First-class Son-in-law By Drunk Alone Chapter 4

Chapter 4

Andrew was in pain because of his swollen face, but, all of a sudden, his pain was gone.

He was rooted to the spot when he saw the gorgeous woman, and his eyes got glazed. He was struck dumb.

Andrew was not the only one affected. Even a woman like Lily was shocked when she saw the beautiful woman before her. She felt ashamed because she could not compare to her.

What was even more hilarious was this: these two even forgot that the woman was the one who destroyed their Mercedes.

Meanwhile, the beautiful woman did not even spare Andrew and Lily a look after she got out of the car. Instead, she went to Henry and bowed deeply to him in reverence. "Henry."

Henry had no expression whatsoever, unlike the slack-jawed shock evident on Andrew and Lily's faces. "What happened, Vine? Why did you come here in such a hurry?"

The woman schooled her expression and whispered, "Henry, the Shadow Squad just received news that we misidentified the woman who saved you six years ago."

Henry's expression changed.

His voice became much louder. "What? Say that again, Vine!"

"The savior you've been looking for years is not such a crass person. She's someone else." The beautiful woman handed a file to Henry.

He practically snatched it out of her hands and opened it.

“What? It’s... her?”

After just a glance inside, Henry’s pupils shrank, and his face was full of shock.

“How could this be? This is absurd! This is absolutely ridiculous!”

For a moment, Henry’s entire body trembled. His face was full of regret while a storm raged in his heart. It was so strong that he could not stand still, and he staggered and nearly fell.

Vine’s face turned pale when she saw this, and she immediately charged over to Henry and grabbed him with both hands.

When her curvaceous body pressed against his, Henry snapped out of his daze.

He calmly pushed away the seductive body that could charm all men and took a step back. “Vine, send me to the company.”

When Henry put clear distance between them, Vine’s face filled with pain and disappointment, but she immediately said, “Alright. Please get in.”

“Wait! Stay where you are, you b*stards!”

Just when Vine was about to get into the pickup with Henry, an enraged Lily charged over like a mad dog and blocked their path. She started screeching hysterically, “You hit my husband and destroyed my car, you b*stards! Pay up, or else—”

Before Lily could finish, her vision blurred. Vine had actually appeared right in front of her!

Slap! Slap! Slap!

The next moment, a series of loud slaps were heard.

When Lily’s face was so swollen that no one could recognize her, Vine stopped.

Then, she grabbed Lily's chin and spoke to her like an ant. "Only a short-sighted, simple-minded idiot like you would think Henry is a poor peasant who has nothing.

"Heh. Do you have any idea just who Henry really is? Do you know just how rich he is? Do you see this limited-edition G63? Do you know it's worth more than one million dollars? It's just a toy to him. The car your dumb new boyfriend gave you isn't even worth one of its tires. Sigh... your ignorance limited your imagination.

"But I envy you. I'm jealous that a crass woman with average looks and an empty head could stay beside Henry for a year.

"Do you have any idea just how many rich, beautiful, and noble queens and princesses all over the world would kill for it?

"You used up all of your luck to stay with him for a year, but, unfortunately, you wasted it.

"Oh well, I'm in a good mood today, so I'll spare you. Listen well, Henry is the sovereign of Dragonmount—"

"Enough, Vine. We're leaving."

Before Vine could finish her sentence, Henry cut her off impatiently.

She shut up and pushed Lily to the ground like she was throwing away trash. Then, she hurried into the pickup.

Vroom!

With the roar of the engine, the metal beast came to life like a savage creature and left.

Lily and Andrew were left to look at each other at a loss in a disheveled state.

After a long while, they finally snapped out of the daze caused by the shocking event they witnessed.

"Darling, that was fake, right? Henry must have felt bitter and spent tons of money to hire an actress to humiliate us, right?" Lily could not believe that Henry was rich.

Andrew had been bemused, but, when he heard what Lily said, he immediately came to an understanding. “Henry is so despicable! He did something so shameless just to pretend to be cool?”

“Damn it! That six-by-six Mercedes G63 wasn’t just worth more than one million! It was a limited-edition pickup that you won’t necessarily be able to buy even with money. You need to be someone of high status and have a certain level of skill to get it. If Henry were that great, why would he be a security guard?”

“That’s right. I know that piece of trash. He buys groceries on a discount! How could he have the money to buy such an expensive pickup? We can’t let this slide, darling. We have to make him pay. I heard him say that they’re going to the company just now.” Lily was so mad that she nearly started stomping on the ground.

Andrew’s face was gloomy, and he growled darkly, “That’s right. I’ll kill him. Come! Let’s go to the company!”
