Chapter 1031 - Surprise gift

For the style of Shen Lang, Paul is actually deeply researched. With honor and sincerity, he may be able to impress him, but he will agree with it unless it is forced to do so, such as the troll.

The key is to have practical benefits. For example, when they first came back but disappeared, he wanted to send them to the finest stones.

So to see Shen Lang, in addition to the sincerity on the bright side, he also brought practical benefits.

After the request was made, if Shen Lang had already refused, it would be hard to say it again. Therefore, when the ceremony was held, not waiting for the opening of the waves, I immediately got up straight and held the prepared gift.

“This is a little gift we have prepared. Although it is not a good thing, it may be something that Master Shen Lang needs.”

Shen Lang took a deep look at him.

Paul sent his faith to the last time and benefited him a lot. Although he has already collected a lot of faith, he should continue to contribute to the city, but the belief in the Holy See is still good stuff.

This time Paul should not be his family, but join forces to contribute. Even if it is also the belief in divine power, there should be more in number!

Shen Lang has a heart to go with them, there is no sentiment.

I took the gift box and opened it directly.

Seeing that he had accepted it, the Archbishop of Paul breathed a sigh of relief. After others got up and saw it, they were relieved.

Will receive gifts, at least they are in the right direction, indicating that Shen Lang is a heartbeat, even if the latter refuses, but the gift is not heavy enough, plus more.

Shen Lang first identified the belief in the Holy See and did not have much expectations. However, after opening it, he was surprised.

In this big box, it is not a bottle of faith, but a lot of broken things.

These are the artifact fragments that he has been collecting before!

After Shen Lang was in Qiangjialing, he noticed the fragments of chicken ribs, and later it was collected by Feng Jiji. But the time has passed for a long time, and it can be collected in the front, and there is no gain in the wind.

After all, that thing was brought back by Qiangjialing. It was only opened once in a hundred years. Even if it was added before, after sale, it is impossible for someone to find it immediately.

Later, in order to save the Black Dragon King, Black Dragon King's younger brother, Bagan, presented Shen Lang with an ancient treasure he had obtained in the southwestern frontier. He found that it was the artifact.

The debris, combined with the previously collected pieces, is clearly able to piece together a more intuitive shape, but overall it is still a lot worse.

This is something that can't be met, and there is no urgent need for Shen Lang, so there is no such thing as the wind and no Jijia high reward.

I didn't expect Paul to give them these things now!

Feng Wuji is his spokesperson, everyone knows. And her previous collection, although not high-profile, but there is no secret, I can still inquire about it.

It seems that they want to vote for what they want, so they inquired about the things related to Shen Lang, and finally through all their efforts to collect all the debris scattered in the Western world.

In addition to debris, there are mysterious metal cards that don't know what it does.

Qiangjialing is a mystery in the country. It is said that there will be no Western monks entering. But like the dead forest, is there any other entrance and exit, the Western world can not enter, and no one knows.

Besides, in ancient times, the East and the West were inconvenient to communicate, but in the past few hundred years, it was the time when the West rose, and with the great maritime revolution of the industrial revolution, the military's comprehension forces will sneak into it. may.

Even modern and contemporary, it is possible to be sold out by some people like antiques.

After all, these pieces and metal cards are all tasteless for the harvested martial art. I don't know what it is, and it is a collection value. It's not surprising that it will be sold as an antique artifact.

In terms of the price of the acquisition, these are certainly not as valuable as the beliefs of the "Thurch of the Holy See". However, for Shen Lang, the belief in divine power is not so urgent now. These are collections that cannot be met.

It really counts him a surprise.

"Yes, although the value is average, I am really collecting these. I have accepted your gift and are willing to accompany you again!"

If you are in the dark, you will be excited.

But these are the big names around the world, and the excitement is not as exciting as the young people.

"Thank you Master Shen Lang!"

Under the leadership of Archbishop Paul, everyone thanked Shen Lang.

“Everyone personally came to ask me, I have a heart.” Shen Lang arched his hand: “Go back and prepare. You have any better plans, you can also arrange it. When you start, let me know.”

They must have had many discussions, and they have more contacts in private. There are already some mature programs, but the lack of Shen Lang can't be done. Now that he has been determined, everything will be fine.

The relationship between everyone and Shen Lang is not familiar with Paul, and there are not many sets of familiar ones. After thanking them, they will each take a look at the mountains.

Paul stayed at the end and fully demonstrated that his relationship with Shen Lang is not normal.

He twice brought a surprise gift that makes Shen Lang look at him. Even if it is obviously for the sake of pleasing, this is also a matter of heart. Shen Lang also gave him face, but did not leave the order, but the guest set aside and invited him to the sword. Zong Panyu lived small.

Paul was polite and happy to agree.

When everyone else walked the same, the thick fog on the top of the sunset peak had already spread. When preparing to go down the mountain with a few of them, Paul was a little embarrassed to turn around.

“Master Shen Lang, in fact, this time... In addition to me, our Pope also came in person.”

Hearing this, Shen Lang was amazed.

The Pope has been called the Pope by the world, and his status is evident. The influence in the West is incomparable to the capital of many countries.

Paul returned to the chief archbishop, and there is a play of the pope, but in fact, the Pope is still huge. Just like the prime minister and the emperor, even if there are more than 10,000 people, as long as they are still under this person, it is not an order of magnitude.

If the Pope visits the East, it will be a huge influence. Now, listening to this meaning, I have come to Tianshan, but only to visit Shen Lang!

For other people, whether it is a big man in the world or a strong person in the realm of cultivation, it is exciting and tense for a giant visit like the Pope's contemporary pope.

However, for Shen Lang, it was just a surprise, and there was no excitement, let alone flattered performance.

Chapter 1032 - The realm of the pope

Of course, this time the Pope cannot be an open visit, or else he will be misunderstood and difficult to make a trip. Even if it is a trip, it will be focused on all aspects.

So Paul kept a low profile and waited until there were no other people.

In other words, not only the outside world, but also the parties who have just walked together, do not know this.

Shen Lang accepted the visit of the Pope, and then Paul revealed that in order to avoid being seen, the Pope was not at the peak of the setting sun, but he was waiting for the place not far from the Tianshan Jianzong.

Now they are going to go back to the Tianshan Jianzong. After arriving, Paul first went to the Tibetan pope to come and visit Tianshan Jianzong together.

In fact, for the sects hidden in the Tianshan Jianzong, it is a little risky to ask the pope to enter this level.

After all, in addition to Shen Lang, the overall strength of Jianzong is still too weak. If it weren't for Shen Lang, the master of the master alliance of the gods would be able to destroy the sword.

However, Shen Lang did not care much. With the influence of the Holy See in the West, the Tianshan Jianzong in the district did not know anyone else. If it weren't for him, it would be that Tianshan Jianzong had a heartfelt request, and he could not visit Paul at this level.

It is another matter for the Eastern world to eat the Holy See, but in terms of influence and strength, the Pope's visit is really radiant.

The complete title of the Pope is very long, including the representative of the Light God, the highest priest, the bishop, the head of the Holy See, the servant of God, and so on.

The contemporary Pope Constantine (also known as Constantine) V is already more than 200 generations of Popes. When he and the Archbishop of Paul appeared together, it looks like a seven-and-eighty-year-old man. Slow.

But no one dares to despise, and Shen Lang is a glance at it – the Pope's strength is comparable to the half-sex!

"Master Shen Lang, we have exchanges for a long time, but we still meet for the first time." Constantine V said with a kind smile to Shen Lang.

Shen Lang smiled a little: "It is an honour for us to visit the Pope."

With the experience of his two worlds, he wants to rely on him to sell old people in front of him.

Constantine V smiled and held out his hand. He had no religious rituals and used the most mundane handshake.

Shen Lang also extended his hand and simply shook his hand.

But at the moment that the two people's hands had just touched, Shen Lang realized that the Pope of Constantine V was not just a polite handshake!

In an instant, the people around them seem to have disappeared, and countless ice and snow seem to melt. There is a kind of sacred atmosphere that can't be said, and there is a kind of mentality that wants to be pilgrimage.

Constantine V is not trying to attack the waves, but now he has brought the waves into a world similar to the field through the handshake. In his field, he directly affects the people who are brought in. The mind.

If this is an ordinary person, the Pope will let him piously bow down and pay homage at this time. He will be excited to perform without hesitation. It is a fanatic feeling from the heart, and it is irreversible.

Even some masters of cultivation, or a head of state, can be awe-inspiring and respectful of the Pope under the influence. This does not make them feel awkward. It is afterwards that they will think that they are affected by the atmosphere and are infected by the personal charm of the Pope.

But in Shenlang here, it is very clear what this trick is, and for him he is just a little trick!

Constantine V is not a habit, but a deliberate one! Shen Lang has already convinced Paul that his authority has been affected. He must meet for the first time and come to a horse.

According to Paul, when Shen Lang first saw it, his strength was far less than him, but he had all kinds of magic. Later, I probably got a lot of adventures in that world, so that they can save them from the hands of the sea people.

When I saw the last time I saw Shen Lang, I felt that his strength had skyrocketed and he had caught up with him and even surpassed him.

Coupled with the effect of Shen Lang on the trolls around the world, Paul feels that the waves may be comparable to the Pope!

This is just a half-year change. How could it be so amazing?

Therefore, Constantine V, this time is to come to a Mawei, but also to test the Shenlang in the end there are a few pounds.

He will not hurt the sinking waves, nor will he be swaying, so he will do a bit too much. What he needs is to let Shen Lang maintain his devout respect for him, and then he can indirectly explain the high and low.

But when he had everything in his hands, he found that the whole field had changed!

He was like a show of miracles, and pointed to the heart, but for a moment, I found out that Shen Lang was not only affected and impressed, but became a bit dazzling!

Just in front of him, the body seems to be shining, and he is afraid to look at it.

He was only slightly surprised and did not lose heart, but immediately found that the light is more and more prosperous, hot to a little bit of eye!

They worship the * of light, but now there is a mortal, like the light shining in the light of God, which is very strange. There is a moment, let him faintly as if he is facing the * of light...

However, the Pope is the Pope. He clearly realizes that it is impossible for him to see the light god. This is a counterattack from Shen Lang! And revealing such a form of attack, even mocking him.

Although he will not be convinced and respectful, Shen Lang is not only fighting with him, but also pressing on one end, but it is impossible for him to accept.

Immediately, Constantine V infused a powerful spiritual force, directly making himself shine like a golden light, directly more dazzling than Shen Lang!

Then his body began to become more and more tall, and the momentum became stronger and stronger, directly facing the sinking waves with a crushing attitude. It seems to be still shaking hands, but it seems to be able to pinch the waves at any time!

At this time, the body of Shen Lang seems to be rapidly becoming huge, directly leaning against the mountain behind.

And after a while, the mountain collapsed!

On the head of Shen Lang, there was a round of Jinwu, and the golden sun directly touched the eyes of Constantine V.

The body of Constantine V once again expanded rapidly. His body had to become bigger than the sinking waves. It was directly rolled down and the red light of the area was negligible.

But at this time, he felt that his body was falling fast!

Although his body is expanding rapidly, the speed of falling is faster, making him not only not surpassing, but becoming shorter and shorter in front of the sinking waves. Looking up, it is directly making the sun of the sun shine more dazzling!
