

The First Heir novel Chapter 1723

Everyone was shocked by the words that came out of Fennel's mouth!

What did he say?

What an arrogant tone!

Was he going to kill the four enforcers?

This was simply unheard of!

Was this cocky guy unaware that these people were from the Nonagon?

Moreover, Norris Weil had also said that he was a member of the Five Pavilions of the Nonagon and a member of the Griffin Pavilion!

This status and identity were definitely not accessible to ordinary people!

Even the people of the Nonagon had to be respectful when they met the people of the Five Pavilions!

That was a symbol of status!

At this moment, Norris' face also turned grim. His gray eyes flickered with an odd light as he said with a mocking laugh, "From your tone, you seem quite hostile against the Griffin Pavilion? I wonder how the Griffin Pavilion has offended you? Why don't you tell me and we'll see if it can be resolved? After all, our Griffin Pavilion recruits young and special talents from all over the world. With your strength, it's more than enough to enter Griffin Pavilion and get an official position. Isn't that the best of both worlds? There's no such thing as a feud that can't be resolved. What do you think?"

After he finished speaking, everyone could tell that this middle-aged man from the Nonagon had extended an olive branch to Fennel!

Incredible!

What kind of strength did this guy possess that could make the enforcer from Griffin Pavilion treat him so courteously?

Everyone looked expectantly at the handsome Fennel who stood at nearly 1.9 meters tall.

However, Fennel abruptly sneered and said, "Do you think the hatred can be resolved when my younger sister died at the hands of your Griffin Pavilion?"

Hiss!

Instantly, everyone held their breaths and dared not make a sound!

What?

His sister died at the hands of the Griffin Pavilion?

Was that not a deadly enmity?

For a while, everyone's hearts were trembling while their expressions varied from one another. Their eyes all fell on the middle-aged man leading the group of enforcers.

Sure enough, after hearing Fennel's words, Norris' face completely darkened. The corners of his mouth twitched slightly as he said, "In that case, it seems that one of us is doomed to die."

After saying that, Norris' body suddenly surged with an overwhelming aura, sending shockwaves through the air in the hall. Even the surrounding tables and chairs started shaking slightly!

Horrifying!

Shocked and fearful expressions appeared on the faces of all the family heads and young masters of large families present.

What the hell was going on here?

The chairs and tables were actually shaking!

Looking at Norris again, an invisible aura that was a few inches thick shrouded his body. Although it could not be seen clearly, everyone could sense that this strong intensity could easily tear them apart!

They felt like a blade of grass in the storm, swaying with the wind. In the next second, they would be torn apart by that energy radiating from Norris' body!

Many people were now hiding under the table or sprawled on the floor, holding their heads and not daring to move!

The atmosphere in the hall became intense!

Philip's eyes trembled sharply at this moment as he looked at Norris. He had seen this type of aura on several Aces before, and it was no different.

Was this a sort of energy?

Philip used to train with the Dragon Warriors and had also witnessed the true strength of Reed Williams. He still remembered a violent battle at the border back then. He and a few comrades were trapped in the enemy's territory and were surrounded by tens of thousands of warriors from the enemy's side. They were as good as dead.

However, a figure fell from the sky at a critical juncture. Dressed in a purple battle robe and carrying a mighty momentum, he broke into the enemy's territory alone. It was a battle between one and 10,000. Everywhere he stepped foot fell into ruins, the ground full of broken armor and wreckage. He carried an intensity that soared through the sky!

Philip was fortunate to witness Reed's combat power with his own eyes. A single punch from him could knock a hundred people down and he could crush armor with one kick!

At that time, the aura radiating from Reed was 10,000 times more powerful than that of Norris in front of him! No one dared to approach him within a hundred meter radius!
