

Love At First Night Chapter 17

Chapter 17

The meeting used to be boring, but now under her wonderful description, everyone's attention was attracted by her clear and melodious voice.

Finally, Judith finished her presentation amid warm applause. Frank narrowed his eyes as he looked at Judith. He began to admire her because she was one in a million.

To be able to become the design director within three years, she really did a good job.

Only those talented people who got fairly good at designing and really put a lot of thought into it could draw out such exquisite costumes. His tone was indifferent, "Everyone, take a look at these designs. Do you have any opinions? I have to say I am very satisfied." Frank had always been scrupulous in separating public from private interests, and he was very serious about his work. His words meant he believed in Judith's ability. Judith smiled excitedly. She stayed up all night to draw and design. Now it appeared her efforts have paid off. Everyone shook their heads. They had no objections. Frank looked around and said, "All right. Let's call it a day. How about going to the bar in the Fashion Square tonight?" He got up and was going back to his office. After walking a few steps and almost reaching Judith, Frank suddenly stopped and looked at her with an evil smile, "Ms. White, you did a good job making the product design strategy and plan. You are very precise with our company's brand positioning, image and style. You will coordinate the internal and external relationship of the departments, build the product design team, develop tasks and distribute the new product design. You have a keen sense of the fashion industry. I believe you can do these well." Judith's gloating smile froze. She forced a smile, "Mr. Taylor, I am only responsible for fashion design and I have only been transferred to the headquarters for one month. It's beyond my ability to complete these in such a short month." In the beginning, she thought it was a very easy job, so she agreed to be transferred. It took her great determination to leave her three children. When Frank heard her words, he frowned slightly. This was a problem. But he didn't know when Hana would return, because she was out in search of her beloved. Frank was deep in thought. Judith held her breath, nervously waiting for his reply. When she saw he pulled out his phone, she took a slight breath. "Edwin, give Hana a call and ask about her situation overseas." "Alright!" Edwin nodded. Then Frank strode out of the conference room. Judith was confused. She thought, <Doesn't Hana only leave for a month? Why does he have to ask about her situation? In September, my three children are going to the primary school. I cannot stay here and work. I have to go back to Kimshire. It is not the right time to take revenge. I am not ready for it now. I prepare to come back and carry out my plan half a year later. Edwin smiled and walked to Judith, "Ms. White, let me take you to your office!" "OK, thank you!" Judith forced a smile. She pulled out the USB drive, her eyes sweeping the crowd. After making sure that no one was taking photos, she followed Edwin out. These designs were the new products of this season. They absolutely could not be leaked out. She had thought that her office would be on the twenty-fourth floor. However, now she found it was on the twenty-fifth floor and right opposite Frank's office. Her office was large, spacious and bright. It was decorated mainly in white. It looked fashionable and grand. There were two desks in it.
