

The First Heir Chapter 1629

However, it was just ten minutes!

Scary! Simply terrifying!

What kind of strength was this to have such earth-shattering means?

Fabian was flustered and terrified beyond belief!

He hurriedly took out his phone and dialed Mike Corby's number, his heart utterly desperate!

Inside the general manager's office of Gopher Delivery Services, Mike and the others were looking at Philip and Agnes with grim faces.

"Hehehe, Mr. Clarke, in less than ten minutes, Old Master Tate will acquire your company by force. When that happens, you'll be less than nothing," Mike sneered, his eyes full of triumph.

It was tragic to think that he needed to ask a figure like Old Master Tate to deal with a young man like that. However, all was well. Doing this would settle the problem by its root once and for all!

Herb also smiled coldly and said arrogantly, "Agnes, it's still not too late for you to regret this. As long as you're willing to be my lover, I'll put in a good word for you in front of Director Corby and let you continue to be the general manager. What do you think? It's better than following a guy like Philip, right?"

Ashe spoke, he glanced sarcastically at Philip, who stood at the side with his hands behind his back.

This guy had a calm face as if everything was within his calculations.

As such, Herb was upset. With his eyes twitching, he said to Philip solemnly, "Chairman Clarke, are you still unwilling to take a step back even at this point? Do you have to fight until you're taken down before giving up?"

Philip glanced at Herb, pondered for a moment, and said, "You'll die miserably."

Hearing this, Herb flew into a rage and shouted angrily, "Fine! Philip Clarke, you're really cocky! You're just the founder of a small company and you're acting so arrogantly. Hehe, I'd like to see how you'll beg us for mercy when you suffer from Old Master Tate's methods later!"

Damn it!

What gave Philip the right to look at him like that and display such an attitude? Was it possible that he could still survive once the powerful Old Master Tate took action?

Stop joking!

A person like Old Master Tate could wipe out this company with the mere lift of his finger!

Thinking about it, Herb smiled grimly at the corner of his mouth. His eyes looked cold. As long as this company was acquired, he would hold a higher position. When that happened, Agnes would beg him for mercy.

Haha!

It had not just been a day or two since he coveted Agnes' body.

Herb was very excited when he thought of pushing a woman like Agnes under him.

However, Philip looked at him coldly and shook his head. Then, he glanced at the time and said, "It's almost time."

Time for what?

Everyone was exasperated.

"Stop your pretense!" Mike snorted coldly, but before he could say anything else, his phone suddenly rang! Looking at the caller ID, it was Old Master Tate!

Mike was instantly full of excitement. He raised the phone in his hand and said, "Hahaha, it's a call from Old Master Tate. Chairman Clarke, this time, it's game over for you!"

"Oh, really? You can pick up the call and find out if the game is over for me or you." Philip smiled lightly.

Mike's face darkened as he answered the phone, smiled fawningly, and asked, "Old Master, how is it? Is everything settled?"

"Mike Corby! Pass the phone to Chairman Clarke quickly! Hurry!"

However, only an urgent shout came from the phone. Mike was baffled by this, but he dared not speak and handed the phone to Philip directly.

Philip took it, turned on the loudspeaker, and asked nonchalantly, "How's it going, old master? What do you have to say now?"

Fabian Tate was almost panicking out of his mind now. A dozen people stood in front of him. He hurriedly said, "Chairman Clarke, I'm sorry. I was confused just now. I beg you to be merciful. Let's forgive and forget. We're considered acquaintances from now on. In the future, whenever you need my help, I'll do everything I can to help you. I hope you can quickly take back your orders!"

Mike and the others were completely stunned by his words!
