

Love At First Night Chapter 306 – 315

Chapter 306

Everyone wanted to become special in others' lives. Ann wanted to become Frank's wife, and she would work for that. Although Ann was smiling, she was crying in her heart. Frank's indifference was hurting Ann. But Judith had learned to be indifferent to Marilyn's comments. She told herself not to take Marilyn's words too seriously. Thinking of this, Judith felt relieved. Seeing Judith's smile, Frank was still a little worried. "Judy. I will ask Publicity Department to provide a lounge for Eric. He can have a rest." Eric refused with a smile, "Mr. Taylor, there's no need to trouble yourself. I chatted too late with my brother last night, so I'm a little sleepy today. Today I'll sleep earlier and I won't be sleepy anymore." Eric was too thoughtful. Frank felt sorry for him. "Eric, this won't do, I will get you a lounge." Frank made it hard for Eric to refuse. Eric looked at Frank and smiled gratefully. "Judith." A man in a suit looked at Judith with a smile downstairs of the Taylor Group. Sherly was following closely behind. When she saw this man, she put on an evil smile. Judith paused for a moment, but she was not too surprised, She calmly looked up. The man who was smiling in the distance was very handsome. He had a perfect face, and there was a warm smile on it. He looked both gentle and tough. Judith glanced at him before she looked away. She pulled her son and walked forward calmly. This man was her university classmate, Jarvis. He had been chasing her since his first year of university. He was the son of an upstart, a good man with excellent grades. He always followed behind her and was never tired of it. Why was he here? The people behind Judith looked at her in worry. Frank was unhappy about it. He looked at Judith and wondered how she would deal with it. He was born with jealousy.

There was a sense of distance in Frank's gaze. Judith could hardly ignore it. When Judith passed by Jarvis, she did not even look at him. She acted as if she didn't know Jarvis at all. Jarvis looked at Judith's indifferent face. His smile had faded. He took a step forward, blocked Judith's path and asked in embarrassment. "Judith, it's me, your university classmate!" Judith was more beautiful than seven years ago. She had also become more mature and charming. Judith stopped and looked at Jarvis with a smile. "Sir, you are mistaken. I don't know you." "Judith, how could I be mistaken? I am Jarvis. I have been writing love letters to you in university." Jarvis looked at her in astonishment. Jarvis's words irritated Frank.

Chapter 307

"I'm in a rush to work. Sir, excuse me." Judith left with Eric. "Judith, I know it's you. Sherl said that you are working at the Taylor Group, so..." Jarvis blocked her way again. "So, you came over." Judith interrupted him with a smile. Jarvis nodded quickly. Judith smiled guiltily. "It's a pity that I'm not the person you're looking for." Jarvis was stunned. Yes, this woman in front of him was more confident than

Judith. Judith was cold, but not confident. She had never smiled so confidently before. She studied and worked all day. At that time, he followed her everywhere. But she had never cast her eyes on him. Seeing Judith leave, Sherly was also puzzled. Was Judith a good actor, or was she really not Judith? Frank looked at Judith's back and smiled. It seemed that Judith could handle it well now. Frank smiled slyly. He had found another way to control her. Judith sent Eric back to the eleventh floor. Alissa hugged Judith when they met. Judith went back to her office to work. After the matter was settled, she could work according to her plan. She spent the whole day working and had long forgotten what Marilyn said. However, Jarvis's appearance made her vigilant. Jarvis did not have any bad intentions, but he could be unusually annoying. It turned out that Sherly was behind all of this. Sherly joined the Taylor Group only to investigate Judith. Judith took a deep breath, calmed herself down, and continued to work. She was the only one in the office. She liked such a quiet working environment. In Frank's office, Frank buried himself in his work. The faint light shone on his handsome face. He was very charming when he was working. Gary sat on the sofa across from Frank and glanced over Alissa's Timeline. "Interesting..." Gary smiled as he watched. He did not expect Alissa to have such a rich life. Alissa had also been to a lot of places. Suddenly, he saw a photo. Alissa was smiling beautifully with a man. Gary felt a head-on blow. The man was Edward. "He is not good-looking. He doesn't deserve Alissa!" Gary held his chin with both hands and narrowed his eyes as he looked at the man in the photo. He was more handsome than Edward. Maybe he still had hope. Gary felt much better. "Alissa is so pretty. Look at her brilliant smile!" Gary had completely fallen in love. Frank was disturbed by Gary. He looked up at Gary unhappily. "Gary, don't you have anything else to do?" The smile on Gary's handsome face froze. All of his good moods disappeared. He said seriously, "I have been busy for several days. I need some rest." Frank said with a cold face, "Go home to rest. Don't disturb me here." Gary replied with dissatisfaction, "Frank, be nice. You can have eye contact with Judy. Why can't I fall in love with Alissa? You're too overbearing."

Chapter 308

Frank sneered and said, "Gary, you've only met Alissa twice, and she even has a boyfriend. You shouldn't be able to do such a thing." When Gary heard this, not only was he not annoyed, he even said with a smile, "Frank, you are also a gentleman, but you also took Judy away from Adam, didn't you? Before you tease me, just think about what you have done, OK?" Hearing this, Frank narrowed his eyes and retorted, "Before you say that, why don't you ask Judy if they are lovers? It was Adam, who had stolen my Jodie." "Come on!" Gary couldn't help but burst out laughing: He rolled his eyes at Frank as he mocked with his face full of disdain, "Frank, I know that you won't admit it. Indeed, only you, Frank, will be so domineering. To you, the wrong can become the right." "So cut the crap. Investigate the Coopers when you have time. If I'm not wrong, the man who appeared downstairs today was arranged by Sherly." Frank narrowed his eyes. He would not let the Coopers off.

As for the plan, he had already thought it through. However, it was not the right time yet. When Judy started, he would secretly help. Ridicule slipped across Gary's eyes. "Is it necessary? It was obviously arranged by Sherly. She has probably done something wrong and was afraid that Judith would expose it. Thus she has kept an eye on Judith. "The human resources manager who had gone easy on them will leave today.” Frank looked up and glanced at the indifference and ridicule on Gary’s face. He also had the same expression. “Edwin has done a good job.” Frank narrowed his deep black eyes and sneered, “As for what you said just now, I suspect that something had happened to Jodie in the past. It is very likely that Jodie was not adopted from the orphanage.” When Gary heard this, he suddenly became interested. He asked excitedly, “You mean Jodie might have had an accident back then?” “Very likely!” Frank suddenly felt distressed and remorseful. He put down the pen in his hand and looked at Gary, saying, “It was raining heavily that night, but I did not run too far. Although I was sad, I knew that Jodie was chasing after me. I was also worried. “After I stopped, in the thought that I had already passed the road, I was also very anxious. So I turned around. Right at that moment, a car with dazzling light came into my sight together with the sound of brakes. “I was afraid that something would happen to Jodie, so I had desperately run back, but I’ve never seen Jodie since then. All these years, I have always felt that Jodie might have been in a car accident. “A few days ago, I had asked Judy about her childhood. She said that she had lost her memory and forgotten many things. “There is one more thing, Judy remembers my birthday. The password for her phone is 0923.” “It’s hard to believe!” Gary looked at him in surprise and then said, “The day of the accident was your birthday. So it explains.” Their parents were all familiar with each other. Jodie liked to stick to Frank since she was a child, so Gary had also seen her a few times. However, after she was lost, Gary gradually forgot what Jodie look like. “Exactly!” Frank smiled happily and said, “It is through these clues that I am sure that she is Jodie. If you have time, go and investigate where the Coopers lived and how the situation was. We will soon figure out.” When Gary heard the word “investigate”, he felt an inexplicable rejection. After all, it was not easy.

Chapter 309

He shifted his gaze and said, “Frank, why don’t you ask Jodie directly?” Frank glared at him. “If she could tell me, why would I ask you to investigate?” Frank said in an indifferent tone. After saying so, he got up and was about to leave. “Where are you going?” Gary stared at him with wide eyes. “Go see my son!” Frank looked at him proudly. The corners of Gary’s mouth twitched. He quickly got up and followed behind Frank. Frank turned around and glanced at him. “Where are you going?” Gary smiled devilishly and retorted directly, “To see my girlfriend.” Frank sneered, “Somebody else’s girlfriend. Don’t push too hard.” “Same to you. Be careful not to get things messed up.” Gary looked at Frank with a gloating smile. Frank smiled confidently but kept silent. He glanced at Judith’s office and saw that Judith was seriously looking through the information. The smile on his face gradually faded as his eyes were suddenly filled with killing intent, looking cold and scary.

Jodie, those who have hurt you, I will make them pay a hundred times over,” Frank swore in his mind. Gary followed Frank to the eleventh floor. Frank was to visit Eric. As for Gary, it was all for the sake of seeing Alissa. The eleventh floor was the territory of Publicity Department. All the internet celebrities and models worked here. As Frank arrived, the people on the eleventh floor felt pressured. When everyone saw Frank, they all greeted him carefully. Dared not to neglect their duties at all, they just did what they should do in their positions and did not even dare to whisper. Ann was in charge of a part of the work of the Propaganda Department. Happened to deliver documents over, she saw Frank from afar. At this time, Frank's handsome face was expressionless. He was looking madly impetuous and cold, meanwhile bewitching. She wanted to go over and greet him, but suddenly what happened this afternoon came to her mind. So Ann hesitated and stopped. She bit her lower lip and stood where she was, wondering why Frank was on the eleventh floor. Seeing him enter the studio of Publicity Department, she frowned slightly and followed him in. Then she hid in an inconspicuous place. In the shooting studio, Eric's shooting had ended. Alissa was packing up and preparing to take Eric back. "Alissa!" Gary smiled and greeted from afar. Alissa turned around and saw that it was Frank and Gary. A strange expression flashed across her eyes, especially when she looked at Frank. She curled her rosy lips slightly. "Hello, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Powell!" Alissa smiled charmingly. Seeing that Alissa was already packing up, Frank asked, "Is everything finished?" The photographer, who was watching the photo aside, answered, "Mr. Taylor, Eric did a great job. The whole shooting went quite smooth." Frank smiled. He proudly thought, "Eric is my son!" When the photographer saw Frank's smile, he was stunned.

Chapter 310

He had never seen Frank smile! "Hello, Frank and Gary." Eric smiled and greeted Frank and Gary politely when he came out of the dressing room and saw them. Frank walked over to Eric with a smile and led him to the sofa hand in hand. He asked, "Eric, are you tired?" Seeing this, Alissa suddenly felt that Frank was over concerned about Eric and Judith. Eric smiled and shook his head. "Frank, I'm not too tired. The filming has been going smoothly." Frank felt sorry looking at Eric's tired face. Eric was so strong! "Eric, how about we have dinner together with Judith and Lucas later?" Frank coaxed. He didn't want to go back but only wanted to be with them. Eric was about to speak when suddenly, his phone rang. He picked up the phone and saw that it was a video call from Emily. He looked at Frank and smiled apologetically. Walked not far away, Eric picked up the phone and lowered the volume. Emily's pretty little face suddenly appeared on the screen.

But she looked very unhappy. When Frank saw that it was Emily, he was very excited. Emily suddenly cried. Eric was panicked to see Emily cry. "Emily, what's wrong? Why are you crying? Did the fatty bully you again?" Emily quickly wiped away her tears and covered her small mouth with her hands, crying, "Eric, I have given that fatty a serious lesson. He dares not to irritate me now. "Now he walks away when he sees me. "But I am in the dental transitional period. Earlier when I called Lucas, he said that I looked funny when I smiled! Eric, when you go back tonight, you must punch Lucas for me! "Well..." Eric didn't know what to say. He smiled and continued, "Emily, everyone will go through the dental transitional period. Lucas has also lost a tooth. Just wait for the opportunity to get it back." How would he dare to hit Lucas? When Lucas was free, he would either read or train his body at home. He was such a strong guy! "You are a coward! I knew it from the beginning. My art exhibition will start tomorrow and last for five days. Once it is over, I will let Grandma bring me back. I will get revenge myself. Goodbye, Little Coward.” After Emily finished speaking, she even made a face at Eric. Eric could only look at her helplessly. Emily was really cute! But she was also hard to please. It seemed that Lucas was going to suffer. “Eric, come here.” Seeing that he had finished the call, Frank beckoned to him. Eric smiled and walked over to Frank. As he walked, Eric shook his head slightly and thought that it was Lucas and their grandmother that had always spoiled Emily, and now Lucas was teasing Emily again. Ann, who was standing outside the door, was surprised to see the gentle smile on Frank’s face. She had never seen him being like that before. Eric was Judith’s child. Why was Frank so gentle to Judith’s child?

Chapter 311

Thinking of the paternity test last time, Ann’s eyes flashed with doubt. Vigilant as Frank did, he would not let his defense down easily. With her lips pursed, Ann turned around and went to Sherly after delivering the documents to the modeling room. Ann pulled Sherly into the fire escape. Sherly said with some dissatisfaction, “Ann, what are you doing? It’s almost time to get off work. I haven’t finished my work yet.” Ann glanced at Sherly and asked, “Sherl, tell me. Why did you always target Judith?” Ann always felt that Sherly’s behavior was a little strange. After deep consideration, she still felt that it was necessary to talk to Sherly. Sherly sneered and asked, “Ann, why do you care to know? I know that you made things difficult for Judith because she fought with you for Frank.” Ann glanced at her contemptuously. “So, she is our common enemy, but I want to know why you play against her.” “That’s why you came to me now?” Sherly felt that this was quite interesting. Myla had been driven away, so she needed a partner. “Yes.” Ann looked at Sherly with patience. She had always wondered why Frank was suddenly so interested in Judith. Ann had had a crush on Frank for many years, but in the end, she had to marry Steve. She was unwilling. If she could not get Frank, others should not either. Viciousness flashed across her eyes. Sherly also felt that cooperation was not a bad thing. As she thought about Judith, a cunning and vicious look suddenly appeared on her face. She sneered, “I have an older sister called Judith Cooper. Seven years ago, she was arranged to sleep with Mr. Kent. After that night, she disappeared.” “Disappeared?” Ann was particularly surprised. “I have known you for seven or eight years. But I never heard that you had a sister. I thought you only had a brother.” “Well...” Sherly smiled sarcastically. Her beautiful face was twisted and ferocious because of her jealousy. “All of us hated her. So we’ve never mentioned her existence in front of outsiders. As an adopted child, she was indeed very outstanding in all aspects, especially in design. I mean, brilliant.” “So, you suspect that Judith is Judith Cooper?”. Ann felt inexplicably worried as she heard that Judith Cooper was adopted. Ann wondered, “If she wasn’t the biological daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, who will she be? Why is Frank only special to Judith?” Ann’s face suddenly turned pale as she had a bad feeling in her heart. Her curly eyelashes flickered slightly. Her lips, which were painted with cherry red lip gloss, trembled slightly, reflecting a sheen as clear as jade. There were complicated emotions in her eyes. Sherly looked at Ann and nodded. “Yes. Although her temperament has changed, her face looks very similar to Judith Cooper’s.”

Ann pursed her lips and recalled Sherly’s words carefully. Suddenly, an important message appeared in her mind. She looked at Sherly and asked, “Sherl, are you sure that Judith Cooper had entered the hotel room seven years ago?” Sherly nodded and said gloomily, “Yes! She had even signed the contract with

Mr. Kent. Mr. Kent was also very satisfied. What was strange was that she disappeared after that. There has been no news of her for the past few years. We all thought that she had probably died. But now she appeared again. "You also saw it today. I deliberately found Jarvis, who liked her in college, but Judith seemed not to know him. I am not sure now."

Chapter 312

Ann looked at her and asked, "Sherl, what are her characteristics?" Sherly smiled coldly, "I don't remember. Julissa never cares about her. She is not even in our family photos. She lived in the servants' room back then." "Moreover, when we got to university, Julissa had cut off her tuition. We wanted her to know that we didn't welcome her and hoped that she would leave voluntarily. "But she was quite cheeky. After we got into college, she moved into the college students' dormitory. She was half working and half studying. Her grades were still very good and she rarely came back. I don't know what characteristics she has, but she was allergic to mango juice." Ann narrowed her eyes as she heard that Judith was allergic to mango juice. She couldn't help but take a few steps back. "So that day, you deliberately asked Myla to bring Judith mango juice, right?" Ann's voice was trembling. She remembered that Marilyn also said that Jodie was allergic to mangoes. Her family never ate mangoes, and everything related to Jodie was carefully packed up. They were afraid of getting hurt again and again recalling the memories of Jodie. "Yes!" Sherly admitted it openly because she was sure that Ann would not tell anyone about this. She also knew many of Ann's scandalous past. Ann's beautiful nails dug into her palm, leaving traces of blood on it. Could it be that Frank and Gary were acting in front of her? That morning, she pretended to be asleep. Would it be that Frank had seen through her? "Ann, what's wrong? You seem to be unwell. Look at you, you are drenched in cold sweats and your face is pale. Are you sick?" Sherly asked. She crossed her arms around her chest and looked at Ann with her beautiful big eyes full of doubt. Ann was adopted. This was not a secret. She was only five or six years old when she became one of the Chaneys. Ann shook her head and quickly stabilized her emotions. She forced a smile and said, "Sherl, I'm fine. Don't worry!" "Geez! I don't care, K?" Sherly thought. In their circle, there was only mutual exploitation. There was no such thing as sincerity! A friend today might be an enemy tomorrow. Such things happened every day. She was already used to it, not to mention that the other party was Ann. Ann suddenly smiled strangely and said, "Sherl, I will help you. As long as Judith is allergic to mangoes, she must be Judith Cooper. We will find a way to force her to admit it. "She is ungrateful. We have many ways to force her to admit her real identity and that she has a child out of wedlock. We can make a big fuss about it." Sherly smiled. "Are you willing to help me?" "Sure!" Ann smiled. There was also something else she needed to prove. "Tell me your requirements. Ann, I know you won't help me without a reason. I want nothing but to know if she is Judith Cooper." "After all, Judith White is very outstanding. And I won't let Judith Cooper, the low-lived shame of my family, climb over me and do whatever she wants. "If she really is Judith Cooper, then I must use all kinds of methods to pull her down." Every word of Sherly was filled with dense jealousy. Ann smiled coldly and said, "Sherl, I don't have any conditions. The only reason is that she has stolen Frank. I will not let her off. Let's deal with her together."

Chapter 313

Sherly looked at her with doubt. Was it necessary for Ann to do this?

But anyway, it would be difficult for Sherly to control the situation by herself. With Ann's participation, things would be smoother. "Sure! In the future, we will be in the same boat. If anything happens, don't even think about escaping." Sherly smiled. She thought it would be better to have both of them bear it if anything happened. "Don't worry. As long as you don't say it, I won't say it. Nothing bad will happen." Ann smiled coldly. She believed that the more tenacious she was, the more outstanding she would be. All these years, she had watched as Frank went through difficulties in that way. He had experienced very much before he gained his fame and drew worldwide attention. She was the same. As long as she remained to be the only miss of the Chaney family, no one would be able to threaten her rich life. "OK! Let's go back. Otherwise, my manager will flip out again." Sherly was a little angry. Her department manager disliked her. She was afraid that after the three-month trial period, she would have to leave. "OK!" Ann smiled before they went back laughing and chatting. After they left, Judith, who had always been sitting on the stairs, moved slightly. She saved the recording on her phone. After working for a whole day, she liked to come here to get some fresh air if she was free. Usually, no one else would come here. Being here alone, she could freely release her emotions. She did not have to worry about anyone seeing her. She did not expect to hear the conversation between Ann and Sherly. She could hardly believe that Sherly could actually be so vicious. She had always enjoyed bullying her. How much did one have to pay to understand the pain of life? She smiled coldly. That was right. Sherly had never been living a wealthy life since she was a child. Her life as a young lady was carefree. How could she know the hardships of the world? At that time, she had thought of leaving the Cooper family. After all, she could clearly feel their rejection of her. However, after living under the same roof for more than ten years, she also wanted to gain the approval of the Coopers through her own efforts. Now that she thought about it, although she felt that everything she had done was ridiculous, it was also because of all kinds of pressure from the Coopers that she had worked hard. And the return was exactly what she wanted. She was not a flower in a greenhouse, which was not able to withstand the wind and rain. With a bitter smile, she got up and walked back to her office with unhurried steps. It was time to get off work. As for the scheme from Ann and Sherly, she was not afraid. After so many years of plots and schemes, she was now not afraid of them at all. Just as Judith walked out of the office, Edwin came over. He was wearing a custom-made white shirt and black trousers. The most simple and classic combination made him look especially gentle and eye-catching. "Judith, are you ready to get off work?" he asked with a warm smile. "Yes! It's about time." Judith answered with a smile. As for Edwin, Judith always had a feeling that he was like a boy next door.

Chapter 314

Edwin nodded and asked, "Judith, do you know any computer experts like hackers? I checked and found the person who sent us the message is abroad." Judith was slightly surprised. She didn't know who would be helping them overseas. She shook her head and said in puzzlement, "Edwin, I don't know any hackers. Is Mr. Taylor's friend helping him?" Edwin shook his head with a smile. "Impossible. I know all of Frank's friends. As for the hacker, I am the only one. There is no one else." Judith smiled, "I didn't expect that you were a handsome and capable hacker." She teased him. Edwin rarely saw Judith like this. She was a little mischievous, and her pure smile could infect and delight others. Being praised, Edwin actually blushed. He smiled and said, "I have liked computers since I was a child. And I was professionally trained. "However, compared to the one this morning, I am much inferior. It took me half a day to find it out. Moreover, the address might be fake." "Then who is helping us?" Judith was very puzzled. Edwin glanced at her. He was also very confused right now, but they would know sooner or later. "Forget it. You can get off work first. You will know who it is." "Alright, I'll leave first." Judith smiled and walked towards the elevator. As soon as they reached the elevator door, they met Frank and Gary. The elevator door had just opened. Frank was a little depressed, because Eric didn't want to eat with him and wanted to go back to the ravioli made by Judy. He came back to pack up his things and planned to eat with them later. He had already made up his mind. He looked up and saw Judith outside the elevator. "Judy, it's time to get off work." His gloomy and handsome face instantly lit up. "Yes. Mr. Taylor, Mr. Powell, goodbye!" After Judith finished speaking, she entered the elevator. "Goodbye, Judy!" Gary smiled and explained. "Thank you!" Judith smiled at him. After the elevator door closed, Frank slapped Gary on the head. "Are you crazy? Why did you hit me? I'm not the one who refused to have dinner with you. Why are you angry at me?" Gary looked at Frank angrily. Frank's facial features were clear. His dark eyes were sharp and stern as he looked at Gary. He looked aggressive as he said angrily, "Gary, how can you call her Judy?" Gary was stunned as he thought, "This bastard was actually jealous over a name." He roared in dissatisfaction, "Frank, isn't it just a name? It is not exclusive! She isn't your personal belonging." Gary straightened his back and shouted at Frank, "Can you not be so overbearing?" Frank's handsome face clouded over as he warned, "You are not allowed to call her that in the future. Otherwise, I will tear your mouth apart." After he finished speaking, he strode into his office. He didn't even pay attention to Edwin who was standing at the side.
