

First Strong 1051

Chapter 1051 - Enter the ship magic weapon

Once again, I came to the sea of innocence. Shen Lang is very calm. After all, what I feel, when he came to find someone last time, he already had it.

Others are different, and the mood is very complicated. There are both emotions and excitement to re-start.

On the deck, everyone is holding hands in a row. Although they are in the age of seventy and eighty, like the kindergarten children, they are actually quite awkward, but safety is the first, and no one can care.

There is a large area in the sea of no jail, even a row of three hundred people can enter directly without having to form a curved circle.

The key to Shen Lang's request is that everyone enters together and shoulders this huge space impact.

The cause and effect are clearly stated, and there is no need for him to defend the upper armor of the armor.

This time, everyone is flying together in a mighty way. Unlike the last time there was some trepidation and some hesitant entanglement, it was the Pope, and did not wait for Paul to wait for himself, but with Paul. In the ranks of holding hands.

I have experienced once, and with the reminder of Shen Lang, let everyone understand the chaotic space after they have withstood the impact of space.

Sure enough, I couldn't see my side at all, and I couldn't speak. The hand that everyone took was the only connection.

Conscious, naturally there are all kinds of ideas. Some people feel as if they are in the air, if they sink to the end? Some want to try to flutter in different places, and some want to go up...

Fortunately, it is strictly required that all people must hold hands, and they will not become a group of scattered sand. It is only a minority, and it cannot affect the three hundred troops.

How long does it take to wait in this state?

Shen Lang did not give them the answer, but now I have to wait for Yu Xianmen to “fishing.”

Even if there is a way for Yuxianmen to know the situation here, it will take time to send people to come and get here from the door of their space.

Fortunately, the aura here is very rich, much stronger than the top of the sealess prison. Everyone is not bored and idle, and they are naturally absorbed as much as possible.

Anyway, coming over is also for resources. Before you can find the resources that can be taken away, this aura can absorb more.

Of course, this is better than nothing. After all, even if it is dozens of times stronger than the Earth, there is no obvious difference between them in the realm of their realm.

Under such circumstances, the concept of time is gone. Everyone uses cultivation to pass the boring waiting.

The same is true for Shen Lang, but he is a little more than everyone, and he can know at any time how long it has passed through the Holy Grail. He also tried to hide the sacred armies to detect the situation around him, but even if it was a sacred armor, it could hardly be played in this fog.

After four hours passed, Shen Lang felt the change!

Other people are not aware of it, he is not clear, but he has already felt a slight change in the hand of the linkage.

If it is only a little, it is a personal movement, or the movement of several people, it is not strange, but there is a change in one direction, and the other side is not yet, it is not normal.

The voice is completely inseparable and the knowledge of God is limited. Shen Lang is better than the last time, but there is not much difference.

So other people have not paid attention to it. He can't know it, and he can't tell it. It's not easy to get the difference from the touch.

What kind of form the other party will come from, one can guess that it should be related to the magic weapon. But can you see the situation inside, or can you only feel it by special means? It is not known for the time being.

What Shen Lang can do is to be vigilant and keep alert.

With a little change in movement, Shen Lang can clearly feel that it is getting closer!

In contrast to the change in time, it can be determined that the speed of the other party is not fast.

Waiting until the distance is closer, Shen Lang can find that the people on one side are leaving one by one, probably disappearing from the surrounding fog.

It has been agreed before, everyone is together, only two roles, one is to jointly bear the impact of space, the other is to keep not floating.

When it is time to be "fished", it will be counted, as if the state of coma was taken away, not to be held next to it.

Therefore, the "disappearance" of these ones is naturally caught one by one.

Finally, Shen Lang was also "fished" away, he is also a natural loose hand, the people behind will follow one by one.

Immediately, he felt a special space, although the gods were still greatly suppressed, but they have recovered a few. In his current realm, a few of them are also unacceptable, and I immediately understood the situation around me.

This space is in a boat-shaped building, the space is not small, and the dense fog outside is shielded. Although I didn't see the outside, it should be the magic boat that I had seen before in Yuxianmen.

This is completely different from the original boat that was obtained from the Chu family. Although it is similar in form, it may be the difference between a small wooden boat and a cruiser. The mysterious and powerful fog that can force the chaotic space can be seen.

In the ship, hundreds of monks have been scattered, all on the other side of the Shenlang, one by one first "fishing".

When Shen Lang was investigating the situation inside the ship, someone was thrown in, it was on the other side of Dorothy.

This situation is really like fishing from the endless sea.

Since the advanced ones are not missing, the latter will certainly not fall, and Shen Lang need not worry too much. And everyone is still keeping the plan, as if it is completely comatose.

He continued to spread the knowledge of the gods, and found that the ship's magic weapon could not be sensed outside, because the outside is the mysterious fog.

Fortunately, its construction is relatively simple, except for the large cabin inside, it is a bow and a stern outside.

Both ends are outside the cabin, but there is also a layer of isolation protection that does not allow the fog to pass. At the moment, there are two people at the stern, and the bow is a few more people. They are pulling things in from the fog with a lasso-like thing.

The speed of the spacecraft is very slow. The people in front of the bow are so focused, they should also cooperate with each other, some are positioning, some are "fishing", and others are used to throw the people who are fishing back into the cabin.

These basics can be confirmed as Yuxianmen. They are all levels of the gods, but there are fewer than ten in number. This is really a matter of hands. It is not the opponent of their 300 people.

However, Shen Lang did not open the order, but it is still in the process of counting. There are restrictions on them all, but I don't know if they have it. If they don't, they are the same level and they are abused by the other side.

On the other hand, you need to get people back, and how to get out, how can you go.

When Shen Lang came in, he was carefully positioned by the Holy Grail. Now the movement speed is slow, but when you leave it, it should not be so slow, you must collect detailed trajectories.

Chapter 1052 - Narrow road

After waiting for everyone to be caught on the boat, everyone else came in the cabin except for one person left and right.

Although they only have a few people and they are guarding three hundred, they have no nervousness.

They laughed and laughed and occasionally kicked the people who were at the foot. The look was like a fisherman who went fishing. In their eyes, these lower human beings are just a group of harvested prey.

Just as Jingrufeng calls them animal scorpions.

In the fog of chaotic space, everyone waited for four hours, unable to listen, can not say, can not see the state, making time seems very long.

Even if they are in a high state of mind, they are resolved through cultivation. But after arriving in this cabin, it became even more unbearable.

It's not convenient to practice now, and you have to put the coma in it. Don't show it in advance. It's a bit difficult to watch others pretend to be prey.

However, this has already been said in advance, no matter how you feel, you must hold back, at least you must leave this chaotic space.

The thoughts of Shen Lang are on the spacecraft. The holy armor cannot be located here, and it is impossible to investigate nearby. There is no map reference. But it can be used as a reference point from entering, and after all the movements, one track is continuously made.

Now he can't understand the situation outside, but according to the monitoring of the holy armor, it can be determined that the speed of the spacecraft is accelerating.

It was probably to locate the fishing in detail before, so the spacecraft was almost static and slowly moving forward. Now that there are no other people, it starts to speed up the return journey.

At this speed, the overall situation is still very slow. However, comparing the previous records, it is still much faster than they are on the ground.

After the hurry, several people in the cabin were also practicing, and they did not always stare at them.

People look at a pile of fish, that is, people are on the scene, avoiding the fish jumping out and watching, instead of "looking" when the eyes are always staring.

They never thought that these people are awake!

This may be related to habits and to experience and realm. For example, if you come in the sky, you may be much more cautious.

Not being stared, everyone who is dead can be a little more comfortable, but it also feels a long way to go.

After about an hour and a half of sailing, Shen Lang felt the vibration, which should be caused by the space impact!

Soon, he felt that the suppression of the gods was quickly faded, and he immediately sensed the outside of the spacecraft. Sure enough, it is already on the mainland of Nakajima!

Shen Lang almost simultaneously ordered the holy armor to record the situation outside.

The holy armor is the highest new black technology in the city of the river basin. It is different from the magical property of the spacecraft. There is no mysterious fog in the chaotic space. It does not affect its investigation immediately, nor does it alarm people.

The cracks in the space that Fuyang real people have found are relatively small, and they are traces left by their ancestors. There is actually a distance from Yuxianmen. The Shenlang and the canoe were also flying for ten days and a half.

Yuxianmen may not know there, or it may be because of this more convenient space crack.

This is one more road, and Shenlang certainly needs complete mastery. Therefore, the scope of the reconnaissance of the holy armor is maximized, and all the reference objects are recorded in all directions.

He is also a sensory memory of the gods, ensuring that he can find this place next time.

Soon, other people also felt the change, they were all refreshed, and they quickly checked the situation outside and immediately got excited.

Sure enough, it is safe!

It's even harder to kill them now, and they want to turn these people over.

Kill the person and take the spaceship. Do you want to go where you want to go?

"The last time we came over like this, but they have a lot of people, we are completely staring at one by one, we can't understand the situation outside, and finally send it one by one."

Shen Lang heard the weak voice of Archbishop Paul.

The last time the Shen Lang was absent, Paul was the strongest of them. Even if he was seen, he still understood one or two, just like blindfolded, not clear.

It gave him a familiar feeling now.

Paul is at least equivalent to the strength of the late stage of the gods. It is higher than these people. There is no suppression. Even if you explore the outside situation, it will be affected by the spacecraft, but it will only be transmitted in the cabin, but it will not be discovered.

When Shen Lang was about to return to him, he felt the speed of the spacecraft slamming down!

He retracted the gods, but the holy armor was scouting all the way to record the situation outside, and Shen Lang thought about it and immediately checked it clearly.

The spacecraft not only slammed down, but also landed immediately.

In the landing seat, someone is waiting on the ground, there are dozens of people.

It seems that even if Immortal is not sure who is coming, it can monitor the approximate number. Only less than ten have just entered the chaotic space, but not far from the crack in this space, there are a group of people. Waiting for the response.

The disciples of Yuxianmen in the cabin went out one by one. When they went out to meet and chill, everyone in the cabin opened their eyes.

They didn't talk, but their eyes were looking for Shen Lang here.

Shen Lang did not speak. He pointed to the direction of Paul and the Pope. The meaning was very clear. He completed the lead, and other command arrangements, or let the two churches of the Holy See take responsibility. He did not mix as much.

As for the Easterners, it is to listen to Qiao Yuxian, or what other arrangements, but also their own.

Then he nodded to several people, such as the canoe, and told them to rest assured that others would not care, and the focus was on the boat.

The road is narrow!

After the landing of the magic weapon, the dozens of people waiting to be picked up began to board the ship one after another. Under the welcoming of the people on board, the one who walked in the front was the Jingru style that had had a grudge with Shen Lang!

At the beginning, Jingrufeng was to bring people to maintain order in the city. When they wanted to capture the Shenlang, they were turned over by the giants. They directly caught the impact and went into the pastoral garden to take his mental power out. Even the memory is read.

With the help of his Master Huoshan elders, the final Jingru style was restored to spiritual strength, but when he wanted to climb up in the field, not only did he not succeed, but he was also stunned by the words and attacks of Shen Lang.

That was their last side, and then they accompanied Huo Shan to see Xu Haoyue and Count Dracula.

Those who enter the chaotic space outside, of course, do not remember the specific looks of Paul and others. After all, there are dozens of dozens, and now it is more than 300 people.

But from the clothing and the race, I still know that this is from the same world, so I immediately reported this situation to him after the Jingfeng style came.

Jingrufeng immediately took people into the cabin.

Chapter 1053 - Still dare to die?

Compared with those few people, Jing Rufeng is much more impressed with the people of the earth.

Among the earth monks, the one who impressed him the most was Shen Lang.

That is the most direct enemy!

When he was in Yuxianmen, he thought that after extracting the information from the smashing snails from Shenlang, he could kill the revenge.

Unexpectedly, he was stunned in the end, and before Master had not shot, there were actually masters who came and saved them.

The departure of Shen Lang and the canoe made him feel very regrettable. The whole of the whole country was huge. After leaving, he fell into the sea and had no chance to take revenge.

Later, although Shen Lang made a storm in Tangcheng, it was almost a part of the monks in the Han Dynasty. But because Yuxianmen was far apart, no one went to Tangcheng, so I didn't know about it.

In the past half year, there must have been other monks, but photos and the like, just let them know that there is such a thing, there is such a man, but listening to gossip will not contact Shen Lang. Come together.

This time, it was monitored that a group of scorpions could be caught, and the number would be relatively large. Jingrufeng immediately led the team. In addition to a group of people going inside, they are waiting here to meet.

I didn't expect to hear the news that made him excited.

Among his impressions, Shen Lang and the canoe are sure to stay in the mainland of the island and will not go back. It should have been hidden in a corner of the Han Dynasty.

So when he came in, he just wanted to see if there was any earth person who came last time. If there is, he can also hate the house and Wu's anger.

After coming in, I saw that there were more than three hundred, which made him very satisfied. Such a large number of “scorpions” could be kept in the pastoral garden for a long time.

More satisfied is that the light from the clothing and the human appearance, let him think of the hated people.

In the 300-person team, most of these amnesties are of course male. After all, to cultivate to this extent, you must have a huge amount of resources to control, then you must have a level of identity, naturally Part is male.

Of course, there are also some countries and regions. Some forces are women’s leaders, but the overall proportion may not be one tenth.

Besides, the seven-year-old, even a hundred-year-old woman, no matter how good the maintenance, is not likely to be young.

Therefore, under the gaze of Jingrufeng, it naturally focused on the five people of Zheng Yumeng.

They are all young women, they are all together, absolutely attracting attention, but also the highlights of the crowd.

“Yes, this time is still a bit good. A few hundred dice are enough, can be used for a long time. These mothers, you can get to play first.” Jingrufeng evil evil smile.

Followed by him, some of the more close, it is the attachment and laughed.

“Of course, let Jing brothers first taste the fresh, wait until the play is tired and give everyone often taste!”

“There is nothing low-key. These few times don’t have to go to the pasture, first send the brothers.”

“To make the best use of it, wait for everyone to play enough, then throw them to the pasture and drain the final value.”

“Hey, when you have enough, they have already been drained!”

“I think you can’t wait?”

Whether it is adult fish or scorpion, they are contemptuous of low-class civilized human beings, and feel that there is no difference between them and animals. But after all, it is still human, so if you look good, you can still let them have a mind.

This is not because they were originally lascivious, but they may also be purely cultivated, but this identity is not equal, so that they can trample on it at will, and don’t mind trying it.

The same is true on the earth. Many of them are self-proclaimed and civilized in their own country. When the aggression is weak, they will inevitably have a beastly side.

Like those who had previously caught them, they took it for granted that everyone was in a coma, waiting to bring them back to the mental ban, and then like the cows that licked their noses, they drove them.

The habits of the past have left them with no doubt that there will be any abnormalities. After all, the earth monks were completely arrested last time. Later, Shen Lang exchanged them.

But all the monks on the earth are already furious!

They don’t actually have the experience of being called “scorpion” directly by Jing Rufeng, but the experience in the pastoral garden is no different from that of animals. If you hear it now, let them think more seriously about the humiliation of life!

When Shen Lang and Zheng Yumeng and other five women have not yet expressed their position, one, two, three, four can not help, and jumped directly!

“Let’s go! You guys!”

The four of them were helpless on earth, and they followed Shen Lang and recognized themselves as masters. Shen Lang also gave them the corresponding respect. In Tianshan Jianzong, there is the identity of the elders of the Qing Dynasty, the status is obeyed, and there are many resources.

Together with the previous two lives, they are very grateful to Shen Lang.

Now come back here, see Jing Rufeng and others, their hatred has already got up. They are much worse than the ones that the Earth monks closed for a month!

They have been tortured for a long time, and their compatriots in the world have all died, leaving them four.

Now, although everyone hasn't opened their eyes, they are all very clear about which ones are humiliating.

That is the woman of Shen Lang! If Shen Lang is worried, what do they want to do as a thug?

Therefore, they can't take care of the agreement that will be counted before.

Jump out and blame.

They are still a little different from the Earth people. They have been in detention for a long time. Jingrufeng and others are also a bit impressed, and they immediately recognized them.

Last time, several of them left with the monks of the earth, and now they are here again. That undoubtedly shows that this batch of people is coming, and the last batch!

Jingrufeng did not pay attention to them directly. Instead of looking at them, they began to search carefully and look for a shadow that could not be erased in his heart.

Then he was speechless immediately, the * who kept him hating, not on the side of these beautiful women?

Just a cursory look, from the three hundred people, he first saw their five beautiful women, also ignored other people, including Shen Lang.

Now I am looking for it, and naturally I recognize the deep wave.

“Sure enough, you guys! You are coming again, dare to come! This time, are you ready to die?”

Jingrufeng smiled and looked at Shen Lang. The last humiliation was actually two times. One was open, the other was in the face of Master, and Yu Changkong knew it.

After that, no matter who he met, he would associate him with humiliation. Even if others did not laugh at him, he would be like him.

But in the end, he is a disciple of Huoshan's elders. He is able to cultivate to the middle of the realm of the gods at a young age. He is a talented person and his heart is also tempered. Therefore, there is no stagnation, but instead it is tempered, and it is hard to forget the food!

Deliberately frivolously attacked, no longer nourished by hatred, let him progress quickly, and Huoshan's guidance and resource support, more than half a year has broken through to the equivalent of the late stage of the gods.

Chapter 1054 - Pinch you like an ant

Jingrufeng later consulted with the sky and asked about the true strength of Shen Lang.

It is equivalent to the long sky in the late stage of the gods. At that time, it was very confident and confident for Shen Lang. If it is not related to the information of the burgeoning thief, he also wants to shoot against Shen Lang several times.

The most obvious thing is that when Shen Lang wants to leave, Huoshan's elders ask to see Shen Lang. He thought that Huoshan's elders were preparing for revenge. Even if it was inconvenient to personally take shots, he would be instructed to take his shot.

Later, Jing Rufeng was unconscious. He was also sent away by Huoshan. The latter things are not clear.

Therefore, he resolutely did not believe that Wei Qingcheng and Huoshan were respectful to Shen Lang, and felt that Shen Lang could escape the catastrophe because the two master friends came too timely.

On the same day, Shen Lang and the two followed, and in his view, it was also a manifestation of guilty conscience, knowing that the head and the elders also killed him, so he quickly fled.

His words, heard in the ears of Jing Rufeng, let him know in his heart.

He feels that Shen Lang and he should be in a realm. Losing money is a disadvantage in the light of the enemy, plus the transformation of huge and strange magical powers.

Now he has upgraded a realm, and with the care of the enemy, it is easy to revenge!

The time for his promotion is not long, so he just wants to find the enemy, but the country is so big. If you leave the people for more than half a year, where can you find it again?

Now seeing the waves, let him think this is God's will!

For the past six months, he has not been patrolling the city to patrol and other chores, and he has been practicing day and night. Today is the first mission after the promotion, both because of the importance of this number and the time when he feels he can relax.

I did not expect it!

Actually encountered the enemy directly!

Then I actually fled back to my own world, and actually wanted to sneak back!

This is God's will to let him catch and let him revenge.

"Jing Confucianism, I don't want to kill you. I have spared your dog's life last time. You don't want to find death again and again. My kindness is limited."

Jingrufeng didn't look at them one or two. They waved their hands and flew them out directly, and fell directly to the crowd on the ground!

Following him, two or more dozen disciples of Yuxianmen came in and laughed happily.

“Don't be self-sufficient! I dare to challenge Jing brother!”

“The animals are not long-term, they must be locked up!”

They all know that Jingrufeng has raised a realm, and they have opened up the gap with them, and they have a level of space. For those “live animals” who used to abuse them, they really didn't care too much.

It is also because of this contempt that they have seen a lot of people not coma, and did not check if others are awake.

Just as people are not afraid of the rebellion of the flock, it is not a light enemy, it is an inherent cognition.

In particular, just after the Jingru style, they all took them all, and they made them feel taken for granted. They didn't need to check.

Jing Rufeng's understatement did not seriously injure one, two, three, four, but it really shocked them.

I thought that the four people were together, and I was sure. I didn't expect it to be a casual one. It's not as simple as being higher than them.

Others, no longer continue to install, and will be directly banned after a while.

After all, they were done in a coma last time, and they didn't know how this mental ban controlled them.

Suddenly, three hundred people almost stood up at the same time.

This is beyond the estimation of Jing Rufeng and others, and this momentum is enough, so that dozens of them are taken aback.

People will not be afraid of the rebellion of the flock, but if hundreds of sheep resting, all stand up at the same time, still staring at you that will make people panic.

When they just screamed, their five sisters also stood up. Now in the cabin, the two people did not stand up, one is the Pope in one corner, the other is Shen Lang.

“How many people are there? The scorpion is also a scorpion. You are just animals, not worthy of being a man. Hundreds of scorpions are also dead in the pastoral garden!”

Jingrufeng disdainful sneer.

The people who were locked up in the pastoral garden, how strong the strength is, he is clear in advance, in order to facilitate control. It's not that Yuxianmen is afraid of them. Even if it's a positive shot, it's easy to suppress.

Now Jingrufeng has broken through a new realm, and it is the first time that there is an opportunity to shoot, which is the most inflated period. Especially when I just shot, I took four easy shots to make him full of confidence. Not to mention that he still has dozens of divisional brothers, many of whom are equivalent to the middle of the realm.

“I could have given the owner of Weiqingcheng and your master Huoshan the elders a face. Even if other friends are looking for revenge, I can not intervene...”

When Shen Lang said it, he stood up slowly.

“But your * is full of mouth squirting, opening his mouth and shutting up his mouth, and insulting women, it is really in the bones.”

Just as Jingrufeng wanted to continue to ridicule, he saw that Shen Lang's casual hand raised his hand, and Jing Rufeng directly ran into the past, as if he had sent his head directly to his hand.

“I was able to pinch you like an ant last time, and now you can pinch you like an ant!”

After shaking his head and saying a word, Shen Lang was too high a voice: “You are the time for your show, and there is a revenge for revenge. I took control of this lead, and others left it for you!”

Chapter 1055 - God's crushing

The people who came last time are basically the top figures of various factions, such as Qiao Yuxian, Nanliuchuan, and Liu Yuchang, all of whom are the strongest owners of their three-year-old family.

Of course, the Pope is different. He has great influence in the secular and political aspects of the West and the whole world. He can't just abdicate. This seat, in itself, has enormous resources, is not attractive enough, and will not be retired.

The last time there was some, it didn't go back. This time, there are also many sects who are not qualified to come.

As a result, the total number of people has increased by two or three times, but the actual average to each martial art family may be three or four times.

The number of forces is small, and the overall number is larger. Not to mention that the water is too big. At least the new ones are the second, third and fourth.

Therefore, even if there is such a superb powerhouse as the Pope, there must be a level with Paul, but most of it is naturally in the early days of the realm. Secondly, in the middle of the realm of the gods, or there are a few peaks in the realm of the realm, there should be only a handful of the later in the realm of the gods.

They were just in the early days of Shen Bo, and they were also in the early days of the reign of the gods. The four of them were together and they were easily taken out by the Jingru style. The disparity made the earth monks all shocked.

Everyone hurriedly stood up, both for cheering and for defense. From this comparison, it is the archbishop of Paul in the late stage of the transformation of the gods, but also the fear of being afraid.

Later, as they suspected, Jingrufeng did not look at them at all. Under the disparity of numbers, they still despised them, which represented strong self-confidence.

But this is a powerful and different world Yuxianmen master, actually caught by Shen Lang, and there is no chance to resist, immediately can not move!

The comparison before and after this shocked everyone.

It is a bit exaggerated to say that cocking ants. The last time Shen Lang turned into a giant, when he was holding Jing Feng, it was like pinching ants.

But now it looks like grabbing a big doll or catching a scarecrow.

Whether in the West or in the East, the respect and dependence on Shen Lang is mainly because this kid is mysterious and knows a lot of things that they don't understand. It's not because of his dazzling strength. After all, when Shen Lang and their peers were together, they didn't have much.

But just a couple of minutes ago, Jing Rufeng's spike on the 1 2 3 4 people made everyone think that he might be ten times more than the first two three four in the early days of the gods; then he said that the spike to Jing Fengfeng is ten times as The Jing Jing style in the late stage of the gods.

The disparity in contrast, they all horrified.

When did Shen Lang become so powerful?

How did Shen Lang become so powerful?

Everyone's mind flashed quickly. When Shen Lang came back for the past six months, he had a three-month retreat. After that, he easily hunted the trolls around the world, and that has already reflected his changes.

In addition, there are no other special events, and then there is a Lingshi sent some time ago.

Therefore, everyone immediately came to a conclusion that the previous waves that were similar to them could fly fast in more than half a year, and there is only one possibility – an adventure in this world!

During this time, many people were full of respect for Shen Lang, and they also regarded him as an example and were greatly encouraged.

Suddenly there were a lot of powerful beliefs from the realm of the gods, so that Shen Lang was also surprised, and soon realized that they had just shot them.

After all, everyone is admiring the strong. Before the high level, it is difficult to have a belief in him. It is because he feels close to him. Just the contrast makes everyone think that he is far better than them.

Originally, Shen Lang didn't want to interfere – or didn't want to waste his energy. Let everyone clean up the dozens of disciples of the Immortal, anyway, the base of several times, don't worry about losing.

But now that he has discovered this, he does not want to miss the opportunity to absorb the power of these strong believers!

“Forget it, they are some clowns, or I will handle them together!”

When Shen Lang spoke, the other hand hit a finger, and time, the dozens of disciples of Yuxianmen, stunned in the end!

These dozens of disciples of Yuxianmen were originally following the Jingru style. Their confidence was also derived from Jingrufeng.

When Jing Feng was caught by the waves, and they had no resistance, they were panicked!

Then they asked dozens of enemies to face them. At this point, they could no longer look at the eyes of the scorpion animals. They were all waiting and thinking about how to escape.

And when they focused their attention on the three hundred earth monks, they did not expect that Shen Lang directly exerted a powerful mental attack on them!

The spiritual attack of Shen Lang and the Half Immortal is the same as the initial and mid-level of these geniuses, just like the initial stage of the attack of the gods. There is no resistance at all.

In line with the sound of Shen Lang's performance, all of them fell.

Nearly 300 people at the scene looked at this scene Although they all understand that the ring finger is just a performance or a force, but like the magician, the hypnotist, the effect is still deep The earthquake has arrived.

Shen Lang, this is still holding the powerful Yuxianmen disciple!

This is not one, it is dozens of imperial disciples!

For a moment, the original reverence for Shen Lang was also involuntarily generated a force of faith.

The power of light is like a god.

"You, you can't..." Jing Feng, who was caught by Shen Lang, felt the changes around him. He found that he could talk and couldn't help but growl.

"What is impossible?" Shen Lang joked and asked.

Jingrufeng was still caught in his head and pressed into a posture of bending over in front of Shen Lang.

This made him feel very ashamed, but even if there was a raging flame inside, it would not help, and the body could not move at all. I think that he seems to be very docile and afraid to resist, so that he can not wait to disappear directly.

"You are not that person, that person can't be that powerful!"

“You are my defeat, twice! Can you still recognize me?” Shen Lang satirized.

Jingrufeng is the leader of Shen Lang, and both are defeated by his men, but he feels that the gap cannot be so big!

The key is that he has upgraded a big realm. Even if it was a little bit worse, it should be over now, at least it can be leveled out. How could it be impossible to resist at all?

Now it feels like it is in front of his master.

How can this swell wave rise from the level of long sky to the level of Huoshan elders in less than a year?

He didn't believe it when he killed him!

Chapter 1056 - Spiritual force

No matter how hard you don't believe it, the facts are in front of you. For the biggest setbacks in life, the enemies who bite their teeth and teeth are consciously turned into gray. From the surface, it is not wrong. From the point of view of each other, it is not the same as the appearance, it is completely a person.

But to admit this, it is too difficult!

Because he has been madly practicing sleepless nights, although it is only half a year, but the absolute time spent on cultivation is comparable to the previous two or three years, and his master also gave him enough support.

So his promotion, he is proud and confident.

However, as a higher civilization genius, in the same time, by a nephew of a lower world that he completely does not see, is far away, this fact, how to accept.

But he did not accept it without any influence, and the person was already unable to move by Shen Lang.

The current situation is very obvious. If Shen Lang wants to kill him, that is, a finger thing, according to let him move, it is nothing but a good compromise.

At the thought of this, Jingrufeng is even more desperate.

“Shameless! Every time you rely on a sneak attack! Have the ability to let me go, and I am bold enough to fight with me, so that I can lose my heart!”

The other teachers and brothers have fallen, and the situation is now severe!

In the end, Jing Rufeng was entrusted with the task of the Imperial Committee and was the leader among the young disciples. Even if the individual is very desperate, reason still does not forget the teacher.

If you let the three hundred people of Shen Lang, return to the division by the spacecraft magic weapon, it will catch the city in a surprise. Even if his master and the head can turn the tide, it will inevitably be a heavy loss!

Therefore, what he is seeking now is no longer a dispute of personal enthusiasm. Instead, he has let him go, and then he immediately leaves, and quickly reports to him.

“Who cares that you are not convinced?” Shen Lang said a slap in the face. “How do you serve, how can you not accept it, shut me down!”

As I said, while the continuous slap in the palm of my hand, the sound of screaming makes the face of Jingrufeng hot – this is not a hot shame, but a real hot sting!

“Hey? What are you still doing? Do you want to take revenge? These disciples of Yuxianmen can now kill you!”

Shen Lang did not forget to remind the earth monks who were still squatting.

Everyone is a little embarrassed. Just a few dozen people, all of them are knocking down, and let them go up to work, of course, a little embarrassed.

“You’re welcome, they are your spoils, I don’t need it. Although it’s not very good, but there is still in front, don’t you just want to kill Yuxianmen? In addition to revenge, there are resources to * them. I don’t interfere. These are good gifts when I send you.”

It doesn’t matter if Shen Lang really, these disciples are errands, and at most a few are representative, but the highest is Jing Jingfeng.

What is the value of it, it is here in Jingfeng.

But other things don’t, there is one thing that still needs to be!

That is the magic weapon of this handship!

The level of this magic weapon is very high, speed, large or something, or secondary, the key is to block the mysterious fog in the chaotic space!

If the chaotic space is likened to the sea, the ship’s magic weapon is not an ordinary ship, but a submarine that can sneak into it. Its role and value are different.

Especially since it has been verified, it takes almost an hour and a half to fly. It is too easy to cause deviations. Especially with a lot of people, it is easier to scatter. It is much better to have this.

So when I was just talking, Shen Lang had directly invaded the disciples of the outer bow, read his memory from the brain of the person who was in charge of the spacecraft, and learned about the information used by the spacecraft.

Other than that, the other things they carry, that value is nothing.

When I heard that Shen Lang said this, other people would not have any kind of politeness, and they would directly embrace the dozens of people.

After all, there are some people on the scene who are extremely humiliating. And like Joe Zhantian, the south of the water, their brothers are humiliated, it is equal to their own humiliation.

Shen Lang ignored other people and concentrated on confucianism.

“People are not sages, can you have nothing? Knowing the mistakes can improve Mo Dawei. I have given you two chances. You have not only learned less, but have intensified. I feel that you have not saved.”

I heard that Shen Lang just made people divide up dozens of teachers and brothers. Jingrufeng is violent and directly swears: “If you want to kill you, don’t just pretend! Don’t pretend to preach, what are you counting? Uncultivated inferior animals, too With a finger in front of me?”

“It makes sense to say it well. If I am uncivilized, it should be simple and rude.”

Shen Lang nodded and then directly drained the spirit of Jing Rufeng! And read his memory again.

Compared to the last time, Shen Lang is now powerful and does not know how many times, so even in his awake state, it is easy to complete these two steps.

But for Jingrufeng, it is a completely different experience.

Last time he was in a coma After waking up, the wood has become a boat, just like the surgery under complete paralysis.

Now it is completely awake. Although the Shen Lang is very powerful, the whole process is very fast, but the experience is on him, it is a second as long as a century!

He is promoted to a new level, and his spiritual strength is on a higher level. This is proud of it. Now it is the “looking” of the eye-catching plunder, the speed of passing, as if the floodgates are flooding!

That kind of experience is like a bungee jump, or a lost elevator that has lost control. Even if there will be a result soon, the short time is like going to death, and the heart is about to jump out.

Jingrufeng wants to shout, wants to ask for mercy, can't open, can only watch the mental power completely disappear, and then the whole person becomes very weak.

"You are so jealous...hey...you, you must not die..."

Under the weak, he is even hard to swear.

Shen Lang sneered aloud: "How? Now I feel pain, know that this is very embarrassing? When you shut down other people as animals, apply spiritual restraint, and force others to contribute spiritual bubbles, how do you feel proud, why don't you feel embarrassed??"

Their approach is a bit different, and the spiritual bubble is similar to the belief in the Holy See. But one is spontaneous, made up of countless traces, and the other is the spirit of the master.

The reason why it is only a slight weak "spirit bubble" is not that they are kind, but that they want to continue to make a little bit of water, and then continue to make it, and the body is a little bit sloppy.

Now Shen Lang's work on Jing Rufeng is to take him down. If he does not rely on his external strength and resources, he will rely on his own personal recovery. This time will be quite long.

Chapter 1057 - Killing Yuxianmen

"You killed me! You demon!"

For what he said, Jingrufeng could not refute, and his thinking would not be empathy. Just as humans slaughter cattle and sheep, it is a matter of righteousness. It is dead by the cattle and sheep. Of course, it is impossible to review.

Now he looks at the waves, still the mentality of a high-class civilization.

"It's not easy to kill you? But think about how you are against us?" Shen Lang shook hands and Jing Rufeng fell to the ground.

The mental power was taken out, and he was left empty, and the whole person was very weak. Of course, his cultivation is now banned by Shen Lang, leaving him without threats.

“You are holding us in the pastoral garden, and I am ill-treated. Now I want to die, is it too cheap?”

After Shen Lang finished, he nodded to the second one after returning: “I gave him to you. You have many compatriots who died in their hands. You want to do it, you decide it yourself!”

One, two, three, a few of them, is very shy, originally wanted to be a good hitter, for the sake of Shen Lang, did not expect to be waved by others.

Just a few dozen, I was divided by other people, they want to intervene is too late.

Really have to count, their hatred is certainly greater. Others have only been detained for less than a month, and no one has been tortured to death. They have left the rest of the world.

“Thank you for your master, we must make it for you!”

Although they only gave them one, but this one is obviously different, they can give them a good anger.

Shen Lang immediately took the five women out of the cabin and went straight to the outside.

There is another boat outside, which is the one that originally controlled the magic weapon.

When Shen Lang just stunned him, he also read his memory and learned all the characteristics of this magic weapon.

Now I woke up directly to the individual, but controlled his thinking and turned him into a puppet. He just manipulated the spaceship and went back to Yuxianmen. There was no other thought.

Shen Lang himself and a few of them, at the bow of the boat to enjoy the scenery of the mainland of the island.

The canoe was followed once, and several of them came over for the first time.

However, in the process of flying the magic weapon, looking at the huge world without people, because the distance of flight is limited, it is not too shocking compared to the flight of 10,000 meters above the earth.

It's just that they can now feel the fullness of this world's aura more clearly!

Except for the wind, they all went to the small world of the Dead Forest, which is much more filled than the aura of the earth, and here, I don't know how many times it is stronger.

This is just an ordinary wilderness. There are no houses to be stationed. It is naturally more powerful to have a famous mountain and river inhabited by the realist.

"It is no wonder that the people here can reach the level of the gods at a young age. I am afraid that it is a year of cultivation, which is comparable to the harvest of the earth for ten years." Feng Wuji expressed his heartfelt feelings.

She was just breaking through the realm of the gods, and it was very exciting. After all, it was the last wish in a lifetime, and it was realized in less than two years with Shen Lang.

But this time, when I saw two or three hundred, almost all of them were above the realm of the gods, she realized that for the whole world, there are still many masters hidden.

However, those who have changed their minds are at least seventy or eighty years old, and many of them are old ancestors who have not shown up for a long time. It is not surprising that there is such an achievement. Shen Lang and some of their girls are still the youngest of them.

But now that I see these disciples of Yuxianmen, I feel more and more stunned. Most of these are also very young, this is the strongest Jingru style, and the age will not be big.

The effect of the aura resources here can be seen.

“Aura may be several times or even more than ten times, but cultivation can’t be done simply. Light is the aura in the air. After absorption, there will be an upper limit. The front will be much faster, but after a certain degree, the effect will be small. And have to rely on other better resources.”

This is the case, but from the contrast of the aura, you can see the difference in resources between the two worlds. It is no wonder that these big brothers are not willing to come again.

Shen Lang brought them out a few times. I was afraid that the hundreds of people would go crazy. After all, the cabin was big and the space was limited. Looking at dozens of murders at close range may be a bit cruel to them.

However, I found out later that I still have a little thought.

After all, these are all big names with experience and experience. Compared with revenge, they pay more attention to the interests. Therefore, these people were completely banned, and then tortured to extract confessions, and forced to ask the various circumstances of Yuxianmen.

Their appetite is not satisfied by these dozens of prisoners, and even the entire Yuxianmen is only the first step. After standing on the ground, naturally you will want to lay a big territory in this world!

Again, in essence everyone is the same. Yuxianmen and even the entire mainland of the island, and the earth monks, is only the difference between strength and weakness, and there is no absolute difference between good and bad.

When the weaker Earth people have mastered the initiative, they will not let go of Yuxianmen The hearts of the people will never be satisfied, the history of the expansion of the territory, the conquest of the intercontinental empire, Great navigation to develop the new continent, all this.

Hundreds of years ago, the generation of the cold autumn, their generation came, the same mentality, the same situation. At first, I was in danger and I was competing for the living space with the aborigines. During the period, both sides were bound to die and wounded. In the end, a small part of the rest was settled down and slowly developed again.

The history of the American conquest on Earth is one of the most common epitome.

In less than half an hour, Yuxianmen is already looking forward to it.

Before the Shenlang and the canoe came all the way, and then they left with Xu Yuyue, so when they got to the neighborhood, they became familiar with it.

Other people, just under the speed of the spacecraft, immediately excited.

In addition to the sluggish driving of the spacecraft Yuxianmen disciples, the other dozens were controlled in the cabin, unconscious. The hundreds of monks on the earth are excited and ready to attack.

Shen Lang is very indifferent. As he said, he will not participate and interfere with them.

The last time he used the information of the burgeoning genocide, he handed over the exercises and exchanged them for their departure. It also exchanged their respect.

And since that, Wei Qingcheng and Huoshan have recognized his value and want to win over his respect. Others, such as Changkong Sky and Jingrufeng, are always ready to unload and kill him.

If it weren't for the timely appearance of Xu Haoyue and Count Dracula, I don't know if I can leave so easily. If he is not good, he will be under house arrest in the name of "passionate retention." With his strength at that time, he could not resist.

Therefore, he has no sentiment to Yuxianmen, but there is no loss of hatred. Others have direct grievances, so let them solve them.

Chapter 1058 - Battle against each other

According to the usual route, the spacecraft is going to fly to the front of the pastoral garden, and then someone will come to take responsibility, and after all the people have been mentally banned, they will be thrown into the pastoral garden.

However, it is now that Shen Lang is in control, and according to the requirements of the East and West monks, it is a surprise to directly kill Yumeng, so instead of going to the pastoral garden, instead of going to the city, it goes straight to Yuxianmen!

The gate of Yuxianmen is located on the hill outside the city. That is the core. The majority of the city is still the people of ordinary people.

In this way, the destruction of the city, the destruction of houses, and the killing of the people did not have much foundation for Yuxianmen, but gave them time to change.

So now Shen Lang, who directly controls the man, sent the spaceship to Yuxianmen.

“what happened!”

At the time of speeding down and landing, some people have already flown into the air, yelling at the disciples who drove the spacecraft.

It was the long sky that had had a confrontation before.

If you have never had such a situation, you must have stopped the sky, and now you have found something wrong, and you will come up immediately.

With his cultivation, he will soon discover the abnormality of the disciple, and then he will issue an alarm.

Therefore, the sinking waves in the cabin, nodded to everyone, directly control the spacecraft mammoth!

Just to speed down the aim, because in the air, the speed is fast, the deviation is a little, the landing is a big difference, the smashed film will be paralyzed.

Now that I've reached the top of Yuxianmen, it doesn't matter, everything is fine.

When the spacecraft fell quickly, the sky that had already flown into the air was not good, and he quickly went to control the magic weapon and prevented it from hitting the house below. The damage will not be much, but the impact will not be good.

At this time, he found that he could not control the magic weapon of this spacecraft!

Before reading the waves, Shen Lang knew that this magic weapon did not belong to someone, but a public magic weapon of Yuxianmen. That is to say, people who know how to manipulate can be controlled.

This is also because it is used to go to the chaotic space relationship, for their mature operation, do not need big people to run errands.

But there is a problem. I also know how to operate. People with higher realms can take control.

For example, if the person who controls the magic weapon wants to escape after going out of the chaotic space, the Jingfeng style waiting for him can control it.

Now, the same is true. After discovering that something is wrong, Yu Changkong immediately grabbed control. He thought that even if the disciple made something crazy, he could re-take the spacecraft away.

If he can't do it, Wei Qingcheng and Huoshan can certainly do it.

However, such a small matter, the door owner, the elders will naturally not pay attention to it, let them pay attention to it, and it will not be easy to explain the sky.

But now, he is shocked to discover that with his strength, he is unable to take over the control of the spacecraft!

And this negligence, or accident, waited for him to re-do it, it was too late, the spacecraft fell directly, and a number of courtyards were directly hit.

When I was chasing the face of the sky, I didn't have time to worry about it. I found that a group of comprehensions quickly flew out of the spaceship!

The number of this group can be a little bit more and more, and it will continue to come out. It has already filled the spacecraft all around.

Nearly 300 people appeared out of thin air, still very spectacular!

“What are you...!”

He was shocked by the sky, and even if he discovered the abnormality of the spacecraft, he thought that this disciple was in trouble, or what was wrong. I did not think that there was a big situation inside. After all, he arranged for Jingrufeng to bring dozens of people to the past.

So he just thought about control and did not investigate the situation inside the spacecraft. It's too late to wait until now.

“kill—!”

I don't know who shouted first, and three hundred earth monks quickly flew.

Prior to Paul's presiding, they had specific tactical arrangements, and they felt that the other side was strong and had to make a surprise attack. To make Yuxianmen unprepared, it is impossible to make a momentary fallout. Immediately after it comes out, it will start killing the Quartet!

At this time, if you want to say a few words about it, the result is that you give the opportunity to the other party. On someone else's site, this is not a slap in the face, but a stupid act.

So at this moment, they immediately shot, except for some people who directly smashed the sky, and other people rushed to different houses.

Their goal is to take advantage of the imperial disciple who is practicing and killing directly!

Shen Lang also came out, but with the people who were in the boat, they stood on the bow and watched the fun. Shen Yi and other four people, because there is still hatred, just throwing a Jingfeng style, not enough to make them balance, so there is no constraint, let them act together.

“Who dares to invade my imperial door?”

A voice passed over, it was the voice of the guardian Qingcheng.

No matter what Weiqingcheng and Huoshan were doing before, even if they were practicing in retreats, suddenly there were hundreds of realms above the realm, which was enough to shock them.

And as his voice came over, it seemed that he had already had the energy to protect the roofs in the first step, and the earth monks who were preparing to invade the invasion were hit. Some paused, and some even bounced back into the air for more than a dozen meters.

“Go! The light is with you!”

Then another voice came, and the energy that blocked everyone was as if it was broken. So everyone continued to kill and directly knocked over the roof!

The disciples of the Imperial Immortals in the courtyard house, after a moment of protection from Wei Qingcheng, have already reacted and attacked from the inside.

Wei Qingcheng was originally an understatement. Even if hundreds of people came in, it would be a solution for him to dispel the problem.

Of course, he will not personally take shots, and Huoshan will not personally take the shot. Because it is not worthy of their personal shots, but also can take the opportunity to join forces, so that all generations of disciples, are contaminated with a little blood.

So he just stopped it, did not attack the earth monks, waiting for the disciples to shoot.

But the Pope's shot, let him feel the threat!

Actually, he can instantly break his wide range of defenses, showing the strength. This makes Wei Qingcheng generally unable to sit on the fishing boat. It is almost instantaneous and has already appeared on the scene.

The Pope did not know when it was coming out. Standing on an open space, as if he were old, he did not look at other people. He looked directly at Wei Qingcheng.

Wei Qingcheng was also aware of the hustle and bustle of the bow at the bow.

"Mr. Shen? I didn't expect you to bring someone to attack my imperial door." Wei Qingcheng was a little disappointed with the feeling.

Chapter 1059 - Semi-sex game

"Do not misunderstand the door, I am not such a person. You and Huoshan elders are not doing anything to me, how can I engage you?"

Shen Lang responded with a smile, intentionally or unintentionally emphasizing him and Huoshan, not the whole of Yuxianmen.

"But you and other friends, but there are great grievances. It is not something I can persuade to hold people and abuse to death. I just watched the fun, you see, how spectacular!"

Can it be spectacular? On the earth, the strong people above the sacred atmosphere of the collection of hundreds can almost be regarded as a major event in history, let alone see hundreds of warriors who are strong in the realm of the gods.

Especially now, the Pope and Wei Qingcheng are two people, and they are the confrontation between two and a half!

Those who fall into the canoe, fall in the rain, and so on, all know that Shen Lang takes their purpose. This is not simply to watch the fun, but to let them increase their knowledge, and to gain insights from all aspects of the battle.

Therefore, even if Shen Lang was talking to Wei Qingcheng, they did not pay much attention because the surrounding battle did not stop because of the appearance of Wei Qingcheng.

The earth monk has already known in advance from the mouth of Shen Lang that there are at least two masters and big elders in Yuxianmen, which are unbeatable super-class masters. So just like just a surprise attack, they dare not stop for a moment, and must kill as many people as possible while the Pope is dragging the opponent's door.

In the end, when you can't fight it, you can only go from the quantity.

The people of Yuxianmen, of course, can't stop. They are completely embarrassed. They don't even know why the enemy has killed the base camp. It looks very powerful and fierce.

Even the door owners have appeared, showing that the enemy's threat is strong, so they simply do not dare to neglect.

Hundreds of powerful people above the realm of the gods, directly hit the base camp of Yuxianmen, a courtyard house, some directly destroyed, and some try to lead the earth monks to the mountains, want to make good use of The advantage of geography is also to avoid damage to the division.

The three people of Shen Lang and Constantine V and Wei Qingcheng are the three calm points in the torrent of floods.

Pope Constantine V did not take the opportunity to attack Wei Qingcheng. He is very clear that Wei Qingcheng's strength is extraordinary, and the indirect confrontation that has just been separated has already made him know a little.

Therefore, now Weiqingcheng and Shenlang dialogue can just delay a little time. There are nearly three hundred monks in the earth, not to mention overwhelming, and there should be great odds.

No need to start, can drag one, is undoubtedly the most cost-effective, after all, there is a big elder who did not appear.

“It turned out that after they went back, they actually found more people and killed them to take revenge.” Wei Qingcheng listened to Shen Lang’s words and understood the reasons for his grievances.

This is really not what he pretended, after all, he is the door!

Those former grievances, for the “one two three four” they, for all the monks of the earth, are life-long shameful shame, life and death. But for Wei Qingcheng, it is totally a trivial matter.

Generally, such a small matter is only at the level of the sky, and Wei Qingcheng and Huoshan will not ask. Therefore, when they first put dozens of people to leave, it is also a decision that can be made on the spot.

Wei Qingcheng will know the last thing, on the one hand, because it broke through the pastoral park, and more importantly because of the smashing of the waves, because of the information of the burgeoning genocide.

But this matter itself did not let them put it in the heart, just like the attitude of Huoshan at the beginning: compared with the problem of solving the explosion of the genocide, what is the injury suffered by Jingrufeng?

“What about that? With these chickens and dogs, is it also equipped with Yuxianmen?”

Another sound sounded, and Huoshan’s elders appeared on the scene.

The four of them are undoubtedly the strongest on the spot. In the midst of the scuffles of hundreds of powerful gods, they walked in a leisurely way, as if they were chatting with ordinary friends.

The face of Constantine V changed slightly.

Because Shen Lang said before, he has already prepared psychologically in advance, and prepared two strong players with the same level.

However, there is always a bit of luck. After all, the Holy See is only such a super strong person, and Paul under him is far away.

If he didn't try the depth of Shen Lang, he even suspected that Shen Lang was alarmist, or that Shen Lang was too weak at the time, so he looked at others.

The contact has just been tried, and the door guard Qingcheng really is not covered. If he can be lucky, he hopes that the great elder is worse than Wei Qingcheng.

As long as the ratio is worse than a level, even if it is higher than Paul and everyone else, he will have a lot more confidence.

But now that Huoshan's appearance, everyone's heart is like a mirror, and it's the same level.

As a result, the Pope is passive.

He alone can't hold them both, even if it is delaying time, under the same level, it is impossible to drag an enemy two times.

There are four people at the scene. He knows that the current Shen Lang is no longer under him. If he can pull in the sinking waves, it can be leveled. As long as they can hold back the other side, even if the earth side can't destroy the Imperial Gate, there will be a basis for negotiation.

The problem now is Shen Lang has repeatedly stressed that he does not interfere, and he does not talk about conditions with them. He did not believe that there was such a seriousness before, and he did not make any heavy profits. Now that you want to win, others will definitely sit on the ground.

There is another problem, that is, when the last time the Shenlang came, it was a lot of them. In the eyes of the gatekeepers and elders of Yuxianmen, they would definitely not pay attention to the waves!

In this case, the downside is that it does not reach the role of deterrence; the benefits are really hands-on, and can achieve better results under the opponent's underestimation.

When the Elder Huoshan appeared, it seemed to be random, but in fact, the station immediately formed an approximately parallelogram with the three of them.

Obviously, he saw Shen Lang as an enemy.

“Mr. Shen is not simple. In a short period of time, he has made great progress and is very happy.” Huoshan elders smiled and congratulated Shen Lang.

This sentence also points out the subtext: I already know that you are strong, don't want to play pigs and eat tigers!

Constantine V was pleased with the fact that Huoshan's attitude towards Shen Lang showed his defense and attention. As long as he can use the relationship of Shen Lang, he can achieve a deterrent balance.

“In the end, our people are cocks, or the faction will fall apart immediately. I will wait for a moment to have an answer!”

The general “we” of Constantine V can be understood as him and Shen Lang, and the proposal to wait and see is naturally a containment.

“Is this lord very confident? Just because several houses were destroyed?” Huoshan taunted the Pope.

The sinking waves of the bow were dark and frowning. The Pope of Constantine V wanted to use him. Of course he would not know. This can not be cheaper, but now it is once again stressed that they have nothing to do with, Wei Qingcheng and Huoshan, certainly will not believe it.

Chapter 1060 - Bringing in the waves

Both Huoshan and Wei Qingcheng are very confident. If it is not because of the scruples of the Pope, and then the changes in Shenlang are discovered, they will not come out in person.

Because the light has reached the equivalent of the realm of the gods, there are at least a hundred or more, even if they have turned over dozens of them, there are nearly a hundred!

Most of them are in the city, and they stayed at the Imperial Camp in Yuxianmen. They are all equivalent to the middle and late stages of the realm of the gods, and there are a few elders and predecessors who have peaked in the realm of the gods.

These people have just been alarmed. Wei Qingcheng has stopped it and has not been attacked in a state of retreat. He is completely afraid of these outsiders.

In terms of quantity, they are fewer, only a few dozen, but they are all elites. For example, if they are not in the late stage of the realm, they can block a group of people in the early days of ordinaryization. .

In the early days of the city, in the early days of the city, just after seeing the spacecraft anomaly, they are also coming over here. Of course, some ordinary disciples with weaker strengths are arranged to lead everyone in the city to close their doors.

To put it simply, the number of monks in the world is large, but the proportion of the early days of the earth's monks is too big. They think that they can win by the number of people, but in fact, it has been prolonged, but the local people will be more dominant.

Therefore, Huoshan is not afraid of knowing the delay time.

“Guidi is far better than our homeland. The comprehensive strength of your party is also very strong. But even if we come from lower-level places, we also have the dignity of practitioners! Let our people be exploited as animals, and they are inhumane, even if they are broken, we Will also be  in the end!”

The Pope of Constantine V, who was a bit old-fashioned, was so impassioned.

Seeing that Shen Lang almost laughed!

This set can be raised in front of young people, or in front of fanatics. But like the big guys who came this time, face and dignity are just an excuse, the key is the benefit!

For the Huoshan elders and the guards of Weiqingcheng, these few mouth guns are not likely to make them feel ashamed and embarrassed.

The battle has begun, there is no need to occupy the moral high ground, it is better than who's fist.

“Do you really want to fight blood in the end?” Huoshan elders stared at him.

“Mr. Shen!” Wei Qingcheng was crying.

It seems that their two thoughts are a staring at the Pope and staring at the waves.

“The last time we treated you above, it is the same now. And you just said that it is a lively event, is this true?”

Although Wei Qingcheng does not believe this, after all, Shen Lang is now standing on top of their spacecraft magic weapon. However, Shen Lang and the five women around did not participate in the battle.

Although he is not very sure of the true strength of Shen Lang, it is obviously not low. If you can open them six, it will be a big enemy!

Shen Lang smiled and was about to respond when Constantine V had already sprung up.

“Master Shen, your followers have been knocked down, and the next step is to be killed!”

He said “1, 2, 4, 4”, and the four of them just joined the battle. Because it is from the same place and the last compatriot, it is even more clumped.

They are the level of the initial state of the gods, and now it is the middle of four people to deal with a realism.

They are not as easy to beat as the two levels of Jingrufeng, but they are better than the four of them.

Just after some fighting, I am sinking... The Pope doesn't know how to sink, but Shen Lang doesn't know that it's one of the two, two, three, and it's being knocked down, and the opponent is approaching the past, preparing Direct kill!

The Pope's sentence immediately revealed several meanings. "Shenlang did not end, but his entourages all came out." "Now the people of Yuxianmen will kill the followers of Shenlang."

This is used to differentiate the relationships they have not yet established, very timely.

Wei Qingcheng's eyes have obviously changed a bit. Since Shen Lang has several followers, they don't shoot a lot, not because they watch the fun, but they just think it's not the time!

That doesn't bring value.

Of course, Shen Lang also paid attention to the situation of 1 2 3 4, but he did not have any feelings for them. It was also done to the best of his kind, and he did not treat them badly, and they have not played any role so far.

Therefore, his level of concern is actually not as good as that of Qiao Yuxian.

But after all, he still recognizes him as the master, but also with his surname, the wounds caused by fighting and revenge, he will not intervene; but he will not watch them being killed!

The five women are also unfamiliar with them. They have never seen them before in Jianzong.

However, their four respectful attitudes towards Shen Lang's masters, of course, were also treated as their own.

They have just been paying attention to the fighting around them, trying to absorb the experience as much as possible. In the battlefield of hundreds of people, few people who are not familiar with it are also observed.

But the problem is coming!

Just when Constantine V opened the reminder of Shen Lang, it was a trick, and it was intended to shock the sound directly to their ears so their attention was attracted. Followed by the situation there.

I don't have to say anything about the wind, and she is the strongest in terms of information and intelligence. However, the combat experience is lacking, and she has just broken through to the early days of the gods and is the weakest among the women. Heartless and powerless.

In addition, several other people, originally, Dorothy prevailed, which is equivalent to the late stage of the gods. After the canoe was returned from the mainland of Nakajima, it was the first time that they had broken through the middle of the gods.

However, after the rain and Zheng Yumeng are super talents, plus the various resources that Shen Lang brought back. The falling rain and the falling canoe combined with the ice-cold practice of the underground palace below the ice palace, both of which broke through the late stage of the transformation.

Zheng Yumeng and Dorothy Silk are following the retreat of Shenlang in the Tianshu world. It is an extra hundred times of cultivation time. Coupled with normal more than half a year, so now Zheng Yumeng has also reached the late stage of the transformation.

The evolution of Dorothy relies on the absorption of a large amount of blood for a long time. Her racial talent makes her the strongest one, which is equivalent to the peak of the gods.

However, among them, only one of them has been here, and she has also seen many superpowers in mainland China, including Gao Hanqiu.

Plus this half year is her complete force in the ice palace, the exercise is more and more stable.

As soon as the problem was discovered, when the faster Dorothy had not responded, her nebula chain had already flown over!

If the canoe is still guarding the words of Shen Lang, it does not interfere – it does not take the initiative to participate, so the nebula chain flies past, not attacking the opponent of the Yuxianmen, but to rescue the injured person who fell to the ground.
