Chapter 103 - Storage ring

After the failure of the robbery, I want to come to Zheng Man is also looking for it, and know the result. Then the follower of the acquaintance and friend did not leave Pingxi County, and rooted here, perhaps the family was also moved, and because of the various abilities of the self-cultivator, he left a legend of “Ban Wang”. name.

After learning that Zheng Man was the same year, Shen Lang was on the heart. His potential is inevitable. It is not your treasure. It is also necessary to personally understand what Zheng Man has left. He cannot look at people who have been irrelevant for generations. grab.

So he will know how to open the Tomb of the King, because that is the divorced array, or he pointed to Zheng Man!

Of course, I understand that this six-year opening is not a secret, but the two yin and yang arrays are well designed. The underground diurnal array is driven by the energy of the Lingshi. When the energy consumption is over, you can't continue, or you can't open it, or you can't turn it off.

With the coming in the way, Shen Lang's knowledge also touched the panorama. In addition to knowing the ambushes of those people, he also had a deeper understanding of the underground palace of the Tomb of the King.

He estimated that the tomb of the king of the darkness is actually a treasure house, and perhaps the tomb of the king in the city is the real tomb that his descendants buried him.

Just like this fifth floor of the underground palace, that is what Zheng Man himself placed, including the layout of these organs. After he can't die, he can also play a body bomb at his body. It is also unlikely that it will be settled by future generations. Will future generations see various resources hidden in the grave?

Because of this, he knows that to solve this opportunity to come in, there is no respect for this embarrassment, because it is not the bones of Zheng Man, but a whole set of “props” designed.

He went straight all the way here, and it was the gods who sensed that there is still a small underground palace. Since the fourth floor has no way to the fifth floor, the fifth layer hidden is naturally the core.

But the last thing I found was this familiar storage ring, and Zheng Man's letter, which made Shen Lang a little surprised and sighed.

From the content above the letter, "Hate the sky can no longer see each other", people who don't know, often think that they are missing the couple who died, and only Shen Lang can understand Zheng Man's regret!

Zheng Man is here waiting for his reincarnation!

If you succeed in reincarnation immediately after the fall, you will be able to see you again in the next few years. Zheng Man lays the foundation here, including revealing the "miracle", but also to expand the influence, and then find the child with the memory of past life, or let the Shen Lang after the reincarnation know and find him.

In the end, maybe a few years, ten years, and decades later, he did not find the reincarnation of Shen Lang, and he will send out the resentful sigh of "Hate the sky can't meet again."

The latter sentence is reserved for the latecomers. He did not leave it to future generations, but made such a layout. The opening of the sixty-year period has always been a relic of Shen Lang, and he has found a good person in the future.

Shen Lang's previous life focused on the road of comprehension, leaving no family, can inherit his relics, is a continuation, and the rest is to take care of his descendants.

The same is true of Shen Lang's sigh. He did not think that this reincarnation was actually a few hundred years later.

If the reincarnation was successful in the past, and it was only after the growing up that the memory was awakened, as long as he lived in Pingxi County, he could always hear the name of Zheng Man, and he would still be able to see him again after the end.

Now he is born again, and Zheng Man is already old.

After a while, Shen Lang put away his feelings. Zheng Man spent the boss's efforts to make such a palace. Such a long-term layout, today returned to his "good-willed" hand, can be regarded as the completion of the last wish.

Shen Lang took the familiar ring and put it on his hand. Infused with a bit of spiritual power, it quickly branded, re-established contact, and once again became the owner of this storage ring.

When he first gave this to Zheng Man, he had broken the spiritual connection and allowed Zheng Man to re-establish contact. Now Zheng Man is supposed to be disconnected when he puts it here, so it has been nothing for hundreds of years. But then again, even if it wasn't there at the time, naturally, as Zheng Man died, it became an unowned thing.

The familiar feeling is back, and Shen Lang is not in a hurry to see how much is inside. Instead, I first took Zheng Han's piece of paper into it. It's a relic of old friends and a commemorative value.

Then he directly pressed the two boxes into pieces and then came out of the palace.

After coming up, he pressed the organ again, and the slate was closed, and it became the appearance of the passage at the end.

From now on, Shen Lang did not use too much time. They had to make great efforts and thoughts to ponder and test the open organs. He opened it directly, but it is only about half an hour.

Now that the most important treasures are in place, he doesn't want to search for anything anymore. But when I came out, I thought of Li Hang and Ye Shiguang, and it was a bit uncomfortable.

Although he was not injured by the hidden weapon, they clearly detracted from his heart!

Besides, the only three people who died in a row were actually killed by him. But after going back, will Li Hang and Ye Shifeng admit that they are doing it? In addition to pushing and trapping in the organization, maybe it will be said that he was killed by him!

Before returning to the fourth floor of the mouth, Shen Lang has heard the footsteps, and the gods have discovered that Li Hang and Ye Shiguang are both retreating!

In his heart, he immediately turned off the headlights and did not go out immediately.

His knowledge extends over and sees that the two people are almost at the front and rear feet meeting at the fork.

“How?” Li Hang asked a low voice.

“Get it a little. What about you?” Ye Shiguang also responded softly.

Li Hang nodded and then pointed to the road that Shen Lang entered.

The two of them illuminate the lights, and after the waves broke through the passage, they did not see anyone.

“Just the movement...”

Li Hang nodded again whispered: “He should have found a stone room, so big, there must be good things.”

“But you can’t see it!” Ye Shiguang continued.

“Yes, he should be taking things at this moment. If he waits for a while, he will come out. Even if he is trapped inside, we will pass it later, but it may save him!”

The concept of the two people is the same. Obviously, they just heard the two movements before and after the Shenlang, so they quickly opened a stone room and hurriedly took a little thing and left.

“Leave it for the next time!” Ye Shiguang was a little unwilling, but he also sighed.

Li Hang looked at the watch and pointed to Shen Lang to get a martyr. This time, there was no speech, but the fingers were stroked. It means that there is still time. It is better for them not to open the stone room, and not to rush to leave, but to wait for the ambush at this crossing!

Ye Shiguang immediately shook his head. He pointed to the top and there was a body lying there. If the ambush is not successful, then they will also become corpses!
