Chapter 110 - Stay with the last seat

In this town, Shen Lang had a good meal and drink, and after a while, he found a car and took a taxi to Yuejia.

He didn't want to go too early, because it was to solve the problem, not to meet the Yue family, and too lazy to socialize so much.

All the way is very fast, there is no traffic jam, when the Yue family, it is already more than seven o'clock in the evening.

Yuejia has a lot of industries in Pingxi, including all aspects of business, all of which are inextricably linked. However, the Yuejia Department is not scattered everywhere, or live together.

This place is the address given by Yue Zhennan. When it came to Shenlang, it was discovered that it was a large house from the outside, and he glanced at it with a panoramic view of the gods. He felt that it was like a community!

Yuejia is not built now, nor is it built. On the basis of the ancestral home with excellent feng shui, it was expanded a little. In the middle of the last century, the Yue family was also in a low-key state. After the reform and opening up, the ancestral heritage made them quickly become the first rich.

For a long time behind, they hoarded the surrounding fields, and then the children of the Yue family, who had separated their families, each built their own house. By the time the economy took off, the environment was relaxed. Yuejia got a wall and circled the houses of the entire Yue family to form a big house.

After that, it was renovated again and again, the ancestral home became more and more grand, and the other became a villa. The Yue family, which is nominally divided into many small families, are all still together.

In order to have a good statement to the outside world, here is a name called "Yuefu Garden". It is a villa residential area, and the villagers of the same surname live. They are all Yuejia.

Before Shen Lang had been to the home of Bai Qiye Bai Shenghua, that is the villa house of a villa, it is already very luxurious, and the value of the land is over 100 million. Yuefu Garden is located in the suburbs of Pingxi City. The land price is not as good as it is, but the area is much larger than that of Baishenghua. The total value will not be less than hundreds of millions.

When he got off the bus, Yue Zhennan had quickly ran over.

“Lang brother, you are finally here!” He apparently had been waiting here for a long time, probably did not dare to urge Shen Lang, so did not call to ask, just to express sincerity here in advance.

Shen Lang nodded.

Yue Zhennan saw him, but he still had a snack and looked at the car. When the car door closed, the driver drove away, and he could not conceal a disappointment.

“go in!”

“Good, good, please, please!”

Yue Zhennan is uplifting and respectfully leads Shen Lang into the Yuefu Garden. It is not an ancient house style, but a modern villa community with a lot of greenery.

“Is it very disappointing?”

“Ah? No, no... Lang brother, you can come, I am very excited and happy, how can I be disappointed.” Yue Zhennan was busy shaking his head.

Shen Lang looked at him and said nothing. Even after seeing his ability, in the end he was too young, regardless of Yue Zhennan or Yue Gang, they thought that there was a wise master behind him.

But he is too lazy to explain that it is enough to help them solve this problem tonight.

Yuezhen South is a building in the center. This is not the style of modern or western-style villas. It is an authentic antique building. This is where the Yue family ancestral home is located. It is now built as a ancestral hall, and it will be concentrated here when it is an important ceremony or a major event.

Now in this ancestral hall, not only are the lights bright, but also many people guard.

Looking at Yuezhennan with a swell of the waves, someone has already ran into it to report something.

Yue Zhennan stopped and explained a bit of awkwardness with Shen Lang: “Lang Ge, the problem tonight is more serious. My father invited friends and relatives, as well as some highly respected people, I hope to be able to mediate. You wait first. If you wait a little while, I will first apologize to you.”

Shen Lang nodded in understanding.

When this happened, he was still in the palace of the King of the Tomb. The Yue family must have their own arrangements. When he contacted Yue Zhennan, the plan was already arranged. More than one, there will be more support, and Yue Gang cannot put the treasure on him.

After a while, the one who came in to the notice came out and nodded to Yue Zhennan, indicating that he could enter with Shen Lang.

Entering the ancestral hall, the atmosphere is a bit solemn. After a spacious, no-person hall, I came to the hall where I was already full of friends.

There are two rows of seats in the upper hall. The above seats are accompanied by Yue Gang, and one is sixty or seventy years old. It should be the elder elder of Yuejia. The seats on both sides are lined up, and they have already sat seven people on each side. The first one is the old man with white beard and white. Everyone is ranked according to the age.

Yue Gang greeted him and held a fist to Shen Lang: “Shen Master, thank you for coming to help the boxing, my Yue family is grateful!”

After I finished speaking, I said softly: “There have been a lot of VIPs who have arrived first, and can only be wronged and you are sitting behind.”

Shen Lang looked at it and nodded unwillingly.

“Nothing, you greet you, even if I come to personally.”

He came with a responsibility, although it cannot be said that it is harmful to him, but it is also indirect. If you don't need him to come out, Yue Jia's help boxing can already be solved, then he is happy.

Because it is already more than seven o'clock, Shen Lang is the last one, and it has attracted everyone's attention. I want to see Yue Zhennan lead the way, Yue Gang has been greeted by the big guys.

I found that it was a young man I had never seen before, and I was too young to be too young. I didn't see it until I was twenty years old Other guests didn't look much more, and continued to whisper and chat.

Yue Gang looked around and wanted to introduce everyone, but don't let the chats avoid, and only gave Shen Lang an apologetic smile.

Shen Lang casually sat down in the chair below his left hand, and someone immediately sent a cup of tea. But the person sitting next to him is talking to the other side of the person, and he doesn't mean to say hello to him.

He didn't take it for granted. He just glanced at it and had already brought everyone in the hall to his eyes. These may have senior qualifications, but the strength is not strong enough!

The battle of Yue Jia tonight is also targeted. In addition to Yue Gang, the main position is another veteran. Yue Qiang Yue Sheng should have other emphasis on them. There is no such presence on such occasions.

When Yue Gang went back to his seat, Yue Zhennan was busy in the ear of Shen Lang, and introduced everyone in the hall in a low voice.

Shen Lang took the initiative to help the boxing, but he could only stay with the last seat, which made him very embarrassed, so he would first plead guilty before coming in. Just as his third generation of younger generation, there is no seat here, no part of it, and he can only retreat first.
