mutual affection, he married his spirit pet phoenix as his wife."

"According to common sense, the difference in cultivation between these two people is similar. They are at the peak of cultivation. As long as they have a descendant, their foundation will be ten or a hundred times stronger than ordinary people. There is no doubt that they are the backbone of the Ye family. But why hasn't such a person appeared in the past 100,000 years? "They just let the children of their concubines reproduce in the Ye Family?"

"Because they didn't dare to have children!"

Meng Huaqing said, "Because they knew the result that I mentioned. So they chose to stay together and live a happy life, but they avoided the issue of reproduction."

"I even dare to assert that this layer of fate was a major factor in ye Hongchen's agreement in the past 100,000 years. Because ye Hongchen didn't care much about the survival of the Ye family in 100,000 years..."

"And this battle is so tragic. I believe that you've also seen some clues..."

Meng Huaqing said, "Who is Ye Hongchen? Even he can't break this layer of taboo. Do you think that you and Chen 'er... have the ability to break this dead knot... HMM?"

Wan 'Er and Xiu 'ER's hearts were already as dead as ash. They didn't know what to say.

Although the two of them were still standing, their souls had already flown out of their bodies. Their beautiful eyes no longer had the slightest bit of life in them.

To love someone deeply and stay together for the rest of their lives, as a woman, who wouldn't want to bear children for the person they loved the most?

But reality was just so cruel?

Even the legendary figures of this world could only sigh helplessly at this, how could they and the young master be an exception? !

Meng Huaiqing's voice sounded as if it was from the distant horizon. "Bai Chen knows about this matter. He knows and still insists on marrying the two of you. It's obvious that he's already prepared himself."

"Of course he's prepared, but the two of you... are already prepared? Are you prepared to bear it?"

Meng Huaiqing's voice was clearly gentle and tactful, but at this moment, it was as if it had shattered the two women's Divine Souls.

The two women staggered back and actually fell to the ground with a "Plop". Their faces were filled with tears and their expressions were dull.

As the saying goes, the greatest sorrow is the death of the heart.

Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er's hearts had already died at this moment.

On the side, Dongfang youmeng sighed, "Empress Tian... Dare I ask, if such a situation were to happen, how would we be able to ensure that the baby can safely survive and spend his life as a normal person?"

Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er's eyes flickered, and their intelligence instantly recovered. They stared fixedly at Meng Huaiqing's face, unable to rest in peace.

Meng Huaiqing frowned and glanced at Dong Fang youmeng

Dong Fang youmeng smiled bitterly, "Your subject is curious... I'm asking too much."

Meng Huaiqing snorted and said, "The Heavenly Dao has its basis, the law has its break, and there is always a line left... if we only want to ensure that the baby is in a completely normal state, there is still a way."

Hearing these words, Wan 'er and Xiu 'er's eyes suddenly shot out a dazzling light, and their breathing became rapid.

"As long as... as long as the realmlord who created this world... is willing to bestow a decree on them and make an exception for them, changing the Heavenly Dao trajectory of this world, his wish will naturally come true. "However, the Heavenly Dao is natural. This is an iron rule that was set when this world was first born, and it will not be shaken by any external forces. Once the world creator breaks the original rules of this world... Then he will forever lose control over this world..."

"We don't know who the powerful existence who created this world beyond the mortal world is. Even more so, no one knows if we can find him. "Even if you do find him, who knows if he's willing to take action or bear such a loss... who knows? In any case, I don't know!"Meng Huaiqing laughed self-deprecatingly.

"All I know is that the almighty that created this world didn't just create the world beyond the mortal world in one go. He also created the starry universe, the Endless Galaxies, the Sun, the Moon... all of these things together to form a complete universe. “The Mortal World Beyond Heaven is indeed a top-tier plane, but compared to this universe, it’s just a relatively large grain of dust..

“If that major power made a move to change the Heavenly Dao, what he would lose... would be the entire great world. “Just because of one of the hundreds of billions of ants in a grain of dust, he would lose the entire great world. If it were you, Prime Minister Dongfang... Would you do it? “Put yourself in My Shoes, at least this empress will not do it!”

Wan ‘Er and Xiu ‘er once again sat down weakly on the ground.

This was a hope, the only hope.

But this hope was worse than none!

There was nothing more hopeless than the disappointment after obtaining hope!

Dreamer from the east and Ximen Wusheng smiled wryly at each other.

This hope was the true blow to the head! And it was on the head of someone who was already drowning and about to drown, yet another blow to the head! Do you want to not drown? As long as you drink up all the water on the planet, you won’t drown..

This method could indeed solve the problem, but how could it be possible! ?

“There’s another possibility, which is... This couple’s achievements eventually surpassed that of the world creator, and they even snatched this great world from the hands of this powerful existence! “I can also undo it, or it should be said that if it reaches that stage, I can naturally do whatever I want, and there’s nothing I can’t do.”

Wan ‘er and Xiu‘er’s hearts were like Dead Ashes.

Meng Huaiqing said leisurely, “Chen ‘er is a person with a temperament, and it’s rare for him to be moved. Being moved means that he will be moved for a lifetime. He has made up his mind to marry you, and for the both of you, he would even fight with his father. “At this point, we no longer think that we can stop his thoughts. “It’s also difficult for us to have any thoughts of stopping him!”

“So, we only hope that... When you accompany Bai Chen...”Meng Huaiqing said unhurriedly, “Don’t let my Chen ‘er cut off his descendants’ cigarettes... that will be enough.”

Meng Huaiqing’s words were really profound!

It seemed that no matter how she interpreted it, it was fine.

It was just that she didn’t know if Wan ‘Er and Xiu ‘er, who were already like walking corpses, could still understand the deeper meaning behind it..

“Mother!”A furious shout suddenly rang out in the air.

Chapter 1937: What Do You Want

With a flash, Bai Chen appeared in the main hall with a gloomy expression.

He could see Wan 'er and Xiu 'er's miserable and exhausted expressions. Bai Chen's expression became even gloomier.

The current Bai Chen was in a sorry state. At least, that was what he looked like.

His hair was disheveled, his body was covered in wounds, and he was dripping with blood. He was limping as he walked, and his white robe was almost torn to shreds. It was obvious that the battle just now had been extremely difficult..

"Where is your father?" Meng Huaiqing's heart trembled.

Chen 'Er had returned, but the eastern Heavenly Emperor had not.

If the victor's situation was like this, wouldn't the loser be even more miserable!

Could it be that Bai Chen actually took it seriously..

"Father... cough cough... Father has already gone back to rest." Bai Chen coughed, and his face was a little awkward. "This..."

"Oh, I understand."

Meng Huaiqing instantly understood everything. Since it was a battle between two great powers, and his son was in such a sorry state, his husband would probably not be any better. Why would the heavenly emperor appear in such a sorry state in front of everyone? He must have gone back to recuperate.

As long as he was fine, what was a little injury? !

"Who will win?" Meng Huaiqing asked.

Bai Chen hesitated for a moment before saying, "It's a draw."

"Oh..." Meng Huaiqing felt more at ease.

Although he felt resentful towards his husband... After all, they had been a loving couple for more than 100,000 years. How could he not care?

A draw was undoubtedly the best outcome in a father-son battle. After this battle, East Heaven officially had two super powerhouses at the heavenly emperor level. Nothing could be better than this!

"Mother, what did you say to these two girls just now?" Bai Chen composed himself and held Xiu'er and Wan 'er in his arms. He could feel that the two girls' delicate bodies were still trembling uncontrollably. He could not help but feel a surge of anger rise in his heart.

"I've said everything that I should have said," Meng Huaiqing said indifferently. "I've said everything that I shouldn't have said. "Chen 'er, you've grown up. We allow you to make your own decisions regarding your marriage. "But... There are some taboos. It's better to let them know as soon as possible."

Bai Chen's furious expression slowly calmed down. After a long while, he said in a deep voice, "I know what you're talking about..."

Meng Huaiqing sighed.

"I'll think of a way to deal with this matter. Just because other people can't do it doesn't mean that I can't do it," Bai Chen said in a low voice but with determination.

He tightened his grip on Wan 'er and Xiu'er. The powerful force made the two girls feel a sense of security that they hadn't felt in a long time.

"There must be a way."

Bai Chen's eyes were shining.

"If the eternal realm can't do it, then the supreme-being realm will do it! If the supreme-being realm can't do it, then the supreme-being realm will do it. "If the people in this world can't do it, then I'll look for an even stronger person in this world!" Bai Chen's face was gloomy. "I have an endless lifespan. I'll solve this matter properly! "Definitely!"

"Young master..." Wan 'er and Xiu'er hugged Bai Chen's body tightly and suddenly burst into tears.

Their thick chests made the two women come back to their senses. However, when they came back to their senses, it was the same as facing the cruel reality. As they snuggled in their lovers' arms, the two women could no longer suppress the sorrow and bitterness in their hearts and let out endless cries!

A wave of spiritual sense floated over from the other end of the hall.

"Bai Chen, make the decision on your own. On the day of the wedding, this Emperor will officiate the wedding!"

It was the voice of the Eastern Heavenly Emperor, Bai Yutian.

The Heavenly Emperor had finally agreed.

Before today, Wan 'Er and Xiu 'ER had dreamed of this matter.

However, at the moment when this wish was finally achieved, the two women did not even feel the slightest bit of joy in their hearts.

In fact, they were even sadder, their hearts were like Dead Ashes, and they had no hope at all..

Bai Chen said in a low voice, "Think back to the time when we first met... regarding this day, father, mother, and Empress personally agreed to our marriage, did they not even dare to think about it? "But today, we have already accomplished this thing that they did not even dare to think about

"No one can predict what will happen in the future. It's hard to say for sure. Even if it seems like something that we don't even dare to think about now, it doesn't matter. As long as you and I walk down the path step by step, one day, we will be able to do it!"

Bai Chen said softly, "Don't tell me you still don't believe me? !"

"We believe in young master... the only one who believes in young master in this world!" Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er only felt their panicked hearts slowly calm down. Their hearts once again felt like they had found someone to rely on.

It was as if they had suddenly caught hold of a piece of driftwood in the vast sea.

Even though they knew that this place was still very, very far away from the shore, so far away that there was almost no hope..

But now... at least they would not sink anymore..

As long as it was not a catastrophe, then it was not completely hopeless!

“Bai Chen!”

The heavenly emperor’s spiritual sense spread out again from within. “Come in and look for me two hours later!”

The celestial emperor’s spiritual sense appeared very tired, but it was surrounded by a very relaxed atmosphere, as if he had seen through something, also saw through something, let go of something, lost something..

In short, it was a very complicated feeling.

But the spiritual sense still spread out firmly.

“We, father and son, should have a good talk. I believe that you didn’t come here today purely for your marriage. What you want is actually... to talk with me.”

“Yes, Father.” Bai Chen said respectfully, “In two hours, I hope that father and mother will be present. Let’s have a good talk as a family.”

“Okay!”

The heavenly emperor’s spiritual sense reverberated for a moment before returning to silence.

..

In the study room.

“Speak, what do you want to Do?” The Eastern Heavenly Emperor looked at his son with an extremely complicated gaze. There was gratification, excitement, and some confusion that he could not see through.

This kind of expression was rarely seen in the eastern Heavenly Emperor’s eyes.

But now, it was clear as day.

As far as the Eastern Heavenly Emperor was concerned, he had always known that his son was very outstanding, but he did not know that he was so outstanding to such an extent.

Unknowingly, not only did he walk in front of all his brothers, his cultivation level was even on par with his own!

This reality made the eastern Sky Emperor wonder if he was already old and could not keep up with the current situation.

There were five people facing each other in the study.

Bai Yutian, Meng Huaiqing, Bai Chen, Wan ‘er, Xiu ‘er.

This lineup was a real and genuine family meeting.

However, the expressions of this family were all very heavy.

“What do I Want?”

Upon hearing his father’s question, a thoughtful expression appeared on Bai Chen’s handsome face.

“With your current abilities, I’m afraid that the entire eastern sky might not even be in your eyes, much less your brothers and sisters, right? !”

The eastern sky emperor said indifferently, “Do you really need to jump out at this moment since you control the entire cloud toppling rain house at the same time?”

Chapter 1938: I Want The Entire Beyond Avalon

“Your father, the emperor, has never been a person who yearned for power and power. If the current situation is still stable, with a son like you, I will gladly pass the throne to you. Your mother and I will be happy to be at ease from now on.”

The White Jade Celestial Falcon’s eyes looked at Bai Chen. “We can all feel the respect you have for me and your mother.”

“But now that you have jumped out in such a big way and stepped into the chaos, it seems like you want to become the enemy of the world. Why is that?”

Bai Chen pondered for a moment and said softly, “Father... I have something to say. I hope that Father will not be angry.”

Bai Yutian nodded indifferently. “Tell me. I have already been angry today. It is not a big deal for me to be angry again.”

“I think... Father, your situation is still a little too small...” Bai Chen was silent for a moment before he finally said proudly, “What you want in your life is only the East Heaven!”

“And what I want is just as you said. It’s not just a corner of the East Heaven, but the entire beyond heaven.”

Bai Chen’s words were like a stone that stirred up a thousand waves.

Although the Emperor of the East Heaven had already had a vague guess in his heart, he was still shocked by these words!

Meng Huaqing also suddenly turned his head. His beautiful eyes shone with a strange light as he looked at his son with admiration.

“Also, unifying the entire secular world beyond heaven is only the first step of my grand plan.”

Bai Chen said seriously.

The Eastern Heavenly Emperor and his wife could not help but fall silent.

For a moment, no one said anything.

It was obvious that the amount of information contained in Bai Chen's words was too great. It was a little beyond the understanding of the two in front of them. Unifying the entire secular world beyond heaven was only the first step. What would happen next? This... was too beyond their imagination!

When Bai Chen brought Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er out of the study, he said to Meng Huaiqing, who was still reluctant to part, "Mother... actually... about the Great Western Heaven..."

Meng huaiqing sighed and said, "What do you want to say?"

Bai Chen said in a low voice, "Uncle's family in the Great Western heaven... although they are blood relatives of yours, our two families have not been on good terms for a long time... back then, uncle borrowed my father's power to secure the throne of the Great Western Heaven. After that, not only did he fail to fulfill his promise, he even poached many experts from the eastern heaven. This has long caused a rift between the two families, and it is difficult to repair it..."

"All these years, we have never been on good terms with each other, and our hearts have never been on good terms with each other... Great Western Heaven has always existed, and it will only be a thorn in our hearts. "Now that it has passed, even if we are sad for a while, we can still reminisce in our hearts... In the future..."

Bai Chen said, "Originally, I shouldn't be the one to say these words, but seeing that mother has been depressed for the past few days, I feel uncomfortable. I Won't be happy if I don't say it out loud. I hope mother won't blame me."

Meng Huaiqing let out a long sigh. "I know... It's just that I can't accept it in my heart for a while. After all, more than 100,000 years have passed. The bloodline and kinship from back then... There's only this little bit left now. How can I feel good if it's gone just like that? I Can't say it out loud."

Bai Chen nodded, he said, "En, actually, if we return to the topic... mother already knows that I want to unite, and if uncle's side continues to exist, it's inevitable that both sides will face each other in the future. How can we avoid a war of war... A War of unification, a war of fate... There's never any room for mercy."

This sentence was actually very clear.

Even if uncle did not die at this moment... if they were to face each other head-on, they would still end up in the same situation.

Furthermore, now that he had lost his life in the hands of an outsider, it would be his nephew killing his own mother and uncle. Wouldn't it be even more difficult to face him? !

Meng Huaiqing nodded. "I know. Chen 'er, don't worry. Mother will not be so ignorant."

Bai Chen said, "Regarding uncle's matter, I will take revenge for his family and settle this karma."

After saying that, he left.

Meng Huaiqing looked at his son's departing back and fell into silence once again. Grief could be seen faintly on his face.

Even though he had said that he didn't care about Yun Yun in front of his son, how could he really not care in his heart? After all, he was his own blood brother. Even if it was a thousand different things and they did not get along, but... blood was still thicker than water.

She let out a long sigh.

Revenge?

Meng Huaiqing smiled bitterly again.

Those with discerning eyes had already seen through the entire process of the Great Western Heaven's defeat. That's right, Meng Tianluo had indeed fallen at the hands of Ye Hongchen. However, if ye Xiao had not killed Meng Wuzhen, Meng Tianluo would not have been unable to take charge of the overall situation because his soul had been damaged, without ye Xiao's forceful entry into the battle, the Dean of the Great Western Sky's four pillars, Chang Kong, would not have died. The battle strength of both sides would not have been completely out of balance, and the Great Western Sky's army would not have been defeated so quickly. It was precisely because Meng Tianluo's strength had been greatly reduced, this was the reason why he had lost the final battle with Ye Hongchen once and for all. If Meng Tianluo's strength was complete, even if he was no match for ye Hongchen in a head-on confrontation, he would still have the leeway to save his life!

Therefore, one of the major factors that led to the destruction of the Great Western Heaven and the death of Meng Tianluo should be on ye Xiao!

And that ye Xiao was the husband that your junior sister yearned for. If you killed ye Xiao to avenge your uncle, wouldn't your junior sister suffer for the rest of her life?

Also, the mastermind behind the destruction of the Great Western Heaven was not only Mr. Ye and ye Xiao. Even Bai Chen himself was one of the masterminds. If he did not send people to attack the ye family's garrison, Ye Hongchen would not have an excuse to attack the Great Western Heaven, it also made the other four corners of the world lose the position to intervene and support them!

If Bai Chenyan wanted to avenge his uncle, would he still have to stab himself a few times? !

"The affairs of the world are like chess, the affairs of the world are unpredictable. How could the people of the world be innocent..."

Meng Huaiqing only felt a myriad of thoughts in front of her. It was a mess. For a moment, she could not make sense of it no matter what.

"After all, she is a woman. It is inevitable for her to be a little sentimental... sigh, if she was born a man, she would only be ambitious and ambitious. Why would she care about these things..."

Meng Huaiqing sighed in her heart.

She had always been very dissatisfied with the world's preference for boys over girls, and she had always been trying her best to prove that girls were not inferior to men, or even better. If not for this, she would not only have wasted a lot of effort to nurture su yeyue., she had even come up with the idea of being the number one person in the world of mortals before Su Yeyue's cultivation had even reached a certain level. However, at this moment, Meng Huaqing could sincerely feel that there was really such a difference between men and women.

Furthermore, it was especially so... between the so-called successful men and successful women.

After coming up with this understanding, she could not help but feel a little dejected.

On each of Wan 'er and Xiu 'er's wrists, there was an ordinary white jade bracelet.

These two bracelets were indeed two ordinary white jade bracelets. There was nothing special about them, but they were extremely memorable. These two bracelets were originally a pair, and they were from the time when the Bai clan was still a small clan, the ancestor of the Eastern Heavenly Emperor had given the eldest son and daughter-in-law a greeting gift. It had been passed down from generation to generation and had long since become the family heirloom of the Bai clan.

Only the eldest wife of the Bai clan could have them. Meng Huaqing had followed Bai Yutian for over a hundred thousand years. No matter how exalted his status was, he had never taken off these bracelets.

Now, these family heirloom bracelets had been split into two and given to Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er.

This proved that both the Eastern Heavenly Emperor and the Heavenly Queen had approved of the marriage between Wan 'Er and Xiu 'er and Bai Chen.

They even treated Bai Chen as the first successor of the family.

Although Wan 'er and Xiu 'er were excited because of this, they were more or less forced to smile.

Chapter 1939: War Can Only Be Cruel

The words of the heavenly queen were like a huge mountain, pressing down on the hearts of the two women, making it difficult for them to breathe.

After obtaining this pair of bracelets, the pressure was even greater!

Marrying the young master, but not being able to give birth to any children for the young master, what was this?

Wasn't this equivalent to having "No descendants"!

Thinking of these two words, Wan 'er and Xiu 'er felt their hairs stand on end. They felt that the two of them had clearly harmed the young master's family!

Looking at this pair of jade bracelets, which represented the inheritance of the descendants of the direct line of descent of the Bai family, the two of them felt even more guilty. With the two of them as wives, how could they talk about heirs and inheritance..

"Young master..."Wan 'er said in a low voice.

"What?"Bai Chen turned his head.

“If... there is a suitable one... young master should find another... mistress...”Wan ‘er stuttered. “Xiu’er and I... are already satisfied to be young master’s maidservants in this life. Didn’t our original intention also include Xiu’er and me as your side concubines...”

Xiu’er seemed to want to agree with Wan ‘er, but she wanted to say something but stopped herself. She actually found it difficult to speak..

Bai Chen’s expression immediately sank as he shouted, “Shut up!”

Wan ‘Er and Xiu’er immediately fell silent. They did not dare to make a sound.

Bai Chen’s expression sank as he flew away.

Ye Xiaojian emitted a cold light as he charged out from the Great Northern Sky’s camp. The heads rolling behind him were like watermelons that had smashed hundreds of carriages as they tumbled down from the sky..

During this period of time, ye Xiao’s cultivation and experience had all increased at an extremely fast speed due to the continuous battles that were almost non-stop. As for the people from the sovereign pavilion, they were also quickly maturing in this life and death battle atmosphere!

Those who were unable to adapt to such a battle rhythm, regardless of their cultivation, were eliminated and fell into the chaotic army long ago. Ye Xiao no longer felt this.

On the other hand, Mo Feiyun, who was the second to rush out, had a pale face. His heart was actually filled with an indescribable depression.

There was no other reason... those who were unable to adapt to such a fierce battle formation, the experts from the Brotherhood actually took up the majority!

If a hundred people had been sacrificed in this battle, at least eighty-five of them would have been people who originally belonged to the Brotherhood. As the battle continued, this proportion was gradually increasing.

This result, this reality, caused the original nine big shots of the Brotherhood to Lose Face, collectively taking 10,000 critical hits.

They were clearly at the same level of cultivation, the same level of cultivation, and the same painstaking training. Why was it that when the people of the sovereign’s pavilion entered the battlefield, they were like fish in water, while the people of their own brotherhood performed so poorly, they could not even be compared to heaven and earth. This comparison was really full of harm

“Fei Yun, don’t be depressed about this matter. There are differences in the quality of the members from all sides. How can we generalize?”

Ye Xiao said, “Back then, when the Brotherhood was founded, wasn’t it also through killing, fighting, and being baptized by countless iron and blood that it was finally built up to be the glory of the Brotherhood?”

“At that time, the Brotherhood could be said to be invincible in the jianghu.”

“The times have changed, especially in recent years, but you guys followed the strategy of keeping a low profile and developing in the dark. On the surface, it seems that the number of members of the Brotherhood has increased a lot. They are all brothers in the four seas, and the number of pure members can be said to be extremely large. “But... This will actually result in a consequence, which is that there will be less fighting outside.”

“It just so happens that your higher-ups don’t believe in fighting. They only hope that your brothers can survive.”. Based on this philosophy, the consequences were extremely serious. “If we didn’t encounter such a world-ending battle, the Brotherhood might have always been a banner in the pugilistic world. “However, as long as we encounter a certain level of cruel battles... the years of living in luxury, long-term stability, and peace will undoubtedly make it difficult for the members of the brotherhood to react, let alone adapt.”

“However, the battlefield is the most dangerous. If you can’t adapt to it, you’ll be killed!”

“Previously, many peak ninth grade saint origin realm cultivators were killed by seventh or eighth grade saint origin realm cultivators. This was the root cause. “Because the other party was fearless and had an imposing manner, while on your side, due to your deep-rooted habits, you first protected your own life. Just based on the imposing manner, the two sides are no longer on the same level.”

“When the two armies are fighting, especially in such a world-ending war where almost all the grandmasters are involved... the degree of chaos in the situation has long reached an appalling level.

“Under such an atmosphere, whoever is afraid of death will die first!”

“From ancient times until now, those who survive on the battlefield are desperadoes who are not afraid of death and dare to risk their lives! Why?”

Ye Xiao smiled faintly. “That’s why I said, don’t mind it too much. It’s not that I’m cold-blooded, it’s just that reality is so cold-blooded. If the blood of these dead can make others wake up earlier, then this price of casualties, the price we paid, is still meaningful.”

“Then... People from the Sovereign’s Pavilion?” Could it be that Yun was somewhat unconvinced.

“The people who belong to the Pavilion of Lords are all people who have experienced life and death, and have experienced ups and downs on the edge of life and death. Ever since they entered the pavilion of Lords, even their daily training has been a real fight!”

Ye Xiao said casually, “After everyone has made a breakthrough in their cultivation, they will conceal their identity and go to the pugilistic world to train. In the process of going to the pugilistic world, without any assistance from the pavilion, they can only rely on their own efforts.”

“Everyone in the sovereign pavilion has a slander.”Ye Xiao said indifferently, “If they are released to the four seas, they will all be monarchs. Since they want to be monarchs, then in contrast... if they want to wear a crown, they must bear the weight first!”

“It was too late for the brotherhood to get a group of brothers to join the pavilion, and they immediately encountered the Battle of the century. It could be said that it was a misfortune. However, the great fortune amidst the misfortune was that... more than half of them had already changed in these eight months. The remaining people who haven't changed..."

"The monarch's wisdom is as sharp as a torch. Why didn't he remind us? Isn't it too cold-blooded? Fei Yun doesn't dare to agree!?"

"Remind? Why should I remind them?" Ye Xiao said, "On such a battlefield, life and death are in the hands of fate. They clearly know such a situation, but they still don't know how to be alert. They are seeking their own death. Their deaths are not worth regretting. I can use the blood of these people to wake up the other half-asleep people."

Chapter 1940: News Of An Old Friend At The Foot Of Red Dust Mountain

Even if the people from the Pavilion of Lords had smelled and come into contact with this gas, there would not be any abnormalities. This was because they had already taken the antidote beforehand. However, once the people from the Northern Sky Army smelled and came into contact with it., their bones and tendons immediately became sore... their cultivation level slowly fell..

With this decline, the manpower of the Sovereign Pavilion was invincible..

However, the poison king was already at the end of his rope. Even though the poison king's "Poison traversing the world" mental cultivation method had reached great success, he had still been poisoned by an army of a million soldiers., however, it was still the result of the poison king overdrawing himself countless times..

"Is There Something Wrong?" Could it be that Yun could not make heads or tails of ye Xiao's judgment. In this intense battle, victory was just a step away, yet you had to stop and think about it?

"It's still as intense and arduous as before, that's true," ye Xiao said indifferently. "But... In this battle, the Eastern Sky's troops have not made any moves!"

Mo Feiyun's heart trembled when he heard that.

"In fact, the Eastern Sky's troops have not made any moves since yesterday."

Ye Xiao said, "Today's battle was deliberately arranged by me to observe the movements of the eastern sky troops. The facts have proven that the eastern sky troops have really stopped moving!"

Ye Xiao clenched his teeth tightly. "Do you know what this means?"

Mo Feiyun's face suddenly darkened.

"I'm going to find two people now," ye Xiao said. "Feiyun, you're in charge of gathering manpower and retreating from the battlefield at full speed. Find a place to rest and reorganize. Be careful and be on guard!"

Ye Xiao raised his sword with his body, and a sword light passed through the chaotic army. Wherever the cold light passed, it was like a large ship sailing through the magnificent sea..

Along the way, heads rolled on both sides, and blood spewed out..

In just a moment, ye Xiao had already disappeared!

At this moment of danger, when ye Xiao had no time to spare, the things he had to do in his free time were naturally no small matter. As for the two people he had to look for, they were naturally no small matter!

In a hidden valley surrounded by clouds and mist. Although it was located in the borderless sea, even within the central area of this battle of the century, this place was exceptionally peaceful and peaceful, with beautiful mountains and clear waters.

The owner of this situation was none other than Mr. Ye.

A long rainbow passed through the sky, and light and shadow flashed rapidly.

Ye Xiao suddenly appeared at the foot of the mountain.

At this moment, ye Xiao could not help but feel a little emotional as he looked at this small mountain that looked like it was covered in clouds and mist up close.

Regardless of its geographical location or the supply of spiritual energy, this mountain was only the most ordinary small mountain. It did not even have a landscape for people to admire. It was probably just a slightly larger and slightly taller mound.

However, Mr. Ye had just made it into a different kind of scenery, a paradise!

“As the old saying goes, a mountain is not tall, but a spirit is. Today, I feel that this is the most suitable place for this old saying,” ye Xiao said these words from the bottom of her heart. “It’s more or less so! “In fact, for someone like Mr. Ye, even if you change the style of a country, it’s just a piece of cake. It’s naturally easier to manage a small mountain.”

A leisurely voice came from the mountain, “Ye Xiao, why are you here this time?”

Ye Xiao quietly said, “The overall situation of the world has changed. It’s not good for you, it’s not good for me. Why Don’t You Come?”

Ye Hongchen’s voice paused, and he said faintly, “Come up and tell me.”

The layers of clouds and mist surrounding the mountain suddenly dispersed and gathered again, faintly forming a door to the other side.

The moment ye Xiao entered, the tunnel that was formed by the clouds once again disappeared. It returned to its original cloud-covered state.

Ye Xiao slowly climbed the mountain and slowly advanced. He arrived at the middle of the mountain and saw three to four people who were bandaging each other’s wounds. When he saw ye Xiao come up, his eyes merely swept over him. His body was clearly covered in wounds., his flesh and blood were a mess, but he seemed to have no feeling at all.

One of the black-clothed men stood upright like a javelin. Originally, his injuries were extremely serious. There were many wounds all over his body that directly exposed his white bones. However, he still did not seem to care at all, seeing ye Xiao slowly approaching, he suddenly opened his mouth and said, "You are ye Xiao?"

Ye Xiao smiled and said, "Are you the king of Assassins, Blood River? Blood River Blood River indeed lives up to its reputation. I have long heard of you."

Ye Xiao rarely expressed respect from the bottom of his heart to a particular person. Whether it was the Five Heavenly Emperors, the seven golden lotuses, or even the legendary Mr. Ye, ye Xiao lacked such respect, in the entire beyond heaven of the red dust world, the only person who could make ye Xiao Sigh in admiration was blood river!

Although Blood River's cultivation was not as high as Mr. Ye and the Five Heavenly Emperors, he was the only person who could pose a fatal threat to this group of people at the eternal realm. This was a miracle that could not be replicated in this world, however, it also meant that there was no absolute in the world. A person at the pinnacle was not a limit that could not be wiped out, surpassed, or overpowered!

It was precisely because of this reason that ye Xiao expressed heartfelt respect for this legendary assassin whose nickname was his name!

However, it was one thing for ye Xiao to first show kindness to blood river, but it was completely another matter for blood river to accept it or not!

Who Was Blood River? He was a super assassin that even the pinnacle existences in this world had to be wary of by 70% . Ye Xiao had only debuted for less than ten years. Even if he had some foundation, he might not be able to enter the eyes of such an ultimate assassin!

Ye Xiao understood the mentality of an assassin very well, so he had long been prepared to be ignored by blood river. With ye Xiao's attitude of being aloof and accepting death, even if Blood River taught him a lesson because of his flattery..., ye Xiao would not be too surprised!

A top-tier assassin naturally had the status of a top-tier assassin. He would not change his original intention just because of a few flattery!

However, what made ye Xiaoyi's expression change was that when blood river heard this, he actually broke out into a laugh. "Not bad, not bad. You're very good!"

Ye Xiaoyi was slightly surprised, but said, "Thank you for your favor, senior."

Blood River said, "I'll tell you the truth. How Can I show my favor? In a few days, my three disciples will probably be able to come out of seclusion. "They are all your old subordinates. In the future, they will have to follow you to conquer the world. "Originally, everyone has their own fate, so I shouldn't interfere too much. But... Let's put it this way. I have a request for you."

Ye Xiao's heart shrank. "Senior's three disciples? Are they my old subordinates?"

"That's right." Blood River Yang said, "Zhao Pingtian, Ning biluo, Liu Changjun."

Ye Xiao let out a long sigh of relief and said evenly, "Thank you for your kindness, senior!"

Blood River said, "I don't like to hear that. What do you need to thank me for making my disciples? "The three of them are now forbidden from staying in Heaven Murder Valley by me. They can come out naturally when they are able to break through the restriction with killer methods."
