

The First Heir – Chapter 1801

“You... You’ve gone to the main Dunley family in Hampton?” Homer’s voice went up a pitch as he asked while glancing at Milo next to him.

Milo’s expression was also very unpleasant but he immediately mocked, “Boy, Hampton is the territory of the main Dunley family! You’re bold enough to dare go there alone, but I’m afraid you won’t come back in one piece!”

“Hehehe...”

Philip had already entered Hampton!

He was sitting in the helicopter, looking down at the most developed city in Charbury-Hampton!

This was where the main Dunley family was located. They were also the pillar of the entire Dunley family. The sound of the propellers whistled in his ears. At one glance, the tallest building in Hampton was like a giant sword that plunged into the sky!

This landmark building in Hampton belonged to the main Dunley family, Dunley Group!

It was the tallest and most luxurious building in Hampton. it was more than 1,00 meters high!

“Milo Dunley, the main Dunley family may be a sacred existence to you, but in my eyes, they’re just a trapped beast. The view of Hampton is truly extraordinary. I hope that in 20 minutes, you’ll still be as imposing as you are now.”

After saying that, Philip ended the call. He pointed at the enormous Dunley Group and said, “Fly there.”

The pilot of the helicopter swooped down from a high altitude!

Homer gripped the phone and said solemnly, “Milo, he hung up...”

Of course, Milo knew that. With his hands behind his back, his expression was full of worry as he said, “How dare he go to Hampton? What exactly is he up to?”

Milo was taken aback, completely unable to figure out Philip’s purpose in doing this. Was he going to threaten the main Dunley family to impose sanctions on the branch Dunley family in Flower City?

Ridiculous!

The branch family in Flower City were still part of the Dunley family, after all!

How could the main family punish the branch Dunley family in Flower City just because of an outsider like him?

Homer shook his head and said, “Milo, I think this kid is very unusual. Since he dares to go to Hampton, it means he has some confidence. Should we contact Fifth Uncle? If that kid really has any compromising material in his hand, it’ll be unfavorable to us.”

Homer was very flustered. He did not expect the situation to develop so fast. Philip’s ability had far exceeded their initial guesses and speculation.

The strength displayed by this guy was terrifying!

Even Flower City could not contain a great figure like him!

After a moment of silence, the corners of Milo’s eyes twitched. With a cold expression, he said, “Contact Fifth Uncle immediately. We absolutely cannot allow Philip to go look for the main Dunley family!”

Milo also felt a biting chill and sense of crisis. Philip actually escaped from his hands in Flower City and went to Hampton!

If this guy really met someone from the main Dunley family, it would definitely not end well for the Dunley family in Flower City!

Even if it was an interception, Philip must be intercepted and killed outside the gates of the Dunley family in Hampton!

After hearing that Milo wanted to contact his fifth uncle, the surrounding subordinates secretly breathed a sigh of relief.
