

The First Heir – Chapter 1421

In the room, Dan picked Mila up from the bed. Just as he was about to jump out of the window, several men rushed in from the door, all of them fierce and vicious!

Dan's eyes narrowed. He raised the kitchen knife in his hand and stared coldly at the burly guys in front of him!

“Hand over the child!”

The man in the lead shouted at Dan with a hideous face!

Dan knew that Mila must not be handed to them at this time, so he stared at the other party coldly and roared, “Impossible!”

“Go to hell then!”

The man in the lead yelled while motioning to his men to rush directly at Dan!

Dan was no ordinary person. While carrying Mila, he started fighting with these guys!

The result was to be expected. After all, two fists were not a match for four opponents. Soon, Dan fell into a disadvantage and his body was cut in several places. His clothes were already stained red!

Despite that, Mila was still in his arms and well protected by Dan!

He leaned against the wall and slowly slid down. He gasped for breath while covered in blood, glaring at the four injured people in front of him like a vicious wolf.

“Damn it! What a tough bloke! Hurry up and finish him off!”

The man in the lead roared and walked up with a knife.

Dan looked like he was ready to die. He glanced at the sleeping Mila in his arms and said to the men, “Leave me a way out. I have three million!”

Thump!

The man in the lead suddenly paused as his pupils dilated. He stared at Dan closely before exchanging glances with the men behind him.

Obviously, they were tempted by the three million that Dan mentioned!

“Do you really have three million?” one of them asked.

Immediately, the man in the lead glared at him and the latter shrank back.

Then, he turned his head, stared at Dan coldly, and said with a smile, “I’m afraid three million can’t buy your life. Besides, Master Kinley has ordered that both you and this child have to die.”

“Hehe, even if you kill us, will that Master Kinley give you three million?”

Dan sneered and said, “Besides, after you get rid of us, do you think Master Kinley will let all of you go?”

These words were a stab through the heart!

In a flash, the four men thought of that incident.

The few men who were sent to intercept Dan previously had been secretly disposed of.

“Dude, what should we do? Master Kinley won’t have someone deal with us after the deed is done, right?”

One of the younger ones panicked.

As soon as he said this, the other two also appeared very scared and horrified.

The man in the lead narrowed his eyes and thought for a while. He said to Dan, “Do you really have three million?”

Dan knew that the deal was done. He nodded and said, “Yes, but you have to wait until I’m safe before I’ll tell you my account and password.”

The man in the lead sneered.

He said, “Do you really think you can live? Why can’t I threaten you to give it to me first and then deal with you after?”

Dan laughed and said, “It doesn’t matter. My rotten life has already turned out this way. It’s just a shame about that three million dollars. Besides, all of you will also die soon.”

Silence.

“Fine, I’ll help you. If I don’t see that three million, I’ll kill you!”

The man in the lead finally made the decision and the other three behind him also smiled.

Then, they dragged Dan along and ran out.

However...

At this time, Nigel had already arrived at the door with his men!

Dozens of black-suited bodyguards stood at the door. Nigel was leading the way, followed by the cold-faced Philip.

Inside the courtyard, Dan was being held by several people. He had Mila in his arms.

The atmosphere suddenly became tense!

“Put my daughter down!”

Philip suddenly roared and a wave swept over the scene!
