The First Heir – Chapter 1541

What?

His law license had been revoked?

Toby was stunned and rooted on the spot, the corners of his mouth trembling.

“Mr. Jones, are you hungover? Do you know what you’re talking about?” Toby frowned and asked coldly.

‘What was this Donald Jones doing?’

However, Donald said on the other end of the line, “Toby, I’m not joking with you. After investigation, we’ve decided to revoke your law license. At the same time, your law firm will also be investigated. You should get ready. This time, it’s entirely up to you if you can weather this storm. I can’t help you.”

When Toby heard this, his heart thumped.

He asked anxiously, “Donald, tell me, is someone messing with me? Is it Godfrey Hart and his people?”

Toby was annoyed!

When something like this happened out of the blue, there was only one explanation his rival had made a move against him!

However...

Donald said, “I’m not sure who it is exactly. I can only tell you that this time, the order was personally given by Mr. Walker of the entire South River District. He told me that you’ve messed with someone who can’t be messed with. Godfrey Hart doesn’t have that ability yet. You should think carefully about who you’ve messed with recently.”

Having said that, Donald ended the call.

Toby’s face was gloomy and full of doubts. He stared at Philip on the side.

Could it be him?

How could that be possible?

Did he have the means to make Mr. Walker of the South River District personally give an order?

Toby could not believe it.

Next to him, Lynn quickly asked, “Toby, what’s wrong? What happened?”

Toby smiled and said, “Nothing. I need to make a call.”

After saying that, Toby dialed the phone number of his own law firm.

Ten minutes ago, Tobias Law Firm in Riverdale.

It was an unusually hectic day today and the boss was not around. A dozen lawyers were busy preparing the paperwork.

Suddenly, the landline in the general manager's office rang. A female secretary in a professional suit trotted in and picked up the call. "Hello, this is Tobias Law Firm. How may I help you?"

"Something went wrong! Hurry up and destroy all the documents and hard drives!"

Click!!

With those words, the line got disconnected.

The female assistant was taken aback for a moment before she ran out frantically and shouted, "Something's wrong! Destroy all the documents and hard drives, quick!"

Instantly, the dozen lawyers and assistants in the office all got up. They frantically began to put documents into the shredder, while some immediately formatted their hard drives and implanted viruses.

Bam!

Suddenly, the office door was violently kicked open!

In a flash, more than 20 combatants in black combat uniforms with berets and goggles rushed in. All of them were carrying guns!

"Do not resist! Everyone on the ground!"

"Give up resistance! Hands on your head!"

The group of combatants rushed in, moving in a neat and orderly manner. They completely controlled the scene!

Immediately after, seven or eight men and women in black suits walked in with empty boxes. They quickly tossed those unprocessed documents in.

Even the computers in the office were taken away.

A few black commercial vehicles were parked outside. All these people were escorted out. The nearby crowd watching the excitement started taking photos.

Tobias Law Firm was famous in this neighborhood! Why was it suddenly being investigated?

This immediately became a hot topic in Riverdale and started a lot of discussions.

At this time, Toby's call came in and he asked anxiously, "Ruth, did anyone go to the office? What's the situation? Hurry up and destroy all our documents and hard drives! Do it quickly!"

However, someone else's voice sounded from the other end of the line!

The First Heir – Chapter 1542

"Are you Toby Little? Your law firm has been seized and all documents and hard drives have been taken away by us. We're officially issuing a warrant for your arrest."

Hearing this, the cold sweat on Toby's body dripped!

What?

The company was being investigated?

All the documents and hard disks were taken away?

Oh no!

He was in trouble now!

All his secrets could not be kept under wraps now. Those documents and hard drives contained evidence of his corruption!

At this point, Toby could no longer stay calm. His hand holding the phone also started to tremble violently!

He fell back on the seat, his eyes staring ahead blankly. His body was shaking all over!

He raised his head, stared at Philip, and roared, "Did you do all this?"

How did this happen?

Who the hell was he?

How could he have such terrifying power?

In just ten minutes, Philip had his law license revoked and even his company was being investigated!

Philip chuckled, his eyes looking indifferent as he said, "I just did as I said. Lawyer Little, do you still remember what I said earlier? I told you you had ten minutes to prepare your defense."

At the side, Lynn was completely dumbfounded at the moment.

What was going on?

Judging from Toby's face, it seemed like something extraordinary had happened!

"Toby, what's wrong?" Lynn asked anxiously as she stepped forward to grab Toby's arm.

"Get lost!"

Toby pushed Lynn away roughly, glaring at her with resentment

If not for her, he would not have gotten into this mess! In fact, Toby had willingly stepped into the picture. After he met Lynn, he learned about Beacon. After much inquiry, he also knew that Martin and Bernard had been eyeing Beacon.

Thus, he came up with a plan and started the set up two months ago.

In other words, Toby was the mastermind behind all of this. The goal was to take down Beacon through the Johnston family, and by his own means, turn Beacon into his own enterprise!

“Do you think you can bring me down like this? You overestimate yourself! I come from a family full of lawyers! My father and grandfather are both gold medal lawyers and have a lot of connections! I don’t believe that you can take me down with your bare hands!”

Toby roared, forcing himself to calm down before he dialed his father’s phone number.

After the call was connected, he took a deep breath to calm his mind first before he said, “Dad, something has happened-”

Before he could finish, the voice at the other end of the phone interrupted him and said in a grave voice, “I know everything. Pass the phone to the person next to you...”

Toby was startled and his face was unhappy, but he still did as he was told. He handed the phone to Philip and said coldly, “My father wants to talk to you! I’m telling you, he has the means to put you in jail!”

Philip smiled calmly and took the phone. A somber middle aged male voice came through the phone. “Is that Mr. Clarke? Hello, I’m Toby’s father, William Little. It’s my son’s fault this time. I hope you can leave him a way out and spare my son. As long as you promise to let him go, my Little family won’t interfere in Beacon’s affairs again. What do you think?”

Philip laughed, glanced at Toby who was gnashing his teeth at him, and said, “The Little family wants me to forget about this matter? I’m sorry, but it’s too late. Anyone who makes a move against my wife won’t end up well.”

The person on the other end of the phone was startled before saying coldly, “Mr. Clarke, it’s better to forgive and forget. Although I don’t know your background exactly, my Little family is not a pushover either!”

“Are you threatening me?”

Philip chuckled. A chill appeared in the corner of his eyes. His voice turned cold, his whole body surging with an invincible aura as he said, “In my eyes, the Little family is nothing but an ant! Since you still don’t know the error of your ways, don’t blame me! Next, I’ll take action against your Little family. As long as you can withstand it, I’ll be fine with letting you go.”

The First Heir – Chapter 1543

“You! Very well! You’re very audacious! This is the first time I’ve heard such words. How dare you make a move against my Little family? Well done! I want to see how capable you are!”

On the other end, William looked furious at the moment.

He was standing in a magnificent hall surrounded by many well dressed men and women, all elites in the domestic law industry. All of them were also guest contributors of the Little family.

The Little family still had some weight in the legal world. After all, as a member of the Holton Law Firm, one of the four largest law firms in the country, they had a lot of resources.

At this moment, they were surprised to see William hang up the phone in anger.

“Patriarch Little, what’s the situation? Why are you so angry? Someone dares to take action against the Little family?” the middle aged man on the side asked.

“Hmph...!”

William snorted coldly as he stood with his hands behind his back. The brows on his angular face furrowed suddenly as he said gravely, “A kid who doesn’t know his limits actually wants to make a move against my Little family. What a joke!”

“Haha, Mr. Little is right. In the country, who dares to make a move against the Little family?”

“Mr. Little, let’s continue our discussion. Regarding the membership of the bar association this time, I think we can send five people.”

“Mr. Little, don’t worry about it. Who can lay a finger on the Little family?”

Everyone talked gaily without taking this matter to heart at all.

William also laughed, but the thought of his son’s law license being revoked still sent some chills through his heart.

He immediately said to his assistant, “Go and find out what Toby did in Riverdale. Also, contact Mr. Walker of the South River Law Center and ask him about the situation.”

After saying this, William turned around and continued chatting with everyone with a smile on his face.

For the bar association membership this time, William would try to send in five of his people.

Only in this way would the power of the Little family grow stronger. They would also have more say in the legal world.

Toby’s side. At this moment, his face was flushed red! He felt that he had been humiliated.

A loser from the Johnston family who depended on his wife actually had such abilities and even spouted such brazen words to him and the Little family. It was simply outrageous!

Did this guy really think he could run rampant just because he had some means?

Who gave him the courage?

Celine Dion?!

“Philip Clarke, don’t be so cocky! Did you think that by relying on Wynn’s connections to revoke my license and investigate my company, I’ll bow down and beg for mercy? Dream on! My Little family is not a pushover! My father must be contacting people now. It won’t be long before my license is reinstated and my company will be safe and sound. But you, on the other hand, will definitely be trampled under my feet!”

Toby looked very upset, the corners of his mouth grimacing coldly as he yelled, "I advise you to get on your knees and apologize to me now. Otherwise, you won't walk out of this restaurant today!"

"Hehehe..."

Philip sneered and said, "It's almost impossible for you to trample on me. Rather, it's your Little family that doesn't have much time left."

He could not be bothered about Toby. He simply sat there, called out to the waiter, and ordered a tableful of food.

This Toby Little was trying to be arrogant, right?

He was just showing off using his family background. In that case, he would make Toby lose everything he was proud of!

On the side, Lynn's face looked very unpleasant and displeased at the moment. She pulled Toby's arm and asked, "Toby, what's wrong? What license was revoked? Which company is being investigated?"

Toby turned around, stared at Lynn, and said, "My law license has been revoked and my law firm is being investigated. It must've been done by him."

As he said that, he glared at Philip resentfully.

The First Heir – Chapter 1544

Hearing this, Lynn's body went weak. She looked at Philip incredulously, her red lips trembling slightly. She anxiously said, "What should we do, then? Toby, will we be arrested?"

Toby chuckled and said, "It's fine. My father will take care of it. This ignorant kid actually wants to make a move against my Little family. He's just courting death!"

Toby mocked inwardly.

Lynn also took a breath and patted her chest, saying, "Toby, you really scared me there!"

After that, she turned her head and stared fiercely at the nonchalant Philip while saying coldly, "Philip, did you hear what Toby said? Even if you rely on Wynn's previous connections to cause a little trouble for Toby, it won't work. His family is not as simple as you think!"

"Is that so?"

Philip sneered, turned his face to look at Toby calmly, and said, "It's useless even if your father or your Little family step forward because you don't carry that much weight or have many qualifications yet. The Holton Law Firm? The Rainbow Society? Haha, I really hope that one of them is willing to help your Little family."

What a joke!

Who was the Clarke family of Arcadia Island?

They were the world's largest affluent family!

The legal consultants of any of the Clarke family's enterprises were professionals who had passed special tests!

Even the core members of the Holton Law Firm were among the lowest ranking compared to the Clarke family's legal team.

The Clarke family's lawyers were all the big figures from the Rainbow Society!

Moreover, the founder of Rainbow Society was a mentee of the chief lawyer of the Clarke family's legal team!

Hearing these remarks, Toby immediately laughed aloud and sneered with contempt, "Philip, you're really arrogant. What do you mean by that? Are you saying that the Little family is not qualified? Fine, but you even look down on the Holton Law Firm and the Rainbow Society? Wow, that's really amazing of you. Who do you think you are? The director behind Rainbow Society? Someone like you dares to take down the Little family? Dream on!"

Philip smiled slightly, waved his hand, and said, "Toby, you're nothing but a frog at the bottom of the well. This world is very big. Never use your dirty thoughts and narrow vision to look at anyone or anything. In your eyes, your Little family is great, but in my eyes, they're ants. The Rainbow Society? Haha, I really don't look up to them."

Presumptuous!

At his remarks, the room fell silent.

Philip's bragging words were truly astounding!

"Very well, then. Let's see how you're going to continue showing off today!" Toby roared with extreme displeasure.

This wastrel of a kept man was simply too audacious! Did he really think that by relying on his wife's meager connections and revoking his law license, he was invincible?

He was Toby Little of the Little family!

In terms of status, social standing, connections, and field of influence, Philip was nothing but a loser!

Was he being pretentious?

Toby's expression was very unpleasant, and the anger in his heart was about to erupt.

He clenched his fists tightly and said to Lynn beside him, "Contact the two uncles and tell them that they should act quickly. This matter must be resolved by today. Since this Philip Clarke doesn't know what's good for him, there's no need for us to show any mercy. Let's just put his wife to jail and ruin their entire family!"

Lynn still had some hesitation, but after thinking about it, she nodded. She took out her phone and dialed the number.

The First Heir – Chapter 1545

Meanwhile, in a small luxurious manor in Uppercreek William Little was discussing the membership of the bar association with his friends and guest contributors.

Suddenly, the assistant who had left earlier rushed in. He hurried to William's ear and whispered, "Master, something has happened. You need to answer a call from Mr. Walker."

William frowned as his mind was full of doubts.

What was this Leroy Walker doing?

Why was it so troublesome for him to handle such a small matter?

William was unhappy. He got up and said to everyone, "Excuse me, everyone. I need to go out and take care of something. I'll be back soon."

After that, he stepped away and walked to the side hall. He took the phone from his assistant and said with a scowl, "Leroy Walker, what are you doing? I told you to take care of one small thing. Why is it so troublesome?"

His tone was full of questioning and displeasure!

This made Leroy, who was on the other end of the phone, frown. His face suddenly turned grim!

Was this William Little really treating him as a subordinate, yelling and scolding him at will?

At any rate, he was still the president of the law center in South River District!

However, Leroy was also very helpless. William had a good reputation in the legal world, especially in South River District where few people stood on par with him. Moreover, he was a member of the Holton Law Firm. His status and standing were not ordinary.

As such, Leroy suppressed the anger in his heart and said with a small smile, "Patriarch Little, don't be angry. This matter is indeed a bit tricky. He's not what you think--"

"What do you mean it's tricky? Leroy Walker, I order you to solve this matter within five minutes! Otherwise, I'll speak to the bar association and you can say goodbye to your position in the South River Law Center. Someone will replace you soon enough!"

William said coldly and hung up the phone with a click!

At this moment, Leroy's face was flushed as his mouth trembled. He gritted his teeth and roared in anger, violently smashing the landline on the floor!

"Damn that William Little! He's simply too arrogant! He's gone too far this time!"

Leroy got up with his hands on his waist, pointed at the smashed landline on the floor, and spewed curses. After that, he paced back and forth in his office, his face looking very sullen.

After a while, he quickly took out his phone as a trace of ruthlessness flashed across his face. He muttered under his breath, "William Little, you're simply too brazen. In that case, your Little family can go to be!!! If you offend that lord, no matter how powerful you are, you can't escape from the palm of his hand!"

Meanwhile, William tossed the phone to his assistant and said coldly, "If Leroy calls again, you can directly reject his call!"

After saying that, he turned around, adjusted his suit, and plastered a smile on his face before walking toward the main hall.

“Oh my, I’m sorry to have delayed your time for two minutes. Let’s continue,” William said with a laugh. Everyone also started a lively discussion with various analyses.

However, within five minutes, the same assistant from earlier rushed in again. This time, he was even more anxious and directly shouted, “Master, it’s not good. The call, it’s-”

William immediately blew up and roared, “Get out! Didn’t I tell you before? If he calls again, just reject his call! Such insolence!”

The assistant froze in place, stuck in a dilemma. He was just about to speak when a low male voice sounded from the other end of the phone, carrying hints of questioning and a sneer. “William Little, are you so bold now that you refuse to answer my call? Do you think you’re good enough to fly solo now?”

Boom!

The entire hall instantly went silent!

Everyone dared not even breathe too loudly! William was so shocked that he almost fell off the couch!

This was the vice president of the Holton Law Firm! Why would he call?
