Chapter 21

As a businessman, Frank always put his interests in the first place. Hana was not coming back. The autumn clothing exhibition needed someone capable. Judith looked at Frank's scheming expression and wanted to tear Frank up. She thought, "What a typical businessman. He's so cunning!" Judith quickly thought of countermeasures in silence, but the only purpose of her entering the Taylor Group was to take revenge! The Cooper family and the Taylor Group had always worked together. At the thought of what happened seven years ago, Judith felt severe pain in her heart. This position was enough for her to fight against the Cooper family. All these years, she had thoroughly investigated the Cooper family's background. Adam and Alissa were also secretly helping her. As long as there was a chance, Judith could take revenge. After pondering for a while, Judith realized something. Frank threw the problem back to her because he knew that she needed this job. As Judith gradually showed a compromising expression, Frank revealed a smile of success. Judith gently bit her tender lips. After weighing the pros and cons, she quickly made up her mind. She looked at Frank, who was sitting lazily. He was calm and composed, as if he was waiting for her answer. She smiled and said, "Thank you for your trust, Mr. Taylor!" Frank suddenly smiled evilly. He reached out his beautiful hand and looked at Judith. Judith also reached out and shook hands with him. Frank said with a smile, "Ms. White, I hope our cooperation will be great!" "Me too!" Judith also smiled politely. Actually, she was thinking about how to tell Lucas and her mother. Frank lowered his head, and his gaze inadvertently swept across Judith's hand. Suddenly, a mole on the back of her hand caught his attention. He was stunned, and his heart raced with excitement. Jodie had a mole in the same position. Seeing Frank's sudden change in expression, Judith quickly pulled her hand back. Frank's residual warmth was left on her hand. What was wrong with Frank all of a sudden? Was there something wrong with her hand? She forced a smile. "Mr. Taylor, if that's all, I'm leaving." After that, Judith did not wait for Frank to answer and quickly ran out of the office. Frank's gaze was fixed on the same spot. What did Judith say? He did not pay attention to a single word. After Judith went out and the door was closed, Frank finally came back to his senses. He quickly picked up the phone on the desk and dialed Gary's number. Gary was checking the car in which Frank had an accident yesterday when he suddenly received a call from Frank. It happened Gary also had something to tell Frank. "Frank..."

However, before Gary could finish speaking, he was interrupted by Frank. "Gary, investigate Judith White now. I want all the information about her within an hour." Frank sounded excited and anxious. On the other side of the line, Gary held the phone further. Hearing Frank's excited tone, he thought to himself, "Frank must have gone crazy." Why would he suddenly want to investigate Judith? "Did you hear me?" Frank, who was on the other side of the line, roared like a lion. Even though Gary was not by Frank's side, he could not help but swallow. "I ... I did. I checked the car. It was indeed tampered with, but the surveillance camera at the location where you parked just happened to be broken. Of course, it was so timely that it was obviously premeditated..." However, before Gary could finish his sentence, Frank had already hung up. Gary glared at his phone and shook his head helplessly. Frank was really tough.

Chapter 22

After Frank hung up the phone, he paced back and forth in the office. After a long while, he hurried back to the safe beside the desk, entered the password, and opened the safe. He quickly took out a stack of photos. When he removed the photos on the top, he saw the photo of him holding the six-year-old Jodie.

Jodie's small hands were around his neck. Judith had a mole in the same place on her hand. Frank swallowed. His heart raced out of excitement. Was that possible? Could Judy be Jodie? The girl who he had been looking for for more than ten years? With the photo in his hand, Frank fell to the ground and frowned. He always had a feeling that Jodie had returned. He stared at the little girl in the photo with his deep eyes without blinking. He was totally immersed in the photo. The little girl in the photo smiled brightly, her big eyes as bright as stars, clear and charming! Judith returned to the office, tightly holding the phone in her hand. However, she did not dial any number.

She stared at the screen. To be honest, she didn't want the three kids to return to Mayfield.

Their father was most likely in this city.

That night, she ran away and did not know who the kids' father was. She blinked a few times before she slowly unlocked her phone screen. She dialed her mother's number. On the other side of the line, a loving voice quickly sounded. "Judy." Judith smiled happily. "Mom, what are you doing?" "I'm watching TV with Emily and Lucas."

Judith thought for a while and said, "Mom, I'm transferred back to the headquarters. Shall we move to Mayfield?" On the other side of the line, there was a long silence! Judith knew that her mother did not want to return to Mayfield. Judith could feel that her mother seemed to have lived a painful life in Mayfield! Seven years ago, Judith was also in pain. When she was walking by the river, she saved a middle aged woman who was going to commit suicide. The woman was very beautiful, and her temperament was graceful! But she wanted to commit suicide! Judith persuaded the woman for a long time and told the woman what happened to herself. Unexpectedly, the two of them got along well at first sight. They were both alone. The woman was determined to take Judith as her daughter. After that, Judith had been calling the woman “mother” for seven years.

Moreover, in these seven years, Judith’s mother took good care of their family of four!

Judith loved this woman more than her biological mother. Judith knew that she was making things difficult for her mother. Just as she was about to speak, a loving voice came from the other side of the line. “Judy, I will listen to you. You could prepare everything for the kids first. Before the kids start school, I will bring them over. “As for Eric, maybe you can talk to Alissa. Maybe he would have a better career in Mayfield.” Judith said excitedly, “Mom, thank you! Our lives will get better and better. These years, I have also saved some money. When I don’t have to work, I will go to see if there is a suitable house. Then, our family of five will live together, and we will live happily every day!” “Judy, I’m the one who should say ‘thank you’. You’ve been by my side all the time.” The voice on the other side of the line was full of love and concern. Judith had a lump in her throat and welled up. She gently blinked her big eyes and took a deep breath before saying, “Mom, we are family. Don’t say things like that again. After I buy a house, I will pick you up. We will never be separated anymore.”

Love At First Night Chapter 23

Chapter 23

“OK! Judy, make sure to do a comprehensive investigation before you buy a house. You’d better choose somewhere convenient for the kids to go to school. I have friends over there. I can ask them to help you.”

“Okay!” Judith nodded and hung up the phone. After making up her mind, she felt that it was not so difficult. An hour later, Frank’s phone suddenly rang. Sitting on the ground, Frank was shocked. He quickly got up excitedly to get his phone. After sitting for an hour, his legs had gone numb, and he almost fell again when he tried to stand up. Frank put his hands on the desk, raised one leg, and sat on the chair. Ignoring the numbness in his legs, he picked up the phone. His heart was incomparably excited. “Hello!” He just said one word, but his voice could not help but tremble. On the other side of the line, Gary said, “Frank, Judith is twenty-five years old. She majored in design.” After that, Gary went silent. Frank frowned and asked, “What else did you find out?” “Nothing,” Gary replied with some fear. There really was no more information. “Gary, you have to pay the price for messing with me!” Frank lost his patience and roared at Gary. The wound on his forehead hurt, but he did not care, On the other side of the line, Gary had an innocent and aggrieved expression. Gary also became angry and roared back, “Frank, you gave me only one hour. I couldn’t find everything out even if I were a time machine! This is the only thing I found out, and her home address is also fake. Many of her traces have been erased. I checked everywhere but couldn’t find her current address.”

Frank was so angry that his entire body was trembling. “Keep investigating.” Frank took a deep breath and told himself not to rush. Judith was working in his company, and he could investigate her slowly. At the same time! In a small apartment with three bedrooms and a living room in Kimshire. In a small room were two single beds, a children’s desk, and a black and white wardrobe. Although the room was simple, it looked warm. A little boy in a black T-shirt and black casual pants looked exactly the same as Eric, but he looked calmer than Eric. He sat at the desk and focused on the figures that was rolling crazily on the computer. He was typing on the keyboard of the laptop with his tender fingers. It seemed that he had been typing it thousands of times to be so proficient. Suddenly, the phone in front of him vibrated. He glanced at the phone with his big bright eyes. Seeing it was from his master, he quickly picked up the phone. "Hey! Master!" The tender voice was very calm. "Luke, someone is investigating your mother." On the other side of the line, there was a young and playful voice.

"I see!" The little boy pursed his lips with interest and frowned as he pondered. He asked, "Who is investigating my mother?" His mother's traces had already been wiped out by them, yet there were still people investigating. "Well, Luke, it's someone you won't believe." The other party's voice was filled with playfulness. "Master, just tell me!" The little boy's voice sounded impatient. The man sighed and said, "Luke, you have a bad temper and bad patience. It's the president of the headquarters where your mom works, Frank Taylor. He is sending people to investigate your mom." "Alright! I'm hanging up." Lucas hung up the phone with no expression on his face. His fingers were flying on the keyboard. In less than a minute, he got Frank's information.

Chapter 24

Frank Taylor was the president of the Taylor Group and the richest man in Mayfield. He had wide industries under his name. He was 29 years old, 6 feet tall, and everything about him, including his weight and dressing size, was clearly written. But what surprised Lucas was not Frank's information, but how similar Frank's face was to his. Lucas frowned slightly. Although Lucas and his siblings had never thought of looking for their father, Lucas thought they had the right to know who their father was. Suddenly, there was a knock on the door. Lucas quickly switched to the cartoon page. "Grandma, what's the matter?" he answered slowly. "Lucas, can I come in?" A loving voice came from outside the door. "Grandma, come in. The door is not locked." The door was opened, and a middle-aged woman in white casual pants and a red shirt walked in. She looked gentle. She was already fifty years old but still had a graceful bearing. Her every move was elegant. She looked at Lucas and smiled lovingly. "Lucas, your mother just called and said that she was transferred to the headquarters to work. We are going to settle down in Mayfield." When Lucas heard this, he was puzzled. His mother broke her heart in Mayfield. Why would she go back?

He smiled and said, "Grandma, we will always be with you and mom." "Aren't you sweet? I love what you just said. I will go to cook for you. After eating, let's pick up Emily from class." "Alright, Grandma. Thank you." Lucas smiled. "Okay. You can keep watching the cartoon." After his grandmother left, Lucas switched back to what he had been looking at and pondered as he stared at the photo of Frank, who was imposing. He thought, "How interesting! Why did Frank suddenly investigate Mom? Mom is a designer and has nothing to do with financial stuff. It should be something else." Throughout the afternoon, Frank locked himself in his office and refused to see anyone! The personnel department's dispatch order for Judith was announced soon! To her surprise, she was so busy on her first day at work! At 5 o'clock, Frank came out of the office on time. His expression was slightly cold. Edwin had already packed up the things on the table. Glancing at Frank, Edwin said unhurriedly, "I've reserved a table in the restaurant at Fashion Square. You can go there now."

"OK! Bring all the department heads of the company over." Frank took a few steps forward and suddenly glanced at Judith's office. "Ms. White could share a car with us," he instructed Edwin. "Alright!" Edwin nodded, a trace of surprise flashing across his eyes. Frank had never given women a lift. Frank ignored the surprise in Edwin's eyes and strode towards the elevator. Edwin walked to Judith's office. Judith had tidied up everything and was ready to get off work. Judith was quite familiar with Mayfield. She hadn't returned for seven years, but many memories were still in the depths of her memory.

Judith met Edwin as soon as she came out. With a professional smile on her beautiful face, she asked, "Edwin, what's up?" Edwin slightly curved his lips and looked at her beautiful face. His tone was calm. "Mr. Taylor asked you to come to our car." When Judith heard this, she felt a little flattered! Fashion Square was not far from here. During peak hours, she felt that walking was faster than taking a car! But she still nodded. "Then let's go!" When Judith and Edwin arrived at the underground parking lot, Frank was already waiting by the car and on the phone.

Chapter 25

Edwin opened the door for Judith gentlemanly. So Judith thanked him and got in the car. Edwin started the car and waited for Frank. Frank's voice on the phone was relatively loud. He seemed to be very angry. After a while, he hung up the phone in rage and got in with the car door being fiercely pulled open. Seeing Judith in the car, Frank was a little stiff at first. He embarrassedly withdrew his gaze. Noticing the slight change in Frank's expression, Edwin said nothing but got them on the road. Judith found it quite uneasy with Frank sitting aside.

It was said that Frank hated girls.

Some people even doubted whether he liked girls or boys. They said that it was very likely for him to be gay. When Judith was in the branch company, she often heard the staff gossiping about Frank. But they had sat in the same car today. And they were now even sitting side by side. Obviously, the rumors were not true. Judith was a little uncomfortable. Suddenly she saw a strawberry-flavored lollipop between their seats! She smiled and asked, “Mr. Taylor, can I have a lollipop?” Gazing at her deeply, Frank picked up a lollipop and unpacked it, and then handed it to Judith, His warm gesture made Judith smile. “Thank you, Mr. Taylor! I always feel that the strawberry, flavored lollipops are particularly sweet and have a taste of happiness.” Frank was shocked by her words! The sweet voice of a girl crossed his mind. “Frank, here you are. It’s a strawberry-flavored lollipop. Try it! It contains the taste of happiness.” He did not like sweets. At that time, his mother had left him. During that time, he was so dispirited that he did not want to do anything. To make him happy, Jodie always tried everything to cheer him up. She would even stuff the food into his mouth if he refused to eat. Frank took a deep breath and said in a slightly trembling voice, “Why do you feel strawberry flavored lollipops have a taste of happiness?” He had also asked Jodie this question back then,

Judith replied without thinking, “The sweet taste gives me pleasure!” Did people need a reason for like something? But she was also in puzzlement of the reason why she especially liked strawberry-flavored lollipops! With the lollipop in her mouth, she softly rotated the stick with her slender fingers.

Her eyes were gentle and her red lips were as seducing as cherries. It was as if she was inviting him

“Frank, you’re so stupid. That’s because the sweet taste makes me feel good!” Their answers were so similar. Frank stared at her with his dark eyes. His fists clenched together in excitement. Edwin glanced at who was about to lose control of his emotions Frank in the rearview mirror. The setting sun shone on half of his handsome face, and the loneliness on it became more and more obvious. Edwin knew that Frank was very excited at the moment.

Edwin was afraid that the bigger hope Frank had, the more disappointed he would be. He wouldn't take Judith as Jodie, would he? When Jodie had the accident, she was already over six years old and already had memories. There was only one possibility that she had not come back for so many years. She had died. They all understood it, but no one said it out. This was Frank's spiritual ballast, the only hope to support him to stay alive. He wanted to find Jodie and bring his mother back to his side. This was also the reason why he worked so hard for money. Sensing Frank's burning gaze, Judith felt somewhat uncomfortable, so she looked out of the window. Under the setting sun, the traffic was like a tide. It was rush hour, and the traffic was in a jam. To Judith, she suddenly felt that it might be much more comfortable walking than sitting in the same car with Frank.

Chapter 26

Suddenly, a beep sounded. Judith got a Line message and looked down at her phone. Frank also slightly recovered from his thought, but his gaze was still on her side face. The way she looked down at the phone had simply overlapped with Jodie's childhood appearance. Frank couldn't help but smile. He wanted to hug Jodie. He missed her a lot! In the past, he had always felt that Jodie was too noisy. He did not take those words of concern seriously at all. But after Jodie was missing, no one had continued to nag him. He was so lonely. It was like he had fallen into a bottomless abyss. No matter how hard he tried, he couldn't walk out of that abyss! The corners of Judith's mouth were suddenly curled up slightly. Her eyes looked even brighter with the light smile. Adam had sent her a Line message to warn her not to drink too much. He would come over to pick her up so that she wouldn't have to worry about her safety. Adam had always been so warm-hearted!

Judith took this opportunity to tell Adam that she was going to stay at the headquarters. While on the other side, after Adam got the message, he fell silent. He was currently in the office of the branch company. He was dressed in a well-cut and expensive handmade suit. His delicate short hair made his facial features distinct, making him look steady and mature. It was completely different from the way he looked when he was in casual clothes in his spare time. He narrowed his eyes slightly. When he read the message from Judith, he couldn't help but become lost in thought "Adam, I've decided to work at the headquarters. Lucas, Eric, and Emily will also come to Mayfield for education."

After staring at the message for a long time, he slightly blinked his beautiful eyes and slowly picked up his phone. His sexy lips were tightly pursed and his eyes were filled with complicated emotions. With the screen lit up, he typed on the keyboard with his slender fingers. He quietly stared at the few lines of words he typed in, hesitating whether to send it or not. After thinking for a while, he deleted the words and quickly filled the dialog box with a reply. Then he deleted it again. Such movement was repeated five or six times. Finally, he made up his mind! He suddenly curled up the corner of his lips, forming a gentle smile. His fingers quickly typed in a line of words, "Judy, where you are will be where I am." This time, he sent out the message without hesitation. His mood suddenly became much better. Judith was very smart. With this message, she would definitely understand what he meant. He held his hands together and propped up his beautiful chin. The smile on his lips grew wider. He was anxiously waiting for Judith to reply to his message!

Judith received the message and opened it. The moment she read the content, she was slightly stunned! She quickly sent out a reply. "Adam, you don't have to do this for me. I will feel burdened if you do this." She even added a playful expression. She was surprised by Adam's decision. Frank's business landscape had covered the entire Mayfield, even the whole country. He had many industries, but he especially liked fashion design. Adam had put in a lot of effort in becoming the business leader of Kimshire. His development should not be affected because of her. Adam quickly replied with a message, "Judy, this is my decision, so you don't have to feel burdened. Have fun! I have to get off work now. I'll pick you up tonight." He added a smiley face at the end of the message. Adam seemed to be in a good mood! Judith took a look at the message and she couldn't help but feel even more stressed. What Adam had done had given her a lot of pressure.

Love At First Night Chapter 27

Chapter 27

The reason why she wanted to stay in Mayfield was not only to take revenge but also to find out her own background and her biological parents. But Adam had a bright future ahead of him. He shouldn't waste time with her. As Judith was lost in thought when she looked at the phone, Frank also felt a bad mood all of a sudden. He frowned slightly as he didn't like the way she looked. He looked up and saw that they had arrived at Fashion Square.

The flickering rainbow lights fully showed that the Fashion Square was as lively as ever. At the entrance to the parking lot, Judith and Frank got out of the car, leaving Edwin alone for parking.

Judith walked along with Frank.

All the way, she followed behind him quietly. The party was held in a high-class restaurant. They got into a private room together. All the department directors had already arrived. They all happily greeted Judith when they saw her come in! They had already known about Judith's personnel transfer. Moreover, Judith's autumn works had passed in one go.

She was very remarkable in their eyes. Therefore, when it came to introducing themselves, those department directors were very proactive. They wanted to be familiar with Judith.

Of course, there were also people who disliked Judith. For example, Zoe Hacker from the marketing department, a good-looking girl with heavy makeup as well as arrogance on her face. The fitted red dress on her perfectly outlined her enchanting curves. Her gaze was not on Judith, but Frank.

The marketing manager was a woman in her thirties. She was a beautiful woman with mature charm. Her name was Laura Danby, and she kept praising Judith. Judith was even a little ill at ease by her constant praise. After Frank greeted everyone, he sat at the side with an expressionless face. It was just that his deep gaze would occasionally land on Judith's smiling face. Edwin and Gary also came. Soon everyone got seated respectively. "Congratulations, Ms. White!" Frank raised the glass of red wine in his hand and toasted Judith. "Thank you, Mr. Taylor!" Judith smiled. "Congratulations, Ms. White. Cheers!" Laura shouted.

After the toasting, they sat down for food. Judith couldn't help but feel a mix of emotions at the look at the sumptuous dinner in front of her. It had been seven years! She missed the taste of food in Mayfield a lot!

Mayfield was a place that had a lot of famous delicacies! With the relaxed atmosphere, Judith was in a much better mood. "Ms. White, you have been living in Kimshire for a long time. But as to delicacies, those in Kimshire were no match for the ones in Mayfield! You should try the food in Mayfield! It is very authentic, especially this restaurant. It is the first choice of our gathering. While I must say that the air in Kimshire is better. Look at your skin. It is so tender!” Laura looked at Judith in envy. The air in Mayfield was dry and thus their skin was somewhat rough. Judith smiled, her eyes as clear as water. She said to Laura, “Laura, you can call me Judith! I like the food in Mayfield” “Great! Judith, I’d love to. Just have a try on the food!” Laura smiled even more happily! She even added some food to Judith’s plate. To newcomers, she was the most friendly person Judith had ever met. Everyone was chatting and eating pleasantly with each other. Gary took the opportunity to ask, “Ms. White, where do you live in Kimshire? I am quite familiar with Kimshire.”

People were just chatting casually, so even if he asked, Judith would not take it as a suspicious question.

Love At First Night Chapter 28

Chapter 28

Judith’s eyes wandered towards Gary. She wondered why he suddenly asked for her address. To avoid being found by the Coopers, she had always rented houses with Adam’s name. She looked at Gary and replied with a smile, “I live in a friend’s house.” When Gary heard this, he suddenly understood why he could not find anything. But after a second thought, he felt that something was wrong. There seemed to be someone stopping him from investigating Judith. He and Edwin were both computer experts. It was impossible for them not to find any clues. But a program had always been attacking him when he was investigating.

Frank also slightly paused when he heard her words. He picked up the wine cup on the side and drank it.

When Judith saw this, she frowned slightly. She thought, <Why is he drinking wine? He should take good care of himself! He still has stitches on his forehead!| Zoe noticed all these. She slightly gritted her teeth as she glanced at Judith. To Zoe, she was the only one who could attract the attention of Frank. She reached out to pick up the wine glass and “accidentally” knocked it over. Most of the red wine was poured on Judith’s white shirt.

She pretended to feel guilty and shouted, “Oh, my god! Ms. White, I’m sorry! I didn’t mean to.” Judith’s white shirt was dyed red and the shape of her white underwear was vaguely revealed. Frank immediately threw a sharp glance at Zoe. Every time Zoe attended a gathering, there would be problems. He frowned slightly as he saw the way Judith looked.

Just as he got up, the door was suddenly pushed open from outside. The people who came in were Ann and her elder brother, Aiden Chaney. When Frank saw them, his eyes were filled with coldness. Why were they here?

Seeing Ann, Judith suddenly remembered what she came for in the morning. Tonight, their families were going to discuss Ann and Frank’s wedding, but Frank was here. So Ann came for him!

Judith felt a little guilty in the thought of that. “Frank, I didn’t expect you to see you here.” Ann smiled gently, just as perfect as when Judith first saw her in the morning. The expression in Ann’s eyes was painful as she gazed at Frank. Instead of coming to the Chaney’s, he had actually joined the entry celebration for a new employee! To him, was she inferior to this new employee? The gathering between the two families was also ruined.

Since she became one of the Chaney's, Marilyn had told her that if Jodie could not be found, she would be the one to marry Frank. The two families were long-time friends. She was adopted to maintain the business connections with the Taylor family. Now that she had grown up and understood everything, she had deeply fallen for Frank. He was cold but at the same time unique. His calm and aloof temperament made him even more attractive. Now she only hoped that the so-called biological daughter of the Chaney family had died.

She had totally fallen for Frank! "Frank!" Aiden greeted him with a smile. "Hi!" Frank nodded indifferently. Aiden teased, "Ann said that you didn't have time tonight. Since you don't even have time to talk about the wedding, I didn't expect to see you here." | It seemed that Aiden was blaming Frank with his words. The entire private room instantly quieted down. The atmosphere became very oppressive!

Chapter 29

Frank looked at Aiden, sneering, "Aiden, it's my freedom to be here. And you know the only person | want to marry is Jodie. I believe she will come back." Ann felt embarrassed when she heard it. How could he say something so cruel? She had liked him for so many years, but he chose to wait for someone who would never return. A deep sense of sadness flashed in his eyes when Aiden heard the name of Jodie. He thought sadly, "Jodie would have come back if she were alive." Aiden seldom talked about Jodie because he was unwilling to face the reality. He knew Frank was a stubborn person. Aiden looked at Ann and said in a hoarse voice, "Ann, let's go home!" He knew Ann must feel very bad since Frank rejected her in public. Ann did not want to stay any longer.

She wore a gentle smile and spoke softly at Frank, “Frank, I’m leaving now.” As Ann turned around, she shot Judith an angry look as if Judith had stolen something that belonged to her. Then she left with Aiden. Judith perceived the hatred in Ann’s eyes. She had worked for three years and had dealt with different kinds of people. She knew Ann was not an easy-going person. After Ann and Aiden left, Judith got up and smiled apologetically at everyone. “Thank you for the wonderful dinner, Mr. Taylor! Thank you, everyone! Please let me propose a toast.” Judith picked up her glass and gulped down the wine. “Well said!” Laura laughed happily, raising her glass too. The others also cheered up, forgetting what had happened just now. Frank watched them with a smile. After dinner, they went to a karaoke bar. Judith was not good at singing, so she sat there, listening to others silently. Frank seldom sang either, but tonight he sang a song called “Wait for you forever”. He sang it very well. His voice was full of emotion. There were two moving lyrics, namely, “Baby, I believe you will come back. I will wait for you forever. Judith looked at Frank and couldn’t help but think, “You must love your girlfriend deeply, so you stayed single for so many years.” It was midnight, but everyone was still in high spirits. Laura was a little drunk, her face reddish. Considering that they had to go to work the next day, Laura stood up and exclaimed, “Mr. Taylor, we have a lot of fun tonight. It’s already late. Let’s get together another day!” Frank replied with a faint smile, “I hope everyone can play hard and work hard. I promise to take all of you to travel after our autumn exhibition!” Everyone was cheered by the good news. The Taylor Group was a good company, which offered the employees high salaries and great benefits.

“Thank you, Mr. Taylor! Well, let’s go home!” Laura called out, waving her hands. Laura was always able to enlighten the mood and make people laugh. The crowds said goodbye and left away in twos and threes. In the dim light, Frank gazed at Judith who was looking down at her phone.

Judith was good-looking. Her long black eyelashes were quivering slightly.

Love At First Night Chapter 30

Chapter 30

Judith was texting Adam. Adam was already waiting for her at Fashion Square. Judith revealed a sweet smile and put her phone back into her bag. She looked up and met Frank's deep eyes, full of emotion. Judith felt that her heart was pounding! She was sensitive, and she felt a little confused when Frank gazed at her in that way. For no reason, Judith detected a sense of affection and curiosity in his eyes. However, she calmed herself down quickly and smiled. "Goodbye, Mr. Taylor!" Only then did she find that only she and Frank were still there. "I can ask Edwin to send you home," Frank said quickly. He wanted to personally send her back, but he didn't want to be too pushy. After all, he was uncertain whether she was the person he was looking for. But his instinct told him it was her. He never had such a strong feeling. Judith quickly shook her head and refused with a smile, "Mr. Taylor, it's only a ten-minute walk from my apartment. Thanks. See you tomorrow!" Then Judith walked out. Frank actually started to expect to see her tomorrow when he heard it. It was strange. He saw her for the first time today, but he felt as if he had known her for many years. He felt inexplicably peaceful as though the person he had waited for a long time had finally returned to his side.

His empty heart was filled again, and he didn't feel lonesome anymore. Judith walked out of the door and saw Gary waiting for Frank outside. She greeted Gary simply and walked towards the elevator. Frank came out soon and then walked to another elevator with Gary. "Adam!" Judith stepped out of the elevator and quickly spotted Adam, who was standing in the middle of the square from a distance. Adam was wearing a white hoodie and white casual shoes. He was tall and handsome. “Judy!” Adam called, with two bottles of milk tea in his hands. His bright smiling eyes followed Judith she walked up to him. Adam made a few steps to Judith. When Judith stood in front of her, he suddenly frowned and complained, “Judy, you smell bad.” Adam didn’t smoke and hated the smell of cigarettes! Judith smiled apologetically and said resignedly, “Sorry, Adam. You know there were a lot of people. It will fade away a little later. Let’s go.” Adam smiled and then handed a cup of milk tea to her. “Here, it’s your favorite flavor: strawberry!” “Thank you!” Judith exclaimed. She had drunk some wine. The milk tea could cover the smell of wine in her breath. They walked towards the apartment, chatting and laughing. Adam took a sip of his milk tea and asked, “Judy, is everything okay on your first day? Did anyone pick on you?” Judith shook her head with a smile. She raised her eyebrows and said proudly, “I am the director. Who dares to make things difficult for me?” “It tasted so good!” Judith took a long gulp. Adam smiled and said no more, his eyes lingering on a blotchy red stain on her white shirt. Neon lights were sparkling bright, and some cars occasionally passed by them. Even though the time had passed twelve o’clock, the street was very lively. Some people passing by them would cast an envious look at them. Meanwhile, Frank’s car slowly drove into the road.
